2. [Am'd, 1903.] Where the interest of the infant in being or the contingent interest of an infant not in being, or the interest of an incompetent person require or will be substantially promoted by such disposition, on account of the real property or term, or estate, or other interest in real property being exposed to waste or dilapidation; or being wholly unproductive, or for the purpose of raising funds to preserve or to improve the same, or for other peculiar reasons, or on account of other peculiar circumstances.

3. Where an action might be maintained against the infant or incompetent person, to procure a judgment, directing the conveyance of the real property, or interest in real property, as prescribed in sections twenty-three hundred and forty-five and twenty-three hundred and forty-six of this act.

4. [Added, 1907.] Where the interest of the infant or incompetent person will be substantially promoted by releasing or joining with others in releasing for a valuable consideration the possibility that upon breach of a condition a right of re-entry will vest in or real property will revert to the infant or incompetent person or his heirs solely or in common with others. Such possibility is referred to in the following sections of this title as a possibility of reverter.

S. 53-55, §§ 11, 16, 19, and 22 (2 Edm. 55 and 56); L. 1864, ch. 417, §§ 1 and 5 (6 Edm. 291); L. 1869, ch. 627 (7 Edm. 463); L. 1870, ch. 37 (7 Edm. 584); also, L. 1874, ch. 446, § 38, and id., §§ 6, 9, 17 and 23 (9 Edm. 929, 933), am'd; L. 1875, ch. 574, § 6, and L. 1878, ch. 267, § 2; L. 1893, ch. 639; L. 1903, ch. 154. See L. 1903, ch. 432. Am'd by L. 1907, ch. 49. In effect April 3, 1907. See Rules 55-59.

An application, in either of the cases prescribed, in the last section, must be made by the petition of the general guardian, or the guardian of the property of the infant; or by the committee of the property of the lunatic, or other incompetent person; or by any relative, or other person, in behalf of either. Where the application is in behalf of an infant of the age of fourteen years or upwards, the infant must join therein. Where the application is made to the supreme court, the petition must be presented at a term held within the judicial district, in which the property, or a part thereof, is situated. Where such application affects the interest of an incompetent person who has been committed to a state institution and is an inmate thereof, notice of such application must be given to the superintendent, acting superintendent, or state officer having special jurisdiction over the institution where the incompetent person is confined.

Id., R. S., and laws as in last section; L. 1905, ch. 434. In effect Sept. 1, 1905.

The petition must be verified in like manner as a verified pleading in an action in the supreme court. It must set forth the grounds of the application; and in a case specified in subdivisions first and second of the last section but one, other than a case where the application is made for the sale of an undivided interest of the infant or incompetent person in one or more parcels of land in order to avoid an action of partition on the part of his cotenants, or for the dower of a widow therein, it must also state the particulars and value of the real and personal property, and the amount of the income of the infant or incompetent person; the disposition which has been made of his personal property, and an account of the debts or demands, if any, existing against his estate. In the case above specified where the application is made for the sale of an undivided interest of the infant or incompetent person, the petition must state the particulars and value of the real property in respect to which a sale is desired.

in 2^d ch. § 2351. [Am'd, 1893, 1903, 1907.] Bond of committee of lunatic, et cetera.

An application to sell, mortgage, release or lease real property, or an interest in real property, of a lunatic, idiot or habitual drunkard, cannot be granted, unless a committee of his property has been appointed. Upon such an application, if it is made by the committee, the court must make an order, directing him to file with the clerk, a bond, in such a form, in such an amount, and with such sureties, as it directs, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his trust; for the paying over and investing of, and accounting for, all moneys received by him in the special proceeding, according to the direction of any court having authority to give directions in the premises; and for the observance of the directions of the court, in relation to the trust. If the application is made by any other person, an order must be made thereupon, requiring the committee to show cause why he should not file such a bond. If, after hearing the committee, the court is of the opinion, that there is a probable cause for granting the application, it may make an order, requiring the committee to file such a bond; or, if the committee so elects, or fails to file the bond as directed in the order, it may appoint a suitable person to be the special guardian of the incompetent person, with respect to the proceedings; who must thereupon file such a bond. Where an application is made to release an inchoate right of dower, application must be made by the husband of the lunatic, idiot or habitual drunkard and may be made before or after a committee has been appointed, except that application may be made by the committee of the property of the lunatic, idiot, or habitual drunkard in any case where, at the time of the application, the property to which the inchoate right of dower attaches has already been sold by the husband and the wife has not joined in the conveyance or otherwise released her inchoate right of dower. When the application is made by the husband, the court may appoint him special guardian, and he must file a bond as herein provided.

Upon an application to sell, mortgage release or lease real property or an interest in real property of an infant, the court must appoint a suitable person to be the special guardian of the infant with respect to the proceedings, who must thereupon file with the clerk a bond as prescribed in the last section. Any trust company authorized by the laws of this state to act as general guardian of the estate of an infant without giving security may be appointed such special guardian and in such case the court in the order of appointment may dispense with the giving and filing of any such bond.

L. 1893, ch. 268; L. 1907, ch. 49. In effect April 3, 1907. See § 475.

Upon a breach of the condition of a bond, given as prescribed in either of the last two sections, the court must direct it to be prosecuted for the benefit of the person injured.

§ 2354. [Am'd, 1893.] Reference to inquire into the application.

Upon the presentation of the petition, and the filing of the bond, where the filing of such a bond shall be necessary, the court must make an order appointing a suitable person a referee to inquire into the merits of the application. The referee must examine into the truth of the allegations of the petition; hear the allegations and proofs of all persons interested in the property, or otherwise interested in the application; and report his opinion thereupon, together with the testimony, with all convenient speed.

§ 2355. [Am'd, 1893, 1907.] Final order.

Upon the filing of the referee's report, and after examining into the matter, the court must make a final order upon the application. In a proper case a final order, confirming the referee's report, must direct that the real property or term, estate, possibility of reverter or other interest in real property or a part thereof of an inchoate right of dower therein, as is necessary, or as justice requires, be mortgaged, let for a term of years, sold, released or conveyed by the special guardian, appointed as prescribed in this title, or by the committee of the property of the lunatic or other incompetent person. The final order must also contain such directions, respecting the time, manner and conditions of the sale, release or conveyance directed thereby, as the court thinks proper to insert therein.

Before a sale, mortgage, release, or lease can be made pursuant to the final order, the special guardian or the committee must enter into an agreement therefor, subject to the approval of the court; and must report the agreement to the court under oath. Upon the confirmation thereof by the order of the court, he must execute, as directed by the court, a deed, mortgage, release or lease. Where the final order directs the execution of a conveyance in the first instance, for the purpose of fulfilling a contract, or because the property is held by way of mortgage, or in trust only, the guardian or committee, executing the conveyance, must report the conveyance to the court, under oath.

L. 1893, ch. 639.

Real property, or an interest in real property, shall not be sold, leased, or mortgaged, as prescribed in this title, contrary to the provisions of a will, by which it was devised, or of a conveyance or other instrument, by which it was transferred, to the infant or incompetent person.

§ 2358. [Am'd, 1893, 1906, 1907.] Effect of conveyance, etc.

A deed, mortgage, release, or lease, made in good faith, as prescribed in this title, either upon an application in behalf of the infant or an incompetent person, or pursuant to the directions contained in a judgment rendered against him, has the same validity and effect, as if executed by the person in whose behalf it was executed, and as if the infant was of full age or the lunatic, idiot, or habitual drunkard was of sound mind and competent to manage his or her affairs. And the same shall be valid and effectual to vest in any purchaser or purchasers any interest therein of any infant not in being, at the time of the said sale, and any mortgage so executed shall be a valid lien and charge upon the contingent interest of any infant not in being, at the time of the execution and delivery of the same. And a release of an inchoate right of dower as authorized by this title shall have the same effect as if the wife had joined with the husband in a deed or conveyance of the property affected thereby and had duly acknowledged the same in the manner required by law to pass the estate of married women.

A sale of real property, or of an interest in real property, other than a possibility of reverter of an infant or incompetent person, made as prescribed in this title, does not give to the infant or incompetent person, any other or greater interest in the proceeds of the sale, than he or she had in the property or interest sold. Those proceeds are deemed property of the same nature, as the estate or interest sold, until the infant arrives at full age, or the incompetency is removed. The proceeds of the release of a possibility of reverter shall be deemed and treated as if they were proceeds of real property of which the infant was seized and possessed. If the infant should die before arriving at full age, or the incompetent person should die before the incompetency is removed not leaving any personal property, or not leaving sufficient personal property to pay funeral expenses and expenses that may be necessary or necessarily incurred, then in either or each case the proceeds are to be deemed personal property so far as may be necessary to pay the funeral and other necessary expenses. The proceeds are to be paid upon order of the surrogate's court or court having jurisdiction of the estate of the deceased, to an administrator appointed by the surrogate to administer upon decedent's estate, and after paying all funeral expenses and expenses of administration and any indebtedness, the remainder, if any there be, shall, upon the order of the surrogate, be paid into the hands of the trustee who held the same, to be distributed as the law directs. This act is to include the said proceeds of any infant or incompetent person that has died prior to this amendment, the proceeds now remaining in the hands of a trustee.

§ 2360. Infant deemed a ward of court.

From the time of the filing of a petition, by or in behalf of an infant, praying for an order directing a conveyance, or a sale, mortgage, or lease of his real property, or of an interest in real property, the infant is considered a ward of the court, with respect to that real property or interest, and the income and proceeds thereof.

am. L. 1915

The court must, by order, direct the disposition of the proceeds of such a sale, mortgage, release or lease. It must direct the investment of any portion thereof belonging to the infant or incompetent person, which is not needed for the payment of debts or the safe keeping, of the immediate maintenance and education, of himself or his family, or for the preservation or improvement of his real property or his interest in real property. It must require a report, under oath, of the disposition and investment thereof, to be made as soon as practicable, and must compel periodical accounts to be rendered thereafter by each person, who is intrusted with the proceeds, or any part thereof. Where an inchoate right of dower is released as prescribed in this title and such release is to accompany a sale by the husband of the property to which the inchoate right of dower attaches, the court shall make an order requiring one-third of the amount realized on the sale of the property to which the inchoate right of dower attached to be invested by the special guardian, or paid into the court to be held for the benefit of the husband during his life and upon his death for the benefit of the wife during her life, or the court may direct said amounts to be paid to the husband upon his giving a bond in the penalty of at least double the amount so received for such release, with at least two sureties, who shall justify in double the amount of such penalty, conditioned for the repayment as the court shall direct by his executors or administrators of such amount upon the death of the husband. Where an inchoate right of dower is released as prescribed in this title, and, at the time of the application, the property to which the inchoate right of dower attaches has already been sold by the husband, and the wife has not joined in the conveyance or otherwise released her inchoate right of dower, the court shall make an order that, as the consideration for the release, or as part of the consideration therefor, there be paid to the special guardian or into the court an amount to be fixed by the court as equal to one-third of the fair market value of the property, to be invested by the special guardian or held by the court for the benefit of the person making such payment during the life of the husband, and upon his death for the benefit of the wife during her life, and upon her death to be returned to the person making such payment or to his executors, administrators or assigns; or in lieu of such payment the court may allow a bond to be given in the penalty of at least double the amount so fixed as equal to one-third of the fair market value of the property, with at least two sureties, who shall justify in double the amount of such penalty, conditioned for the payment as the court shall direct, upon the death of the husband leaving the wife surviving, of the said sum so fixed as equal to one-third of the fair value of the property, to be held for the benefit of the wife during her life and upon her death to be returned to the person giving such bond or to his executors, administrators or assigns. In case by any contingency, infants not in being may thereafter become possessed of any interest in said premises so sold, mortgaged or leased, the court, in case of a sale, shall cause the proceeds of the sale, after paying the costs and expenses of the same, to be placed at interest for the benefit of the persons who are, or who may ultimately be entitled to the same, and shall not authorize the distribution of the same in advance of said contingency, except upon a petition of some person entitled thereto, and upon filing a bond in such penalty as the court shall direct, with two or more sureties approved by the court, and conditioned that in case of any contingency by which any infant not then in being shall thereafter become entitled to any of the proceeds of the sale, that said petitioner will pay to said person or persons his or their proportionate share of the money so paid over to said petitioner; and in the case of the mortgaging of said real estate the proceeds of the same, after paying costs and expenses, shall be paid out and disbursed under the direction of the court only for the purpose of paying lawful charges thereon or repairing, improving, building upon or otherwise enhancing in value any real estate so mortgaged as aforesaid.

§ 2362. Particular estates; when included in sale.

Where the real property, or the estate, term or other interest in real property, directed to be sold, is subject, absolutely or contingently, to a right of dower, or an estate for life, or is subject to an estate for years, in the whole or any part thereof, the person, having the prior right or estate, may manifest in writing his consent, either to receive, from the proceeds of the sale, a gross sum, to be fixed according to the principles of law applicable to annuities, in satisfaction of his right or estate; or to have a proportionate share of the proceeds of the sale invested, and the interest thereof paid to him, from the time of the investment, or of the commencement of his right or estate, as justice requires, until the determination of his right or estate. Upon filing the consent with the clerk, the final order may, in the discretion of the court, direct a sale of the entire property, to which the right or estate attaches. In such a case, the court must, after the sale, ascertain the value of the right or interest of the person so consenting; and the final order must either direct the payment, from the proceeds of the sale, of the gross sum so ascertained as the value, or the investment of a just proportion of the proceeds and the payment to him of the interest thereof. But such a gross sum shall not be paid, nor shall such an investment be made, until an effectual release of the right or estate of the person so consenting, executed to the satisfaction of the court, and duly acknowledged or proved, and certified, in like manner as a deed to be recorded in the county, has been filed with the clerk.

2 R. S. 196, §§ 181, 182 (2 Edm. 204); L. 1864, ch. 417 (6 Edm. 292, 293); L. 1874, ch. 446, §§ 13, 15, 16 (9 Edm. 932).

§ 2363. Id.; when belonging to infant, etc.

Where the interest of the infant, or of the lunatic or other incompetent person, consists of a right of dower, or an estate for life, or for years, the final order may authorize the special guardian or committee to join, with the person or persons holding the reversionary estate, in a conveyance of the property to which the interest attaches, so as to release the right of dower, or fully convey the particular estate, on receiving, from the proceeds of the sale, a gross sum, in satisfaction of that interest, or a proportionate part of the proceeds, to be invested until the determination of the particular estate; and, in either case, to be ascertained as prescribed in the last section. Where a proportion of the proceeds is so received by the guardian or committee, for investment, the final order must provide for the investment thereof, until the determination of the particular estate; and then for the payment thereof to the person entitled thereto.

In the application of money, arising from a sale, mortgage or lease, made for the purpose of paying debts, as prescribed in this title, the special guardian of the infant, or the committee of the property of the incompetent person, must pay all debts, in equal proportion, without giving a preference to a debt founded upon a specialty, or upon which judgment has been taken.

TITLE VIII.

Arbitrations.

- Sec. 2365. When submission to arbitration cannot be made.
 2366. What controversies may be submitted, and how.
 2367. Appointment of additional arbitrator, or umpire.
 2368. Time for hearing; adjournment, etc.
 2369. Arbitrators to be sworn.
 2370. Attendance of witnesses, etc.
 2371. All the arbitrators to meet; when majority may award. Fees.
 2372. Award; to be authenticated, etc.
 2373. Motion to confirm award.
 2374. Id.; to vacate award.
 2375. Id.; to modify or correct award.
 2376. Motions; when to be made.
 2377. Costs on vacating award.
 2378. Judgment on award; when and how entered. Costs.
 2379. Judgment-roll.
 2380. Effect of judgment; how enforced.
 2381. Appeal.
 2382. Effect of party's death, lunacy, etc.; proceedings thereupon.
 2383. Revocation of submission.
 2384. Liability of party who revokes.
 2385. Limitation of recovery against him.
 2386. Application of this title.

§ 2365. When submission to arbitration cannot be made.

A submission of a controversy to arbitration cannot be made, either as prescribed in this title or otherwise, in either of the following cases:

1. Where one of the parties to the controversy is an infant, or a person incompetent to manage his affairs, by reason of lunacy, idiocy, or habitual drunkenness.

2. Where the controversy arises respecting a claim to an estate in real property, in fee or for life.

But where a person, capable of entering into a submission, has knowingly entered into the same with a person incapable of so doing, as prescribed in subdivision first of this section, the objection, on the ground of incapacity, can be taken only in behalf of the person so incapacitated. And the second subdivision of this section does not prevent the submission of a claim to an estate for years, or other interest for a term of years, or for one year or less, in real property; or of a controversy respecting the partition of real property between joint tenants or tenants in common; or of a controversy respecting the boundaries of lands, or the admeasurement of dower.

2 R. S. 541, §§ 1 and 2 (2 Edm. 560).

§ 2366. What controversies may be submitted, and how.

Except as otherwise prescribed in the last section, two or more persons may, by an instrument in writing, duly acknowledged or proved, and certified, in like manner as a deed to be recorded, submit to the arbitration of one or more arbitrators, any controversy, existing between them at the time of the submission, which might be the subject of an action. They may, in the submission, agree that a judgment of a court of record, specified in the instrument, shall be rendered upon the award, made pursuant to the submission. If the supreme court is thus specified, the submission may also specify the county in which the judgment shall be entered. If it does not, the judgment may be entered in any county.

Id., part of § 1 and § 9.

Where a submission is made as prescribed in this title, an additional arbitrator or an umpire cannot be selected or appointed, unless the submission expressly so provides. Where a submission, made either as prescribed in this title or otherwise, provides that two or more arbitrators, therein designated, may select or appoint a person as an additional arbitrator or as an umpire, the selection or appointment must be in writing. An additional arbitrator or umpire must sit with the original arbitrators upon the hearing. If testimony has been taken before his selection or appointment, the matter must be reheard, unless a rehearing is waived in the submission, or by the subsequent written consent of the parties, or their attorneys.

§ 2368. Time for hearing; adjournment, etc.

Subject to the terms of the submission, if any are specified therein, the arbitrators, selected as prescribed in this title, must appoint a time and place for the hearing of the matters submitted to them; and must cause notice thereof to be given to each of the parties. They, or a majority of them, may adjourn the hearing from time to time, upon the application of either party, for good cause shown, or upon their own motion; but not beyond the day fixed in the submission for rendering their award, unless the time so fixed is extended by the written consent of the parties to the submission, or their attorneys.

§ 2369. Arbitrators to be sworn.

Before hearing any testimony, arbitrators selected either as prescribed in this title or otherwise must be sworn, by an officer designated in section 842 of this act, faithfully and fairly to hear and examine the matters in controversy, and to make a just award, according to the best of their understanding; unless the oath is waived, by the written consent of the parties to the submission, or their attorneys.

Id., § 4, and part of § 5.

§ 2370. Attendance of witnesses, etc.

The arbitrators, selected either as prescribed in this title, or otherwise, or a majority of them, may require any person to attend before them as a witness; and they have, and each of them has, the same powers, with respect to all the proceedings before them, which are conferred, by the provisions of title second of chapter ninth of this act, upon a board, or a member of a board, authorized by law to hear testimony.

Id., § 6, and part of § 5.

§ 2371. All the arbitrators to meet; when majority may award. Fees.

All the arbitrators, selected as prescribed in this title, must meet together, and hear all the allegations and proofs of the parties; but an award by a majority of them is valid, unless the concurrence of all is expressly required in the submission. Unless it is otherwise expressly provided in the submission, the award may require the payment, by either party, of the arbitrators' fees, not exceeding the fees allowed to a like number of referees in the supreme court; and also their expenses.

2 R. S. 541, § 7.

To entitle the award to be enforced, as prescribed in this title, it must be in writing; and, within the time limited in the submission, if any, subscribed by the arbitrators making it; acknowledged or proved, and certified, in like manner as a deed to be recorded; and either filed in the office of the clerk of the court, in which, by the submission, judgment is authorized to be entered upon the award, or delivered to one of the parties, or his attorney.

Id., § 8, and part of § 9.

At any time within one year after the award is made as prescribed in the last section, any party to the submission may apply to the court, specified in the submission, for an order confirming the award; and thereupon the court must grant such an order, unless the award is vacated, modified or corrected, as prescribed in the next two sections. Notice of the motion must be served, upon the adverse party to the submission, or his attorney, as prescribed by law for service of notice of a motion upon an attorney in an action in the same court. In the supreme court, the motion must be made within the judicial district, embracing the county where the judgment is to be entered.

Id., remainder of § 9.

§ 2374. Id.; to vacate award.

In either of the following cases, the court, specified in the submission, must make an order vacating the award, upon the application of either party to the submission:

1. Where the award was procured by corruption, fraud, or other undue means.

2. Where there was evident partiality or corruption in the arbitrators, or either of them.

3. Where the arbitrators were guilty of misconduct, in refusing to postpone the hearing, upon sufficient cause shown, or in refusing to hear evidence, pertinent and material to the controversy; or of any other misbehavior, by which the rights of any party have been prejudiced.

4. Where the arbitrators exceeded their powers, or so imperfectly executed them, that a mutual, final, and definite award, upon the subject-matter submitted, was not made.

Where an award is vacated, and the time, within which the submission requires the award to be made, has not expired, the court may, in its discretion, direct a rehearing by the arbitrators.

Id., § 10, and part of § 13.

§ 2375. Id.; to modify or correct award.

In either of the following cases, the court, specified in the submission, must make an order modifying or correcting the award, upon the application of either party to the submission:

1. Where there was an evident miscalculation of figures, or an evident mistake in the description of any person, thing, or property, referred to in the award.

2. Where the arbitrators have awarded upon a matter not submitted to them, not affecting the merits of the decision upon the matters submitted.

3. Where the award is imperfect in a matter of form, not affecting the merits of the controversy, and if it had been a referee's report, the defect could have been amended or disregarded by the court.

The order may modify and correct the award, so as to affect the intent thereof, and promote justice between the parties.

2 R. S. 541, §§ 11 and 13.

§ 2376. Motions; when to be made.

Notice of a motion to vacate, modify or correct an award, must be served upon the adverse party to the submission, or his attorney, within three months after the award is filed or delivered, as prescribed by law for service of notice of a motion, upon an attorney in an action. For the purposes of the motion, any judge, who might make an order to stay the proceedings, in an action brought in the same court, may make an order, to be served with the notice of motion, staying the proceedings of the adverse party to enforce the award.

Id., § 12.

Where the court vacates an award, costs, not exceeding twenty-five dollars and disbursements, may be awarded to the prevailing party; and the payment thereof may be enforced, in like manner as the payment of costs upon a motion in an action.

Id., § 19, am'd.

§ 2378. Judgment on award; when and how entered. Costs.

Upon the granting of an order confirming, modifying, or correcting an award, judgment may be entered in conformity therewith, as upon a referee's report in an action, except as is otherwise prescribed in this title. Costs of the application, and of the proceedings subsequent thereto not exceeding twenty-five dollars and disbursements, may be awarded by the court, in its discretion. If awarded, the amount thereof must be included in the judgment.

Id., § 14, am'd.

§ 2379. Judgment-roll.

Immediately after entering judgment, the clerk must attach together and file the following papers, which constitute the judgment-roll:

1. The submission; the selection or appointment, if any, of an additional arbitrator, or umpire; and each written extension of the time, if any, within which to make the award.

2. The award.

3. Each notice, affidavit, or other paper, used upon an application to confirm, modify, or correct the award, and a copy of each order of the court, upon such an application.

4. A copy of the judgment.

The judgment may be docketed, as if it was rendered in an action.

2 R. S. 541, § 15, and part of § 16, am'd.

§ 2380. Effect of judgments; how enforced.

The judgment so entered has the same force and effect, in all respects, as, and is subject to all the provisions of law relating to, a judgment in an action; and it may be enforced, as if it had been rendered in an action in the court in which it is entered.

Id., part of § 16. See § 1270, ante; also, §§ 1240 and 1241.

§ 2381. Appeal.

An appeal may be taken from an order vacating an award, or from a judgment entered upon an award, as from an order or judgment in an action. The proceedings upon such an appeal, including the judgment thereupon, and the enforcement of the judgment, are governed by the provisions of chapter twelfth of this act, as far as they are applicable.

Id., §§ 16, 17, 20 and 21, am'd.

The death of a party to a submission, made either as prescribed in this title or otherwise, or the appointment of a committee of the person or property of such a party, as prescribed in title sixth of this chapter, operates as a revocation of the submission, if it occurs before the award is filed or delivered; but not afterwards. Where a party dies afterwards, if the submission contains a stipulation, authorizing the entry of a judgment upon the award, the award may be confirmed, vacated, modified, or corrected, upon the application of, or upon notice to, his executor or administrator, or a temporary administrator of his estate; or, where it relates to real property, his heir or devisee, who has succeeded to his interest in the real property. Where a committee of the property, or of the person, of a party, is appointed, after the award is filed or delivered, the award may be confirmed, vacated, modified, or corrected, upon the application of, or notice to, a committee of the property, but not otherwise. In a case specified in this section, a judge of the court may make an order, extending the time within which notice of a motion to vacate, modify, or correct the award, must be served. Upon confirming an award, where a party has died since it was filed or delivered, the court must enter judgment in the name of the original party; and the proceedings thereupon are the same, as where a party dies after a verdict.

A submission to arbitration, made either as prescribed in this title or otherwise, cannot be revoked by either party, after the allegations and proofs of the parties have been closed, and the matter finally submitted to the arbitrators for their decision. A revocation, when allowed, must be made by an instrument in writing, signed by the revoking party, or his authorized agent and delivered to the arbitrators, or one of them; and it is not necessary in any case, that the instrument of revocation should be under seal. Any party to a submission may thus revoke it; whether he is a sole party to the controversy, or one of two or more parties on the same side.

12. S. 541, part of § 23.

Where a party expressly revokes a submission, made either as prescribed in this title or otherwise, any other party to the submission may maintain an action against him, and also against his sureties, if any, upon the submission, or any instrument collateral thereto, in which action the plaintiff may recover all the costs and other expenses, and all the damages, which he has incurred in preparing for the arbitration, and in conducting the proceedings to the time of the revocation. Either of the arbitrators may recover, in an action against the revoking party, his reasonable fees and expenses.

Id., part of § 23 and 24.

A sum, penalty, forfeiture, or damages, shall not be recovered for a revocation of a submission to arbitration, made either as prescribed in this title or otherwise, except as prescribed in the last section; notwithstanding any stipulated damages, penalty, or forfeiture, expressed in the submission, or in any instrument collateral thereto.

Id., § 25.

§ 2386. Application of this title.

This title does not affect any right of action in affirmance, disaffirmance, or for the modification of a submission, made either as prescribed in this title or otherwise, or upon an instrument collateral thereto, or upon an award made or purporting to be made in pursuance thereof. And, except as otherwise expressly prescribed therein, this title does not affect a submission, made otherwise than as prescribed therein, or any proceedings taken pursuant to such a submission, or any instrument collateral thereto.

Part of § 23, am'd.

 2409. Application of this title to mortgages to the State.

§ 2387. [Am'd, 1913.] When mortgage may be foreclosed

A mortgage upon real property, situated within the State, containing therein a power to the mortgagee, or any other person to sell the mortgaged property, upon default being made in a condition of the mortgage, may be foreclosed, in the manner prescribed in this title, where the following requisites concur:

1. Default has been made in a condition of the mortgage whereby the power to sell has become operative.
2. An action has not been brought to recover the debt secured by the mortgage, or any part thereof; or, if such an action has been brought, it has been discontinued, or final judgment has been rendered therein against the plaintiff, or an execution, or upon a judgment rendered therein in favor of the plaintiff has been returned wholly or partly unsatisfied.
3. The mortgage has been recorded in the proper book for recording mortgages, in the county wherein the property is situated.

4. The first notice required by subdivision one of the section is published within the time in which an action to foreclose such mortgage.

2 B. S. 545, §§ 1 and 2 (2 Edm. 564). Am'd, L. 1913, ch. 4 effect Sept. 1, 1913.

§ 2388. [Am'd, 1894, 1900, 1905.] Notice of sale; given.

The person entitled to execute the power of sale, must give notice, in the following manner, that the mortgage will be closed, by a sale of the mortgaged property, or a part thereof, at a time and place specified in the notice:

1. A copy of the notice must be published, at least once in each of the twelve weeks, immediately preceding the day of sale, in a newspaper published in the county or in a municipal corporation a part of which is within the county in which the property sold, or a part thereof, is situated.

2. [Am'd, 1904.] A copy of the notice must be fastened to at least eighty-four days before the day of sale, in a conspicuous place, at or near the entrance of the building, where the county court of each county, wherein the property to be sold is situated, is directed to be held; or, if there are two or more such buildings in the same county, then in a like place, at or near the entrance of the building nearest to the property; or, in the city and county of New York, in a like place, at or near the entrance of the building where the trial and special terms of the supreme court of the first judicial district are directed by law to be held.

L. 1904, ch. 49. In effect Sept. 1, 1904.

3. A copy of the notice must be delivered, at least eighty-four days before the day of sale, to the clerk of each county, wherein the mortgaged property, or any part thereof, is situated.

Service of notice of the sale, as prescribed in subdivision fourth of the last section, must be made as follows:

1. Upon the mortgagor, his wife, widow, executor, or administrator, or a subsequent grantee of the property, whose conveyance is upon record, or his wife or widow; by delivering a copy of the notice, as prescribed in article first of title first of chapter fifth of this act, for delivery of a copy of a summons, in order to make personal service thereof upon the person to be served; or by leaving such a copy, addressed to the person to be served, at his dwelling-house, with a person of suitable age and discretion at least fourteen days before the day of sale. If said mortgagor is a foreign corporation, or being a natural person, he, or his wife, widow, executor or administrator, or a subsequent grantee of the property whose conveyance is upon record, or his wife or widow, is not a resident of or within the State, then service thereof may be made upon them in like manner without the State, at least twenty-eight days prior to the day of sale.

2. Upon any other person, either in the same method, or by depositing a copy of the notice in the post-office, properly inclosed in a postpaid wrapper, directed to the person to be served, at his place of residence, at least twenty-eight days before the day of sale.

Id., § 3, am'd; L. 1887, ch. 685.

§ 2390. Duty of county clerk.

A county clerk, to whom a copy of a notice of sale is delivered, as prescribed in subdivision third of the last section but one, must forthwith affix it in a book, kept in his office for that purpose; must make and subscribe a minute, at the bottom of the copy, of the time when he received and affixed it; and must index the notice to the name of the mortgagor.

2 R. S. 545, § 3 in part, as am'd by L. 1857, ch. 308, § 1.

The notice of sale must specify:

1. The names of the mortgagor, of the mortgagee and of each assignee of the mortgage.

2. The date of the mortgage, and the time when, and the place where, it is recorded.

3. The sum claimed to be due upon the mortgage, at the time of the first publication of the notice; and, if any sum secured by the mortgage is not then due, the amount to become due thereupon.

4. A description of the mortgaged property, conforming substantially to that contained in the mortgage.

Id., § 4.

The sale may be postponed, from time to time. In that case, a notice of the postponement must be published, as soon as practicable thereafter, in the newspaper in which the original notice was published; and the publication of the original notice, and of each notice of postponement, must be continued, at least once in each week, until the time to which the sale is finally postponed.

Id., § 5.

The sale must be at public auction, in the day-time, on a day other than Sunday or a public holiday, in the county in which the mortgaged property, or a part thereof, is situated; except that, where the mortgage is to the people of the State, the sale may be made at the Capitol. If the property consists of two or more distinct farms, tracts, or lots, they must be sold separately; and as many only of the distinct farms, tracts, or lots, shall be sold, as it is necessary to sell, in order to satisfy the amount due at the time of the sale, and the costs and expenses allowed by law. But where two or more buildings are situated upon the same city lot, and access to one is obtained through the other, they must be sold together.

Id., § 6, am'd.

The mortgagee, or his assignee, or the legal representative of either, may, fairly and in good faith, purchase the mortgaged property, or any part thereof, at the sale.

Id., § 7.

§ 2395. Effect of sale.

A sale, made and conducted as prescribed in this title, to a purchaser in good faith, is equivalent to a sale, pursuant to judgment in an action to foreclose the mortgage, so far only as to be an entire bar of all claim or equity of redemption, upon, or with respect to, the property sold, of each of the following persons:

1. The mortgagor, his heir, devisee, executor or administrator.
2. Each person claiming under any of them, by virtue of a title or of a lien by judgment or decree, subsequent to the mortgage, upon whom the notice of sale was served, as prescribed in this title.

3. Each person so claiming, whose assignment, mortgage, or other conveyance was not duly recorded in the proper book for recording the same in the county, or whose judgment or decree was not duly docketed in the county clerk's office, at the time of the delivery of a copy of the notice of said sale to the clerk of the county; and the executor, administrator, or assignee of such a person.

4. Every other person, claiming under a statutory lien or incumbrance, created subsequent to the mortgage, attaching to the title or interest of any person, designated in either of the foregoing subdivisions of this section.

5. The wife or widow of the mortgagor, or of a subsequent grantee, upon whom notice of the sale was served as prescribed in this title, where the lien of the mortgage was superior to her contingent or vested right of dower, or her estate in dower.

2 R. S. 545, § 8, am'd; L. 1842, ch. 277, and L. 1844, ch. 346, § 4 (4 Edm. 585, 668).

§ 2396. [Am'd, 1908, 1912.] Affidavit of sale, and of posting, serving, et cetera, notice.

An affidavit of the sale, stating the time when, and the place where, the sale was made; the sum bid for each distinct parcel, separately sold; the name of the purchaser of each distinct parcel; and the name of the person or persons, court officer or other officer, to whom the proceeds of the sale were paid, and the sums thereof must be made by the person who officiated as auctioneer upon the sale. An affidavit of the publication of the notice of sale, and of the notice or notices of postponement, if any, may be made by the publisher or printer of the newspaper in which they were published, or by his foreman or principal clerk. An affidavit of the affixing of a copy of the notice, at or near the entrance of the proper courthouse, may be made by the person who so affixed it, or by any person who saw it so affixed, at least eighty-four days before the day of sale. An affidavit of the affixing of a copy of the notice in the book, kept by the county clerk, may be made by the county clerk, or by any person who saw it so affixed, at least eighty-four days before the day of sale. An affidavit of the service of a copy of the notice upon the mortgagor, or upon any other person, upon whom the notice must or may be served, may be made by the person who made the service. Where two or more distinct parcels are sold to different purchasers, separate affidavits may be made with respect to each parcel, or one set of affidavits may be made for all the parcels.

Id., § 9, and am'd L. 1844, ch. 346; L. 1857, ch. 308, consolidated and am'd. Am'd by L. 1908, ch. 294; L. 1912, ch. 343 in effect Sept. 1, 1912.

§ 2397. [Am'd, 1882.] When one affidavit suffices printed notice to be annexed.

The matters required to be contained in any or all of the affidavits, specified in the last section, may be contained in one affidavit, where the same person deposes with respect to them. A printed copy of the notice of sale must be annexed to each affidavit; and a printed copy of each notice or postponement must be annexed to the affidavit of publication, and to the affidavit of sale. But one copy of the notice suffices for two or more affidavits where they all refer to it and are annexed to each other and filed and recorded together.

2 R. S. 545, part of § 2, am'd.

§ 2398. [Am'd, 1904.] Affidavits may be filed and recorded.

The affidavits specified in the last two sections, may be filed in the office for recording deeds and mortgages, in the county where the sale took place. They must be recorded at length by the officer with whom they are filed, in the proper book for recording deeds. The original affidavits, so filed, the record thereof, and a certified copy of the record, are presumptive evidence of the matters of fact therein stated, with respect to any property sold, which is situated in that county. Where the property sold is situated in two or more counties, a copy of the affidavits, certified by the officer with whom the originals are filed, may be filed and recorded in each other county, wherein any of the property is situated. Thereupon the copy and the record thereof have the like effect, with respect to the property in that county, as if the originals were duly filed and recorded therein.

Id., § 11, am'd, and part of § 12; L. 1904, ch. 679. In effect Sept. 1, 1904.

§ 2399. Note upon record of mortgage.

A clerk or a register, who records any affidavits, or a certified copy thereof, filed with him, must make a note, upon the margin of the record of the mortgage, in his office, referring to the book and page, or the copy thereof, where the affidavits are recorded, id., § 13.

The purchaser of the mortgaged premises, upon a sale conducted as prescribed in this title, obtains title thereto, against all persons bound by the sale, without the execution of a conveyance. Except where he is the person authorized to execute the power of sale, such a purchaser also obtains title, in like manner, upon payment of the purchase-money, and compliance with the other terms of sale, if any, without the filing and recording of the affidavits, as prescribed in the last section but one. But he is not bound to pay the purchase-money, until the affidavits, specified in that section, with respect to the property purchased by him, are filed, or delivered or tendered to him for filing.

Id., § 14, am'd; L. 1833, ch. 266, § 8. See § 2396, ante.

The following costs, in addition to the expenses specified in the next section, are allowed, in proceedings taken as prescribed in this title:

1. For drawing a notice of sale, a notice of the postponement of a sale, or an affidavit, made as prescribed in this title, for each folio, twenty-five cents; for making each necessary copy thereof, for each folio thirteen cents.

2. For serving each copy of the notice of sale, required or expressly permitted to be served by this title, and for affixing each copy thereof, required to be affixed upon the court-house, as prescribed in this title, one dollar.

3. For superintending the sale, and attending to the execution of the necessary papers, ten dollars.

2 R. S. 652, § 4, subd. 1 and 2 and part of subd. 3 (2 Edm. 672), and L. 1844, ch. 349, § 3 (4 Edm. 668).

The sums actually paid for the following services, not exceeding the fees allowed by law for those services, are allowed in proceedings, under as prescribed in this title:

1. For publishing the notice of sale, and the notice or notices of postponement, if any, for a period not exceeding twenty-four weeks.

2. For the services specified in section 2390 of this act.

3. For recording the affidavits; and also, where the property sold is situated in two or more counties, for making and recording the necessary certified copies thereof.

4. For necessary postage and searches.

Id., remainder of § 4.

§ 2403. Taxation thereof.

The costs and expenses must be taxed, upon notice, by the clerk of the county where the sale took place, upon the request and at the expense of any person, interested in the payment thereof. Each provision of this act, relating to the taxation of costs in the supreme court, and the review thereof, applies to such a taxation.

Id., § 3, am'd.

§ 2404. Surplus money to be paid into supreme court.

An attorney or other person who receives any money, arising upon a sale, made as prescribed in this title, must, within ten days after he receives it, pay into the supreme court the surplus, exceeding the sum due and to become due upon the mortgage, and the costs and expenses of the foreclosure, in like manner and with like effect, as if the proceedings to foreclose the mortgage were taken in an action, brought in the supreme court, and triable in the county where the sale took place.

L. 1868, ch. 804, §§ 1, 2 and 4 (7 Edm. 353); L. 1870, ch. 706, § 1 (7 Edm. 770). See §§ 743, 745, ante. See also Rule 64.

§ 2405. Claimant of surplus money to file petition.

A person, who had, at the time of the sale, an interest in or lien upon the property sold, or a part thereof, may, at any time before an order is made, as prescribed in the next section but one, file in the office of the clerk of the county, where the sale took place, a petition stating the nature and extent of his claim, and praying for an order, directing the payment to him of the surplus money, or a part thereof.

A person filing a petition, as prescribed in the last section, may, after the expiration of twenty days from the day of sale, apply to the supreme court, at a term held within the judicial district, embracing the county where his petition is filed, for an order, pursuant to the prayer of his petition. Notice of the application must be served, in the manner prescribed in this act for the service of a paper upon an attorney in an action, upon each person, who has filed a like petition, at least eight days before the application; and also upon each person, upon whom a notice of sale was served, as shown in the affidavit of sale, or upon his executor or administrator. But, if it is shown to the court, by affidavit, that service upon any person, required to be served, cannot be so made with due diligence, notice may be given to him in any manner which the court directs.

L. 1803, ch. 804, part of § 3, am'd.

§ 2407. Order for distribution.

Upon the presentation of the petition, with due proof of notice for application, the court must make an order referring it to a suitable person to ascertain and report the amount due to the petitioner, and to each other person, which is a lien upon the surplus money; and the priorities of the several liens thereupon. Upon the coming in and confirmation of the referee's report, the court must make such an order, for the distribution of the surplus money, as justice requires.

Id., remainder of § 3, am'd.

The last four sections do not apply to surplus money, arising upon the sale of real property, of which a decedent died seized, where letters testamentary or letters of administration, upon the decedent's estate, were, within four years before the sale, issued from a surrogate's court within the State, having jurisdiction to issue them.

L. 1867, ch. 658 (7 Edm. 142); L. 1870, ch. 170 (7 Edm. 684), and L. 1871, ch. 834 (9 Edm. 210). See, also, § 2798, post.

Each county clerk and register in this state, in whose office, affidavits in foreclosure of mortgages by advertisement, or the certified copies thereof, have been or shall be filed and recorded pursuant to the provisions of this title is hereby authorized to deliver the same to the purchaser of the mortgaged property on the foreclosure sale, and such purchaser shall be entitled to such delivery.

Added by L. 1909, ch. 65. Derivation — L. 1900, ch. 223, § 1. See note 16 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

This title does not affect any provision of law, inconsistent therewith, especially relating to the foreclosure of mortgages to the people of the State, or to the commissioners for loaning certain moneys of the United States.

Section 15 of part 3, ch. 8, tit. 15, R. S., am'd.

TITLE X.Proceedings to change the name of an individual or corporation.

Sec. 2410. Petition by individual.

2411. Petition by corporation.

2412. Contents of petition.

2413. Notice of presentation of petition.

2414. Order.

2415. When change to take effect.

2416. Substitution of new name in pending action or proceeding.

2417. Reports by clerks to state officers.

2418. [Repealed.]

A petition for leave to assume another name may be made by a resident of the state to the county court of the county in which he resides, or, if he resides in the city of New York, either to the supreme court, or to the city court of New York. The petition of an infant shall be made by his general guardian, or by the guardian of his person, or by his next friend.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

The petition must be in writing, signed by the petitioner and verified in like manner as a pleading in a court of record, and must specify the grounds of the application, the name, age and residence of the individual whose name is proposed to be changed, and the name which he proposes to assume.

Amended by L. 1909, ch. 65. Also partly repealed by L. 1909, ch. 28. See Consolidated Laws, tit. General Corporation Law, § 61. See note 68 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

It the petition be to change the name of an infant, and is made by the infant's next friend, notice of the time and place when and where the petition will be presented must be served upon the father, or if he is dead or cannot be found, upon the mother, or if both are dead or cannot be found, upon the general guardian or guardian of the person of the infant, in like manner as a notice of a motion upon an attorney in an action, unless it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the infant has no father or mother, or that both reside without the state or cannot be found, and that he has no guardian residing within this state, in which case the court may dispense with notice or require notice to be given to such persons and in such manner as the court thinks proper.

If the court to which the petition is presented is satisfied thereby, or by the affidavit and certificate presented therewith, that the petition is true, and that there is no reasonable objection to the change of name proposed, and if the petition be to change the name of an infant, that the interests of the infant will be substantially promoted by the change, the court shall make an order authorizing the petitioner to assume the name proposed on a day specified therein, not less than thirty days after the entry of the order. The order shall be directed to be entered and the papers on which it was granted to be filed within ten days thereafter in the clerk's office of the county in which the petitioner resides if he be an individual, or in the office of the clerk of the city court of New York if the order be made by that court. Such order shall also direct the publication, within ten days after the entry thereof of a copy thereof in a designated newspaper, in the county in which the order is directed to be entered, at least once.

TITLE XII.Proceedings supplementary to an execution against property.

- Article 1. Proceedings to compel an examination of the judgment debtor, and of his debtor or bailee.
2. The receiver.

ARTICLE FIRST.Proceedings to compel an examination of the judgment debtor, and of his debtor or bailee.

- Sec. 2432. The different remedies under this title.
2433. Nature of the remedies. Review of orders.
2434. What judge may entertain the proceedings.
2435. Order to examine debtor after return of execution.
2436. Id.; before return of execution.
2437. Warrant of arrest instead of order.
2438. Id.; after the order has been made.
2439. Warrant; how vacated, etc.
2440. Undertaking may be required, etc.
2441. Order to examine person having property, etc., of judgment debtor.
2442. Either order may require attendance before a referee.
2443. Reference may be ordered at any time.
2444. Proceedings upon examination; adjournment.
2445. Referee to be sworn.
2446. Order permitting person indebted to pay debt to sheriff.
2447. Order requiring delivery of money or property to sheriff or receiver.
2448. Duty of the sheriff.
2449. How money or property applied to pay the judgment.
2450. Balance to be paid or delivered to judgment debtor, etc.
2451. Judge may enjoin transfer, etc., of property.
2452. Mode of service of certain orders.
2453. Service of a warrant.
2454. How proceedings discontinued or dismissed.
2455. Costs to judgment creditor.
2456. Id.; to judgment debtor, etc.
2457. Disobedience to order; how punished.
2458. Upon what judgment, and to what county, the execution must have issued.
2459. In what county judgment debtor, his bailee, etc., must attend.
2460. No person excused from answering on the ground of fraud.
2461. Proceedings where judgment is against joint debtors.
2462. Proceedings commenced before one judge may be continued before another.
2463. What property cannot be reached.

§ 2432. [Am'd, 1896.] The different remedies under this title.

This title provides for three distinct remedies, as follows:

1. An order made or a warrant issued against a judgment debtor, after return of an execution.
2. An order made, or a warrant issued against a judgment debtor, after the issuing and before the return of an execution.
3. An order, made after the issuing, and either before or after the return, of an execution, against the person who has property of the judgment debtor, or is indebted to him.

The proceedings under subdivision third of this section, may be pursued either alone or simultaneously with the proceedings under subdivision first or subdivision second. The party to whom costs are awarded in a special proceeding shall be entitled to the same remedies under this title, under the same circumstances, as near as may be, as a judgment creditor. And for the purposes on this title, the party to whom such costs are awarded shall be deemed a judgment creditor, and the party against whom they are awarded shall be deemed a judgment debtor.

L. 1896, ch. 176. In effect September 1, 1896. See Tax L., § 259.

Each of those remedies is a special proceeding. But an order, made in the course thereof, can be reviewed only as follows:

1. An order, made by a judge, out of court, may be vacated or modified by the judge who made it, as if it was made in an action; or it, or the order of the judge vacating or modifying it, may be vacated or modified, upon motion, by the court out of which the execution was issued.

§ 2434. [Am'd, 1895, 1897, 1911.] What judge may entertain the proceeding.

Either special proceedings may be instituted before a judge of the court, out of which, or the county judge, the special county judge, or the special surrogate, of the county to which the execution was issued, or where it was issued to the city and county of New York, from a court other than the city court of that city, before a justice of the supreme court for that city and county. Where the execution was issued out of a court other than the supreme court, and it is shown by affidavit that each of the judges before whom the special proceedings might be instituted, as prescribed by this section, is absent from the county, or for any reason, unable or disqualified to act, the special proceedings may be instituted before a justice of the supreme court. In that case, if he does not reside within the judicial district embracing the county to which the execution was issued, the order made or warrants issued by him must be returnable to a justice of the supreme court, residing in that district, or the county judge, or the special judge, or special surrogate, or that of an adjoining county, as directed in the order or warrant. Where the judgment upon which the execution was issued was recovered in a municipal court of the city of New York, either special proceeding shall be instituted before a justice of the city court of the city of New York.

At any time within ten years after the return, wholly or partly unsatisfied, of an execution against property, issued upon a judgment, as prescribed in section 2458 of this act, or, in case of an order, issued in the same manner so far as the provisions of said section can be applied in substance, the creditor under such judgment or order, upon proof of the facts, by affidavit or other competent written evidence, is entitled to an order, requiring the debtor under the judgment or order, to attend and be examined concerning his property, at a time and place specified in the order.

Id., § 292; L. 1896, ch. 176. In effect September 1, 1896. See § 2458, post.

§ 2436. Id.; before return of execution.

At any time after the issuing of an execution against property, as prescribed in section 2458 of this act, and before the return thereof, the judgment creditor, upon proof, by affidavit, or other competent written evidence, that the judgment debtor has property, which he unjustly refuses to apply towards the satisfaction of the judgment, is entitled to an order, requiring the judgment debtor to attend and be examined concerning his property, at a time and place specified in the order.

Co. Proc., § 292, subd. 2.

§ 2437. Warrant of arrest instead of order.

Upon proof entitling a judgment creditor to an order, under either of the last two sections; and also proof, by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the judge, that there is danger that the judgment debtor will leave the State, or conceal himself, and that there is reason to believe that he has property, which he unjustly refuses to apply to the payment of the judgment; the judge may, instead of making an order, issue a warrant under his hand, reciting the facts and requiring the sheriff of any county, where the judgment debtor may be found, to arrest him, and bring him before the same judge, or before another judge, if the case is one where the warrant must be returnable to another judge.

Id., § 292, subd. 4, am'd.

Where the facts, specified in the last section, are made to appear, as therein stated, at any time after the making of an order, requiring the judgment debtor to attend and be examined, and before the close of his examination, the judge may issue a warrant, as therein prescribed; and, if necessary, may direct the adjournment, or, if the return day of the order has elapsed, the continuance of the proceedings under the order, until after the return of the warrant, and his decision thereupon.

§ 2439. Warrant; how vacated, etc.

A warrant, issued as prescribed in the last two sections, may be vacated or modified, as prescribed in section 2433 of this act, with respect to an order.

Where a judgment debtor has been arrested and brought before a judge, by virtue of a warrant, issued as prescribed in this article; and it appears to the satisfaction of the judge, from his examination, or other proof, that there is danger that he will leave the State, or conceal himself, and that he has property, which he has unjustly refused to apply to the satisfaction of the judgment; the judge may make an order, requiring him to give an undertaking, with one or more sureties, in a sum fixed and within a time specified in the order, to the effect, that he will, from time to time, as the judge directs, attend before the judge, or before a referee, appointed or to be appointed in the proceedings; and that he will not, until discharged from arrest by virtue of the warrant, dispose of any of his property, which is not exempted from seizure by section 2403 of this act. If he fails to comply with the order, the judge must forthwith, by warrant, commit him to prison, there to remain until the close of the examination, or the giving of the required undertaking; except that the judge may direct the sheriff to produce him, from time to time, as required in the course of the proceedings.

Co. Proc., part of § 292, subd. 4, am'd.

Upon proof, by affidavit, or other competent written evidence, to the satisfaction of the judge, that an execution against property has been issued, as prescribed in section 2458 of this act, and either that it has been returned wholly or partly unsatisfied, or that it has not been returned; and also that any person or corporation has personal property of the judgment debtor, exceeding ten dollars in value, or is indebted to him in a sum exceeding ten dollars; the judgment creditor is entitled to an order, requiring that person or corporation to attend and be examined concerning the debt, or other property, at a time and place specified in the order. The judge may, in his discretion, require notice of the subsequent proceedings to be given to the judgment debtor, in such a manner as he deems just. But a receiver shall not be appointed without such a notice, except as otherwise prescribed in article second of this title.

Co. Proc., § 294. See § 2458, post.

An order, requiring a person to attend and be examined, made pursuant to any provision of this article, must require him so to attend and be examined, either before the judge to whom the order is returnable, or before a referee designated therein. Where the examination is taken before a referee, he must certify, to the judge to whom the order is returnable, all the evidence and the other proceedings taken before him.

Id., § 296.

§ 2443. Reference may be ordered at any time.

At any stage of the proceedings, the judge to whom the order is returnable may, in his discretion, make an order, directing that any other examination, or testimony, be taken by, or that a question arising be referred to a referee, designated in the order. Where a question is so referred, the referee may be directed to report either the evidence or the facts.

Upon an examination under this article, each answer of a party or witness examined must be under oath. A corporation must attend by, and answer under the oath of, an officer thereof; and the judge may, in his discretion, specify the officer. Either party may be examined as a witness, in his own behalf, and may produce and examine other witnesses, as upon the trial of an action. The judge or referee may adjourn any proceedings, under this article, from time to time, as he thinks proper.

Substituted for Co. Proc., §§ 292 and 296, or such parts thereof as relate to examinations.

Unless the parties expressly waive the referee's oath, a referee, appointed as prescribed in this article, must, before entering upon an examination, or taking testimony, subscribe and take an oath, that he will faithfully and fairly discharge his duty upon the reference, and make a just and true report, according to the best of his understanding. The oath may be administered by an officer designated in section 842 of this act, and must be returned to the judge, with the report or testimony.

See § 1018, ante.

§ 2446. Order permitting person indebted to pay debt to sheriff.

At any time after the commencement of a special proceeding, authorized by this article, and before the appointment of a receiver therein, or the extension of a receivership thereto, the judge, by whom the order or warrant was granted, or to whom it is returnable, may, in his discretion, upon proof, by affidavit, to his satisfaction, that a person or corporation is indebted to the judgment debtor, and upon such a notice, given to such persons, as he deems just, or without notice, make an order, permitting the person or corporation, to pay to a sheriff, designated in the order, a sum, on account of the alleged indebtedness, not exceeding the sum which will satisfy the execution. A payment thus made is, to the extent thereof, a discharge of the indebtedness, except as against a transferee from the judgment debtor, in good faith and for a valuable consideration, of whose rights the person or corporation had actual or constructive notice, when the payment was made.

Co. Proc., § 293, am'd.

Where it appears, from the examination or testimony taken in a special proceeding authorized by this article, that the judgment debtor has, in his possession or under his control, money or other personal property, belonging to him; or that one or more articles of personal property, capable of delivery, his right to the possession whereof is not substantially disputed, are in the possession or under the control of another person; the judge, by whom the order or warrant was granted, or to whom it is returnable, may, in his discretion, and upon such a notice, given to such persons, as he deems just, or without notice, make an order, directing the judgment debtor, or other person, immediately to pay the money, or deliver the articles of personal property, to a sheriff, designated in the order, unless a receiver has been appointed, or a receivership has been extended to the special proceeding, and in that case to the receiver.

§ 2448. Duty of the sheriff.

If the sheriff, to whom money is paid, or other property is delivered, pursuant to an order made as prescribed in either of the last two sections, does not then hold an execution upon the judgment against the property of the judgment debtor, he has the same rights and powers, and is subject to the same duties and liabilities, with respect to the money or property, as if the money had been collected, or the property had been levied upon by him, by virtue of such an execution; except as otherwise prescribed in the next section.

Co. Proc., § 297.

2449. [Am'd, 1892.] How money or property applied to pay the judgment.

After a receiver has been appointed, or a receivership has been extended to the special proceeding, the judge must, by order, direct the sheriff to pay the money or the proceeds of the property, deducting his fees, to the receiver; or, if the case so requires, to deliver to the receiver the property in his hands. But if it appears, to the satisfaction of the judge, that an order, appointing a receiver or extending a receivership, is not necessary, he may by an order reciting that fact, direct the sheriff to apply the money so paid, or the proceeds of the property so delivered, upon an execution in favor of the judgment creditor, issued either before or after the payment or delivery to the sheriff; and a receiver, appointed pursuant to the provisions of this article, may, on leave of a judge having power to appoint such receiver, lease the real property that shall come into his possession for such time as shall be necessary to realize moneys sufficient to satisfy the judgment, with interest thereon and costs of the special proceeding.

Co. Proc., §§ 207 and 298; L. 1892, ch. 292.

Where money is paid, or property is delivered, as prescribed in the last four sections, and afterwards the special proceeding is discontinued or dismissed; or the judgment is satisfied, without resorting to that money or property; or a balance of the money, or of the proceeds of the property, or a part of the property, remains in the sheriff's or the receiver's hands, after satisfying the judgment, and the costs and expenses of the special proceeding; the judge must make an order, directing the sheriff or receiver to pay the money, or deliver the property, so remaining in his hands, to the judgment debtor, or to such other person as appears to be entitled thereto, upon payment of his fees and all other sums legally chargeable against the same.

The judge by whom the order or warrant was granted, or to whom it is returnable, may make an injunction order, restraining any person or corporation, whether a party or not a party to the special proceeding, from making or suffering any transfer or other disposition of, or interference with, the property of the judgment debtor, or the property or debt, concerning which any person is required to attend and be examined until further direction in the premises. Such an injunction order may be made simultaneously with the order or warrant, by which the special proceeding is instituted, and upon the same papers; or afterwards, upon an affidavit, showing sufficient grounds therefor. The judge or the court may, as a condition of granting an application to vacate or modify the injunction order, require the applicant to give security, in such a sum and in such a manner as justice requires.

Co. Proc., §§ 298 and 299, am'd.

§ 2452. Mode of service of certain orders.

An injunction order, or an order requiring a person to attend and be examined, made as prescribed in this article, must be served as follows:

1. The original order, under the hand of the judge making it, must be exhibited to the person to be served.

2. A copy thereof, and of the affidavit upon which it was made, must be delivered to him.

Service upon a corporation is sufficient if made upon an officer, to whom a copy of a summons must be delivered, where a summons is personally served upon the corporation; unless the officer is specially designated by the judge, as prescribed in section 2444 of this act.

Based on 2 R. S. 401, § 44 (2 Edm. 417).

§ 2453. Service of a warrant.

The sheriff, when he arrests a judgment debtor by virtue of a warrant, issued as prescribed in this article, must deliver to him a copy of the warrant, and of the affidavit upon which it was granted.

§ 2454. How proceedings discontinued or dismissed.

A special proceeding, instituted as prescribed in this article, may be discontinued at any time, upon such terms as justice requires, by an order of the judge, made upon the application of the judgment creditor. Where the judgment creditor unreasonably neglects or delays to proceed, or where it appears that his judgment has been satisfied, his proceedings may be dismissed, upon like terms, by a like order, made upon the application of the judgment debtor, or of the plaintiff in a judgment creditor's action against the debtor, or of a judgment creditor who has instituted either of the special proceedings authorized by this article. Where an order appointing a receiver, or extending a receivership, has been made, in the course of the special proceeding, notice of the application for an order specified in this section, must be given, in such a manner as the judge deems proper, to all persons interested in the receivership, as far as they can conveniently be ascertained.

The judge may make an order allowing to the judgment creditor a fixed sum, as costs, consisting of his witnesses' fees and other disbursements, and of a sum, in addition thereto, not exceeding thirty dollars; and directing the payment thereof out of any money which has come, or may come, to the hands of the receiver, or of the sheriff; or, within a time specified in the order, by the judgment debtor, or other person against whom the special proceeding is instituted.

Co. Proc., § 301, in part, am'd.

Where the judgment debtor, or other person against whom the special proceeding is instituted, has been examined and property applicable to the payment of the judgment, has not been discovered in the course of the special proceeding, the judge may make an order, allowing him a like sum as costs; and directing the payment thereof, within a time specified in the order, by the judgment creditor; or, except where it is allowed to the judgment debtor, out of any money which has come, or may come, to the hands of the receiver or of the sheriff.

Id., § 301, in part, am'd.

§ 2457. [Am'd, 1911]. Disobedience to order; how punished.

A person who refuses, or without sufficient excuse neglects, to obey an order of a judge or referee, made pursuant to the last two sections, or to any other provision of this article, and duly served upon him, or an oral direction, given directly to him by a judge or referee, in the course of the special proceedings; or to attend before a judge or referee, according to the command of a subpoena, duly served upon him, may be punished by the judge of or by the court out of which the execution was issued, by the county judge, the special county judge, or the special surrogate of the county to which the execution was issued, or by the city court of the city of New York or a justice thereof, if the proceedings were instituted before such court or any justice thereof, as for a contempt.

Co. Proc., § 302. See § 2286. Am'd by L. 1911, ch. 558, in effect Sept. 1, 1911.

In order to entitle a judgment-creditor to maintain either of the special proceedings authorized by this article, the judgment must have been rendered upon the judgment debtor's appearance or personal service of the summons upon him, for a sum not less than twenty-five dollars or substituted service of the summons upon him in accordance with section four hundred and thirty-six of the code of civil procedure; and the execution must have been issued out of a court of record; and either:

1. To the sheriff of the county where the judgment debtor has, at the time of the commencement of the special proceedings, a place for the regular transaction of business in person; or,

2. If the judgment debtor is then a resident of the state, to the sheriff of the county where he resides; or,

3. If he is not then a resident of the state, to the sheriff of the county where the judgment-roll is filed unless the execution was issued out of a court other than that in which the judgment was rendered, and, in that case, to the sheriff of the county where the transcript of the judgment is filed.

Id., part of § 292. am'd; L. 1897, ch. 189. In effect Sept. 1, 1897.

§ 2459. In what county judgment debtor, his bailee, etc., must attend.

If the judgment debtor, or other person, required to attend and be examined, as prescribed in this article, or the officer of a corporation, required to attend in its behalf, is, at the time of the service of the order upon him, a resident of the State, or then has an office within the State, for the regular transaction of business, in person, he cannot be compelled to attend, pursuant to the order, or to any adjournment, at a place without the county wherein his residence or place of business is situated.

A party or a witness, examined in a special proceeding, authorized by this article, is not excused from answering a question, on the ground that his examination will tend to convict him of the commission of a fraud; or to prove that he has been a party or privy to, or knowing of, a conveyance, assignment, transfer, or other disposition of property for any purpose; or that he or another person claims to be entitled, as against the judgment creditor, or a receiver appointed or to be appointed in the special proceeding, to hold property, derived from or through the judgment debtor, or to be discharged from the payment of a debt which was due to the judgment debtor, or to a person in his behalf. But an answer cannot be used, as evidence against the person so answering in a criminal action or criminal proceeding.

§ 2461. [Am'd, 1900.] Proceedings where judgment is against joint debtors.

When the execution was issued as prescribed in section nineteen hundred and thirty-four or section nineteen hundred and forty-one of this act, a debt due to, or other personal property owned by, one or more of the defendants not summoned, jointly with the defendants summoned, or with any of them, may be reached by a special proceeding, instituted as prescribed in this article, and founded upon the judgment.

Id., § 204, am'd. See § 1871, ante. L. 1900, ch. 217. In effect Sept. 1, 1900.

§ 2462. Proceedings commenced before one judge may be continued before another.

Sections 26, 52, and 279 of this act apply to a special proceeding, instituted as prescribed in this article; and the judge before whom it is continued, as prescribed in either of those sections, is deemed to be the judge to whom an order or warrant is returnable, for the purpose of any provision of this or the next article.

§ 2463. [Am'd, 1886, 1908.] What property cannot be reached.

This article does not authorize the seizure of, or other interference with, any property which is expressly exempt by law from levy and sale by virtue of an execution; or any money, thing in action or other property held in trust for a judgment debtor, where the trust has been created by, or the fund so held in trust has proceeded from, a person other than the judgment debtor; or the earnings of the judgment debtor for his personal services rendered within sixty days next before the institution of the special proceeding; when it is made to appear by his oath or otherwise, that those earnings are necessary for the use of a family, wholly or partly supported by his labor.

L. 1886, ch. 26. Am'd by L. 1908, ch. 278. In effect Sept. 1, 1908. See § 1812; Tax L., § 259.

ARTICLE SECOND.

The receiver.

Sec. 2464. When and how receiver may be appointed.

2465. Notice to other creditors.

2466. Only one receiver to be appointed. Former receivership may be extended.

2467. Order to be filed and recorded.

2468. When property is vested in receiver.

2469. How receiver's title to personal property extended by relation.

2470. County clerk to record orders, etc.; penalty for neglect.

2471. Receiver to be subject to control of court.

§ 2464. When and how receiver may be appointed.

At any time after making an order, requiring the judgment debtor, or any other person, to attend and be examined, or issuing a warrant, as prescribed in article first of this title, the judge to whom the order or warrant is returnable may make an order, appointing a receiver of the property of the judgment debtor. At least two days' notice of the application for the order appointing a receiver, must be given personally to the judgment debtor, unless the judge is satisfied that he cannot, with reasonable diligence, be found within the State; in which case, the order must recite that fact, and may dispense with notice, or may direct notice to be given in any manner which the judge thinks proper. But where the order to attend and be examined, or the warrant, has been served upon the judgment debtor, a receiver may be appointed upon the return day thereof, or at the close of the examination, without further notice to him.

Co. Proc., § 298.

The judge must ascertain, if practicable, by the oath of the judgment debtor, or otherwise, whether an action, specified in article first of title fourth of chapter fifteenth of this act, or a special proceeding instituted as prescribed in article first of this title, is pending against the judgment debtor. If either is pending, and a receiver has not been appointed therein, notice of the application for the appointment of a receiver, and of all the subsequent proceedings respecting the receivership, must be given, in such a manner as the judge directs, to the judgment creditor prosecuting it.

Id., part of § 298.

§ 2466. Only one receiver to be appointed. Former receivership may be extended.

Only one receiver of the property of a judgment debtor shall be appointed. Where a receiver thereof has already been appointed, the judge, instead of making the order prescribed in the last section but one, must make an order, extending the receivership to the special proceeding before him. Such an order gives to the judgment creditor the same rights as if a receiver was then appointed upon his application; including the right to apply to the court to control, direct, or remove the receiver, or to subordinate the proceedings in or by which the receiver was appointed, to those taken under his judgment.

Id., part of § 298. See Rules 84 and 85.

§ 2467. Order to be filed and recorded.

An order appointing a receiver, or extending a receivership, must be filed in the office of the clerk of the county, wherein the judgment-roll in the action is filed; or, if the special proceeding is founded upon an execution issued out of a court, other than that in which the judgment was rendered, in the office of the clerk of the county, wherein the transcript of the judgment is filed.

Co. Proc., part of § 298.

§ 2468. When property is vested in receiver.

The property of the judgment debtor is vested in a receiver, who has duly qualified, from the time of filing the order appointing him, or extending his receivership, as the case may be; subject to the following exceptions:

1. Real property is vested in the receiver, only from the time when the order, or a certified copy thereof, as the case may be, is filed with the clerk of the county where it is situated.

2. Where the judgment debtor, at the time when the order is filed, resides in another county of the State, his personal property is vested in the receiver only from the time when a copy of the order, certified by the clerk in whose office it is recorded, is filed with the clerk of the county where he resides.

§ 2469. How receiver's title to personal property extended by relation.

Where the receiver's title to personal property has become vested, as prescribed in the last section, it also extends back by relation, for the benefit of the judgment creditor in whose behalf the special proceeding was instituted as follows:

1. Where an order, requiring the judgment debtor to attend and be examined, or a warrant, requiring the sheriff to arrest him and bring him before the judge, has been served, before the appointment of the receiver, or the extension of the receivership, the receiver's title extends back, so as to include the personal property of the judgment debtor, at the time of the service of the order or warrant.

2. Where an order or warrant has not been served, as specified in the foregoing subdivision, but an order has been made, requiring a person to attend and be examined, concerning property belonging, or a debt due, to the judgment debtor, the receiver's title extends to the personal property belonging to the judgment debtor, which was in the hands, or under the control, of the person or corporation thus required to attend, at the time of the service of the order; and to a debt then due to him from that person or corporation.

3. In every other case where notice of the application for the appointment of the receiver was given to the judgment debtor, the receiver's title extends to the personal property of the judgment debtor, at the time when the notice was served, either personally or by complying with the requirements of an order, prescribing a substitute for personal service.

4. Where the case is within two or more of the foregoing subdivisions of this section, the rule most favorable to the judgment creditor must be adopted.

5. [Added, 1892.] No person shall be appointed a receiver in this State who is not a resident thereof, nor shall any person continue to act as receiver after he ceases to be a resident thereof, and the judgment creditor may apply to the court or judge that appointed such receiver, within thirty days after said receiver ceases to be a resident of this State, for the appointment of another person in his place, upon such notice to the persons interested as the court or judge may direct.

But this section does not affect the title of a purchaser in good faith, without notice, and for a valuable consideration; or the payment of a debt in good faith, and without notice.

Each county clerk must keep in his office a book, indexed to the names of the judgment debtors, styled "book of orders appointing receivers of judgment debtors". A county clerk, in whose office an order or a certified copy of an order is filed, as prescribed in section 2467 or section 2468 of this act, must immediately note thereupon the time of filing it, and, as soon as practicable, must record it, in the book so kept by him. He must also, upon request, furnish forthwith to any party or person interested, one or more certified copies thereof. For each omission to comply with any provision of this section, a county clerk forfeits, to the party aggrieved, two hundred and fifty dollars, in addition to all damages sustained by reason of the omission..

Co. Proc., § 298. See §§ 1247 and 1248, ante.

§ 2471. [Am'd, 1913.] Receiver to be subject to control of court.

A receiver, appointed as prescribed in this article, is subject to the direction and control of the court out of which the execution was issued, except where a receiver is appointed by the city court of the city of New York or a justice thereof, he is subject to the direction and control of the city court or a justice thereof. Where an order has been made, extending a receivership to a special proceeding founded upon a subsequent judgment, the control over, and direction of, the receiver, with respect to that judgment, remain in the court to whose control and direction he was originally subject.

Am'd, L. 1913, ch. 480. In effect Sept. 1, 1913.

TITLE XIII.

Proceedings to compel the delivery of books to a public officer.

Sec. 2471a. Delivery of books and papers, how enforced.

§ 2471a. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 51. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Public Officers Law, § 80.]

CHAPTER XVIII.

Surrogates' Courts, and Proceedings Therein.

- TITLE I.—Organization, Jurisdiction, and Powers of the Court. Duties, Powers, and Disabilities of the Surrogate, and the Officers of the Court. Miscellaneous Provisions.
- TITLE II.—Provisions Relating Generally to the Proceedings in Surrogates' Courts, and to Appeals from these Courts.
- TITLE III.—Granting and Revoking Probate. Letters Testamentary, and Letters of Administration. Foreign Wills; Ancillary Letters.
- TITLE IV.—Proceedings by or against an Executor or Administrator, Touching the Administration and Settlement of the Estate.
- TITLE V.—Disposition of the Decedent's Real Property, for the Payment of Debts and Funeral Expenses. Distribution of the Proceeds.
- TITLE VI.—Provisions Relating to a Testamentary Trustee.
- TITLE VII.—Provisions Relating to a Guardian.

TITLE I.

Organization, jurisdiction, and powers of the court. Duties, powers, and disabilities of the surrogate, and the officers of the court. Miscellaneous provisions.

- Article 1. Jurisdiction of the court, and authority of the surrogate.
2. General duties and disabilities of the surrogate, or temporary surrogate.
3. Clerks; stenographers; miscellaneous provisions.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Jurisdiction of the court, and authority of the surrogate.

- Sec. 2472. General jurisdiction of surrogate's court.
2473. Presumption of jurisdiction.
2474. Jurisdiction not lost by defect in record.
2475. Effect of exercise of jurisdiction.
2476. Exclusive jurisdiction.
2477. Concurrent jurisdiction of two or more surrogates.
2478. Jurisdiction, how affected by locality of debts.
2479. Jurisdiction in new or altered county.
2480. Id.; transfer of proceedings to proper county.
2481. Incidental powers of the surrogate.
2482. Application of chapter; confirmation of previous acts.

Each surrogate must hold, within his county, a court, which has, in addition to the powers conferred upon it, or upon the surrogate, by special provision of law, jurisdiction, as follows:

1. To take the proof of wills; to admit wills to probate; to revoke the probate thereof; and to take and revoke probate of heirship.
2. To grant and revoke letters testamentary and letters of administration, and to appoint a successor in place of a person whose letters have been revoked.
3. To direct and control the conduct, and settle the accounts, of executors, administrators, and testamentary trustees; to remove testamentary trustees, and to appoint a successor in place of a testamentary trustee so removed.

4. To enforce the payment of debts and legacies; the distribution of the estates of decedents; and the payment or delivery, by executors, administrators, and testamentary trustees, of money or other property in their possession, belonging to the estate.

5. To direct the disposition of real property, and interests in real property, of decedents, for the payment of their debts and funeral expenses, and the disposition of the proceeds thereof.

6. To administer justice, in all matters relating to the affairs of decedents, according to the provisions of the statutes relating thereto.

7. To appoint and remove guardians for infants: to compel the payment and delivery by them of money or other property belonging to their wards; and, in the cases specially prescribed by law, to direct and control their conduct, and settle their accounts.

8. [Added, 1903.] To settle the accounts of a father, mother or other relative having the rights, powers and duties of a guardian in socage, and to compel the payment and delivery of money or other property belonging to the ward.

This jurisdiction must be exercised in the cases, and in the manner, prescribed by statute.

2 R. S. 220, § 1 (2 Edm. 229); also L. 1874, ch. 267 (9 Edm. 884).

The surrogate's court has also jurisdiction upon a judicial accounting or a proceeding for the payment of a legacy to ascertain the title to any legacy or distributive share, to set off a debt against the same and for that purpose ascertain whether the debt exists, to affect the accounting party with a constructive trust, and to exercise all other power, legal or equitable, necessary to the complete disposition of the matter. He must order the trial of any controverted question of fact of which either party has constitutional right of trial by jury and seasonably demands the same.

Where the jurisdiction of a surrogate's court to make, in a case specified in the last two sections, a decree or other determination, is drawn in question collaterally, and the necessary parties were duly cited or appeared, the jurisdiction is presumptively, and, in the absence of fraud or collusion, conclusively, established, by an allegation of the jurisdictional facts, contained in a written petition or answer, duly verified, used in the surrogate's court. The fact that the parties were duly cited is presumptively proved, by a recital to that effect in the decree.

§ 2474. Jurisdiction not lost by defect in record.

The surrogate's court obtains jurisdiction in every case by the existence of the jurisdictional facts prescribed by statute, and by the citation or appearance of the necessary parties. An objection to a decree or other determination, founded upon an omission therein, or in the papers upon which it was founded, of the recital or proof of any fact necessary to jurisdiction, which actually existed, or the failure to take any intermediate proceeding, required by law to be taken, is available only upon appeal. But, for the better protection of any party, or other person interested, the surrogate's court may, in its discretion, allow such a defect to be supplied by amendment.

L. 1869, ch. 290, § 1 (7 Edm. 433); L. 1870, ch. 359, § 1, and L. 1872, ch. 92 (9 Edm. 327).

Jurisdiction, once duly exercised over any matter, by a surrogate's court, excludes the subsequent exercise of jurisdiction by another surrogate's court, over the same matter, and all its incidents, except as otherwise specially prescribed by law. Where a guardian has been duly appointed by, or letters testamentary or of administration have been duly issued from, or any other special proceeding has been duly commenced in, a surrogate's court having jurisdiction, all further proceedings, to be taken in a surrogate's court, with respect to the same estate or matter, must be taken in the same court.

2 R. S. 222, § 12 (2 Edm. 232); 2 R. S. 61, § 28 (2 Edm. 61); 2 R. S. 117, 124 (2 Edm. 121).

§ 2476. Exclusive jurisdiction.

The surrogate's court of each county has jurisdiction, exclusive of every other surrogate's court, to take the proof of a will, and to grant letters testamentary thereupon, or to grant letters of administration, as the case requires, in either of the following cases:

1. Where the decedent was, at the time of his death, a resident of that county, whether his death happened there or elsewhere.

2. Where the decedent, not being a resident of the State, died within that county, leaving personal property within the State, or leaving personal property which has, since his death, come into the State, and remains unadministered.

3. Where the decedent, not being a resident of the State, died without the State, leaving personal property within that county, and no other; or leaving personal property which has, since his death, come into that county, and no other, and remains unadministered.

4. Where the decedent was not, at the time of his death, a resident of the State, and a petition for probate of his will, or for a grant of letters of administration, under subdivision second or third of this section, has not been filed in any surrogate's court; but real property of the decedent, to which the will relates, or which is subject to disposition under title fifth of this chapter, is situated within that county, and no other.

2 R. S. 73, § 23 (2 Edm. 75); L. 1837, ch. 460, § 1 (4 Edm. 486). See § 2503.

§ 2477. Concurrent jurisdiction of two or more surrogates.

Where personal property of the decedent is within, or comes into two or more counties, under the circumstances specified in subdivision third of the last section; or real property of the decedent is situated in two or more counties, under the circumstances specified in subdivision fourth of the last section; the surrogate's courts of those counties have concurrent jurisdiction, exclusive of every other surrogate's court, to take the proof of the will and grant letters testamentary thereupon, or to grant letters of administration, as the case requires. But where a petition for probate of a will, or for letters of administration, has been duly filed in either of the courts so possessing concurrent jurisdiction, the jurisdiction of that court excludes that of the other.

§ 2478. Jurisdiction, how affected by locality of debts.

For the purpose of conferring jurisdiction upon a surrogate's court, a debt, owing to a decedent by a resident of the State, is regarded as personal property, situated within the county where the debtor, or either of two or more joint debtors, resides; and a debt, owing to him by a domestic corporation, is regarded as personal property, situated within the county where the principal office of the corporation is situated. But the foregoing provision does not apply to a debt evidenced by a bond, promissory note, or other instrument for the payment of money only, in terms negotiable, or payable to the bearer or holder. Such a debt, whether the debtor is a resident or a non-resident of the State, or a foreign or a domestic government, State, county, public officer, association, or corporation, is, for the purpose of so conferring jurisdiction, regarded as personal property, at the place where the bond, note, or other instrument is, either within or without the State.

§ 2479. [Am'd, 1883.] Jurisdiction in new or altered county.

Where a new county has been heretofore, or is hereafter erected, or territory has been heretofore, or is hereafter transferred from one county to another, the jurisdiction of the surrogate's court of each of the counties affected thereby, to take the proof of a will, or to grant letters, depends upon the locality, when the petition is presented, of the place, where the property of the decedent is situated, or where the event occurred, as the case may be, which determines jurisdiction. If, before the erection of the new county, or the transfer of the territory, letters have been granted, upon the ground that the decedent died or resided within the county, the surrogate's court from which they were issued, has exclusive jurisdiction of the estate, and of all matters incidental thereto; and if the place where the decedent died or resided is embraced within another county, certified copies of any papers or proceedings, filed, entered, or recorded in the surrogate's court thereof, must be furnished, on the payment of the fees therefor, by the proper officer, to any person interested in the estate; and, upon the latter's request and payment of the fees therefor, the proper officer of the court so having jurisdiction must file, enter, or record the same, in like manner and with like effect as the originals. Where the letters were granted upon any ground, other than the decedent's death or residence within the county, the jurisdiction of the court from which they were issued, remains unaffected by any change in the territorial limits of its county.

L. 1870, ch. 20, §§ 1 and 2 (7 Edm. 582); L. 1883, ch. 56.

§ 2480. Id.: transfer of proceedings to proper county.

A special proceeding pending in a surrogate's court, whose jurisdiction to entertain the same is taken away by the provisions of the last section, or in consequence of the erection of a new county, or the alteration of the territorial limits of a county, after this act takes effect, must be transferred, by order of the court in which it is pending, to the surrogate's court having jurisdiction; and the latter court has the same jurisdiction, power, and authority with respect thereto, which the former court would have had, if the territorial limits of its county had not been changed.

§ 2481. [Am'd, 1909.] Incidental powers of the surrogate.

A surrogate, in court or out of court, as the case requires, has power:

1. To issue citations to parties, in any matter within the jurisdiction of his court; and, in a case prescribed by law, to compel the attendance of a party.

2. To adjourn, from time to time, a hearing or other proceeding in his court; and where all persons who are necessary parties have not been cited or notified, and citation or notice has not been waived by appearance or otherwise, it is his duty, before proceeding further, so to adjourn the same, and to issue a supplemental citation, or require the petitioner to give an additional notice, as may be necessary.

3. To issue, under the seal of the court, a subpoena, requiring the attendance of a witness, residing or being in any part of the State; or a subpoena duces tecum, requiring such attendance, and the production of a book or paper material to an inquiry pending in the court.

4. To enjoin, by order, an executor, administrator, testamentary trustee or guardian, to whom a citation or other process has been duly issued from his court, from acting as such, until the further order of the court.

5. To require, by order, an executor, administrator, testamentary trustee, or guardian, subject to the jurisdiction of his court, to perform any duty imposed upon him, by statute, or by the surrogate's court, under authority of a statute.

6. To open, vacate, modify, or set aside, or to enter, as of a former time, a decree or order of his court; or to grant a new trial or a new hearing for fraud, newly discovered evidence, clerical error, or other sufficient cause. The powers conferred by this subdivision, must be exercised only in a like case and in the same manner, as a court of record and of general jurisdiction exercises the same powers. Upon an appeal from a determination of the surrogate, made upon an application pursuant to this subdivision, the general term of the supreme court has the same power as the surrogate; and his determination must be reviewed, as if an original application was made to that term.

7. To punish any person for a contempt of his court, civil or criminal, in any case where it is expressly prescribed by law that a court of record may punish a person for a similar contempt, in like manner.

8. Subject to the provisions of law, relating to the disqualification of a judge in certain cases, to complete any unfinished business, pending before his predecessor in the office, including proofs, accountings, and examinations.

9. To complete, and certify and sign in his own name, adding to his signature the date of so doing, all records or papers, left uncompleted or unsigned by any of his predecessors.

10. To exemplify and certify transcripts of all records of his court, or other papers remaining therein.

11. With respect to any matter not expressly provided for in the foregoing subdivisions of this section, to proceed, in all matters subject to the cognizance of his court, according to the course and practice of a court, having, by the common law, jurisdiction of such matters, except as otherwise prescribed by statute; and to exercise such incidental powers, as are necessary to carry into effect the powers expressly conferred.

2 R. S. 221, §§ 6 and 11 (2 Edm. 230, 231); L. 1837, ch. 460, § 6 (4 Edm. 488); id., § 61 (4 Edm. 497); L. 1870, ch. 74, § 2 (7 Edm. 501); L. 1871, ch. 424, § 2, and L. 1874, ch. 9 (9 Edm. 849).

12. A surrogate or a clerk of the surrogate's court has power to administer oaths, to take affidavits and the proof and acknowledgment of deeds and all other instruments in writing, and certify the same with the same force and effect as if taken and certified by a county judge.

This subdivision added by L. 1900, ch. 65. Derivation — L. 1884, ch. 309, § 1, as amended by L. 1900, ch. 510, § 1. See note 17 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

Each provision of this chapter, relating to the jurisdiction of the surrogate's court, to take the proof of a will, and to grant letters testamentary or letters of administration, or regulating the mode of proceeding in any matter connected with the estate of a decedent, applies, unless otherwise expressly declared therein, whether the will was made, or the decedent died, before or after this chapter takes effect. All acts hitherto of surrogates and officers acting as such in completing by certifying in their own names any uncertified wills, and by signing and certifying in their own names, the unsigned and uncertified records of wills and of other proofs and examinations taken in the proceedings of probate thereof, before their predecessors in office, are hereby confirmed and declared to be valid and in full compliance with the pre-existing statutory requirements.

L. 1893, ch. 686.

ARTICLE SECOND.General duties and disabilities of the surrogate or temporary surrogate.

- Sec. 2488. Surrogate and acting surrogate; their official designations.
2489. Vacancy or disability; who to act as surrogate.
2490. If surrogate disqualified, who to act.
2491. Id.; in New York county.
2492. Proof of authority.
2493. Id.; when and how made.
2494. How authority superseded.
2495. Proceedings in New-York and Kings counties regulated.
2496. Id.; transfer of proceedings to surrogate's court.
2497. Temporary surrogate; when board of supervisors may appoint.
2498. Id.; compensation.
2499. Id.; acts, etc., where and how recorded.
2500. Surrogate, when not to be counsel.
2501. Surrogate, when disqualified.
2502. Disqualification; when objection must be taken.
2503. Books to be kept by surrogate.
2504. Papers and books to be preserved and bonds filed.
2505. When fees not to be charged.
2506. Books for recording instruments settling estates, etc.
2507. What papers to be transmitted to secretary of State; expenses thereof.

Where the county judge is also surrogate, he may be designated, in any paper or proceeding relating to the office of surrogate, as the surrogate of the county, without any addition referring to his office as county judge. A local officer elected, as prescribed in the constitution, to discharge the duties of surrogate, or of county judge and surrogate, is designated in this act, and, when acting as surrogate, may be designated as the "special surrogate" of his county. Where an officer, other than the surrogate, acts as surrogate in a case prescribed by law, he must be designated by his official title, with the addition of the words, "and acting surrogate."

L. 1853, ch. 648 (4 Edm. 509); L. 1871, ch. 859, § 7 (9 Edm. 214).

§ 2484. [Am'd, 1893.] Vacancy or disability; who to act as surrogate.

Where in any county, except New York, the office of surrogate is vacant; or the surrogate is disabled by reason of sickness, absence, or lunacy, and special provision is not made by law for the discharge of the duties of his office in that contingency: the duties of his office must be discharged until the vacancy is filled or the disability ceases, as follows:

1. By the special surrogate.
2. If there is no special surrogate, or he is in like manner disabled, or is precluded or disqualified, by the special county judge.
3. If there is no special county judge, or he is in like manner disabled, or is precluded or disqualified, by the county judge.
4. If there is no county judge, or he is in like manner disabled, or is precluded or disqualified, by the district attorney.

But before an officer is entitled to act, as prescribed in this section, proof of his authority to act as prescribed in section twenty-four hundred and eighty-seven of this act must be made.

In any proceeding in the surrogate's court of the county of Kings, before either of the officers authorized in this section to discharge the duties of the office of surrogate of such county for the time being, if an issue is joined or a contest arises either on the facts or the law, such officer, in his discretion, may, by order, transfer such cases to the supreme court to be heard and decided at a special term thereof, held in such county, which order shall be recorded in the surrogate's office. A certified copy of such order, together with the appropriate certificate or certificates of the authority of the officer to act as surrogate, shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of the jurisdiction and authority of the supreme court in such matter or cause. After a final order or decree is made in the matter or cause so transferred to the supreme court, the court shall direct the papers to be returned and filed, and transcripts of all orders and decrees made therein to be recorded in the surrogate's office of such county; and when so filed and recorded, they shall have the same effect as if they were filed and recorded in a case pending in the surrogate's court of such county.

L. 1893, ch. 686.

Where the surrogate of any county, except New York is precluded or disqualified from acting with respect to any particular matter, his jurisdiction and powers with respect to that matter vest in the several officers designated in the last section, in the order therein provided for. If there is no such officer qualified to act therein, the surrogate may file in his office a certificate, stating that fact; specifying the reason why he is disqualified or precluded; and designating the surrogate of an adjoining county, other than New York, to act in his place in the particular matter. The surrogate so designated has, with respect to that matter, all the jurisdiction and powers of the surrogate making the designation, and may exercise the same in either county.

L. 1893, ch. 686.

In the county of New York, the supreme court, at a special term thereof, on the presentation of proof of its authority, as prescribed in the next section, must exercise all the powers and jurisdiction of the surrogate's court, as follows:

1. Where the surrogate is precluded or disqualified from acting, with respect to a particular matter, it must exercise all the powers and jurisdiction of that court with respect to that matter.

2. Where the office of surrogate of the county is vacant, or the surrogate is disabled by reason of sickness, absence or lunacy, it must exercise all the powers and jurisdiction of that court, until the vacancy is filled or the disability ceases, as the case may be.

L. 1893, ch. 686; L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 2497. [Am'd, 1895.] Proof of authority.

The authority of another officer, or, in the county of New York, of the supreme court, to act as prescribed in the last three sections, must be proved, in one of the following modes:

1. Where the surrogate is disqualified, or precluded from acting in a particular matter, that fact may be proved by the surrogate's certificate thereof; or, except as otherwise prescribed in section 2480, by affidavit or oral testimony.

2. The fact that the surrogate is so disqualified or precluded, or that he is disabled, or that the office is vacant, and also the authority of the officer, or of the court, as the case may be, to act in his place, may be proved, and are deemed conclusively established, by an order of a justice of the supreme court of the judicial district embracing the county. After such an order is made, the surrogate shall not make the certificate specified in section 2485 of this act, and if such a certificate has been theretofore filed, the powers and jurisdiction of the surrogate therein designated, as specified in that section, thenceforth cease.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

An order may be made as prescribed in subdivision second of the last section, upon or without notice, as a justice of the supreme court of the judicial district embracing the county thinks proper. It must recite the cause of the making thereof, it must designate the officer or court empowered to discharge the duties of the office of surrogate; and, if it relates to a particular matter only, it must designate that matter. It may, in the discretion of the justice, require an officer to give security for the due discharge of the duties therein. Where the office of surrogate is vacant, or the surrogate is disabled by reason of lunacy, the attorney-general, if directed by the governor, must, or the district-attorney, upon his own motion, may apply for the order, and a justice of the supreme court of the judicial district embracing the county must grant it upon his application. A justice of the supreme court of the judicial district embracing the county may also grant the order upon the application of a party, or a person about to become a party to any special proceeding in the surrogate's court. Where the surrogate is sick or absent, the granting of an order rests in the discretion of the justice, and its effect may be qualified as the justice thinks proper.

§ 2489. How authority superseded.

Where an order is made by a justice of the supreme court of the judicial district embracing the county, as prescribed in the last two sections, or an appointment is made by the board of supervisors, as prescribed in section 2492 of this act, for any cause except a vacancy in the office of surrogate, it may be revoked, without prejudice to any proceedings theretofore taken by virtue thereof, by a justice of the supreme court of the judicial district embracing the surrogate's county, upon proof that it was improvidently made, or that the cause of making it has become inoperative. Such an order or appointment, made upon the ground that the surrogate's office is vacant, is superseded without any formal revocation, by the filling of the vacancy. After the order or appointment is revoked, or the vacancy is filled, as the case may be, the unfinished business, in any proceedings taken by virtue of the order or appointment, must be transferred to, and may be completed by, the surrogate, in the same manner and with like effect, as where a new surrogate completes the unfinished business of his predecessor.

In a special proceeding cognizable before a surrogate, taken in the supreme court, as prescribed in this article, the seal of the court in which it is taken, must be used, where a seal is necessary. The special proceeding must be entitled in that court; and the papers therein must be filed or recorded, as the case may be, and issues therein must be tried, as in an action brought in that court. The clerk of that court must sign each record, which is required to be signed by the surrogate or the clerk of the surrogate's court. The issuing of a citation may be directed, and any order intermediate the citation and the decree may be made, by a judge of the court.

§ 2491. [Am'd, 1895.] Id., transfer of proceedings to surrogate's court.

The court may, at any time, in its discretion, upon being satisfied that the reason for the exercise of its powers and jurisdiction has ceased to operate, make an order to transfer to the surrogate's court, any matter then pending before it. Such an order operates to transfer the same accordingly. Immediately after such a transfer, or after the revocation of the order of the general term, as prescribed in the last section but one, the surrogate must cause entries to be made in the proper book in his office, referring to all the papers filed, and orders entered or other proceedings taken, in the supreme court; and he may cause copies of any of the orders or papers to be made, and recorded or filed in his office, at the expense of the county.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 2492. [Am'd, 1893.] Temporary surrogate; when board of supervisors may appoint.

In any county, except New York, if the surrogate is disabled, by reason of sickness, and there is no special surrogate, or special county judge of the county, the board of supervisors may in its discretion, appoint a suitable person, to act as surrogate, until the surrogate's disability ceases; or, until a special surrogate or a special county judge is elected or appointed. A person so appointed must, before entering on the execution of the duties of his office, take and file an oath of office, and give an official bond, as prescribed by law, with respect to a person elected to the office of surrogate.

L. 1893, ch. 636.

An officer, or a person appointed by the board of supervisors, who acts as surrogate of any county during a vacancy in the office, or in consequence of disability, as prescribed in the last nine sections, must be paid, for the time during which he so acts, a compensation equal, pro rata, to the salary of the surrogate; or, in a county where the county judge is also surrogate, to the salary of the county judge. The amount of his compensation must be audited and paid, in like manner as the salary of the surrogate, or of the county judge, as the case may be. Where an officer of the county performs the duties of the surrogate, with respect to a particular matter, wherein the surrogate is disqualified or precluded from acting, the supervisors of the county must allow him a just compensation for his services therein, to be audited and collected in the same manner.

L. 1871, ch. 859, § 8 (9 Edm. 214), am'd.

Where an act is done, or a proceeding is taken by, before, or by authority of, an officer, or a person appointed by the board of supervisors, temporarily acting as surrogate of any county, as prescribed in this article, the same must be recorded, or the proper minutes thereof must be entered, in the books of the surrogate's court, in like manner as if the same was done or taken by, before, or by authority of the surrogate of the county; and the officer or person so acting, or the clerk of the surrogate's court, must sign the certificate of probate and any letters so issued, and must certify the record thereof in the book.

§ 2495. (Am'd, 1893.) Surrogate; when not to be counsel.

A surrogate shall not be counsel, solicitor, or attorney, in a civil action or special proceeding, for or against any executor, administrator, temporary administrator, testamentary trustee, guardian, or infant, over whom, or whose estate or accounts, he could have any jurisdiction by law. The surrogate of the county of Monroe shall not act as referee, or practice as attorney or counselor in any court of record in the state.

L. 1893, ch. 686.

In addition to his general disqualifications as a judicial officer, a surrogate is disqualified from acting upon an application for probate, or for letters testamentary, or letters of administration, in each of the following cases:

1. Where he is, or claims to be, an heir or one of the next of kin to the decedent, or a devisee or legatee of any part of the estate.

2. Where he is a subscribing witness, or is necessarily examined or to be examined as a witness, to any written or nuncupative will.

3. Where he is named as executor, trustee, or guardian, in any will, or deed of appointment, involved in the matter.

2 R. S. 79, § 48 (2 Edm. 80); L. 1847, ch. 470, § 32 (4 Edm. 586); L. 1871, ch. 859, § 8 (9 Edm. 214).

§ 2497. Disqualification; when objection must be taken.

An objection to the power of a surrogate to act, based upon a disqualification, established by special provision of law, other than one of those enumerated in the last section, is waived by an adult party to a special proceeding before him, unless it is taken at or before the joinder of issue by that party; or, where an issue in writing is not framed, at or before the submission of the matter or question to the surrogate.

2 R. S. 276, § 14 (2 Edm. 286); L. 1844, ch. 300, § 6 (4 Edm. 698).

§ 2498. Books to be kept by surrogate.

Each surrogate must provide and keep the following books:

1. A record-book of wills, in which must be recorded, at length, every will, required by law to be recorded in his office, with the decree admitting it to probate, and also, if the probate is not contested, the proof taken thereupon.

2. A record-book of letters testamentary and letters of administration, in which must be recorded all such letters, issued out of his court.

3. A record-book, in which must be recorded every decree, whereby the account of an executor, administrator, trustee, or guardian is settled.

4. A book, containing a minute of every paper filed, or other proceeding taken, relating to the disposition of the real property of a decedent, and a record of every order or decree, made thereupon; with a memorandum of every report made, and other proceeding taken, founded upon a decree for such a disposition.

5. A book, containing a record of every decree or order, the record of which is not required by this section to be kept elsewhere; together with a memorandum of each execution issued, and of the satisfaction of each decree recorded therein.

6. A book, in which must be recorded all letters of guardianship, issued out of his court.

7. A book of fees and disbursements, in which must be entered, by items, all fees charged or received by him for services or expenses, and all disbursements made or incurred by him, which are chargeable against those fees, or to the county.

The expense of providing the books specified in this section is a county charge.

2 R. S. 222, § 7 (2 Edm. 231); 2 R. S. 110, § 60 (2 Edm. 114); 2 R. S. 102, § 13 (2 Edm. 106); 2 R. S. 80, § 57 (2 Edm. 82); L. 1837, ch. 460, §§ 2 and 3 (4 Edm. 457); L. 1869, ch. 855.

§ 2499. The same.

To each of the books, kept as prescribed in the last section, must be attached an alphabetical index, referring to the page of the book, where each subject may be found. The surrogate may keep two or more books, for a further division of the subjects specified in either subdivision of the last section; in which case, he must keep a separate index to each set of books. Each decree, revoking the probate of a will, or revoking or otherwise affecting letters testamentary, letters of administration, or letters of guardianship, or suspending or removing a testamentary trustee, or modifying or otherwise affecting any other decree, must be plainly noted at the end or in the margin of the record of the will, letters, or original decree, with a reference to the book and page where the subsequent decree is recorded. The books, kept as prescribed in the last section, appertain to the surrogate's office, and must be opened, at all reasonable times, to the inspection of any person.

2 R. S. 222, § 7 (2 Edm. 232); L. 1837, ch. 460, § 2 (4 Edm. 459).

The surrogate must carefully file and preserve in his office, every deposition, affidavit, petition, report, account, voucher, or other paper, relating to any proceeding in his court; and deliver to his successor all the papers and books kept by him. All bonds required to be filed with the surrogate, or in his office, must be proved or acknowledged as deeds are required by law to be proved or acknowledged.

§ 2501. [Am'd, 1898.] When fees not to be charged; report of fees.

If the inventory of personal property of a testator or intestate, filed in the office of the surrogate, does not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars, no fees for any services done or performed by the surrogate shall be charged to or received from the executor or administrator. If the petition for letters testamentary or of administration shall allege that in the belief of the petitioner the inventory will not exceed such amount, no fees shall be received until it appears from the inventory when filed that the personal property does not exceed that sum. On the appointment of a guardian, if it appears that the application is made for the purpose of enabling the minor to receive bounty, arrears of pay or prize money, or pension due, or other dues or gratuity from the federal or state government, for the services of the parents or brother of such minor in the military or naval service of the United States, no fees shall be charged or received. The surrogate of each county, except New York, must, at his own expense, make a report to the board of supervisors of the county, on the first day of each annual meeting thereof, containing a statement, verified by his oath, of all fees received or charged by him for services or expenses, since the last report, and of all disbursements chargeable against the same, or to the county, stating particularly each item thereof.

L. 1898, ch. 696.

§ 2502. [Added, 1906.] Books for recording instruments settling estates, etc.

ch. 61*

Each surrogate must provide a book in which shall, upon the application of any person interested, be recorded instruments settling estates, in whole or in part, executed by one or more executors, administrators, or testamentary trustees and one or more legatees, devisees, distributees or creditors; also like instruments executed by guardians and wards who have attained full age; also instruments acknowledging payment of moneys pursuant to the provisions of decrees for the judicial settlement of accounts of executors, administrators, testamentary trustees and guardians. Every such instrument to be recorded shall be acknowledged or proved and certified in like manner as would be required in the case of a deed of real estate to be recorded in the same county; and the record thereof, or a certified copy of such record, shall be presumptive evidence of the contents of such instrument and its due execution. The person presenting any such instrument for record shall pay to the clerk of the surrogate's court a fee of ten cents for each folio. The expense of providing the book specified in this section is a county charge.

L. 1906, ch. 350. In effect Sept. 1, 1906.

§ 2503. What papers to be transmitted to secretary of State, expenses thereof.

A surrogate who admits to probate the will of a person, who was not a resident of the State at the time of his death; or grants original or ancillary letters testamentary upon such a will, or original or ancillary letters of administration upon the estate of such a person; must, within ten days thereafter, transmit to the secretary of State, to be filed in his office, a certified copy of the will or letters. The surrogate's fees for making the copy, and the expenses of transmission, must be audited by the comptroller, and paid out of the treasury upon his warrant.

The surrogates' court is always open for the transaction of any business, within its powers and jurisdiction. The surrogates of the city and county of New York, from time to time must appoint and may alter the times of holding terms of that court for the trial of probate proceedings and for the hearing of motions and other chamber business. They must prescribe the duration of such terms, and assign the surrogate to preside and attend at the terms so appointed. In case of the inability of a surrogate of that county to preside or attend, the other surrogate may preside or attend in his place. Two or more terms of the surrogates' court may be appointed to be held at the same time. The term of that court held at the chambers shall dispose of all business except contested probate proceedings; all contested probate proceedings shall be disposed of at the trial term. An appointment must be published in two newspapers published in the city of New York during or before the first week in January in each year; except that the surrogates of that county may, by notice to be published in two newspapers in the city of New York for at least five days, appoint the time for holding chambers and trial terms during the year eighteen hundred and ninety-three. All the powers conferred by law upon the surrogate of the city and county of New York may be exercised by either of the surrogates of the said city and county; and there shall be published in the official law paper published in said county, upon Monday of every week, under the name of the surrogate making the several appointments, a full and true list of the names of all appraisers, transfer tax appraisers, special guardians, referees and temporary administrators, which either surrogate shall have designated or appointed during the preceding week, together with the names of the proceedings in which they were appointed and the dates of said appointments.

The surrogate must, unless prevented by sickness or other unavoidable casualty, attend at his office on Monday of each week.

except during the month of August, or, where Monday is a public holiday, on the following Tuesday, to execute the powers conferred and the duties imposed upon him. But the surrogate of any county may, by an instrument in writing, under his hand, filed in the office of the clerk of the county, at least twenty days before the first day of January in any year, designate a day of the week, other than Monday, on which he will attend at his office, or a month, other than August, during which he will be absent therefrom, or both, during that year; and where the county judge is also surrogate, he is not required to attend at his office on any day, when the county court or court of sessions is sitting. The surrogate must also execute the duties of his office, at such other times and places, within his county, as the public convenience requires. The surrogate may sign decrees, letters testamentary, of administration and guardianship, and orders during the month of August or such other month as he shall designate for his vacation, wherever he shall be passing such vacation within the State.

§ 2506. When and where court held by county judge.

The surrogate's court, in a county where the county judge is also surrogate, may be held at the time and place at which the county court is held; and, in that case, the order of business of the county court, the court of sessions, and the surrogate's court, is under the direction of the county judge.

L. 1847, ch. 280, § 32 (4 Edm. 585).

The seal of the surrogate of each county shall continue to be the seal of the surrogate's court of that county, and must be used as such by an officer who discharges the duties of the surrogate. A description of each of such seals must be deposited and recorded in the office of the secretary of state, unless it has already been done; and must remain of record.

Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65. Code Civil Procedure, § 2507, combined with the second and third sentences of § 27. For remainder of § 27 see Judiciary Law, §§ 28, 158, 194. See note 69 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 2508. Clerks in surrogate's office.

Each surrogate may appoint, and at pleasure remove, as many clerks for his office, to be paid by the county, as the board of supervisors of his county, or, in the city and county of New York, the board of aldermen, authorize him so to appoint. The board of supervisors or the board of aldermen, as the case requires, must fix the compensation of the clerk or clerks so appointed; and may authorize them, or either of them, to receive for their or his own use, the legal fees for making copies of any record or paper in the office of the surrogate. A surrogate may appoint, and at pleasure remove, as many additional clerks, to be paid by him, as he thinks proper.

Repealed as to county of New York by L. 1884, ch. 530, § 11.

By a written order filed and recorded in his office, which he may in like manner revoke at pleasure, a surrogate may appoint a clerk of the surrogate's court, and in any county containing a city of the second class, and in the county of Monroe, the surrogate may also appoint a deputy clerk of said court. Both said clerk and deputy clerk shall be paid by the county, and the board of supervisors or board of aldermen, as the case requires, must fix the compensation of the clerk and deputy clerk so appointed. The clerk and deputy clerk so appointed may severally exercise, concurrently with the surrogate, the following powers of the surrogate:

1. He may certify and sign as clerk of the court, or as deputy clerk of the court, as the case may be, any of the records of the court, including the certificate specified in section twenty-six hundred and twenty-nine of this act, and the records and papers specified in subdivision nine of section twenty-four hundred and eighty-one of this act.

2. He may issue any mandate, to which a party is entitled as of course, either unconditionally or on the filing of any paper; and may sign, as clerk of the court, or as deputy clerk of the court, as the case may be, and affix the seal of the court to any letters or mandate issued from the court.

3. He may certify in the manner prescribed by chapter ninth of this act, a copy of any paper, required or permitted by law to be filed or recorded in the surrogate's office.

4. He may adjourn to a definite time, not exceeding thirty days, any matter, when the surrogate is absent from his office, or unable, by reason of other engagements, to attend to the same.

5. He may take the acknowledgment or proof of any instrument, to be used or filed in the court of which he is clerk or deputy clerk. Said deputy clerk shall also act as confidential clerk to the surrogate.

6. The clerk of the surrogate's court of each of the counties of Kings and New York may, with the approval of the surrogate or surrogates of his county, authorize or depute one or more of the other clerks, employed in the surrogate's office of his county, to sign his name, and exercise such of the other powers conferred upon him by this section, as he shall designate. The surrogate may prohibit the clerk and deputy clerk, or either of them, from exercising any powers specified in this section, but the prohibition does not affect the validity of any act of the clerk or deputy clerk done in disregard of the prohibition. The clerk or deputy clerk or other person employed in any capacity in a surrogate's office, shall not act as appraiser, as attorney or counsel, or as referee, or special guardian, in any matter before the surrogate.

7. The clerk of the surrogate's court, of each of the counties of this state shall immediately upon the filing in the office of the surrogate of any decree or order of such court directing the deposit of money, either actually in the hands of some person or persons or thereafter arising from the sale of real estate described in any such decree or order, with the county treasurer of his county, or in the case of the county of New York, with the chamberlain of the city of New York, or upon the filing in the said surrogate's office of any treasurer's or chamberlain's receipt stating that a sum of money has been deposited with such treasurer or chamberlain, in accordance with a decree or order of any such surrogate's court, enter in a book to be kept in his office for that purpose, to be known as a court and trust fund register, the title of the proceeding, or the name of the estate in which such decree or order was made, together with a statement of the amount so deposited, or ordered to be deposited, if said decree or order contains the amount of same, and the name of the person or persons, if any, to whom said money is ordered to be paid, and the date of the filing of the same or of such receipt as herein mentioned.

This subdivision added by L. 1909, ch. 65. Derivation — L. 1889, ch. 330, § 3, as am'd by L. 1895, ch. 544, § 3, and L. 1908, ch. 185, § 2. See note 18 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 2509-a. [Added, 1911.] Chief clerk of surrogate's court of Kings county; compensation of clerks and officers.

The surrogate of the county of Kings may appoint a chief clerk of the court and office of such surrogate, who shall hold office for five years unless sooner removed by the surrogate for cause, after trial, upon charges duly served upon him and an opportunity to be heard and defend. Whenever a vacancy exists for any cause in such office, the surrogate shall appoint a person to fill such office for the full term of five years. Such chief clerk shall before entering upon the performance of his duties take the constitutional oath of office and shall file the same with the county clerk of Kings county, together with a bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars, with sureties approved by the surrogate, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as such chief clerk. Such chief clerk shall perform such duties as now pertain to the office of chief clerk and clerk of the surrogate's court in such county, and such other duties as the surrogate may from time to time by rule of the court or otherwise impose upon him. The compensation of such chief clerk and of the other clerks and officers of the court and office of such surrogate shall, notwithstanding any other provision of law, be fixed by the said surrogate, and the same shall be a county charge. The compensation of the chief clerk shall not be decreased during his term of office.

The clerk of the surrogate's court, and in the county of Kings two other clerks, and in the county of Queens one other clerk, to be designated by the surrogate, in addition to the powers enumerated in section twenty-five hundred and nine, may exercise, concurrently with the surrogate of the county the following powers of the surrogate: On the return of a citation issued from such surrogate's court on a petition for the probate of a will, where no objection to the same is filed, or, where all of the persons entitled to be cited, sign and verify the petition, or personally, or by attorney, appear on the probate thereof, cause the witnesses to the will to be examined before him. Such examination must be reduced to writing, and for such purpose, they are hereby authorized to administer and certify oaths and affirmations in such cases in the same manner and with the same effect as if administered and certified by the surrogate.

L. 1894, ch. 211; L. 1905, ch. 615; L. 1906, ch. 95; L. 1913, ch. 439. In effect Sept. 1, 1918.

A surrogate hereafter elected or appointed, and the sureties in his official bond, are liable for any act of the clerk or deputy clerk of the surrogate's court in the discharge of his official duties, during the surrogate's term of office, as if the act was performed by the surrogate. The surrogate may take security from the clerk or deputy clerk, or either of them, to indemnify him against the liability created by this section.

The surrogate of each of the counties of New York, Kings and Erie, must appoint, and may, for cause, remove, a stenographer for his court, who is entitled to a salary, fixed by law, and to be paid as the salaries of clerks in the surrogate's office are paid. In the county of Erie the salary of said stenographer shall be fixed by the board of supervisors, and the payment of such salary shall be provided for by such board in the same manner as other county expenses are paid. The surrogate of Kings county may appoint, and at pleasure remove all attendants and messengers, and court officers in his court, who must attend, from day to day, the terms and sittings of the court to preserve order, and to perform whatever services may be required of him by the surrogate. The surrogate of Erie county may appoint, and at pleasure remove, one court officer to attend his court and to perform such duties in respect thereto as the said surrogate may prescribe. Such officer shall possess all the powers of officers designated by sheriffs to attend upon such courts, and shall receive a salary to be fixed by said surrogate, not to exceed one thousand two hundred dollars a year, to be paid in equal monthly payments by the treasurer of the county of Erie.

Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65. Derivation — Code Civil Procedure, §§ 95-97, 2512. For remainder of § 95 see Judiciary Law, §§ 108, 200. For remainder of § 96 see Judiciary Law, §§ 230, 349, 351, 351. Am'd L. 1910, ch. 705, in effect Sept. 1, 1910.

§ 2513. [Am'd, 1893, 1896, 1902, 1903, 1904, 1895, 1906, 1909, 1910.] Stenographers in other counties.

The surrogate of each such county, except New York, Kings, Hamilton, Queens, Richmond and Erie, may, in his discretion, appoint, and at pleasure remove, a stenographer for his court, who, except in Sullivan county, shall receive a salary to be fixed by such surrogate, not exceeding in counties having a population less than thirty thousand, eight hundred dollars per annum; in counties having a population of thirty thousand and not more than fifty thousand, not exceeding one thousand dollars per annum, and in counties having a population exceeding fifty thousand, not exceeding twelve hundred dollars per annum, except that in counties in which are located cities of the second class, or in counties in which are located three cities of the third class, such salary shall not exceed eighteen hundred dollars per annum; and in any county wholly containing a city of the first class, such salaries shall not exceed two thousand dollars per annum. The population of the several counties shall be determined by the last preceding census. If a regular stenographer is appointed in Sullivan county, his salary shall be five hundred dollars per annum. The board of supervisors shall provide for the payment of such salary in the same manner as other county expenses are paid. Such stenographer shall deliver to the surrogate of the county a full copy of all the minutes taken by him; and on the receipt of his fees, not exceeding three cents per folio, a like copy to the party, or each of the parties, to the proceeding in which the minutes were taken, except that in the counties of Onondaga and Monroe such fees shall not exceed six cents per folio. When not actually engaged in the discharge of his duties as stenographer, he shall perform such clerical duties in connection with the surrogate's court as the surrogate directs. In counties wherein the surrogate is also county judge, the stenographer so appointed shall be the stenographer of the county court, and shall perform the duties pertaining to a stenographer of the county court without additional compensation. In counties where, for any cause, a regular stenographer for his court has not been appointed, as provided by this section, the surrogate may, in individual proceedings requiring the services of a stenographer, appoint a stenographer who shall be paid a reasonable compensation, certified by the surrogate in every case in which he takes notes of testimony, from the estate or matter in which such services are rendered.

§ 2513-a. [Am'd. 1900.] Interpreters in surrogate's court of Kings county.

The surrogate of Kings county must from time to time appoint and may at pleasure remove an interpreter to be attached to the surrogate's court of said county. Such interpreter shall receive a salary of eighteen hundred dollars per annum to be paid by the comptroller of the city of New York, in monthly instalments and shall, before entering upon his duties, file in the office of the clerk of the county of Kings the constitutional oath of office in which there shall also be incorporated, language to the effect that he will fully and correctly interpret and translate each question propounded through him to a witness and each answer thereto in said courts. The compensation for the above interpreter to be taken out of the amount appropriated for the support of the said surrogate's court, or from any other contingent city fund.

Added by L. 1909, ch. 65. Derivation — Code Civil Procedure, § 369. For remainder of section see Judiciary Law, §§ 198, 382-385. See note 19 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of Code.

In construing the provisions of this chapter, the following rules must be observed, except where a contrary intent is expressly declared in the provision to be construed, or plainly apparent from the context thereof:

1. The word, "intestate" signifies a person who died without leaving a valid will; but where it is used with respect to particular property, it signifies a person who died without effectually disposing of that property by will, whether he left a will or not.

2. The word, "assets" signifies personal property applicable to the payment of the debts of a decedent.

3. [Am'd, 1900.] The word "debts" includes every claim and demand, upon which a judgment for a sum of money, or directing the payment of money, could be recovered in an action; and the word "creditor" includes every person having such a claim or demand, any person having a claim for expense of administration, or any person having a claim for funeral expenses.

L, 1900, ch. 120. In effect Sept. 1, 1900.

4. The word, "will" signifies a last will and testament, and includes all the codicils to a will.

5. The expression "letters of administration," includes letters of temporary administration.

6. The expression, "testamentary trustee," includes every person, except an executor, an administrator with the will annexed, or a guardian, who is designated by a will, or by any competent authority, to execute a trust created by a will; and it includes such an executor or administrator, where he is acting in the execution of a trust created by the will, which is separable from his functions, as executor or administrator.

7. The word, "surrogate," where it is used in the text, or in a bond or undertaking, given pursuant to any provision of this chapter, includes every officer or court vested by law with the functions of surrogate.

8. The expression, "judicial settlement," where it is applied to an account, signifies a decree of a surrogate's court, whereby the account is made conclusive upon the parties to the special proceeding, either for all purposes, or for certain purposes, specified in the statute; and an account thus made conclusive is said to be "judicially settled."

9. The expression, "intermediate account," denotes an account filed in the surrogate's office, for the purpose of disclosing the acts of the person accounting, and the condition of the estate or fund in his hands and not made the subject of a judicial settlement.

10. The expression, "upon the return of a citation," where it is used in a provision requiring an act to be done in the surrogate's court, relates to the time and place at which the citation is returnable, or to which the hearing is adjourned; includes a supplemental citation, issued to bring in a party who ought to be, but has not been cited; and implies that, before doing the act specified, due proof must be made, that all persons required to be cited have been duly cited.

11. The expression, "person interested," where it is used in connection with an estate or a fund, includes every person entitled, either absolutely or contingently, to share in the estate or the proceeds thereof, or in the fund, as husband, wife, legatee, next of kin, heir, devisee, assignee, grantee or otherwise, except as a creditor. Where a provision of this chapter prescribes that a person interested may object to an appointment, or may apply for an inventory, an account, or increased security, an allegation of his interest, duly verified, suffices, although his interest is disputed; unless he has been excluded by a judgment, decree or other final determination, and no appeal therefrom is pending.

12. The term, "next of kin," includes all those entitled, under the provisions of law relating to the distribution of personal property, to share in the unbequeathed residue of the assets of a decedent after payment of debts and expenses, other than a surviving husband or wife.

13. The expression, "real property," includes every estate, interest, and right, legal or equitable, in lands, tenements, or hereditaments, except those which are determined or extinguished by the death of a person seized or possessed thereof, or in any manner entitled thereto, and except those which are declared by law to be assets. The word, "inheritance," signifies real property, as defined in this subdivision, descended as prescribed by law. The expression, "personal property," signifies every kind of property, which survives a decedent, other than real property as defined in this subdivision, and includes a right of action conferred by special statutory provision upon an executor or administrator.

2. Hearing; including trial by jury and reference.
 3. Decrees and orders; and the enforcement thereof. Costs and fees.
 4. App. et.
 5. Provisions relating generally to letters; and generally to executors, administrators, guardians, and testamentary trustees.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Process, and service thereof; appearance, and joinder of issue; miscellaneous regulation of practice.

- Sec. 2515. Process; how executed and returnable.
2516. Proceedings to be commenced by citation.
2517. Id.; within the statute of limitations.
2518. Persons constituting a class; when to be cited; citation when some are unknown.
2519. Contents of citation.
2520. Citation; how served in the State.
2521. Substitute for personal service upon a resident.
2522. Service by publication, etc.
2523. Id.; upon persons unknown, etc.
2524. Order; when and how made; contents thereof.
2525. What time required for delivery of copy, etc.
2526. Service upon a corporation, infant, lunatic, etc.
2527. Id.; upon infant, etc.; additional requirement in certain cases.
2528. Appearance; how made, and effect thereof.
2529. Surrogate's father or son not to practice before him.
2530. Special guardian; when to be appointed.
2531. Notice of proceedings to appoint special guardian.
2532. Proof of service of citation, subpoena, etc.
2533. Written pleadings may be required.
2534. Verification thereof.
2535. Publication of citation, etc.
2536. (Repealed.)
2537. Money paid into court and securities taken, how disposed of.
2538. Certain provisions made applicable to proceedings in surrogates' courts.

§ 2515. Process; how executed and returnable.

A citation or other mandate of a surrogate's court must, except where it is otherwise specially prescribed by law, be made returnable before the surrogate from whose court it was issued, and may be served or executed in any county. A warrant of attachment must be directed to the sheriff of the surrogate's county; who may execute it in any county, and must convey the person arrested to the place where it is returnable.

L. 1837, ch. 460, §§ 66, 67 (4 Edm. 498).

Except in a case where it is otherwise specially prescribed by law, a special proceeding in a surrogate's court must be commenced by the service of a citation, issued upon the presentation of a petition. But upon the presentation of the petition, the court acquires jurisdiction to do any act, which may be done before actual service of the citation.

See §§ 2525 and 2533, post.

§ 2517. Id.; within the statute of limitations.

The presentation of a petition is deemed the commencement of a special proceeding, within the meaning of any provision of this act, which limits the time for the commencement thereof. But in order to entitle the petitioner to the benefit of this section, a citation issued upon the presentation of the petition, must, within sixty days thereafter, be served, as prescribed in section 2520 of this act, upon the adverse party, or upon one of two or more adverse parties, who are jointly liable, or otherwise united in interest; or, within the same time, the first publication thereof must be made, pursuant to an order made as prescribed in section 2522 of this act.

See §§ 399 and 400, ante.

§ 2518. [Am'd, 1908.] Persons constituting a class; when to be cited; citation when some are unknown.

Where it is prescribed, in any provision of this chapter, that a petition must pray that a person, or that creditors, next of kin, legatees, heirs, devisees, or other persons constituting a class, may be cited for any purpose, all those persons are necessary parties to the special proceeding. Where persons to be cited constitute a class, the petitioner must set forth, in an affidavit, the name of each of them, unless the name, or part of the name, of one or more of them cannot, after diligent inquiry, be ascertained by him; in which case, that fact must be set forth and he may also allege that there may be others whose existence is unknown to him; and the surrogate must, thereupon, inquire into the matter. For the purpose of the inquiry, he may, in his discretion, issue a subpoena, requiring any person to attend before him to testify respecting the matter. If he is satisfied, of the reasonable diligence and good faith of the petitioner the citation may be directed to the persons, whose names are unascertained and also to all other persons belonging to such classes by a general description, showing their connection with the decedent, or interest in the property or matter in question; or other sufficient identification. A citation, thus directed, has the same force and effect, as if it was directed to the persons intended, by their names; and where the persons so intended are duly cited, in any manner prescribed by law, the decree binds them, as if they were named in the citation. A petition, duly verified, is deemed an affidavit, within the meaning of this section.

§ 2519. Contents of citation.

A citation must be made returnable upon a day certain, designated therein, not more than four months after the date thereof; and must specify whose estate or what subject-matter is in question. The names of all the persons to be cited, as far as they can be ascertained, must be contained in the citation. Where the name, or part of the name, of either of them cannot be ascertained, that fact must be stated in the citation.

L. 1837, ch. 460, § 7 (4 Edm. 487).

Except where special provision is otherwise made by law, service of a citation, within the state, must be made upon an adult person, or an infant of the age of fourteen years or upwards, by delivering a copy thereof to the person to be served, or by leaving a copy at his residence, or the place where he sojourns, with a person of suitable age and discretion, under such circumstances, that the surrogate has good reason to believe that the copy came to his knowledge, in time for him to attend at the return day. A citation must be so served, if within the county of the surrogate, or an adjoining county, at least eight days before the return day thereof; if in any other county, at least fifteen days before the return day; unless, in either case, the person served, being an adult, and not incompetent, assents in writing to a service within a shorter time. Any person, although a party to the special proceeding, may serve a citation. Upon an accounting or judicial settlement of an executor or administrator, where the number of creditors or persons claiming to be creditors, residing within the state of New York, upon whom citation is required to be served, exceeds fifty, service thereof may be made upon them by publication thereof in such newspapers and for such a length of time as shall be fixed by the surrogate and by the mailing of a copy of such citation to each of them by deposit of a copy thereof in the postoffice, properly enclosed in a postpaid sealed wrapper addressed to each of them at their last known place of residence, at least thirty days prior to the return day thereof.

§ 2521. Substitute for personal service upon a resident.

Where it appears by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the surrogate from whose court a citation issued, that proper and diligent effort has been made to serve it upon a resident of the State, as prescribed in the last section; and that the person to be served cannot be found, or if found, that he evades service, so that it cannot be made; the surrogate may make an order, directing that service thereof be made, as prescribed in section 436 of this act; and the provisions of that section and of section 437 of this act, relating to the service of a summons, apply to the service of a citation; pursuant to an order made as prescribed in this section.

The surrogate, from whose court a citation is issued, may make an order, directing the service thereof without the State, or by publication, in either of the following cases:

1. Where it is to be served upon a foreign corporation, or upon a person who is not a resident of the State.

2. Where the person to be served, being a resident of the State, has departed therefrom with intent to defraud his creditors, or to avoid the service of process.

3. Where the person to be served, whether an adult or an infant, is a resident of the State, but is temporarily absent therefrom.

4. Where the person to be served is a resident of the State, or a domestic corporation, and an attempt was made to serve a citation, issued from the same surrogate's court, upon the presentation of the same petition; before the expiration of the limitation applicable to the enforcement of the claim set forth in the petition, as fixed in chapter fourth of this act; and the limitation would have expired within sixty days next preceding the application for the order, if the time had not been extended by the attempt to serve the citation.

See § 2526, post.

The surrogate may also make an order, directing the service of a citation without the State, or by publication, in either of the following cases:

1. Upon a party to whom a citation is directed, either by his full name or part of his name, where the surrogate is satisfied, by affidavit, that the residence of that party cannot, after diligent inquiry, be ascertained by the petitioner.

2. Upon one or more unknown creditors, next of kin, legatees, heirs, devisees, or other persons included in a class, to whom a citation has been directed, designating them by a general description, as prescribed in this article.

§ 2524. [Am'd, 1881, 1890.] Order, when and how made; contents thereof.

Where an order, directing the service of a citation without the State, or by publication, is made as prescribed in either of the last two sections, the party applying therefor must produce proof, by affidavit or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the surrogate, that the case is one of those specified in those sections. The order must direct that service of the citation, upon the person named or described in the order, be made by publication of the citation in two newspapers, designated as prescribed in this article, unless from the petition it appears that the estate amounts to less than two thousand dollars, in which case only one newspaper shall be designated, for a specified time, which the surrogate deems reasonable, not less than once in each of six successive weeks; or, at the option of the petitioner, by delivering a copy of the citation, without the State, to each person so named or described, in person, and if the person to be served is an infant under the age of fourteen years, also to the person with whom he is sojourning or, if the service is made upon a corporation, to an officer thereof specified in section four hundred and thirty-one or four hundred and thirty-two of this act. It must also contain either a direction that on or before the day of the first publication, the petitioner deposit, in a specified post-office, a copy of the citation and of the order, contained in a securely closed post-paid wrapper, directed to the person to be served, at a place specified in the order, and, if the person to be served is an infant under the age of fourteen years, a further copy, likewise contained in a securely closed post-paid wrapper, directed to the person with whom such infant is sojourning or, a statement that the surrogate, being satisfied, by the affidavit upon which the order was granted, that the petitioner cannot, with reasonable diligence, ascertain a place or places where the person to be served would probably receive matter transmitted through the post-office, dispenses with the deposit of any papers therein.

§ 2525. [Am'd, 1882.] What time required for delivery of copy, etc.

Where service is made by delivering a copy of the citation without the State, pursuant to an order made as prescribed in the last section, it must be made, if within the United States, at least thirty days, if without the United States, at least forty days, before the return day of the citation. Proof of publication, deposit or delivery may be made as prescribed in section 444 of this act.

See §§ 439, 440, ante; L. 1837, ch. 460, § 8; L. 1840, ch. 884, § 1 (4 Edm. 487); L. 1863, ch. 362 (6 Edm. 124); 2 R. S. 61, 62, §§ 32, 34 (3 Edm. 61).

§ 2526. Service upon a corporation, infant, lunatic, etc.

Service of a citation must be made upon an infant under the age of fourteen years, a person judicially declared to be incompetent to manage his affairs by reason of lunacy, idioy, or habitual drunkenness, or a corporation, in the manner prescribed for personal service of a summons upon such a person, or upon a corporation, in article first of title first of chapter fifth of this act.

L. 1870, ch. 693 (9 Edm. 490). See §§ 426, 431 and 432, ante.

§ 2527. Id.; upon infant, etc.; additional requirement in certain cases.

Where a person, cited or to be cited, is an infant of the age of fourteen years or upwards, or where the surrogate has, in his opinion, reasonable grounds to believe, that a person, cited or to be cited, is an habitual drunkard, or for any cause mentally incapable adequately to protect his rights, although not judicially declared to be incompetent to manage his affairs, the surrogate may, in his discretion, with or without an application therefor, and in the interest of that person, make an order requiring that a copy of the citation be delivered, in behalf of that person, to a person designated in the order; and that service of the citation shall not be deemed complete until such delivery. Where the person, cited or to be cited, is an infant under the age of fourteen years, or a person judicially declared to be incompetent to manage his affairs, by reason of lunacy, idiocy, or habitual drunkenness, and the surrogate has reasonable ground to believe that the interest of the person, to whom a copy of the citation was delivered, in behalf of the infant or incompetent person, is adverse to that of the infant or incompetent person, or that for any reason, he is not a fit person, to protect the latter's rights, the surrogate may likewise make such an order; and as a part thereof, or by a separate order, made in like manner at any stage of the proceedings, he may appoint a special guardian ad litem to conduct the proceedings in behalf of the incompetent person, to the exclusion of the committee, and with the same powers, and subject to the same liabilities, as a committee of the property.

L. 1872, ch. 693 (9 Edm. 420).

§ 2528. [Am'd, 1896, 1911.] Appearance; how made, and effect thereof.

In a surrogate's court, a party of full age may, unless he has been judicially declared to be incompetent to manage his affairs, prosecute or defend a special proceeding, in person or by attorney regularly admitted to practice in the courts of record, at his election, except in a proceeding to punish him for contempt, or where he is required to appear in person, by special provision of law, or by a special order of the surrogate. The issue and service of a citation may be waived either before or after the filing of the petition in such proceeding by a party in any proceeding by an instrument in writing, acknowledged or approved as a deed entitled to be recorded, or by personal appearance or by his attorney with written authorization executed and acknowledged as a deed and filed in the office of the surrogate. The appearance of a party against whom a citation has been issued, has the same effect as the appearance of a defendant in an action brought in the supreme court.

§ 2529. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 35. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Judiciary Law, § 472.]

§ 2530. Special guardian; when to be appointed.

Where a party, who is an infant, does not appear by his general guardian; or where a party, who is a lunatic, idiot or habitual drunkard, does not appear by his committee, the surrogate must appoint a competent and responsible person, to appear as special guardian for that party. Where an infant appears by his general guardian, or where a lunatic, idiot, or habitual drunkard, appears by his committee, the surrogate must inquire into the facts, and must, in like manner, appoint a special guardian, if there is any ground to suppose that the interest of the general guardian or committee is adverse to that of the infant, or incompetent person; or that for any other reason, the interests of the latter require the appointment of a special guardian. A person cannot be appointed such a special guardian, unless his written consent is filed, at or before the time of entering the order appointing him.

Where a person, other than the infant, or the committee of the incompetent person, applies for the appointment of a special guardian, as prescribed in the last section, at least eight days' notice of the application must be personally served upon the infant, or incompetent person, if he is within the State, and also upon the committee, if any, in like manner as a citation is required by law to be served. But except in a case specified in title fifth of this chapter, the surrogate may, by an order to show cause, prescribe a shorter time, and direct the service of the order to be made in such a manner as he deems proper. The application may be made at the time of presenting the petition, and, in that case, the order to show cause may, in the surrogate's discretion, accompany the citation.

Proof of service of a citation, or a subpoena, issued from a surrogate's court, must be made in the manner prescribed by law, for proof of service of a summons issued out of the supreme court. In every other case, proof of service must be made by affidavit; or, where the person served is of full age and not incompetent, by a written admission signed by him, accompanied with proof, by affidavit or otherwise, of the genuineness of his signature.

§ 2533. Written pleadings may be required.

The surrogate may, at any time, require a party to file a written petition or answer, containing a plain and concise statement of the facts constituting his claim, objection or defence, and a demand of the decree, order, or other relief, to which he supposes himself to be entitled. The surrogate may require the petition or answer to be verified, and a copy thereof to be served upon any other person interested. A party who fails to comply with such requirement may be treated as a party in default. Except where such a requirement is made, or in a case where a written petition is expressly required by this act, a petition, or the answer thereto, may be presented orally; in which case, the substance thereof must be entered in the records of the courts.

The provisions of sections 523, 524, 525, and 526 of this act apply to a verification made pursuant to this chapter, and to the petition or other paper so verified, where they can be so applied in substance, without regard to the form of the proceeding. See § 2749, post.

Where a provision of this chapter, or an order made pursuant to such a provision, directs the publication of a citation, notice or other paper, or the service thereof by publication, the publication must be made in a newspaper published in the county. The surrogate may, also, in his discretion, direct the publication thereof in any other newspaper published in the same or another county, as he deems proper, for the purpose of giving notice to the persons intended to be served or notified. If no newspaper is published in the county, the citation, notice, or other paper, must be published in the newspaper printed at Albany, in which legal notices are required by law to be published.

L. 1874, ch. 437 (0 Edm. 918); 2 R. S. 107, part of § 40 (2 Edm. 111).

Where a statute requires the payment of money into, or the deposit of a security with the surrogate's court, or the deposit of a security for the payment of money, with the surrogate, the same must be paid to or deposited with the county treasurer of the county to the credit of the beneficiary, or of the estate, or of the special proceeding; unless the statute contains special directions for another disposition thereof. Each security so deposited with the county treasurer must be held and disposed of by him, subject to the direction of the surrogate's court; except that he must, unless otherwise so directed, collect the principal and interest secured thereby. All money collected by or paid to the county treasurer, as prescribed by this section, must be held, managed, invested and disposed of by him, in like manner as money paid into the supreme court in an action pending therein. The regulations, contained in the general rules of practice, as specified in subdivision eight of section four of the state finance law, and the provisions of title third of chapter eight of this act, apply to money paid to and securities deposited with the county treasurer, as prescribed in this section; except that the surrogate's court exercises, with respect thereto, or with respect to a security, in which any of the money has been invested, or upon which it has been loaned, the power and authority conferred upon the supreme court by section seven hundred and forty-seven of this act.

Am'd by L. 1908, ch. 183; L. 1909, ch. 63, § 3, and ch. 240, § 84. See note 72 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 2538. Certain provisions made applicable to proceedings in surrogates' courts.

Except where a contrary intent is expressed in, or plainly implied from the context of, a provision of this chapter, the follow-

In construing the provisions of this chapter, the following rules must be observed, except where a contrary intent is expressly declared in the provision to be construed, or plainly apparent from the context thereof:

1. The word, "intestate" signifies a person who died without leaving a valid will; but where it is used with respect to particular property, it signifies a person who died without effectually disposing of that property by will, whether he left a will or not.

2. The word, "assets" signifies personal property applicable to the payment of the debts of a decedent.

3. [Am'd, 1900.] The word "debts" includes every claim and demand, upon which a judgment for a sum of money, or directing the payment of money, could be recovered in an action; and the word "creditor" includes every person having such a claim or demand, any person having a claim for expense of administration, or any person having a claim for funeral expenses.

L. 1900, ch. 120. In effect Sept. 1, 1900.

4. The word, "will" signifies a last will and testament, and includes all the codicils to a will.

5. The expression "letters of administration," includes letters of temporary administration.

6. The expression, "testamentary trustee," includes every person, except an executor, an administrator with the will annexed, or a guardian, who is designated by a will, or by any competent authority, to execute a trust created by a will; and it includes such an executor or administrator, where he is acting in the execution of a trust created by the will, which is separable from his functions, as executor or administrator.

7. The word, "surrogate," where it is used in the text, or in a bond or undertaking, given pursuant to any provision of this chapter, includes every officer or court vested by law with the functions of surrogate.

8. The expression, "judicial settlement," where it is applied to an account, signifies a decree of a surrogate's court, whereby the account is made conclusive upon the parties to the special proceeding, either for all purposes, or for certain purposes, specified in the statute; and an account thus made conclusive is said to be "judicially settled."

9. The expression, "intermediate account," denotes an account filed in the surrogate's office, for the purpose of disclosing the acts of the person accounting, and the condition of the estate or fund in his hands and not made the subject of a judicial settlement.

10. The expression, "upon the return of a citation," where it is used in a provision requiring an act to be done in the surrogate's court, relates to the time and place at which the citation is returnable, or to which the hearing is adjourned; includes a supplemental citation, issued to bring in a party who ought to be, but has not been cited; and implies that, before doing the act specified, due proof must be made, that all persons required to be cited have been duly cited.

11. The expression, "person interested," where it is used in connection with an estate or a fund, includes every person entitled, either absolutely or contingently, to share in the estate or the proceeds thereof, or in the fund, as husband, wife, legatee, next of kin, heir, devisee, assignee, grantee or otherwise, except as a creditor. Where a provision of this chapter prescribes that a person interested may object to an appointment, or may apply for an inventory, an account, or increased security, an allegation of his interest, duly verified, suffices, although his interest is disputed; unless he has been excluded by a judgment, decree or other final determination, and no appeal therefrom is pending.

12. The term, "next of kin," includes all those entitled, under the provisions of law relating to the distribution of personal property, to share in the unbequeathed residue of the assets of a decedent after payment of debts and expenses, other than a surviving husband or wife.

13. The expression, "real property," includes every estate, interest, and right, legal or equitable, in lands, tenements, or hereditaments, except those which are determined or extinguished by the death of a person seized or possessed thereof, or in any manner entitled thereto, and except those which are declared by law to be assets. The word, "inheritance," signifies real property, as defined in this subdivision, descended as prescribed by law. The expression, "personal property," signifies every kind of property, which survives a decedent, other than real property as defined in this subdivision, and includes a right of action conferred by special statutory provision upon an executor or administrator.

TITLE II.

Provisions relating generally to the proceedings in surrogates' courts, and to appeals from those courts.

- Article 1. Process and service thereof; appearance, and joinder of issue; miscellaneous regulations of practice.
2. Hearing; including trial by jury and reference.
 3. Decrees and orders; and the enforcement thereof. Costs and fees.
 4. Appeal.
 5. Provisions relating generally to letters; and generally to executors, administrators, guardians, and testamentary trustees.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Process, and service thereof; appearance, and joinder of issue; miscellaneous regulation of practice.

- Sec. 2515. Process; how executed and returnable.
2516. Proceedings to be commenced by citation.
2517. Id.; within the statute of limitations.
2518. Persons constituting a class; when to be cited; citation when some are unknown.
2519. Contents of citation.
2520. Citation; how served in the State.
2521. Substitute for personal service upon a resident.
2522. Service by publication, etc.
2523. Id.; upon persons unknown, etc.
2524. Order; when and how made; contents thereof.
2525. What time required for delivery of copy, etc.
2526. Service upon a corporation. Infant, lunatic, etc.
2527. Id.; upon infant, etc.; additional requirement in certain cases.
2528. Appearance; how made, and effect thereof.
2529. Surrogate's father or son not to practice before him.
2530. Special guardian; when to be appointed.
2531. Notice of proceedings to appoint special guardian.
2532. Proof of service of citation, subpoena, etc.
2533. Written pleadings may be required.
2534. Verification thereof.
2535. Publication of citation, etc.
2536. (Repealed.)
2537. Money paid into court and securities taken, how disposed of.

§ 2515. Process; how executed and returnable.

A citation or other mandate of a surrogate's court must, except where it is otherwise specially prescribed by law, be made returnable before the surrogate from whose court it was issued, and may be served or executed in any county. A warrant of attachment must be directed to the sheriff of the surrogate's county; who may execute it in any county, and must convey the person arrested to the place where it is returnable.

L. 1837, ch. 460, §§ 66, 67 (4 Edm. 498).

Except in a case where it is otherwise specially prescribed by law, a special proceeding in a surrogate's court must be commenced by the service of a citation, issued upon the presentation of a petition. But upon the presentation of the petition, the court acquires jurisdiction to do any act, which may be done before actual service of the citation.

See §§ 2525 and 2533, post.

§ 2517. Id.; within the statute of limitations.

The presentation of a petition is deemed the commencement of a special proceeding, within the meaning of any provision of this act, which limits the time for the commencement thereof. But in order to entitle the petitioner to the benefit of this section, a citation issued upon the presentation of the petition, must, within sixty days thereafter, be served, as prescribed in section 2520 of this act, upon the adverse party, or upon one of two or more adverse parties, who are jointly liable, or otherwise united in interest; or, within the same time, the first publication thereof must be made, pursuant to an order made as prescribed in section 2522 of this act.

See §§ 399 and 400, ante.

Where it is prescribed, in any provision of this chapter, that a petition must pray that a person, or that creditors, next of kin, legatees, heirs, devisees, or other persons constituting a class, may be cited for any purpose, all those persons are necessary parties to the special proceeding. Where persons to be cited constitute a class, the petitioner must set forth, in an affidavit, the name of each of them, unless the name, or part of the name, of one or more of them cannot, after diligent inquiry, be ascertained by him; in which case, that fact must be set forth and he may also allege that there may be others whose existence is unknown to him; and the surrogate must, thereupon, inquire into the matter. For the purpose of the inquiry, he may, in his discretion, issue a subpoena, requiring any person to attend before him to testify respecting the matter. If he is satisfied, of the reasonable diligence and good faith of the petitioner the citation may be directed to the persons, whose names are unascertained and also to all other persons belonging to such classes by a general description, showing their connection with the decedent, or interest in the property or matter in question; or other sufficient identification. A citation, thus directed, has the same force and effect, as if it was directed to the persons intended, by their names; and where the persons so intended are duly cited, in any manner prescribed by law, the decree binds them, as if they were named in the citation. A petition, duly verified, is deemed an affidavit, within the meaning of this section.

§ 2519. Contents of citation.

A citation must be made returnable upon a day certain, designated therein, not more than four months after the date thereof; and must specify whose estate or what subject-matter is in question. The names of all the persons to be cited, as far as they can be ascertained, must be contained in the citation. Where the name, or part of the name, of either of them cannot be ascertained, that fact must be stated in the citation.

L. 1837, ch. 460, § 7 (4 Edm. 487).

Except where special provision is otherwise made by law, service of a citation, within the state, must be made upon an adult person, or an infant of the age of fourteen years or upwards, by delivering a copy thereof to the person to be served, or by leaving a copy at his residence, or the place where he sojourns, with a person of suitable age and discretion, under such circumstances, that the surrogate has good reason to believe that the copy came to his knowledge, in time for him to attend at the return day. A citation must be so served, if within the county of the surrogate, or an adjoining county, at least eight days before the return day thereof; if in any other county, at least fifteen days before the return day; unless, in either case, the person served, being an adult, and not incompetent, assents in writing to a service within a shorter time. Any person, although a party to the special proceeding, may serve a citation. Upon an accounting or judicial settlement of an executor or administrator, where the number of creditors or persons claiming to be creditors, residing within the state of New York, upon whom citation is required to be served, exceeds fifty, service thereof may be made upon them by publication thereof in such newspapers and for such a length of time as shall be fixed by the surrogate and by the mailing of a copy of such citation to each of them by deposit of a copy thereof in the postoffice, properly enclosed in a postpaid sealed wrapper addressed to each of them at their last known place of residence, at least thirty days prior to the return day thereof.

§ 2521. Substitute for personal service upon a resident.

Where it appears by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the surrogate from whose court a citation issued, that proper and diligent effort has been made to serve it upon a resident of the State, as prescribed in the last section; and that the person to be served cannot be found, or if found, that he evades service, so that it cannot be made; the surrogate may make an order, directing that service thereof be made, as prescribed in section 436 of this act; and the provisions of that section and of section 437 of this act, relating to the service of a summons, apply to the service of a citation; pursuant to an order made as prescribed in this section.

The surrogate, from whose court a citation is issued, may make an order, directing the service thereof without the State, or by publication, in either of the following cases:

1. Where it is to be served upon a foreign corporation, or upon a person who is not a resident of the State.

2. Where the person to be served, being a resident of the State, has departed therefrom with intent to defraud his creditors, or to avoid the service of process.

3. Where the person to be served, whether an adult or an infant, is a resident of the State, but is temporarily absent therefrom.

4. Where the person to be served is a resident of the State, or a domestic corporation, and an attempt was made to serve a citation, issued from the same surrogate's court, upon the presentation of the same petition; before the expiration of the limitation applicable to the enforcement of the claim set forth in the petition, as fixed in chapter fourth of this act; and the limitation would have expired within sixty days next preceding the application for the order, if the time had not been extended by the attempt to serve the citation.

See § 2526, post.

The surrogate may also make an order, directing the service of a citation without the State, or by publication, in either of the following cases:

1. Upon a party to whom a citation is directed, either by his full name or part of his name, where the surrogate is satisfied, by affidavit, that the residence of that party cannot, after diligent inquiry, be ascertained by the petitioner.

2. Upon one or more unknown creditors, next of kin, legatees, heirs, devisees, or other persons included in a class, to whom a citation has been directed, designating them by a general description, as prescribed in this article.

§ 2524. [Am'd, 1881, 1899.] Order, when and how made; contents thereof.

Where an order, directing the service of a citation without the State, or by publication, is made as prescribed in either of the last two sections, the party applying therefor must produce proof, by affidavit or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the surrogate, that the case is one of those specified in those sections. The order must direct that service of the citation, upon the person named or described in the order, be made by publication of the citation in two newspapers, designated as prescribed in this article, unless from the petition it appears that the estate amounts to less than two thousand dollars, in which case only one newspaper shall be designated, for a specified time, which the surrogate deems reasonable, not less than once in each of six successive weeks; or, at the option of the petitioner, by delivering a copy of the citation, without the State, to each person so named or described, in person, and if the person to be served is an infant under the age of fourteen years, also to the person with whom he is sojourning or, if the service is made upon a corporation, to an officer thereof specified in section four hundred and thirty-one or four hundred and thirty-two of this act. It must also contain either a direction that on or before the day of the first publication, the petitioner deposit, in a specified post-office, a copy of the citation and of the order, contained in a securely closed post-paid wrapper, directed to the person to be served, at a place specified in the order, and, if the person to be served is an infant under the age of fourteen years, a further copy, likewise contained in a securely closed post-paid wrapper, directed to the person with whom such infant is sojourning or, a statement that the surrogate, being satisfied, by the affidavit upon which the order was granted, that the petitioner cannot, with reasonable diligence, ascertain a place or places where the person to be served would probably receive matter transmitted through the post-office, dispenses with the deposit of any papers therein.

§ 2525. [Am'd, 1882.] What time required for delivery of copy, etc.

Where service is made by delivering a copy of the citation without the State, pursuant to an order made as prescribed in the last section, it must be made, if within the United States, at least thirty days, if without the United States, at least forty days, before the return day of the citation. Proof of publication, deposit or delivery may be made as prescribed in section 444 of this act.

See §§ 439, 440, ante; L. 1837, ch. 400, § 8; L. 1840, ch. 284, § 1 (4 Edm. 487); L. 1863, ch. 362 (6 Edm. 124); 2 R. S. 61, 62, §§ 32, 34 (2 Edm. 61).

§ 2526. Service upon a corporation, infant, lunatic, etc.

Service of a citation must be made upon an infant under the age of fourteen years, a person judicially declared to be incompetent to manage his affairs by reason of lunacy, idiocy, or habitual drunkenness, or a corporation, in the manner prescribed for personal service of a summons upon such a person, or upon a corporation, in article first of title first of chapter first of this act.

L. 1870, ch. 693 (9 Edm. 420). See §§ 426, 431 and 432, ante.

§ 2527. Id.; upon infant, etc.; additional requirements in certain cases.

Where a person, cited or to be cited, is an infant of the age of fourteen years or upwards, or where the surrogate has, in his opinion, reasonable grounds to believe, that a person, cited or to be cited, is an habitual drunkard, or for any cause meretriciously incapable adequately to protect his rights, although not judicially declared to be incompetent to manage his affairs, the surrogate may, in his discretion, with or without an application therefor, and in the interest of that person, make an order requiring a copy of the citation be delivered, in behalf of that person, to a person designated in the order; and that service of the citation shall not be deemed complete until such delivery. Where the person, cited or to be cited, is an infant under the age of fourteen years, or a person judicially declared to be incompetent to manage his affairs, by reason of lunacy, idiocy, or habitual drunkenness, and the surrogate has reasonable ground to believe that the interest of the person, to whom a copy of the citation was delivered, in behalf of the infant or incompetent person, is adverse to that of the infant or incompetent person, or for any reason, he is not a fit person, to protect the latter's rights, the surrogate may likewise make such an order; as a part thereof, or by a separate order, made in like manner at any stage of the proceedings, he may appoint a special guardian ad litem to conduct the proceedings in behalf of the incompetent person, to the exclusion of the committee, and with the same powers, and subject to the same liabilities, as a committee of the property.

L. 1872, ch. 693 (9 Edm. 420).

In a surrogate's court, a party of full age may, unless he has been judicially declared to be incompetent to manage his affairs, prosecute or defend a special proceeding, in person or by attorney regularly admitted to practice in the courts of record, a justice of the peace, or a notary public, except in a proceeding to punish him for contempt, where he is required to appear in person, by special provision of law, or by a special order of the surrogate. The issue and service of a citation may be waived either before or after the filing of a petition in such proceeding by a party in any proceeding by instrument in writing, acknowledged or approved as a deed, and filed to be recorded, or by personal appearance or by his attorney with written authorization executed and acknowledged as a deed, and filed in the office of the surrogate. The appearance of a party against whom a citation has been issued, has the same effect as the appearance of a defendant in an action brought in the supreme court.

L. 1896, ch. 570; L. 1911, ch. 330, in effect Sept. 1, 1911. See §§ 424, 796-802, ante.

§ 2530. Special guardian; when to be appointed.

Where a party, who is an infant, does not appear by his special guardian; or where a party, who is a lunatic, idiot or habitual drunkard, does not appear by his committee, the surrogate must appoint a competent and responsible person, to appear as special guardian for that party. Where an infant appears by his general guardian, or where a lunatic, idiot, or habitual drunkard, appears by his committee, the surrogate must inquire into the facts, and must, in like manner, appoint a special guardian, if there is any ground to suppose that the interest of the general guardian or committee is adverse to that of the infant, or incompetent person; or that for any other reason, the interests of the latter require the appointment of a special guardian. A person cannot be appointed such a special guardian, unless his written consent is filed, at or before the time of entering the order appointing him.

ch. 445 § 2531. Notice of proceedings to appoint special guardian.

Where a person, other than the infant, or the committee of the incompetent person, applies for the appointment of a special guardian, as prescribed in the last section, at least eight days' notice of the application must be personally served upon the infant, or incompetent person, if he is within the State, and also upon the committee, if any, in like manner as a citation is required by law to be served. But except in a case specified in title fifth of this chapter, the surrogate may, by an order to show cause, prescribe a shorter time, and direct the service of the order to be made in such a manner as he deems proper. The application may be made at the time of presenting the petition, and, in that case, the order to show cause may, in the surrogate's discretion, accompany the citation.

Proof of service of a citation, or a subpoena, issued from a surrogate's court, must be made in the manner prescribed by law, for proof of service of a summons issued out of the supreme court. In every other case, proof of service must be made by affidavit; or, where the person served is of full age and not incompetent, by a written admission signed by him, accompanied with proof, by affidavit or otherwise, of the genuineness of his signature.

2 R. S. 228, § 9 (2 Edm. 232); L. 1837, ch. 460, § 9 (4 Edm. 488).

§ 2533. Written pleadings may be required.

The surrogate may, at any time, require a party to file a written petition or answer, containing a plain and concise statement of the facts constituting his claim, objection or defence, and a demand of the decree, order, or other relief, to which he supposes himself to be entitled. The surrogate may require the petition or answer to be verified, and a copy thereof to be served upon any other person interested. A party who fails to comply with such requirement may be treated as a party in default. Except where such a requirement is made, or in a case where a written petition is expressly required by this act, a petition, or the answer thereto, may be presented orally; in which case, the substance thereof must be entered in the records of the courts.

The provisions of sections 523, 524, 525, and 526 of this act apply to a verification made pursuant to this chapter, and to the petition or other paper so verified, where they can be so applied in substance, without regard to the form of the proceeding.

See § 2749, post.

L. 1874, ch. 437 (9 Edm. 918); 2 R. S. 107, part of § 40 (2 Edm. 111).

Where a statute requires the payment of money into, or the deposit of a security with the surrogate's court, or the deposit of a security for the payment of money, with the surrogate, the same must be paid to or deposited with the county treasurer of the county to the credit of the beneficiary, or of the estate, or of the special proceeding; unless the statute contains special directions for another disposition thereof. Each security so deposited with the county treasurer must be held and disposed of by him, subject to the direction of the surrogate's court; except that he must, unless otherwise so directed, collect the principal and interest secured thereby. All money collected by or paid to the county treasurer, as prescribed by this section, must be held, managed, invested and disposed of by him, in like manner as money paid into the supreme court in an action pending therein. The regulations, contained in the general rules of practice, as specified in subdivision eight of section four of the state finance law, and the provisions of title third of chapter eight of this act, apply to money paid to and securities deposited with the county treasurer, as prescribed in this section; except that the surrogate's court exercises, with respect thereto, or with respect to a security, in which any of the money has been invested, or upon which it has been loaned, the power and authority conferred upon the supreme court by section seven hundred and forty-seven of this act.

Am'd by L. 1908, ch. 183; L. 1909, ch. 63, § 3, and ch. 240, § 84. See note 72 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 2538. Certain provisions made applicable to proceedings in surrogates' courts.

Except where a contrary intent is expressed in, or plainly implied from the context of, a provision of this chapter, the following portion of this act, to wit: title first, and article third and fourth of title sixth, of chapter eighth, and articles first and second of title third, of chapter ninth, apply to surrogates' courts and to the proceedings therein, so far as they can be applied to the substance and subject-matter of a proceeding, without regard to its form.

L. 1837, ch. 460, § 77 (4 Edm. 501); 2 R. S. 221, § 6 (2 Edm. 230).

ARTICLE SECOND.

Hearing; including trial by jury and reference.

- Sec. 2539. Testimony of aged, sick, or infirm witness.
 2540. Id.; in another county.
 2541. Duty of stenographer.
 2542. How minutes of testimony authenticated.
 2543. Id.; to be bound in volumes, etc.
 2544. Request, etc., does not disqualify, etc., witness.
 2545. Exceptions upon a trial.
 2546. Surrogate may refer questions of fact, or account.
 2547. Trial by jury.
 2548. Review.
 2549. Appeal from order thereupon.

Upon the application of a party to a special proceeding, and upon proof, by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the surrogate, that the testimony of a witness in his county, who is so aged, sick, or infirm, as to be unable to attend before him to be examined, is material and necessary to the applicant, the surrogate must, where the special proceeding was instituted to procure the probate or revocation of probate of a will, and in any other case, may, in his discretion, proceed to the place where the witness is, and there, as, in open court, take his examination. Such a notice of the time and place of taking the examination, as the surrogate prescribes, must be given, by the party applying therefor, to each other party, except to a party who has failed to appear as required by the citation. The surrogate may also, in his discretion, require notice to be given to any other person interested.

L. 1867, ch. 460, § 12 (4 Edm. 469), am'd; L. 1841, ch. 129, §§ 1, 2, 3 (4 Edm. 501). See § 2567.

In a case specified in the last section, except that the witness is in another county, where the witness is a subscribing witness to a will, if the surrogate has good reason to believe that the witness cannot attend before him, within a reasonable time, to which the hearing may be adjourned, he may make an order, directing that the witness be examined before the surrogate of the county in which he is; specifying a day, on or before which a certified copy of the order must be delivered to the latter surrogate; and directing notice of the examination to be given to such persons, and in such manner, as he thinks proper. A copy of the order, attested by the seal of the surrogate's court, must be transmitted by him to the surrogate designated in the order, together with the original will, where the testimony relates to the execution of a written will. If it shall appear from the order that objections to the probate of the will have been filed, the latter surrogate must thereupon, on the day specified in the order, or on another day to which he may adjourn the examination, take the examination of the witness; but if it shall appear from the order that no such objections have been filed, the latter surrogate may cause the examination to be taken by one of the clerks described in section twenty-five hundred and ten of this act, as if he possessed original jurisdiction of the special proceeding. The examination, after it is reduced to writing and subscribed by the witness or otherwise duly authenticated, together with a statement of the proceedings upon the execution of the order, must be certified by the surrogate or clerk taking the examination, attested by the seal of his court, and returned without delay, with the original will, if any, to the surrogate who directed the examination, by whom all those papers must be filed. And in the other cases named in said section two thousand five hundred and thirty-nine, he may appoint a referee to take the testimony, who shall report the same to the said surrogate. An examination so taken has the same effect as if it was taken before the latter surrogate.

L. 1837, ch. 460, §§ 13, 14 and 15, am'd 1881; L. 1911, ch. 105, in effect Sept. 1, 1911.

The stenographer of a surrogate's court must, under the direction of the surrogate, take full stenographic notes of all proceedings, in which oral proofs are given, except where the surrogate otherwise directs. The testimony must be legibly written out at length by him, from his notes; and the minutes thereof, as so written out, must, after being authenticated, as prescribed in the next section, be filed in the surrogate's office.

L. 1871, ch. 374, part of § 1 (9 Edm. 231), am'd. See Co. Proc., § 256.

§ 2542. [Am'd, 1881.] How minutes of testimony authenticated.

The minutes of testimony written out as prescribed in the last section, or taken by the surrogate, or under his direction, while the witness is testifying, must, before being filed, be authenticated by the signature of the stenographer, referee, the surrogate or the clerk of the surrogate's court, as the case may be, to the effect that they are correct.

L. 1877, ch. 206, § 8, am'd 1881.

In the city and county of New York, in the county of Kings, and in any other county where the supervisors so direct, the minutes of testimony written out by the stenographer must be bound, at the expense of the county, in volumes of convenient size and shape, indorsed, "Stenographic minutes", and numbered consecutively. Upon the record of a decree made in any contested matter, the surrogate must cause to be made a minute, referring to each volume of the stenographic minutes, and to the pages thereof, containing any testimony relating to the matter.

Id., §§ 1 and 2; Co. Proc., § 256.

A person is not disqualified or excused from testifying respecting the execution of a will, by a provision therein, whether it is beneficial to him or otherwise.

Substitute for 2 R. S. 57, 65, § 6, and part of § 50 (2 Edm. 65).

§ 2545. Exceptions upon a trial.

An exception may be taken to a ruling by a surrogate, upon the trial by him of an issue of fact, including a finding, or a refusal to find, upon a question of fact, in a case where such an exception may be taken to the ruling of the court, upon a trial, without a jury, of an issue of fact, as prescribed in article third of title first of chapter tenth of this act. The provisions of that article, relating to the manner and effect of taking such an exception, and the settlement of a case containing the exceptions, apply to such a trial before a surrogate; for which purpose, the decree is regarded as a judgment, and notice of an exception may be filed in the surrogate's office. Upon such a trial, the surrogate must file in his office his decision in writing, which must state, separately, the facts found and the conclusions of law. Either party may, upon the settlement of a case, request a finding upon any question of fact, or a ruling upon any question of law; and an exception may be taken to such a finding or ruling, or to a refusal to find or rule accordingly. An appeal from a decree or an order of a surrogate's court brings up for review, by each court to which the appeal is carried, each decision, to which an exception is duly taken by the appellant, as prescribed in this section. But such a decree or order shall not be reversed, for an error in admitting or rejecting evidence, unless it appears to the appellate court that the exceptant was necessarily prejudiced thereby.

In a special proceeding other than one instituted for probate or revocation of probate of a will, the surrogate may, in his discretion, appoint a referee to take and report to the surrogate the evidence upon the facts, or upon a specific question of fact; to examine an account rendered; to hear and determine all questions arising upon the settlement of such an account, which the surrogate has power to determine; and to make a report thereon; subject, however, to confirmation or modification by the surrogate. But no referee to examine an account rendered, whether intermediate or final, or to hear and determine all questions arising upon the settlement of such an account, shall be appointed, where the estate or fund does not exceed one thousand dollars in value, or in any case where the item or items in such account to which objections have been made do not aggregate more than two hundred dollars. Such a referee has the same power, and is entitled to the same compensation as a referee appointed by the supreme court, for the trial of an issue of fact in an action; and the provisions of this act, applicable to a reference by the supreme court, apply to a reference made as prescribed in this section, so far as they can be applied in substance without regard to the form of proceeding. The surrogate of the county of New York, may, on the written consent of all parties appearing in a probate case, appoint a referee, or may, in his discretion, direct an assistant to take and report the testimony, but without authority to pass upon the issues involved therein. Unless a referee's report is passed upon and confirmed, approved, modified or rejected by a surrogate within ninety days after it has been submitted to him, it shall be deemed to have been confirmed as of course and a decree to that effect may be entered by any party interested in the proceeding upon two days' notice.

The surrogate may, in his discretion, make an order directing the trial by jury, at a trial term of the supreme court to be held within the county, or in the county court of the county, of any controverted question of fact arising in a special proceeding for the disposition of the real property of a decedent, as prescribed in title fifth of this chapter. He must order such trial of any controverted question of fact of which either party has constitutional right of trial by jury, and seasonably demands the same. Either of the surrogates of the county of New York may, in his discretion, make an order transferring to the supreme court any special proceeding for the probate of a will pending in said county. Every order under this section must state distinctly and plainly each question of fact to be tried. The order is the only authority necessary for the trial in the supreme court of such question. The verdict, if not set aside by the judge before whom the question is tried, shall be certified to the surrogate's court by the clerk of the court in which the trial took place, and shall be conclusive except upon appeal; provided, that a new trial may be granted by the judge before whom the trial by jury takes place, upon motion therefor, to be made within ten days after the verdict was rendered, upon exceptions or because the verdict is contrary to the evidence or contrary to law, or is excessive, or is insufficient.

 2555. Id.; by punishment for contempt.
 2556. Definition of "order"; how enforced.
 2557. Costs; how made payable.
 2558. Id.; when awarded.
 2559. Id.; how awarded.
 2560. Id.; when the same as in supreme court.
 2561. When surrogate to fix amount of costs.
 2562. Additional allowance in settling accounts.
 2563. Allowance upon sale of real property.
 2564. Id.; no commissions allowed.
 2565. Fees of appraiser.
 2566. Id.; other officers, and witnesses.
 2567. Fees of the surrogate.

§ 2550. Definition of "final order" and "decree."

The final determination of the rights of the parties to a special proceeding in a surrogate's court, is styled, indifferently, a final order, or a decree.

Each decree, whereby an account is judicially settled, must contain, in the body thereof, a summary of the account as settled; or must refer to such a summary, which must be recorded in the same book, and is deemed a part of the decree.

L. 1837, ch. 460, § 2 (4 Edm. 487), am'd. See § 2499, subd. 4, ante.

A decree, directing payment by an executor, administrator, or testamentary trustee, to a creditor of, or a person interested in, the estate or fund, or an order, permitting a judgment creditor to issue an execution against an executor or administrator is, except upon an appeal therefrom, conclusive evidence that there are sufficient assets in his hands, to satisfy the sum which the decree directs him to pay, or for which the order permits the execution to issue.

2 R. S. 116, part of § 21 (2 Edm. 121), am'd.

Where a decree directs the payment of a sum of money into court, or to one or more persons therein designated, the surrogate, or the clerk of the surrogate's court, must, upon payment of his fees, furnish to any person applying therefor, one or more transcripts, duly attested, stating all the particulars, with respect to the decree, which are required by law to be entered in the clerk's docket-book, where a judgment for a sum of money is rendered in the supreme court, so far as the provisions of law, directing such entries, are applicable to such a decree. Each county clerk, to whom such a transcript is presented, must, upon payment of his fees, immediately file it, and docket the decree in the appropriate docket-book, kept in his office, as prescribed by law for docketing a judgment of the supreme court. The docketing of such a decree has the same force and effect, the lien thereof may be suspended or discharged, and the decree may be assigned or satisfied, as if it was such a judgment.

L. 1837, ch. 400, §§ 63, 64 (4 Edm. 498), am'd; L. 1844, ch. 104, § 2 (4 Edm. 637); L. 1867, ch. 782, § 9 (7 Edm. 169).

A decree, directing the payment of a sum of money into court, or to one or more parties, may be enforced by an execution against the property of the party directed to make the payment. The execution must be issued by the surrogate, or the clerk of the surrogate's court, under the seal of the court, and must be made returnable to the court. In all other respects, the provisions of this act, relating to an execution against the property of a judgment debtor, issued upon a judgment of the supreme court, and the proceedings to collect it, apply to an execution issued from the surrogate's court, and the collection thereof, the decree being, for that purpose, regarded as a judgment; except that the proceedings prescribed in title twelfth of chapter seventeenth of this act, if founded upon such a decree, must be taken, as if the decree was a judgment of the county court, or, in the city of New York, of the supreme court.

d., remainder of § 64, am'd; L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 2555. Id., by punishment for contempt.

In either of the following cases, a decree of a surrogate's court, directing the payment of money, or requiring the performance of any other act, may be enforced, by serving a certified copy thereof upon the party against whom it is rendered, or the officer or person who is required thereby, or by law, to obey it; and if he refuses or wilfully neglects to obey it, by punishing him for a contempt of court.

1. Where it cannot be enforced by execution, as prescribed in the last section.

2. Where part of it cannot be so enforced by execution; in which case, the part or parts, which cannot be so enforced, may be enforced as prescribed in this section.

3. Where an execution, issued as prescribed in the last section, to the sheriff of the surrogate's county, has been returned by him wholly or partly unsatisfied.

4. Where the delinquent is an executor, administrator, guardian, or testamentary trustee, and the decree relates to the fund or estate, in which case the surrogate may enforce the decree as prescribed in this section, either without issuing an execution, or after the return of an execution, as he thinks proper.

If the delinquent has given an official bond, his imprisonment, by virtue of proceedings to punish him for a contempt, as prescribed in this section, or a levy upon his property by virtue of an execution, issued as prescribed in the last section, does not bar, suspend, or otherwise affect an action against the sureties in his official bond.

L. 1867, ch. 782, § 15. See § 1211, ante.

§ 2556. Definition of "order;" how enforced.

A direction of a surrogate's court, made or entered in writing, and not included in a decree, is styled an order. It may be enforced in like manner as a similar order, made by the supreme court in an action; and the costs are the same as upon such an order, and may be collected in like manner.

See § 707, ante.

§ 2557. Costs; how made payable.

Except where special provision is otherwise made by law, costs, awarded by a decree, may be made payable by the party personally, or out of the estate, or fund, as justice requires; but costs, other than actual expenses, cannot be awarded to be paid out of an estate or fund, which is less than one thousand dollars in amount or value.

2 R. S. 223, § 10 (2 Edm. 332); L. 1866, § 784 (6 Edm. 831); L. 1867, ch. 782, § 8 (7 Edm. 169).

§ 2558. [Am'd, 1881, 1911, 1913.] Id.; when awarded.

The award of costs in a decree is in the discretion of the surrogate, except in one of the following cases:

1. Where special directions, respecting the award of costs, are contained in a judgment or order, made upon an appeal from the surrogate's determination, or upon a motion for a new trial of questions of fact tried by a jury; in either of which cases, costs must be awarded according to those directions.

2. When a question of fact has been tried by a jury; in which case, unless it is within the foregoing subdivision, the decree must award costs to the successful party.

3. When the decree is made upon a contested application for probate, or revocation of probate of a will, costs, payable out of the estate or otherwise, shall not be awarded to an unsuccessful contestant of the will, unless he is a special guardian for an infant, appointed by the surrogate, or is named as an executor in a paper propounded by him, in good faith, as the last will of the decedent; but where a person named as the executor in a will propounds the will for probate such person so named as executor may, whether successful or not, in the discretion of the surrogate, be awarded costs and all necessary disbursements made by him and all expenses incurred in the attempt to sustain the will; but the surrogate may order a copy of the stenographer's minutes to be furnished to the contestant's counsel, and charge the expense thereof to the estate if he shall be satisfied that the contest is made in good faith.

See 2 R. S. 102, § 12 (2 Edm. 106), and 2 R. S. 63, § 39 (2 Edm. 62). Am'd by L. 1881, ch. 685; L. 1911, ch. 539; L. 1913, ch. 447. In effect Sept. 1, 1913.

§ 2559. Id.; how awarded.

Costs, when awarded by a decree, include all disbursements of the party to whom they are awarded, which might be taxed in the supreme court. The sum allowed for costs must be fixed by the surrogate, and inserted in the decree.

§ 2560. Id.; when the same as in supreme court.

Where a question of fact has been tried by a jury, the costs, awarded against the unsuccessful party, are the same as the taxable costs of an action in the supreme court. The costs of an appeal, where they are awarded in a surrogate's court, are the same as if they were awarded in the supreme court.

§ 2561. When surrogate to fix amount of costs.

In a case other than one of those specified in the last section, the surrogate, upon rendering a decree, may, in his discretion, fix such a sum, to be allowed as costs, in addition to the disbursments, as he deems reasonable, not exceeding, where there has not been a contest, twenty-five dollars, or where there has been a contest, seventy dollars; and, in addition thereto, where a trial or hearing upon the merits before the surrogate necessarily occupies more than two days, ten dollars for each additional day; and where a motion for a new trial is made before the surrogate, if it is granted, seventy dollars; if it is denied, forty dollars.

§ 2562. [Am'd, 1861.] Additional allowance in settling accounts.

In addition to the sums specified in the last two sections, the surrogate may, in his discretion, allow to an executor, administrator, guardian, or testamentary trustee, upon a judicial settlement of his account, or on an intermediate accounting required by the surrogate, such a sum, as the surrogate deems reasonable, for his counsel fees and other expenses, not exceeding ten dollars for each day occupied in the trial, and necessarily occupied in preparing his account for settlement, and otherwise preparing for the trial.

Substituted for L. 1863, ch. 362, § 8 (6 Edm. 127), and W. ch. 115.

§ 2563. Allowance upon sale of real property.

Upon the disposition of real property of a decedent, as prescribed in title fifth of this chapter, the executor, administrator, or freeholder, disposing of the property, must be allowed by the surrogate, out of the proceeds of the sale brought into court, his expenses; and he may be allowed, out of the proceeds, a reasonable sum for his own services, not exceeding five dollars for each day, actually and necessarily occupied by him in disposing of the property, and such a further sum as the surrogate thinks reasonable, for the necessary services of his attorney and counsel therein.

L. 1844, ch. 360, § 2 (4 Edm. 664), am'd.

§ 2564. Id.; no commissions allowed.

The allowances specified in the last section are in lieu of commissions.

§ 2565. Fees of appraiser.

An appraiser is entitled, in addition to his actual expenses, to a sum, to be fixed by the surrogate, not exceeding five dollars for each day, actually and necessarily occupied by him, in making the appraisal or inventory. The number of days' services, and the expenses, if any, must be proved by the affidavit of the appraiser; and the sums payable therefor taxed by the surrogate, and paid by the executor or administrator.

L. 1873, ch. 225 (9 Edm. 586.)

Each other officer, including a referee, and each witness, is entitled to the same fees, for his services, and for travelling, as he is allowed for like services in the supreme court.

2 R. S. 59, § 19 (2 Edm. 60), am'd.

A surrogate shall not charge or receive any fee, except as follows:

1. Where, in a case prescribed by law, or in any other case, upon the application of a party, he goes to a place, other than his office, or the court room where he is required to hold court, in order to take testimony, he may charge, and receive to his own use, ten cents for each mile for going, and the same sum for returning.

2. [Am'd, 1904.] He must charge, and receive to the use of the county, for a copy of a paper, ten cents for each folio, and for comparing and certifying a copy of papers on appeal or a case on appeal where printed copies thereof are presented by any party to any proceeding, one cent for each folio, except where the board of supervisors have allowed his clerk to receive fees for his own use; and in that case, his clerk may charge and receive the same fee. Where in a proceeding in the surrogate's court the attorneys for all the adult parties interested and special guardians, or general guardians, appearing for all infant parties interested, other than parties in default, or against whom a final order has been taken and is not appealed from, stipulate in writing that a paper is a copy of any paper whereof a certified copy is required by any provision of this act, the stipulation takes the place of a certificate as to the parties so stipulating, and the surrogate or his clerk is not required to certify the same or entitled to any fee therefor. And the paper so proved by stipulation shall be received by the clerks of all the courts and by the courts, and shall be used or filed with the same force and effect as if certified by the surrogate or his clerk.

L. 1862, ch. 187, § 2. All acts or parts of acts and any act or part of an act in relation to the fees of the surrogate in New York county, inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed.

L. 1869, ch. 246, § 1 (2 Edm. 436); L. 1870, ch. 339; L. 1844, ch. 306, § 3 (4 Edm. 694); L. 1837, ch. 460, § 69; L. 1904, ch. 137. In effect March 22, 1904.

ARTICLE FOURTH.

Appeal.

- Sec. 2568. When party may appeal.
 2569. When person not a party may appeal.
 2570. Appeal; to what court it may be taken.
 2571. Intermediate order; how reviewed.
 2572. Time to appeal.
 2573. Who must be made parties.
 2574. Appeal; how taken.
 2575. Certain provisions of chapter 12 made applicable.
 2576. Appeal may be on the law or the facts; case to be made, etc.
 2577. Security to perfect appeal.
 2578. Id.; where decree is for money or delivery of property, etc.
 2579. Security to stay proceedings in case of commitment.
 2580. Amount of undertaking; how fixed.
 2581. Requisites of undertaking.
 2582. Decree for probate, etc., how far suspended by appeal.
 2583. Decree revoking probate, etc., not stayed.
 2584. Perfected appeal stays proceedings in other cases.
 2585. Appeal, proceedings thereupon.
 2586. Power of appellate court; further testimony.
 2587. Judgment or order upon appeal.
 2588. Award of jury trial upon reversal in probate cases.
 2589. Costs of appeal.

Any party aggrieved may appeal from a decree or an order of a surrogate's court, in a case prescribed in this article, except where the decree or order of which he complains was rendered or made upon his default.

See § 1294, ante.

A creditor of, or person interested in, the estate or fund affected by the decree or order, who was not a party to the special proceeding, but was entitled by law to be heard therein, upon his application; or who has acquired, since the decree or order was made, a right or interest which would have entitled him to be heard, if it had been previously acquired; may intervene and appeal, as prescribed in this article. The facts, which entitled such a person to appeal, must be shown by an affidavit, which must be filed, and a copy thereof served with the notice of appeal.

See § 2514, subd. 11, ante.

An appeal to the appellate division of the supreme court may be taken from a decree of a surrogate's court, or from an order affecting a substantial right, made by a surrogate, or by a surrogate's court, in a special proceeding.

2 R. S. 609, §§ 104, 118 (2 Edm. 632); 2 R. S. 62, part of § 35 (2 Edm. 63); L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 2571. Intermediate order; how reviewed.

An appeal, taken from a decree, brings up for review each intermediate order, which is specified in the notice of appeal, and necessarily affected the decree, and which has not already been reviewed by the appellate court, upon a separate appeal taken from that order.

An appeal by a party must be taken within thirty days after the service, upon the appellant, or upon the attorney, if any, who appeared for him in the surrogate's court, of a copy of the decree or order from which the appeal is taken, and a written notice of the entry thereof. An appeal by a person who was not a party, taken as prescribed in this article, must be taken within three months after the entry of the decree or order, unless the appellant's title was acquired by means of an assignment or conveyance from a party; in which case, the appeal must be taken within the time limited for the taking thereof by the assignor or grantor.

2 R. S. 66, § 55 (2 Edm. 66); 2 R. S. 608, §§ 90, 105, 106, 107 (2 Edm. 631, 635).

Each party to the special proceeding in the surrogate's court, and each person not a party, who has, or claims to have, in the subject-matter of the decree or order, a right or interest, which is directly affected thereby, and which appears upon the face of the papers presented in the surrogate's court, or has become manifest in the course of the proceedings taken therein, must be made a party to the appeal. A person not a party, but who must be made a party, as prescribed in this section, may be brought in by an order of the appellate court, made after the appeal is taken; or the appeal may be dismissed on account of his absence. The appellate court may prescribe the mode of bringing in such a person, by publication, by personal service, or otherwise. But this section does not require a person interested, but not a party, to be brought in, if he was legally represented, or was duly cited in the court below.

§ 2574. Appeal; how taken.

An appeal must be taken by the service, within the State, upon each party to the special proceeding, other than the appellant, and upon the surrogate, or the clerk of the surrogate's court, of a written notice, referring to the decree or order appealed from, and stating that the appellant appeals from the same, or from a specified part thereof. Where a party to the special proceeding in the court below appeared in person, the notice of appeal must be personally served upon him; where he appeared by an attorney, it must be served personally, either upon him or upon his attorney. Where a party, who was duly cited, did not appear in the surrogate's court, notice of appeal must be served upon him personally, if he can, with due diligence, be found within the county; otherwise it may be served by depositing it, indorsed with a direction to the party, with the surrogate or the clerk of the surrogate's court. Where a person to be served cannot, with due diligence, be found, to make personal service upon him, as prescribed in this section, the surrogate, or a justice of the supreme court, may, by order, prescribe such a mode of service as he thinks proper; and service in that mode has the same effect as personal service.

See § 1300, ante.

2574 - sub. 7 added 2/19/02. 588

§ 2575. Certain provisions of chapter 12 made applicable.

The provisions of the following sections of this act, to wit: sections 1296, 1297, 1298, 1299, 1303, and 1305 to 1309, both inclusive, apply to an appeal taken as prescribed in this article.

§ 2576. Appeal may be on the law or the facts; case to be made, etc.

The appeal may be taken upon questions of law, or upon the facts or upon both. If it is taken from a decree rendered upon the trial, by the surrogate, of an issue of fact, it must be heard upon a case, to be made and settled by the surrogate, as prescribed by law, for making and settling of a case upon an appeal in an action.

To render a notice of appeal effectual for any purpose, except in a case specified in the next section, or where it is specially prescribed by law, that security is not necessary to perfect the appeal, the appellant must give a written undertaking, with at least two sureties, to the effect that the appellant will pay all costs and damages which may be awarded against him upon the appeal, not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars.

§ 2578. [Am'd, 1862.] Id.; where decree is for money or delivery of property, etc.

Notice of appeal by an executor, administrator, testamentary trustee, guardian, or other person appointed by the surrogate's court, from a decree, directing him to pay or distribute money, or to deposit money in a bank or trust company, or to deliver property; or by an executor or administrator from an order, granting leave to issue an execution against him, as prescribed in section 1825 of this act, does not stay the execution of the decree appealed from, unless the appellant gives an undertaking, with at least two sureties, in a sum therein specified, to the effect that, if the decree or order, or any part thereof, is affirmed, or the appeal is dismissed, the appellant will pay all costs and damages which may be awarded against him upon the appeal, and will pay the sum so directed to be paid or collected, or as the case requires, will deposit or distribute the money, or deliver the property so directed to be deposited, distributed or delivered, or the part thereof as to which the decree or order is affirmed.

2 R. S. 116, § 21 (2 Edm. 121); L. 1870, ch. 359, § 12, am'd.

§ 2579. Security to stay proceedings in case of commitment.

An appeal from a decree or an order, directing the commitment of an executor, administrator, testamentary trustee, guardian, or other person appointed by the surrogate's court, or an attorney or counsel employed therein for disobedience to a direction of the surrogate, or for neglect of duty; or directing the commitment of a person refusing to obey a subpoena, or to testify, when required according to law; does not stay the execution of the decree or order appealed from, unless the appellant gives an undertaking, with at least two sureties, in a sum therein specified, to the effect that, if the decree or order appealed from, or any part thereof, is affirmed, or the appeal is dismissed, the appellant will, within twenty days after the affirmance or dismissal, surrender himself in obedience to the decree or order, to the custody of the sheriff of the county, wherein he was directed to be committed. If the undertaking is broken it may be prosecuted in the same manner, and with the same effect, as an administrator's official bond; and the proceeds of the action must be paid or distributed, as directed by the surrogate, to or among the persons aggrieved, to the extent of the pecuniary injuries sustained by them; and the balance, if any, must be paid into the county treasury.

The sum specified in an undertaking, executed as prescribed in either of the last two sections, must, where the appeal is taken from a decree directing the payment, depositing, or distribution of money, be not less than twice the sum directed to be paid, deposited, or distributed. Where the appeal is taken from an order granting leave to issue an execution, it must be not less than twice the sum, to collect which the execution may issue. In every other case, it must be fixed by the surrogate, or by a judge of the appellate court, who may require proof, by affidavit, of the value of any property, or of such other facts as he deems proper. The respondent may apply to the appellate court, upon notice, for an order requiring the appellant to increase the sum so fixed. If such an order is granted, and the appellant makes default in giving the new undertaking, the appeal may be dismissed or the stay dissolved, as the case requires.

An undertaking, given as prescribed in the last four sections, must be to the people of the State; must contain the name and residence of each of the sureties thereto; must be approved by the surrogate or a judge of the appellate court; and must be filed in the surrogate's office. Except as otherwise specially prescribed, the filing of a proper undertaking, and service of the notice of appeal, perfect the appeal. The surrogate may, at any time, in his discretion, make an order, authorizing any person aggrieved to bring an action upon the undertaking, in his own name, or in the name of the people. Where it is brought in the name of the people, the damages collected must be paid over to the surrogate, and distributed by him, as justice requires.

See §§ 117, 1834, ante.

§ 2582. [Am'd, 1881, 1900.] Decree for probate, etc.; how far suspended by appeal.

An appeal from a decree of a surrogate, admitting a will to probate, or granting letters testamentary, or letters of administration, or from an order or judgment of the appellate division of the supreme court affirming a decree of the surrogate admitting a will to probate or granting letters testamentary or letters of administration, does not stay the issuing of letters, where, in the opinion of surrogate, manifested by an order, the preservation of the estate requires that the letters should issue. Letters so issued confer upon the person named therein all the powers and authority, and subject him to all the duties and liabilities of an executor or administrator in an ordinary case, except that they do not confer power to sell real property by virtue of a provision in the will, or to pay or to satisfy a legacy, or distribute the unbequeathed property of the decedent, until after the final determination of the appeal; and in case letters shall have been issued before such appeal the executor or administrator, on a like order of the surrogate, may exercise the powers and authority, subject to the duties, liabilities and exceptions above provided.

L. 1871, ch. 603, § 1 (9 Edm. 104). L. 1900, ch. 191. In effect Sept. 1, 1900.

§ 2583. Decree revoking probate, etc., not stayed.

An appeal from a decree revoking the probate of a will, or revoking letters testamentary, letters of administration, or letters of guardianship; or from a decree or an order, suspending an executor, administrator, or guardian, or removing or suspending a testamentary trustee, or a freeholder, appointed to execute a decree, as prescribed in title fifth of this chapter, or appointing a temporary administrator, or an appraiser of personal property, does not stay the execution of the decree or order appealed from.

2 R. S. 611, § 114, and part of § 110 (3 Edm. 633, 634).

Except as otherwise expressly prescribed in this article, a perfected appeal has the effect, as a stay of the proceedings to enforce the decree or order appealed from, prescribed in section 1310 of this act, with respect to a perfected appeal from a judgment.

See § 1310, ante; 2 R. S. 66, § 55 (2 Edm. 66); 2 R. S. 610, § 109 (2 Edm. 633).

§ 2585. [Am'd, 1895.] Appeal; proceedings thereupon.

In the appellate division of the supreme court the order made upon an appeal from a decree or an order of a surrogate's court must be entered with the clerk of the appellate division, and a certified copy thereof annexed to the papers transmitted from the court below upon which the appeal was heard, must be transmitted to the court from which the appeal was taken, and the court below shall enter the judgment or order necessary to carry the determination of the appellate division into effect.

L. 1895, ch. 948. See § 1340-1345, ante.

Where an appeal is taken upon the facts, the appellate court has the same power to decide the questions of fact, which the surrogate had; and it may, in its discretion, receive further testimony or documentary evidence, and appoint a referee.

The appellate court may reverse, affirm, or modify the decree or order appealed from, and each intermediate order, specified in the notice of appeal, which it is authorized by law to review, and as to any or all of the parties; and it may, if necessary or proper, grant a new trial or hearing. The decree or order appealed from may be enforced, or restitution may be awarded, as the case requires, as prescribed in title first of chapter twelfth of this act, with respect to an appeal from a judgment.

See § 1317, 1319, 1320, 1323, ante.

Where the reversal or modification of a decree by the appellate court is founded upon a question of fact, the appellate court must, if the appeal was taken from a decree made upon a petition to admit a will to probate, or to revoke the probate of a will, make an order, directing the trial, by a jury, of the material questions of fact, arising upon the issues between the parties. Such an order must state, distinctly and plainly, the questions of fact to be tried; and must direct the trial to take place, either at a trial term of the supreme court, specified in the order; or in the county court of the county of the surrogate. After the trial, a new trial may be granted, as prescribed in section 2548 of this act.

2 R. S. 66, §§ 57, 58 (2 Edm. 67); 2 R. S. 609, § 96 (2 Edm. 632); L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 2589. Costs of appeal.

The appellate court may award to the successful party the costs of the appeal; or it may direct that they abide the event of a new trial, or of the subsequent proceedings in the surrogate's court. In either case, the costs may be made payable out of the estate or fund, or personally by the unsuccessful party, as directed by the appellate court; or, if such a direction is not given, as directed by the surrogate.

2 R. S. 606, § 96 (2 Edm. 602); 2 R. S. 67, § 61 (2 Edm. 632); 2 R. S. 67, § 61 (2 Edm. 67). See § 2549.

Requisites of letters.

Letters testamentary, letters of administration, and letters of guardianship must be in the name of the people of the State. Where they are granted by a surrogate, or by an officer or person appointed by the board of supervisors, temporarily acting as surrogate, they must be tested in the name of the officer granting them, signed by him, or by the clerk of the surrogate's court, and sealed with the seal of the surrogate's court. Where they are issued out of another court, they must be tested in the name of the judge holding the court, signed by the clerk thereof, and sealed with its seal.

2 R. S. 80, § 55 (2 Edm. 81). See §§ 2485, 2486, 2490, 2491, 2492 and 2494, ante.

§ 2591. Their effect.

Subject to the provisions of the next section, regulating the priority among different letters, letters testamentary, letters of administration, and letters of guardianship, granted by a court or officer, having jurisdiction to grant them, as prescribed in this chapter, are conclusive evidence of the authority of the persons to whom they are granted, until the decree granting them is reversed upon appeal, or the letters are revoked, as prescribed in this chapter.

2 R. S. 80, § 56 (2 Edm. 82).

§ 2592. Priority among different letters.

The person or persons, to whom letters testamentary, or letters of administration are first issued, from a surrogate's court having jurisdiction to issue them, as prescribed in article first of title first of this chapter, have sole and exclusive authority, as executors or administrators, pursuant to the letters, until the letters are revoked, as prescribed by law; and they are entitled to demand and recover from any person, to whom letters upon the same estate are afterwards issued, by any other surrogate's court, the decedent's property in his hands. But the acts of a person, to whom letters were afterwards issued, done in good faith, before notice of the letters first issued, are valid; and an action or special proceeding, commenced by him, may be continued by and in the name of the person or persons to whom the letters were first issued.

§ 2593. Time, how reckoned upon successive letters.

Where it is prescribed by law, that an act, with respect to the estate of a decedent, must or may be done within a specified time after letters testamentary or letters of administration are issued, and successive or supplementary letters are issued upon the same estate, the time so specified must be reckoned from the issuing of the first letters, except in a case where it is otherwise specially prescribed by law; or where the first or any subsequent letters are revoked, as prescribed in section 2684 of this act, or by reason of the want of power in the surrogate's court to issue the same, for any cause. (See § 2682.)

§ 2594. Official oaths of executors, etc.

The official oath or affirmation of an executor, administrator, or guardian, to the effect that he will well, faithfully and honestly discharge the duties of his office, describing it, must be filed with the surrogate, before letters are issued to him. The oath may be taken before any officer, within or without the State, who is authorized to take an affidavit, to be used in the supreme court. Where it is taken without the State, it must be certified as required by law, with respect to an affidavit to be used in the supreme court.

2 R. S. 71, 77, §§ 13 and 41 (2 Edm. 72, 78); L. 1837, ch. 460, § 59 (4 Edm. 497), am'd. See Banking Law, § 1586; L. 1907, ch. 612.

§ 2595. [Am'd, 1885.] Deposit of securities to reduce penalty of bond.

In a case where a bond, or new sureties to a bond, may be required by a surrogate from an executor, administrator, guardian or other trustee, if the value of the estate or fund is so great, that the surrogate deems it inexpedient to require security in the full amount prescribed by law, he may direct that any securities for the payment of money, belonging to the estate or fund, be deposited with him, to be delivered to the county treasurer, or be deposited, subject to the order of the trustee, countersigned by the surrogate, with a trust company duly authorized by law to receive the same. After such a deposit has been made, the surrogate may fix the amount of the bond, with respect to the value of the remainder only of the estate or fund. A security thus deposited shall not be withdrawn from the custody of the county treasurer or trust company, and no person, other than the county treasurer or the proper officer of the trust company, shall receive or collect any of the principal or interest secured thereby, without the special order of the surrogate, entered in the appropriate book. Such an order can be made in favor of the trustees appointed, only where an additional bond has been given by him, or upon proof that the estate or fund has been so reduced, by payments or otherwise, that the penalty of the bond originally given, will be sufficient in amount, to satisfy the provisions of law relating to the penalty thereof, if the security so withdrawn is also reckoned in the estate or fund.

L. 1885, ch. 516.

§ 2596. Sureties liable for money, etc., received in another capacity.

A person to whom letters are issued, is liable for money or other personal property of the estate, which was in his hands or under his control, when his letters were issued; in whatever capacity it was received by him, or came under his control. Where it was received by him, or came under his control, by virtue of letters previously issued to him, in the same or another capacity, an action to recover the money, or damages for failure to deliver the property, may be maintained upon both official bonds; but, as between (the sureties upon) the official bond given upon the prior letters, and (those upon) the official bond given upon the subsequent letters, (the latter) are liable over to the former.

§ 2597. When new bond or new sureties may be required.

Any person, interested in the estate or fund, may present to the surrogate's court a written petition, duly verified, setting forth that a surety in a bond, taken as prescribed in this chapter, is insufficient, or has removed, or is about to remove, from the State, or that the bond is inadequate in amount; and praying that the principal in the bond may be required to give a new bond, in a larger penalty, or new or additional sureties, as the case requires; or, in default thereof, that he may be removed from his office, and that letters issued to him may be revoked. Where the bond so taken is that of a guardian, the petition may also be presented by any relative of the infant. When the bond is that of an executor or administrator, the petition may also be presented by any creditor of the decedent. If it appears to the surrogate, that there is reason to believe that the allegations of the petition are true, he must cite the principal in the bond to show cause, why the prayer of the petition should not be granted.

L. 1837, ch. 460, §§ 25, 26 (4 Edm. 492), am'd; L. 1862, ch. 229; L. 1837, ch. 460, § 35 (4 Edm. 493).

§ 2598. Id.; how principal may be required to give a new bond, etc.

Upon the return of a citation, issued as prescribed in the last section, the surrogate must hear the allegations and proofs of the parties; and if the objections, or any of them, are found to be valid, he must make an order, requiring the principal in the bond to give new or additional sureties, or a new bond in a larger penalty, as the case requires, within such a reasonable time, not exceeding five days, as the surrogate fixes; and directing that, in default thereof, his letters be revoked.

L. 1837, ch. 460, § 27, am'd; L. 1862, ch. 229 (4 Edm. 492).

§ 2599. Decree revoking letters for failure to give new bond.

If a bond with new or additional sureties, or in a larger penalty, is approved and filed in the surrogate's office, as required by such an order, the surrogate must make a decree, dismissing the proceedings, upon such terms, as to costs, as justice requires; otherwise, he must make a decree, removing the delinquent from office, and revoking the letters issued to him.

L. 1837, ch. 460, § 28, am'd.

Any or all of the sureties in a bond taken as prescribed in this chapter, may present a petition to the surrogate's court praying to be released from responsibility, on account of any future breach of the condition of the bond and that the principal in the bond be required to give new sureties and to render and settle his account and that a citation issue to said principal to attend on such application. The surrogate must thereupon issue a citation accordingly.

Id., §§ 29 and 30; L. 1862, ch. 229; L. 1876, ch. 278, and L. 1901, ch. 524. In effect Sept. 1, 1901.

Upon the return of the citation issued as prescribed in the last section if the principal in the bond does not file a new bond in the usual form with new sureties to the satisfaction of the surrogate, the surrogate must make an order requiring said principal to file such new bond within such reasonable time not exceeding five days as the surrogate fixes. Should the principal file such new bond upon the return of such citation or within the time fixed by such order, the surrogate must thereupon make a decree releasing the petitioner from liability upon the bond for any subsequent act or default of the principal and requiring the principal to render and settle his account to and including the date of such decree and to file such account within a time fixed, not exceeding twenty days from such date; otherwise he must make a decree revoking the delinquent's letters.

Id., §§ 31 and 32; L. 1862, ch. 229 (4 Edm. 483), am'd; L. 1901, ch. 524. In effect Sept. 1, 1901.

§ 2602. Surrogate may direct as to custody, where co-executors, etc., disagree.

Where two or more co-executors or co-administrators disagree, respecting the custody of money or other property of the estate; or two or more testamentary trustees or guardians of the property disagree, respecting the custody of money or other property, belonging to a fund or an estate which is committed to their joint charge; the surrogate may, upon the application of either of them, or of a creditor or person interested in the estate, and proof, by affidavit, of the facts, make an order, requiring them to show cause, why the surrogate should not give directions in the premises. Upon the return of the order, the surrogate may, in his discretion, make an order, directing that any property of the estate or fund be deposited in a safe place, in the joint custody of the executors, administrators, guardians or testamentary trustees, as the case requires, or subject to their joint order; or that the money of the estate be deposited in a specified safe bank or trust company, to their joint credit, and to be drawn out upon their joint order. Disobedience to such a direction may be punished as a contempt of the court.

Upon the entry of a decree, made as prescribed in this chapter, revoking letters, issued by a surrogate's court to an executor, administrator or guardian, his powers cease. The decree may, in the discretion of the surrogate, require him to account for all money and other property received by him; and to pay and deliver over all money and other property in his hands into the surrogate's court, or to his successor in office, or to such other person as is authorized by law to receive the same; or it may be made without prejudice to an action or special proceeding for that purpose, then pending, or thereafter to be brought. The revocation does not affect the validity of any act, within the powers conferred by law upon the executor, administrator, or guardian, done by him before the service of the citation, where the other party acted in good faith; or done after the service of the citation, and before entry of the decree, where his powers with respect thereto were not suspended by service of the citation, or where the surrogate, in a case prescribed by law, permitted him to do the same, notwithstanding the pendency of the special proceeding against him; and he is not liable for such an act, done by him in good faith.

2 R. S. 62, § 38 (2 Edm. 62); 2 R. S. 77, 78, §§ 40, 46 and 47 (2 Edm. 78, 80), am'd.

§ 2604. The last section qualified.

The last section does not affect the liability of a person, to whom money or other property has been paid or delivered, as husband, wife, next of kin, or legatee, to respond to the person lawfully entitled thereto, where letters are revoked, because a supposed decedent is living; or because a will is discovered, after administration has been granted in a case of supposed intestacy, or revoking a prior will, upon which letters were granted.

§ 2605. Successor may be appointed, and may compel accounting, etc.

Where letters have been revoked by a decree of the surrogate's court, that court has, except in a case where it is otherwise specially prescribed by law, the same power to appoint a successor to the person whose powers have ceased, as if the letters had not been issued. The successor may complete the execution of the trust committed to his predecessor; he may continue, in his own name, a civil action or special proceeding, pending in favor of his predecessor; and he may enforce a judgment, order, or decree, in favor of the latter. The surrogate's court has the same jurisdiction, upon the petition of the successor, or of a remaining executor, administrator, guardian or trustee, to compel the person whose letters have been revoked, to account for, or deliver over money or other property, and to settle his account, which it would have upon the petition of a creditor or person interested in the estate, if the term of office conferred by the letters, had expired by its own limitation.

§ 2606. [Am'd, 1891, 1897, 1901, 1902.] Accounting by executor, et cetera, of deceased executors.

Where an executor, administrator, guardian or testamentary trustee dies, the surrogate's court has the same jurisdiction, upon the petition of his successor, or of a surviving executor, administrator or guardian, or of a creditor, or person interested in the estate, or of a guardian's ward or the legal representative of a deceased ward, or a surety upon the official bond of the decedent, or the legal representative of a deceased surety, to compel the executor or administrator of the decedent to account, which it would have against the decedent if his letters have been revoked by a surrogate's decree. And an executor or administrator of a deceased executor, administrator, guardian or testamentary trustee may voluntarily account for the acts and doings of the decedent, and for the trust property which had come into his possession or into the possession of the decedent. And on the death, heretofore or hereafter, of any executor, administrator, guardian or testamentary trustee while an accounting by or against him, as such, was or is pending before a surrogate's court, such court may revive said proceeding against his executor, administrator or successor and proceed with such accounting and determine all questions and grant any relief that the surrogate would have power to determine or grant in case such decedent had not died or in a case where the executor or administrator of said last mentioned decedent, acting at the time of such revival had voluntarily petitioned for an accounting as provided for in this section. On a petition filed either by or against an executor or administrator of a deceased executor, administrator, guardian or testamentary trustee, or on a revival and continuation of an accounting pending by or against such decedent at the time of his death, the successor of such decedent and all persons who would be necessary parties to a proceeding commenced by such decedent for a judicial settlement of his accounts shall be cited and required to attend such settlement. The surrogate's court may at any time on its own motion or on the motion of any party to any one of two or more of such proceedings, consolidate said proceedings but without prejudice to the power of the court to make any subsequent order in either of them. With respect to the liability of the sureties in and for the purpose of maintaining an action upon the decedent's official bond, a decree against his executor or administrator, rendered upon such an accounting, has the same effect as if an execution issued upon a surrogate's decree against the property of decedent had been returned unsatisfied during the decedent's lifetime. So far as concerns the executor or administrator of decedent, such a decree is not within the provisions of section twenty-five hundred and fifty-two of this act. The surrogate's court has also jurisdiction to compel the executor or administrator, or successor of any decedent, at any time to deliver over any of the trust property which has come to his possession or is under his control, and if the same is delivered over after a decree, the court must allow such credit upon the decree as justice requires.

Where an execution, issued upon a surrogate's decree, against the property of an executor, administrator, testamentary trustee, or guardian, has been returned wholly or partly unsatisfied, an action, to recover the sum remaining uncollected, may be maintained upon his official bond, by and in the name of the person in whose favor the decree was made. If the principal debtor is a resident of the State, the execution must have been issued to the county where he resides.

L. 1837, ch. 460, § 65 (4 Edm. 498).

Where letters have been revoked by a decree of the surrogate's court, the successor of the executor, administrator, or guardian, whose letters are so revoked, may maintain an action upon his predecessor's official bond, in which he may recover any money, or the full value of any other property, received by the principal in the bond, and not duly administered by him; and to the full extent of any injury sustained by the estate of the decedent or of the infant, as the case may be, by any act or omission of the principal. The money, recovered in such an action, is regarded as part of the estate in the hands of the plaintiff, and must be distributed or otherwise disposed of accordingly; except that a recovery for an act or omission, respecting a right of action, or other property, appropriated by law for the benefit of the husband, wife, family, or next of kin of a decedent, or disposed of by a will for the benefit of any person, is for the benefit of the person or persons so entitled thereto.

-2 R. S. 85, § 21 (2 Edm. 87).

§ 2609. Action on official bond when no successor is appointed.

Where the letters of an executor or administrator have been so revoked, and no successor is appointed, any person aggrieved may, upon obtaining an order from the surrogate, granting him leave so to do, maintain an action upon the official bond of the executor or administrator, in behalf of himself and all others interested; in which the plaintiff may recover any money, or the full value of any other property, received by the principal in the bond, and not duly administered by him, and to the full extent of any injury, sustained by the estate of the decedent, by any act or omission of the principal. The money recovered in such an action must be paid, by the sheriff or other officer who collects it, into the surrogate's court; and the surrogate must distribute it to the creditors or other persons entitled thereto. The proceedings for such a distribution are the same as prescribed in title fifth of this chapter, for the distribution of the proceeds of a sale of real property.

The provisions of this article apply to an executor, administrator, or guardian, to whom letters have been issued, and to a testamentary trustee whose trust has been created, before this chapter takes effect; except that it does not affect, in any manner, the liability of the sureties in a bond, executed before this chapter takes effect.

§ 2612. [Am'd, 1893.] Persons incompetent to serve as executors.

No person is competent to serve as an executor who, at the time the will is proved, is:

1. Incapable in law of making a contract.
2. Under the age of twenty-one years.
3. An alien not an inhabitant of this state; or

4. Who shall have been convicted of an infamous crime; or

L. 1893, ch. 686.

§ 2613. [Am'd, 1893.] Supplementary letters: executors not named in letters not to act; power of executor before letters of administration with the will annexed.

If the disability of a person under age, or an alien named as executor in a will, be removed before the execution of the provisions of such will is completed, he shall be entitled, on application, to supplementary letters testamentary, to be issued in the same manner as the original letters, and authorized to join in the execution of the will with the persons previously appointed. A person named in a will as executor, and not named as such in the letters testamentary or in letters of administration with the will annexed, shall be deemed to be superseded thereby, and shall have no power or authority whatever as such executor until he appears and qualifies. An executor named in a will has no power to dispose of any part of the estate of the testator before letters testamentary are granted, except to pay funeral charges, nor to interfere with such estate in any manner further than is necessary for its preservation. Where letters of administration with the will annexed are granted, the will of the deceased shall be observed and performed; and the administrators, with such will, have the rights and powers and are subject to the same duties as if they had been named executors in the will.

L. 1893, ch. 686.

§ 2614. [Am'd, 1897.] Who may propound will.

A person designated in a will as executor, devisee, or legatee, or any person interested in the estate, or a creditor of the decedent, or any party to an action brought or about to be brought, and interest in the subject thereof, in which action the decedent, if living, would be a proper party, may present to the surrogate's court having jurisdiction, a written petition, duly verified, describing the will, setting forth the facts, upon which the jurisdiction of the court to grant probate thereof depends, and praying that the will may be proved, and that the persons, specified in the next section, may be cited to attend the probate thereof. Upon the presentation of such a petition, the surrogate must issue a citation accordingly.

L. 1837, ch. 460. § 4 (4 Edm. 487). L. 1897, ch. 177. In effect April 3, 1897.

§ 2615. [Am'd, 1894, 1905.] Who to be cited thereupon.

The following persons must be cited upon a petition, presented as prescribed in the last section:

1. If the will relates exclusively to real property, the husband or wife, if any, and all the heirs of the testator.

2. If the will relates exclusively to personal property; the husband or wife, if any, and all the next of kin of the testator.

3. If the will relates to both real and personal property, the husband or wife, if any, and all the heirs, and all the next of kin of the testator.

L. 1894, ch. 118.

4. [Added, 1905.] Any person designated in the will as executor.

L. 1905, ch. 438. In effect Sept. 1, 1905.

§ 2616. [Am'd, 1911.] Contents of citation.

The citation must set forth the name of the decedent, and of the person by whom the will is propounded; and it must state whether the will relates, or purports to relate, exclusively to real property, or personal property, or to both. Where the will propounded was nuncupative, that fact must be stated in the citation. Where the surrogate is unable to ascertain to his satisfaction, whether the decedent left surviving him, any person, who would be entitled to the property affected by the will, if the decedent had died intestate; or if it shall appear to the surrogate that the decedent left no known heirs-at-law or next of kin, the citation must be directed, where the will relates to real property, to the attorney-general; where it relates to personal property, to the attorney-general and to the public administrator, who would have been entitled to administration, if the decedent had died intestate.

Am'd by L. 1911, ch. 433, in effect Sept. 1, 1911.

§ 2617. [Am'd, 1894.] Persons not cited may appear.

Any person, although not cited, who is named as a devisee or legatee in the will propounded, or as executor, trustee, devisee or legatee in any other paper purporting to be a will of the decedent, or who is otherwise interested in sustaining or defeating the will, may appear, and, at his election, support or oppose the application. A person so appearing becomes a party to the special proceeding. But this section does not affect a right or interest of such a person unless he so becomes a party. And in case the will propounded for probate is opposed, due and timely notice of the hearing of the objections to the will shall be given, in such manner as the surrogate shall direct, to all persons in being, who would take any interest in any property under the provisions of the will, and to the executor or executors, trustee or trustees named therein, if any, who have not appeared in the proceeding, and any decree in the proceeding shall not affect the right or interest of any such person unless he shall be so notified.

§ 2618. [Am'd, 1913.] Witnesses to be examined; proof required.

Upon the return of the citation, the surrogate must cause the witnesses to be examined before him. In a case where there is no contest and no objection or if no objections to the probate are filed and if all the parties are of full age and of sound mind or if the special guardian attends before the surrogate the surrogate may in his discretion order that a witness who is in the state but not in the county where the will is offered for probate or an adjoining county, be examined before the surrogate of the county in which the witness shall be, in which case the original will shall be attached to the order and transmitted to the surrogate of the county where the proofs are ordered to be taken and the proofs and said original will shall be returned to the surrogate before whom the proceeding is pending. The proofs must be reduced to writing. Before a written will is admitted to probate, two, at least, of the subscribing witnesses must be produced and examined, if so many are within the State, and competent and able to testify. Before a nuncupative will is admitted to probate, its execution and the tenor thereof must be proved by at least two witnesses. Any party, who contests the probate of the will, may, by a notice filed with the surrogate at any time before the proofs are closed, require the examination of all the subscribing witnesses to a written will, or of any other witness, whose testimony the surrogate is satisfied may be material; in which case, all such witnesses, who are within the State, and competent and able to testify, must be so examined.

L. 1837, ch. 460, part of §§ 10 and 11 (4 Edm. 488, 489); L. 1841, ch. 129, §§ 1, 2 and 3 (4 Edm. 501). Am'd, L. 1913, ch. 412. In effect Sept. 1, 1913.

The death, absence from the State, lunacy, or other incompetency of a witness, required to be examined, as prescribed in this or the last section, or proof that such witness cannot, after due diligence, be found within the State or elsewhere, must be shown by affidavit or other competent evidence, to the satisfaction of the surrogate, before dispensing with his testimony. Where a witness, being within the State, is disabled from attending, by reason of age, sickness, or infirmity, his disability must be shown in a like manner; and in that case, the testimony of the witness, where it is required, and he is able to testify, must be taken in the manner prescribed by law, and produced before the surrogate, as part of the proofs.

L. 1837, ch. 460, part of §§ 10, 11 (4 Edm. 489).

If all the subscribing witnesses to a written will are, or if a subscribing witness, whose testimony is required, is dead, or incompetent, by reason of lunacy or otherwise, to testify or unable to testify; or if such a subscribing witness is absent from the state; or if such a subscribing witness has forgotten the occurrence, or testifies against the execution of the will; the will may nevertheless be established, upon proof of the handwriting of the testator, and of the subscribing witnesses, and also of such other circumstances, as would be sufficient to prove the will upon the trial of an action. Where a subscribing witness is absent from the state, upon application of either party, the surrogate shall cause the testimony of such witness to be taken by commission, when it is made to appear that by due diligence such testimony may be obtained. Where a written will is proved, as prescribed in this section, it must be filed and remain in the surrogate's office. But when it shall be shown, by affidavit or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the surrogate, that the decedent left real or personal property in another state or territory of the United States or in a foreign country, and that the laws of such state, territory or country require the production of the original will before the provisions thereof become effective, the surrogate may, at any time after probate, and upon such notice to the parties interested in the estate as he may think proper, cause any original will remaining on file in his office to be sent by post or otherwise to any court which, or to any officer of such state, territory or country who, under the laws thereof, is empowered to receive the same for probate, or may deliver such will to any person interested in the probate thereof in such state, territory or country, or to his representative, upon such terms as he shall think proper for the protection of other parties interested in the estate. Where in any matter before the surrogate or in a surrogate's court the testimony of any witness shall be taken by or on commission, the same, together with the commission on which it is taken, shall be duly filed in the office of the surrogate but need not be recorded. The testimony or other proceeding duly taken to be used before the surrogate or surrogate's court, by a stenographer, shall be filed and need not be recorded.

L. 1837, ch. 460, § 20 (2 Edm. 491); 2 R. S. 58, §§ 13, 16, 17 (2 Edm. 59, 60); L. 1888, ch. 508. See § 2635. L. 1902, ch. 114. In effect March 12, 1902.

A lost or destroyed will can be admitted to probate in a surrogate's court, but only in a case, where a judgment establishing the will could be rendered by the supreme court, as prescribed in section 1865 of this act.

L. 1870, ch. 359, § 8; 2 R. S. 68, § 67, b. (2 Edm. 69).

A person claiming to be interested in the estate of decedent may present a petition under oath to a surrogate's court, against any one or more persons suspected of destroying, retaining, concealing or conspiring with others to destroy, retain or conceal a will or testamentary instrument of the decedent, and the court thereupon must issue a citation, directed to such person or persons, ordering the production of the will or testamentary instrument or show cause why it should not be produced. On the return of the citation, the court may order the suspected person or persons, to appear before it and be examined on oath upon the matter of the petition. If any person cited fails to appear and submit to examination or refuses to answer such questions as are lawfully propounded to him, or to obey any lawful order of the court, he may be committed to jail as for a contempt of court until he submits to its order. The court may award costs as in a special proceeding, to be paid by either party.

§ 2622. Probate not allowed, unless surrogate satisfied, etc.

Before admitting a will to probate, the surrogate must inquire particularly into all the facts and circumstances, and must be satisfied of the genuineness of the will, and the validity of its execution. Before admitting a written will to probate, the surrogate may, in his discretion, require proof of the circumstances attending the execution, the delivery, and the possession thereof, or any of them, to be made by the affidavit, or the testimony at the hearing, of the person who received the will from the testator, if he can be produced, and, also, of the person presenting it for probate.

L. 1837, ch. 460, § 17, and part of § 10 (4 Edm. 489, 490).

If it appears to the surrogate that the will was duly executed; and that the testator, at the time of executing it, was in all respects competent to make a will, and not under restraint; it must be admitted to probate, as a will valid to pass real property, or personal property, or both, as the surrogate determines, and the petition and citation require, and must be recorded accordingly. The decree admitting it to probate must state whether the probate was or was not contested.

2 R. S. 58, § 14 (2 Edm. 59); L. 1837, ch. 460, § 18 (4 Edm. 490).

§ 2624. [Am'd, 1910, 1913.] Validity and construction of testamentary provisions.

But if a party expressly puts in issue, before the surrogate, the validity, construction, or effect of any disposition of property, contained in the will of a resident of the State, executed within the State, the surrogate may determine the question upon rendering a decree; or, unless the decree refuses to admit the will to probate, by reason of a failure to prove any of the matters specified in the last section, may admit the will to probate and reserve the question of construction or effect for future consideration and decree.

§ 2625. [Am'd, 1910.] Surrogate's decision on probate.

A decree admitting a will of real or personal property, or both, to probate is conclusive as an adjudication of the validity of the will, and of the questions determined under section twenty-six hundred and twenty-four of this act, except as in this chapter otherwise provided.

L. 1837, ch. 460, § 21 (4 Edm. 491), am'd. Am'd, L. 1910, ch. 578. In effect Sept. 1, 1910.

The surrogate must cause to be indorsed upon, or annexed to, the original will admitted to probate, or the exemplified copy, or statement of the tenor of the will, which was admitted without production of an original written will, a certificate, under his hand, or the hand of the clerk of his court, and his seal of office, stating that it has, upon due proof, been admitted to probate, as a will valid to pass real or personal property, or both, as the case may be. The will, or the copy or statement, so authenticated, the record thereof, or an exemplified copy of the record, may be read in evidence, as proof of the original will, or of the contents or tenor thereof, without further evidence, and with the effect specified in the preceding sections.

2 R. S. 58, § 15 (2 Edm. 59); 2 R. S. 80, § 58 (2 Edm. 82). See § 2500. Am'd L. 1882, ch. 399; L. 1910, ch. 578. In effect Sept. 1, 1910.

§ 2630. Recording wills proved elsewhere within the State.

A transcript of a will of real property, proved and recorded in any court of the State, of competent jurisdiction, and of all the notices, process, and proofs relating to the same, must, when duly exemplified, be recorded, upon the request of any person interested therein, in the surrogate's court of any county, in which real property of the testator is situated.

L. 1837, ch. 460, § 68 (4 Edm. 499).

The exemplification of the record of a will, proved before the judge of the former court of probates, and recorded in his office before the first day of January, in the year 1785, certified under the seal of the officer having custody of the record, must be admitted in evidence in any case, after it has been made to appear that diligent and fruitless search has been made for the original will.

§ 2632. [Am'd, 1804, 1901.] The same.

An exemplified copy of the last will and testament of any deceased person, which has been admitted to probate, whether as a will of real or personal property, or both, and recorded in the office of the surrogate in any county of this state, shall be admitted in evidence in any of the courts of this state, without the proofs and examination taken on the probate thereof, and whether such proofs shall have been recorded or not, with like effect as if the original of such will had been produced and proven in such court, when thirty years have elapsed since the will was admitted to probate and recorded. And the recording of such will shall be evidence that the same was duly admitted to probate. The exemplification of the record of a will which has been proved before the surrogate or judge of probate, or other officer exercising the like jurisdiction, of another state must, when certified by the officer having by law, when the certificate was made, custody of the record, be admitted in evidence, as if the original will was produced and proved, when thirty years have elapsed since the will was proved.

L. 1804, ch. 89; L. 1901, ch. 540. In effect Sept. 1, 1901.

§ 2634. [Am'd, 1909.] Allowance to executor or administrator for recording will or exemplification.

An executor, or administrator, with the will annexed, who causes a record of a will or exemplification to be made as prescribed in section forty-two of the decedent estate law, must be allowed, in his account, the fees paid by him therefor.

Id., §§ 3 and 4 (4 Edm. 439). Am'd by L. 1900, ch. 65. Also partly repealed by L. 1900, ch. 18. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Decedent Estate Law, § 43. See note 73 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 2635. [Am'd, 1902.] Wills to be returned after probate.

Except where special provision is otherwise made by law, or where the surrogate sends a will into another state or territory or into a foreign country, or delivers it to a party in interest, as provided in section two thousand six hundred and twenty of this act, a written will, after it has been proved and recorded, must be retained by the surrogate, until the expiration of one year after it has been recorded, and, if a petition for the revocation of probate thereof is then filed, until a decree is made thereupon. It must then be returned, upon demand, to the person who delivered it, unless he is dead, or a lunatic, or has removed from the state; in which case, it may, in the discretion of the surrogate, be delivered to any person named therein as devisee, or to an heir or assignee of a devisee; or, if it relates only to personal property, to the executor, or administrator, with the will annexed, or to a legatee.

Where a will, which is admitted to probate, names one or more persons to be executor or executors thereof, upon a contingency, the surrogate must inquire into the facts, and, if the contingency has happened, that fact must be recited in the decree. Immediately after a will has been admitted to probate, the person or persons named therein as executors, who are competent by law to serve, and who appear and qualify, are entitled to letters testamentary thereupon; unless, before the letters are granted, a creditor of the decedent, or a person interested in the estate, files an affidavit, specifying his demand, or how he is interested, and either setting forth specifically one or more legal objections to granting the letters to one or more of the executors, or stating that he is advised and believes that there are such objections, and that he intends to file a specific statement of the same. Where such an affidavit is filed, the surrogate must stay the granting of letters, at least thirty days, or until the matter is sooner disposed of. A specification or statement of an objection, made as prescribed in this section, must be verified by the oath of the objector, or his attorney, to the effect that he believes it to be true.

§ 2637. Surrogate to inquire into objections.

The surrogate must inquire into an objection, filed as prescribed in the last section; and, for that purpose, he may receive proof, by affidavit, or otherwise, in his discretion. If it appears that there is a legal and sufficient objection to any person, named as executor in the will, letters shall not be issued to him, except as prescribed in the next section.

2 R. S. 70, § 6 (2 Edm. 71).

§ 2638. Bond; when required.

In either of the following cases, a person named as executor in a will, may entitle himself to letters testamentary thereupon, by giving a bond as prescribed by law, although an objection against him has been established to the satisfaction of the surrogate:

1. Where the objection is, that his circumstances are such, that they do not afford adequate security to the creditors, or persons interested in the estate, for the due administration of the estate.

2. Where the objection is that he is not a resident of the State; and he is a citizen of the United States.

But a person against whom there is no objection, except that of non-residence, is entitled to letters testamentary, without giving a bond, if he has an office within the State, for the regular transaction of business in person; and the will contains an express provision, to the effect that he may act without giving security.

Id.; § 7, am'd; L. 1873, ch. 657 (9 Edm. 699).

A person, named as executor in a will, may renounce the appointment by an instrument in writing, signed by him, and acknowledged or proved, and certified, in like manner as a deed to be recorded in the county, or attested by one or more witnesses, and proved to the satisfaction of the surrogate. Such a renunciation may be retracted by a like instrument, at any time before letters testamentary, or letters of administration with the will annexed, have been issued to any other person in his place; or, after they have been so issued, if they have been revoked, or the person to whom they were issued has died, or become a lunatic, and there is no other acting executor or administrator. Where a retraction is so made, letters testamentary may, in the discretion of the surrogate, be issued to the person making it. An instrument specified in this section must be filed and recorded in the surrogate's office.

Id., § 8 (2 Edm. 72).

§ 2640. Selection of an executor under a power.

Where the will contains a valid power, authorizing the selection, as executor thereof, of a person not named therein, the selection must be made, by the person appointed for that purpose, within thirty days after making the decree admitting the will to probate; in default whereof, the power of selection is deemed to have been renounced. Such selection must be made by an instrument in writing, designating the person selected, signed by the proper person, and acknowledged or proved, and certified, in like manner as a deed to be recorded in the county, or proved to the satisfaction of the surrogate, and filed in the surrogate's office. Where the will authorizes the person, so to be selected, to act with the executor or executors named therein, the issuing of letters must be delayed until the expiration of the period, fixed in this section for the exercise of the power of selection, and, if the selection is so made, for five days thereafter.

§ 2641. Objection to such a person; how taken, etc.

Within five days after a selection is made, as prescribed in the last section, any person may file an affidavit, verified as prescribed in section 2636 of this act, showing that he is a creditor of the decedent, or a person interested in the estate, and setting forth specifically one or more legal objections to granting letters to the person selected. The proceedings to be taken thereupon are the same, as prescribed in sections 2637 and 2638 of this act. If letters are not issued to the person so selected, the power of selection is deemed to be exhausted.

If a person, named as executor in a will, does not qualify or renounce, within thirty days after probate thereof; or if a person, chosen by virtue of a power in the will, does not qualify or renounce within thirty days after the filing of the instrument designating him; or, in either case, if objections are filed, and the executor does not qualify or renounce, within five days after they are determined, in his favor, or, in a case specified in section 2638 of this act, within five days after an objection has been established; the surrogate must, upon the application of any other executor, or any creditor or person interested in the estate, make an order requiring him to qualify within a time therein specified; and directing that, in default of so doing, he be deemed to have renounced his appointment. Where it appears by affidavit or other written proof, to the satisfaction of the surrogate, that such an order cannot, with due diligence, be served personally within the State, upon the person therein named, the surrogate may prescribe the manner in which it must be served, which may be by publication. If the person, so appointed executor, does not qualify within the time fixed, or within such further time as the surrogate allows for that purpose, an order must be made and recorded, reciting the facts, and declaring that he has renounced his appointment as executor. Such an order may be revoked by the surrogate in his discretion, and letters testamentary may be issued to the person so failing to renounce or qualify, upon his application, in a case where he might have retracted an express renunciation, as prescribed in section 2639 of this act. And where any powers to sell, mortgage or lease real estate, or any interest therein, are given to executors as such, or as trustees, or as executors and trustees, and any of such persons named as executors shall neglect to qualify, then all sales, mortgages and leases under said powers made by the executors who shall qualify shall be equally valid as if the other executors or trustees had joined in such sale.

2 R. S. 70, 71, §§ 9, 10, 11, 12 (2 Edm. 272); L. 1883, ch. 401.

§ 2643. [Am'd, 1895, 1901, 1910.] Letters of administration with will annexed; when and to whom.

If no person is named as executor in the will, or selected by virtue of a power contained therein; or if, at any time, by reason of death, incompetency adjudged by the surrogate, renunciation in either of the methods prescribed in sections two thousand six hundred and thirty-nine and two thousand six hundred and forty-two of this act, or revocation of letters, there is no executor, or administrator with the will annexed, qualified to act; the surrogate must, upon the application of a creditor of the decedent, or a person interested in the estate of the decedent, or having a lien upon any real property upon which the decedent's estate has a lien, and upon such notice to the other creditors and persons interested in the estate, as the surrogate deems proper, issue letters of administration with the will annexed, as follows:

1. To one or more of the residuary legatees, who are qualified to act as administrators. If any one of such legatees who would otherwise be so entitled is a minor, administration shall be granted to his guardian, if competent. A corporation which is a residuary legatee shall be qualified to act as such administrator, although not specially authorized by its charter or any provision of law.

2. If there is no such residuary legatee or guardian, or none who will accept, then to one or more of the principal or specified legatees so qualified. If any one of such legatees who would be otherwise so entitled is a minor, administration shall be granted to his guardian, if competent.

3. If there is no such legatee or guardian, or none who will accept, then to the husband, or wife, or to one or more of the next of kin, or to one or more of the heirs or devisees, so qualified.

4. If there is no qualified person, entitled under the foregoing subdivisions, who will accept, then to one or more of the creditors who are so qualified, except that in the counties of New York and Kings the public administrator shall have preference, after the next of kin, over the creditors and all other persons.

5. If there is no qualified creditor who will accept, then to any proper person designated by the surrogate.

2 R. S. 71, § 14 (2 Edm. 72); L. 1895, ch. 734; L. 1901, ch. 141; L. 1910, ch. 585. In effect Sept. 1, 1910.

§ 2644. Id.; renunciation or exclusion of persons having prior right.

But where a person applies for letters of administration with the will annexed, as prescribed in the last section, and another person has a right to the administration prior to that of the petitioner, the application must be made by petition, unless a written renunciation of every person having such a prior right, is filed with the surrogate, and the execution thereof is proved to his satisfaction. The petition must pray that all the persons having a prior right, who have not renounced, be cited to show cause, why administration should not be granted to the petitioner. The proceedings thereupon are the same, as upon an application for administration upon the estate of an intestate.

§ 2645. Executor or administrator to qualify.

An executor, from whom a bond is required, as prescribed in this article, or an administrator with the will annexed, must, before letters are issued to him, qualify as prescribed by law, with respect to an administrator upon the estate of an intestate; and the provisions of article fourth of this title, with respect to the bond to be given by the administrator of an intestate, apply to a bond given pursuant to this section; except that, in fixing the penalty thereof, the surrogate must take into consideration the value of the real property, or of the proceeds thereof, which may come to the hands of the executor or administrator, by virtue of any provision contained in the will.

2 R. S. 76, § 42. See post, §§ 2667, 2615, 2616.

This article does not vary the effect of a decree for probate, made before this chapter takes effect, as declared in the statutes then in force.

§ 2653a. [Added, 1892; am'd, 1896, 1897.] Determining validity of a will.

Any person interested as devisee, legatee or otherwise, in a will or codicil admitted to probate in this state, as provided by the code of civil procedure, or any person interested as heir-at-law, next of kin or otherwise, in any estate, any portion of which is disposed of, or affected, or any portion of which is attempted to be disposed of, or affected, by a will or codicil admitted to probate in this state, as provided by the code of civil procedure, within two years prior to the passage of this act, or any heir-at-law or next of kin of the testator making such will, may cause the validity or invalidity of the probate thereof to be determined in an action in the supreme court for the county in which such probate was had. All the devisees, legatees and heirs of the testator and other interested persons, including the executor or administrator, must be parties to the action. Upon the completion of service of all parties, the plaintiff shall forthwith file the summons and complaint in the office of the clerk of the court in which said action is begun and the clerk thereof shall forthwith certify to the clerk of the surrogate's court in which the will has been admitted to probate, the fact that an action to determine the validity of the probate of such will has been commenced, and on receipt of such certificate by the surrogate's court, the surrogate shall forthwith transmit to the court in which such action has been begun a copy of the will, testimony and all papers relating thereto, and a copy of the decree of probate, attaching the same together, and certifying the same under the seal of the court. The issue of the pleadings in such action shall be confined to the question of whether the writing produced is or is not the last will and codicil of the testator, or either. It shall be tried by a jury and a verdict thereon shall be conclusive as to the real or personal property; unless a new trial be granted or the judgment thereon be reversed or vacated. On the trial of such issue the decree of the surrogate admitting the will or codicil to probate shall be prima facie evidence of the due attestation, execution and validity of such will or codicil. A certified copy of the testimony of such of the witnesses examined upon the probate, as are out of the jurisdiction of the court, dead, or have become incompetent since the probate, shall be admitted in evidence on the trial. The party sustaining the will shall be entitled to open and close the evidence and argument. He shall offer the will in probate and rest. The other party shall then offer his evidence. The party sustaining the will shall then offer his other evidence and rebutting testimony may be offered as in other cases. If all the defendants make default in pleading, or if the answers served in said action, raise no issues, then the plaintiff may enter judgment as provided in article two of chapter eleven of the code of civil procedure in the case of similar defaults in other actions. If the judgment to be entered in an action brought under this section is that the writing produced is the last will and codicil, or either of the testator, said judgment shall also provide that all parties to said action, and all persons claiming under them subsequently to the commencement of the said action, be enjoined from bringing or maintaining any action or proceeding, or from interposing or maintaining a defense in any action or proceeding based upon a claim that such writing is not the last will or codicil, or either, of the testator. Any judgment heretofore entered under this section determining that the writing produced is the last will and codicil, or either, of the testator, shall, upon application of any party to said action, or any person claiming through or under them, and upon notice to such persons as the court at special term shall direct, be amended by such court so as to enjoin all parties to said action, and all persons claiming under the parties to said action subsequently to the commencement thereof, from bringing or maintaining any action or proceeding impeaching the validity of the probate of the said will and codicil, or either of them, or based upon a claim that such writing is not the last will and codicil, or either, of the testator, and from setting up or maintaining such impeachment or claim by way of answer in any action or proceeding. When final judgment shall have been entered in such action, a copy thereof shall be certified and transmitted to the clerk of the surrogate's court in which such will was admitted to probate. The action brought as herein provided shall be commenced within two years after the will or codicil has been admitted to probate, but persons within the age of minority, of unsound mind, imprisoned, or absent from the state, may bring such action two years after such disability has been removed.

L. 1892, ch. 501; L. 1896, ch. 943; L. 1897, ch. 701. In effect May 22, 1897. Supersedes amendment in ch. 104, L. 1897.

ARTICLE THIRD.Probate of heirship.

- Sec. 2654. Heir, etc., may apply to establish heirship.
2655. Citation; appearance of persons interested.
2656. What facts to be ascertained; decree thereupon.
2657. Decree to be recorded; effect thereof.
2658. Petition to vacate or modify it.
2659. Id.; when granted.

§ 2654. Heir, etc., may apply to establish heirship.

Where a person, seized in fee of real property within the State, dies intestate, or without having devised his real property to specific persons, his heirs, or any of them, or any person deriving title from or through such heirs or any of them, may present to the surrogate's court which has acquired jurisdiction of the estate, or, if no surrogate's court has acquired such jurisdiction, then to the surrogate's court of the county where the real property, or any part thereof is situated, a written petition duly verified; describing the real property; setting forth the facts upon which the jurisdiction of the court depends; and the interest or share of the petitioner, and of each other heir of the decedent, in the real property; and praying for a decree establishing the right of inheritance thereto, and that all the heirs of the decedent may be cited to attend the probate of that right. Upon the presentation of such a petition the surrogate must issue a citation accordingly.

The citation must set forth the name of the decedent and of the petitioner; the interest or share which the petitioner claims; and a brief description of the real property. Any heir of the decedent, who has not been cited, may nevertheless appear at the hearing; and thereby make himself a party to the special proceeding. But this section does not affect a right or interest of such a person, unless he becomes a party.

See §§ 2616, 2617, 2619 and 2623, ante.

§ 2656. What facts to be ascertained; decree thereupon.

Upon the return of the citation, the surrogate must hear the allegations and proofs of the parties. If it appears that there is a contest, respecting the heirship of a party, or respecting the share to which a party is entitled, as an heir of the decedent, the surrogate must dismiss the proceedings. If there is no such contest, he must inquire into the facts and circumstances of the case. The petitioner must establish, by satisfactory evidence, the fact of the decedent's death; the place of his residence at the time of his death; his intestacy, either generally, or as to the real property in question; the number of heirs entitled to inherit the property in question; the name, age, residence, and relationship to the decedent, of each; and the interest or share of each in the property. The surrogate, where these facts are established, must make a decree, describing the property, and declaring that the right of inheritance thereto has been established to his satisfaction, in accordance with the facts, which must be recited in the decree.

L. 1873, ch. 562, §§ 1 and 2, am'd: L. 1874, ch. 127 (9 Edm. 861).

§ 2657. Decree to be recorded; effect thereof.

An exemplified copy of a decree, made as prescribed in the last section, and of the proofs taken thereupon, may be recorded in the office of the clerk, or of the register, as the case requires, of each county in which the real property is situated, as prescribed by law for recording a deed, and, from the time when the exemplifications are so recorded, the decree, or the record thereof, is presumptive evidence of the facts so declared to be established thereby.

L. 1873, ch. 552, §§ 1 and 2, am'd; L. 1874, ch. 127 (9 Edm. 861).

§ 2658. Petition to vacate or modify it.

Any person, other than a party to a special proceeding, instituted as prescribed in this article, or the heir, devisee, or assignee of such a party, may, at any time within ten years after a decree establishing the right of inheritance is made therein, present to the court a written petition, duly verified, showing that he has a right, title, or interest in the real property, or a part thereof, which is injuriously affected by the decree; stating that the decree is erroneous in some material particular, specified therein; and praying that the decree may be set aside or modified in that particular, and that all the persons, whose heirship was established by the decree, may be cited to show cause, why the prayer of the petition should not be granted. If an heir has since died, or has conveyed the share or interest so established, by a deed duly recorded in the county, the petition must state that fact; and must pray that the persons who have succeeded to his interest, may be also cited. Upon the presentation of such a petition, the surrogate must issue a citation accordingly.

§ 2659. Id.; when granted.

Where a petition is presented as prescribed in the last section, and it appears, upon the hearing, that, if the petitioner, or his ancestor, testator, or grantor, had been a party to the special proceeding, the decree or a part thereof could not have been legally made, as prescribed in this article, the surrogate must vacate or modify the decree accordingly. An exemplified copy of the decree or order, so vacating or modifying the original decree, may be recorded in the office of any clerk or register, where a copy of the original decree was recorded.

ARTICLE FOURTH.

Grant of letters of administration.

- Sec. 2660. Who entitled to letters of administration.
2661. Persons incompetent to receive letters.
2662. Application for letters.
2663. Citations; proceedings upon return thereof.
2664. Administrator's bond.
2665. When county treasurer to be ex-officio public administrator.
2666. Bond, letters of administration and proceedings thereon.
2667. When authority of county treasurer superseded.
2668. Powers and proceedings of county treasurer as administrator; payments into state treasury.
2669. Public administrator of Kings county.

Administration in case of intestacy must be granted to the relatives of the deceased entitled to succeed to his personal property, who will accept the same, in the following order:

1. To the surviving husband or wife.
2. To the children.
3. To the father.
4. To the mother.
5. To the brothers.
6. To the sisters.
7. To the grandchildren.
8. To any other next of kin entitled to share in the distribution of the estate.
9. To an executor or administrator of a sole legatee named in a will, whereby the whole estate is devised to such deceased sole legatee.

If a person entitled is a minor, administration must be granted to his guardian, if competent, in preference to creditors or other persons. If no relative, or guardian of a minor relative, will accept the same, the letters must be granted to the creditors of the deceased; the creditor first applying, if otherwise competent, to be entitled to preference. If no creditor applies, the letters must be granted to any other person or persons legally competent. Letters of administration shall also be granted to an executor or administrator of a deceased person named as sole legatee in a will. The public administrator in the city of New York has preference after the next of kin and after an executor or administrator of a sole legatee named in a will whereby the whole estate is devised to such deceased sole legatee over creditors and all other persons. In other counties, the county treasurer shall have preference next after creditors over all other persons, except that where the surrogate is unable to ascertain to his satisfaction whether the decedent left surviving him any person or persons entitled to succeed to his estate, or where it shall appear to the surrogate that the deceased left no known heirs-at-law or next of kin, then the public administrator or county treasurer shall have preference over creditors. If several persons of the same degree of kindred to the intestate are entitled to administration, they must be preferred in the following order: First, men to women; second, relatives of the whole blood to those of the half blood; third, unmarried women to married. If there are several persons equally entitled to administration, the surrogate may grant letters to one or more of such persons, and administration may be granted to one or more competent persons, although not entitled to the same, with the consent of the person entitled to be joined with such person or persons; which consent must be in writing, and filed in the office of the surrogate. If, in an action, brought or about to be brought, the intestate, if living, would be a proper party thereto, any party to such action, interested in the subject thereof, may apply to the surrogate's court for the granting of letters of administration to himself, or some other qualified person, and upon the jurisdictional facts being satisfactorily shown, and no relative, or guardian or a minor relative, and no creditor, county treasurer or public administrator consenting to such administration, some legally competent person must be appointed administrator.

L. 1894, ch. 508; L. 1897, ch. 177. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65. Also partly repealed by L. 1909, ch. 18. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Decedent Estate Law, § 103. See note 74 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code. Am'd L. 1913, ch. 403. In effect April 29, 1913.

§ 2661. [Am'd, 1893.] Persons incompetent to receive letters.

Letters of administration shall not be granted to a person convicted of an infamous crime, nor to any one incapable by law of making a contract, nor to person not a citizen of the United States, unless he is a resident of the state, nor to a person under twenty-one years of age, or who is adjudged incompetent by the surrogate to execute the duties of such trust by reason of drunkenness, improvidence or want of understanding.

L. 1893, ch. 686.

§ 2662. [Am'd, 1893, 1909.] Application for letters.

A person entitled absolutely or contingently, to administration on the estate of an intestate, or any person having a claim for the funeral expenses of the decedent, may present to the surrogate's court having jurisdiction, a written petition, duly verified, praying for a decree awarding letters of administration, either to him, or to such other person or persons, having a prior right, as is entitled thereto, or in the alternative, as the petitioner elects, and if necessary, that the persons required to be cited, as prescribed in the next section, be cited to show cause why such a decree should not be made. The petition must set forth the petitioner's title; the facts on which the jurisdiction of the court to grant letters of administration upon the estate depends; and the names of the husband or wife, if any, and of the next of kin of the decedent, so far as they are known to the petitioner, or can be ascertained by him with due diligence. A citation shall not be issued, and a decree shall not be made, where a citation is not necessary, until the petitioner presumptively proves, by affidavit or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the surrogate, the existence of all the jurisdictional facts, and particularly that the decedent left no will. For the purpose of the inquiry touching any of these matters, the surrogate may issue a subpoena, requiring any person to attend and be examined as a witness.

Every person, being a resident of the State, who has a right to administration, prior or equal to that of the petitioner, and who has not renounced, must be cited upon a petition for letters of administration. The surrogate may, in his discretion, issue a citation to non-residents, or those who have renounced, or to any or all other persons interested in the estate, whom he thinks proper to cite. Where it is not necessary to cite any person, a decree, granting to the petitioner letters, may be made on presentation of the petition. Where the surrogate is unable to ascertain, to his satisfaction, whether the decedent left, surviving him, any person entitled to succeed to his estate, or if it shall appear to the surrogate that the decedent left no heirs-at-law or next of kin, a citation must be issued directed generally to all creditors of, and persons interested in the estate, and also to the attorney-general, and the public administrator of the proper county, requiring them to show cause why administration should not be granted to the petitioner. Any person who has a right to administration, prior or equal to that of the petitioner, may renounce his right by a written instrument, acknowledged or proved and certified in like manner as a deed to be recorded in the county, or otherwise proved to the satisfaction of the surrogate; which must be filed in the surrogate's office. Where a citation is issued, any creditor of the decedent, or any person interested in the personal estate, although not cited, may appear and make himself a party to the special proceeding, in like manner and with like effect, as a devisee or legatee, who is not cited on an application for probate. On the return of a citation, issued as prescribed in this article, the surrogate must make such a decree in the premises as justice requires. The decree may award administration to any party to the special proceeding who appears to be entitled thereto. The surrogate, in his discretion, may award administration without a personal examination of the persons to whom it is awarded.

A person appointed administrator, before letters are issued to him, must file his official oath, exetute to the people of the State, and file with the surrogate, the joint and several bond of himself and two or more sureties, in a penalty fixed by the surrogate, not less than twice the value of the personal property of which the decedent died possessed and of the probable amount to be recovered by reason of any right of action, granted to an executor or administrator, by special provision of law. The sum to be fixed as the amount of the penalty must be ascertained by the surrogate, by the examination on oath of the applicant or any other person, or otherwise, as the surrogate thinks proper. The bond must be conditioned that the administrator will faithfully discharge the trust reposed in him as such and obey all lawful decrees and orders of the surrogate's court touching the administration of the estate committed to him. But where a right of action is granted to an executor or administrator by special provision of law, if it appears to be impracticable to give a bond sufficient to cover the probable amount to be recovered, the surrogate may, in his discretion, accept modified security, and issue letters limited to the prosecution of such action, but restraining the executor or administrator from a compromise of the action, and the enforcement of any judgment recovered therein, until the further order of the surrogate on additional further satisfactory security. In cases where all the next of kin to the intestate consent the penalty of the bond need not exceed double the amount of the claims of the creditors, against the estate, presented to the surrogate, pursuant to a notice to be published twice a week for four weeks in the official State paper and in two newspapers published in the city of New York, and once a week for four weeks in two newspapers published in the county where the intestate usually resided, and in the county where he died, reciting an intention to apply for letters under this provision, and notifying creditors to present their claims to the surrogate on or before a day to be fixed in such notice, which shall be at least thirty days after the first publication thereof; but no bond so given shall be for less than five thousand dollars; and such bond may be increased by order of the surrogate for cause shown. Pending such application, no temporary administrator shall be appointed, except on petition of such next of kin.

L. 1893, ch. 686. See Banking Law, § 1386, L. 1907, ch. 612.

§ 2865. [Am'd, 1893.] When county treasurer to be ex-officio public administrator.

The county treasurer of each county, except New York and Kings, by virtue of his office, has authority to collect and take charge of the assets of every person dying intestate, amounting to one hundred dollars or more, on which letters of administration are not granted, in the following cases:

1. When such persons leave assets in the county of the treasurer and there is no widow or relative in the county entitled or competent to take letters of administration on the estate.

2. When assets of any such person, after his death, come into the county of the treasurer and there is no person in the county entitled and competent to take administration of the estate.

In such cases intestacy is presumed until a will is proved and letters testamentary issued thereon. For the purpose of collecting and preserving such estates, the county treasurer may maintain suits in his name of office, and without any other authority, in the same manner as an executor may by law. If there is a widow or relative of such intestate entitled to administration on his estate in the county, and if due proof is made to the surrogate in the county that there are creditors or relatives of the deceased, residing more than one hundred miles distant from the residence of the surrogate, who are interested in the distribution of the estate, and that the effects of the deceased are in danger of waste or embezzlement, he may grant an order to the treasurer of the county, authorizing him to seize and secure the said effects, or any part thereof, which order shall vest in him all the powers given in this section. When any county treasurer is authorized, pursuant to the provisions of this section, to take charge of any property of an intestate, he shall have the same powers and be entitled to take the same proceedings which an administrator of the estate of a deceased person may have or be entitled to take, for the discovery of any property of the intestate, which may be concealed or withheld, and for the sale of any that may be perishable; and to cause an inventory of the property of the intestate to be made by appraisers appointed by the surrogate, executed by the county treasurer and filed with the surrogate. Such inventory shall be returned to the surrogate within ten days after the county treasurer takes charge of such property; and the time for making the return may, for good cause shown, be extended by the surrogate ten days longer. If the county treasurer neglects to make the return within the time prescribed, he shall forfeit the sum of five hundred dollars, to be sued for and recovered by the county superintendent of the poor, for the use of the poor of the county, and also forfeit his office. The treasurer of the county of Richmond shall not act in any case where the public administrator of the city of New York has jurisdiction.

L. 1893, ch. 686.

When the inventory is returned, the county treasurer must give the bond required by law to be given by a temporary administrator appointed by a surrogate, with such sureties and in such penalty as the surrogate approves, and the surrogate must then issue letters to such county treasurer, authorizing him to collect and preserve the estate of the deceased. The surrogate must immediately thereafter cause notice thereof to be published once in each week for three months, in a newspaper printed in his county, and in the official State paper, requiring all persons claiming a right to administer on such estate to appear and interpose such claim before the surrogate within a certain time to be therein specified, not less than six months after the first publication of such notice in the official State paper. If before such time any person entitled to administer appears and claims the same, the surrogate must cause ten days' notice of such claim to be served on the county treasurer and may, at the expiration of such time, grant letters to such persons unless it appear that he is not entitled thereto; and thereon the publication of the notice must be discontinued. At the time appointed, if letters have not been previously granted, any person entitled to administration on such estate and duly qualified and competent, who appears and claims the same, shall be entitled to letters testamentary or of administration, as the case may be. On the granting of such letters, all control and authority of the county treasurer over the estate of the deceased cease, and he must deliver all the assets in his hands to the person so appointed after deducting therefrom the expenses incurred in securing and preserving the assets, in obtaining letters, and publishing the notice herein required, and a reasonable compensation for his services not exceeding three dollars for each day necessarily employed, to be allowed and taxed by the surrogate on the oath of the county treasurer. If letters testamentary or of administration be not granted by the surrogate to any person at or before the expiration of the time specified in the notice then unless it appear that such letters have already been granted by some other surrogate, the surrogate must grant letters of administration thereon to the county treasurer as in other cases, on receiving the like bond, with the like sureties, and in the like penalty, as administrators are required to give. The county treasurer must accept of such letters and give the bond above required. Such letters and the record thereof, and a transcript of such record, duly certified, are conclusive evidence of the authority of the county treasurer in all cases in which the surrogate has jurisdiction under this article. The surrogate must immediately transmit to the comptroller a certified copy of all such letters granted by him to the county treasurer, the expense of which must be paid to him out of the State treasury, on the warrant of the comptroller. Until letters of administration be granted, the county treasurer shall not proceed further in the administration of any estate than to pay the funeral charges of the deceased, to collect debts, to take possession of and secure his effects, to sell such thereof as are perishable and to defray the expenses of the proceedings required by law.

L. 1893, ch. 686.

§ 2067. [Am'd, 1893.] When authority of county treasurer superseded.

The powers and authority of the county treasurer in relation to the estate of a deceased person shall be superseded:

1. By the production of letters testamentary granted before or subsequently to his becoming vested with the authority of an administrator on the same estate.
2. By the production of letters of administration granted to any other person on the same estate before the county treasurer became vested with the powers of an administrator thereon.
3. By the production of letters of administration issued by the surrogate of a county in this State of which the deceased was a resident at the time of his death, granted after the county treasurer became vested with the powers of an administrator on the estate of such deceased.

When his authority is so superseded, he must deliver to the executor or administrator producing such letters, all the assets of the deceased in his hands, after deducting therefrom the allowance for his services and the expenses incurred to be taxed and allowed by the surrogate. All acts done by him in good faith previous to the time when his authority shall be superseded shall be valid. All suits commenced by him may be continued by and in the name of the executor or administrator who succeeds him in the administration of the estate in relation to which the suit may be brought.

§ 2668. [Am'd, 1893.] Powers and proceedings of county treasurer as administrator; payments into state treasury.

On receiving letters of administration, the county treasurer shall be vested with all the powers and rights of other administrators, and subject to the same duties and obligations, except as herein otherwise provided. He must account and may be compelled to account in the same manner as other administrators, and proceedings for such accounting may be had at the instance of any person interested, or of the attorney-general or the comptroller. He must be allowed on the settlement of his accounts for his expenses as other administrators, and for his services double the commissions allowed them by law. The residue of any moneys in his hands must be paid into the treasury of the state for the benefit of the persons entitled to receive the same. He must exhibit to the comptroller annually, at the time of rendering his account of taxes, a verified statement of all moneys received by him for commissions, services and expenses, and the total amount of his receipts and expenditures in each case in which he has taken charge of and collected any effects, or in which he has administered on any estate during the preceding year, with the name of the deceased, his place of residence at the time of his death, if known, and the place from which he came, if he was not a resident of the State at the time of his death. A copy of such statement must be published once a week for three weeks in a paper printed in the county and in the official State paper, the expense of which may be retained by him out of any balance in his hands payable into the State treasury. For a neglect to comply with this provision, he forfeits one hundred dollars to the people of the State, to be recovered by the attorney-general, and the comptroller shall give notice to the attorney-general of every such omission.

L. 1903, ch. 686.

§ 2669. [Am'd, 1893, 1904.] Public administrator of Kings county.

The surrogate of the county of Kings shall, on or before the nineteenth day of October, nineteen hundred and eleven, and every five years thereafter—except as hereinafter provided—appoint a suitable person as public administrator of said county to hold office for the term of five years unless sooner removed for cause, the said term beginning on the nineteenth day of October, nineteen hundred and eleven. In case of a vacancy in said office by reason of death, resignation or otherwise said surrogate shall fill the same by appointing a suitable person as public administrator for the full term of five years from the date of such appointment and qualification. Before entering upon the performance of the duties of his office the person so appointed must take and subscribe before the county clerk, or a justice of the supreme court, the constitutional oath of office, and execute a bond with sureties to be approved by a justice of the supreme court, to the county of Kings, in a penal sum of fifty thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful discharge of all the duties of his office, and that he will fully and correctly account for and pay over all moneys and property that may come into his hands as such public administrator, according to law, which bond must be filed with the clerk of the county. He shall be entitled to retain from all moneys or property of any intestate that come into his hands after deducting all actual and necessary expenses the same commissions as are now allowed by law to executors or administrators, and he shall receive a salary for his services to be fixed by the board of estimate and apportionment of the city of New York upon the recommendation of the surrogate of the county of Kings, the same to be raised and paid each year in the same manner as are other county charges. The public administrator shall not receive to his own use any fees or emoluments in addition to his salary, and he shall pay into the treasury of the city of New York all commissions and costs received by him from any source whatever; such payments shall be made monthly and shall be accompanied by a sworn statement in such form as the comptroller of the city of New York shall prescribe, showing in detail the costs and commissions received and allowed to him. A suitable office for said public administrator shall be provided for him in one of the county buildings in the county of Kings. The surrogate shall also appoint a counsel and a clerk to said public administrator, their salaries to be fixed by the board of estimate and apportionment of the city of New York upon the recommendation of said surrogate and to be raised and paid each year in the same manner as are other county charges. He shall have the prior right and authority to collect, take charge of and administer upon the goods, chattels, personal property and debts of persons dying intestate, and for that purpose to maintain suits as such public administrator as any executor or administrator might by law in the following cases:

1. Whenever such person dies leaving any assets or effects in the county of Kings, and there is no widow, husband or next of kin entitled to a distributive share in the estate of such intestate, resident in the state, entitled, competent or willing to take out letters of administration on such estate.

2. Whenever assets or effects of any person dying intestate, after his death, come into the county of Kings and there is no such person entitled, competent or willing to take administration of the estate. In such cases intestacy is presumed until a will is proved and letters testamentary issued thereon. All provisions of law conferring jurisdiction, authority or power on, or otherwise relating to, the office of public administrator of the city of New York and to the office of public administrator in the several counties of the state, so far as applicable, apply to and are conferred on the office hereby created. The surrogate of the county of Kings, in cases where now authorized by law to issue letters of temporary administration, may in his discretion issue letters of temporary administration to such administrator without further security than required by this section.

 2682. When time to run for and against the estate.
 2683. Application of this chapter to collectors, etc., heretofore appointed.

On the application of a creditor, or a person interested in the estate, the surrogate may, in his discretion, issue to one or more persons, competent and qualified to serve as executors, letters of temporary administration, in either of the following cases:

1. When for any cause, delay necessarily occurs in the granting of letters testamentary or letters of administration, or in probating a will.

2. Where a person, of whose estate the surrogate would have jurisdiction, if he was shown to be dead, disappears or is missing, so that, after diligent search, his abode cannot be ascertained, and under circumstances which afford reasonable ground to believe either that he is dead, or that he has become a lunatic, or that he has been secreted, confined, or otherwise unlawfully made away with; and the appointment of a temporary administrator is necessary for the protection of his property, and the rights of creditors or of those who will be interested in the estate, if it is found that he is dead. An appointment of a temporary administrator, in a case specified in subdivision first must be made by an order. At least ten days' notice of the application for such an order must be given to each party to the proceeding who has appeared, unless the surrogate is satisfied by proof that the safety of the estate requires the notice to be shortened, in which case he may shorten the time of service to not less than two days. Application for such an appointment, in a case specified in subdivision second, must be made by petition, in like manner as where an application is made for administration in case of intestacy; and the proceedings are the same as prescribed in article fourth of this title, relating to such last mentioned application. Such an application for the appointment of a temporary administrator may also be made, with like effect, and in like manner, as if made by a creditor, by the county treasurer of the county where the person, whose estate is in question, last resided; or, if he was not a resident of the state, of the county where any of his property, real or personal, is situated. A temporary administrator must qualify, as prescribed in article fourth of this title, with respect to an administrator in chief.

A temporary administrator, appointed as prescribed in this article, has authority to take into his possession personal property; to secure and preserve it; and to collect choses in action; and for either of those purposes, he may maintain any action or special proceeding. An action may be maintained against him, by leave of the surrogate, upon a debt of the decedent, or of the absentee whom he represents, in like manner, and with like effect, as if he was an administrator in chief. The surrogate may, by an order, made upon at least ten days' notice to all the parties who have appeared in the special proceeding, authorize the temporary administrator to sell, after appraisal, such personal property, specifying it, of the decedent, or of the absentee whom he represents, as it appears to be necessary to sell, for the benefit of the estate; or, if it appears that the safety of the estate requires the notice to be shortened, the surrogate may shorten the notice to not less than two days. The surrogate may, also, by order, authorize him to pay funeral expenses, or any expense of the administration of his trust, or stenographer's or referee's fees on contest of a will or administration; and he may also direct the payment of a legacy or other pecuniary provision under a will or a distributive share or just proportionate part thereof, according to section two thousand seven hundred and nineteen of this act as though he were an executor or administrator.

L. 1837, ch. 460, § 24 (4 Edm. 491), am'd; L. 1864, ch. 71, § 9 (6 Edm. 234).

After six months have elapsed, since letters were issued to a temporary administrator, appointed upon the estate, of either a decedent or an absentee, he has the same power, as an administrator in chief, to publish a notice requiring creditors of the decedent or absentee, to exhibit their demands to him. The publication thereof has the same effect, with respect to the temporary administrator, and also an executor or administrator, subsequently appointed upon the same estate, as if the temporary administrator was the executor or an administrator in chief, and the person to whom the subsequent letters are issued was his successor.

L. 1870, ch. 359, § 10.

§ 2674. Id.; as to paying debts.

After a year has elapsed, since letters were issued to a temporary administrator, appointed under the estate, of either a decedent or an absentee, the surrogate may, upon the application of the temporary administrator, and upon proof, to his satisfaction, that the assets exceed the debts, make an order, permitting the applicant to pay the whole or any part of a debt, due to a creditor of the decedent or absentee; or, upon the petition of such a creditor, he may issue a citation to the temporary administrator, requiring him to show cause why he should not pay the petitioner's debt. When such a petition is presented, the proceedings are, in all respects, the same as where a creditor presents a petition, praying for a decree directing an executor or administrator to pay his debt, as prescribed in article first of title fourth of this chapter.

L. 1870, ch. 350, § 10.

§ 2675. [Am'd, 1901.] Id.; as to real property.

When a temporary administrator is appointed and a proceeding is pending for the probate of a will of real property, or there is a delay in the granting of letters testamentary or administration on such a will or in the qualification of a trustee named therein, the order appointing him may confer upon him authority to take possession of real property, in the same or another county, which is affected by the will, and to receive the rents and profits thereof. The surrogate may, by an order, confer upon him authority to lease any or all of the real property, for a term not exceeding one year; or to do any other act with respect thereto, except to sell it, which is, in the surrogate's opinion, necessary for the execution of the will, or the preservation or benefit of the real property. For either of these purposes, he may maintain or defend any action or special proceeding.

§ 2676. Special powers of temporary administrator of absentee.

A temporary administrator, appointed upon the estate of an absentee, has all the powers and authority enumerated in the last section, with respect to the real property of the absentee. His acts, done in pursuance of that authority, bind the absentee, if he is living, or his heir or devisee, if he is dead, in the same manner as the acts of an executor or administrator bind his successor.

Upon proof, satisfactory to the surrogate, that the wife or an infant child of an absentee, upon whose estate a temporary administrator has been appointed, is in such circumstances as to require provision to be made out of the estate for his or her maintenance, clothing, or education, the surrogate may make an order, directing the temporary administrator to make such provision therefor, as the surrogate deems proper, out of any personal property in his hands, not needed for the payment of debts.

A temporary administrator, appointed as prescribed in this article, must, within ten days after any money belonging to the estate comes into his hands, deposit it as prescribed in this section. Where he was appointed by the surrogate's court of any county except New-York, it must be deposited with a person, with a bank, or with a domestic incorporated trust company, designated by the surrogate; but a natural person, so designated as depository, must first file in the surrogate's office a bond to the surrogate, in a penalty by him, executed by the depository and two sureties, and conditioned to render a faithful account, and pay over all money received by him, upon the direction of any court of competent jurisdiction. Where the temporary administrator was appointed by the surrogate of the county of New-York, the money must be deposited in a domestic incorporated trust company, having its principal office or place of business in the city of New-York, and either specially approved by the surrogate, or designated, in the general rules of practice, as a depository of funds paid into court.

§ 2679. Proceedings where he neglects to deposit.

If a temporary administrator neglects to make a deposit, as prescribed in the last section, within the time therein limited, the surrogate must, upon the application of a creditor or person interested in the estate, accompanied with satisfactory proof of the neglect, make an order, directing him to do so forthwith, or to show cause why a warrant of attachment should not issue against him. In the county of New-York, the order must be made returnable three days after issuing it; and it must be served upon the temporary administrator, at least two days before the return day thereof, either personally or by leaving a copy thereof within the State at his dwelling place, or his office for the regular transaction of business in person; or, if it cannot be served in either of those methods, by serving it in such other manner, as the surrogate directs. In any other county, it must be made returnable within a reasonable time, not exceeding fifteen days after issuing it; and it must be served, in like manner, at least ten days before the return day thereof.

Money deposited by a temporary administrator, as prescribed in this article, cannot be withdrawn, except upon the order of the surrogate, a certified copy of which must be presented to the depository. Such an order may be made upon two days' notice of the application therefor, given to all the parties to the special proceeding, in which the temporary administrator was appointed, who appeared therein; but not otherwise.

Id., § 6.

CR. 644 § 2681. Notices required by this article; how given.

A notice required to be given, as prescribed in this article, to a party other than the temporary administrator, must be served upon the attorney of the party to whom notice is to be given; or, if he has not appeared by an attorney, upon the party, in like manner as a notice may be served upon an attorney in a civil action, brought in the supreme court. But where the attorney or party to be served does not reside in the surrogate's county; or where the attorney for a party has died, and no other appearance for that party has been filed in the surrogate's office; the surrogate may, by order, dispense with notice to that party; or may require notice to be given to him, in any manner which he thinks proper.

§ 2682. When time to run for or against the estate.

Section 2583 of this act does not affect any proceeding in favor of or against an executor, or an administrator in chief, where a temporary administrator of the same estate has been appointed, except as otherwise prescribed in section 2673 and section 2674 of this act.

Each provision of this chapter, imposing a duty or liability upon a temporary administrator, appointed upon the estate of a decedent, or his sureties; or conferring upon the surrogate power or authority with respect to such a temporary administrator, or his sureties; applies to a collector or special administrator, appointed before this chapter takes effect, and his sureties; except so far as it is repugnant to the provisions of law in force, when the collector or special administrator was appointed, or to the letters issued to him.

ARTICLE SIXTH.

Revocation of letters testamentary and letters of administration.

Sec. 2684. Revocation of letters, upon proof of will, or revocation of probate, etc.

2685. Revocation of letters for disqualification, misconduct, etc.

2686. Petition; citation thereupon.

2687. Hearing; decree.

2688. Decree not to affect testamentary trusts.

2689. Application by executor, etc., for revocation of letters.

2690. Proceedings thereupon.

2691. In what cases letters may be revoked without a citation.

2692. Remaining executors may act, where letters of one revoked.

2693. In other cases, successor to be appointed.

§ 2684. Revocation of letters, upon proof of will or revocation of probate, etc.

Where, after letters of administration, on the ground of intestacy, have been granted, a will is admitted to probate, and letters are issued thereupon; or where, after letters have been issued upon a will, the probate thereof is revoked, or a subsequent will is admitted to probate, and letters are issued thereupon; the decree, granting or revoking probate, must revoke the former letters.

2 R. S. 78, § 46 (2 Edm. 80). See § 2603, ante.

§ 2685. Revocation of letters for disqualification, misconduct, etc.

In either of the following cases, a creditor, or person interested in the estate of a decedent, may present, to the surrogate's court, from which letters were issued to an executor or administrator, a written petition, duly verified, praying for a decree revoking those letters; and that the executor or administrator may be cited to show cause, why a decree should not be made accordingly:

1. Where the executor or administrator was, when letters were issued to him, or has since become, incompetent, or disqualified by law to act as such; and the grounds of the objection did not exist, or the objection was not taken by the petitioner, or a person whom he represents, upon the hearing of the application for letters.

2. Where, by reason of his having wasted or improperly applied the money or other assets in his hands, or invested money in securities unauthorized by law, or otherwise improvidently managed or injured the property committed to his charge; or by reason of other misconduct in the execution of his office, or dishonesty, drunkenness, improvidence, or want of understanding; he is unfit for the due execution of his office.

3. Where he has wilfully refused, or, without good cause, neglected, to obey any lawful direction of the surrogate, contained in a decree or order; or any provision of law, relating to the discharge of his duty.

4. Where the grant of his letters was obtained by a false suggestion of a material fact.

5. In the case of an executor, where his circumstances are such, that they do not afford adequate security to the creditors or persons interested, for the due administration of the estate.

6. In the case of an executor, where he has removed or is about to remove from the State, and the case is not one, where a non-resident executor would be entitled to letters without giving a bond.

7. In the case of an executor, where, by the terms of the will, his office was to cease upon a contingency, which has happened.

8. In the case of a temporary administrator, appointed upon the estate of an absentee, where it is shown that the absentee has returned; or that he is living, and capable of returning and resuming the management of his affairs; or that an executor, or an administrator in chief has been appointed upon his estate; or that a committee of his property has been appointed by a competent court of the State.

§ 2686. Petition; citation thereupon.

A petition, presented as prescribed in the last section, must set forth the facts and circumstances, showing that the case is one of those therein specified. Upon proof, by affidavit or oral testimony, satisfactory to the surrogate, of the truth of the allegations contained in the petition, a citation must be issued according to the prayer thereof; except that, where the case is within subdivision fifth of the last section, and the executor has given a bond, as prescribed in article first of this title, the surrogate may, in his discretion, entertain or decline to entertain the application.

Upon the return of a citation, issued as prescribed in the last section, if the objections, or any of them, are established to the surrogate's satisfaction, he must make a decree, revoking the letters issued to the person complained of. But the surrogate may, in his discretion, dismiss the proceedings, upon such terms, as to costs, as justice requires, and may allow the letters to remain unrevoked, in either of the following cases:

1. Where the case is within subdivision third of the last section but one, if the direction of the surrogate or the provision of law is obeyed, and suitable amends made to each person injured by the neglect or refusal to obey it.

2. Where the case is within subdivision fourth of that section, if the person cited is entitled to letters, notwithstanding the false suggestion.

3. Where the case is within subdivision fifth of that section, if the executor gives, within a reasonable time, not exceeding five days, a bond, as prescribed in article first of this title.

2 R. S. 72, §§ 20 and 21 (2 Edm. 74)

§ 2688. Decree not to affect testamentary trusts.

Where an executor or an administrator is also a testamentary trustee, a decree revoking his letters does not affect his power or authority as testamentary trustee, except in the case specially prescribed for that purpose, in title sixth of this chapter.

§ 2689. Application by executor, etc., for revocation of letters.

An executor or administrator may, at any time, present, to the surrogate's court a written petition, duly verified, praying that his account may be judicially settled; that a decree may thereupon be made, revoking his letters, and discharging him accordingly; and that the same persons may be cited to show cause, why such a decree should not be made, who must be cited upon a petition for a judicial settlement of his account, as prescribed in article second of title fourth of this chapter. The petition must set forth the facts upon which the application is founded; and it must, in all other respects, conform to a petition praying for a judicial settlement of the account of an executor or administrator. The surrogate may, in his discretion, entertain or decline to entertain the application.

§ 2690. Proceedings thereupon.

If the surrogate entertains an application, made as prescribed in the last section, the proceedings thereupon must be, in all respects, the same, as upon a petition for a judicial settlement of the petitioner's account; except that, upon the hearing, the surrogate must first determine, whether sufficient reasons exist for granting the prayer of the petition. If he determines that they exist, he must make an order accordingly, and allowing the petitioner to account, for the purpose of being discharged. Upon his fully accounting, and paying over all money which is found to be due from him to the estate, and delivering over all books, papers, and other property of the estate in his hands, either into the surrogate's court, or in such a manner as the surrogate directs, a decree may be made, revoking the petitioner's letters, and discharging him accordingly.

Id., part of § 3.

§ 2691. In what cases letters may be revoked without a citation.

In either of the following cases, the surrogate must make a decree, revoking letters testamentary or letters of administration, issued from his court, without a petition or the issuing of a citation:

1. Where the person, to whom the letters were issued, is not a resident of the State, or is absent therefrom; and, upon being duly cited to account, neglects to appear upon the return of the citation, without showing a satisfactory excuse therefor; and the surrogate has not sufficient reason to believe that such an excuse can be made.

2. Where a citation, issued to such a person, in a case prescribed by law, cannot be personally served upon him, by reason of his having absconded or concealed himself.

3. Where, by reason of his default in returning an inventory, such a person has remained, for thirty days, committed to jail, under the surrogate's order, granted in proceedings taken as prescribed in section 2715 of this act.

4. In the case of a temporary administrator, where an order has been made and served, as prescribed in section 2679 of this act, directing him to deposit money, or show cause why a warrant of attachment should not issue against him; and a warrant of attachment, issued thereupon, has been returned not served upon him.

L. 1840, ch. 288, part of § 1 (4 Edm. 503); 2 R. S. 85, § 19 (2 Edm. 87).

§ 2692. Remaining executors may act, where letters of one revoked.

Where one of two or more executors or administrators dies, or becomes a lunatic, or is convicted of an infamous offence, or becomes otherwise incapable of discharging the trust reposed in him; or where letters are revoked with respect to one of them, a successor to the person, whose letters are revoked, shall not be appointed, except where such an appointment is necessary, in order to comply with the express terms of a will; but the others may proceed and complete the administration of the estate, pursuant to the letters, and may continue any action or special proceeding, brought by or against all.

When all the executors or all the administrators, to whom letters have been issued, die, or become incapable, as prescribed in the last section, or the letters are revoked as to all of them; the surrogate must grant letters of administration to one or more persons as their successors, in like manner as if the former letters had not been issued; and the proceedings to procure the grant of such letters, are the same, and the same security shall be required, as in a case of intestacy, except that the surrogate may, in his discretion, in case where the estate has been partially administered upon the former representative or representatives, fix as the penalty of the bond to be given by such successor or successors, a sum not less than twice the value of the assets of the estate remaining unadministered.

§ 2695. [Am'd, 1888, 1909.] Ancillary letters upon foreign probate.

Where a will of personal property, made by a person who resided without the State at the time of the execution thereof, or at the time of his death, has been admitted to probate, within the foreign country, or within the state, or the territory of the United States, where it was executed, or where the testator resided at the time of his death; the surrogate's court, having jurisdiction of the estate, must, upon an application made as prescribed in this article, accompanied by a copy of the will, and of the foreign letters, if any have been issued, authenticated as prescribed in section forty-five of the decedent estate law, record the will and foreign letters, and issue thereupon ancillary letters testamentary, or ancillary letters of administration with the will annexed, as the case requires.

2 R. S. 67, § 68a (2 Edm. 68); L. 1840, ch. 384, § 2 (4 Edm. 501); L. 1888, ch. 495, Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3. See note 75 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 2696. [Am'd, 1888, 1909.] Id.; upon foreign grant of administration.

Upon the application by the party entitled, as hereinafter provided, or by his duly authorized attorney in fact, made as prescribed in this article, to a surrogate's court having jurisdiction of the estate, and upon the presentation of a copy, authenticated as prescribed in section forty-five of the decedent estate law, of letters of administration upon the estate of a decedent who resided, at the time of his death, without this State, but within the United States, granted within the state or territory where the decedent so resided, or, in cases where the decedent, at the time of his death, resided without the United States, upon the presentation to such surrogate's court of satisfactory proof that the party so applying, either personally or by such attorney in fact, is entitled to the possession in the foreign country of the personal estate of such decedent, the surrogate's court to which such copy of such foreign letters so authenticated, or such proof is so presented, must issue ancillary letters of administration, in accordance with such application, except in the following cases:

1. Where ancillary letters have been previously issued, as prescribed in the last section.

2. Where an application, for letters of administration upon the estate, has been made by a relative of the decedent, who is legally competent to act, to a surrogate's court of this State, having jurisdiction to grant the same; and letters have been granted accordingly or the application has not been finally disposed of.

2 B. S. 75, § 31 (2 Edm. 77); L. 1888, ch. 405. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3. See note 76 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 2697. [Am'd, 1881.] To whom ancillary letters granted.

Where the will specially appoints one or more persons as the executors thereof, with respect to personal property situated within the State, the ancillary letters testamentary must be directed to the persons so appointed, or to those who are competent to act and qualify. If all are incompetent, or fail to qualify, or in a case where such an appointment is not made, ancillary letters testamentary, or ancillary letters of administration, issued as prescribed in this article, must be directed to the person named in the foreign letters, or to the person otherwise entitled to the possession of the personal property of the decedent, unless another person applies therefor, and files with his petition, an instrument, executed by the foreign executor or administrator, or person otherwise entitled as aforesaid; or if there are two or more, by all who have qualified and are acting; and also acknowledged or proved, and certified, in like manner as a deed to be recorded in the county, authorizing the petitioner to receive such ancillary letters; in which case, the surrogate must, if the petitioner is a fit and competent person, issue such letters directed to him. Where two or more persons are named in the foreign letters, or in an instrument executed as prescribed in this section, the ancillary letters may be directed to either or any of them, without naming the others, if the others fail to qualify, or if, for good cause shown, to the surrogate's satisfaction, the decree so directs.

§ 2698. [Am'd, 1899, 1910.] Petition; citation.

An application for ancillary letters, testamentary, or ancillary letters of administration, as prescribed in this article, must be made by petition. Upon the presentation thereof, the surrogate must ascertain, to his satisfaction, whether any creditors, or persons claiming to be creditors of the decedent reside within the State; and if so, the name and residence of each creditor, or person claiming to be a creditor, so far as the same may be ascertained. Unless such creditors shall file duly acknowledged waivers of the issuance and service of citation, he must thereupon issue a citation, directed to each person whose name and residence have been so ascertained and who has not waived the issuance and service of such citation. The surrogate may also in his discretion issue a citation directed generally to all creditors, or persons claiming to be creditors, of the decedent. Any such person, although not cited by his name, may appear, and contest the application, and thus make himself a party to the special proceeding. (See Tax L., § 228.)

Id., §§ 2 and 3 (6 Edm. 144); L. 1899, ch. 717; L. 1910, ch. 234. In effect Sept. 1, 1910.

§ 2699. Hearing; security.

Upon the return of the citation, the surrogate must ascertain, as nearly as he can do so, the amount of debts due, or claimed to be due, from the decedent to residents of the State. Before ancillary letters are issued, the person, to whom they are awarded must qualify, as prescribed in article fourth of this title, for the qualification of an administrator upon the estate of an intestate; except that the penalty of the bond may, in the discretion of the surrogate, be in such a sum, not exceeding twice the amount which appears to be due from the decedent to residents of the State, as will, in the surrogate's opinion, effectually secure the payment of those debts; or the sums which the resident creditors will be entitled to receive, from the persons to whom the letters are issued, upon an accounting and distribution, either within the State, or within the jurisdiction where the principal letters were issued.

The person to whom ancillary letters are issued, as prescribed in this article, must, unless otherwise directed in the decree awarding the letters; or in a decree made upon an accounting; or by an order of the surrogate, made during the administration of the estate; or by the judgment or order of a court of record, in an action to which that person is a party; transmit the money and other personal property of the decedent, received by him, after the letters are issued, or then in his hands in another capacity, to the State, territory, or country, where the principal letters were granted, to be disposed of pursuant to the laws thereof. Money or other property, so transmitted by him, at any time before he is so directed to retain it, must be allowed to him upon an accounting.

§ 2701. Id. when they may be directed to pay, etc., without transmission.

The surrogate's court, or any court of the State, which has jurisdiction of an action to procure an accounting, or a judgment construing the will, may, in a proper case, by its judgment or decree, direct a person, to whom ancillary letters are issued as prescribed in this article, to pay, out of the money or the avails of the property, received by him under the ancillary letters, and with which he is chargeable upon his accounting, the debts of the decedent, due to creditors residing within the State; or, if the amount of all the decedent's debts, here and elsewhere, exceeds the amount of all the decedent's personal property, apportionable thereto, to pay such a sum to each creditor, residing within the State, as equals that creditor's share of all the distributable assets, or to distribute the same among legatees or next of kin, or otherwise dispose of the same, as justice requires.

§ 2702. Id. general powers and duties.

The provisions of this chapter, relating to the rights, powers, duties, and liabilities of an executor or administrator, apply to a person to whom ancillary letters are granted, as prescribed in this article; except those contained in title fifth thereof; or where special provision is otherwise made in this article; or where a contrary intent is expressed in, or plainly to be inferred from, the context.

TITLE IV.

Proceedings by or against an executor or administrator touching the administration and settlement of the estate.

- Article 1. Aid, supervision, and control of an executor or administrator.
 2. Accounting; and settlement of the estate.

ARTICLE FIRST.Aid, supervision, and control of an executor or administrator.

Sec. 2706. Liability of persons unauthorized to act as executors or administrators.

2707. Proceedings to discover property withheld, etc.

2706. Order: service of citation and order; officers who may act in surrogate's absence.

2709. Examination and decree.

2710. Security to prevent decree; warrant to seize property.

2711. Appointment of appraisers and appraisal.

2712. What shall be deemed assets.

2713. Exemption for widow and children.

2714. Contents of inventory.

2715. Return of inventory.

2716. Id.; how compelled.

2717. Sale of personal property.

2718. Ascertainment of debts.

2718a. Claims against executor or administrator.

2719. Payment of debts.

2720. Apportionment of rents, annuities and dividends.

2721. Payment of legacies.

§ 2706. [Am'd, 1893.] Liability of persons unauthorized to act as executors or administrators.

Every person becoming possessed of property of a testator or intestate, without being thereto duly authorized as executor or administrator, or without authority from the executor or administrator, is liable to account for the full value of such property to every person entitled thereto, and shall not be allowed to retain or deduct therefrom any debt due to him.

L. 1893, ch. 686.

An executor or administrator may present to the surrogate's court, from which letters were issued to him, a written petition duly verified setting forth, on knowledge, or information and belief, any facts tending to show that money or other personal property which should be delivered to the petitioner, or included in an inventory or appraisal, is in the possession, under the control or within the knowledge or information of a person who withholds the same from him; or who refuses to impart knowledge or information he may have concerning the same, or to disclose any other fact which will aid such executor or administrator in making discovery of such property, so that it cannot be inventoried or appraised; and praying an inquiry respecting it, and that the person complained of may be cited to attend the inquiry and be examined accordingly, and to deliver the property if in his control. The petition may be accompanied by an affidavit or other evidence written or oral tending to support the allegations thereof. If the surrogate is satisfied, on the papers so presented, that there are reasonable grounds for the inquiry, he must issue a citation accordingly; which may be made returnable forthwith, or at a future time fixed by the surrogate, and may be served at any time before the hearing. Where the person or any of the persons, to be cited does not reside, or is not within the county of the surrogate, the citation, in the surrogate's discretion, may require him to appear at a specified time and place within the county where he resides or is served before the surrogate of that county.

§ 2708. [Am'd, 1893, 1895, 1903.] Order; service of citation and order; officers who may act in surrogate's absence.

The surrogate must annex to or endorse upon the citation an order requiring the party cited to attend personally, at the time and place therein specified. The citation and order must be personally served, and service thereof is ineffectual, unless it is accompanied with payment or tender of the sum required by law to be paid or tendered to a witness who is subpoenaed to attend a trial in the supreme court.

L. 1893, ch. 686; L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1903, ch. 526. In effect Sept. 1, 1903.

On the attendance of a person to whom a citation is issued, as prescribed in this article, he may submit an answer duly verified showing cause why the examination should not proceed. The surrogate may then dismiss the proceeding or direct the examination to proceed. In the latter case he must be sworn to answer truly all questions put to him, touching the inquiry prayed for in the petition; and he may be examined fully and at large respecting property of the decedent, or of which the decedent had possession at the time of or within two years before his death. A refusal to attend or be sworn, or to answer a question which the surrogate determines to be proper, is punishable in the same manner as a like refusal by a witness subpoenaed to attend a hearing before the surrogate. The extent of the examination shall be in the discretion of the surrogate. If the witness is examined concerning any personal communication or transaction between himself and the decedent, all objection under section eight hundred and twenty-nine to his testimony as to the same in future litigation is waived. Either party may produce further evidence, in like manner and with like effect as on a trial.

If the facts admitted by the witness show that he is in the control of property to whose immediate possession the petitioner is entitled, the surrogate may decree that it be delivered to the petitioner. If the witness admits having the control of the property, but the facts as to the petitioner's right are in dispute, the proceeding shall end, unless the parties consent to its determination by the surrogate, in which case it shall be so determined.

Old sections 2713-2714 consolidated; L. 1893, ch. 686; L. 1903, ch. 526. In effect Sept. 1, 1903.

On the application of an executor or administrator, the surrogate, by writing, must appoint two disinterested appraisers, as often as may be necessary, to appraise the personal property of a deceased person, who shall be entitled to receive a reasonable compensation for their services, to be allowed by the surrogate, not exceeding for each the sum of five dollars for each day actually employed in making appraisement, in addition to expenses actually and necessarily incurred. The number of days' services rendered, and the amount of such expenses, must be verified by the affidavit of the appraiser, delivered to the executor or administrator, and adjusted by the surrogate before payment of the fees. The executors and administrators, within a reasonable time after qualifying and after giving a notice of at least five days to the legatees, and next of kin, residing in the county where the property is situated, and posting a notice in three of the most public places of the town, specifying the time and place at which the appraisement will be made, must make a true and perfect inventory of all the personal property of the testator or intestate; and if in different and distant places two or more such inventories as may be necessary. Before making the appraisement, the appraisers must take and subscribe an oath, to be inserted in the inventory, that they will truly, honestly and impartially appraise the personal property exhibited to them, according to the best of their knowledge and ability. They must in the presence of such of the parties interested as attend, estimate and appraise the property exhibited to them, and set down each article separately with the value thereof in dollars and cents, distinctly, in figures opposite to the articles respectively. Service of the notice above mentioned may be either personal or in the manner prescribed by section seven hundred and ninety-seven, subdivision one and section seven hundred and ninety-eight of this act.

The following shall be deemed assets and go to the executors or administrators, to be applied and distributed as part of the personal property of the testator or intestate, and be included in the inventory:

1. Leases for years; lands held by the deceased from year to year; and estates held by him for the life of another person.
2. The interest remaining in him, at the time of his death, in a term of years after the expiration of any estate for years therein, granted by him or any other person.
3. The interest in lands devised to an executor for a term of years for the payment of debts.
4. Things annexed to the freehold, or to any building for the purpose of trade or manufacture, and not fixed into the wall of a house so as to be essential to its support.
5. The crops growing on the land of the deceased at the time of his death.
6. Every kind of produce raised annually by labor and cultivation, except growing grass and fruit ungathered.
7. Rent reserved to the deceased which had accrued at the time of his death.
8. Debts secured by mortgages, bonds, notes or bills; accounts, money, and bank bills, or other circulating medium, things in action, and stock in any corporation or joint-stock association.
9. Goods, wares, merchandise, utensils, furniture, cattle, provisions, moneys unpaid on contracts for the sale of lands, and every other species of personal property not hereinafter excepted. Things annexed to the freehold, or to a building, shall not go to the executor, but shall descend with the freehold to the heirs or devisees, except such fixtures as are mentioned in the fourth subdivision of this section. The right of an heir to any property, not enumerated in this section, which by the common law would descend to him, is not impaired by the general terms of this section.

L. 1893, ch. 686.

If a man having a family die, leaving a widow or minor child or children, the following articles shall not be deemed assets, but must be included and stated in the inventory of the estate without being appraised:

1. All spinning-wheels, weaving-loom, one knitting-machine, one sewing-machine, and stoves put up or kept for use by his family.

2. The family bible, family pictures and school-books, used by or in such family, and books not exceeding in value fifty dollars, which were kept and used as part of the family library.

3. Sheep to the number of ten, with their fleeces, and the yarn and cloth manufactured from the same; one cow, two swine, and the pork of such swine, and necessary food for such swine, sheep or cow for sixty days, and all necessary provisions and fuel for such widow, child or children for sixty days after the death of such deceased person.

4. All necessary wearing apparel, beds, bedsteads and bedding, necessary cooking utensils, the clothing of the family, the clothes of the widow and her ornaments proper for her station; one table, six chairs, twelve knives and forks, twelve plates, twelve tea cups and saucers, one sugar dish, one milk-pot, one tea-pot, and twelve spoons, and other household furniture not exceeding one hundred and fifty dollars in value.

5. Other necessary household furniture, provisions or other personal property, in the discretion of the appraisers, to the value of not exceeding one hundred and fifty dollars.

Such articles and property shall remain in the possession of the widow, if there be one, during the time she lives with and provides for such minor child or children. If she ceases so to do, she shall be allowed to retain as her own, her wearing apparel, her ornaments and one bed, bedstead and the bedding for the same, and the property specified in subdivision five; and the other articles so exempted shall then belong to such minor child or children. If she lives with and provides for such minor child or children until it or they become of full age, all the articles and property in this section mentioned shall belong to the widow. If there be a widow and no minor child, all the articles and property in this section mentioned shall belong to the widow. If a married woman die, leaving surviving her a husband, or a minor child or children, the same articles and personal property shall be set apart by the appraisers with the same effect for the benefit of such husband or minor child or children.

§ 2714. [Am'd, 1893.] Contents of inventory.

The inventory must contain a particular statement of all bonds, mortgages, notes and other securities for the payment of money belonging to the deceased, known to the executor or administrator; with the name of the debtor in each security, the date, the sum originally payable; the indorsements thereon, if any, with their dates and the sum which, in the judgment of the appraisers, is collectible on each security; and of all moneys, whether in specie, or bank bills, or other circulating medium belonging to the deceased, which have come to the hands of the executor or administrator, and if none have come to his hands, the fact shall be stated in the inventory. The naming of a person executor in a will does not operate as a discharge or bequest of any just claim which the testator had against him; but it must be included among the credits and effects of the deceased in the inventory, and the executor shall be liable for the same as for so much money in his hands at the time the debt or demand becomes due, and he must apply and distribute the same in the payment of debts and legacies, and among the next of kin as part of the personal property of the deceased. The discharge or bequest in a will of a debt or demand of the testator against an executor named therein, or against any other person, is not valid as against the creditors of the deceased; but must be construed only as a specific bequest of such debt or demand; and the amount thereof must be included in the inventory and, if necessary, be applied in the payment of his debts; and if not necessary for that purpose, must be paid in the same manner and proportion as other specific legacies. If personal property not mentioned in any inventory come to the possession or knowledge of an executor or administrator, he must cause the same to be appraised as herein required, and an inventory thereof to be returned within two months after the discovery thereof; and the making of such inventory and return may be enforced in the same manner as in the case of a first inventory.

§ 2715. [Am'd, 1893.] Return of inventory.

Duplicates of the inventory must be made and signed by the appraisers, one of which must be retained by the executor or administrator, and the other returned to the surrogate within three months from the date of the letters. On returning such inventory, the executor or administrator must take and subscribe an oath, indorsed upon or annexed to the inventory, stating that the inventory is in all respects just and true, that it contains a true statement of all the personal property of the deceased which has come to his knowledge, and particularly of all money, bank bills and other circulating medium belonging to the deceased, and of all just claims of the deceased against him, according to the best of his knowledge. Any one executor or administrator, on the neglect of the others, may return an inventory; and the executors or administrators so neglecting shall not thereafter interfere with the administration or have any power over the personal property of the deceased; but the executor or administrator so returning the inventory shall have the whole administration, until the delinquent return, and verify an inventory, in accordance with the provisions of this article.

L. 1893, ch. 686.

A creditor or person interested in the estate may present to the surrogate's court proof, by affidavit, that an executor or administrator has failed to return an inventory, or a sufficient inventory, within the time prescribed by law therefor. If the surrogate is satisfied that the executor or administrator is in default, he must make an order requiring the delinquent to return the inventory, or a further inventory, or in default thereof, to show cause, at a time and place therein specified, why he should not be attached. On the return of the order, if the delinquent has not filed a sufficient inventory, the surrogate must issue a warrant of attachment against him, on which the proceedings are the same as on a warrant issued for disobedience to an order, prescribed in title twelfth of chapter seventeenth of this act. A person committed to jail on the return of a warrant of attachment, issued as prescribed in this section, may be discharged by the surrogate or a justice of the supreme court, on his paying and delivering, under oath, all the money and other property of the decedent, and all papers relating to the estate, under his control, to the surrogate, or to a person authorized by the surrogate to receive the same.

Old sections 2715-2716 consolidated; L. 1893, ch. 686.

If an executor or administrator discover that the debts against any deceased person or the legacies bequeathed by him cannot be paid and satisfied without a sale of the personal property of the deceased, the same, so far as may be necessary for the payment of such debts or legacies, must be sold. An administrator may sell the personal property of the intestate at any time when it is necessary to do so for the purpose of distribution. The sale may be public or private, and, except in the city of New York, may be on credit not exceeding one year, with approved security. The executor or administrator is not responsible for any loss happening on the sale when made in good faith and with ordinary prudence. Articles not necessary for the support and subsistence of the family of the deceased, or not specifically bequeathed, must be first sold; and articles so bequeathed must not be sold until the residue of the personal estate has been applied to the payment of debts.

The executor or administrator at any time after the granting of his letters, may insert a notice once in each week for six months in such newspaper or newspapers printed in the county as the surrogate directs, requiring all persons having claims against the deceased to exhibit the same, with the vouchers therefor, to him, at a place to be specified in the notice, at or before a day therein named, which must be at least six months from the day of the first publication of the notice. The executor or administrator may require satisfactory vouchers in support of any claim presented and the affidavit of the claimant that the claim is justly due, that no payments have been made thereon, and that there are no offsets against the same to the knowledge of the claimant. If the executor or administrator doubts the justice of any such claim, he may enter into an agreement in writing with the claimant to refer the matter in controversy to one or more disinterested persons, to be approved by the surrogate. On filing such agreement and approval in the office of the clerk of the supreme court in the county in which the parties or either of them reside, an order shall be entered by the clerk referring the matter in controversy to the person or persons so selected. On the entry of such order the proceeding shall become an action in the supreme court. The same proceedings shall be had in all respects, the referees shall have the same powers, be entitled to the same compensation, and subject to the same control as if the reference had been made in an action in which such court might, by law, direct a reference. In determining the question of costs the referee shall be governed by sections eighteen hundred and thirty-five and eighteen hundred and thirty-six of this act. Judgment may be entered on the report of the referee and such judgment shall be valid and effectual in all respects as if the same had been rendered in a suit commenced by the ordinary process, and the practice on appeal therefrom shall be the same as in other civil actions. If a suit be brought on a claim which is not presented to the executor or administrator within six months from the first publication of such notice, the executor or administrator shall not be chargeable for any assets or moneys that he may have paid in satisfaction of any lawful claims, or of any legacies, or in making distribution to the next of kin before such suit was commenced.

L. 1893, ch. 686. See § 1822.

Upon the petition of an executor or administrator, after notice of publication to creditors to present claims has been completed, a citation may be issued against any claimant directing him to present his claim to the surrogate for determination at a date not less than three months from the service of the citation upon him. If he shall not have commenced an action against the petitioner upon his claim prior to the return day, the claim shall be deemed forever barred unless on the return day he shall consent to its determination by the surrogate, in which case it shall be so determined. The word claimant within the meaning of this section shall be deemed to include every person claiming to be a creditor of the estate or claiming a right in or lien upon any personal property in the custody of the petitioner or any claim against the petitioner by reason of any act of his in the administration of the estate, or in his representative capacity.

§ 2719. [Am'd, 1893.] Payment of debts.

Every executor and administrator must proceed with diligence to pay the debts of the deceased according to the following order:

1. Debts entitled to a preference under the laws of the United States.

2. Taxes assessed on the property of the deceased previous to his death.

3. Judgments docketed, and decrees entered against the deceased according to the priority thereof respectively.

4. All recognizances, bonds, sealed instruments, notes, bills and unliquidated demands and accounts.

Preference shall not be given in the payment of a debt over other debts of the same class, except those specified in the third class. A debt due and payable shall not be entitled to a preference over debts not due. The commencement of a suit for the recovery of a debt or the obtaining a judgment thereon against the executor or administrator shall not entitle such debt to preference over others of the same class. Debts not due may be paid according to the class to which they belong, after deducting a rebate of legal interest on the sum paid for the unexpired term of credit without interest. An executor or administrator shall not satisfy his own debt or claim out of the property of the deceased until proved to and allowed by the surrogate; and it shall not have preference over others of the same class. Preference may be given by the surrogate to rents due or accruing on leases held by the testator or intestate at the time of his death, over debts of the fourth class, if it appear to his satisfaction that such preference will benefit the estate of the testator or intestate. The surrogate may authorize the executor or administrator to compromise or compound a debt or claim, on application, and for good and sufficient cause shown, and to sell at public auction on such notice as the surrogate prescribes, any uncollectible, stale or doubtful debt or claim belonging to the estate; but any party interested in the final settlement of the estate may show on such settlement that such debt or claim was fraudulently or negligently compromised or compounded.

L. 1893, ch. 686.

§ 2720. [Am'd, 1893.] Apportionment of rents, annuities and dividends.

All rents reserved on any lease made after June seventh, eighteen hundred and seventy-five, and all annuities, dividends and other payments of every description made payable or becoming due at fixed periods under any instrument executed after such date, or, being a last will and testament that takes effect after such date, shall be apportioned so that on the death of any person interested in such rents, annuities, dividends or other such payments, or in the estate or fund from or in respect to which the same issues or is derived, or on the determination by any other means of the interest of any such person, he, or his executors, administrators or assigns, shall be entitled to a proportion of such rents, annuities, dividends and other payments, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the commencement or last period of payment thereof, as the case may be, including the day of the death of such person, or of the determination of his or her interest, after making allowance and deductions on account of charges on such rents, annuities, dividends and other payments. Every such person or his executors, administrators or assigns shall have the same remedies at law and in equity for recovering such apportioned parts of such rents, annuities, dividends and other payments, when the entire amount of which such apportioned form part, become due and payable and not before, as he or they would have had for recovering and obtaining such entire rents, annuities, dividends and other payments, if entitled thereto: but the persons liable to pay rents reserved by any lease or demise, or the real property comprised therein shall not be resorted to for such apportioned parts, but the entire rents of which such apportioned parts from* parts, must be collected and recovered by the person or persons who, but for this section, or chapter five hundred and forty-two of the laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-five, would have been entitled to the entire rents; and such portions shall be recoverable from such person or persons by the parties entitled to the same under this section. This section shall not apply to any case in which it shall be expressly stipulated that no apportionment be made, or to any sums made payable in policies of insurance of any description.

§ 2721. [Am'd, 1893.] Payment of legacies.

No legacy shall be paid by an executor or administrator until after the expiration of one year from the time of granting letters testamentary or of administration, unless directed by the will to be sooner paid. If directed to be sooner paid, the executor or administrator may require a bond, with two sufficient sureties, conditioned, that if debts against the deceased duly appear, and there are not other assets sufficient to pay other legacies, then the legatees will refund the legacy so paid, or such ratable portion thereof with the other legatees, as may be necessary for the payment of such debts, and the proportional parts of such other legacies, if there be any, and the costs and charges incurred by reason of the payment to such legatee, and that if the probate of the will, under which such legacy is paid, be revoked, or the will declared void, that such legatee will refund the whole of such legacy, with interest, to the executor or administrator entitled hereto. After the expiration of one year, the executors or administrators must discharge the specific legacies bequeathed by the will and pay the general legacies, if there be assets. If there are not sufficient assets, then an abatement of the general legacies must be made in equal proportions. Such payment shall be enforced by the surrogate in the same manner as the return of an inventory, and by a suit on the bond of such executor or administrator whenever directed by the surrogate.

* So in the original.

L. 1893, ch. 686.

ARTICLE SECOND.

Accounting and settlement of the estate.

Sec. 2722. Petition to compel payment; hearing; decree.

2723. Decree for payment of legacy, etc., on giving security.

2724. Proceedings for neglect to set apart exempt property; proceedings upon judicial settlement.

2725. Intermediate accounting.

2726. When surrogate may require judicial settlement of account.

2727. Citation; order to account, and proceedings thereon.

2728. Executors, etc., may petition for judicial settlement; citation thereupon.

2729. Affidavit to account; vouchers; examination of accounting party.

2730. Commissions of executor or administrator.

2731. Determination of claim by surrogate; suspension of statute of limitations in certain cases.

2732. Order of distribution.

2733. Adjustment of advancements.

2734. Estates of married women.

2735-2741. [Repealed, L. 1893, ch. 636.]

2742. Effect of judicial settlement of account.

2743. Decree for payment and distribution.

2744. Id.; when specific property may be delivered.

2745. Id.; when money may be retained.

2746. Id.; share of infant.

2747. Legacy, etc., to unknown person to be paid into State treasury.

2748. When legacy, etc., to be paid to county treasurer.

2722. [Am'd, 1893, 1911.] Petition to compel payment; hearings; decree.

In either of the following cases a petition may be presented to the surrogate's court, praying for a decree directing an executor or administrator to pay the petitioner's claim, and that he be cited to show cause why such a decree should not be made:

1. By a creditor, for the payment of a debt, or of its just proportional part, at any time after six months have expired since letters were granted.

2. By a person entitled to a legacy, or any other pecuniary provision under the will, or a distributive share, for the payment or satisfaction thereof, or of its just proportional part, at any time after one year has expired since letters were granted.

3. By the attorney-general in any case where a decedent died intestate as to any of his estate, leaving no known heirs or next of kin.

On the presentation of such a petition, the surrogate must issue a citation accordingly; and on the return thereof, he must make such a decree in the premises as justice requires. But in either of following cases the decree must dismiss the petition without adjudice to an action or an accounting, in behalf of the petitioner:

1. Where the executor or administrator files a written answer, duly verified, setting forth facts which show that it is doubtful whether the petitioner's claim is valid and legal, and denying its validity or legality absolutely, or on information and belief.

2. Where it is not proved, to the satisfaction of the surrogate, that there is money or other personal property of the estate applicable to the payment or satisfaction of the petitioner's claim, and which may be so applied without injuriously affecting the rights of others entitled to priority or equality of payment or satisfaction.

Old sections 2717 and 2718 consolidated. Am'd by L. 1893, ch. 686; L. 1911, ch. 434, in effect Sept. 1, 1911.

§ 2723. [Am'd, 1893.] Decree for payment of legacy, etc., on giving security.

In a case specified in subdivision second of the last section, the surrogate may, in his discretion, entertain the petition at any time after letters are granted, although a year has not expired. In such a case, if it appears, on the return of the citation, that a decree for payment may be made, as prescribed in the last section; and that the amount of money, and the value of the other property, in the hands of the executor or administrator, applicable to the payment of debts, legacies and expenses, exceed, by at least one-third, the amount of all known debts and claims against the estate, of all legacies which are entitled to priority over the petitioner's claim, and of all legacies or distributive shares of the same class; and that the payment or satisfaction of the legacy, pecuniary provision, or distributive share, or some part thereof, is necessary for the support or education of the petitioner, the surrogate may, in his discretion, make a decree, directing payment or satisfaction accordingly, on the filing of a bond, approved by the surrogate, conditioned as prescribed by law, with respect to a bond which an executor, or an administrator with the will annexed, may require from a legatee, on payment or satisfaction of a legacy, before the expiration of one year from the time when letters were issued, pursuant to a direction to that effect, contained in the will.

L. 1893, ch. 686.

§ 2724. [Am'd, 1893.] Proceedings for neglect to set apart exempt property; proceedings upon judicial settlement.

Where an executor or administrator has failed to set apart property for a surviving husband, wife or child, as prescribed by law, the person aggrieved may present a petition to the surrogate's court, setting forth the failure, and praying for a decree, requiring such executor or administrator to set apart the property accordingly; or, if it has been lost, injured, or disposed of, to pay the value thereof, or the amount of the injury thereto; and that he be cited to show cause why such a decree should not be made. If the surrogate is of the opinion that sufficient cause is shown, he must issue a citation accordingly. On the return of the citation, the surrogate must make such a decree in the premises as justice requires. In a proper case the decree may require the executor personally to pay the value of the property, or the amount of the injury thereto. The decree, made on a judicial settlement of the account of an executor or administrator, may award to a surviving husband, wife, or child, the same relief which may be awarded, in his or her favor, on a petition presented as prescribed in the last section.

An executor or administrator at any time may, voluntarily, file in the surrogate's office an intermediate account, and the vouchers in support of the same. In either of the following cases, the surrogate may, in his discretion, make an order, requiring an executor or administrator to render an intermediate account:

1. Where an application for an order, permitting an execution to issue on a judgment against the executor or administrator, has been made by the judgment creditor, as prescribed in section 1826 of this act.

2. On the return of a citation, issued on the petition of a judgment creditor, praying for a decree, granting leave to issue an execution on a judgment rendered against the decedent in his lifetime, as prescribed in section 1381 of this act.

3. On the return of a citation, issued on the petition of a creditor, or person entitled to a legacy, or other pecuniary provision, or a distributive share, or of the attorney-general, praying for a decree directing payment thereof, as prescribed in section 2722 of this act.

4. Where eighteen months have elapsed since letters were issued, and no special proceeding, on a petition for a judicial settlement, of the executor's or administrator's account, is pending.

§ 2726. [Am'd, 1893.] When surrogate may require judicial settlement of account.

In either of the following cases, the surrogate's court may, from time to time, compel a judicial settlement of the account of an executor or administrator.

1. Where one year has expired since letters were issued to him.

2. Where letters issued to him have been revoked, or, for any other reason, his powers have ceased.

3. Where a decree for the disposition of real property, or of an interest in real property, has been made, as prescribed in title fifth of this chapter, and the property, or a part thereof, has been disposed of by him, pursuant to the decree.

4. Where he has sold, or otherwise disposed of any of the decedent's real property, or the rents, profits, or proceeds thereof, rsuant to a power contained in the decedent's will, where one ar has elapsed since letters were issued to him.

The surrogate's court may compel a judicial settlement of the count of a temporary administrator at any time. It may also mpel a judicial settlement of the account of a freeholder, appointed to dispose of a decedent's real property, or interest in al property, as prescribed in title fifth of this chapter, in like manner as where the same has been disposed of by the executor r administrator.

L. 1893, ch. 686.

§ 2727. [Am'd, 1893, 1901, 1911.] Citation; order to account and proceedings thereon.

A petition praying for the judicial settlement of an account, and that the executor and administrator be cited to show cause why he should not render and settle his account, may be presented, in a case prescribed in the last section, by a creditor or a person interested in the estate or fund, including a child born after the making of a will; or by any person, in behalf of an infant so interested; or by a surety in the official bond of the person required to account, or the legal representative of such a surety, or by the attorney-general, in any case where the decedent died intestate as to any of his estate, leaving no known heirs or next of kin. On the presentation of such a petition, a citation must be issued accordingly; except that in a case specified in subdivision first of the last section, if the petition is presented within eighteen months after letters were issued to the executor or administrator, the surrogate may entertain or decline to entertain it, in his discretion. On the return of a citation issued as prescribed in either of the foregoing sections of this article, if the executor or administrator fails either to appear, or to show good cause to the contrary, or to present in a proper case, a petition as prescribed in the next section, an order must be made, directing him to account within such a time, and in such a manner as the surrogate prescribes, and to attend, from time to time, before the surrogate, for that purpose. The executor or administrator is bound by such an order, without service thereof. If he disobeys it the surrogate may issue a warrant of attachment against him, and his letters may be revoked, as where a warrant of attachment is issued to compel the return of an inventory. If it appears that there is a surplus, distributable to creditors or persons interested, the surrogate may, at any time, issue a supplemental citation, directed to the persons who must be cited, on the petition of an executor or administrator for a judicial settlement of his account, and requiring them to attend the accounting. The pendency of a proceeding against an executor or administrator to compel him to account does not preclude him from presenting a petition as prescribed in the next section. If such petition is presented at or before the return of a citation in and as prescribed in either of the foregoing sections of this title, the citation issued thereon need not be directed to petitioner in the special proceeding pending against the executor or administrator, and the two proceedings must be consolidated. The surrogate may, in his discretion, and on such terms as may be just, direct the consolidation of any two or more of such proceedings pending before him, and such consolidation does not affect any power of the surrogate which might be exercised in either proceeding.

In either of the following cases an executor or administrator may present to the surrogate's court his account and a written petition duly verified, praying that his account may be judicially settled; and that the surties in his official bond or the legal representatives of such surety and all creditors or persons claiming to be creditors of the decedent, except such, as by vouchers annexed to the account filed, appear to have been paid, and the decedent's husband or wife, next of kin and legatees, if any; or, if either of those persons had died, his executor or administrator, if any, and the attorney-general in a case where decedent died intestate as to any part of his estate, leaving no known heirs or next of kin, shall be cited to attend the settlement; but where the decedent leaves a will which has been duly admitted to probate, it shall not be necessary to cite the decedent's next of kin, unless they are also legatees.

1. Where one year has elapsed since letters were issued to such executor or administrator.

2. Where notice requiring all persons having claims against the deceased to exhibit the same with the vouchers thereof to such executor or administrator has been duly published according to law. If one of two or more co-executors or co-administrators presents his account and a petition for a judicial settlement of his separate account, it must pray that his co-executors or co-administrators may also be cited. Upon the presentation of accounts and a petition, as prescribed in this section, the surrogate must issue a citation accordingly. On the return of a citation, issued as prescribed in this section, the surrogate must take the account, and hear the allegations and proofs of the parties, respecting the same. Any party may contest the account, with respect to a matter affecting his interest in the settlement and distribution of the estate. And any party may contest an intermediate account rendered under section twenty-seven hundred and twenty-five of this act in case the same shall not be consolidated pursuant to section twenty-seven hundred and twenty-seven of this act. A creditor, or a person interested in the estate, although not cited, is entitled to appear on the hearing, and thus make himself a party to the proceeding. When letters issued to an executor or administrator have been revoked, he may present to the surrogate's court a written petition, duly verified, praying that his account be judicially settled, and that his successor, if a successor has been appointed, and the other persons specified in this section be cited to attend the settlement.

To each account, filed with the surrogate, as prescribed in this article, must be appended the affidavit of the accounting party, to the effect that the account contains, according to the best of his knowledge and belief, a full and true statement of all his receipts and disbursements on account of the estate of the decedent; and of all money and other property belonging to the estate, which have come to his hands, or which have been received by any other person, by his order or authority, for his use; and that he does not know of any error or omission in the account, to the prejudice of any creditor of, or person interested in, the estate of the decedent. On an accounting by an executor or administrator, the accounting party must produce and file a voucher for every payment, except in one of the following cases:

1. He may be allowed, without a voucher, any proper item of expenditure, not exceeding twenty dollars, if it is supported by his own uncontradicted oath, stating positively the fact of payment, and specifying when and to whom the payment was made; but all the items so allowed against an estate, on all the accountings of all the executors or administrators, shall not exceed five hundred dollars.

2. If he proves, by his own oath or another's testimony, that he did not take a voucher when he made the payment; or that the voucher then taken by him has been lost or destroyed; he may be allowed any item, the payment of which he satisfactorily proves by the testimony of the person to whom he made it; or, if that person is dead, or cannot, after diligent search, be found, by any competent evidence, other than his own oath, or that of his wife. But an allowance cannot be made, as specified in this section, unless the surrogate is satisfied that the charge is correct and just. The surrogate may, at any time, make an order requiring the accounting party to make and file his account; or to attend and be examined under oath, touching his receipts and disbursements; or touching any other matter relating to his administration of the estate, or any act done by him under color of his letters, or after the decedent's death, and before the letters were issued; or touching any personal property, owned or held by the decedent, at the time of his death. No profit shall be made by an executor or administrator by the increase, nor shall he sustain any loss by the decrease, without his fault, of any part of the estate; but he shall account for such increase, and be allowed for such decrease on the settlement of his accounts. On the judicial settlement of the account of an executor or administrator, the surrogate may allow the accounting party, for property of the decedent, perished or lost without the fault of the accounting party.

L. 1893, ch. 686.

3. [Added, 1901.] Every executor or administrator shall pay, out of the first moneys received, the reasonable funeral expenses of decedent, and the same shall be preferred to all debts and claims against the deceased. If the same be not paid within sixty days after the grant of letters testamentary or of administration, the person having a claim for such funeral expenses may present to the surrogate's court a duly verified petition praying that the executor or administrator may be cited to show cause why he should not be required to make such payment and a citation shall be issued accordingly. If upon the return of such citation it shall appear that the executor or administrator has received moneys belonging to the estate which are applicable to the payment of the claims for funeral expenses, the surrogate shall, unless the validity of the claim and the reasonableness of its amount are admitted by such executor or administrator, take proof as to such facts, and if satisfied that such claim is valid shall fix and determine the amount due thereon and shall make an order directing the payment within ten days after the service of such order with notice of entry thereof, upon such executor or administrator of such claim or such proportion thereof as the money in the hands of the executor or administrator applicable thereto, may be sufficient to satisfy. If it shall appear that no money has come into the hands of the executor or administrator the proceeding shall be dismissed without costs and without prejudice to a further application or applications showing that since such dismissal the executor or administrator has received money belonging to the estate. Such application shall be made upon a duly verified petition stating the facts upon which the belief of the petitioner that there are moneys in the hands of such executor or administrator applicable to the payment of his claim, is based. Upon such further application the issuance of the citation shall be in the discretion of the surrogate and no such application shall be made less than three months after the granting or denial of any previous application. If upon any accounting it shall appear that an executor or administrator has failed to pay a claim for funeral expenses, the amount of which has been fixed and determined by the surrogate as above set forth or upon such accounting he shall not be allowed for the payment of any debt or claim against the decedent until said claim has been discharged in full; but such claim shall not be paid before expenses of administration are paid.

On the settlement of the account of an executor or administrator, the surrogate must allow to him for his services, and if there be more than one, apportion among them according to the services rendered by them respectively, over and above his or their expenses: For receiving and paying out all sums of money not exceeding one thousand dollars, at the rate of five per centum. For receiving and paying out any additional sums not amounting to more than ten thousand dollars, at the rate of two and one-half per centum. For all sums above eleven thousand dollars, at the rate of one per centum. In all cases such allowance must be made for their necessary expenses actually paid by them as appears just and reasonable. If the gross value of the personal property of the decedent amounts to one hundred thousand dollars or more each executor or administrator is entitled to the full compensation on principal and income allowed herein to a sole executor or administrator, unless there are more than three, in which case the compensation to which three would be entitled must be apportioned among them according to the services rendered by them, respectively, and a like apportionment shall be made in all cases where there shall be more than one executor or administrator. Where the will provides a specific compensation to an executor or administrator he is not entitled to any allowance for his services, unless by a written instrument filed with the surrogate, he renounces the specific compensation. Where successive or different letters are issued to the same person on the estate of the same decedent, including a case where letters testamentary, or letters of general administration, are issued to a person who has been previously appointed a temporary administrator, he is entitled to compensation in one capacity only, at his election, except that where he has received compensation in one capacity he is entitled to the excess, if any, of the compensation allowed by law, above the sum which he has already received in the other capacity.

L. 1895, ch. 595; L. 1905, ch. 328. In effect April 25, 1905.

On the judicial settlement of the account of an executor or administrator, he may prove any debt owing to him by the decedent. Where a contest arises between the accounting party and any of the other parties respecting property alleged to belong to the estate, but to which the accounting party lays claim either individually or as the representative of the estate, or respecting a debt, alleged to be due by the accounting party to the decedent, or by the decedent to the accounting party, the contest must, except where the claim is made in a representative capacity, in which case it may, be tried and determined in the same manner as any other issue arising in the surrogate's court.

From the death of the decedent until the first judicial settlement of the accounts of the executor or administrator, the running of the statute of limitations, against a debt due from the decedent to the accounting party, or any other cause of action in favor of the latter against the decedent, is suspended, unless the accounting party was appointed on the revocation of former letters issued to another person, in which case the running of the statute is so suspended, from the grant of letters to him, until the first judicial settlement of his account. After the first judicial settlement of the account of an executor or administrator, the statute of limitations begins again to run against a debt due to him from the decedent, or any other cause of action in his favor against the decedent.

§ 2733. [Am'd, 1893, 1909.] Adjustment of advancements.

Where there is a surplus of personal property to be distributed, and the advancement, as provided in section ninety-nine of the decedent estate law, consisted of personal property, or where a deficiency in the adjustment of an advancement of real property is chargeable on personal property, the decree for distribution, in the surrogate's court, must adjust all the advancements which have not been previously adjusted by the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. For that purpose, if any person to be affected by the decree, is not a party to the proceeding, the surrogate must cause him to be brought in by a supplemental citation.

L. 1893, ch. 686. Amended by L. 1909, ch. 65. Also partly repealed by L. 1909, ch. 18. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Decedent Estate Law, § 99. See note 77 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§§ 2735-2741. [Repealed, L. 1893, ch. 686.]

A judicial settlement of the account of an executor or administrator, either by the decree of the surrogate's court, or upon an appeal therefrom, is conclusive evidence, against all the parties who were duly cited or appeared, and all persons deriving title from any of them at any time, of the following facts and no others:

1. That the items allowed to the accounting party, for money paid to creditors, legatees, and next of kin, for necessary expenses, and for his services, are correct.

2. That the accounting party has been charged with all the interest for money received by him, and embraced in the account, for which he was legally accountable.

3. That the money charged to the accounting party, as collected, is all that was collectible, at the time of the settlement, on the debts stated in the account.

4. That the allowances made to the accounting party, for the decrease, and the charges against him for the increase, in the value of property, were correctly made.

§ 2743. [Am'd, 1895, 1898, 1906.] Decree for payment and distribution.

Where an account is judicially settled, as prescribed in this article, and any part of the estate remains and is ready to be distributed to the creditors, legatees, next of kin, husband, or wife of the decedent, or their assigns, the decree must direct the payment and distribution thereof to the persons so entitled, according to their respective rights. In case of whole or partial intestacy the decree must direct immediate payment and distribution to creditors, next of kin, husband or wife of the decedent, or their assigns, where the executor or administrator has petitioned voluntarily for judicial settlement of his account as, and in the case provided in subdivision two of section twenty-seven hundred and twenty-eight of this article; but such decree shall not direct the payment of any legacy prior to the expiration of one year after the granting of letters upon such estate, unless the will otherwise directs. If any person, who is a necessary party for that purpose, has not been cited or has not appeared, a supplemental citation must be issued, as prescribed in section twenty-seven hundred and twenty-seven of this act. Where the validity of the debt, claim or distributive share is admitted or has been established upon the accounting or other proceeding in the surrogate's court or other court of competent jurisdiction, the decree must determine to whom it is payable, the sum to be paid by reason thereof and all other questions concerning the same. With respect to the matters enumerated in this section the decree is conclusive as a judgment upon each party to the special proceeding who was duly cited or appeared, and upon every person deriving title from such party.

§ 2744. Id.; when specific property may be delivered.

In either of the following cases, the decree may direct the delivery of an unsold chattel, or the assignment of an uncollected demand, or any other personal property, to a party or parties, entitled to payment or distribution, in lieu of the money value of the property:

1. Where all the parties interested, who have appeared, manifest their consent thereto by a writing filed in the surrogate's office.

2. Where it appears that a sale thereof, for the purpose of payment or distribution, would cause a loss to the parties entitled thereto.

The value must be ascertained, if the consent does not fix it, by an appraisement under oath, made by one or more persons appointed by the surrogate for the purpose.

2 R. S. 95, § 72 (2 Edm. 99), am'd; L. 1870, ch. 30.

§ 2745. Id.; when money may be retained.

Where an admitted debt of the decedent is not yet due, and the creditor will not accept present payment, with a rebate of interest; or where an action is pending between the executor or administrator and a person claiming to be a creditor of the decedent; the decree must direct that a sum, sufficient to satisfy the claim, or the proportion to which it is entitled, together with the probable amount of the interest and costs, be retained in the hands of the accounting party; or be deposited in a safe bank, or trust company, subject to the surrogate's order; or be paid into the surrogate's court, for the purpose of being applied to the payment of the claim, when it is due, recovered or settled; and that so much thereof, as is not needed, for that purpose, be afterwards distributed according to law.

When a legacy or distributive share is payable to an infant, the decree may, in the discretion of the surrogate's court, direct it, or so much of it as may be necessary, to be paid to his general guardian, to be applied to his support and education; or when it does not exceed two hundred and fifty dollars, the decree may order it to be paid to his father or to his mother or to some competent person with whom the infant resides or who has some interest in his welfare, for the use and benefit of such infant. Said court may, in its discretion, by its decree, direct any legacy or distributive share, or part of a legacy or distributive share, not paid or applied as aforesaid, which is payable to an infant, to be paid to the general guardian of such infant, upon his executing and depositing with the surrogate in his office, a bond running to such infant, with two or more sufficient sureties duly acknowledged and approved by the surrogate, in double the amount of such legacy or distributive share, conditioned that such general guardian shall faithfully apply such legacy or distributive share, and render a true and just account of the application thereof, in all respects, to any court having cognizance thereof, when thereunto required, the sureties in which bond shall justify as required in this act, unless the surrogate shall determine that the general bond given by the guardian is ample and of sufficient amount to cover such legacy or distributive share. The said court may, in its discretion, from time to time, authorize or direct such general guardian to expend such part of such legacy or distributive share, in the support, maintenance and education of such infant as it deems necessary. On such infant's coming twenty-one years of age, he shall be entitled to receive, and his general guardian shall pay or deliver to him, under the direction of the surrogate's court, the securities so taken, and the interest or other moneys that may have been paid to or received by such general guardian, after deducting therefrom such amounts as have been paid or expended in pursuance of the orders and decrees of said court, so made as aforesaid and the legal commissions of such guardian:

and the said general guardian shall be liable to account in and under the direction of the surrogate's court, to his ward, for the same; in case of the death of said infant, before coming of age, the said securities and moneys, after making the deductions aforesaid, shall go to his executors or administrators, to be applied and distributed according to law, and the general guardian shall in like manner be liable to account to such administrator or executor. If there be no general guardian, or if the surrogate's court do not order or decree the payment or disposition of the legacy or distributive share in some of the ways above described, then the legacy or distributive share, or part of the same not disposed of as aforesaid, whether the same consists of money or securities, shall, by the order or decree of the surrogate's court, be paid and delivered to and deposited in said court, by paying and delivering the same to and depositing it with the county treasurer of the county, to be held, managed, invested, collected, reinvested and disposed of by him, as prescribed and required by section twenty-five hundred and thirty-seven of this act. The regulations contained in the general rules of practice, as specified in subdivision eight of section four of the state finance law, and the provisions of title three of chapter eight of this act apply to money, legacies and distributive shares paid to and securities deposited with the county treasurer, as prescribed in this section; except that the surrogate's court exercises with respect thereto, or with respect to a security in which any of the money has been invested, or upon which it has been loaned, the power and authority conferred upon the supreme court by section seven hundred and forty-seven of this act.

§ 2747. Legacy, etc., to unknown person to be paid into State treasury.

Where the person entitled to a legacy or distributive share is unknown, the decree must direct the executor or administrator to pay the amount thereof into the treasury of the State, for the benefit of the person or persons who may thereafter appear to be entitled thereto. The surrogate, or the supreme court, upon the petition of a person claiming to be so entitled, and upon at least fourteen days' notice to the attorney-general, accompanied with a copy of the petition, may by a reference, or by directing the trial of an issue by a jury, or otherwise, ascertain the rights of the persons interested, and grant an order directing the payment of any money, which appears to be due to the claimant, but without interest, and deducting all expenses incurred by the State with respect to the decedent's estate. The comptroller, upon the production of a certified copy of the order, must draw his warrant upon the treasury, for the amount therein directed to be paid; which must be paid by the State treasurer, to the person entitled thereto.

Id., § 81, am'd; L. 1877, ch. 456.

§ 2748. When legacy, etc., to be paid to county treasurer.

The decree must also direct the executor or administrator to pay to the county treasurer a legacy or distributive share, which is not paid to the person entitled thereto, at the expiration of two years from the time when the decree is made, or when the legacy or distributive share is payable by the terms of the decree. The money, so paid to the county treasurer, can be paid out by him only by the special direction of the surrogate; or pursuant to the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Real property, of which a decedent died seized, and the interest of a decedent in real property, held by him under a contract for the purchase thereof, made either with him, or with a person from whom he derived his interest, may be disposed of, for the payment of his debts and funeral expenses, or for the payment of judgment liens existing thereon at his death, as prescribed in this title; except where it is devised, expressly charged with the payment of debts or funeral expenses, or is exempted from levy and sale by virtue of an execution, as prescribed in title second of chapter thirteen of this act. The expression "funeral expenses," as used in this title, includes a reasonable charge for a suitable headstone.

At any time within three years after letters were first duly granted within the state, upon the estate of a decedent, an executor or administrator, whether sole or joined in the letters with another other than a temporary administrator, or a person holding a judgment lien upon decedent's real property at the time of his death, or any other creditor of the decedent, other than a creditor by a mortgage, which is a lien upon the decedent's real property, or any person having a claim for the funeral expenses of the decedent, may present to the surrogate's court, from which letters were issued, a written petition, duly verified, praying for a decree directing the disposition of the decedent's real property, or interest in real property, specified in the last section, or so much thereof as is necessary for the payment of his debts or funeral expenses, or, if so decreed as hereinafter provided, for the payment of any judgment liens existing upon such land, or some portion thereof, at decedent's death, by a mortgage, lease or sale at public or private sale thereof; and that the parties named in the petition and all other necessary parties, as prescribed in the subsequent sections of this title, may be cited to show cause why such a decree should not be made.

The time, during which an action is pending in a court of record, between a creditor and an executor or administrator of the estate, is not a part of the time limited in the last section, for presenting a petition, founded upon a debt, which was in controversy in the action; if the creditor has, before the expiration of the time so limited, filed in the clerk's office of the county where the real property is situated, a notice of the pendency of the action; specifying the names of the parties, the object of the action, and, if the creditor's debt is made the foundation of a counterclaim, the nature of the counterclaim; containing a description of the property in that county to be affected thereby; and stating that it will be held as security for any judgment obtained in the action. A notice so filed must be recorded and indexed, and may be cancelled, as prescribed, with respect to the notice of pendency of an action, in article nine of title first of chapter fourteen of this act. It may also be cancelled in like manner, or a specified portion of the property affected thereby, may be discharged from the lien thereof, by the order of the court in which the action is pending, made upon the application of a person having an interest in the real property, upon notice to the creditor, and upon such terms as justice requires. Whenever an executor, administrator or creditor of a deceased person shall have commenced, or shall hereafter commence, an action in any court of competent jurisdiction of this State for the purpose of setting aside any fraudulent conveyance of, or incumbrance upon, any real estate of such deceased person, and such action shall have been decided in favor of such executor, administrator or creditor, such executor, administrator or creditor may, at any time within three years after the final determination of such action, have and maintain an action or proceeding against the proper parties, in any court of competent jurisdiction of this State, for a sale of such real estate, and for a distribution of the proceeds of such real estate among the creditors of such deceased person, and other persons entitled to the same as may be directed by the judgment in such action.

L. 1887, ch. 423.

The petition must set forth the following matters, as nearly as the petitioner can, upon diligent inquiry, ascertain them:

1. [Am'd, 1904.] The amount of the unpaid debts and funeral expenses of the decedent and that the personal estate is inadequate for the payment thereof.

L. 1904, ch. 730. In effect Sept. 1, 1904.

2. A general description of all the decedent's real property, and interest in real property, within the state, which may be disposed of as prescribed in this title; a statement of the value of each distinct parcel; whether it is improved or not; whether it is occupied or not; and, if occupied, the name of each occupant; whether it is incumbered by a mortgage lien or liens together with a statement of the amount due or claimed to be due thereon. Where the petition describes an interest in real property, specified in section two thousand seven hundred and forty-nine of this act, the value of the interest must be stated, and also the value of, and the other particulars, specified in this section, relating to the real property to which the interest attaches.

3. The names of the husband or wife, and of all the heirs and devisees of the decedent, and also every other person claiming under them, or either of them, stating who, if any, are infants; the age of each infant, and the name of his general guardian, if any; and also, if the petition is presented by a creditor or judgment lienor, the name of each executor or administrator.

4. If the petition is presented by an executor or administrator, the amount of personal property which has come to his hands, and those of his coexecutors or coadministrators, if any; the application thereof, and the amount which may yet be realized therefrom.

L. 1894, ch. 735.

If, upon diligent inquiry, any of the matters required to be set forth, as prescribed in the last section, cannot be ascertained by the petitioner, that fact must be shown to the surrogate's satisfaction, and the surrogate must, thereupon, inquire into the matter, as prescribed in article first of title second of this chapter. If the petition is presented by a creditor or judgment lienor, the surrogate may, by order, require the executor or administrator to render such an account or other statement, as he deems necessary for the purpose of the inquiry.

L. 1894, ch. 735.

Where the surrogate is satisfied that all the facts, specified in the last section but one, have been ascertained, as far as they can be upon diligent inquiry, and it appears to him that the debts, judgment, liens and funeral expenses, or either, cannot be paid, without resorting to the real property, or interest in real property, he must issue a citation according to the prayer of the petition. If, upon the inquiry, it appears to the surrogate, that any heir or devisee, or person claiming an interest in the property under an heir or devisee, is not named in the petition, the citation must also be directed to him. Where the surrogate is unable to ascertain to his satisfaction whether the decedent left, surviving him, any person, who would be entitled to succeed to the real property or interest in real property, as heir, or who would be entitled to the real property or interest in real property affected by a will, if the person had died intestate, or person claiming an interest in the property under an heir or such devisee, or if it shall appear to the surrogate that the decedent left no known heirs-at-law or next of kin, the citation must also be directed to the attorney-general. Unless the executor or administrator has caused to be published, as prescribed by law, a notice requiring creditors to present their claims, and the time for the presentation thereof, pursuant to the notice, has elapsed, the citation must be directed, generally to all other creditors of the decedent, as well as the creditors named.

Upon the return of the citation the surrogate must proceed to hear the allegations and proofs of the parties. A creditor of the decedent, including one whose claim is not yet due, or a person having a claim for unpaid funeral expenses, although not named in the citation, may appear and thus make himself a party to the special proceeding. An heir or devisee, or a person claiming under an heir or devisee, of the property in question, although not named in the citation, may contest the necessity of applying the property to the payment of debts, judgment liens or funeral expenses, or the validity of a debt, due or unpaid, represented as existing against the decedent, or the reasonableness of the funeral expenses; may interpose any defense to the whole or any part thereof; and, for that purpose, may make himself a party to the special proceeding, but a judgment heretofore or hereafter recovered against the executor or administrator upon a claim against decedent shall be prima facie evidence and proof of the claim against the real property of decedent, and the burden of disproving such judgment, or of proving that the claim upon which it was rendered is invalid, or that the judgment was obtained by collusion shall be upon the party disputing or objecting to the same, if such party shall have filed written objections thereto. The admission or allowance by the executor or administrator of a claim or debt of any creditor against the decedent shall, for the purpose of such proceeding, be deemed an establishment thereof, unless objection be made thereto by a party to the special proceeding. Where such a defense arises under the statute of limitation, an act or admission by the executor or administrator does not prevent the running of the statute, or revive the debt, so as to affect, in any manner, the real property, or interest in real property in question, or to permit the creditor to participate in the fund arising therefrom.

§ 2756. [Am'd, 1904.] What proof necessary for a decree.

A decree directing the disposition of real property or of an interest in real property can be made only where after due examination the following facts have been established to the satisfaction of the surrogate.

1. That the proceedings have been in conformity to this title.
2. That the personal estate of the decedent is insufficient for the payment of his debts and funeral expenses.

§ 2756. [Am'd, 1904.] What proof necessary for a decree.

A decree directing the disposition of real property or of an interest in real property can be made only where after due examination the following facts have been established to the satisfaction of the surrogate.

1. That the proceedings have been in conformity to this title.
2. That the personal estate of the decedent is insufficient for the payment of his debts and funeral expenses.

L. 1904, ch. 750. In effect Sept. 1, 1904. Formerly § 2759.

If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the surrogate that the personal estate of the decedent is insufficient for the payment of his debts and funeral expenses, the surrogate shall make a decree empowering the executor or administrator to mortgage, lease or sell the whole or such part of the real property or interest of the decedent in real property as the surrogate shall deem necessary for the payment thereof. The surrogate may limit the amount to be sold and afterward extend the power to other parcels and direct the order of the sale of parcels and may direct whether the same be mortgaged, leased, or sold, for the purpose of preserving all the rights and equities of the parties and preventing any unnecessary disposition of such real property; and may limit the amount to be raised thereby. The decree must describe the property to be sold with common certainty. If it appears that one or more distinct parcel of which the decedent died seized has been devised by him or sold by his heirs the decree must provide that the several distinct parcels be sold in the following order:

1. Property which descended to the decedent's heirs and which has not been sold by them.
2. Property so descended which has been sold by them.
3. Property which has been devised which has not been sold by the devisee.
4. Property so devised which has been sold by the devisee.

If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the surrogate that the decedent left no known heirs-at-law, or if the surrogate is unable to determine whether there are heirs-at-law entitled to inherit, the sale must be directed to be held at public auction, and due notice of the sale shall be directed and given to the attorney-general.

It shall be the duty of the executor or administrator to execute the power conferred upon him by a decree directing that property be mortgaged, leased or sold; but he must first execute and file with the surrogate his bond, with two or more sureties, to the people of the state in a penalty fixed by the surrogate not less than twice the sum to be raised, or the value of the real property, or interest in real property, directed to be sold. The bond must be conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties imposed upon the principal by the decree and for the accounting by the principal for all moneys received by him whenever he is required so to do by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Where there are two or more executors or administrators, if either of them fails, within such time as the surrogate deems reasonable, to give, or to join with his coexecutors or coadministrators in giving, a bond as prescribed in the last section, the surrogate may direct those who have given the bond to proceed to execute the decree. But if a sole executor or administrator, or all the executors or administrators, so fail, such failure shall be deemed ground for the revocation of his or their letters and the surrogate shall, upon the application of any person interested, revoke such letters and grant administration to such person entitled as will execute such decree. He may revoke letters so granted from time to time, as the case requires, to obtain the proper execution of the decree. A person to whom letters are so granted shall have all the powers under the decree which were given to the executor or administrator at the time it was made; and must give the bond required by such decree, as well as the bond required to be given upon issuing letters to him.

The death, removal, or disqualification, before the complete execution of a decree, of all the executors or administrators does not suspend or affect the execution thereof; but the successor of the person who has died, been removed, or become disqualified, must proceed to complete all unfinished matters, as his predecessors might have completed the same; and he must give such security for the due performance of his duties as the surrogate prescribes.

L. 1895, ch. 213; L. 1904, ch. 750. In effect Sept. 1, 1904. From former § 2770.

The executor or administrator must proceed to execute the decree in the same manner, and the execution thereof shall have the same effect, as if he were acting as executor of the decedent under a like power contained in a will of said decedent duly executed and proved. He shall apply the proceeds of the real property mortgaged, leased or sold in the same manner as if he had acted under such a power of sale contained in a will and all persons interested in the execution of the decree shall have the same remedies for the enforcement of the decree and the application of the proceeds that they would have had if the executor or administrator were acting under such a power. The executor or administrator may account for such proceeds and may be compelled to account therefor and for his acts under such decree and shall be entitled to commissions upon the settlement of his accounts as if he had acted under such a power.

The title of a purchaser in good faith at a sale pursuant to a decree made as prescribed in this title is not, nor is the validity of a mortgage or lease made as prescribed in this title, in any way affected, where a petition was presented and the proper persons were duly cited and a decree authorizing a mortgage, lease or sale was made as prescribed in this title, by any omission, error, defect or irregularity occurring between the return of the citation and the making of the decree, except so far as the same would affect the title of a purchaser at a sale made pursuant to the directions contained in a judgment rendered by the supreme court.

L. 1904, ch. 750. In effect Sept. 1, 1904. From former § 2764.

§ 2764. [Am'd, 1894, 1904.] Allowance on bid to creditor purchasing.

If a creditor of the decedent becomes the purchaser of any of the decedent's real property, the surrogate may, upon his application, direct the amount of his claim to be allowed, in the first instance, upon the purchase price; and such purchaser shall only be required to pay the balance at the time of the sale. But, in case the proceeds of the decedent's real property shall be insufficient to satisfy the costs and expenses of administration and the debts and funeral expenses of the decedent, the purchasing creditor shall be allowed and credited, upon the judicial settlement of the accounts of the executor or administrator, only the amount he may be entitled to receive upon his claim and shall then pay the difference between the amount originally allowed and the amount he is entitled to receive. In case any purchaser has credit on his bid, as aforesaid, no deed shall be delivered to him until the judicial settlement of the accounts of the executor or administrator nor until he shall have paid the entire amount required under the provisions of this section.

§ 2765. [Am'd, 1894, 1904.] Sale to be refused if bond be given.

A decree empowering an executor or administrator to mortgage, lease or sell shall not be granted if any of the persons interested in the estate give bonds to the surrogate in such sum and with such sureties as he directs and approves, with condition to pay all the debts, legacies and expenses of administration so far as the goods, chattels, rights and credits of the deceased are insufficient therefor, within such time as the surrogate may direct.

§ 2774. Who not to purchase.

An executor or administrator upon the estate, a freeholder appointed to execute a decree, or a general or special guardian of an infant, who has an interest in any of the real property to be sold, shall not directly, or indirectly, purchase, or be, or at any time before confirmation, become interested in a purchase at the sale; except that a guardian may, when authorized so to do by the order of the surrogate, purchase in his name of office for the benefit of his ward. A violation of this section renders the purchase void.

§ 2782. Contract for lands; effect of conveyance of decedent's interest.

A conveyance of the decedent's interest in all the real property held by him under a contract for the purchase thereof operates as an assignment of the contract to the purchaser; and vests in him, his heirs and assigns, all the right, title, and interest of all the persons entitled, at the time of the sale, in and to the decedent's interest in the real property.

§ 2783. Id.; effect of conveyance of part.

A conveyance of the decedent's interest in a part only of the real property, held under such a contract, transfers to the purchaser all the decedent's right, title, and interest in and to the part so sold; and all rights, which would be acquired thereto, by the executor or administrator, or by any person entitled, at the time of the sale, to the interest of the decedent therein, by perfecting the title to the property contracted for, pursuant to the contract. Upon fully complying with the contract, the purchaser has the same right to enforce performance thereof, with respect to the part conveyed to him; and the executor or administrator, or his assignee, has the same right to enforce performance, with respect to the residue, as the decedent would have had, if he was living. Any title acquired by the executor or administrator, or his assignee, with respect to the part not sold, must be held in trust for the use of the persons entitled to the decedent's interest, subject to the dower of the widow, if any.

In effect Sept. 1, 1904, provided, however, that, in cases where the decree for the disposition of decedent's real property, for the payment of debts and funeral expenses shall have been entered prior to the time this act takes effect, all subsequent proceedings shall be in accordance with the provisions of the statutes then existing; and to that extent said sections shall be considered as still in force.]

§ 2785. Purchaser's title not affected by certain irregularities, etc.; presumption, where records have been removed.

Where the records of the surrogate's court have been heretofore, or are hereafter, removed from one place to another, in either the same or another county, and twenty-five years have elapsed after a sale or other disposition of real property, or of an interest in real property, as prescribed in this title, the due appointment of a guardian for each infant party to the special proceeding must be presumed, and can be disproved only by affirmative record evidence to the contrary.

In effect Sept. 1, 1904, provided, however, that, in cases where the decree for the disposition of decedent's real property, for the payment of debts and funeral expenses shall have been entered prior to the time this act takes effect, all subsequent proceedings shall be in accordance with the provisions of the statutes then existing; and to that extent said sections shall be considered as still in force.]

Where real property, or an interest in real property, liable to be disposed of as prescribed in this title, is sold, in an action or a special proceeding, specified in the last section, to satisfy a mortgage or other lien thereupon, which accrued during the decedent's life-time; and letters testamentary or letters of administration, upon the decedent's estate, were, within four years before the sale, issued from a surrogate's court of the State, having jurisdiction to grant them; the surplus money must be paid into the surrogate's court from which the letters issued pursuant to the provisions of section twenty-five hundred and thirty-seven of this code, and the receipt of the county treasurers shall be a sufficient discharge to the person paying such money. If the sale was made pursuant to the directions contained in a judgment or order, the surplus remaining after payment of all the liens upon the property, chargeable upon the proceeds, which existed at the time of the decedent's death, must be so paid. If the sale was made in any other manner, the surplus exceeding the lien to satisfy which the property was sold, and the costs and expenses, must, within thirty days after the receipt of the money from which it accrues, be so paid over by the person receiving that money.

L. 1893, ch. 686. See § 2408. See also Rule 61.

§ 2799. [Am'd, 1881, 1904.] Id.; how distributed.

Where money is paid into a surrogate's court, as prescribed in the last section, and a petition for the disposition of property, as prescribed in this title, is pending before him; or is presented at any time before the distribution of the money; the decree may provide that the money be paid to the executor or administrator to be applied by him as if it was the proceeds of the decedent's real property, sold pursuant to the decree. If such a petition is not pending or presented, or if a decree for the disposition of the decedent's property is not made thereupon, a verified petition, praying for a decree, directing the distribution of the money among the persons entitled thereto, may be presented by any of those persons. Each person, who would be entitled to share in the distribution of the proceeds of a sale, must be cited to show cause, why such a decree should not be made. Service of the citation may be made upon all the persons designated therein, by publishing the same in two newspapers designated as prescribed in article first of title second of this chapter, at least once in each of the four successive weeks immediately preceding the return day thereof, except that personal service must be made upon the husband, wife, heirs and devisees of the decedent, and also upon every other person claiming under them, or either of them who resides in this state. Upon the return of the citation, the rights and priorities of the persons interested must be established, and a decree for distribution must be made.

Where the widow of the decedent, or a party to the proceeding, has an existing right of dower in the real estate directed to be sold the court must consider and determine whether a more advantageous sale can be made of such real estate by including the sale of such right of dower; and, if it shall be determined by the court that a larger sum will be realized on such sale, applicable to the payment of debts and funeral expenses, by including in such sale the right of dower, the interest of the party entitled thereto shall pass thereby; and the purchaser, his heirs and assigns, shall hold the property free and discharged from any claim by virtue of that right. The regulations and provisions of article two title one of chapter fourteen of this act, prescribing the rules of practice in relation to the right of dower in actions for the partition of real estate, so far as the same may be applicable, shall govern and control the disposition of moneys realized on such sale which shall belong to the owner of said right of dower.

L. 1905, ch. 430. In effect May 16, 1905.

Where a decree has been made for the application of the proceeds of real property to the payment of the decedent's debts, or funeral expenses as prescribed in this title, and assets, which should have been applied thereto, are afterwards discovered; or, for any other reason, money or other personal property of the decedent, which should have been applied thereto, afterwards comes to the hands of the executor, administrator, legatee or next of kin, the heir, devisee or other person aggrieved may maintain an action to procure reimbursement therefrom.

§ 2801-a. [Added, 1905.] Conveyance of real estate by executor or administrator to holder of contract of sale made by decedent.

When a person dies seized of the legal title to lands in this state, and another person claims to hold the beneficial interest in an executory contract made by the decedent for the sale and conveyance of such lands to the vendee therein named, or to his successors in interest, the execution and delivery of a deed of such real estate by the executor or administrator of the decedent's estate, to the holder of said contract, having the effect of conveying all the right, title and interest of the decedent at the time of his death in and to said lands, may be authorized and compelled upon the application of such executor or administrator, upon the conditions and in the manner hereinafter provided. Upon receiving written notice of any such claim, subscribed by the claimant and requesting that proceedings be instituted under the provisions of this section, and containing particulars as to the date of the contract, the amount of the purchase price, the time or times when installments thereof were or will become due and payable, the sum, if any, admitted to be still due or unpaid thereon, a description of the lands in question and a statement of any other condition applying to the vendee, the executor or administrator may, in his discretion, apply to the surrogate from whose court his letters were issued, for an order authorizing and directing him to execute a deed of such lands to the person entitled thereto upon such terms as the court may prescribe. The executor or administrator may, in his discretion, accept from the claimant a deposit of money to secure the estate for any costs and expenses of the application; such money to be retained by the executor or administrator to the extent of any costs or expenses thus paid or incurred only in the event that the claimant neglects unreasonably to tender performance of his part of the contract, or to be ready and willing to perform when requested, pursuant to the order, if any, to be entered on such application. The application shall be by petition, duly verified, which shall set forth the facts hereinabove provided to be contained in said notice, and such other facts, in relation to said matter as may have come to the knowledge of the executor or administrator, together with the names of the decedent's heirs, devisees and surviving husband or wife, if any, and of all persons claiming under them or either of them, so far as known, and shall pray for a citation to all such heirs, devisees, wife, widow or persons, requiring them to show cause before said surrogate why an order should not be entered authorizing such conveyance. Upon the return of such citation and after hearing the proofs in support of the petition, or in opposition thereto, the surrogate shall make such order as justice requires. If it is found that the enforcement of said contract at law would be subject to a valid defense, in favor of any party to said proceeding, the petition shall be dismissed. If it is found that such contract is valid and in force and that the vendor had not, in his lifetime, effectually conveyed his interest in said lands in fulfillment thereof, the order shall direct such conveyance to be made by the executor or administrator, upon receiving the balance of the purchase price, when due, if there be any such unpaid balance, which amount shall be specified in the order, or upon the compliance by the claimant with any other condition imposed on him by the contract. Under such order, if the purchase money on the contract is not due and the claimant elects to pay the whole amount thereof, before maturity, the executor or administrator shall receive the same and shall thereupon execute and deliver the deed hereinabove provided for. A conveyance made in pursuance of such order shall be binding on all of said persons in interest who were duly cited in the proceeding. An order dismissing the petition shall not prejudice the right of the claimant under said contract to a civil action for specific performance nor to any other remedy then existing at law or in equity; but the delivery and acceptance of a deed of conveyance executed in pursuance of an order granted as prescribed in this section shall be deemed a complete fulfillment of such contract. An order directing a conveyance under the provisions of this section may be enforced, at the instance of the person entitled to such conveyance, by contempt proceedings in the manner provided for the enforcement of a decree under section twenty-five hundred and fifty-five of this act, provided it is shown that such person tendered performance of his part of the contract, or was ready and able to perform when requested, within a reasonable time after the order was entered. Upon such a proceeding costs and disbursements may be allowed and included in the order, payable from the estate, in the sums specified in section twenty-five hundred and sixty-one of this act.

TITLE VI.

Provisions relating to a testamentary trustee.

- Sec. 2802. Intermediate accounting; when voluntary.
 2803. Id.; when compulsory.
 2804. Petition to compel payment of debt, legacy, etc.
 2805. Id.; proceedings upon return of citation.
 2806. Id.; other persons interested to be cited.
 2807. When surrogate may compel judicial settlement.
 2808. Who may apply therefor.
 2809. Proceedings upon return of citation.
 2810. Judicial settlement on petition of trustee.
 2811. Certain provisions of title fourth made applicable.
 2812. Surrogate to determine controversies; proportion may be retained.
 2813. Effect of decree.
 2814. Resignation of trust.
 2815. Petition for security from testamentary trustee.
 2816. Security; how given.
 2817. Removal of testamentary trustee.
 2818. Appointment of successor.
 2819. Proceedings where testamentary trustee is also executor or administrator.
 2820. Application of this title.

§ 2802. [Am'd, 1885.] Intermediate accounting; when voluntary.

Any trustee created by any last will and testament, or appointed by any competent authority to execute any trust created by such last will and testament, may at any time file an intermediate account, and may also annually render and finally judicially settle his accounts before the surrogate of the county having jurisdiction of the estate or trust, in the manner provided by law for the final judicial settlement of the accounts of executors and administrators, and may for that purpose obtain and serve in the same manner the necessary citations requiring all persons interested to attend such final settlement; and the decree of the surrogate on such final settlement may be appealed from in the manner provided for an appeal from a decree of a surrogate's court on the final settlement of the accounts of an executor or administrator, and the like proceedings shall be had on such appeal; in all such annual accountings of such trustees, the surrogate before whom such accounting may be had shall allow to the trustee or trustees the same compensation for his or their services, by way of commission, as are allowed by law to executors and administrators, besides their just and reasonable expenses therein; and also the additional allowance provided for in section twenty-five hundred and sixty-two of this act; the decree of the surrogate on such final annual settlement of an account provided for in this section, or the final determination, decree or judgment of the appellate tribunal in case of appeal, shall have the same force and effect as the decree or judgment of any other court of competent jurisdiction on the final settlement of such accounts, and of the matters relating to such trust which shall have been embraced in such accounts, or litigated or determined on such settlement.

Upon the petition of a person interested, absolutely or contingently, in the estate or fund in the hands of a testamentary trustee.

tee, or in the application thereof, or of the income or other proceeds thereof, the surrogate may, in his discretion, make, at any time, an order requiring a testamentary trustee to render an intermediate account.

Where a person is entitled by the terms of the will to the payment of money, or the delivery of personal property by a testamentary trustee, he may present to the surrogate's court a written petition, duly verified, setting forth the facts which entitle him to the payment or delivery, and praying for a decree, directing payment or delivery accordingly; and that the testamentary trustee may be cited to show cause why such a decree should not be made. If the petitioner is so entitled, only upon the happening of a contingency, or after the expiration of a certain time, he must show in his petition that his right to the money or other property has become absolute. Upon the presentation of the petition, the surrogate must issue a citation accordingly.

Id.

Upon the return of a citation, issued as prescribed in the last section, if the testamentary trustee files a written answer, duly verified, setting forth facts, which show that it is doubtful, whether the petitioner's claim is valid and legal, and denying its validity or legality, absolutely or upon his information and belief, a decree must be made dismissing the petition, without prejudice to an action in behalf of the petitioner for an accounting; otherwise, the surrogate must hear the allegations and proofs of the parties, and must make such a decree in the premises as justice requires. In a proper case, the decree may require the testamentary trustee, who is unable to deliver personal property, to which the petitioner is entitled, to pay the value thereof.

Id.

§ 2806. Id.; other persons interested to be cited.

Where it appears, upon the presentation of a petition as prescribed in the last section but one, that a decree made pursuant to the prayer thereof, might affect the rights of other persons with respect to the estate or fund held by the testamentary trustee, the citation must also be directed to those persons. Where that fact appears, upon the return of the citation, or upon the hearing, and it also appears presumptively that the petitioner is entitled to a decree, all the persons, whose rights may be so affected, must be brought in by supplemental citation before a decree is made.

Id.

§ 2807. When surrogate may compel judicial settlement.

In either of the following cases, the surrogate's court may, from time to time, compel a judicial settlement of the account of a testamentary trustee:

1. Where one year has expired since the will was admitted to probate.
2. Where the trustee has been removed, or, for any other reason, his powers have ceased.
3. Where the trusts, or one or more distinct and separate trusts, created by the terms of the will, have been executed, or are ready to be executed; so that the persons beneficially interested are, by the terms of the will, or by operation of law, entitled to receive any money or other personal property from the trustee.

§ 2808. Who may apply therefor.

A petition, praying for a judicial settlement, as prescribed in the last section, and that the testamentary trustee may be cited to show cause, why he should not render and settle his account, may be presented, by any person beneficially interested in the execution of any of the trusts; or by any person in behalf of an infant so beneficially interested; or by a surety in the bond of the testamentary trustee, given as prescribed in this title, or by the legal representative of such a surety. Upon the presentation of the petition, the surrogate must issue a citation accordingly, unless the account of the testamentary trustee has been judicially settled, within a year before the petition is presented; in which case, the surrogate may, in his discretion, entertain, or decline to entertain, the petition.

Sections 2727 and 2728 of this act apply to the proceedings upon a citation, issued as prescribed in the last section, and to the testamentary trustee to whom the citation is directed.

When one year has expired since the probate of the will, or when the trusts, or one or more distinct and separate trusts, created by the will, have been, or are ready to be, fully executed, a testamentary trustee may present to the surrogate's court a petition, duly verified, setting forth the facts, and praying that his account may be judicially settled; and that all the persons who are entitled, absolutely or contingently, by the terms of the will, or by operation of law, to share in the fund, or in the proceeds of property held by the petitioner, as a part of his trust, may be cited to attend the settlement. Thereupon the surrogate must issue a citation accordingly. Sections 2729, 2780, and 2731 of this act apply to the proceedings upon the return of a citation, issued as prescribed in this section, and to the testamentary trustee whose account is to be settled. Any person, although not named in the citation, who is beneficially interested in the estate or fund which came to the petitioner's hands, or in the proceeds thereof, or in the application of that estate or fund, or of the proceeds thereof, is entitled to appear upon the hearing, and thus make himself a party to the special proceeding.

Sections 2734 to 2737, both inclusive, sections 2739 to 2741, both inclusive, and sections 2743, 2744, and 2746 of this act, apply to and regulate the like matters, where a testamentary trustee accounts, as prescribed in this title; except as otherwise prescribed in the next two sections. To each account, filed as prescribed in this title, must be annexed an affidavit, in the form prescribed in section 2733 of this act, for the affidavit to be annexed to the account of an executor or administrator; except that the expression, "the trusts created by the will", with such other description of the trust, as is necessary to identify it, must be substituted in place of the words, "the estate of the decedent".

§ 2812. Surrogate to determine controversies; proportion may be retained.

Upon a judicial settlement of the account of a testamentary trustee, a controversy which arises, respecting the right of a party to share in the money or other personal property to be paid, distributed, or delivered over, must be determined in the same manner as other issues are determined. If such a controversy remains undetermined, after the determination of all other questions upon which the distribution of the fund, or the delivery of the personal property depends, the decree must direct that a sum, sufficient to satisfy the claim in controversy, or the proportion to which it is entitled, together with the probable amount of the interest and costs, and, if the case so requires, that the personal property in controversy, be retained in the hands of the accounting party; or that the money be deposited in a safe bank or trust company, subject to the surrogate's order, for the purpose of being applied to the payment of the claim, when it is due, recovered, or settled; and that so much thereof, as is not needed for that purpose, be afterwards distributed according to law.

§ 2813. Effect of decree.

A decree, made upon a judicial settlement of the account of a testamentary trustee, as prescribed in this title, or the judgment rendered upon an appeal from such a decree, has the same force, as a judgment of the supreme court to the same effect, as against each party who was duly cited or appeared, and every person who would be bound by such a judgment, rendered in an action between the same parties.

L. 1866, ch. 115 (6 Edm. 700).

A testamentary trustee may, at any time, present to the surrogate's court a written petition, duly verified, praying that his account may be judicially settled; that a decree may thereupon be made, allowing him to resign his trust, and discharging him accordingly; and that all persons who are entitled, absolutely or contingently, by the terms of the will or by operation of law, to share in the fund or estate, or the proceeds of any property held by the petitioner as a part of his trust, may be cited to show cause, why such a decree should not be made. The petition must set forth the facts upon which the application is founded; and it must, in all other respects, conform to a petition presented for a judicial settlement of the account of a testamentary trustee, as prescribed in this title. The surrogate may, in his discretion, entertain or decline to entertain the petition. If he entertains it, the proceedings must be, in all respects, the same as upon a petition for a judicial settlement of the petitioner's account, except that, upon the hearing, the surrogate must first determine, whether sufficient reasons exist for granting the prayer of the petition; and, if he determines that they exist, he must make an order accordingly, and allowing the petitioner to account, for the purpose of being discharged. Upon the petitioner's fully accounting, and paying all money belonging to the trust, and delivering all books, papers, and other property of the trust, in his hands, either into the surrogate's court, or as the surrogate directs, a decree may be made, accepting his resignation and discharging him accordingly.

Any person, beneficially interested in the execution of the trust, may present to the surrogate's court a written petition, duly verified, setting forth, either upon his knowledge, or upon his information and belief, any fact, respecting a testamentary trustee, the existence of which, if it was interposed as an objection to granting letters testamentary to a person named as executor in a will, would make it necessary for such a person to give security, in order to entitle himself to letters; and praying for a decree, directing the testamentary trustee to give security for the performance of his trust; and that he may be cited to show cause, why such a decree should not be made. Upon the presentation of such a petition, the surrogate must issue a citation accordingly. Upon the return of the citation, a decree, requiring the testamentary trustee to give such security, may be made, in a case where a person so named as executor can entitle himself to letters testamentary, only by giving a bond; but not otherwise.

The security, given as prescribed in the last section, must be a bond to the same effect, and in the same form, as an executor's bond. Each provision of this chapter, applicable to the bond of an executor, or to the rights, duties, and liabilities of the parties thereto, or any of them, including the release of the sureties, and the giving of a new bond, apply to the bond so given, and to the parties thereto.

In either of the following cases, a person beneficially interested in the execution of the trust, may present to the surrogate's court a written petition, duly verified, setting forth the facts, and praying for a decree removing a testamentary trustee from his trust; and that he may be cited to show cause, why such a decree should not be made:

1. Where, if he was named in a will as executor, letters testamentary would not be issued to him, by reason of his personal disqualification or incompetency.

2. Where, by reason of his having wasted or improperly applied the money or other property in his charge, or invested money in securities unauthorized by law, or otherwise improvidently managed or injured the property committed to his charge, or by reason of other misconduct in the execution of his trust, or dishonesty, drunkenness, improvidence, or want of understanding, he is unfit for the due execution of his trust.

3. Where he has failed to give a bond, as required by a decree, made as prescribed in the last two sections; or has wilfully refused, or without good cause neglected, to obey a direction of the surrogate, contained in any other decree, or in an order, made as prescribed in this title; or any provision of law, relating to the discharge of his duty.

2 R. S. 730, ch. 1, § 7.

§ 2818. [Am'd, 1884, 1903.] Appointment of successor.

When a person named in a will as sole testamentary trustee dies prior to the probate of the will, or by an instrument in writing renounces his appointment, or when, a sole testamentary trustee dies, or becomes a lunatic, or is by a decree of the surrogate's court removed or allowed to resign, and the trust has not been fully executed, the same court may appoint his successor, unless such an appointment would contravene the express terms of the will. Where one or two or more persons named in a will as testamentary trustees dies prior to the probate of the will, or by an instrument in writing, renounces his or their appointment, or where one of two or more testamentary trustees dies or becomes a lunatic, or is by a decree of the surrogate's court removed or allowed to resign, a successor shall not be appointed, except where such appointment is necessary in order to comply with the express terms of the will, or unless the same court, or the supreme court, shall be of the opinion that the appointment of a successor would be for the benefit of the cestui que trust. Unless and until a successor is appointed the remaining trustee or trustees may proceed and execute the trust as fully as if such trustee (or trustees) had not died, renounced, become a lunatic, been removed or resigned. Where a decree removing a trustee or discharging him upon his resignation does not designate his successor, or the person designated therein does not qualify, the successor must be appointed and must qualify in the manner prescribed by law for the appointment and qualification of an administrator with the will annexed.

L. 1870, ch. 395, § 3; 1 R. S. 780, ch. 1, §§ 68, 71; L. 1884, ch. 408; L. 1903, ch. 370. In effect May 6, 1903.

Where the same person is a testamentary trustee, and also the executor of the will, or an administrator upon the same estate, proceedings taken by or against him, as prescribed in this title, do not affect him as executor or administrator, or the creditors of, or persons interested in, the general estate, except in one of the following cases:

1. Where he presents a petition, praying for the revocation of his letters, he may also, in the same petition, set forth the facts, upon showing which he would be allowed to resign as testamentary trustee; and may thereupon pray for a decree allowing him so to resign, and for a citation accordingly.

2. Where a person presents a petition, praying for the revocation of letters issued to an executor or administrator; and any of the facts set forth in the petition are made, by the provisions of this title, sufficient to entitle the same person to present a petition, praying for the removal of a testamentary trustee: the petitioner may pray for a decree, removing the person complained of in both capacities, and for a citation accordingly.

In either case, proceedings upon the petition for the resignation or removal, as the case requires, of the testamentary trustee, and for the judicial settlement of his account, may be taken, as prescribed in this title, in connection with, or separately from, the like proceedings upon the petition for the revocation of the letters, as the surrogate directs.

§ 2820. Application of this title.

The provisions of this title apply to a trust created by the will of a resident of the State, or relating to real property, situated within the State, without regard to the residence of the trustee, or the time of the execution of the will.

TITLE VII.

Provisions relating to a guardian.

- Article 1. Appointment, removal, and resignation of a general guardian.
 2. Supervision and control of a general guardian. Settlement of his accounts.
 3. Guardians appointed by will or deed.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Appointment, removal and resignation of a general guardian.

- Sec. 2821. Power of court to appoint guardians.
 2822. Petition for appointment, by infant over fourteen.
 2823. Contents of petition: citation.
 2824. Id.; where petitioner is a married woman.
 2825. Appointment of guardian.
 2826. Guardian to be nominated by infant.
 2827. Appointment of temporary guardian for infant under fourteen.
 2828. Term of office of temporary guardian.
 2829. Inquiry as to value of property.
 2830. Qualification of guardian of property.
 2831. Id.; of guardian of person.
 2832. When letters may be revoked for misconduct, etc.
 2833. Citation: hearing: decree.
 2834. Suspension of guardian: effect thereof.
 2835. Application by guardian for revocation of letters.
 2836. Proceedings thereupon.
 2837. Ward or new guardian may require accounting.
 2838. Application for ancillary letters to foreign guardian.
 2839. Proceedings thereupon.
 2840. Effect of ancillary letters.
 2841. Application of the last section to former guardians.

§ 2821. Power of court to appoint guardians.

The surrogate's court has the like power and authority to appoint a general guardian, of the person or of the property, or both, of an infant, which the chancellor had, on the thirty-first day of December, eighteen hundred and forty-six. It has also power and authority to appoint a general guardian, of the person or of the property, or both, of an infant whose father or mother is living, and to appoint a general guardian, of the property only, of an infant married woman. Such power and authority must be exercised in like manner as they were exercised by the court of chancery, subject to the provisions of this act. The same person may be appointed guardian of an infant in both capacities; or the guardianship of the person and of the property may be committed to different persons.

§ 2822. [Am'd, 1909.] Petition for appointment, by infant over fourteen.

In either of the following cases, an infant of the age of fourteen years or upwards, may present, to the surrogate's court of the county in which he resides; or, if he is not a resident of the state, to the surrogate's court of the county in which any of his property, real or personal, is situated; a written petition, duly verified, setting forth the facts upon which the jurisdiction of the court depends, and praying for a decree appointing a general guardian, either of his person, or of his property, or both, as the case requires; and, if necessary, that the persons, entitled by law to be cited upon such an application, may be cited to show cause, why such a decree should not be made:

1. Where such a general guardian has not been duly appointed, either by a court of competent jurisdiction of the state, or by the will or deed of his father or mother, admitted to probate or authenticated, and recorded, as prescribed in section twenty-eight hundred and fifty-one of this act.

2. Where a general guardian so appointed has died, become incompetent or disqualified; or refuses to act; or has been removed; or where his term of office has expired. Where the petitioner is a non-resident married woman, and the petition relates to personal property only, it must affirmatively show that the property is not subject to the control or disposition of her husband, by the law of the petitioner's residence. Where an infant in one of the cases mentioned in this section has refused, or for ten days has failed, to present the petition, the surrogate, upon notice to be given in such manner as he shall direct, to the infant and the persons who would be entitled by law to be cited upon the application of the infant, shall proceed to the appointment of a general guardian of the property of the infant in the same manner as if the infant had duly presented the petition.

A petition, presented as prescribed in the last section, must also state whether or not the father and mother of the petitioner are known to be living. If either of them is known to be living, and the petition does not pray that the father, or, if he is dead, that the mother, may be appointed the general guardian, it must set forth the circumstances which render the appointment of another person expedient; and must pray that the father, or, if he is dead, that the mother, of the petitioner may be cited to show cause, why the decree should not be made. A citation, issued to the father of the petitioner, must be served at least ten days before it is returnable. Where the case is within subdivision second of the last section, the petition must pray that the person formerly appointed general guardian may be cited; unless it is shown that he is dead. The surrogate must inquire, and ascertain as far as practicable, what relatives of the infant reside in his county; and he may, in his discretion, cite any relative or class of relatives of the infant, residing in that county or elsewhere, to show cause why the prayer of the petition should not be granted.

L. 1870, ch. 341 (7 Edm. 716).

§ 2824. Id.; where petitioner is a married woman.

The last section applies, where the petitioner is a married woman; except that her husband must also be cited, and that the surrogate may, in his discretion, make a decree, appointing a guardian of her property, without citing her father or her mother.

§ 2825. Appointment of guardian.

Upon the return of the citation, the surrogate must make such a decree in the premises, as justice requires. He may, in his discretion, hear allegations and proofs from a person not a party. Where a citation is not issued, the surrogate must, upon the presentation of the petition, inquire into the circumstances. For the purpose of such an inquiry, or of an inquiry into the amount of security to be required of the guardian, he may issue a subpoena, requiring any person to attend before him, to testify respecting any matter involved therein. If he is satisfied that the allegations of the petition are true in fact, and that the interests of the infant will be promoted by the appointment of a general guardian, either of his person or of his property, he must make a decree accordingly, except that a guardian of the person of a married woman shall not be appointed. In a proper case, he may appoint a general guardian in one capacity, without a citation and issue a citation, to show cause against the appointment of a general guardian in the other capacity.

2 R. S. 151, § 6 (2 Edm. 137).

§ 2826. Guardian to be nominated by infant.

A guardian, appointed upon the application of an infant of the age of fourteen years, or upwards, as prescribed in this article, must be nominated by the infant, subject to the approval of the surrogate.

2 R. S. 150, § 4 (2 Edm. 137).

§ 2827. Appointment of temporary guardian for infant under fourteen.

A relative of an infant under fourteen years of age, or any other person in behalf of such an infant, may present, to the surrogate's court of the county in which the infant resides; or, if he is not a resident of the State, to the surrogate's court of the county in which any of the infant's property, real or personal, is situated; a written petition, duly verified, setting forth the facts, upon which the jurisdiction of the court depends, and praying for a decree appointing a guardian of the person, or of the property, or both, of the infant, to serve until the infant attains the age of fourteen years, and a successor to the guardian is appointed. The cases in which such a guardian may be appointed, the contents of the petition, and the proceedings thereupon, are the same, as prescribed in the foregoing sections of this article, with respect to the appointment of a general guardian, upon the petition of an infant of the age of fourteen years or upwards; except that the surrogate must nominate, as well as appoint, the temporary guardian.

§ 2828. Term of office of temporary guardian.

The term of office of a guardian, appointed as prescribed in the last section, expires when the infant attains the age of fourteen years. But after the infant attains that age, the person so appointed continues to retain all the powers and authority, and is subject to all the duties and liabilities, of a guardian of the person, or of the property, or both, pursuant to his letters; until his successor is appointed and has qualified, or until his letters are revoked, for some other cause, by a decree of the surrogate's court; and his sureties are responsible accordingly.

Id., § 10.

§ 2829. Inquiry as to value of property.

Where a general guardian of the property of an infant is appointed, as prescribed in this article, the surrogate must inquire into the infant's circumstances, and must ascertain, as nearly as practicable, the value of his personal property, and of the rents and profits of his real property.

Id., part of § 6.

§ 2830. [Am'd, 1881, 1892.] Qualification of guardian of property.

Before letters of guardianship of an infant's property are issued by the surrogate's court, the person appointed must, besides taking an official oath, as prescribed by law, execute to the infant, and file with the surrogate, his bond, with at least two sureties, in a penalty, fixed by the surrogate, not less than twice the value of the personal property, and of the rents and profits of the real property; conditioned that the guardian will, in all things, faithfully discharge the trust reposed in him, and obey all lawful directions of the surrogate touching the trust; and that he will, in all respects, render a just and true account of all money and other property received by him, and of the application thereof, and of his guardianship, whenever he is required so to do, by a court of competent jurisdiction; but the surrogate may, in his discretion, limit the amount of the bond to not less than twice the value of the personal property and of the rents and profits of the real property for the term of three years. But in case where it appears to be impracticable to give a bond sufficient to cover the whole amount of the infant's personal property the surrogate may, in his discretion, accept security, to be approved by the surrogate, not less than twice the amount of the particular portion of the infant's property which the guardian will be authorized under the letters to receive; and issue letters thereon limited to the receiving and administering only such personal property for which double the security has been given, and restraining the guardian from receiving any other personal property of the infant until the further order of the surrogate on additional further satisfactory security.

Before letters of guardianship of an infant's person are issued by the surrogate's court, the person appointed must take the official oath as prescribed by law. The surrogate may also require him to execute to the infant a bond, in a penalty fixed by the surrogate, and with or without sureties, as to the surrogate seems proper; conditioned, that the guardian will in all things faithfully discharge the trust reposed in him, and duly account for all money or other property which may come to his hands, as directed by the surrogate's court.

In either of the following cases, the ward, or any relative or other person in his behalf, or the surety of a guardian, may, at any time, present to the surrogate's court, a written petition, duly verified, setting forth the facts, and praying for a decree, revoking letters of guardianship, either of the person, or of the property, or both; and that the guardian complained of may be cited to show cause, why such a decree should not be made:

1. Where the guardian is disqualified by law, or is, for any reason, incompetent to fulfil his trust.

2. Where, by reason of his having wasted or improperly applied the money or other property in his charge, or invested money in securities authorized by law, or otherwise improvidently managed or injured the real or personal property of the ward, or by reason of other misconduct in the execution of his office, or his dishonesty, drunkenness, improvidence, or want of understanding, he is unfit for the due execution of his office.

3. Where he has wilfully refused, or, without good cause, neglected, to obey any lawful direction of the surrogate, contained in a decree or an order; or any provision of law, relating to the discharge of his duty.

4. Where the grant of letters to him was obtained, by a false suggestion of a material fact.

5. Where he has removed, or is about to remove, from the State.

6. In the case of the guardian of the person, where the infant's welfare will be promoted by the appointment of another guardian.

2 R. S. 151, § 14; L. 1837, ch. 460, §§ 34, 45 (4 Edm. 493, 495).

Upon the presentation of a petition, as prescribed in the last section, the surrogate must inquire into the matter; and, for that purpose, he may issue a subpoena to any person, requiring him to attend and testify in the premises. If the surrogate is satisfied that there is probable cause to believe, that the allegations of the petition are true, he must issue a citation to the guardian complained of; and, upon the return thereof, if the material allegations of the petition are established, he must make a decree, revoking the guardian's letters accordingly; except that, where the case is within subdivision third or fourth of this last section, he must dismiss the proceedings, under the like circumstances and upon the like terms, as prescribed in sections 2686 and 2687 of this act, where a similar complaint is made against an executor or administrator.

Id. §§ 14 and 16, am'd.

Upon issuing a citation as prescribed in the last section, the surrogate may, in his discretion, make an order suspending the guardian, wholly or partly, from the exercise of his powers and authority, during the pendency of the special proceeding. A certified copy of an order so made must accompany the citation, and be served therewith; but, from the time when it is made, the order is binding upon the guardian and upon all other persons, without service thereof, subject to the exceptions and limitations prescribed in sections 2603 and 2604 of this act, with respect to a decree revoking letters.

L. 1837, ch. 460, § 61 (4 Edm. 497).

§ 2835. Application by guardian for revocation of letters.

A guardian, appointed as prescribed in this title, may, at any time, present to the surrogate's court a written petition, duly verified, setting forth the facts upon which the application is founded, and praying that his account may be judicially settled; that a decree may thereupon be made, revoking his letters, and discharging him accordingly; and that the ward may be cited to show cause why such a decree should not be made. The surrogate may, in his discretion, entertain or decline to entertain the application.

Id., part of §§ 51 and 52.

If the surrogate entertains an application, made as prescribed in the last section, he must issue a citation, as prayed for in the petition; and he may also require notice of the application to be given to such other persons, and in such a manner, as he deems proper. Upon the return of the citation, a guardian ad litem for the ward must be appointed; and the surrogate may also, in his discretion, allow any person to appear and contest the application, in the interest of the ward. Upon the hearing, the surrogate must first determine whether sufficient reasons exist for granting the prayer of the petition. If he determines that they exist, and that the interests of the ward will not be prejudiced by the resignation of the guardian, the surrogate must make an order accordingly, and allowing the petitioner to account, for the purpose of being discharged. Upon his fully accounting, and paying all money which is found to be due from him to the ward, and delivering all books, papers, and other property of the ward in his hands, either into the surrogate's court, or in such a manner as the surrogate directs, a decree may be made, revoking the petitioner's letters, and discharging him accordingly.

L. 1837, ch. 460, part of §§ 52, 53, 54, 55 and 56.

§ 2837. Ward or new guardian may require accounting.

Notwithstanding the discharge of a guardian, as prescribed in the last section, his successor or the ward may compel a judicial settlement of his account, as prescribed in article second of this title, in the same manner and with like effect, as if the decree discharging him had not been made. With respect to all matters connected with his trust, his sureties continue to be liable, until his account is judicially settled accordingly.

Id., part of § 56 (4 Edm. 496).

ancillary letters of guardianship on the personal estate of such infant. The petition must be accompanied with the exemplified copies of the records and other papers showing the appointment of such foreign guardian, or where such foreign guardian has not been appointed by any court with other proof of his authority to act as such guardian within such foreign country, and also with proof that pursuant to the laws of such foreign country, such foreign guardian is entitled to the possession of the ward's personal estate. Exemplified copies of the records, where used pursuant to this subdivision, must be authenticated by the seal of the court, or officer, by which or by whom such foreign guardian was appointed, or the officer having the custody of the seal or of the record thereof, and the signature of a judge of such court, or the signature of such officer and of the clerk of such court or officer, if any; and must be further authenticated by the certificate, under the principal seal of the department of foreign affairs, or the department of justice of such country, attested by the signature or seal of a United States consul.

Where the surrogate is satisfied, upon the papers presented, as prescribed in the last section, that the case is within that section, and that it will be for the ward's interest, that ancillary letters of guardianship should be issued to the petitioner, he may make a decree granting ancillary letters accordingly. Such a decree may be made without a citation, or the surrogate may cite such persons as he thinks proper, to show cause, why the prayer of the petition should not be granted. But before the ancillary letters are issued, the surrogate must inquire, whether any debts are due from the ward's estate to residents of the State; and if so, he must require payment thereof.

Id., part of § 1; L. 1892, ch. 576.

Ancillary letters of guardianship are issued as prescribed in the last section, without security and without an oath of office. If issued in a case provided for in subdivision one,* of section twenty-eight hundred and thirty-eight, they authorize the person to whom they are issued to demand and receive the personal property, and the rents and profits of the real property of the ward; to dispose of them in like manner as a guardian of the property appointed as prescribed in this article; to remove them from the State, and to maintain or defend any action or special proceeding in the ward's behalf. If issued in a case provided for in subdivision two of section twenty-eight hundred and thirty-eight, such ancillary letters of guardianship authorize the person to whom they are issued to demand and receive the personal estate of the ward, and to dispose of it in like manner as a guardian of property appointed as prescribed in this article, and to maintain or defend any action or special proceeding respecting such personal estate in the ward's behalf. But in neither case do such letters authorize such ancillary guardian to receive from a resident, guardian, executor, or administrator, or from a testamentary trustee, subject to the jurisdiction of a surrogate's court, money or other property belonging to the ward, in a case where letters have been issued to a guardian of the infant's property, from a surrogate's court of a county within the State, upon an allegation that the infant was a resident of that county, except by the special direction, made upon good cause shown, of the surrogate's court from which the principal letters were issued, or unless the principal letters have been duly revoked.

Id., remainder of § 1.

§ 2841. Application of the last section to former guardians.

The last section applies to letters granted, before this chapter takes effect, by a surrogate's court of the State, to a guardian appointed by a court of another State, or a territory of the United States, upon presentation of an exemplified transcript of the record of his appointment.

ARTICLE SECOND.

Supervision and control of a general guardian. Settlement of his account.

Sec. 2842. Guardian to file annual inventory and account.

2843. Affidavit to be annexed thereto.

2844. Annual examination of guardian's accounts.

2845. Proceedings when account defective, etc.

2846. Surrogate may direct as to infant's maintenance.

2847. When judicial settlement of guardian's account compelled.

2848. Id.; as to guardian of person.

2849. When guardian may compel judicial settlement.

2850. Citation; proceedings thereupon.

§ 2842. [Am'd, 1913.] Guardian to file annual inventory and account.

A general guardian of an infant's property, appointed by a surrogate's court, must, in the month of January of each year, as long as any of the infant's property, or of the proceeds thereof, remains under his control, file in the surrogate's court the following papers:

See § 2341, ante.

1. An inventory, containing a full and true statement and description of each article or item of personal property of his ward, received by him, since his appointment, or since the filing of the last annual inventory, as the case requires; the value of each article or item so received; a list of the articles or items remaining in his hands; a statement of the manner in which he has disposed of each article or item, not remaining in his hands; and a full description of the amount and nature of each investment or money made by him.

2. A full and true account, in form of debtor and creditor, of all his receipts and disbursements of money, during the preceding year; in which he must charge himself with any balance remaining in his hands, when the last account was rendered, and must distinctly state the amount of the balance remaining in his hands, at the conclusion of the year, to be charged to him in the next year's account.

3. The names and residences of the sureties on his undertaking; if natural persons whether they are living; and whether the security of the undertaking has become impaired.

L. 1837, ch. 460, § 57 (4 Edm. 497), am'd. See § 2855, post. Am'd, L. 1913, ch. 533. In effect Sept. 1, 1913.

With the inventory and account, filed as prescribed in the last section, must be filed an affidavit, which must be made by the guardian, unless, for good cause shown in the affidavit, the surrogate permits the same to be made by an agent or attorney, who is cognizant of the facts. The affidavit must state, in substance, that the inventory and account contain, to the best of the affiant's knowledge and belief, a full and true statement of all the guardian's receipts and disbursements, on account of the ward; and of all money and other personal property of the ward, which have come to the hands of the guardian, or have been received by any other person by his order or authority, or for his use, since his appointment, or since the filing of the last annual inventory and account, as the case requires; and of the value of all such property; together with a full and true statement and account of the manner, in which he has disposed of the same, and of all the property remaining in his hands, at the time of filing the inventory and account; and a full and true description of the amount, and nature of each investment made by him, since his appointment, or since the filing of the last annual inventory, and account, as the case requires; and that he does not know of any error or omission in the inventory or account, to the prejudice of the ward. The surrogate must annex a copy of this and the last section, to all letters of guardianship of the property of an infant issued from his court.

L. 1837, ch. 460, §§ 57 and 58. See § 2855, post.

§ 2844. [Am'd, 1881.] Annual examination of guardian's accounts.

In the month of February of each year, and thereafter until completed, the surrogate must, for the purposes specified in the next section, examine or cause to be examined, under his direction, all inventories and accounts of guardians filed since the first day of February of the preceding year. The examination may be made by the clerk of the surrogate's court, or by a person specially appointed by the surrogate to make it, who must, before he enters upon the examination, subscribe and take, before the surrogate, and file, with the clerk of the surrogate's court, an oath faithfully to execute his duties, and to make a true report to the surrogate. Where the surrogate seasonably certifies in writing to the board of supervisors, or, in the county of New-York, to the board of aldermen, that the examination required by this section cannot be made by him, or by the clerk of the surrogate's court, or by any clerk, employed in his office and paid by the county, the board must provide for the compensation of a suitable person to make the examination.

Id., part of § 58. See § 2855, post.

§ 2845. Proceedings when account defective, etc.

If it appears to the surrogate, upon an examination made as prescribed in the last section, that a general guardian of an infant's property, appointed by letters issued from his court, has omitted to file his annual inventory or account, or the affidavit relating thereto, as prescribed in the last section but one; or if the surrogate is of the opinion, that the interest of the ward requires that the guardian should render a more full or satisfactory inventory or account; the surrogate must make an order, requiring the guardian to supply the deficiency, and also, in his discretion, requiring the guardian personally to pay the expense of serving the order upon him. Where the guardian fails to comply with such an order, within three months after it is made; or where the surrogate has reason to believe that sufficient cause exists for the guardian's removal, the surrogate may, in his discretion, appoint a fit and proper person special guardian of the ward, for the purpose of filing a petition in his behalf, for the removal of the guardian, and prosecuting the necessary proceedings for that purpose.

Id., § 60. See § 2855, post.

§ 2846. Surrogate may direct as to infant's maintenance.

Upon the petition of the general guardian of an infant's person or property; or of the infant; or of any relative or other person in his behalf; the surrogate, upon notice to such persons, if any, as he thinks proper to notify, may make an order, directing the application, by the guardian of the infant's property, to the support and education of the infant, of such a sum as to the surrogate seems proper, out of the income of the infant's property; or, where the income is inadequate for that purpose, out of the principal.

A written petition, duly verified, praying for the judicial settlement of the account of a general guardian of an infant's property, and that he may be cited to attend the settlement thereof, may be presented to the surrogate's court, in either of the following cases:

1. By the ward, after he has attained his majority.
 2. By the executor or administrator of a ward, who has died.
 3. By the guardian's successor, including a guardian appointed after the reversal of a decree, appointing the person so required to account.
 4. By a surety in the official bond of a guardian whose letters have been revoked; or by the legal representative of such surety.
- Citation under this subdivision must be directed to both the guardian and the ward.

See L. 1890, ch. 62.

A petition, for the judicial settlement of the account of a general guardian of an infant's person, may be presented, as prescribed in the last section, or by the general guardian of the infant's property; but, upon the presentation thereof, proof must be made to the surrogate's satisfaction, that the guardian so required to account has received money or property of the ward, for which he has not accounted; or which he has not paid, or delivered, to the general guardian of the infant's property; and a guardian of the estate only of a minor shall be, for the purposes of this chapter, deemed a general guardian.

§ 2849. [Am'd, 1893.] When guardian may compel judicial settlement.

A guardian may present to the surrogate's court a written petition, duly verified, praying for a judicial settlement of his account, and a discharge from his duties and liabilities, in any case, where a petition for a judicial settlement of his account may be presented by any other person, as prescribed in either of the last two sections. The petition must pray that the person, who might have so presented a petition and also the sureties in his official bond of such guardian or the legal representatives of such surety, may be cited to attend the settlement.

L. 1893, ch. 304.

§ 2850. [Am'd, 1882, 1887.] Citation; proceedings thereupon.

Upon the presentation of a petition, as prescribed in either of the last three sections, the surrogate must issue a citation accordingly. Section 2727, sections 2733 to 2738, both inclusive, and sections 2741 and 2744 of this act, apply to a guardian accounting, as prescribed in this article, and regulate the proceedings upon such an accounting. The accounting party must annex to every account produced and filed by him, an affidavit, in the form prescribed in this article, for the affidavit to be annexed by him to his annual inventory and account. A guardian designated, in this title, is entitled to the same compensation as an executor or administrator

ARTICLE THIRD.

Guardians appointed by will or deed.

Sec. 2851. Will or deed containing appointment to be proved, etc., and recorded.

2852. Testamentary guardian; qualification, letters, etc.

2853. When security required from guardian appointed by will or deed.

2854. What security to be given.

2855. Inventory and intermediate account may be required.

2856. When surrogate may compel judicial settlement of account.

2857. Effect of decree.

2858. Removal of guardian appointed by will or deed.

2859. Resignation of such a guardian.

2860. Appointment of successor.

§ 2851. Will or deed containing appointment to be proved, etc., and recorded.

A person shall not exercise, within the State, any power or authority, as guardian of the person or property of an infant, by virtue of an appointment contained in the will of the infant's father or mother, being a resident of the State, and dying after this chapter takes effect, unless the will has been duly admitted to probate, and recorded in the proper surrogate's court, and letters of guardianship have been issued to him thereupon; or by virtue of an appointment contained in a deed of the infant's father or mother, being a resident of the State, executed after this chapter takes effect, unless the deed has been acknowledged or proved, and certified, so as to entitle it to be recorded, and has been recorded in the office for recording deeds in the county, in which the person making the appointment resided, at the time of the execution thereof. Where a deed containing such an appointment is not recorded, within three months after the death of the grantor, the person appointed is presumed to have renounced the appointment; and if a guardian is afterwards duly appointed by a surrogate's court, the presumption is conclusive.

Substituted for L. 1877, ch. 206, §§ 4, 5, 6, and 7. See, also, 2 R. S. 150, §§ 1-3.

§ 2852. Testamentary guardian; qualification, letters, etc.

L. 1877, ch. 206, §§ 4, 5, 6 and 7.

§ 2853. When security required from guardian appointed by will or deed.

Where a guardian of an infant's person or property has been appointed by will or by deed, the infant, or any relative or other person in his behalf, may present, to the surrogate's court in which the will was admitted to probate; or to the surrogate's court of the county in which the deed was recorded; a written petition, duly verified, setting forth, either upon his knowledge, or upon his information and belief, any fact, respecting the guardian, the existence of which, if it was interposed as an objection to granting letters testamentary to a person named as executor in a will, would make it necessary for such a person to give a bond, in order to entitle himself to letters; and praying for a decree, requiring the guardian to give security for the performance of his trust; and that he may be cited to show cause why such a decree should not be made. Upon the presentation of such a petition, and proof of the facts therein alleged, to the satisfaction of the surrogate, he must issue a citation accordingly. Upon the return of the citation, a decree requiring the guardian to give security may be made, in the discretion of the surrogate, in a case where a person so named as executor, can entitle himself to letters testamentary only by giving a bond; but not otherwise.

§ 2854. What security to be given.

The security to be given, as prescribed in the last two sections, must be a bond to the same effect, and in the same form, as the bond of a general guardian, appointed by the surrogate's court. Each provision of this chapter, applicable to the bond of such a guardian, and to the rights, duties and liabilities of the parties thereto, or any of them, including the release of the sureties, and the giving of a new bond, applies to the bond so given, and the parties thereto.

§ 2855. [Am'd, 1896.] Inventory and intermediate account may be required.

Upon the petition of the ward, or of any relative or other person in his behalf, the surrogate's court having jurisdiction to require security, as prescribed in the last three sections, may, at any time, in the discretion of the surrogate, make an order requiring a guardian appointed by will or by deed, to render and file an inventory and account, in the same form, and verified in the same manner as the inventory and account required to be filed annually by a guardian appointed by a surrogate's court, as prescribed in article second of this title. The order may also require such an inventory and account to be filed, in the month of January of each year thereafter. Sections twenty-eight hundred and forty-two to twenty-eight hundred and forty-five of this act, both inclusive, apply to such an inventory and account, and to the filing thereof, as if the guardian had been appointed by the surrogate's court. The provisions of section twenty-eight hundred and forty-six of this act shall apply to a guardian appointed by will or deed with the same effect as if such guardian had been mentioned in said section, and the proceedings therein prescribed may be had in the case of any such guardian in the same manner as if he were a general guardian.

L. 1896, ch. 61. In effect Sept. 1, 1896. See §§ 2842-2845, ante.

a judicial settlement of the account of a general guardian; and the proceedings to procure such a settlement are the same, as if the guardian so appointed by will or by deed had been a general guardian. A guardian appointed by will or by deed may present to the surrogate's court, a written petition, duly verified, praying for a judicial settlement of his account, and a discharge from his duties and liabilities, in any case where a petition for a judicial settlement of his account may be presented by any other person as prescribed in this article. The petition must pray that the person who might have so presented a petition may be cited to attend the settlement. Upon the presentation of such petition the surrogate must issue a citation accordingly. Sections 2733 to 2737, both inclusive, and sections 2741 and 2744 of this act apply to a guardian accounting as prescribed in this article, and regulate the proceedings upon such an accounting. A guardian designated in this title is entitled to the same compensation as a general guardian.

A decree, made upon a judicial settlement of the account of a guardian appointed by will or by deed, as prescribed in this article, or the judgment rendered upon appeal from such decree, has the same force, as a judgment of the supreme court to the same effect.

See § 2813, ante.

§ 2858. Removal of guardian appointed by will or deed.

Upon the petition of the ward, or of any relative or other person in his behalf, the surrogate's court having jurisdiction to require security from a guardian appointed by will or by deed, may remove such a guardian, in any case where a testamentary trustee may be removed, as prescribed in title sixth of this chapter; and the proceedings upon such a petition are the same, as prescribed in that title for the removal of a testamentary trustee. Where a citation is issued, upon a petition for the removal of such a guardian, he may be suspended from the exercise of his powers and authority, as if he had been appointed by the surrogate's court.

L. 1874, ch. 489 (9 Edm. 900). See §§ 2815 and 2824, ante.

A guardian appointed by will or by deed, may be allowed to resign his trust, by the surrogate's court, having jurisdiction to require security from him. The proceedings for that purpose, and the effect of a decree made thereupon, are the same, as where a guardian appointed by the surrogate's court presents a petition praying that his letters may be revoked, as prescribed in article first of this title.

See §§ 2835, 2836 and 2837, ante.

Where a sole guardian, appointed by will or by deed, has been, by the decree of the surrogate's court, removed or allowed to resign, a successor may be appointed by the same court, with the effect prescribed in section 2605 of this act; unless such an appointment would contravene the express terms of the will or deed.

See § 2818, ante.

TITLE X.—Action or Special Proceeding, Relating to an Animal Straying upon the Highway.

TITLE XI.—Provisions Specially Relating to Courts of Justices of the Peace in the City of Brooklyn.

TITLE XII.—Miscellaneous Provisions.

TITLE I.

Jurisdiction and general powers.

Sec. 2861. Justice's jurisdiction must be specially conferred by law.

2862. General civil jurisdiction.

2863. No jurisdiction in certain cases.

2864. Confession of judgment.

2865. Actions by and against officers, etc.; and by executors, etc.

2866. Tavern-keepers disqualified.

2867. Members of legislature not compelled to act.

2868. Justices to hold courts; general powers.

2869. In what town, etc., action must be brought.

2870. Criminal contempt.

2871. Id.; how punished.

2872. Offender to be heard.

2873. Record of conviction.

2874. Requisites of commitment.

2875. Fine to be paid to overseer or superintendent of the poor.

§ 2861. Justice's jurisdiction must be specially conferred by law.

A justice of the peace has such jurisdiction in civil actions and special proceedings, as is specially conferred upon him by statute, and no other.

See Co. Proc., § 53.

§ 2862. [Am'd, 1896, 1906.] General civil jurisdiction.

Except as otherwise prescribed in the next section, a justice of the peace has jurisdiction of the following civil actions:

1. An action to recover damages upon or for breach of a contract, express or implied, other than a promise to marry, where the sum claimed does not exceed two hundred dollars.

2. An action to recover damages for a personal injury, or an injury to property, where the sum claimed does not exceed two hundred dollars.

3. An action for a fine or penalty, not exceeding two hundred dollars.

4. An action upon a bond conditioned for the payment of money, where the sum claimed to be due does not exceed two hundred dollars; the judgment to be rendered for the sum actually due. Where the sum secured by the bond is to be paid in instalments, an action may be brought for each instalment, as it becomes due.

5. An action upon a surety bond, taken, by any justice of the peace.

6. [Am'd, 1906.] An action upon a judgment, either foreign or domestic rendered in any inferior court, not of record, where the sum claimed does not exceed two hundred dollars. An action upon a judgment, foreign or domestic rendered in a court of record, where the sum claimed does not exceed fifty dollars.

L. 1906, ch. 246. In effect Sept. 1, 1906.

7. An action to recover one or more chattels, with or without damages for the taking, withholding, or detention thereof, where the value of the chattel, or of all the chattels, as stated in the affidavit made on the part of the plaintiff, does not exceed two hundred dollars.

8. An action to recover damages for an escape from the jail liberties, as provided by chapter two, title two, articles four and five of this act, where the sum claimed does not exceed fifty dollars.

Co. Proc. § 52, am'd. Subd. 8 added, L. 1896, ch. 303.

§ 2863. [Am'd, 1882, 1895, 1909.] No jurisdiction in certain cases.

But a justice of the peace cannot take cognizance of a civil action, in either of the following cases:

1. Where the people of the State are a party, except for one or more fines or penalties not exceeding two hundred dollars.

2. Where the title to real property comes in question, as prescribed in title third of this chapter.

3. Where the action is to recover damages for an assault, battery, false imprisonment, libel, slander, criminal conversation, seduction, or malicious prosecution, or where it is brought under sections eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, nineteen hundred and two, or nineteen hundred and sixty-nine of this act, or sections twenty-eight or one hundred and one of the decedent estate law.

4. Where, in a matter of account, the sum total of the accounts of both parties proved to the satisfaction of the justice, exceeds four hundred dollars.

5. Where the action is brought against an executor or administrator as such, except where the amount of the claim is less than the sum of fifty dollars, and the claim has been duly presented to the executor or administrator and rejected by him.

Id., § 54: L. 1895, ch. 527. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 63, § 3. See note 80 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

A justice of the peace has also jurisdiction to render judgment, upon the confession of a defendant, as prescribed in title sixth of this chapter, where the sum confessed does not exceed five hundred dollars.

Id., § 53, subd. 9.

§ 2865. [Am'd, 1882.] Actions by and against officers, etc.; and by executors, etc.

An action, cognizable by a justice of the peace, may be brought by or against a corporation; by or against a natural person in his own right; by or against a town or county officer in his official character; or by an executor or administrator, trustee of an express trust, or a receiver in supplementary proceedings.

2 B. S. 226, § 5 (2 Edm. 241); L. 1847, ch. 470, § 45 (4 Edm. 580).

§ 2806. [Am'd, 1911.] Tavern-keepers disqualified.

A justice of the peace who is an innholder or tavern-keeper engaged in the liquor traffic or at whose inn or tavern liquor is sold, has no power or jurisdiction under any provision of this chapter; but if a judgment has been actually rendered by him, before he became so disqualified, he may give a transcript thereof, or issue execution thereupon, or satisfy the judgment, upon payment thereof.

L. 1847, ch. 140 (4 Edm. 548). Am'd by L. 1911, ch. 600, in effect Sept. 1, 1911.

A justice of the peace, who is a member of the senate or assembly, is not obliged to take cognizance of a civil action or special proceeding; but he may take cognizance thereof, in his discretion.

2 B. S. 226, § 7 (2 Edm. 242), am'd.

§ 2808. [Am'd, 1897, 1899.] Justices to hold court; general powers.

A justice of the peace must hold, within his town or city, a court for the trial of any action or special proceeding, of which he has jurisdiction, brought before him; but such a court shall not be held in a room in any part of which trafficking in liquors is authorized or in any adjoining room. He must hear, try and determine the same according to law and equity, and for that purpose, where special provision is not otherwise made by law, the court is vested with all the necessary powers possessed by the supreme court.

Id., § 1, am'd; L. 1897, ch. 404; L. 1899, ch. 105. In effect Sept. 1, 1899.

An action must be brought before a justice of a town or city wherein one of the parties resides, or a justice of an adjoining town or city in the same county, except in one of the following cases:

1. Where the defendant has absconded from his residence, it may be brought before a justice of the town or city in which the defendant, or a portion of his property, is at the time of the commencement of the action.

2. [Am'd, 1895.] Where the plaintiff is not a resident of the county, or if there are two or more plaintiffs when all are non-residents thereof, it must be brought in the town where the defendant resides, or in any adjoining town thereto.

L. 1895, ch. 159.

3. Where the defendant is a non-resident of the county, it may be brought before a justice of the town or city, in which he is at the time of the commencement of the action.

4. Where it is specially prescribed by law, that a particular action may be brought before a justice of the town, city, county, or district, where an offense was committed, or where property is found.

5. [Added, 1893; am'd, 1898, 1903.] In any town adjoining an incorporated city, no justice of such town shall have jurisdiction of any action brought against a resident of such adjoining city, unless one of the parties plaintiff in such action is a resident of such town.

L. 1893, ch. 74; L. 1898, ch. 112; L. 1903, ch. 521. In effect Sept. 1, 1903.

A defendant designated in section 2879, section 2880, or section 2881 of this act, is deemed, for the purposes of this section, a resident of the town or city where the person, to whom a copy of the summons is delivered, resides.

§ 2870. Criminal contempt.

A justice of the peace has power to punish, for a criminal contempt, a person guilty of either of the following acts:

1. Disorderly, contemptuous, or insolent behavior towards him, while engaged in the trial of an action, the rendering of a judgment, or any other judicial proceeding; where such behavior directly tends to interrupt the proceedings, or to impair the respect due to his authority.

2. Breach of the peace, noise, or other disturbance, directly tending to interrupt his official proceedings.

3. Resistance wilfully offered, in his presence, to the execution of his lawful mandate..

He has not power to punish, for a criminal contempt, in any other case.

2 R. S. 273, § 274 (2 Edm. 281).

Punishment, for a contempt, specified in the last section, may be by fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding five days, or both, in the discretion of the justice. Where a person is committed to prison for the non-payment of such a fine, he must be discharged at the expiration of ten days; but where he is also committed for a definite time, the ten days must be computed from the expiration of the definite time.

Id., § 275, am'd.

§ 2872. Offender to be heard.

A person shall not be punished by a justice of the peace, for a contempt, until an opportunity has been given him to be heard in his defence. And, for that purpose, the justice must issue a warrant, directed, generally, to any constable of the county, requiring the constable to bring the offender before him.

Id., § 276, am'd.

§ 2873. Record of conviction.

A justice, who convicts a person of a contempt, must, within ten days after the conviction, make up, subscribe, and file in the county clerk's office, a record thereof, stating therein the particular circumstances of the offence, and the punishment awarded by him upon the conviction.

Id., § 277, am'd.

A warrant of commitment for a contempt must set forth the particular circumstances of the offence; otherwise it is void.

Id., § 278.

An officer, who collects or receives a fine, imposed by a justice of the peace for a contempt, must, within ten days thereafter, pay the money, for the benefit of the poor, to the overseer or superintendent of the poor of the town, city, or district, wherein the fine was imposed; or, where there is no such officer, to the officer or officers performing corresponding functions under another name; unless the board of supervisors has directed the payment of fines and penalties to the supervisor of the town in a case where it is authorized by law so to do.

TITLE II.Commencement of action; appearance of parties; provisional remedies.

- Article 1. Commencement of action.
 2. Appearance of parties.
 3. Order of arrest
 4. Attachment of property.
 5. Replevin.

ARTICLE FIRST.Commencement of action.

- Sec. 2876. Action; how commenced.
 2877. Contents of summons.
 2878. Service of summons.
 2879. Id.; upon a corporation.
 2880. Id.; special provisions relating to railroad corporations.
 2881. Id.; relating to express companies.
 2882. Last two sections qualified.
 2883. Second and third summons; effect thereof.
 2884. Where name of defendant is unknown.
 2885. Return of summons.

§ 2876. Action; how commenced.

An action is commenced before a justice of the peace, either by the voluntary appearance and joinder of issue by the parties, or by the service of a summons.

2 R. S. 227, §§ 11, 12 and 13 (2 Edm. 248).

§ 2877. [Am'd, 1904.] Contents of summons.

The summons must be directed, generally, to any constable of the county where the justice resides; and it must command him to summon the defendant to appear before the justice, at a place specified therein, to answer the complaint of the plaintiff in a civil action. Where the summons is accompanied with an order to arrest the defendant, it must be made returnable immediately upon the arrest of the defendant, within twelve days after the day when it was issued; in every other case, it must be returnable at a time therein specified, not less than six nor more than twelve days after the day when it was issued. A summons shall not be made returnable on a legal holiday.

Id., § 14, am'd; L. 1904, ch. 99. In effect Sept. 1, 1904.

Personal service of the summons must be made by delivering a copy thereof to the defendant; except where it is specially prescribed in this chapter that personal service may be made by delivering a copy to another person. Where service of a summons is personal, it must be made at least six days before the time of appearance specified therein; except where it is accompanied with an order of arrest.

Id., § 15, am'd.

§ 2879. [Am'd, 1904.] Id.; upon a corporation.

Where the defendant to be served is a corporation, or person, company or partnership doing business in another county than that in which he or it resides, the summons may be personally served upon it or him by delivering a copy thereof to an officer, managing agent or person to whom a copy of the summons in an action brought against the corporation in the supreme court might be delivered as prescribed in sections four hundred and thirty-one and four hundred and thirty-two of this act, or, to any director, managing agent or trustee of the corporation, person, partnership or company by whatever official title he or it is called.

Co. Proc., § 64; L. 1847, ch. 470, § 45 (4 Edm. 587); L. 1904, ch. 527. In effect April 29, 1904.

Where the defendant to be served is a railroad corporation, and no officer thereof resides in the county, to whom a copy of the summons may be delivered, as prescribed in the last section, it may be personally served, by delivering a copy thereof to a local superintendent of repairs, freight agent, agent to sell tickets, or station keeper of the corporation, residing in the county; unless, at least thirty days before it was issued, the corporation had filed, in the office of the clerk of the county, a written instrument, designating a person residing in the county, upon whom process to be issued by a justice of the peace against it, may be served; in which case, the summons may be personally served by delivering a copy to the person so designated.

L. 1854, ch. 292, § 14, 15 (3 Edm. 645); L. 1900, ch. 511. In effect Sept. 1, 1900.

Where the defendant to be served is a corporation, association, partnership or person doing business in the state as an express company, an insurance company, or a telegraph company, and no person resides in the county to whom a copy of the summons may be delivered, as prescribed in the foregoing sections of this article, it may be personally served on the express company by delivering a copy thereof to any local or general agent to receive freight or parcels, route agent, or messenger of the defendant, residing in the county, and on any insurance company by delivering a copy thereof to any local or general agent of the defendant, residing in the county, and on any telegraph company by delivering a copy thereof to any office manager of the defendant, residing in the county; unless at least thirty days before it was issued, the defendant had filed in the office of the clerk of the county, a written instrument, designating a person residing in the county, upon whom process to be issued by a justice of the peace against the defendant may be served; in which case the summons may be personally served by delivering a copy thereof to the person so designated.

Where a person has been designated, as prescribed in either of the last two sections, and the designation has been revoked, or it appears, by affidavit or the return of the constable, to whom a summons has been duly delivered for service, that the person designated is dead, or has ceased to reside within the county; or that he cannot, after due diligence, be found within the county, so as to deliver a copy of the summons to him; the original summons, or the second or third summons, issued as prescribed in the next section, may be served as if the designation had not been made. Such a designation may be revoked by a writing, executed and filed in like manner as required for the purpose of making the designation.

§ 2883. Second and third summons; effect thereof.

Where it appears, by the return of the constable, to whom a summons has been duly delivered for service, that it was not served, for any cause, a second summons may be issued by the same justice, in the same action, within twenty days after the first summons was issued; and, upon the like return thereof, a third summons may be issued, within twenty days after the second was issued. The second or the third summons, as the case may be, relates back to the time when the first summons was issued; and with respect to all proceedings before actual service, the service thereof has the same effect, as if the first summons had been seasonably served. For the purpose of issuing a new summons, as prescribed in this section, a previous summons may be returned upon the sixth, or any subsequent day, before the return day thereof.

§ 2884. Where name of defendant is unknown.

Where the plaintiff is ignorant of the name, or part of the name of a defendant, that defendant may be designated in the summons, and in any other process or proceeding in the action, by a fictitious name, or by so much of his name as is known, adding a description, identifying the person intended. The person so designated must thereupon be regarded as a defendant in the action, and as sufficiently described therein for all purposes. When his name, or the remainder of his name, becomes known, the justice, before whom the action is pending, must amend the proceedings already taken, by the insertion of the true or full name, in place of the fictitious name, or part of a name; and all subsequent proceedings must be taken under the name so inserted.

§ 2885. Return of summons.

A constable, who serves a summons, must, at or before the time when the same is returnable, make and deliver to the justice a written return thereof, under his hand, stating the time when, and the manner in which, he served it. A constable who fails seasonably to serve a summons, delivered to him for service, must make a written return thereof under his hand, stating that it was not served, and the reason why he failed to serve it.

2 R. S. 228, § 16 (2 Edm. 244).

ARTICLE SECOND.

Appearance of parties.

Sec. 2886. Parties may appear in person or by attorney.

2887. Guardian ad litem for infant plaintiff.

2888. Id.: for infant defendant.

2889. When constable, or law partner or clerk of justice may not act as attorney.

2890. Authority of attorney; how proved.

2891. Plaintiff to prove his case, except where a verified complaint is served.

2892. Defendant may offer to compromise; proceedings thereupon.

2893. Justice to wait one hour.

§ 2886. Parties may appear in person or by attorney.

A party to an action before a justice of the peace, who is of full age, may appear and prosecute or defend the same, in person or by attorney, at his election, unless he has been judicially declared to be incompetent to manage his affairs.

2 R. S. 232, §§ 39 and 41 (2 Edm. 248).

§ 2887. Guardian ad litem for infant plaintiff.

Before a summons is issued in behalf of, or an issue is joined without summons by, an infant plaintiff, the justice must appoint a competent and responsible person, nominated by the plaintiff or his general guardian, to appear as his guardian for the purpose of the action. The written consent of the person so appointed must be filed with the justice, before his appointment. The guardian so appointed is responsible for the costs.

Id., § 40 (2 Edm. 248).

§ 2888. Id.: for infant defendant.

After the service and return of a summons against an infant defendant, no other proceeding shall be taken in the action until a person has been appointed to appear as his guardian for the purpose of the action. Upon the nomination of the defendant, the justice must appoint a proper person for that purpose. If the defendant does not appear upon the return of the summons, or if he neglects or refuses to nominate, the justice may, on the application of the plaintiff, appoint any proper person as his guardian. The written consent of the person so appointed, must be filed with the justice before his appointment. The guardian so appointed is not responsible for any costs.

Id., §§ 42 and 43.

§ 2889. [Am'd. 1909.] When constable or law partner or clerk of justice may not act as attorney.

Subject to the provisions of sections two hundred and seventy-one and two hundred and seventy-two of the penal law, any person, other than the constable who served the summons or the venire, or the law partner or clerk of the justice, may be the attorney for a party to an action before a justice of the peace.

Id., § 44; L. 1864, ch. 421 (6 Edm. 295). Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65.

§ 2890. Authority of attorney; how proved.

The attorney's authority may be conferred orally or in writing, but the justice shall not suffer a person to appear as an attorney, unless his authority is admitted by the adverse party, or proved by the affidavit or oral testimony of himself, or another.

Id., § 45.

§ 2891. [Am'd, 1906.] Plaintiff to prove his case, except where a verified complaint is served.

If a defendant fails to appear and answer, the plaintiff cannot recover without proving his case, except in an action which has been commenced by the service of a summons and verified complaint as provided by section twenty-nine hundred and thirty-six of this code; in such action, in case the defendant fails to answer said complaint, as provided by section twenty-nine hundred and thirty-eight of this code, at the time of the return of said summons he shall be deemed to have admitted the allegations of the complaint as true, and the court shall, upon filing the summons and complaint, with due proof of service thereof, enter judgment for the plaintiff and against the defendant, for the amount demanded in such complaint, with costs, without further proof.

Co. Proc., § 64, subd. 8; L. 1906, ch. 201. In effect Sept. 1, 1906.

§ 2892. Defendant may offer to compromise; proceedings thereupon.

Except in an action to recover a chattel, the defendant may, upon the return of the summons and before answering, file with the justice a written offer to allow judgment to be taken against him for a sum therein specified, with costs. If there are two or more defendants, and the action can be severed, a like offer may be made by one or more of the defendants against whom a separate judgment may be taken. If the plaintiff thereupon, before taking any other proceeding in the action, files with the justice a written acceptance of the offer, the justice must render judgment accordingly. If an acceptance is not filed, the offer cannot be given in evidence upon the trial; but, if the plaintiff fails to obtain a more favorable judgment, he cannot recover costs from the time of the offer, and must pay the defendant's costs from that time.

Id., part of subd. 15.

§ 2893. Justice to wait one hour.

Upon the return of a summons duly served, the justice must wait one hour, after the time specified therein for its return, unless the parties sooner appear.

2 R. S. 233, § 46 (2 Edm. 249), am'd.

ARTICLE THIRD.

Order of arrest.

Sec. 2894. Order of arrest; in what cases it may be granted.

2895. Id.; in what actions.

2896. Id.; upon what papers.

2897. Id.; its contents.

2898. Duty of constable.

2899. Return. When plaintiff notified must appear.

2900. Constable to keep defendant in custody.

2901. Motion to discharge from arrest.

2902. Effect of discharging defendant.

2903. When plaintiff must prove extrinsic facts.

2904. Privilege from arrest.

§ 2894. Order of arrest; in what cases it may be granted.

At the time when the summons is issued, in an action specified in the next section, the justice who issues the summons must, upon the application of the plaintiff, and upon compliance by him with the provisions of this article, grant an order for the arrest of the defendant, in either of the following cases:

1. Where the defendant to be arrested is not a resident of the county.

2. Where the plaintiff is not a resident of the county; or, if there are two or more plaintiffs, where all are non-residents thereof.

3. Where it appears to the satisfaction of the justice by the affidavit of the plaintiff or another person, that the defendant is about to depart from the county, with intent not to return thereto.

But such an order cannot be granted, where the defendant, against whom it is applied for, is a female.

2 R. S. 228, § 17 (2 Edm. 244); 2 R. S. 253, § 158 (2 Edm. 270).

§ 2895. Id.; in what actions.

An order of arrest shall not be granted, except where the action is brought for one or more of the following causes:

1. To recover a fine or penalty.

2. To recover damages for a personal injury, of which a justice of the peace has jurisdiction; an injury to property, including the wrongful taking, detention, or conversion of personal property; misconduct or neglect in office, or in a professional employment; fraud; or deceit. But this subdivision does not apply to a claim for damages in an action to recover a chattel.

3. To recover for money received, or to recover a chattel: where it appears that the money was received, or that the chattel was embezzled or fraudulently misapplied, by a public officer, or by an attorney, solicitor, or counsellor, or by an officer or agent of a corporation or banking association, in the course of his employment; or by a factor, agent, broker, or other person in a fiduciary capacity.

Substituted for L. 1831, part of §§ 30 and 31 (4 Edm. 472).

§ 2896. Id.; upon what papers.

Where it appears to the justice, by the affidavit of the plaintiff or another person, that a sufficient cause of action exists, against the defendant, and that the case is within the provisions of the last two sections, he must grant the order of arrest. But before granting it, he must require a written undertaking to the defendant, on the part of the plaintiff, with one or more sureties, approved by the justice, to the effect that, if the defendant recovers judgment, the plaintiff will pay all costs which may be awarded to the defendant, and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the arrest, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking which must be at least one hundred dollars.

Substituted for 2 R. S. 227, 228, part of §§ 17 and 19 (2 Edm. 244).

§ 2897. Id.; its contents.

The order must be subscribed by the justice and indorsed upon or attached to the summons. It must briefly recite the ground of arrest; and it must direct the constable, who serves the summons, to arrest the defendant; to bring him forthwith before the justice; and to notify the plaintiff of the arrest, if he can do so with reasonable diligence.

Id., § 20, am'd.

The constable must, at the time of serving the summons, execute the order of arrest, by arresting the defendant, and taking him forthwith before the justice. If the justice is absent, or unable to try the action, the constable must forthwith take the defendant before another justice of the same town or city; who must take cognizance of the action, and proceed therein, as if the summons had been issued, and the order of arrest had been granted by him.

Id., § 21, am'd.

§ 2899. Return. When plaintiff notified must appear.

The constable, executing the order of arrest, must forthwith deliver to the justice the order, and a written return thereto, under his hand, stating the manner in which he has executed it and either that he has notified the plaintiff, or that he could not do so, with reasonable diligence. If he returns that he has notified the plaintiff, the latter must appear within one hour after the defendant is brought before the justice; otherwise judgment of nonsuit must be rendered against him.

Id., § 22, am'd.

§ 2900. Constable to keep defendant in custody.

The constable executing the order, or another constable, by direction of the justice, must keep the defendant in custody, until he is discharged by the order of the justice, or judgment is rendered in his favor; but the detention shall not, in any case, exceed twelve hours from the time when the defendant is brought before the justice; unless, within that time, a venire is issued, or the trial of the action is commenced, or unless either is delayed with the express assent of the defendant.

Id., § 25, am'd.

§ 2901. Motion to discharge from arrest.

A defendant, arrested as prescribed in this article, may, without notice, upon the appearance of the plaintiff before the justice, or at any time afterwards before judgment, upon two days' notice given personally to the plaintiff, or to his agent or attorney who appeared for him before the justice, apply to the justice for an order, discharging him from the arrest. The application may be founded upon the papers upon which the order of arrest was granted, and upon the complaint, if it has been made. The justice must grant the application, where it appears that the case is not within the provisions of sections 2894 and 2895 of this act. The justice must also, upon the defendant's application, grant an order discharging him from arrest, if the plaintiff fails to take out, from the justice, an execution upon a judgment in his favor, before the expiration of one hour after he is entitled thereto.

The discharge of the defendant from arrest, before judgment as prescribed in the last section, or in section 2903 of this act, does not affect the jurisdiction of the justice over the action, which must proceed, as if it had been commenced in the ordinary manner. His discharge from arrest, after judgment, as prescribed in the last section, does not affect the execution.

Where an order of arrest has been granted and executed, in a case specified in subdivision third of section 2895 of this act, the plaintiff cannot recover upon a default, and the defendant is entitled to judgment upon a trial, unless the plaintiff establishes all the matters of fact, which are required, by that subdivision to entitle him to an order of arrest.

This article does not abridge or otherwise affect a privilege from arrest given by law, or a right of action for the breach thereof. A privileged person is entitled to be discharged from arrest, by the order of the justice before whom he is brought, upon proof, by affidavit, of the facts entitling him to a discharge; or he may apply for and obtain an order for his discharge, as prescribed in section 564 of this act.

ARTICLE FOURTH.

Attachment of property.

- Sec. 2905. In what actions, warrant of attachment may be granted.
 2906. What must be shown to procure a warrant.
 2907. Warrant; form and contents thereof.
 2908. Undertaking.
 2909. Warrant; how executed.
 2910. Service of summons and warrant upon defendant.
 2911. Undertaking by defendant; re-delivery to him.
 2912. Claim by third person; bond and delivery thereupon.
 2913. Action upon bond.
 2914. When defendant may prosecute bond.
 2915. Return of warrant.
 2916. Motion to vacate or modify warrant, etc.
 2917. Effect of vacating warrant.
 2918. Proceedings where summons not personally served.

§ 2905. In what actions, warrant of attachment may be granted.

In an action brought before a justice of the peace a warrant of attachment against the property of one or more defendants must be granted, upon the application of the plaintiff, as prescribed in this article, where the action is brought upon a judgment, or to recover for one or more of the following causes:

1. Breach of a contract, express or implied.
2. Wrongful conversion of personal property.
3. Any other injury to personal property, in consequence of negligence, fraud, or other misconduct.

Substitute for 2 R. S. 230, part of §§ 26, 27 and 28 (2 Edm. 245); L. 1831, ch. 300, § 34 (4 Edm. 473).

To entitle the plaintiff to such a warrant, he must show, by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the justice as follows:

1. That a sufficient cause of action exists against the defendant, to recover damages for one or more of the causes specified in the last section. If the action is upon a judgment, or to recover for breach of a contract, the affidavit must show that the plaintiff is entitled to recover a sum stated therein, over and above all counterclaims known to him.

2. That the defendant is either a foreign corporation; or not a resident of the State; or, if the defendant is a natural person, and a resident of the State, that he has departed, or is about to depart, from the county where he last resided, with intent to defraud his creditors, or to avoid the service of a summons; or keeps himself concealed, with the like intent; or, if the defendant is a natural person, or a domestic corporation, that he or it has removed, or is about to remove, property from the county where the defendant, being a natural person, last resided, or, being a corporation, last kept its principal office, or from the county in which the action is brought, with intent to defraud his or its creditors; or has assigned, disposed of, or secreted, or is about to assign, dispose of, or secrete, property, with the like intent; or that the defendant, being a natural person of full age, and a resident of the State, has been continuously without the United States for the space of six months or more, immediately before the application, and either that he has not made a designation of a person, upon whom to serve a summons in his behalf, as prescribed in section 430 of this act, or that service upon the person so designated cannot be made, with due diligence, in the county where the person making the designation resides.

The affidavit must be filed with the justice, when the warrant is granted.

2 R. S. 230, part of §§ 26, 27 and 28 (2 Edm. 245).

§ 2907. Warrant; form and contents thereof.

The warrant must be granted by the justice who issues the summons, at the time when the summons is issued; and it must be indorsed thereupon, or annexed thereto. It must be subscribed by the justice, and must briefly recite the ground of the attachment. It must require the constable, to whom the summons is delivered, to attach, on or before a day specified therein, which must be at least six days before the return day of the summons, and safely to keep, as much of the defendant's goods and chattels, within his county, as will satisfy the plaintiff's demand, with the costs and expenses, and to make return of his proceedings thereon to the justice, at the time when the summons is returnable. The amount of the plaintiff's demand must be specified in the warrant, as stated in the affidavit.

Id., § 30, am'd.

Before granting the warrant, the justice must require a written undertaking to the defendant, on the part of the plaintiff, with one or more sureties, approved by the justice, to the effect that, if the defendant recovers judgment, or the warrant of attachment is vacated, the plaintiff will pay all costs which may be awarded to the defendant, and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the attachment, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking, which must be at least two hundred dollars; and that if the plaintiff recovers judgment, he will pay to the defendant all money received by him from property taken by virtue of the warrant of attachment, or upon any bond given therefor, over and above the amount of the judgment, and interest thereupon.

Id., § 29, am'd.

The constable to whom the warrant of attachment is delivered, must execute it at least six days before the return day of the summons, by levying upon and taking into his custody so much of the goods and chattels of the defendant, not exempt from levy and sale by virtue of an execution, including money and bank notes, which he finds within his county, as will satisfy the plaintiff's demand, with the costs and expenses. He must safely keep the property attached, to be disposed of as prescribed in this article, and must immediately make an inventory thereof, stating therein the estimated value of each item or article. Provided, however, if property attached is perishable, the justice who issued the warrant may, by an order made and entered upon his docket, and with or without notice, as the urgency of the case in his opinion requires, direct the constable to sell such property at public auction, and thereupon the constable must sell it accordingly. A certified copy of the order directing the sale shall be delivered to such constable. Such order must prescribe the time and place of the sale, and notice thereof must be given in such manner and for such time as directed by the order. The constable shall retain in his hands the proceeds of such sale until the final determination of the action.

Id., § 31, am'd; L. 1881, ch. 300, § 36 (4 Edm. 473); L. 1903, ch. 322. In effect May 4, 1903

c. 19, t. 2, a. 4 ATTACHMENT OF PROPERTY. §§ 2910-14

The constable must, immediately after making the inventory, and at least six days before the return day of the summons, serve the summons, together with the warrant of attachment and inventory, upon the defendant, by delivering to him personally a copy of each, if he can, with reasonable diligence, be found within the county; or, if he cannot be so found, by leaving a copy of each, certified by the constable, at the last place of residence of the defendant in the county, with a person of suitable age and discretion; or, if such a person cannot be found there, by posting it on the outer door, and also depositing another copy in the nearest post-office, inclosed in a sealed post-paid wrapper, directed to the defendant at his residence; or, if the defendant has no place of residence in the county, by delivering it to the person in whose possession the property attached is found.

2 R. S. 230, § 31, am'd as in § 2909, ante.

§ 2911. Undertaking by defendant; re-delivery to him.

The defendant, or his attorney or agent in his behalf may, at any time before judgment is rendered in the action, execute and deliver to the constable an undertaking to the plaintiff, in a sum specified therein, at least twice the value of the property attached, as stated in the inventory; with one or more sureties, approved by the constable, or by the justice who issued the warrant; and to the effect that, if judgment is rendered against the defendant, and an execution is issued thereupon, within six months after the giving of the undertaking, the property attached shall be produced to satisfy the execution. Thereupon the constable must re-deliver the property to the defendant.

Id., §§ 32, 34, am'd.

If a person, not a party to the action, claims any property attached, which is not reclaimed by the defendant, as prescribed in the last section, he may, at any time after the seizure, and before execution is issued upon a judgment rendered in the action, execute, and file with the justice, a bond to the plaintiff, with one or more sureties, approved by the constable or by the justice; in a penalty at least twice the value of the property claimed; and conditioned that, in an action upon the bond, to be commenced within three months thereafter, the claimant will establish that he was the general owner of the property claimed, at the time of the seizure; or, if he fails so to do, that he will pay to the plaintiff the value thereof, with interest. The constable must thereupon deliver the property claimed to the claimant.

Id., part of §§ 33, 34, am'd.

A judgment for the plaintiff, in an action upon a bond given as prescribed in the last section, must award to him the value of the property seized and delivered to the claimant, with interest thereupon from the time of the delivery. If the amount so recovered exceeds the amount, which the plaintiff recovers, in the action in which the warrant of attachment was issued, he is liable to the defendant in that action for the excess.

Id., part of §§ 36 and 37.

If the warrant of attachment is vacated or annulled, the defendant may maintain an action, upon the bond specified in the last two sections, in his own name, in the same manner and with the like effect, as the plaintiff might have done, if the warrant had remained in full force.

2 E. S. 230, § 38, am'd.

The constable executing the warrant of attachment must, at the time when and place where it is returnable, make a return thereto, under his hand, stating all his proceedings thereupon. He must deliver to the justice, with the return, each bond or undertaking delivered to him, pursuant to any of the foregoing provisions of this article, and a certified copy of the inventory of the property attached. The return must state the manner in which the warrant and inventory were served, and, if they were served otherwise than by delivering a copy thereof to the defendant personally, the reason therefor, and the name of the person to whom the copy was delivered, unless his name is unknown to the constable; in which case, the return must describe him so as to identify him, as nearly as may be.

Id., § 35, as am'd; L. 1831, ch. 300, § 36 (4 Edm. 473).

§ 2916. Motion to vacate or modify warrant, etc.

A defendant whose property has been attached, may, upon the return of the summons, apply to the justice, who issued the warrant of attachment, to vacate or modify it, or to increase the plaintiff's security. Such an application may be founded upon the papers upon which the warrant was granted; or upon proof, by affidavit, on the part of the defendant; or upon both. If it is founded upon proof on the part of the defendant, it may be opposed by new proof, by affidavit, upon the part of the plaintiff, tending to sustain any ground for the attachment, recited in the warrant, but no other. The justice may, upon the return of the summons, or at any other time to which the action is adjourned, vacate the warrant of attachment upon his own motion, if he deems the papers, upon which it was granted, insufficient to authorize it.

§ 2917. Effect of vacating warrant.

Vacating the warrant of attachment does not affect the jurisdiction of the justice to hear and determine the action, where the defendant has appeared generally in the action; or where the summons was personally served upon him; or where judgment may be taken against him, as being indebted jointly with another defendant, who has been thus summoned, or has thus appeared. In every other case, the justice, who vacates a warrant of attachment against the property of a defendant, must dismiss the action as to him.

§ 2918. Proceedings where summons not personally served.

L. 1831, ch. 300, § 39 (4 Edm. 474).

ARTICLE FIFTH.Replevin.

- Sec. 2919. When action for a chattel may be brought.
2920. Plaintiff may procure replevin; affidavit and undertaking.
2921. Requisition.
2922. Id.; how executed. Service of summons, etc.
2923. Return of constable.
2924. Defendant may except to sureties; proceedings thereon.
2925. Defendant may reclaim chattel; proceedings thereon.
2926. Justification of sureties.
2927. When and to whom constable must deliver chattel.
2928. Penalty for wrong delivery by constable.
2929. Claim of title by third person.
2930. Defendant may demand judgment for return.
2931. Proceedings in the action; action upon undertaking.
2932. Proceedings when summons not personally served.
2933. When action not affected by failure to replevy.

§ 2919. When action for a chattel may be brought.

An action to recover a chattel, with or without damages for the wrongful taking, withholding, or detention thereof, can be brought before a justice of the peace of the county in which the chattel is found, in a case, and subject to the qualifications, specified in sections 1689, 1690, 1691, and 1692, and subdivision seventh of section 2862 of this act.

Substituted for Co. Proc., § 53, subd. 10, am'd; L. 1800, ch. 131, § 4.

The plaintiff may, at the same time when the summons is issued, but not afterwards, require the chattel to be replevied, as prescribed in this article. For that purpose, he must deliver to the justice an affidavit and an undertaking, similar, in all respects, to the affidavit and undertaking required to be delivered to a sheriff, as prescribed in sections 1695, 1697, 1699, and 1712 of this act; except that the sureties in the undertaking must be approved by the justice.

L. 1831, ch. 300, §§ 2, 3 and 4 (2 Edm. 235; 5 Id. 134).

§ 2921. Requisition.

Upon receiving the affidavit and undertaking, the justice must indorse upon or attach to the affidavit a written requisition, subscribed by him, requiring the constable, to whom the summons is delivered, to replevy the property described in the affidavit, on or before a day specified in the requisition, which must be at least six days before the return day of the summons. The affidavit and requisition must be delivered to the constable, with the summons.

Id., part of § 4, am'd.

§ 2922. Id.; how executed. Service of summons, etc.

The constable must execute the requisition, as a sheriff is required to execute a requisition, in an action brought to recover a chattel, as prescribed in sections 1700, 1701, and 1702 of this act; except that he must serve the summons, affidavit, and requisition within the time and in the manner prescribed, by section 2910 of this act, for the service of a summons, warrant of attachment, and inventory.

Id., part of § 5.

§ 2923. Return of constable.

The constable must, on or before the return day of the summons, make a return to the requisition, under his hand, stating all his proceedings thereupon; and file it, with the affidavit and requisition, with the justice. The return must state the manner in which the summons, affidavit, and requisition were served; and, if they were served otherwise than by delivering the requisite copies to the defendant personally, the reason therefor, and the name of the person to whom the copies were delivered, unless his name is unknown to the constable; in which case, the return must describe him so as to identify him, as nearly as may be.

L. 1831, ch. 300, part of § 5.

At any time after the chattel has been replevied, and at least two days before the return day of the summons, the defendant, unless he requires a return of the chattel, may serve upon the plaintiff, or upon the constable, a written notice that he excepts to the plaintiff's sureties; otherwise he is deemed to have waived all objections to them. If such a notice is served, the sureties must justify upon the return of the summons; or the plaintiff must then give a new undertaking, to the same effect as the original undertaking, with other sureties, who must then appear and justify before the justice.

Id., § 6, am'd.

§ 2925. Defendant may reclaim chattel; proceedings thereon.

At any time before the return day of the summons, the defendant may, if he does not except to the plaintiff's sureties, serve upon the justice a notice that he requires the return of the chattel replevied. With the notice he must deliver to the justice an affidavit and undertaking, similar, in all respects, to those required to be given by a defendant upon requiring a return of a chattel, as prescribed in sections 1704 and 1712 of this act, omitting the provision in the undertaking, "or if the action abates in consequence of the defendant's death." The sureties in the undertaking must justify before the justice upon the return of the summons. If the plaintiff has stated separately in his affidavit the value of one or more chattels or classes of chattels, as prescribed in section 1697 of this act, the defendant may require a delivery of part of the property replevied, as prescribed in that section.

Id., § 7.

Except as otherwise expressly prescribed in this article, the examination and qualifications of the sureties, and the allowance of the undertaking, upon a justification pursuant to either of the last two sections, must be the same as upon a justification of bail, as prescribed in sections 579, 580, and 581 of this act, substituting the justice for the judge; but after such allowance, the undertaking must be filed with the justice. The constable is thereupon exonerated from liability.

Id., § 8.

If the defendant neither excepts to the plaintiff's sureties, nor requires the return of a chattel, within the time prescribed for that purpose; or if he fails to procure the allowance of his undertaking; or if the plaintiff, after the defendant has excepted to his sureties, duly procures the allowance of his undertaking, the constable must, except in the case specified in the next section but one, immediately deliver the chattel to the plaintiff. If the plaintiff, after the defendant has excepted to his sureties, fails to procure the allowance of his undertaking; or if the defendant, after he has required the return of the chattel, procures the allowance of his undertaking, the constable must immediately deliver the chattel to the defendant.

Substituted for L. 1831, ch. 300, part of § 7.

A constable who delivers to either party, without the consent of the other, a chattel replevied by him, except as prescribed in the last section, or, by virtue of an execution issued upon a judgment in the action, forfeits to the party aggrieved the sum of one hundred dollars; and is also liable to him for all damages which he sustains thereby.

The provisions, regulating the proceedings, where a person, not a party, claims property which has been replevied, and the rights of such a person, and of the sheriff, as prescribed in sections 1709, 1710, 1711, and 1712 of this act, apply to a like case in an action, brought as prescribed in this article, substituting the constable for the sheriff; except that service of a notice and of a copy of the claimant's affidavit, upon the plaintiff's attorney, as prescribed in section 1709, must be made, either upon the plaintiff personally, or upon the attorney who appears for him before the justice; and that the sum specified in the undertaking, given by the plaintiff to the constable, need not exceed, in any case, three hundred dollars.

Id., § 9. See Co. Proc., § 210.

Where a chattel has been replevied, and the defendant has not required the return thereof, pending the action, as prescribed in the foregoing sections of this article, he may in his answer, demand judgment for the return thereof, either with or without damages for the taking, withholding, or detention.

Id., * 11.

§ 2031. Proceedings in the action; action upon undertaking.

Section 1373, section 1731, excluding subdivision first thereof, and sections 1722, 1726, 1730, 1732, 1733, 1734, and 1735 of this act, substituting the constable for the sheriff, apply to the proceedings in an action in a justice's court to recover a chattel, and to an action against the sureties in an undertaking given therein, except as otherwise specially prescribed in this chapter.

Substituted for Id., § 10.

§ 2932. Proceedings when summons not personally served.

Where the defendant does not appear, and the summons has not been personally served upon him, and a chattel, or part of a chattel, to recover which the action is brought, has been replevied, and the proceedings thereupon have been duly taken, as prescribed in this article; the justice must proceed to hear and determine the action, with respect to that chattel or part of a chattel; or, if the action is brought to recover two or more chattels, with respect to those which have been replevied; in like manner and with like effect as if the summons had been personally served.

L. 1831, ch. 300, § 12, am'd.

§ 2933. When action not affected by failure to replevy.

Where the summons has been personally served upon the defendant, or where he appears, the justice must proceed to hear and determine the action, although the plaintiff has not required the chattel to be replevied, or the constable has not been able to replevy it.

TITLE III.

Pleadings; including counterclaims, and proceedings upon answer of title.

- Sec. 2934. When issue to be joined.
 2935. Pleadings.
 2936. Complaint.
 2937. What causes of action may be joined.
 2938. Answer.
 2939. Demurrer.
 2940. General rules of pleading.
 2941. Account, or instrument for payment of money.
 2942. Court may require items to be exhibited.
 2943. Immaterial variance to be disregarded.
 2944. Amendment of pleadings.
 2945. Counterclaims.
 2946. Id.; where executor or trustee is a party.
 2947. Consequence of neglect to plead counterclaim.
 2948. The last section qualified.
 2949. Judgment upon counterclaim.
 2950. Judgment when accounts exceed $400.
 2951. Answer of title.
 2952. Undertaking thereupon.
 2953. In what court new action to be brought.
 2954. When action before justice to be discontinued.
 2955. Effect of failure to give undertaking.
 2956. When title comes in question on plaintiff's own showing.
 2957. Pleadings in new action. Undertaking before justice, when applicable.
 2958. Answer of title as to one of several causes of action.

§ 2934. [Am'd, 1893.] When issue to be joined.

At the place, and within one hour after the time, specified in the summons for the return thereof; or, where an order of arrest is granted and executed, within twelve hours after the defendant is brought before the justice; or, where no summons is issued, at the time when the parties voluntarily appear to join issue, the pleadings of the parties must be made, and issue must be joined. Where both parties appear upon the return of the summons, an issue must be joined before an adjournment is had, except when the defendant refuses or neglects to plead. Where an issue of fact or an issue of law is joined in a justice's court, or before a justice of the peace in the city of Brooklyn, or in any of the towns in the county of Kings, in which the judgment demanded by either party in his pleadings exceeds the sum of one hundred dollars; or, when in an action to recover a chattel or chattels the value of which as fixed by either party in his pleadings or affidavits exceeds one hundred dollars, the defendant may, after issue joined and before an adjournment is granted upon his application, apply to the justice before whom the action is brought for an order removing the action into the county court of the county of Kings. Such an order must be granted upon the defendant filing with the justice an undertaking in a sum fixed by the justice, not exceeding twice the amount of the damages claimed or twice the value of the chattel or of all the chattels claimed, as stated in the pleading or affidavits, with one or more sureties, approved by the justice, to the effect that the defendant will pay to the plaintiff the amount of any judgment, including costs, that may be recovered against him in the county court in the action so removed. From the time of the granting of the order the county court of Kings county has cognizance of the action, and the same shall be tried and determined by said county court as if originally brought therein. The justice must forthwith deliver to the clerk of the county court all processes, pleadings and other papers in the action which must be filed, entered and recorded, as the case requires, in the latter office. Costs in an action so removed shall be the same as in an original action commenced in said county court.

L. 1893, ch. 380.

§ 2935. Pleadings.

The pleadings in a justice's court are:

1. The plaintiff's complaint.
2. The defendant's answer.
3. The defendant's demurrer to the complaint, or to one or more distinct causes of action, separately stated therein.
4. The plaintiff's demurrer to one or more counterclaims stated in the answer.

Co. Proc., § 64, subd. 1.

§ 2936. [Am'd, 1906.] Complaint.

The complaint must state, in a plain and direct manner, the facts constituting the cause of action. In an action arising on contract for the recovery of money only, or on an account, the plaintiff or his agent, at or before the time of the issuing of the summons, may make a written complaint as above provided, specifying the amount actually due the plaintiff from the defendant, and praying judgment for the amount so due, which said complaint shall be signed by the plaintiff or his agent and verified in the manner and as provided by section five hundred and twenty-six of this code. Said summons and complaint shall be attached and shall be served upon the defendant by delivering to and leaving with him, personally, true copies thereof, not less than six nor more than twelve days before the return day of said summons; and the official certificate of the constable making such service shall be sufficient evidence thereof.

Id., subd. 3; L. 1906, ch. 291. In effect Sept. 1, 1906.

The plaintiff may unite, in the same complaint, two or more causes of action, where they all arise out of:

1. The same transaction, or transactions connected with the same subject of action; or
2. Contract, express or implied; or
3. Personal injuries, and injuries to property, or either.

But it must appear, upon the face of the complaint, that all the causes of action so united belong to one of the foregoing subdivisions of this section; that they are consistent with each other; that they require the same judgment; and, except as otherwise prescribed by law, that they affect all the parties. Where a cause of action, for which a defendant might be arrested, is united with a cause of action, for which he cannot be arrested, an execution against the person of the defendant cannot be issued upon the judgment.

§ 2938. [Am'd, 1906.] Answer.

The answer may contain a general denial of each allegation of the complaint, or a specific denial of one or more of the material allegations thereof. It may also set forth, in a plain and direct manner, new matter, constituting one or more defenses or counterclaims. In case the defendant appears and answers in an action in which a verified complaint has been served, his answer shall be in writing and shall be verified as above provided for the verification of the complaint.

Co. Proc., subd. 4, § 64; L. 1906, ch. 201. In effect Sept. 1, 1906.

§ 2939. Demurrer.

In a case specified in subdivision third or fourth of section 2935 of this act, a party may demur to the pleading of the adverse party, or, if it is a complaint, to one or more distinct and separate causes of action, where it is not sufficiently explicit to be understood; or where it does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action, or counterclaim, as the case may be. If the court deems the demurrer well founded, it must permit the pleading to be amended; and if the party fails so to amend, the defective pleading, or part of a pleading demurred to, must be disregarded. If the court deems the demurrer not well founded, it must permit the party making it to plead over, at his election.

Co. Proc., § 64, subd. 6 and 7.

A pleading, except as otherwise prescribed in section 2951 of this act, may be oral or written. If it is oral, the substance thereof must be entered by the justice in his docket-book; if it is written, it must be filed by him, and a reference to it made in his docket-book. A pleading is not required to be in any particular form; but it must be so expressed, as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended.

Id., subd. 2 and 5, am'd.

§ 2941. Account, or instrument for payment of money.

For the purpose of setting forth a cause of action, defence, or counterclaim, founded upon an account, or upon an instrument for the payment of money only, it is sufficient for the party to deliver the instrument, or a copy of the account to the court, and to state that there is due to him thereupon, from the adverse party, a specified sum, which he claims to recover or to set off.

Id., subd. 9.

§ 2942. Court may require items to be exhibited.

The court may, upon the request of either party, made when issue is joined, require the adverse party to exhibit his account or demand, or to state the nature thereof, as far as it is in his power so to do, at that or another specified time; and in case of his default, it may preclude him from giving evidence of such parts thereof, as have not been so exhibited or stated.

Id., subd. 14.

§ 2943. Immaterial variance to be disregarded.

A variance, between an allegation in a pleading and the proof, must be disregarded as immaterial, unless the court is satisfied that the adverse party has been misled thereby, to his prejudice.

Id., subd. 10.

§ 2944. Amendment of pleadings.

The court must, upon application, allow a pleading to be amended, at any time before the trial, or during the trial, or upon appeal, if substantial justice will be promoted thereby. Where a party amends his pleading after joinder of issue, or pleads over upon the decision of a demurrer, and it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the court, by oath, that an adjournment is necessary to the adverse party, in consequence of the amendment or pleading over, an adjournment must be granted. The court may also, in its discretion, require, as a condition of allowing an amendment, the payment of costs to the adverse party.

Id., subd. 11.

§ 2945. Counterclaims.

Sections 501 and 502 of this act apply to a counterclaim in an action brought in a justice's court; except that such a counterclaim cannot be interposed, unless it is of such a nature, that a justice's court has jurisdiction of a cause of action founded thereon.

Substituted for 2 R. S. 234, § 50 (2 Edm. 250, 251).

Sections 505 and 506 of this act apply to a counterclaim in an action against a person sued in a representative capacity, or in favor of an executor or administrator, except that the defendant cannot take judgment against the plaintiff, upon a counterclaim, for a sum exceeding two hundred dollars.

2 R. S. 234, §§ 55 and 56.

Where the defendant, in an action to recover damages upon or for breach of a contract, neglects to interpose a counterclaim, consisting of a cause of action in his favor to recover damages for a like cause, which might have been allowed to him upon the trial of the action, he, and every person deriving title thereto through or from him, are forever thereafter precluded from maintaining an action to recover the same, or any part thereof.

Id., § 57.

§ 2948. The last section qualified.

But the prohibition contained in the last section does not extend to either of the following cases:

1. Where the amount of the counterclaim is two hundred dollars more than the judgment which the plaintiff recovers.

2. Where the counterclaim consists of a judgment rendered before the commencement of the action, in which it might have been interposed.

3. Where the counterclaim consists of a claim for unliquidated damages.

4. Where the counterclaim consists of a claim, upon which another action was pending, at the time when the action was commenced.

5. Where judgment is taken against the defendant, without personal service of the summons upon him, or an appearance by him.

Id., § 58, am'd; L. 1840, ch. 317 (2 Edm. 252).

§ 2949. Judgment upon counterclaim.

Where a counterclaim is established, which equals the plaintiff's demand, the judgment must be in favor of the defendant. Where it is less than the plaintiff's demand, the plaintiff must have judgment for the residue only. Where it exceeds the plaintiff's demand, the defendant must have judgment for the excess, or so much thereof as is due from the plaintiff, unless it is more than the sum of two hundred dollars. If it is more than two hundred dollars, or if no part of it is due from the plaintiff, the justice must, at the election of the defendant, either:

1. Set off so much of the counterclaim as is sufficient to satisfy the plaintiff's demand, and render judgment for the defendant for his costs; in which case, the defendant may maintain an action for the residue; or,

2. Render a judgment of discontinuance with costs; in which case, the defendant may thereafter maintain an action for the whole.

Where part of the excess is not due from the plaintiff, the judgment does not prejudice the defendant's right to recover, from another person, so much thereof as the judgment does not cancel.

Id., §§ 52, 53, and part of § 58.

§ 2950. Judgment when accounts exceed $400.

Where, upon the trial of an action, the sum total of the accounts of both parties, proved to the satisfaction of the justice, exceeds four hundred dollars, judgment of discontinuance must be rendered against the plaintiff, with costs.

2 R. S. 234, § 54.

§ 2951. Answer of title.

The defendant may, either with or without other matter of defence, set forth in his answer facts, showing that the title to real property will come in question. Such an answer must be in writing; and it must be signed by the defendant, or his attorney or agent, and delivered to the justice. The justice must, thereupon, countersign the answer, and deliver it to the plaintiff.

Co. Proc., § 55.

§ 2952. Undertaking thereupon.

In the case specified in the last section, the defendant must also deliver to the justice, with the answer, a written undertaking, executed by one or more sureties, approved by the justice; to the effect that, if the plaintiff, within twenty days thereafter, deposits with the justice a summons and complaint in a new action, for the same cause, to be brought in the proper court, as prescribed in the next section, the defendant will, within twenty days after the deposit, give a written admission of the service thereof. Where the defendant was arrested in the action before the justice, the undertaking must further provide, that he will, at all times, render himself amenable to any mandate, which may be issued to enforce a final judgment in the action so to be brought. If the defendant fails to comply with the undertaking, the sureties are liable thereupon, to an amount not exceeding two hundred dollars.

Id., part of § 56, am'd.

§ 2953. In what court new action to be brought.

The court in which a new action is to be brought, as prescribed in the last section, is the supreme court, or the county court of the justice's county, at the plaintiff's election; except that, where the justice is a justice of the peace of the city of Buffalo, it is the superior court of Buffalo.

Id., § 56.

§ 2954. When action before justice to be discontinued.

Upon the delivery of the undertaking to the justice, the action before him is discontinued, and each party must pay his own costs. The costs so paid by either party must be allowed to him, if he recovers costs in the new action, to be brought as prescribed in the last two sections. If the plaintiff fails to deposit with the justice a summons and complaint in the new action, before the expiration of twenty days after the delivery of the undertaking, the defendant may maintain an action against the plaintiff to recover his costs before the justice.

Id., § 57.

§ 2955. Effect of failure to give undertaking.

If the undertaking is not delivered to the justice, he has jurisdiction of the action, and must proceed therein; and the defendant is precluded, in his defence, from drawing the title in question.

Id., § 58.

§ 2956. When title comes in question on plaintiff's own showing.

If, however, it appears, upon the trial, from the plaintiff's own showing, that the title to real property is in question, and the title is disputed by the defendant, the justice must dismiss the complaint, with costs, and render judgment against the plaintiff accordingly.

Co. Proc., § 59.

§ 2957. Pleadings in new action. Undertaking before justice, when applicable.

In the new action, to be brought after an action before a justice is discontinued, by the delivery of an answer and an undertaking, as prescribed in the last six sections of this act, the plaintiff must complain for the same cause of action only, upon which he relied before the justice; and the defendant's answer must set up the same defence only, which he made before the justice. If the action is to recover a chattel, which was replevied in the justice's court, each undertaking, given in the justice's court, continues to be valid in, and is applicable to, the new action.

Id., § 60.

Where, in an action before a justice, the plaintiff has two or more causes of action, and the defence, that the title to real property will come in question, is interposed as to one or more, but not as to all of them; the defendant may deliver an answer and undertaking as prescribed in sections 2951 and 2952 of this act, with respect to the cause or causes of action only, in which title will so come in question. Whereupon the justice must discontinue the action as to those causes of action only; the plaintiff may commence a new action therefor in the proper court; and the original action must proceed as to the other causes.

Id., part of § 62.

TITLE IV.

Proceedings between the joinder of issue and the trial.

- Article 1. Adjournments.
 2. Compelling the attendance of a witness.
 3. Commission to take testimony.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Adjournments.

- Sec. 2959. Adjournment by justice.
 2960. Adjournment on application of plaintiff.
 2961. Adjournment on application of defendant.
 2962. Id.; undertaking thereupon.
 2963. Undertaking to procure discharge of defendant from custody.
 2964. When defendant to be discharged.
 2965. Subsequent adjournments.
 2966. Justice may impose conditions upon adjournment.
 2967. Adjournment when warrant to attach absent witness is issued.
 2968. Adjournment not to exceed ninety days.

§ 2959. Adjournment by justice.

At the time of the return of a summons, or of the joinder of issue without process, but at no other time, the justice may, in his discretion and upon his own motion, adjourn the trial of the action not more than eight days, unless the defendant has been arrested; in which case, no such adjournment shall be made.

2 R. S. 238, §§ 67, 68 (2 Edm. 254).

§ 2960. Adjournment on application of plaintiff.

At the time of the return of a summons, or of the joinder of issue without process, the justice must, upon the application of the plaintiff, adjourn the trial of the action, not more than eight days, to a time fixed by the justice. But such an adjournment shall not be granted unless the plaintiff or his attorney, if required by the defendant, makes oath that the plaintiff cannot, for want of some material testimony or witness, specified by him, safely proceed to trial.

Id., part of §§ 69 and 70 (2 Edm. 254, 255).

§ 2961. Adjournment on application of defendant.

At the time of the joinder of issue, the justice must, upon the application of the defendant, adjourn the trial of the action, upon his complying with the following requirements:

1. The defendant or his attorney must, if required by the plaintiff, or by the justice, make oath that he verily believes that the defendant has a good defence to the action, and that he cannot safely proceed to trial, for want of some material testimony or witness, specified by him.

2. If required by the plaintiff, and the defendant has not been arrested in the action, an undertaking must be given to the plaintiff in behalf of the defendant, as prescribed in the next section. But such an undertaking need not be given, where the action is to recover a chattel.

Such an adjournment must be for such a reasonable time, fixed by the justice, as will enable the defendant to procure the testimony or witness.

Id., §§ 74 and 75.

§ 2962. Id.; undertaking thereupon.

The undertaking prescribed in the last section must be executed by one or more sureties, approved by the justice; and must be to the effect that, if the plaintiff recovers judgment in the action; and if, before the expiration of ten days after the plaintiff becomes entitled to an execution upon the judgment, the defendant removes, secretes, assigns, or in any way disposes of any part of his property, liable to levy and sale by virtue of an execution, except for the necessary support of himself and his family, and if an execution upon the judgment is returned wholly or partly unsatisfied; the sureties will, upon demand, pay to the plaintiff the sum due upon the judgment.

L. 1831, ch. 300, § 40 (4 Edm. 474).

§ 2963. Undertaking to procure discharge of defendant from custody.

Where the defendant has been arrested, the trial must be adjourned upon his application, upon the same terms, and in the same manner, as where he has not been arrested; except that the undertaking prescribed in the last section need not be given. A defendant, who procures such an adjournment, must continue, during the time of adjournment, in the custody of the constable; unless he gives an undertaking to the plaintiff, with one or more sureties, approved by the justice, to the effect that, if the plaintiff recovers judgment in the action; and if an execution is issued thereupon against the person of the defendant, within ten days after the plaintiff is entitled to the same; and if a return is made thereto, on or after the return day thereof, that the defendant cannot be found; the sureties will pay to the plaintiff the amount due upon the judgment. If such an undertaking is given, the defendant must be discharged from custody.

2 B. S. 239, 240, part of §§ 71, 77 and 78 (2 Edm. 255).

§ 2964. When defendant to be discharged.

If the trial of an action, in which the defendant has been arrested, is adjourned with the consent of both parties, or upon the application of the plaintiff, the defendant must be discharged from custody.

Id., § 72.

The justice must, upon the application of the defendant, grant a second or subsequent adjournment of the trial of the action, upon the defendant's giving security, if required, as prescribed in the foregoing provisions of this article, where he applies for a first adjournment; and upon his proving, by his own oath or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the justice, that he cannot safely proceed to trial for want of some material testimony or witness; and that he has used due diligence to obtain the testimony or witness. But if the defendant has given an undertaking upon a former adjournment, a new undertaking need not be given, unless it is required by the justice, or by the sureties in the former undertaking.

Id., § 75.

Upon granting the defendant's application for an adjournment, where the trial has been once adjourned, or where the plaintiff is a non-resident of the county, the justice may, in his discretion, upon the plaintiff's application, direct that any witness on the part of the plaintiff, who is in attendance, be then examined under oath before the justice. Thereupon the testimony of the witness must be reduced to writing, certified by the justice, and retained by him; to be read upon the trial, with the same effect, and subject to the same objections, as if it was then given orally by the witness.

2 R. S. 239, 240, § 70.

§ 2907. Adjournment when warrant to attach absent witness is issued.

Where, upon a trial, a warrant or attachment is issued to compel the attendance of a witness, who has failed to appear in obedience to a subpoena, the justice may, in his discretion, adjourn the trial, for such a time as he deems necessary for the return of the warrant, not exceeding five days.

The trial of an action shall not be adjourned to a time beyond ninety days from the joinder of issue, without the consent of both parties, except in one of the following cases:

1. Where a venire has been duly issued, but a jury has not been procured, so that it is necessary to issue a new venire, or to summon one or more talesmen, the trial may be adjourned, not more than two days beyond the ninety days, in order to enable the jury to be procured.

2. Where a jury has not been able to agree upon a verdict, and is discharged, the trial may be adjourned a sufficient time beyond the ninety days, to enable a new jury to be procured, as prescribed in title fifth of this chapter.

3. Where a warrant of attachment has been issued to compel the attendance of a witness, as prescribed in the last section, or a warrant has been issued to commit a recusant witness, as prescribed in title fifth of this chapter, an adjournment made thereupon, as prescribed by law, is not deemed a part of the ninety days.

See 2 R. S. 239, 240, § 73.

ARTICLE SECOND.

Compelling the attendance of a witness.

- Sec. 2069. When justice may issue subpoena.
2070. Subpoena; how served.
2071. Warrant of attachment against defaulting witness.
2072. Id.; how executed; fees thereupon.
2073. Id.; when witness is in adjoining county.
2074. Fine for refusing to attend, or to testify.
2075. Id.; how imposed.
2076. Minute of conviction.
2077. Execution thereupon.
2078. Money collected; how applied.
2079. Defaulting witness liable for damages.

§ 2069. When justice may issue subpoena.

A justice of the peace may issue a subpoena, to compel a witness to attend, in the county where the justice resides, or in an adjoining county, but not otherwise, for the purpose of testifying upon the trial of an action, pending before himself, or before another justice. The subpoena may require the witness, except as otherwise expressly prescribed by law, to bring with him any book or paper, relating to the merits of the action. But a justice shall not issue a subpoena to compel the attendance of a witness before another justice, unless the person applying therefor proves, by his own oath, or the oath of another person, that an action is actually pending before the other justice.

2 R. S. 239, 240, §§ 80 and 81. See § 8135, post.

§ 2070. Subpoena; how served.

A subpoena may be served by a constable, or by any other person. It must be served by reading it, or stating its contents, to the witness, and by paying and tendering to him his lawful fee for one day's attendance as a witness. Where it is served by a constable, his return thereto, stating the manner of service and the sum paid, is presumptive evidence of the facts therein stated.

Id., § 82.

§ 2071. Warrant of attachment against defaulting witness.

Where it is made to appear, to the satisfaction of the justice, by affidavit or other proof, that a person, duly subpoenaed to attend before him in an action, has refused or neglected to attend as a witness in obedience to the subpoena; and no just cause for the neglect or refusal is shown to exist; and the party, in whose behalf the witness was subpoenaed, or his attorney, makes oath that the testimony of the witness is material; the justice must issue a warrant of attachment, directed generally to any constable of the county, for the purpose of compelling the attendance of the witness.

Id., § 83, am'd; L. 1834, ch. 235.

§ 2072. Id.; how executed; fees thereupon.

Such a warrant of attachment must be executed in the same manner as an order of arrest. The fees of the justice and constable for issuing and serving it, must be paid by the person against whom it is issued, unless he shows a reasonable excuse, to the satisfaction of the justice, for his omission to attend; in which case, the party procuring the warrant must pay them, and, if he recovers costs, the amount thereof must be allowed to him as part of his costs.

§ 2973. Id.; when witness is in adjoining county.

Where the delinquent witness is within an adjoining county, the constable, to whom the warrant of attachment is directed, may arrest the witness in that county, and bring him before the justice. The constable, while he is within the adjoining county for that purpose, has all the powers of a constable of that county, with respect to the warrant so issued to him.

§ 2974. Fine for refusing to attend, or to testify.

A person, duly subpoenaed as a witness, who, without a reasonable excuse, proved by his oath or the oath of another person, fails to attend; or, attending, refuses to testify; must be fined, by the justice before whom the action is pending, for each non-attendance or refusal, such a sum, not less than one dollar nor more than ten dollars, as the justice thinks it reasonable to impose upon him, as a fine therefor.

2 R. S. 239, 240, § 85, am'd.

§ 2975. Id.; how imposed.

The fine may be summarily imposed by the justice, upon the application of the party in whose behalf the witness was subpoenaed, at any time during the trial, when the defaulting witness is present, and has an opportunity to be heard. If it is not imposed during the trial, the justice, at any time within five days after judgment is rendered, must, upon the application of the party, issue a warrant, directed generally to any constable of the county, commanding him to arrest the defaulting witness, and to bring him before the justice, at a time and place therein specified, the time to be not more than twelve days after issuing the warrant, to show cause why a fine should not be imposed upon him.

Id., § 86.

The justice imposing the fine must enter in his docket-book a minute of the conviction, of the cause thereof, of the amount of the fine, and of the costs. The minute is deemed a judgment against the delinquent, in favor of the officer to whom fines are directed to be paid, by section 2875 of this act.

Id., § 87, am'd.

If the whole amount of the fine and costs is not forthwith paid to the justice, he must issue an execution, directed generally to any constable of the county, commanding the constable to collect the sum remaining unpaid, of the goods and chattels of the delinquent, within the county, and, for want thereof, to take him, and convey him to the jail of the county, there to remain until he pays that sum, not exceeding thirty days. Upon the delinquent being committed to jail, the keeper thereof must keep him in close custody therein, until he is entitled to a discharge, as specified in the execution.

Id., § 88.

The money collected by virtue of the execution must be forthwith paid by the constable to the justice. The justice must, within ten days after he receives a fine, or any part thereof, from the constable or the delinquent, pay the money to the officer, to whom the fines are directed to be paid, by section 2876 of this act, for the use of the poor.

2 R. S. 239, 240, § 89.

§ 2979. Defaulting witness liable for damages.

A person, subpoenaed as prescribed in this article, who neglects or refuses to obey the subpoena, or to testify, is also liable to the party, in whose behalf he was subpoenaed, for all damages which the party sustains by reason of his neglect or refusal.

Id., § 90, am'd.

ARTICLE THIRD.*

Commission to take testimony.

Sec. 2980. Commission to examine witness upon interrogatories.

2981. Id.; orally.

2982. When and how granted.

2983. Adjournment.

2984. Execution and return of commission.

2985. Receipt thereof by justice.

2986. When deposition evidence.

2987. Powers of commissioners.

§ 2980. Commission to examine witness upon interrogatories.

Where the defendant has neglected to appear upon the return of a summons, or has failed to answer the complaint, or where an issue of fact has been joined in an action; and it appears, by affidavit, upon the application of either party, that a witness, not within the county where the action is pending, or an adjoining county, is material in the prosecution or defence of the action, the justice may award a commission to one or more competent persons, authorizing them, or either of them, to examine the witness under oath, upon interrogatories to be settled by the justice, or by the written agreement of the parties, and indorsed upon or annexed to the commission; to take and certify the deposition of the witness; and to return the same by mail, addressed to the justice.

§ 2981. Id.; orally.

If both parties expressly consent, a commission, granted as prescribed in this article, may issue without written interrogatories, and the deposition may be taken upon oral questions. In that case, section 900 of this act applies to the execution of the commission; and a copy of that section must be annexed thereto. Notice of the time or place of the examination of a witness, by virtue thereof, need not be given.

The commission may be granted by the justice without notice, upon the application of the plaintiff, made at the return of the summons, or upon the application of either party, made at the time of the joinder of issue. It may also be granted at any time after the joinder of issue, upon the application of either party, accompanied with proof, by affidavit, that six days' written notice of the application has been served upon the adverse party, either personally, or by service upon the attorney, who appeared for him before the justice.

L. 1888, ch. 243, § 3.

§ 2983. Adjournment.

Where a commission is granted upon the application of the plaintiff, he is entitled to one or more adjournments of the trial, as may be necessary to procure the commission to be executed and returned; not exceeding the length of time for which the trial might be adjourned upon the application of the defendant.

* This article is made applicable to District Courts in New York city, by Consolidation Act of 1882, ch. 410, § 1368.

L. 1841, ch. 138, § 1 (4 Edm. 548).

§ 2984. Execution and return of commission.

The commission must be executed and returned, as prescribed in section 901 of this act; and a copy of that section must be annexed thereto, except that subdivision sixth thereof may be omitted.

Substituted for L. 1838, ch. 243, § 4 (4 Edm. 641).

The justice, to whom the package containing the commission is transmitted by mail, must receive it from the post-office, and open and file it, indorsing thereupon the date of his so doing. It must remain on file with him, until the trial; but either party is entitled to inspect it on file.

Sections 902 and 903 of this act apply to a commission, issued as prescribed in this article; and to the execution thereof. A deposition taken thereunder may be read in evidence upon the trial by either party, and has the effect specified in section 911 of this act.

§ 2987. Powers of commissioners.

Where the commission is executed within the State, the commissioner, or, if there are two or more, a majority of them, have the same power to issue a subpoena, to swear a witness, and to compel his attendance, that a justice of the peace has, in an action pending before him.

L. 1841, ch. 138, § 2 (4 Edm. 546).

§ 2988. [Am'd, 1903.] Effect of failure of defendant to appear.

Where the defendant makes default in appearing or pleading, upon the return of a summons, which has been duly served as prescribed in this chapter, the justice must hear the allegations and proofs of the plaintiff, and render judgment according to law and equity, as the very right of the case appears, except in an action commenced by the service of a summons and verified complaint as provided by section twenty-nine hundred and thirty-six of this code, in which case judgment may be entered as provided by section twenty-eight hundred and ninety-one of this code.

2 R. S. 242, § 92 (2 Edm. 259); L. 1906, ch. 291. In effect Sept. 1, 1906.

§ 2989. When justice to try issue of fact.

Where an issue of fact has been joined, if neither party demands a trial by jury, the justice must try the issue hear the allegations and proofs of the parties and render judgment as prescribed in the last section.

Id., § 91.

At the time when an issue of fact is joined either party may demand a trial by jury, and unless so demanded at the joining of issue a jury trial is waived. The party demanding a trial by jury shall thereupon pay to the justice the statutory fees for the attendance of each person to be summoned and for the jurors to serve upon the trial, and also the fees to which the constable is entitled for notifying the persons to be drawn as jurors. The fees so deposited shall be delivered by the justice to the constable serving the venire, and by him shall be paid out as required by law. In default of a deposit as aforesaid the justice shall proceed as if no demand for trial by jury had been made. And the town clerk of every town in this state shall deliver to each of the justices of the peace in his town a certified copy of the list filed with him, in pursuance of section five hundred and five of the judiciary law, and he shall also deliver to each of said justices a certified copy of any such list hereafter filed with him, within ten days after the same shall be filed. The town clerk is entitled to a fee of one dollar for each copy of said list so delivered. Any town clerk who shall neglect to deliver a copy of the list to each of the justices of the town within the time above prescribed, shall forfeit ten dollars for each failure, to be sued for and recovered by the overseers of the poor of said town for the use of the poor of said town.

Id., § 93, am'd: L. 1907, ch. 146. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3. See note 82 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 2901. [Am'd, 1909.] Drawing jurors.

When a trial by jury is duly demanded, the justice must forthwith openly draw twelve ballots from a box or other receptacle containing the names of the persons who are returned as jurors of the town to the courts of record of the county upon the last list thereof received by him from the town clerk as jurors to attend and try said cause, on a day to which the cause shall then be adjourned by him, not more than eight days from the joining of issue, unless the parties consent to a longer adjournment, which consent shall be entered in the justice's minutes. The ballots shall be of the same description as those prescribed in section twenty-nine hundred and ninety-four of this act, but they may be, or may previously have been prepared by a justice. If a person whose name is thus drawn, in the judgment of the justice, resides more than three miles from the place of trial, the justice may set aside such juror, and he may excuse any juror who comes within the provisions of section five hundred and forty-four of the judiciary law, and in either case draw another ballot, and continue to do so until twelve are drawn. After the adjournment of the court, at which a jury trial has been had, the justice must deposit the ballots containing the names of those who attended and served, in another box kept by him. The ballots containing the names of those who did not appear and serve must be returned by the justice to the box from which they were taken. If at the time of drawing jurors for the court there is not a sufficient number of ballots remaining in the original box, the justice, upon drawing all the ballots therein, must draw the necessary number from the second box containing the names of those jurors who have before served, as in this section prescribed, and must continue to draw from that box until a new list of jurors is delivered to him by said town clerk.

Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3. See note 83 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

Where the action is between two towns or cities, or between a town and a city, the venire must direct the constable to notify twelve men of the county, who are qualified and not exempt, as proscribed in the last section, and who are not interested in the matter at issue, to form a jury for the trial of the action.

2 R. S. 242, § 90.

§ 2993. Delivery, execution and return of venire. [

The justice must insert the names of the jurors so drawn, in a venire, and deliver or cause it to be delivered to a constable of the county disinterested between the parties. The constable must, at least three days before the day therein stated, notify each of the persons whose names have been therein inserted, by reading it or stating the substance thereof to the person so served. But the service shall not be affected by the constable's failure, after diligent search, to find any of the persons so named. The constable must make his return upon the venire, certifying that he has so personally served it upon each of the jurors whose names are therein inserted, or if any were not served, stating the reason for such omission. Any constable making a false return upon such venire is guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person so served and not attending at the time and place to which the cause was so adjourned, is guilty of a contempt of court, punishable by a fine not exceeding ten dollars, which the justice may impose forthwith by an entry in his minutes of the imposition of such fine, to be collected by execution issued by the justice as upon a judgment, with costs of the levy, and which fine shall be paid over to the use of the poor of the county by the justice, but upon the presentation of a reasonable and sufficient excuse by or on behalf of the person so fined, the justice may, at any time, remit such fine, or any part thereof.

2 R. S. 242, §§ 97, 98; L. 1847, ch. 470, § 3 (Edm. 591).

§ 2994. Ballots; how prepared.

For the purpose of procuring a jury to try the action, the justice must prepare, or cause to be prepared, ballots, uniform, as nearly as may be, in appearance, by writing the name of each person returned, who attends, upon a separate piece of paper. The constable, in the presence of the justice, must roll up or fold each ballot in the same manner, as nearly as may be, so as to resemble the others, and so that the name is not visible. The ballots must be deposited in a box, or other convenient receptacle.

Id., § 99.

§ 2995. Drawing jurors.

The justice must then openly draw out, one after another, six of the ballots. If a person, whose name is drawn, is challenged and set aside, or is excused, another ballot must be drawn, and so on, successively, until the required number of jurors is obtained. The parties may elect to try the cause by a less number than six jurors, at any time before a witness is sworn. The persons so selected as herein provided, constitute the jury to try the action.

Id., § 100.

If a sufficient number of competent jurors do not attend, the justice shall issue an attachment against all defaulting jurors, and shall place the same in the hands of the officer who summoned the same, commanding him forthwith to attach such jurors and to bring them before him at a time specified not more than thirty-six hours thereafter, to which the cause must be adjourned. The juror or jurors so attached shall, in addition to the fine specified in section 2993 of this act, be required to pay the expense of the attachment and service thereof; which shall be the officer's fees, together with all necessary expense incurred by him in serving said attachment, to be audited and fixed, to be enforced in the same manner, and when collected to be paid to the officer or the party who has paid the same. Any person so attached and disobeying or resisting the service of said attachment is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 2997. [Am'd, 1892.] New venire, etc.

If the constable, to whom the venire is delivered, does not return it as required thereby; or it is for any reason set aside, the justice must proceed to draw another jury, in the manner prescribed in the foregoing sections, which shall be summoned in like manner as the first jury. If a full jury, drawn from those returned as prescribed in the foregoing sections cannot be obtained, the justice may direct the constable to require the attendance forthwith, or at such time as he may designate, not longer than twenty-four hours after the issuing thereof, of such a number of talesmen, from the bystanders or from the town, qualified to serve as jurors, as he deems sufficient for the purpose; or in his discretion he may draw from the jury box, double the number of jurors required to complete the jury in the manner required by the foregoing sections, which shall be summoned in like manner as the first jury, and he shall continue to do so till a jury is obtained. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall preclude the justice from adjourning the trial of the case, on his own motion, or on the application of either of the parties to the action, as provided by sections twenty-nine hundred and fifty-nine to twenty-nine hundred and sixty-eight of the Code of Civil Procedure.

L. 1892, ch. 567.

§ 2998. Juror's oath.

The justice must administer an oath or affirmation to each juror, well and truly to try the matter in difference between _____, plaintiff, and _____, defendant, and unless discharged by the justice, a true verdict to give, according to the evidence.

2 R. S. 242, § 103.

§ 2999. Jury to hear proofs.

After the jurors have been duly sworn, they must sit together, and hear the allegations and proofs of the parties, which must be made publicly, in their presence.

Id., § 104.

A person offered as a witness must, before any testimony is given by him, be duly sworn or affirmed, to the effect that the evidence which he shall give, relating to the matter in difference between _____, plaintiff, and _____, defendant, shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.

Id., § 108.

Where a witness, attending before a justice in an action, refuses to be sworn or affirmed in the form prescribed by law; or to answer a pertinent and proper question; or neglects or refuses to produce a book or paper which he has been duly subpoenaed to produce, as prescribed in section 2969 of this act, or duly required to produce by an order, made as prescribed in section 867 of this act; and the party, at whose instance he attended, makes oath that the testimony of the witness, or that the book or paper is so far material, that without it he cannot safely proceed with the trial of the action, the justice may, by warrant, commit the witness to the jail of the county.

Id., § 279. am'd.

The warrant must specify the cause for which it is issued. If it is issued for refusing to answer a question, the question must be specified therein; if for neglecting or refusing to produce a book or paper, the same must be described with convenient certainty. The recusant witness must be closely confined, by virtue of the warrant, until he submits to be sworn or affirmed, or to answer, or to produce the book or paper required, as the case may be; or is otherwise discharged according to law.

2 R. S., § 289.

The justice must thereupon, from time to time, at the request of the party in whose behalf the witness attended, adjourn the trial, until the witness testifies, or produces the book or paper required, or dies, or becomes a lunatic, or is discharged according to law.

Id., § 281.

§ 3004. Ex parte affidavit; when evidence.

An ex parte affidavit shall not be received in evidence upon a trial, without the consent of both parties, except in a case where it is specially allowed by law.

2 R. S. 242. § 195.

§ 3005. Competency of witness; how determined.

An objection to the competency of a witness must be tried and determined by the justice. Where the ground of the objection depends upon a matter of fact, evidence may be given thereupon, as upon any other question of fact; except that, if the witness is examined thereupon by the party objecting, no other testimony shall be received from either party as to his competency.

Id., § 107.

§ 3006. Constable to keep jury; his oath.

After hearing the allegations and proofs, the jury must be kept together in a private and convenient place, under the charge of a constable, until they all agree upon their verdict; and, for that purpose, the justice shall administer to the constable the following oath: "You swear in the presence of Almighty God, that you will, to the utmost of your ability, keep the persons sworn as jurors upon this trial together, in a private and convenient place, without any meat or drink except such as shall be ordered by me; that you will not suffer any communication to be made to them, orally or otherwise; that you will not communicate with them yourself, orally or otherwise, unless by my order, or to ask them whether they have agreed upon their verdict, until they are discharged; and that you will not, before they render their verdict, communicate to any person the state of their deliberations, or the verdict they have agreed upon."

Id., § 109.

§ 3007. Rendition of verdict; plaintiff need not be called.

When the jurors have agreed upon their verdict, they must publicly deliver it to the justice, who must enter it in his docket book. It is not necessary to call the plaintiff before receiving the verdict; and the plaintiff cannot submit to a nonsuit or withdraw the action, after the cause has been committed to the jury.

Id., § 110.

§ 3008. Jury when to be discharged; new venire.

Where the justice is satisfied that the jurors cannot agree upon a verdict, after having been out a reasonable time, he may discharge them, and issue a new venire, returnable within forty-eight hours; unless the parties consent, and their consent is entered in the justice's docket-book, that the justice may render judgment upon the evidence already before him; which he may do, in that case.

2 R. S. 242, § 111.

§ 3009. Fine to be imposed on defaulting juror.

A person duly notified to attend as a juror, who fails to attend, or, attending, refuses to serve, without a reasonable excuse, proved by his oath, or the oath of another person, is liable to the same fine, to be imposed and collected, with costs, in like manner, and applied to the same use, as is prescribed in article second of title fourth of this chapter, with respect to a person subpoenaed as a witness, and not attending, or attending and refusing to testify.

8021. Docketing the same; action thereupon.

8022. Docketing judgment in another county.

8023. Justice may give transcript, after expiration of his term.

A justice of the peace may enter a judgment upon the confession of the defendant, in any case, where the amount confessed does not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, with such a stay of execution, if any, as is agreed upon by the parties to the judgment.

3 B. S. 242, § 113. See §§ 2864, 3224.

A judgment upon confession shall not be rendered unless the following requisites are complied with:

1. The defendant must personally appear before the justice.

2. The confession must be in writing, signed by the defendant, and filed with the justice.

3. If the judgment is confessed for a sum exceeding fifty dollars, the confession must be accompanied with the affidavit of the defendant and of the plaintiff, stating that the defendant is honestly and justly indebted to the plaintiff in the sum specified therein, over and above all just demands which the defendant has against the plaintiff; and that the confession is not made or taken with intent to defraud any creditor.

Id., § 114.

§ 8012. Id.; when void.

A judgment confessed, otherwise than as prescribed in the last section, is void, as against every person, except a purchaser in good faith of property, real or personal, thereunder, and the defendant making the confession.

Id., § 115.

Judgment of nonsuit, with costs, must be rendered against a plaintiff prosecuting an action before a justice of the peace, in either of the following cases:

1. If he discontinues or withdraws the action.

2. If he fails to appear within one hour after the summons is returnable, or within one hour after the time to which the trial has been adjourned.

3. If he is nonsuited upon the trial.

Id., § 119.

 3014. Judgment upon verdict, etc.

Where a verdict, or the decision of the justice upon a trial without a jury, is rendered in favor of either party, the justice must render judgment against the adverse party in conformity thereto, with costs, except as is otherwise specially prescribed by law.

Substituted for 2 R. S. 242, §§ 120 and 121.

Where the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues or withdraws the action; or where judgment is confessed, or a verdict is rendered; or where, at the close of the trial, the defendant is in custody; the justice must forthwith render judgment, and enter it in his docket-book. In every other case, he must render judgment, and enter it in his docket-book, within four days after the cause has been finally submitted to him.

Id., § 124.

Where a verdict, or the decision of the justice upon a trial without a jury, is rendered in favor of either party for a sum of money, the prevailing party may remit any portion thereof, and take judgment for the residue.

Id., § 125.

A justice of the peace who renders a judgment, except in an action to recover a chattel, must, upon the application of the party in whose favor the judgment was rendered, and the payment of the fee therefor, deliver to him a transcript of the judgment. The county clerk of the county in which the judgment was rendered must, upon the presentation of the transcript and payment of the fee therefor, if within six years after the rendering thereof, indorse thereupon the date of its receipt, file it in his office and docket the judgment as of the time of the receipt of the transcript in the book kept by him for that purpose, as prescribed in article third, title first of chapter eleven of this act. Thenceforth the judgment is deemed a judgment of the county court of that county, and must be enforced accordingly; except that an execution can be issued thereupon only by the county clerk, as prescribed in section thirty hundred and forty-three of this act, and that the judgment is not a lien upon, and cannot be enforced against, real property, unless it is for twenty-five dollars or more, exclusive of costs.

Co. Proc., part of § 63; L. 1894, ch. 307. see § 276.

If the action, in which the judgment is rendered, is one of the actions specified in subdivision first or second of section 2895 of this act, or if an order of arrest was granted, and was executed, in a case specified in subdivision third of that section, and, in either case, if the defendant is a male person, the justice must insert, in each transcript given by him, as prescribed in the last section, the words, "defendant liable to execution against his person"; and a like note must also be made in the docket of the judgment, made by the county clerk.

A justice of the peace, who renders judgment for a chattel, which has been delivered to the unsuccessful party, or for the value thereof, in case a return thereof cannot be had, must, where the value exceeds twenty-five dollars, upon the application of the party in whose favor the judgment was rendered, and payment of the fee therefor, deliver to him a transcript of the judgment, stating the particulars thereof. The county clerk of the county, in which the judgment was rendered, must, upon the presentation of the transcript, and payment of the fees therefor, indorse thereupon the date of its receipt, file it in his office, and docket the judgment, as of the time of the receipt of the transcript, in the book kept by him for that purpose, as prescribed in article third of title first of chapter eleventh of this act, and must also enter in the docket the particulars of the judgment, as stated in the transcript of the justice. Thenceforth the judgment is deemed a judgment of the county court of that county, and must be enforced accordingly; except that an execution can be issued thereupon only by the county clerk, as prescribed in section 3043 of this act.

Where an action is brought against two or more persons, jointly indebted upon contract, and the summons is served upon one or more, but not upon all of them, if the plaintiff recovers judgment, it must be entered against all, in the mode prescribed in section 1932 of this act. Sections 1933, 1934, and 1935 of this act apply to such a judgment, and to each execution issued thereupon; except that, where the justice or the county clerk issues the execution, he must make the indorsement prescribed in section 1934 of this act.

Substituted for 2 R. S. §§ 122 and 123.

The justice who gives a transcript of a judgment, taken as prescribed in the last section, must distinctly designate, in the transcript, each defendant who was not summoned. Thereupon the clerk, who docket the judgment, must make in the docket, under or opposite the name of each defendant not summoned, an entry, as prescribed in section 1936 of this act; and the provisions of that section apply to the judgment so docketed. An action, upon a judgment so docketed, can be maintained in a justice's court against the defendants summoned, only in a like case, and with like effect, as if they were the only defendants in the original action. An action may be maintained against the defendants not summoned, as prescribed in section 1937 of this act, in any court having jurisdiction thereof; and the plaintiff is entitled to costs, upon recovering final judgment therein, where the sum remaining unpaid is twenty-five dollars or more.

§ 3022. Docketing judgment in another county.

The clerk, with whom a transcript given by a justice is filed, as prescribed in either of the foregoing sections of this title, must furnish to any person applying therefor, and paying the fees allowed by law, one or more transcripts of the docket of the judgment, attested by his signature. A county clerk, to whom such a transcript is presented, must, upon payment of the fees therefor, immediately file it, and docket the judgment in the appropriate docket-book kept in his office, in like manner as the judgment was docketed by the first county clerk. The judgment, when docketed as prescribed in this section, has the like effect, with respect to the enforcement thereof, or any proceedings thereunder, or by virtue thereof, in the county where it was so docketed, as if it was rendered by a justice of the peace of that county, and docketed upon filing his transcript; except that where an application for leave to issue an execution is necessary, it must be made to the county court of the county where the judgment was rendered.

Ce. Proc., § 68, and R."S., part of § 284.

A justice of the peace, whose term of office has expired, may make a transcript of a judgment rendered by him, as prescribed in either of the foregoing sections of this title.

TITLE VII.

Executions.

- Sec. 3024. When justice may issue execution.
3025. General requisites of execution.
3026. Execution upon judgment for money.
3027. Renewal of execution.
3028. Property exempt from execution.
3029. Indorsement of levy; notice of sale.
3030. Mode of levy and sale.
3031. Return of execution.
3032. Execution against the person; imprisonment of judgment debtor.
3033. When judgment debtor to be discharged.
3034. Affidavit; discharge.
3035. Penalty for not discharging.
3036. Affidavit a defence to action for escape.
3037. Discharge not to affect judgment.
3038. Execution upon judgment in action for a chattel.
3039. Action against constable for not returning execution.
3040. Constable not to act under execution after return day.
3041. Action against constable for money collected.
3042. Duty of constable whose term of office has expired.
3043. Execution upon judgment docketed with county clerk.

§ 3024. When justice may issue execution.

At any time within five years after entry of a judgment, the justice of the peace, who rendered it, being in office, may issue an execution thereupon, unless it has been docketed in the county clerk's office.

Co. Proc., § 64, subds. 12 and 13.

§ 3025. General requisites of execution.

An execution, issued by a justice, must be directed generally to any constable of the same county. It must intelligibly describe the judgment, stating the names of the parties in whose favor, and against whom, the time when, and the name of the justice by whom, the judgment was rendered; and it must be made returnable to the justice, within sixty days after its date.

R. S., part of § 181.

§ 3026. Execution upon judgment for money.

An execution, issued upon a judgment for a sum of money, must specify, in the body thereof, the sum recovered, and the sum actually due upon the judgment at the date of the execution; and, except in a case where special provision is otherwise made by law, it must, substantially, require the constable to satisfy the judgment, together with his fees, out of the personal property of the judgment debtor within the county, not exempt from levy and sale by virtue of an execution; and to bring the money before the justice, by the return day of the execution, to be rendered, by the justice to the party who recovered the judgment. If the judgment was recovered against a male person, in either of the actions specified in subdivision first or second of section 2805 of this act; or if an order of arrest was granted and was executed, in a case specified in subdivision third of that section, the execution must also command the constable, if sufficient personal property cannot be found to satisfy the judgment, to arrest the judgment debtor, and to convey him to the jail of the county, there to remain until he pays the judgment, or is discharged according to law. If the judgment was rendered in an action to recover a penalty or forfeiture given by a statute of the State, the justice must indorse upon the execution a reference to the statute, as prescribed in section 1897 of this act, with respect to a copy of the summons.

After the return, wholly or partly unsatisfied, of an execution, issued by a justice of the peace, he may, from time to time, within five years after the judgment was rendered, issue a new execution or renew the former execution. An execution is renewed by a written indorsement thereupon to that effect, signed by the justice, and dated upon the day when it is made. If part of the execution has been satisfied, the indorsement must state the sum remaining due. Each indorsement renews the execution for sixty days from the date thereof. A justice whose term of office has expired may thus issue or renew an execution.

Id., §§ 145 and 147.

The same personal property is exempt from levy and sale, by virtue of an execution issued by a justice of the peace, which is exempt from levy and sale, by virtue of an execution issued out of the supreme court, and in the like cases, and under the same circumstances, as prescribed in sections 1389, 1390, 1391, 1392, 1393, and 1394 of this act, and the other special provisions of law, relating to such an exemption.

Id., § 169, am'd.

A constable, who takes personal property into his custody, by virtue of an execution, must indorse upon the execution the time of levying upon it. He must immediately post conspicuously, in at least three public places of the city or town, in which the property was taken, written or printed notices, signed by him, describing the property, and specifying the place, within the same city or town, where, and the time, not less than six days after the posting, when, it will be exposed for sale.

Id., § 148, am'd.

§ 3030. Mode of levy and sale.

The provisions of sections 1384, 1385, 1386, 1387, 1405, 1409, 1410, 1411, 1412, and 1428 of this act, substituting the constable for the sheriff, apply to and govern the levy upon and sale of personal property, by virtue of an execution issued by a justice of the peace; except where a different rule is prescribed in this act.

The constable must return the execution to the justice, and pay to him the amount of the judgment, with interest, or so much thereof as he has collected; returning the surplus, if any, to the person from whose property it was collected.

R. S., part of § 149.

§ 3032. Execution against the person; imprisonment of judgment debtor.

For want of sufficient personal property, whereon to levy, the constable must, if the execution requires it, arrest the judgment debtor, and convey him to the jail of the county. The keeper of the jail must thereupon keep the judgment debtor in custody, in all respects as if the execution was issued out of the supreme court, until the judgment and the fees of the constable are paid; or until the judgment debtor is thence discharged, in due course of law; except that if the execution has an indorsement, showing that the judgment was rendered in an action for a penalty or forfeiture, given by a statute of the State, the sheriff shall not admit the judgment debtor to the liberties of the jail.

R. S., part of §§ 151 and 143.

If a person committed to jail by virtue of an execution issued by a justice of the peace, or out of the municipal court of Buffalo, or by virtue of an execution issued by a county clerk on a transcript of a judgment recovered before a justice of the peace, or in the said municipal court of Buffalo, has a family within the state for which he provides, he must be discharged, after remaining in custody, either with or without being admitted to the jail liberties, thirty days; otherwise he must be discharged after so remaining sixty days.

Id., § 152, am'd. Albany City Court, L. 1884, ch. 122; L. 1883, ch. 26.

In order to procure a discharge, as prescribed in the last section, the prisoner must make, and deliver to the sheriff or jailer, an affidavit, stating the facts which entitle him thereto, according to the provisions of that section. Upon receiving such an affidavit the sheriff or jailer must forthwith discharge the prisoner from his custody. He must thereupon deliver the affidavit to the clerk of the county, who must file it in his office, without fee.

Id., §§ 153 and 154.

§ 3035. Penalty for not discharging.

A sheriff or jailer, who refuses to discharge the prisoner, upon receiving such an affidavit, forfeits twenty-five dollars for each day, during which he detains the prisoner; to be recovered by the latter, in addition to any damages, which he sustains by reason of the false imprisonment.

Id., § 155.

The receipt of such an affidavit is a defence, to an action brought against the sheriff or jailer, by reason of the prisoner's discharge.

Id., § 156.

§ 3037. Discharge not to affect judgment.

Notwithstanding the discharge of a judgment debtor, as prescribed in the last four sections, the judgment remains valid as against his property; and a new execution may be issued accordingly, as if he had not been imprisoned.

Id., § 157.

In an action for a chattel, the possession of which has not been delivered to the prevailing party, an execution, for the delivery of the possession thereof to him, as well as for any damages recovered by him, may be issued by the justice; unless the judgment has been docketed in the county clerk's office, as prescribed in title sixth of this chapter. It must be to the same effect, and executed in the same manner, as a like execution issued upon a judgment rendered in the supreme court; except that it must be directed generally to any constable of the county; and that the direction to satisfy a sum of money, out of the property of the judgment debtor, must be in the form prescribed in this title for a like direction, where an execution is issued by a justice of the peace, upon a judgment for a sum of money.

Substitute for L. 1866, part of ch. 131.

§ 3039. Action against constable for not returning execution.

If a constable fails to return an execution within five days after the return day thereof, the party, in whose favor it was issued, may recover, in an action against the constable, the amount of the execution, if it was issued upon a judgment for a sum of money; or if it was for the delivery of the possession of a chattel, the value of the chattel, as specified in the judgment, together with the damages and costs awarded thereby; and, in either case, with interest from the time when the judgment was rendered.

R. S., § 159.

A constable shall not levy upon or sell property, or arrest a defendant, or take possession of a chattel, by virtue of an execution, after the time limited therein for its return, unless the execution has been renewed; nor shall he do any act under a renewed execution, after the expiration of the time for which it has been renewed.

Id., § 161.

§ 3041. Action against constable for money collected.

Where money, collected by a constable upon an execution, is not paid over by him according to law, any person entitled thereto may maintain an action in his own name, upon the instrument of security given by the constable and his sureties; and may recover therein the sum so collected, with interest from the time when it was collected.

Id., § 163.

§ 3042. Duty of constable whose term of office has expired.

A constable, to whom an execution is delivered, whose term of office expires on or before the return day thereof, must proceed thereupon in the same manner, as if his term of office had not expired; and he and his sureties are liable for any neglect of duty, with respect to the execution; or for money collected thereunder, or for damages sustained by reason of any act done by the constable, touching the execution, in the same manner, and to the same extent, as if his term of office had not expired.

Id., §§ 285 and 286. See L. 1872, ch. 788 (9 Edm. 481).

§ 3043. Execution upon judgment docketed with county clerk.

Where a judgment, rendered by a justice of the peace, has been docketed with a county clerk, upon the filing either of a transcript from the justice's docket, or of a transcript from the clerk's docket of another county, the execution, to be issued thereupon by the county clerk, must be in the same form, and executed in the same manner, as an execution issued upon a judgment of the county court; except as otherwise prescribed in section 1367 of this act; and except, also, that, where the judgment is for a sum less than twenty-five dollars, exclusive of costs, the direction to satisfy the judgment out of the real property of the judgment debtor must be omitted. In that case the provisions of this act, relating to the satisfaction of an execution out of the judgment debtor's real property, are not applicable thereto.

Co. Proc., § 64, subd. 13. See §§ 3017 and 1367, ante.

TITLE VIII.

Appeals.

Article 1. Appeals generally.

2. Appeal where a new trial is not had in the appellate court.
3. Appeal for a new trial in the appellate court.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Appeals generally.

Sec. 3044. Justice's judgment reviewed by appeal.

3045. Who may appeal; to what court appeal to be taken.
3046. Appeal; when and how taken.
3047. Service of notice upon justice; payment of costs and fees.
3048. Service of notice upon respondent.
3049. Amendment; when allowed.
3050. Undertaking to stay execution upon judgment.
3051. Proceedings; how stayed.
3052. Id.; when justice is dead, etc.
3053. Return.
3054. Id.; when justice has gone out of office.
3055. Further return; how compelled.
3056. Id.; when justice is dead, etc.
3057. Proceedings when error in fact is alleged.
3058. Restitution upon reversal.
3059. Setting off costs and recovery.
3060. Certain sums may be included in disbursements.
3061. Judgment-roll.

The only mode of reviewing a judgment, rendered by a justice of the peace in a civil action, is by an appeal, as prescribed in this title.

Co. Proc., part of § 351.

§ 3045. [Am'd, 1895.] Who may appeal; to what court appeal to be taken.

An appeal may be taken by any party aggrieved by the judgment. Except where the judgment is rendered by a justice of the peace of the city of Buffalo, the appeal must be to the county court of the county where the judgment was rendered.

Id., part of §§ 325 and 352; L. 1895, ch. 946.

An appeal must be taken within twenty days after the entry of the judgment in the justice's docket; except that, where a defendant appeals from a judgment rendered in an action, wherein he did not appear, and the summons was not personally served upon him, the appeal may be taken within twenty days after personal service upon him, on the part of the plaintiff, of written notice of the entry of the judgment; but not after the expiration of five years from the entry of the judgment. An appeal is taken by serving upon the justice by whom the judgment was rendered, and upon the respondent, a written notice of appeal, subscribed either by the appellant, or by his attorney in the appellate court.

Id., part of §§ 353 and 354.

§ 3047. [Am'd, 1913.] Service of notice upon justice; payment of costs and fee.

Service of the notice of appeal upon the justice, must be made by delivering it to him personally, or to his clerk, appointed pursuant to law, or by mailing such notice to the justice at his office in the manner prescribed by service of notice by mail in section seven hundred and ninety-seven of this act; but if the justice is dead, or if neither he nor his clerk can, after reasonable diligence, be found within the county, service of the notice upon the justice may be made by delivering it to the clerk of the appellate court. Unless the justice is dead, the appellant must, at the time of serving the notice, pay to the person to whom it is delivered the costs of the action, included in the judgment, and the sum of two dollars, as the fee of the justice for making the return.

Co. Proc., part of §§ 354 and 359. Am'd, L. 1913, ch. 445. In effect Sept. 1, 1913.

§ 3048. [Am'd, 1913.] Service of notice upon respondent.

Service of the notice of appeal upon the respondent may be made, by delivering it, in any part of the state, to the respondent personally, or in one of the following methods:

1. By leaving it at his residence, with a person of suitable age and discretion or by serving the notice upon the respondent by mail, or in case an attorney appeared for respondent at the trial, the notice may be served upon the attorney, either personally, or in the manner prescribed for service of notice by mail in section seven hundred and ninety-seven of this act.

2. If service cannot be made, with due diligence, upon the respondent, in the manner prescribed in the foregoing subdivision, the notice of appeal may be served upon him by delivering it to the clerk of the appellate court.

Id., part of § 354. Am'd, L. 1913, ch. 445. In effect Sept. 1, 1913.

§ 3049. Amendment; when allowed.

Where the appellant, seasonably and in good faith, serves the notice of appeal, upon either the justice or the respondent, but omits, through mistake, inadvertence, or excusable neglect, to serve it upon the other, or to do any other act necessary to perfect the appeal, the appellate court, upon proof by affidavit of the facts, may, in its discretion, permit the omission to be supplied, or an amendment to be made, upon such terms as justice requires.

Id., § 327.

§ 3050. Undertaking to stay execution upon judgment.

If the appellant desires a stay of execution, he must give a written undertaking, executed by one or more sureties, approved by the justice who rendered the judgment, or by a judge of the appellate court, to the effect that, if the appeal is dismissed; or if judgment is rendered against the appellant in the appellate court, and an execution issued thereupon is returned wholly or partly unsatisfied; the sureties will pay the amount of the judgment, or the portion thereof remaining unsatisfied, not exceeding a sum, specified in the undertaking, which must be at least one hundred dollars, and not less than twice the amount of the judgment; or, if the judgment in the justice's court is for the recovery of a chattel, that the sureties will pay the sum fixed by that judgment as the value of the chattel, together with the damages, if any, awarded for the taking, withholding, or detention thereof. A copy of the undertaking, with a notice of the delivery thereof, must be served with the notice of appeal, and in like manner. Section 1335 of this act applies to such an undertaking.

Co. Proc., §§ 355 and 356.

The delivery of the undertaking to the justice or to his clerk, pursuant to law, and service of a copy thereof, and of notice of the delivery thereof, stay the issuing of an execution upon the judgment. If an execution has been issued, the service of a copy of the undertaking, certified by the justice or the clerk, or accompanied with an affidavit, showing that it is a copy, and that the original has been duly filed, upon the officer holding the execution, stays further proceedings thereunder.

Id., § 357.

§ 3052. Id.; when justice is dead, etc.

Where the justice is dead, or cannot, with due diligence, be found within the county, and he has no clerk, appointed pursuant to law, or the clerk cannot, with due diligence, be found within the county, the undertaking may be filed with the clerk of the appellate court. In that case, notice of the filing must be given to the respondent, as prescribed in section 3048 of this act, for service of a notice of appeal upon him. The filing of the undertaking has the same effect, as the delivery thereof to the justice; and a copy thereof certified by the county clerk, served upon the officer holding an execution, has the same effect, as if it was certified, as prescribed in the last section.

Id., § 358.

§ 3053. Return.

The justice must, after ten and within thirty days from the service of the notice of appeal, and the payment of the costs and fee, as prescribed in section 3047 of this act, make a return to the appellate court, annex thereto the notice of appeal and the undertaking, if any has been delivered to him or to his clerk, and file the same with the clerk of the appellate court. The return must contain all the proceedings, including the evidence and the judgment; unless the appellant has, in his notice of appeal, demanded a new trial, in a case where he is entitled thereto, as prescribed in article third of this title. In the latter case, the justice must return the summons, together with each warrant of attachment, order of arrest, or requisition to replevy, or execution granted by him in the action, with the proof of the service thereof; the pleadings, or copies thereof; the proceedings upon the trial; and the judgment; with a brief statement of the amount and nature of the claims litigated by the parties. But he need not return the evidence, or any part thereof, unless he is required so to do by the special order of the appellate court.

Id., § 360, am'd.

§ 3054. Id.; when justice has gone out of office.

Where the justice has gone out of office, he must, nevertheless, make a return in the same manner, and his return has the same effect, as if he remained in office.

Id., § 361.

§ 3055. Further return; how compelled.

If the return is defective, the appellate court may direct the justice to make a further or amended return, as often as is necessary. The appellate court may compel the justice, by attachment, to make and file a return, or a further or amended return. The court is always open for those purposes. Where the justice has removed to another county of the State, the appellate court may compel him to make the return, as if he was still within the county where the judgment was rendered.

Co. Proc., §§ 362 and 363.

If the justice dies, becomes a lunatic, absconds, removes from the State, or otherwise becomes unable to make the return, the appellate court may receive affidavits, or examine witnesses, as to the evidence and other proceedings taken, and the judgment rendered, before the justice; and may determine the appeal, as if a return had been duly made by the justice.

Id., § 363.

§ 3057. Proceedings when error in fact is alleged.

Where an appeal is founded upon an error in fact in the proceedings, not affecting the merits of the action, and not within the knowledge of the justice, the court may determine the matter upon affidavits; or, in its discretion, upon the examination of witnesses; or in both methods.

Id., part of § 66.

Where the judgment of the justice is reversed or modified, the appellate court may make or compel restitution of property or of a right lost by means of the erroneous judgment; but not so as to affect the title of a purchaser, in good faith and for value, of property sold by virtue of a warrant of attachment in the action, or an execution issued upon the judgment. In that case, the appellate court may compel the value, or the purchase-price to be restored, or deposited to abide the event of the action, as justice requires. Six days' notice of an application for an order for restitution must be given; and, if the application is granted before judgment, the proper direction may be included therein.

Id., § 369.

§ 3059. Setting off costs and recovery.

If, upon the appeal, a sum of money is awarded to one party, and costs are awarded to the adverse party, the appellate court must set off the one against the other, and render judgment for the balance.

Id., § 370.

§ 3060. Certain sums may be included in disbursements.

Where costs are awarded to the appellant, he may include, in the disbursements upon the appeal, the costs and fee paid to the justice upon taking the appeal; and, where the judgment rendered by the justice was against the appellant, he may also include, in those disbursements, the costs of the action, before the justice, which he would have been entitled to recover, if the judgment of the justice had been in his favor.

Id., part of § 311.

§ 8061. Judgment-roll.

The clerk, immediately after entering final judgment upon the determination of an appeal, must attach together and file such of the following papers, as were used upon the appeal; which constitute the judgment-roll:

1. The return of the justice, or a certified copy thereof; the notice of appeal; and the undertaking, if any has been given.

2. The verdict, report, or decision, and each offer, if any, made as prescribed in article third of this title.

3. A certified copy of the judgment, together with each notice of exceptions, or case, which is then on file.

4. Every other paper, then on file, and a certified copy of every order, which in any way involves the merits, or necessarily affects the judgment.

ARTICLE SECOND.Appeal where a new trial is not had in the appellate court.

Sec. 3062. Hearing of appeal; dismissal thereof.

3063. Judgment.

3064. When new trial in justice's court may be directed.

3065. Id.; proceedings before justice.

3066. Costs; when awarded.

3067. Amount of costs.

§ 3062. [Am'd, 1895.] Hearing of appeal; dismissal thereof.

If the case is one where the appellant is not entitled to, or has not demanded, a new trial in the appellate court, as prescribed in section 3068 of this act, the respondent may, within twenty days of the service on him of the notice of appeal, serve upon the appellant or his attorney a written stipulation that the judgment appealed from may be reversed with five dollars costs and disbursements of the appeal, and thereafter no further steps shall be taken in such appeal, except to enter judgment in pursuance of such stipulation for the enforcement thereof; in case such stipulation shall not be so served, the appeal may be brought to a hearing in the appellate court at any term thereof at which such an appeal can be heard, held after the return is filed, upon a notice by either party of not less than eight days. It must be placed upon the calendar, and must continue thereupon without further notice until it is finally disposed of. If, after being regularly placed upon the calendar, neither party brings it to a hearing before the end of the second term thereafter at which it might be noticed for hearing and heard, the court must dismiss the appeal unless it directs the same to be continued for cause shown.

Co. Proc., § 364; L. 1805, ch. 946.

In a case specified in the last section, the appeal must be heard upon the original papers or a certified copy thereof, and a copy or copies thereof need not be furnished for the use of the court. The appellate court must render judgment according to the justice of the case, without regard to technical errors or defects which do not affect the merits. It may affirm, modify, or reverse the judgment of the justice, in whole or in part, and as to any or all of the parties, and for errors of law or of fact, and where the judgment is contrary to or against the weight of the evidence the appellate court may, upon its reversal of a judgment, order a new trial before the same justice or before another justice of the same county to be designated in the order, and at a time and place to be specified in the order, and in such a case the costs of the appeal shall be in the discretion of the appellate court.

If the appeal is taken by the defendant, who failed to appear before the justice, either upon the return of the summons, or at the time to which the trial of the action was adjourned; and he shows, by affidavit or otherwise, that manifest injustice has been done, and renders a satisfactory excuse for his default; the appellate court may, in its discretion, set aside the judgment appealed from, or stay proceedings thereunder, and by order direct a new trial, before the same justice, or before another justice of the same county, designated in the order, at such a time and place, specified in the order, and upon such terms, as it deems proper.

Co. Proc., part of § 366.

§ 3065. [Am'd, 1893.] Id.; proceedings before justice.

Where a new trial is directed before a justice, as prescribed in the last two sections, the parties must appear before him, at the time and place specified in the order of the appellate court, without service of any notice, or of a copy of the order. Thereupon the like proceedings must be had in the action, as upon the return of a summons personally served.

L. 1898 ch. 380.

Upon an appeal provided for in this article, the award of costs is regulated as follows:

1. If the appeal is dismissed, because neither party brings it to a hearing, as prescribed in this article, costs shall not be awarded to either party.

2. If the judgment is reversed for an error in fact, not affecting the merits; or if a new trial is directed, before the same or another justice, as prescribed in this article; the costs of the appeal are in the discretion of the appellate court.

3. If the judgment is affirmed, costs must be awarded to the respondent.

4. If the judgment is reversed, costs must be awarded to the appellant.

5. If the judgment is affirmed only in part, the costs, or such a part thereof, as to the appellate court seems just, not exceeding ten dollars, besides disbursements, may be awarded to either party.

Co. Proc., part of §§ 368 and 371.

Upon an appeal, provided for in this article, costs, when awarded, must be as follows, besides disbursements:

To the appellant, upon reversal, thirty dollars.

To the respondent, upon affirmance, twenty-five dollars.

Id., part of § 71, am'd.

ARTICLE THIRD.

Appeal for a new trial in the appellate court.

Sec. 3068. When appellant may demand new trial in appellate court.

3069. Undertaking to be given.

3070. Offer to compromise before return.

3071. Proceedings in appellate court.

3072. Offer to compromise after return.

3073. Amount of costs.

Where an issue of fact or an issue of law was joined before the justice, and the sum, for which judgment was demanded by either party in his pleading, exceeds fifty dollars; or where, in an action to recover a chattel, the value of the property, as fixed, together with the damages recovered, if any, exceeds fifty dollars; the appellant may, in his notice of appeal, except when the appeal is to the county court of Kings county, demand a new trial in the appellate court; and thereupon is entitled thereto, whether the defendant was or was not present at the trial. An appeal from a judgment of a justice's court or by a justice of the peace in the city of Brooklyn, or any of the towns in the county of Kings must be taken and disposed of in the manner prescribed in articles first and second of this chapter and title, and not otherwise.

L. 1893, ch. 380.

§ 3069. Undertaking to be given.

To render such an appeal effectual, the appellant must at the time of the service of the notice of appeal upon the justice, give the undertaking required, by this title, to stay the execution of the judgment.

Co. Proc., part of § 355.

Upon an appeal, provided for in this article, from a judgment for a sum of money only, either party may, within fifteen days after service of the notice of appeal, serve upon the adverse party, or upon his attorney, a written offer to allow judgment to be rendered in the appellate court, in favor of either party, for a specified sum. If the offer is not accepted, it cannot be proved upon the trial. If the party, within ten days after service of the offer upon him, serves upon the party making the same, or upon his attorney, written notice that he accepts the offer, he must file it, with an affidavit of service of the notice of acceptance, with the clerk of the appellate court, who thereupon must enter judgment accordingly. Where an offer is made as above provided, the party refusing to accept the same shall be liable for costs of the appeal, unless the recovery shall be more favorable to him than the sum offered. If neither party makes an offer, as provided herein, the party in whose favor the verdict, report or decision in the appellate court is given, shall be entitled to recover his costs upon the appeal. Costs when awarded according to the provisions of this section shall be in amounts provided in section three thousand and seventy-three of this article.

§ 8071. Proceedings in appellate court.

Upon an appeal, provided for in this article, after the expiration of ten days from the time of filing the justice's return, the action is deemed an action at issue in the appellate court; and all the proceedings therein, including the entry, enforcement, and review of the judgment, are the same, as if the action had been commenced in the appellate court, except as otherwise specially prescribed in this chapter.

Co. Proc., §§ 364 and 366.

§ 8072. Offer to compromise after return.

Either party may, at any time after the action is deemed at issue in the appellate court, and before the trial, serve upon the adverse party, a written offer to allow judgment to be taken against him, for a sum, or property, or to the effect, therein specified, with or without costs. If there are two or more defendants, and the action can be severed, a like offer may be made by one or more defendants, against whom a separate judgment may be taken; and, if it is accepted, the action becomes severed, and may proceed against the other defendants, as if it had been originally commenced against them only. If the party receiving the offer, within ten days thereafter, serves upon the adverse party, notice that he accepts it, he may file it, with proof of acceptance; and thereupon the clerk must enter judgment accordingly. If the offer is not thus accepted, it cannot be proved upon the trial; and if the party, to whom it is made, fails to obtain a more favorable judgment, he cannot recover costs from the time of the offer, but must pay costs from that time.

Id., § 366.

§ 8073. Amount of costs.

Upon an appeal, provided for in this article, costs, when awarded, must be as follows, besides disbursements:

For all proceedings before notice of trial, fifteen dollars.

For all subsequent proceedings before trial, ten dollars.

For the trial of an issue of law, fifteen dollars.

For the trial of an issue of fact, twenty dollars.

For the argument of a motion for a new trial on a case, fifteen dollars.

For each term, not more than five, at which the appeal is regularly on the calendar, excluding the term, at which it is tried, or otherwise finally disposed of, ten dollars.

Id., part of § 371, am'd.

TITLE IX.Costs.

Sec. 3074. When prevailing party to recover costs. What costs allowed.

3075. When neither party to recover costs.

3076. Amount of costs limited.

3077. Costs upon demurrer.

3078. Taxation of costs.

3079. Increased costs.

3080. Costs on judgment for one or more defendants.

3081. Costs wrongfully collected may be recovered back.

§ 3074. [Am'd, 1903.] When prevailing party to recover costs. What costs allowed.

Except as otherwise specially prescribed by law, a party who recovers judgment in an action in a justice's court, is entitled to costs; which must be included in the judgment. Costs consist of the fees, allowed by law, for services necessarily rendered in the action, at the request of the party entitled to costs, or paid by him, as prescribed by law; and of such other expenses, as a party is entitled to include in his costs, by express provision of law. The defendant in an action brought in a justice's court may require security for costs to be given, where the plaintiff is a foreign corporation. So far as practicable, the provisions of title three of chapter twenty-one of this act, shall apply to the proceedings for requiring such security, the requisites of the undertaking and the justification of sureties therein.

2 R. S. 247, § 126 (2 Edm. 264); L. 1857, ch. 775, § 2 (4 Edm. 700); L. 1866, ch. 692, § 2 (6 Edm. 803); L. 1903, ch. 276. In effect Sept. 1, 1903.

In either of the following cases, costs shall not be awarded to either party, but each party must pay his own costs:

1. Where the action is discontinued by the absence of the justice for more than one hour, after the summons is returnable, or after the time to which the trial has been adjourned.

2. Where the justice is disqualified, for a reason specified in section fifteen of the judiciary law.

3. Where the action is discontinued, upon the ground that the defendant is an infant, for whom a guardian ad litem has not been appointed.

4. In an action to recover one or more chattels, where the plaintiff recovers a chattel, or part of a chattel, or the value thereof, and the defendant also recovers a chattel, or part of a chattel, which has been replevied and delivered to the plaintiff, or the value thereof. The plaintiff is entitled to costs, where both parties recover, as specified in this subdivision, unless the chattel, for which the defendant recovers, has been replevied and delivered to the plaintiff.

Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3. See note 84 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 3076. [Am'd, 1895.] Amount of costs limited.

The sum to be awarded, as costs, to the prevailing party, except where it is otherwise specially prescribed by law, is limited as follows:

1. It cannot exceed fifteen dollars, besides the fees of witnesses, where, upon the trial of an issue of fact or of law, either party recovers damages to the amount of fifty dollars or more, or one or more chattels, the value of which, as fixed, together with the damages, if any, amounts to fifty dollars or more; or, where, if the defendant recovers judgment, the sum for which the plaintiff demanded judgment, was fifty dollars or more, or the value of all the chattels, to recover which the action was brought, was stated in the complaint at fifty dollars or more.

2. In every other case, it cannot exceed ten dollars, besides the fees of witnesses, attending from another county.

But the prevailing party is entitled, in addition to the sum specified in this section, to the fees and expenses allowed by law for a commission issued to examine a witness not residing in the county or in an adjoining county; and for each adjournment exceeding one, which was granted upon the application of the party against whom the judgment is rendered.

Substituted for L. 1866, ch. 692, § 2 (6 Edm. 804); L. 1841, ch. 138, § 2 (4 Edm. 548); L. 1866, ch. 507.

§ 3077. Costs upon demurrer.

Where judgment is rendered upon the trial of a demurrer, the costs of the trial must be included therein; otherwise costs are not allowed upon the trial of a demurrer.

See Co. Proc., § 64, subd. 11.

§ 3078. Taxation of costs.

Where a justice renders a judgment, he must specify, in his docket-book, the items of costs, which were allowed by him. Before any item of costs is thus allowed, other than a fee to the justice, or to a juror or witness who attended, or to a constable who has certified the amount of his fee, upon a paper filed with the justice, the party must show, by his oath, or that of his attorney, to the satisfaction of the justice, that the item was actually and legally paid or incurred.

Increased costs must be awarded in favor of the defendant, in an action in a justice's court, in a case, and increased at the rate, specified in section 3258 of this act.

In an action against two or more defendants, not united in interest, who make separate defences by separate answers, if the plaintiff fails to recover judgment against all, the justice must award costs to those who have judgment in their favor.

2 R. S. 616, § 18 (2 Edm. 690).

§ 3081. Costs wrongfully collected may be recovered back.

Where a justice includes in a judgment a greater amount of costs than is allowed by law, or an improper item of costs or fees, and the same is collected; the person from whom it was collected may, notwithstanding the judgment, recover from the justice who has received it, the amount thereof, with interest.

§ 8062. Action against person suffering animals to stray.

Any person, who suffers or permits one or more cattle, horses, colts, asses, mules, swine, sheep, or goats, to run at large, or to be herded or pastured, in a public street, highway, park or place, elsewhere than in a city, incurs thereby the penalty or penalties specified in the next section; and any resident of the town, or the officer to whom a fine or penalty is to be paid for the benefit of the poor, as prescribed in section 2875 of this act, or the overseer or superintendent of the poor of the town or district, in which one or more of those animals are found so running at large, herded, or pastured, may maintain an action against him, in a justice's court, held in that town or district, to recover the penalty or penalties so incurred. Where the action is brought by a private person, the justice must pay the proceeds of an execution, issued upon a judgment therein in favor of the plaintiff, after deducting the costs, to the officer, who might have brought the action, as prescribed in this section, to be applied by him to the support of the poor within his town or district.

L. 1862, ch. 459, § 1 (3 Edm. 547); L. 1872, ch. 776, § 1 (9 Edm. 476); L. 1897, ch. 814 (7 Edm. 185).

§ 8063. Penalties to be recovered.

If the plaintiff recovers judgment, in an action brought as prescribed in the last section, the justice must award to him the following sums, by way of penalties, besides the costs of the action:

1. For each horse, colt, ass, mule, swine, bull, ox, cow, or calf, five dollars.

2. For each sheep or goat, one dollar.

The entire amount of the penalties may be recovered, in one action, although it exceeds the sum, for which a justice can render a judgment in an ordinary action.

§ 3084. Certain officers to seize animals straying.

Where one or more cattle, horses, colts, asses, mules, swine, sheep, or goats are found running at large, or being herded or pastured, in a public street, highway, park, or place, elsewhere than in a city, the overseer of highways of the road district, or, if they are so found within an incorporated village, the street commissioner thereof, having personal knowledge or being notified of the fact, must immediately seize the animal or animals, and keep it or them in his possession, until disposed of as prescribed in the following sections of this title.

See note to § 3082, ante.

Any person may seize one or more animals specified in the last section, then running at large, or being herded or pastured, in a public street, highway, park, or place, elsewhere than in a city, bordering upon real property owned or occupied by him; or then trespassing upon real property so owned or occupied, having entered thereupon from such a public street, highway, park, or place. The person making the seizure, must keep the animal or animals seized, in his possession, until disposed of as prescribed in the following sections of this title.

See L. 1862, ch. 459, § 2, and L. 1867, ch. 814, § 2 (7 Edm. 185).

An officer or other person, who seizes an animal or animals, as prescribed in either of the last two sections, must immediately file, with a justice of the peace of the town in which the seizure was made, a written petition, verified by his oath: setting forth the facts which bring the case within either of those sections; briefly describing the animal or animals seized; stating either the name of the owner, or that his name is not known to the petitioner, and cannot be ascertained by him with reasonable diligence; and praying for a final order, directing the sale of the animal or animals seized, and the application of the proceeds thereof, as prescribed in this title. Where the petition alleges, that any animal or animals seized, were then trespassing upon real property owned or occupied by the petitioner, it must state the amount of the damages, if any, which the petitioner has sustained thereby. In that case, the decision of the justice, or, where the issues are tried by a jury, the verdict must fix the amount of the damages.

See Id., § 3, and L. 1867, ch. 814, § 2 (7 Edm. 185).

§ 3087. Precept thereupon.

Upon the presentation of the petition, the justice must issue a precept under his hand: directed to the owner, if his name is stated in the petition, or, if it is not so stated, directed generally to all persons having an interest in the animal or animals seized; briefly reciting the substance of the petition; describing the animal or animals seized, and requiring the person or persons, to whom the precept is directed, to show cause before the justice, at a time and place specified therein, not less than ten nor more than twenty days, after the issuing of the precept, why the prayer of the petition should not be granted.

3088. Id.; how served.

The precept must be served upon the person, to whom it is directed by his name, within the same time, and in like manner as a summons is required to be served, as prescribed in section 2910 of this act. Where it is directed generally to all persons, having an interest in the animal or animals seized, it may be served by a constable of the town, or by an elector thereof, specially authorized so to do by a written indorsement upon the precept, under the hand of the justice, by posting a copy thereof in at least six public and conspicuous places in the town where the seizure was made; one of which places must be the nearest district school house, or, if the seizure was made within an incorporated village, having schools in charge of a board of education, a building in which such a school is kept. Each copy must be so posted, within two days after the precept is issued. Where the precept is directed to a person by his name, and proof is made by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the justice, that it cannot, with reasonable diligence, be personally served upon that person, within the county, at least six days before the return day thereof, the justice may, by a written order, direct that service thereof be made, by posting copies thereof, at least five days before the return day, as prescribed in this section; in which case, service thereof may be made accordingly.

At the place where the precept is returnable, and at the expiration of the time specified in section 2893 of this act, the petitioner must, unless the precept is directed to a person by his name, and he appears, furnish proof of the service of the precept, as prescribed in the last section. If it was served by a constable, either personally or by posting, his written return upon the precept is sufficient proof of the facts relating to the service, as stated therein. If it was served by a private person, proof of service must be made by affidavit.

The owner, or a person having an interest in any animal seized, may appear upon the return of the precept, and thereby make himself a party to the special proceeding. The person so appearing may, upon the return of the precept, file a written answer, subscribed by him or his attorney, and verified by the oath of the person subscribing it, denying, absolutely or upon information and belief, one or more material allegations contained in the petition. His answer must also set forth his interest in the animal or animals seized. The subsequent proceedings must be the same as in an action in a justice's court, wherein an issue of fact has been joined, except as otherwise specially prescribed in this title.

If no person appears and answers, or if the decision of the justice, or the verdict of the jury, where the issues were tried by a jury, is in favor of the petitioner, the justice must make a final order, directing the sale of the animal or animals seized, and the application of the proceeds thereof, as prescribed in this title. Thereupon the justice must issue a warrant, under his hand, directed generally to any constable of the county, commanding him to sell the animal or animals seized, at public auction, for the best price which he can obtain therefor; and to make return thereof to the justice, at a time and place therein specified, not less than ten nor more than twenty days thereafter. The sale must be made upon the like notice, and in like manner, as a sale of property, by virtue of an execution issued by a justice of the peace; and the constable must make return, as required by the warrant, and must pay the proceeds of the sale to the justice, deducting therefrom his fees, at the rate allowed by law for the collection of such an execution.

§ 3092. Application of proceeds of sale.

The justice must apply the proceeds of the sale as follows:

1. He must pay the costs of the petitioner, as taxed by the justice, at the same rates as the costs of an action brought before him, including the justice's fees in such an action; and also the fees for the service of the precept, either personally or by posting, at the rate allowed by law for personal service of a summons by a constable.

2. Out of the remainder of the proceeds, he may retain to his own use, a fee of one dollar, for each animal sold.

3. Out of the remainder of the proceeds, he must pay to the officer, or other person making the seizure, the following fees, for the seizure of each animal seized and sold, to wit: one dollar for each horse, colt, ass, or mule; fifty cents for each bull, ox, cow, or calf; and twenty-five cents for each goat, sheep, or swine; together with a reasonable compensation, fixed by him, for the care and keeping of each animal, from the time of the seizure to the time of the sale; and, also, where any animal sold was seized, while trespassing upon real property owned or occupied by the petitioner, the damages sustained by the petitioner in consequence thereof, as ascertained by the decision of the justice, or the verdict of the jury upon which the final order was made.

4. Out of the remainder of the proceeds, he must pay to the officer, to whom a fine or penalty is to be paid for the benefit of the poor, as prescribed in section 2875 of this act, the following penalties, to wit: five dollars for each horse, colt, ass, mule, bull, ox, cow, calf, or swine, seized and sold; and one dollar for each sheep or goat, seized and sold; which penalties must be received by the officer, for the benefit of the poor of his town or district.

5. If any surplus remains, he must pay the same to the person or persons entitled thereto, as prescribed in the following sections of this title.

§ 3093. Disposition of surplus.

Any person may, within ten days after the return of the warrant, file, with the justice, a written claim to the surplus of the proceeds of the sale, or to any part thereof. On the eleventh day after the return, or, if it is a Sunday or a public holiday, on the first day thereafter, which is neither Sunday nor a public holiday, the justice must proceed to inquire into the claims so filed; and, for the purpose of determining them, he must hear the allegations and proofs of each claimant; and he may issue subpoenas, as upon the trial of an action. He may, upon the application of any claimant, and for good cause shown, adjourn the hearing, from time to time, but not more than thirty days in all. After hearing the allegations and proofs of all the claimants, he must decide the claims, and enter an order accordingly. If no claim is filed; or if the right to the surplus money, or any part thereof, is not established, to the satisfaction of the justice, as prescribed in this section; any person, whose claim was not determined upon the hearing, may file a claim thereto, at any time before the expiration of a year from the return of the warrant; and, thereupon, the justice must proceed, as prescribed in this section with respect to a claim filed within the ten days.

§ 3004. Id.; when no claim made within a year.

If, at the expiration of one year after the return of the warrant, any portion of the surplus remains, a claim to which has not been established to the satisfaction of the justice, pursuant to the provisions of the last section, the justice must pay it, for the benefit of the poor, to the officer to whom a fine or penalty is to be paid for the benefit of the poor, as prescribed in section 2875 of this act; and, thereupon, all persons are forever barred from any claim thereto. But if a claim, filed as prescribed in the last section, remains undetermined at the expiration of the year, the justice must determine it within ten days thereafter; and, for that purpose, he must retain the surplus in his hands until the determination.

§ 3005. Order upon claim for surplus; appeal therefrom.

An appeal from an order determining a claim, as prescribed in the last two sections, may be taken to the county court, by a claimant, within ten days after the making of the order, as from a judgment of a justice in an action to recover a sum equal to the claim; and the proceedings thereupon are the same, except that an undertaking is not necessary for any purpose. Upon such an appeal, each other claimant, whose interest is affected by the order appealed from, must be made a respondent. If there is no such claimant, the officer entitled to the surplus must be made respondent; but costs cannot be awarded against him, unless he appears upon the appeal; in which case, the costs are in the discretion of the appellate court. Where an appeal, taken as prescribed in this section, is perfected, the county judge may, in his discretion, make an order extending the time, within which payment of the surplus must be made, as prescribed in the last section, and staying payment accordingly. Unless such an order is made, and a copy thereof is served upon the justice, payment must be made as prescribed in the last section, notwithstanding the appeal; and upon proof of the payment, the appeal must be dismissed. Where an appeal is taken to the supreme court, from the determination of the county court, the county judge, or a justice of the supreme court may make a like order, and with like effect.

§ 3006. Proceedings upon decision in favor of person answering.

If the decision of the justice, or the verdict of the jury, where the issues are tried by a jury, is in favor of the person answering, it must fix the value of each animal seized. If the justice or the jury find that the seizure was malicious, and without probable cause, the decision or verdict must assess the damages sustained by the person answering, by means of the seizure and detention. The justice must thereupon make a final order, awarding to the person so answering, the return of the animal or animals so seized, or the value thereof if a return cannot be had; together with his costs, at the rates allowed by law in an action brought before him to recover a chattel; and, also, twice the sum assessed as his damages, if any. Thereupon a warrant must be issued by the justice to a constable, to the same effect, as an execution issued, in an action to recover a chattel, upon a judgment in favor of the defendant, where the chattel has not been delivered to him; and each provision of this chapter, relating to a judgment and an execution in such a case, applies to a final order made, and a warrant issued thereupon, as prescribed in this section.

See L. 1867, ch. 814, § 7 (7 Edm. 189).

At any time after the precept is issued, and before the commencement of the trial, the owner of any animal seized may file with the justice a written demand of the possession thereof. Thereupon he is entitled to the possession, upon complying with the following terms:

1. He must pay to the justice, for the use of the petitioner, the costs of the proceedings, to the time of filing the demand, as prescribed in subdivision first of section 3092 of this act, and, also, the sums payable on account of each animal, whereof possession is so demanded, as prescribed in subdivision third of the same section; which sums must be fixed by the justice, after hearing the allegations and proofs of the parties.

2. He must also pay to the justice, a fee of one dollar for each animal, whereof possession is so demanded.

3. If the petitioner is an officer, to whom a fine or penalty is to be paid for the benefit of the poor, as prescribed in section 2875 of this act, the claimant must also pay to the justice, for the petitioner's use, the sum specified therein on account of each animal, whereof possession is so demanded.

4. The claimant must also prove, to the satisfaction of the justice, by affidavit or other competent evidence, that he is the owner of each animal, whereof possession is so demanded. Each person who has appeared must have notice of, and may oppose, the claim.

Id., § 4.

§ 3098. Id.; when animal wilfully set at large by third person.

But where, in a case specified in the last section, the person filing a demand, presents therewith to the justice sufficient proof, by affidavit or otherwise, that the running at large, herding, pasturing, or trespassing, by reason whereof the animal or animals, of which he demands possession, were seized, was caused by the wilful act, intended to effect that object, of a person other than the owner; and also makes the proof specified in subdivision fourth of that section; he is entitled to possession, pursuant to his demand, upon paying to the petitioner, or to the justice for his use, a reasonable sum, to be fixed by the justice, after hearing the allegations and proofs of the parties, as compensation for the care and keeping of the animal or animals, whereof possession is so demanded, and without paying any other sum, specified in the last section.

See L. 1869, ch. 424 (7 Edm. 448), part of § 5.

§ 3099. Action by owner in such a case.

The owner of an animal, seized in consequence of a wilful act specified in the last section, may recover, in an action against the person who committed it, all damages sustained by him, in consequence thereof, including the sum paid in order to recover possession of the animal, as prescribed in the last section; and, in addition thereto, the sum of twenty dollars for each animal seized.

Id., remainder of § 5.

Where the possession of an animal has been delivered, as prescribed in the last section but one, an action may also be maintained, by the petitioner in the special proceeding before the justice, against the person who committed the wilful act, to recover, in addition to all other damages sustained by the plaintiff in consequence of the wilful act, all sums, to which the plaintiff would have been entitled out of the proceeds of the sale, as prescribed in section 3092 of this act, other than the compensation paid for the care and keeping of the animal. In the like case, if the petitioner is a private person, the officer, to whom a fine or penalty is to be paid for the benefit of the poor, as prescribed in section 2875 of this act, may maintain an action against the person, who committed the wilful act, to recover the penalties to which the plaintiff would have been entitled, out of the proceeds of the sale, as prescribed in that subdivision. Neither of the actions specified in this or the last section is affected by the pendency of, or the recovery of judgment in, either of the others.

A person, entitled to demand the possession of an animal, as prescribed in section 3097 of this act, who did not appear upon the return of the precept, or upon the trial, may file, with the justice, a written demand of the possession, at any time after the final order, and not less than three days before the time appointed for the sale; and, thereupon, he is entitled to the possession, upon complying with the following terms:

1. He must furnish, by affidavit or other competent evidence, a sufficient excuse, to the satisfaction of the justice, for his failure to appear.

2. He must, in all respects, comply with the provisions of section 3097 of this act; except that it is necessary for him to pay only one-half of the justice's fee, as prescribed in subdivision second of that section; and one-half of the fees payable to the petitioner, for the seizure of each animal, as prescribed in subdivision third of section 3092 of this act.

See L. 1867, ch. 814, part of § 4.

Where a demand for the return of the possession of an animal is filed, as prescribed in either of the last five sections, the justice must, at the request of either party thereto, make, and enter in his minutes, an order determining the same. An appeal from such an order may be taken to the county court, by the person making the demand, or by either party to the special proceeding, at any time before the final order in the special proceeding is made; and each person or party so entitled to appeal, must be made a respondent upon an appeal taken by one of the others. The appeal must be taken in like manner, as an appeal from a judgment of the justice in an action to recover a chattel; and the proceedings thereupon are the same, except as otherwise prescribed in the next section.

§ 8103. Id.; stay of proceedings.

An appeal from an order, specified in the last section, is not effectual for any purpose, unless the appellant procures from the county judge, an order directing a stay of the proceedings upon the petition, and a stay of the execution of the order appealed from, and files it with the justice, within the time allowed for the appeal. The order may be granted or refused, in the discretion of the county judge, or granted upon such terms, as to security or otherwise, as he thinks proper; and it may be vacated or modified, either absolutely, or unless further security is given, in his discretion.

§ 8104. Appeal from final order.

Within ten days after a final order upon a petition is made, as prescribed in this title, an appeal therefrom may be taken by the petitioner, or by the person answering, in like manner as an appeal from a judgment of the justice in an action to recover a sum of money, equal to the value of the animal or animals, and the proceedings thereupon are the same, except as otherwise prescribed in the next section.

See L. 1867, ch. 814, part of § 6.

§ 8105. Id.; by claimant; stay of proceedings and delivery of possession.

An appeal from a final order, taken as prescribed in the last section, by the person answering, is not effectual for any purpose, unless the appellant files, with the notice of appeal, an order of the county judge, or, if he is absent from the county, of a justice of the supreme court, reciting that the appeal has been perfected, and that security has been given thereupon, as prescribed in this section, and directing a stay of proceedings upon the final order appealed from, and that the possession of the animal or animals seized be delivered to the appellant. The order can be made only where an undertaking is given by the appellant, as required for the purpose of perfecting an appeal from a judgment, and staying the execution thereof; and also an undertaking, in the same or another instrument, to the effect that, if the final order appealed from is affirmed, or if the appeal is dismissed, the appellant will pay all sums which the justice awards against him, upon the hearing after the determination of the appeal, as prescribed in the next section, not exceeding a sum specified therein; which must be, at least, twice the amount of all the sums, which might be deducted from the proceeds of the sale, as prescribed in section 3092 of this act. The sum must be fixed, and the undertaking must be approved, by the judge who grants the order. Upon filing the order with the justice, the appellant is forthwith entitled to the possession of the animal or animals seized.

If the final order appealed from is affirmed, upon an appeal taken by the person answering, the county court must appoint a time and place, at which the justice must fix the sums payable by the appellant, pursuant to his undertaking. The justice may adjourn the hearing to another place, and to another time, not exceeding three days after the time so appointed. The justice must fix the sums so payable, as if a warrant for the sale of the animals seized had been returned, and the proceeds thereof paid to him by the constable, as prescribed in section 5092 of his act. The undertaking upon the appeal inures to the benefit of each officer, to whom any sum is payable, as prescribed in that section; and with respect to any of those sums, the respondent is a trustee for the officer entitled thereto.

§ 8107. Limitation of action for seizing animals.

Where an animal is seized, upon the ground that it was running at large, or was being herded or pastured, or was trespassing, contrary to the provisions of this title; and the officer or other person making the seizure, immediately files his petition, and diligently prosecutes the same, as prescribed in this title; an action to recover the animal so seized, or to recover damages for the seizure, or for any act subsequent thereto, must be commenced within one year after the cause of action accrues.

L. 1897, ch. 814, § 7.

§ 8108. Certain actions cannot be maintained.

A person, to whom the precept was directed by his name, and who was personally served therewith, or a person who has appeared and answered in the special proceeding, or demanded the return of any animal seized, cannot maintain an action against the officer or other person seizing an animal, or a person acting by his command, or in his aid, in a case specified in the last section. But, except as specified in this section, the owner of an animal seized or detained, under color of any provision of this title, may maintain an action to recover the animal, or its value, or damages, for the seizure or detention, or for any unlawful act subsequent thereto, if, in fact, the animal was not, at the time of the seizure, running at large, or being herded or pastured, or trespassing, as the case may be, as specified in the foregoing provisions of this title.

§ 8109. Where several animals are trespassing, damages are entire. Proceedings in such cases.

For the purpose of determining the damages sustained by the petitioner, where two or more animals are found simultaneously trespassing upon real property, owned or occupied by him, all the damage done by all the animals seized, is to be regarded as done by them jointly; and the petitioner's remedy therefor is entire, and must be enforced against all the animals, and the proceeds of the sale thereof. Where different persons, who are known, own different animals seized, the precept must be directed to all of them by their names. If one or more of the owners are known, and the others are unknown, and cannot be ascertained with reasonable diligence, the precept must be directed to each known owner, by his name, and, also generally to all persons having an interest in those animals, the owners of which are unknown. In a case specified in this section, a demand of the possession of an animal seized cannot be made, as prescribed in section 3007 or 3101 of this act, unless it is made with respect to all the animals seized, and by persons entitled to the possession of all of them. But a separate demand may be made, as prescribed in section 3008 of this act, by each owner of one or more animals seized; in which case, if possession is delivered to him, as prescribed in that section, the petitioner's remedy for his damages is the same, with respect to the animal or animals, of which possession is not so delivered, and against the proceeds of the sale thereof, as if those, whereof possession is so delivered, had not been trespassing upon the property.

§ 3110. Proceedings in other cases, where there are different owners.

Where the petitioner does not allege, that the animals seized, were trespassing upon real property owned or occupied by him, and different persons own different animals seized, a separate special proceeding may be instituted, as prescribed in this title, against each owner, or against any two or more owners, with respect to the animals owned by him or them. Or the proceedings may be taken against all the owners jointly; in which case, each person to whom the precept is directed by his name, and each person having an interest in an animal seized, has the same right to demand the possession of the animal owned by him, and the same right to answer separately, as if the special proceeding was against him separately; and the final order may be in favor of one or more of the persons so answering, with respect to the animal or animals owned by him or them, and for his or their costs; and against the remainder of the persons answering, or to whom the precept was directed, or for the sale of the remainder of the animals, in like manner, as if the former persons had not answered, or had not been named in the precept. But the person, first making a demand of the possession of any animal seized, must pay all the costs to the time of the demand; and a person, subsequently making a demand, is excused from the payment of any costs, except those which have accrued since the former demand.

§ 3111. Surplus where there are different owners.

Where proceedings are taken jointly against different persons, who own different animals seized, as prescribed in either of the last two sections, the surplus, remaining in the justice's hands, must be distributed between them, in proportion to the value of the animals owned by each, to be determined by the justice. Any owner may claim separately his proportion of the surplus; and sections 3003 and 3004 of this act apply to a claim made, and to the disposition of the surplus arising, as prescribed in this section.

Where two or more persons, or an officer and a private person, are authorized, by this title, to bring an action, or to seize an animal, and take the proceedings prescribed in this title for the disposition thereof, the commencement of an action, or the seizure of the animal, by either of them, supersedes the right of any of the others to bring such an action, or to make such a seizure, with respect to the animal seized, or in question in the action. But the justice may, in his discretion, allow an officer or other person, who is interested in the recovery, or in the application of the proceeds of the sale, to appear in the action or special proceeding, for the purpose of protecting his interest, and to take such part in the proceedings therein as the justice thinks proper.

§ 3113. Rights of officer when private person fails to prosecute.

Where a seizure is made by a private person, as prescribed in this title, and the possession of an animal seized is abandoned by him, without filing a petition; or where an action, brought by a private person, as prescribed in this title, is settled or discontinued by the plaintiff; the officer, to whom a penalty is payable, as prescribed in section 3083 of this act, or in subdivision fourth of section 3092 of this act, may, unless he has assented to the abandonment, settlement, or discontinuance, maintain an action against the owner of the animal in question, to recover the penalty so payable to him; and, upon proof of the facts, which would have entitled the plaintiff in the former action, or the petitioner in the special proceeding, to recover, he is entitled to judgment accordingly.

When a person is, at the time of the seizure, entitled to the possession of an animal, as against the general owner thereof, by virtue of a special property therein, he is deemed, for all the purposes of this title, the owner thereof.

The duly authorized agent of the owner or person entitled to the possession of an animal, as specified in the last section, may, in his own name, answer, make any demand, or take any other proceeding, which the owner or person so entitled may take, as prescribed in this title.

§ 3121. Interpreter for police court, and for first, second and third districts.

There is an interpreter for the police court of the city of Brooklyn, and the justices' courts of the first, second, and third districts of that city, who is appointed, and may be removed at pleasure, by the justices of those courts, or a majority of them. He is entitled to an annual salary, fixed and to be paid as prescribed by law.

L. 1870, ch. 607.

There is an interpreter for the justices' courts of the fourth and fifth districts of the city of Brooklyn, who is appointed, and may be removed at pleasure, by the justices of the peace of those districts. He is entitled to an annual salary, fixed and to be paid as prescribed by law.

L. 1871, ch. 331.

There is an interpreter for the justice's court of the sixth district of the city of Brooklyn, who is appointed by the justice of the peace of that district, subject to confirmation by the common council, and may be removed by that justice at his pleasure. He is entitled to an annual salary, fixed and to be paid as prescribed by law.

L. 1873, ch. 780, § 2.

The common council of the city of Brooklyn may, where it deems it necessary, upon the request of a justice, appoint one or more interpreters for justices' courts in that city, in addition to those provided for in the last three sections; fix their salaries; and prescribe the court or courts which they must attend. An officer, so appointed, may be removed by the common council, for cause.

L. 1875, ch. 623.

§ 3125. Common council to designate attendants, etc.

The common council of the city of Brooklyn may designate one or more policemen, or constables, to attend each of the justices' courts in that city. The common council may, by ordinance or otherwise, fix and define their duties in and about those courts, and may allow them such compensation, in lieu of all fees and perquisites, as it deems proper.

§ 3132. Repealed, 1902. See the Municipal Court Act of New York city.

§ 3133. Application of other provisions. Holding court open.

Each justice of the peace of the city of Brooklyn is a justice of the peace of Kings county; and each provision of this act, relating to the proceedings before a justice of the peace of a town, applies to the proceedings before a justice of the peace of that city, except as otherwise specially prescribed in this title. Each of those justices must hold his court open, from nine o'clock in the morning, until three o'clock in the afternoon.

See L. 1849, ch. 125, §§ 35 and 36; L. 1850, ch. 102, § 18; L. 1871, ch. 492, § 8; L. 1873, ch. 863, part of § 16.

TITLE XII

Miscellaneous provisions.

- Sec. 8134. Mode of application of certain provisions of this act.
 8135. General requisites of mandates.
 8136. Reward to constable forbidden.
 8137. Justice or constable not to u. y. claim, etc.
 8138. Penalty.
 8139. Violation of preceding sections a defence of action.
 8140, 8141. Docket-book to be kept by justice, entries therein.
 8142. Index to docket-book.
 8143. Papers to be filed.
 8144. Deposit of books and papers with town or city clerk.
 8145. Certificate in docket-book deposited.
 8146. Town or city clerk to demand books, etc., upon death, etc., of justice.
 8147. Delivery; how compelled.
 8148. Entries to be evidence.
 8149. Justice to furnish copies of papers.
 8150. Transfer of action when justice's term expires, etc.
 8151. Id.; when justice is a witness.
 8152. Proceedings upon transfer.
 8153. Penalty for not paying over money.
 8154. Action on judgment of justice.
 8155. Id.; proof of judgment, etc.
 8156. Execution of mandate by private person.
 8157. Constable to execute mandates in person.
 8158. Sheriff to act where execution of mandate is resisted.

§ 3134. Mode of application of certain provisions of this act.

Where a provision of this act, not contained in this chapter, is made applicable to proceedings before a justice of the peace, the application is subject to the qualification, that it does not include any thing, which is repugnant to any special provision of law, regulating the jurisdiction or powers of a justice of the peace, or the proceedings before him. Where a provision, thus made applicable, relates to the filing of a paper in a court, or with a clerk, the paper must, in an action or special proceeding before a justice of the peace, be filed with the justice, unless he has a clerk appointed pursuant to law; and where it confers a power upon a court or a judge, the provision, making it applicable to proceedings taken under this chapter, is to be construed, as conferring a like power upon the justice, before whom the action or special proceeding is brought.

§ 3135. General requisites of mandates.

A mandate, issued by a justice of the peace, must be signed by him, and may be without seal. It must be entirely filled up, at the time when it is delivered to an officer to be executed, so as to have no blank, either in the date thereof or otherwise; except that there may be a blank in a subpoena for the name of any or all of the witnesses. A mandate, issued and delivered to an officer to be executed, contrary to this section, is void.

2 R. S. 267, §§ 232 and 233 (2 Edm. 275).

§ 3136. Reward to constable forbidden.

A constable shall not ask or receive any money or other valuable thing from any person, as a consideration, reward, or inducement for omitting or delaying to arrest a person, or to take him to jail, or to sell property, by virtue of an execution, or to execute any other duty, pertaining to his office; or any money or valuable thing, other than the fees expressly allowed to him by law, for executing any duty pertaining to his office.

2 R. S. 267, § 234.

§ 3137. Justice or constable not to buy claim, etc.

A justice of the peace or constable shall not, directly or indirectly, buy, or be interested in buying, a bond, note, or other demand or cause of action, for the purpose of bringing an action or instituting a special proceeding before a justice founded thereupon; nor shall a justice or a constable, either before or after an action or a special proceeding is commenced, lend or advance, or agree to lend or advance, or procure to be lent or advanced, any money or other valuable thing to any person, in consideration of, or as a reward for, or an inducement to, the placing or having placed in his hands, a debt or other demand or cause of action, for prosecution or collection.

Id., § 235.

A justice of the peace or constable who violates a provision of the last three sections, is guilty of a misdemeanor; and shall be punished accordingly. A conviction also operates as a forfeiture of his office.

Id., § 236.

§ 3139. Violation of preceding sections a defence to action.

It is a defence to an action, brought before a justice of the peace, that the demand, upon which it is founded, was bought and sold, or received for prosecution, contrary to the foregoing provisions of this title. In an action wherein such a defence is interposed, if the plaintiff, after being duly subpoenaed as a witness, fails to attend, pursuant to the subpoena; or if, upon the trial, or upon his examination as a witness by virtue of a commission, he refuses to answer any question pertinent to show a violation of either of those provisions; the justice, besides punishing him, in a proper case, for his failure or refusal, must dismiss his complaint. The testimony, in such an action, of the plaintiff, or any other witness, is not evidence, in a criminal prosecution against him, for violating either of those provisions.

Id., §§ 237-242.

A justice of the peace must keep a docket-book, in which he must enter:

1. The title of every action or special proceeding commenced before him.
2. The time when the summons, or the mandate for the commencement of the special proceeding, was issued; with a statement of the nature of the mandate, and a memorandum of each order of arrest, warrant of attachment, or requisition to replevy, granted by him.
3. The time when the parties appeared before him, either without process, or upon the return of the summons, or of the mandate for the commencement of the special proceeding.
4. A concise statement of the substance of each oral pleading, or a memorandum of the filing of each written pleading.

5. Each adjournment; stating upon whose application, and to what time and place, it was made.

6. The issuing of a venire; stating upon whose application it was issued, and the time and place of the return thereof.

7. The time when a trial was had; and, if it was by a jury, the names of all the persons returned as having been notified to attend as jurors; stating who did not attend; who attended; and who were sworn.

8. The name of each witness sworn upon the trial; stating at whose request he was sworn; each objection made to the competency of a witness; and the decision thereupon.

9. The verdict of the jury, and the time of receiving it; or, if the jury disagreed and were discharged, a statement of that fact.

10. A concise statement of the substance of each order, made by him in the course of the action or special proceeding.

11. The judgment or final order; and the time of entering it.

12. The execution; the time of issuing it; the kind of execution; the name of the officer to whom it was delivered; and each renewal, with the date thereof.

13. The return of each execution; the time of the return; and a statement of any money paid to the justice thereupon, and when and by whom it was paid.

14. Each transcript of the judgment, given by him to be filed in the county clerk's office, and the time when it was given.

15. The appeal, if any; and the time of service of the notice of appeal.

16. [Added, 1899.] Such entries shall be made in a book which must be furnished to him by the clerk of the town in which he resides and to be designated as "justices' civil docket" and to be the property of, and a charge against, such town.

§ 3141. The same.

Each of the entries, specified in the last section, must be made under the title of the action or special proceeding to which it relates; and, in addition thereto, the justice may enter in like manner any other proceeding, had before him in the action or special proceeding, which he thinks proper to enter. A docket-book, kept by a justice, must be kept open, during the hours, when a sheriff's office is required by law to be kept open, for search and examination by any person, upon his reasonable request and to a reasonable extent.

Id., § 244.

§ 3142. Index to docket-book.

A justice of the peace must keep an alphabetical index to all the judgments, entered by him in his docket-book; and he must insert therein the names of all the parties to each judgment, and the page of the book, where the judgment is entered.

Id., § 251.

§ 3143. Papers to be filed.

A justice of the peace must carefully file and preserve each affidavit or other paper, delivered to him to be filed in an action or special proceeding.

Id., § 250.

§ 3144. Deposit of books and papers with town or city clerk.

If a justice of the peace, either before or after the expiration of his term of office, removes from the town or city wherein he was elected, he must forthwith deposit, with the clerk of that town or city, his docket-book, and all other books and papers, in his custody, relating to an action or a special proceeding, which has been heard by him, or commenced before him. A justice who is removed from office, must make a like deposit, within ten days after receiving notice of his removal, or afterwards, upon the demand of the clerk of the town or city. But the omission of the justice to make the deposit, does not affect the validity of any book or paper, so required to be deposited, or of any proceeding to which it relates.

2 R. S. 267, §§ 252 and 253.

§ 3145. Certificate in docket-book deposited.

A justice of the peace must make, in each docket-book deposited by him, as prescribed in the last section, a certificate under his hand, to the effect that each judgment or order, entered therein, was duly rendered or made, as therein stated; and that the sum, appearing by the book to be due thereupon, has not been paid, to his knowledge.

Id., § 254.

§ 3146. [Am'd, 1905.] Town or city clerk to demand books, et cetera, upon death, et cetera, of justice.

Am'd L. 1911, ch. 448

If a justice of the peace dies, or his office becomes otherwise vacant, the town or city clerk must demand and receive all books and papers, which belonged to the justice in his official capacity, from any person having them in his possession, and such clerk may make and issue a transcript of a judgment so rendered by such a justice of the peace and appearing upon the docket of such justice of the peace so on file in his office, upon receiving his fees for the same, which shall be the same now allowed a justice of the peace for issuing a transcript, and such transcript so issued by such clerk shall have the same force and effect as though the same had been issued by such justice of the peace during his term of office.

Id., § 255; L. 1905, ch. 436. In effect Sept. 1, 1905.

If any book or paper, required to be deposited with the town or city clerk, as prescribed in this title, is withheld, the like proceedings may be had, at the instance of the town or city clerk, to compel the deposit thereof, as are prescribed by law, where an officer refuses or neglects to deliver a book or paper in his custody as such officer, to his successor in office.

Id., § 256.

§ 3148. Entries to be evidence.

An entry made, as prescribed by law, in the docket-book, kept by a justice of the peace, and deposited with the town or city clerk, as prescribed in this title, is presumptive evidence of the matters of fact stated therein; but the presumption may be repelled by proof.

Id., § 257.

§ 3149. Justice to furnish copies of papers.

A justice of the peace must furnish, upon request and payment of his fees, to any person interested in a judgment or order entered by him, a transcript of the judgment or order, together with a copy of all the entries in his docket-book, relating to the cause; a copy of his minutes of the evidence in the cause, or the substance of the testimony, if he has not taken minutes; and a copy of any paper on file in the cause: or such portions thereof as are required.

L. 1841, ch. 141, § 11 (1 Edm. 546).

§ 3150. Transfer of action when justice's term expires, etc.

If the term of office of a justice of the peace is about to expire, or he is about to remove from the town or city, before judgment is rendered in an action, or a final order is made in a special proceeding, pending before him, he must previously make a written order, reciting the fact, and directing the action or special proceeding to be continued before another justice of the same town or city, named in the order.

§ 3151. Id.; when justice is a witness.

If, before an issue of fact is joined in an action or special proceeding, the defendant, or, where he has not been arrested, his attorney, presents to the justice satisfactory proof, by affidavit, that the justice, before whom the action or special proceeding is pending, is a material witness for the defendant, without whose testimony he cannot safely proceed to trial, setting forth therein the particular facts and circumstances, which he expects to prove by him: the justice must forthwith make a written order, directing the action or special proceeding to be continued before another justice of the same town or city, named in the order.

See 2 R. S. 229, § 21 (2 Edm. 215); also, id., § 118, am'd, L. 1838, ch. 243; L. 1875, ch. 334.

§ 3152. Proceedings upon transfer.

Where an order is made, as prescribed in either of the last two sections, the constable must forthwith take it and all other papers in the action, with the body of the defendant, if he is under arrest, before the justice named in the order. The plaintiff or petitioner must forthwith appear before that justice, who must take cognizance of the action or special proceeding, and must proceed therein as if it had been commenced before him. Costs, recovered in the action or special proceeding, include the fees allowed by law, for services performed by the constable and the justice, before the transfer, together with the fees allowed by law, for the proceedings before the justice to whom the cause is transferred.

§ 3153. Penalty for not paying over money.

A justice of the peace, who neglects or refuses, within a reasonable time after demand, to pay any money, collected by him in his official capacity, to the person entitled thereto, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished accordingly. A conviction also operates as a forfeiture of his office.

Section 259 of R. S.

§ 3154. Action on judgment of justice.

In an action upon a judgment of a justice of the peace, brought in the county wherein it was rendered, within five years after the rendition thereof, against a defendant upon whom the summons was personally served, no costs can be recovered, except where the justice, who rendered the judgment, is dead, or out of office, or otherwise incapable of acting: or has removed from the county: or where one of the parties has died: or where the docket of the judgment has been lost or destroyed.

Co. Proc., § 71, last clause.

§ 3155. Id.; proof of judgment, etc.

In an action brought upon a judgment of a justice of the peace, who is dead, or out of office, or otherwise incapable of acting; or has removed from the county; or cannot be found therein; the original docket-book of the justice is presumptive evidence of any matter entered therein, as prescribed by law; but the presumption may be repelled by proof. If the docket-book is lost or destroyed, or if it cannot be produced, after reasonable effort to obtain it, the like proof may be given, respecting the recovery of the judgment, as upon any other question of fact.

Sections 285 and 287, R. S.

§ 3156. Execution of mandate by private person.

A justice of the peace, who issues any mandate, authorized by this chapter, except a venire, may, at the request of the party, whenever he deems it expedient so to do, empower, by a written authority indorsed upon the mandate, any proper person of full age, not a party to the action, to serve or otherwise execute it. For that purpose the person so empowered has all the power and authority, and is subject to all the obligations and liabilities, of a constable; and his return is evidence in like manner as a constable's. But a person so empowered is not entitled to any fee or reward for his services.

Sections 271 and 272, R. S. See § 2885, ante.

§ 3157. Constable to execute mandates in person.

A constable, to whom a mandate is directed and delivered as prescribed in this chapter, must execute it in person, pursuant to the tenor thereof. He cannot act by deputy in such a case.

Section 273, R. S. See § 2885, ante.

If a constable, to whom a mandate, issued by a justice of the peace, is directed and delivered, finds, or has reason to apprehend, that resistance will be made to the execution thereof, he may deliver it to the sheriff of the county, with a written certificate, stating the facts, and requiring the sheriff to execute it. Thereupon the sheriff must execute the mandate; and he is subject to all the liabilities attaching to a constable in executing it. Sections four hundred and four hundred and one of the judiciary law apply to a mandate delivered to a sheriff, as prescribed in this section.

Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3. See note 85 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

CHAPTER XX.

Provisions Relating to Certain Courts in Cities, and the Proceedings Therein.

TITLE I.—The City Court of the City of New York.

TITLE II.—The Mayor's Court of the City of Hudson, and the Recorders' Courts of the Cities of Utica and Oswego.

TITLE III.—The City Court of Yonkers.

TITLE IV.—The District Courts of the City of New York, and the Justices' Courts of the Cities of Albany and Troy.

TITLE V.—The Municipal Court of the City of Rochester.

TITLE I.

The city court of the city of New York.

Article 1. Provisions generally applicable to proceedings in the court.

2. Provisions exclusively applicable to the proceedings, other than appeals, in an ordinary action.
3. Provisions exclusively applicable to the proceedings, other than appeals, in certain marine causes.
4. Appeals.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Provisions generally applicable to proceedings in the court.

Sec. 8159. Provisions, applying generally to courts of record, subject to certain qualifications.

3160. Certain sections not to apply to New York city court; who a non-resident.

3161. Time for service of notices.

3162. Service of notice of trial; filing of note of issue.

3163. When court may relieve from imprisonment.

3164. Money; how paid into the court.

3164a. Fees of clerk of New York city court.

§ 3159. [Am'd, 1907.] Provisions, applying generally to courts of record, subject to certain qualifications.

Each of the foregoing provisions of this act which is made, by chapter twenty-second of this act, applicable to the city court of the city of New-York, or generally to courts of record, is subject to the qualifications and exceptions expressed or plainly implied in this title.

L. 1872, ch. 639, § 2; am'd L. 1907, ch. 707. In effect Aug. 12, 1907.

Sections four hundred and thirty-eight and six hundred and three, sections six hundred and eleven to six hundred and nineteen, both inclusive, and sections six hundred and thirty-six, eight hundred and twenty-seven and ten hundred and fifteen of this act do not apply to an action or a special proceeding brought in the city court of the city of New York, or before a justice thereof, or to any proceeding therein. Sections thirty-two hundred and sixty-eight and thirty-two hundred and sixty-nine of this act do not apply to an action in the court, prosecuted as prescribed in article third of this title; or where an undertaking has been given as prescribed in section thirty-one hundred and sixty-five of this act. A plaintiff, in an action brought in the court, who has an office for the regular transaction of business in person, within the city of New York, is deemed a resident of that city, within the meaning of sections thirty-two hundred and sixty-eight and thirty-two hundred and sixty-nine of this act.

2. The provisions of section ten hundred and thirteen of the code of civil procedure are hereby made applicable to and binding upon the city court of the city of New York.

L. 1896, ch. 954. See § 1013. L. 1902, ch. 515. In effect Sept. 1, 1902.

§ 3161. [Am'd, 1902.] Time for service of notices in New York city court.

The time for personal service of certain notices, in an action brought in the court, is as follows:

1. Notice of justification of the sureties, in an undertaking given by the plaintiff, as security for the defendant's costs, not more than two days.

2. Notice of an application for judgment in a case specified in section five hundred and thirty-seven of this act; notice of a motion to strike out a pleading, in a case specified in section five hundred and thirty-eight of this act; notice of an application for judgment upon the defendant's default, or of the execution of a reference, or writ of inquiry, or of an assessment thereupon, as prescribed in section twelve hundred and nineteen of this act; not less than two days.

3. Notice of the justification of bail, not less than two, nor more than ten days.

4. Notice of a motion, other than a motion specified in subdivision second of this section, not less than four days; but the court or a justice thereof may, upon an affidavit showing grounds therefor, prescribe a shorter time, by an order to show cause.

5. Notice of trial of an issue of fact, or of an issue of law; notice of any hearing, the time for serving which is not expressly prescribed in either of the foregoing subdivisions of this section, or elsewhere in this title; not less than five days.

6. Notice of taxation of costs, not less than two days; except where all the attorneys, serving and served with the notice, reside or have their offices in the city of New York, in which case, one day's notice is sufficient.

L. 1872, ch. 629, §§ 5 and 14; L. 1874, ch. 545, § 2; L. 1875, ch. 479, §§ 17 and 50; also, § 51, subd. 10; L. 1902, ch. 515. In effect Sept. 1, 1902.

§ 3162. [Am'd, 1902.] Service of notice of trial; filing of note of issue.

Notice of trial of an issue triable at a term of the court may be given for any day of the term. A note of issue must be filed at least two days before the day, or the commencement of the term, for which the notice of the trial is given; and it must, in addition to the matters specified in section nine hundred and seventy-seven of this act, state the day or the term, for which the notice has been given. But this and the last section do not apply to a case where special provision is otherwise made in article third of this title.

See L. 1874, ch. 545, § 2; L. 1902, ch. 515. In effect Sept. 1, 1902.

Where it satisfactorily appears that a party, who is actually confined in jail, by virtue of an order of arrest, or an execution against the person, issued in an action brought in the court, is physically unable to endure the confinement, and that he cannot procure bail, or the necessary sureties in a bond for the jail liberties, as the case requires, the court, or justice thereof, may, in its or his discretion, by order, direct the sheriff to release him from custody. The sheriff must obey such an order. After such a release from an execution against the person, another execution, against the person of the judgment debtor, cannot be issued upon the judgment; but the judgment creditor may enforce the judgment against property, as if the execution, from which the judgment debtor was released, had been returned without his being taken.

See L. 1875, ch. 479, part of § 10.

§ 3164. Money; how paid into the court.

Money paid into the court, pursuant to any provision of this act, must, unless the court otherwise directs, be paid directly to the chamberlain of the city of New-York, to the credit of the cause in which it is paid.

§ 3164a. [Added, 1906.] Fees of clerk of New York city court.

The clerk of the city court of the city of New York is entitled to receive for the use of the city of New York, for the services performed by him the following fees and none other: For filing a note of issue for the general or equity calendar, three dollars; for entering final judgment in an action, including the filing of the judgment roll, fifty cents; and ten cents in addition for each folio exceeding ten, contained in said judgment. For filing and entering an order directing the change of name, one dollar for each name so changed. For entering any other order or an interlocutory judgment, ten cents for each folio exceeding five. For a certified or other copy of an order, record, or other paper, entered or filed in his office, five cents for each folio. For filing and entering a certificate of satisfaction, of a judgment twenty-five cents and for certifying a copy thereof twelve cents. For filing and entering an assignment of a judgment twenty-five cents, and for certifying a copy thereof twelve cents. For filing and entering a release of a judgment twenty-five cents, and for certifying a copy thereof twelve cents. For certifying a transcript of the docket of a judgment twelve cents. For an extract of the minutes of a trial ten cents. For attesting the correctness of the copy of any paper or record on file in his office, ten cents for each folio. For a certificate other than herein described, twenty-five cents. For making and certifying a search for any paper or record, one dollar. For comparing and certifying the printed papers on appeal from an order or judgment taken as prescribed in article fourth of title first of chapter twenty of this act, one cent per folio thereof. But where the attorneys for all the parties interested, other than parties in default or against whom a judgment or a final order has been taken, and is not appealed from, stipulate in writing that a paper is a copy of any paper whereof a certified copy is required by any provisions of this act, the stipulation takes the place of a certificate, as to the parties so stipulating, and the clerk is not required to certify the same, or entitled to any fees therefor. And the paper so proved by stipulation shall be received by the clerks of all the courts and by the courts and shall be used or filed with the same force and effect as if certified by a clerk of the court.

Added L. 1906, ch. 273. In effect Apr. 19, 1906.

ARTICLE SECOND.

Provisions exclusively applicable to the proceedings, other than appeals, in an ordinary action.

Sec. 8165. Summons.

- 8166. Time for service of pleadings, etc.
- 8167. Enforcement of certain judgments in favor of working women.
- 8168. Time for non-acceptance and justification of bail, etc.
- 8169. Proof necessary to obtain warrant of attachment.
- 8170. Service of summons without the city, or by publication.
- 8171. Commission to take testimony.
- 8172. Court may refer question arising upon a motion.
- 8173. Time for filing decision upon a trial by the court. Id.; when sufficient.
- 8174. Counterclaims.
- 8175. Perishable property may be sold.
- 8176. Portion of verdict, etc., may be remitted.

§ 8165. Summons.

The summons, in an action brought in the court, must state that the time, within which the defendant must serve a copy of his answer, is six days after the service thereof, exclusive of the day of service; except in one of the following cases:

1. A justice of the court may, upon satisfactory proof, by affidavit, that either the plaintiff or the defendant resides without the city of New-York; or, where there are two or more plaintiffs, or two or more defendants, that all the plaintiffs or all the defendants reside without that city, direct, by an order, that the defendant be summoned to answer within a shorter time, specified therein, not less than two days after the service of the summons, exclusive of the day of service; whereupon the summons must correspond to the order. The order must be indorsed upon or annexed to the summons; and a copy thereof must be delivered with a copy of the summons. The justice may, in his discretion, as a condition of granting the order, require the plaintiff to give an undertaking, with one or more sureties, to the effect that the plaintiff will pay any judgment which may be rendered against him in the action, not exceeding a sum specified in the undertaking, which must be at least two hundred dollars.

2. Where an order, directing service of the summons without the city of New-York, or by publication, is granted, the summons must state that the time, within which the defendant must serve a copy of his answer, is ten days after service thereof, exclusive of the day of service. If a summons, requiring the defendant to answer within a shorter time, has been issued, as prescribed in this section, before an order specified in this subdivision is granted, the justice granting such an order may direct that the summons be amended accordingly, and thereupon the summons published, or served without the city, pursuant to the order, must correctly state the time.

L. 1872, ch. 29, § 5; L. 1874, ch. 545, § 1.

The time, within which a defendant in a case specified in section 479 of this act must demand a copy of the complaint, and the time within which the plaintiff must serve the same, after a demand thereof, as prescribed in that section, and the time, within which a copy of a pleading, subsequent to the complaint, must be served, after the service of a copy of the preceding pleading, is the same number of days, as stated in the summons, within which the defendant is required to serve a copy of his answer, after service of the summons. But, except as otherwise prescribed in section 3185 of this act, a defendant, arrested before answer, has ten days after the arrest, within which to demand a copy of the complaint or to serve a copy of his answer, as the case requires; and judgment must be stayed accordingly.

§ 3167. [Repealed by L. 1907, ch. 707.]

§ 3168. Time for non-acceptance and justification of bail, etc.

The time for taking certain proceedings, in an action brought in the court, is as follows:

1. Service of notice of non-acceptance of bail, within five days after the delivery, to the plaintiff's attorney, of certified copies of the order of arrest, return, and undertaking, as prescribed in section 577 of this act.

2. Service of notice of justification of the bail, within five days after service of the notice specified in subdivision first of this section.

3. Service of notice of exception to the sureties, in an undertaking given by the plaintiff, as security for the defendant's costs within two days after service, upon the defendant's attorney, of a written notice of the filing thereof; and service of notice of the justification of the same, or new sureties, within two days after service of the notice of exception.

R. 1875, ch. 479, §§ 16 and 17; also, § 51, subd. 9.

In order to entitle the plaintiff to a warrant of attachment against property, he must show by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the justice granting it, that a sufficient cause of action exists against the defendant, to recover damages for one or more causes specified in section six hundred and thirty-five of this act, to an amount stated in the affidavit, which, if the action is to recover damages for breach of contract, must be stated over and above all counterclaims known to the plaintiff; and also that the case is within one of the following subdivisions:

1. That the defendant is a foreign corporation, or being a natural person is not a resident of the State.

2. That the defendant, being an adult and a resident of the borough of Manhattan in the city of New York, has departed from the State, with intent to defraud his creditors, or to avoid service of the summons, or keeps himself concealed therein, with like intent; or that, after proper and diligent effort to ascertain the place of the sojourn of such a resident adult defendant, the same cannot be ascertained.

3. That the defendant, being an adult, has removed, or is about to remove, property from the State, with intent to defraud his creditors, or that he has assigned, disposed of, or secreted, or is about to assign, dispose of, or secrete property, with the like intent.

4. That the defendant, being an adult and a resident of that borough has been continuously without the United States more than six months next before the granting of the warrant, and has not made a designation of a person upon whom to serve a summons in his behalf, as prescribed in section four hundred and thirty of this act; or a designation so made no longer remains in force.

See L. 1881, ch. 303, §§ 33, 34 and 47; L. 1872, ch. 399; see, also, L. 1876, ch. 126; L. 1898, ch. 226. In effect Sept. 1, 1899.

§ 3170. Service of summons without the city, or by publication.

An order, directing the service of a summons, either without the city of New-York, or by publication, may be granted by the court, or by a justice thereof; but only in a case, where a warrant of attachment has been issued, as prescribed in the last section, and personal service of the summons cannot be made, with due diligence, within that city. The plaintiff, when he applies for such an order, must show by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the court or justice, that the case is within this section. Where an order is granted, as prescribed in this section, service of the summons without that city may be made, as directed in the order, either within or without the State. Sections 440 to 445, both inclusive, and sections 638, 707, and 708 of this act apply to the service or publication, pursuant to such an order, and to the proceedings relating to the same, and subsequent thereto; substituting the words, "the city of New-York", in place of the words, "the State" wherever the latter words occur. If the defendant is a resident of the city of New-York, the order must also direct that a copy of the summons, complaint, and order be left at his residence, specifying it, with a person of suitable age and discretion, if, upon reasonable application, admittance can be obtained, and such a person found who will receive it; or, if admittance cannot be so obtained, nor such a person found, by affixing the same to the outer door of the residence so specified.

L. 1874, ch. 545, § 3. See, also, § 438, subd. 3, ante.

§ 3171. Commission to take testimony.

The application, to the court, of article second of title third of chapter ninth of this act, is subject to the following qualifications:

1. The words, "the city and county of New-York, or either of the counties of Richmond, Kings, Queens, or Westchester", must be regarded as substituted, in place of the words, "the State", wherever those words are used in that article, with respect to the locality of a witness.

2. Interrogatories, framed pursuant to that article, can be settled only by a justice of the court.

3. A commission, or order to take depositions, issued or granted, pursuant to that article, may be executed either within or without the State.

L. 1862, ch. 389, § 3. See ante, § 887.

§ 3172. Court may refer question arising upon a motion.

The court may, of its own motion, or upon the application of either party, without the consent of the other, by order, direct a reference, to determine and report upon a question of fact, arising upon a motion, in any stage of an action.

L. 1875, ch. 479, § 55. See ante, § 887.

§ 3173. Time for filing decision upon a trial by the court. Id.; when sufficient.

The time within which the decision of the court must be filed, in a case specified in section 1010 of this act, is ten days after the cause is finally submitted. The decision of the court, in a case specified in section 1022 of this act, is sufficient if it directs the judgment to be entered thereupon; but, if so required by a party appealing, the justice by whom the decision was made, must, within ten days after the appeal is perfected, and notice thereof and of the requirement is given to him, make, and file with the clerk, a special decision, stating separately the facts found, and the conclusions of law.

§ 3174. Counterclaims.

A counterclaim, specified in subdivision second of section 501 of this act, cannot be interposed, in an action brought in the court, unless it is of such a nature, that the court has jurisdiction of an action founded thereupon; except that, in an action brought by an executor or administrator, any counterclaim may be interposed, which could be interposed, in a like action, brought in the supreme court. A counterclaim may be interposed, in an action brought in the court, without respect to the amount thereof; and judgment thereupon, in favor of the defendant, may be rendered for any sum.

§ 3175. Perishable property may be sold.

Where perishable property has been levied upon, by virtue of an execution or warrant of attachment, the court may, upon the application of the officer making the levy, by order, direct the sale thereof, at such a time, and upon such a notice, as it deems proper; and thereupon the property must be sold accordingly.

L. 1874, ch. 545, § 6.

§ 3176. Portion of verdict, etc., may be remitted.

A party to whom a sum is awarded, upon a trial, an assessment of damages, or the execution of a reference or writ of inquiry, may remit any portion thereof, and take judgment for the residue.

See L. 1857, ch. 344, § 49.

ARTICLE THIRD.Provisions exclusively applicable to the proceedings, other than appeals, in certain marine causes.

Sec. 8177. Arrest in certain marine causes. Court may regulate by general rules.

8178. Id.; contents of order of arrest.

8179. Id.; proceedings on arrest.

8180, 8181. Id.; bail or deposit before return.

8182. Id.; bail or deposit after return.

8183. Id.; when and how defendant to remain in custody.

8184. Id.; return of summons, etc.

8185. Id.; proceedings after return.

8186. Id.; trial.

8187. Ordinary action may be brought for like cause.

§ 8177. Arrest in certain marine causes. Court may regulate by general rules.

In an action specified in subdivision second of section 317 of this act, the plaintiff may apply for an order of arrest, to accompany the summons, in the form and to the effect specified in the next section. If such an order is granted, the proceedings in the action must be conducted as prescribed in this article. The justices of the court, or a majority of them, may, from time to time, by one or more general rules, attested by the hands of the justices making the same, and filed with the clerk, regulate the manner in which an application for such an order may be made, and the cases in which an undertaking may be dispensed with. Until regulations are so established, the justice to whom the application is made, may, in his discretion, require or dispense with an undertaking thereupon.

See L. 1872, ch. 629, part of § 6.

§ 8178. Id.; contents of order of arrest.

The order of arrest, granted as prescribed in the last section, must require the sheriff to arrest the defendant, and to bring him forthwith before the court, at the chambers thereof; or if, when he is arrested, the court is not in session at chambers, to hold him to bail, in a sum specified in the order, for his personal attendance at the opening of the court, on the next day thereafter, when it is in session at the chambers thereof. The order must also direct that the defendant be summoned to answer the complaint in the action forthwith. Thereupon the summons must conform to the order.

See R. L. 1813, §§ 389, §§ 110, 111, 118, 119, 120, 121, 123, 124, 127-130; also, L. 1872, ch. 629, § 5.

§ 8179. Id.; proceedings on arrest.

The sheriff, upon arresting the defendant, by virtue of such an order must, at the same time, serve upon him the summons; and also a copy of the order of arrest, and of the papers, upon which it was granted. He must forthwith bring the defendant before the court, at the chambers thereof; if the court is then in session at chambers; otherwise, unless bail is given, as prescribed in the next section, he must take the defendant to the jail of the city and county of New-York, for the confinement of prisoners in civil causes. The keeper thereof must confine the defendant therein. On the next day thereafter, when the court is in session at chambers, the sheriff must take the defendant from the jail, and bring him before the court.

§ 3180. Id.; bail or deposit before return.

The defendant may give bail, by delivering to the sheriff a written undertaking to the plaintiff, in the sum specified in the order of arrest, executed by one or more sureties, to the effect that the defendant will attend in person at the opening of the court, at the chambers thereof, on the next day thereafter when it is there in session; or he may deposit with the sheriff the sum specified in the order of arrest. In either case, the sheriff must forthwith release him from custody.

§ 3181. The same.

Where bail is given, as prescribed in the last section, the officer taking the acknowledgment of the undertaking must, if the sheriff so requires, examine under oath, to a reasonable extent, the persons offering to become bail, concerning their property and their circumstances. The defendant may give bail, or make the deposit, immediately upon his arrest, at any hour of the day or night; and he must have reasonable opportunity to seek for and to procure bail, before being committed to jail. Where a deposit is made, the money deposited must, before the expiration of the next day thereafter, not being Sunday or a public holiday, be paid, by the sheriff, into court, to the credit of the action, as prescribed in section 3164 of this act.

§ 3182. Id.; bail or deposit after return.

At any time after the return of the sheriff, and before final judgment, a justice of the court may admit a defendant in custody to bail, or allow him to make a deposit; and may direct his release, upon his giving bail, or making the deposit accordingly. The sum to be deposited, or the sum specified in the undertaking of the bail, must be fixed, and the sureties in the undertaking must be approved, by the justice; who must be satisfied, by their examination, or by other proof, respecting their sufficiency. The undertaking must be to the effect that the defendant will, at all times, render himself amenable to any mandate which may be issued, to enforce a final judgment against him in the action. Article fourth of title first of chapter seventh of this act, applies, where bail is given as prescribed in this or the last section.

§ 3183. Id.; when and how defendant to remain in custody.

Unless bail is given, or a deposit is made, as prescribed in the last three sections, the defendant must remain in the jail by virtue of the order of arrest, until final judgment in the action; and, if the judgment is against the defendant, until the return of an execution against property, issued thereupon. But the court must direct him to be brought into court, at the time of the trial; and it may, in its discretion, direct him to be brought into court at any other time. In either case, he must be taken from the jail, and brought into court accordingly.

§ 3184. Id.; return of summons, etc.

The sheriff, after serving the summons and executing the order of arrest, must make a full return of his proceedings thereupon, to the court at chambers. The return must be made forthwith, unless the court is not then in session at chambers; in which case, it must be made immediately after the opening of the court, on the first day thereafter, when it is there in session.

If the defendant has given bail, the undertaking of the bail must be returned, to be delivered to the plaintiff when the court so directs.

Unless both parties sooner appear, the court must wait one hour after the return; or, if the defendant has given bail, one hour after the opening of the court. As soon after the parties appear, or after the expiration of the hour, as the business upon which the court is then engaged will permit, the court must take up the cause. If the plaintiff does not then appear, a judgment dismissing the complaint, with costs, must be rendered. If the defendant does not then attend in person, the plaintiff must then make his complaint, and the defendant's default must be entered. If the plaintiff appears and the defendant attends in person, the pleadings must then be made, and issue must be joined. The pleadings may be oral or written; if they are oral, the clerk must enter the substance thereof in the minutes. If either party desires a trial by a jury, he must demand the same, at the time of the joinder of issue; otherwise the issue must be tried by the court, without a jury.

§ 3186. Id.; trial.

Where a trial by jury is duly demanded, the court at chambers must direct the issue to be tried, at a trial term, upon such notice as it deems proper, or without notice; it may also direct that the action have a preference upon the day calendar, either generally or for a particular day; and it may give such direction as it deems proper, with respect to filing a note of issue. Where a trial by jury is not duly demanded, or where the defendant is in default, the evidence must then, or at such subsequent time, either at chambers or at a trial term or special term, as the court at chambers appoints, be given; and thereupon final judgment must be rendered. But the issue must be appointed to be tried, within six days after the joinder thereof, unless both parties assent to a longer time; or a trial by jury is demanded, and there is no term of the court, at which it can be had, within that time. The trial cannot be adjourned, without the consent of both parties, beyond three calendar months from the joinder of issue.

§ 3187. Ordinary action may be brought for like cause.

This article does not prevent the plaintiff from commencing, and conducting in the ordinary manner an action, for a cause specified in subdivision second of section 317 of this act.

ARTICLE FOURTH.

Appeals.

(Amended, 1902.)

Sec. 3188. Appeal from a judgment.

3189. Idem; from an order.

3190. Time to appeal and proceedings thereupon.

3191. Appeal to appellate division of the supreme court and in what cases.

3192. Idem; proceedings regulated.

3193. Idem; within what time.

3194. Idem; determination upon appeal, how enforced. Idem; where new trial was properly granted.

§ 3188. [Am'd, 1895, 1902.] Appeal from a judgment.

An appeal, to the supreme court may be taken from a final or interlocutory judgment rendered in the city court of the city of New York in a case where an appeal may be taken to the appellate division of the supreme court from a final or interlocutory judgment rendered in the supreme court as prescribed in section thirteen hundred and forty-six and section thirteen hundred and forty-nine of this act.

L. 1853, ch. 617, § 5; L. 1872, ch. 629, §§ 9 and 11; L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1902, ch. 515. In effect Sept. 1, 1902.

§ 3189. [Am'd, 1895, 1902.] Idem; from an order.

An appeal to the supreme court may also be taken from an interlocutory judgment rendered, or an order made at chambers, or at a special term or a trial term of said city court, or from an order made by a judge thereof out of court, in a case where an appeal may be taken to the appellate division of the supreme court from an interlocutory judgment rendered, or an order made, in like manner, as prescribed in sections thirteen hundred and forty-seven, thirteen hundred and forty-eight and thirteen hundred and forty-nine of this act. Upon such an appeal the supreme court shall have full power to review any exercise of discretion by the court or judge below.

L. 1872, ch. 629, §§ 9 and 10; L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1902, ch. 515. In effect Sept. 1, 1902.

§ 3190. [Am'd, 1902.] Time to appeal and proceedings thereupon.

An appeal, authorized by either of the last two sections, must be taken within ten days after service of a copy of the judgment or order appealed from, and a written notice of the date of the entry thereof. In every other respect, titles first, third and fourth of chapter twelfth of this act, so far as the same are applicable thereto, apply to and govern an appeal, taken as prescribed in either of the last two sections.

L. 1902, ch. 515. In effect Sept. 1, 1902.

§ 3191. [Am'd, 1895, 1902.] Appeal to the appellate division of the supreme court; in what cases.

An appeal to the appellate division of the supreme court in the first judicial department may be taken from the judgment or order entered upon the determination of an appeal taken as prescribed in section thirty-one hundred and eighty-eight and thirty-one hundred and eighty-nine of this act, provided such appeal be allowed by order made at the term at which such appeal was determined or at the term next after judgment is entered upon such determination and provided further that, where such appeal is from an order granting a new trial upon a case or exceptions, the appellant must, with his application for leave to appeal, file an assent on his part that, if the order is affirmed, judgment absolute may be rendered against him.

Co. Proc., § 352; L. 1874, ch. 545, § 9; L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1902, ch. 515. In effect Sept. 1, 1902.

§ 3192. [Am'd, 1902.] Practice and proceedings on appeal to appellate division of supreme court.

Titles first, third and fourth of chapter twelve of this act, so far as the same are applicable thereto, apply to and govern an appeal, taken as prescribed in the last section, except as otherwise expressly prescribed in the next two sections.

See L. 1874, ch. 545, § 9; L. 1902, ch. 515. In effect Sept. 1, 1902.

§ 3193. [Am'd, 1895, 1902.] Idem; within what time taken.

An appeal, authorized by section thirty-one hundred and ninety-one of this act, must be taken within twenty days after the service of a copy of the order allowing such appeal and a written notice of the date of the entry thereof.

L. 1895, ch. 946; L. 1902, ch. 515. In effect Sept. 1, 1902.

§ 3194. [Am'd, 1902.] Idem; determination upon appeal, how enforced. Idem; where new trial was properly granted.

The judgment or order of the appellate court must be remitted to the court below, to be enforced according to law. Upon an appeal from an order granting a new trial, on a case or exceptions, if the appellate court determines that no error was committed in granting the new trial, it must render judgment absolute upon the right of the appellant; and thereupon an assessment of damages, or any other proceedings, requisite to render the judgment effectual, may be had in the city court of the city of New York.

Where, on an appeal from a judgment or order taken as prescribed in article fourth of title first of chapter twenty of this act, a party shall present to the clerk a printed copy of the judgment roll or order appealed from, it shall be the duty of the clerk, as required, to compare and certify the same, for which service the clerk must receive, for the use of the city of New York a fee at the rate of one cent per folio. Where the attorneys for all the parties interested, other than parties in default, or against whom a judgment or a final order has been taken, and is not appealed from, stipulate in writing that a paper is a copy of any paper whereof a certified copy is required by any provisions of this act, the stipulation takes the place of a certificate, as to the parties so stipulating, and the clerk is not required to certify the same, or entitled to any fees therefor. And the paper so proved by stipulation shall be received by the clerks of all the courts and by the courts and shall be used or filed with the same force and effect as if certified by a clerk of the court.

§ 3195. [Repealed Jan. 1, 1896; L. 1895, ch. 946.]

TITLE II.

The mayor's court of the city of Hudson, and the recorder's courts of the cities of Utica and Oswego.

[Mayor's Court of City of Hudson superseded by City Court of the City of Hudson by L. 1895, ch. 751, §§ 127-142.]

Sec. 3196. Civil jurisdiction prescribed.

- 3197. Certain pending actions, etc., transferred to supreme court.
- 3198. Id.: certain papers, etc., to be transmitted to county clerk.
- 3199. Power of supreme court, in actions, etc., so transferred.
- 3200. Proceedings in case of judge's disability.
- 3201. Service of subpoenas.
- 3202. Effect of this title limited.

§ 3196. Civil jurisdiction prescribed.

The civil jurisdiction of the mayor's court of the city of Hudson, the recorder's court of the city of Utica, and the recorder's court of the city of Oswego, extends only to an action whereof jurisdiction is expressly conferred upon the court, by a provision of a statute incorporating, or otherwise specially relating to the government of, the city wherein the court is located.

Co. Proc., § 33.

§ 3197. Certain pending actions, etc., transferred to supreme court.

Every civil action, now pending in either of those courts, other than an action specified in the last section, is hereby transferred to the supreme court; and the subsequent proceedings therein, before and after the judgment, must be the same, as if the action had been commenced in the supreme court.

§ 3198. Id.: certain papers, etc., to be transmitted to county clerk.

All judgment-rolls, and other records, and all books and papers, relating exclusively to civil actions, other than an action specified in the last section but one, now remaining, in either of those courts, must be delivered by the clerk thereof, or, if there is no clerk, by the judge or other officer, having the custody thereof, to the clerk of the county in which the court is located, to be preserved among the records of his office. The expense of so doing is a county charge.

§ 3199. Power of supreme court, in actions, etc., so transferred.

The supreme court may review, enforce, vacate, or amend a final judgment heretofore rendered by either of those courts, in a civil action, other than an action specified in section 3196 of this act, with like power and effect, as the court in which it was commenced might have so done, if this act had not been passed.

§ 3200. Proceedings in case of judge's disability.

The county court of the county in which either of those courts is located, may, by an order, remove to itself an action of which either of those courts has jurisdiction, as prescribed in section 3196 of this act, upon proof, by affidavit, that the judge thereof is, for any cause, incapable of acting, either generally or in the particular action. Sections 344, 345, and 346 of this act apply to such an order of removal, and to the proceedings subsequent thereto. The proceedings subsequent to the order are the same, as in an action brought in the county court, except that costs must be awarded, as if the action had remained in the court from which it was removed.

Co. Proc., part of § 83.

§ 3201. Service of subpoenas.

A subpoena, issued out of either of those courts, may be served upon a witness, at any place within the State. A warrant to apprehend a witness, for a failure to obey such a subpoena, may be directed to the sheriff of the county where the court is located, and executed by him within any county of the State. The sheriff is subject to the same liability, for a failure to serve or return it, as if it was issued out of the supreme court.

2 R. L. 505, ch. 85, § 18.

This title does not affect any provision of law conferring upon a judge, or upon the judges, of either of those courts, jurisdiction, power or authority, in an action brought in another court, or in a special proceeding.

TITLE III.*

The city court of Yonkers.

Sec. 3203. Jurisdiction in civil actions.

3204. Last section qualified.

3205. Summons, where served.

3206. This title does not affect jurisdiction of the court, etc., in special proceedings.

§ 3203. Jurisdiction in civil actions.

The jurisdiction of the city court of Yonkers extends to the following civil actions only:

1. An action against a natural person, or against a foreign or domestic corporation, wherein the complaint demands judgment for a sum of money only, or to recover one or more chattels, with or without damages for the taking, withholding, or detention thereof.

2. An action to foreclose or enforce a lien, upon real property in the city of Yonkers, created, as prescribed by statute, in favor of a person who has performed labor, or furnished materials to be used, in erecting, altering, or repairing a building, building lot, or appurtenance thereto, including fences, sidewalks, paving, wells, fountains, fish-ponds, ornamental and fruit trees, and every other improvement to a building or building lot.

3. An action to foreclose or enforce a lien, for a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, exclusive of interest, upon one or more chattels.

See L. 1873, ch. 61, §§ 1 and 3; L. 1874, ch. 171, § 1; L. 1875, ch. 233, § 1; L. 1878, ch. 186, §§ 1 and 2.

§ 3204. [Am'd, 1888.] Last section qualified.

The jurisdiction conferred by the last section is subject to the following limitations and regulations:

1. In an action wherein the complaint demands judgment for a sum of money only, the sum, for which judgment is rendered in favor of the plaintiff, cannot exceed one thousand dollars, exclusive of interest, and costs as taxed; except where it is brought upon a bond or undertaking, given in an action or a special proceeding in the same court, or before the city judge. Where the action is brought upon a bond or other contract, the judgment must be for the sum actually due, without regard to a penalty therein contained; and where the money is payable in instalments, successive actions may be brought, for the instalments, as they become due.

2. In an action to recover one or more chattels, a judgment cannot be rendered, in favor of the plaintiff, for a chattel or chattels, the aggregate value of which exceeds one thousand dollars.

3. The court has not jurisdiction of an action against an executor or administrator, in his representative capacity.

4. The court has not jurisdiction of any action, unless one of the parties thereto resides in the city of Yonkers, or in a town of Westchester county, adjoining that city; or a warrant of attachment is granted to accompany the summons, and levied upon property of the defendant, within that city; or the action is brought to recover one or more statutory penalties, by the city of Yonkers, or one of its officers or boards of commissioners. Such warrant of attachment must be granted and subsequent proceedings taken in accordance with the provisions and requirements herein relating to attachments in courts of justices of the peace.

L. 1888, ch. 494.

§ 3205. Summons, where served.

The summons, in an action brought in the court, may be served at any place within the county of Westchester, but not elsewhere.

§ 3206. This title does not affect jurisdiction of the court, etc., in special proceedings.

This title does not affect any provision of law, conferring upon the court, or upon the city judge of Yonkers, jurisdiction, power, or authority, in a special proceeding; or conferring upon the city judge of Yonkers power or authority, in an action brought in another court.

TITLE IV.

The district courts of the city of New-York, and the justices' courts of the cities of Albany* and Troy.

- Article 1. Provisions generally applicable to all the courts specified in this title.
 2. Provisions exclusively applicable to the district courts of the city of New-York.
 3. Provisions exclusively applicable to the justices' courts of Albany and Troy.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Provisions generally applicable to all the courts specified in this title.

- Sec. 8207. Service of complaint with summons; proceedings thereupon.
 8208. Id.; and proof of service.
 8209. Action to be commenced by service of summons.
 8210. Order of arrest; warrant of attachment; requisition to replevy.
 8211. The last section qualified.
 8212. Proceedings where title to real property is in question.
 8213. Appeals.
 8214. Effect of this act, upon jurisdiction and proceedings.

§ 3207. Service of complaint with summons; proceedings thereupon.

Section 3126 of this act applies to an action to recover upon or for breach of a contract, express or implied, brought in a district court of the city of New-York, in the justice's court of the city of Albany, or in the justice's court of the city of Troy.

L. 1867, ch. 344, § 15; L. 1873, ch. 182, §§ 1 and 2.

In an action brought in either of those courts, the summons, and, in a proper case, a copy of the complaint, may be served by any person not a party to the action: except that, where the action is brought in a district court of the city of New-York, a person, other than a constable or a marshal, serving the same, must be first empowered to do so, either by the justice, or by the attorney to the corporation, as now prescribed by law. Proof of service thereof, by such a person, must be made by his affidavit; which must state the particular place, time, and manner of service, and that the affiant knew the person so served, to be the person mentioned and described in the summons, as defendant therein.

See L. 1873, ch. 182, §§ 1 and 3; L. 1867, ch. 344, § 15; L. 1862, ch. 484, § 14; L. 1864, ch. 569, § 2, and L. 1866, ch. 758; also § 2878, ante.

§ 3209. Action to be commenced by service of summons.

An action, brought in either of those courts, at any time after this chapter takes effect, must be commenced by the voluntary appearance of, and joinder of issue by, the parties, or by the service of a summons.

Articles third, fourth, and fifth of title second of chapter nineteenth of this act apply to an action brought in either of those courts, except as otherwise prescribed in the next section. And except, also, that where the warrant of attachment, or requisition to replevy, is issued out of a district court of the city of New-York, against a non-resident defendant, the said warrant, or requisition, must require the marshal to attach or replevy the property, on or before a day therein specified, which must be not less than two nor more than four days before the return day of the summons.

L. 1884, ch. 400.

The provisions of the last section are subject to the following qualifications:

1. Nothing contained in either of the articles, so made applicable, applies to an order of arrest, in an action brought in a district court of the city of New-York, or affects any provision of this title, relating to the jurisdiction of either of the courts specified in this title.

2. An order of arrest in an action brought in the justice's court of Albany, or the justice's court of Troy, or a warrant of attachment, or a requisition to replevy, in either of those courts, or in a district court of the city of New-York, must be granted by, and directed to, and executed by, the officer empowered, by the statutes remaining in force after this chapter takes effect, to grant or execute, as the case requires, in the same court, a warrant to arrest, a warrant of attachment, or a requisition in an action to recover a chattel.

3. The manner of applying for, granting, and executing an order of arrest, a warrant of attachment, or a requisition to replevy, and the proceedings thereupon, and with respect thereto, as prescribed in the articles so made applicable, are subject to the statutes, remaining unrepealed after this chapter takes effect, specially applicable to those courts, or to either or any of them, prescribing the duties of the justices, or of the clerks thereof, or regulating the mode of transacting business in an action brought therein.

Sections 2951 to 2958 of this act, both inclusive, apply to an action, brought in either of those courts; except that, where the action is brought in a district court of the city of New-York, the surety upon the defendant's undertaking is liable, in the case specified in section 2952, to any amount, for which judgment might have been rendered by the district court, if the answer and undertaking had not been delivered.

See Co. Proc., § 68.

An appeal from a judgment, rendered in a district court of the city of New York, may be taken to the supreme court, in the cases, and in the manner prescribed in articles first and second of title eight of chapter nineteenth of this act. Such appeal shall be heard in such manner and by such justice or justices as the appellate division of the supreme court in the first department shall direct. The appellate court may reverse, affirm or modify the judgment appealed from, and where a judgment is reversed, may order a new trial in the district court. Where a judgment is modified, or where a new trial is ordered, costs shall be in the discretion of the appellate court. An appeal from the judgment rendered in the justice's court of the city of Albany, or the justice's court of the city of Troy, may be taken in a case where an appeal may be taken to a county court from a judgment rendered by a justice of the peace as prescribed by title eight of that chapter, and in no other case. Such an appeal must be taken to the county court of the county wherein the court is located.

Except as otherwise specially prescribed in this title, this act does not affect any statutory provision remaining unrepealed after this chapter takes effect, relating to the jurisdiction and powers of either of those courts; the appointment, qualification, tenure of office, powers, or duties of the justices, or of the clerk, or any other officer thereof; or the proceedings therein; except that a provision of this or any other statute, whereby a proceeding in an action, brought in either of those courts, or a special proceeding, brought therein, or before a justice thereof, is assimilated, either expressly, or by reference to another provision of law, to a proceeding, in an action or a special proceeding before a justice of the peace, is deemed to refer to the corresponding proceeding, as prescribed in chapter nineteenth of this act.

§ 3217. Repealed, 1902. See the Municipal Court Act of New York city.

§ 3218. Proceedings thereupon.

An order of arrest must direct that the summons accompanying it be made returnable, immediately upon the arrest of the defendant; and it must specify a sum, in which the defendant may be let to bail. Sections 3179 to 3181, both inclusive, section 3182, except the last sentence thereof, and section 3183 of this act, apply to an order of arrest, granted in an action in either of those courts; and to the proceedings upon, and relating to, the execution thereof. In all other respects, the statutory provisions remaining unrepealed after this chapter takes effect, which apply to and regulate the application for a warrant to arrest a defendant, the granting and execution thereof, and the proceedings subsequent thereto, apply to and regulate the application for an order of arrest, the granting and execution thereof, and the proceedings subsequent thereto.

 3224. Id.; upon judgment by confession.
 3225. Docketing judgments; execution thereupon.
 3225a. Application of certain sections.

§ 3223. Jurisdiction in civil actions.

The justice's court of the city of Albany, and the justice's court of the city of Troy, have jurisdiction, each within the city where the court is located, of an action, of which a justice of the peace has jurisdiction, as prescribed in sections 1737, 2861, 2862, and 2863 of this act; and also of an action to recover a penalty, given by the charter, or a by-law or an ordinance of the common council of that city, where the plaintiff demands judgment for a sum, not exceeding two hundred dollars. Neither of those courts has jurisdiction of any other civil action; but this section does not affect the jurisdiction conferred, by the statutory provisions remaining in force after this chapter takes effect, upon either of those courts, in a special proceeding.

The jurisdiction of each of those courts extends also to the taking and entry of a judgment, upon the confession of a defendant, as prescribed in title sixth of chapter nineteenth of this act, where the sum confessed does not exceed five hundred dollars.

§ 3225. Docketing judgments; execution thereupon.

The provisions of sections 3017 to 3022 of this act, both inclusive, apply to a judgment rendered in either of those courts, and to the proceedings subsequent thereto, and in the action wherein the judgment was rendered; except that the transcript, filed in the clerk's office of the county wherein the court is located, must be furnished by the clerk of the court, in which the judgment was rendered.

§ 3225a. [Added, 1897.] Application of certain sections.

The provisions of sections twenty-nine hundred and ninety to thirty hundred and nine of this act, both inclusive, apply to the justices' court of the city of Troy, except that the city clerk of the city of Troy shall fulfil all the duties therein required of the town clerk.

L. 1897, ch. 604. In effect Sept. 1, 1897.

TITLE V.

The municipal court of the city of Rochester.

Sec. 3226. Provisions of chapter 19 generally applicable to the court and judges.

3227. Appeals.

§ 3226. [Am'd, 1907.] Provisions of chapter 19 generally applicable to the court and judges.

The provisions of chapter nineteenth of this act, excluding section three thousand sixty-three, excluding article three of title eight, and excluding titles tenth and eleventh thereof, apply to the municipal court of the city of Rochester, and to the judges thereof; except so far as they are inconsistent with the next section, or with the charter of the city of Rochester or with any other statute applying to said court or the judges thereof as now existing or hereafter amended. For the purpose of applying the same, the court is deemed a justice's court; each judge thereof is deemed a justice of the peace; and the city of Rochester is deemed a town of Monroe county.

§ 3227. [Added, 1907; am'd, 1908.] Appeals.

Appeals may be taken to the county court of Monroe county from judgments and orders of the municipal court of the city of Rochester and from orders of the judges thereof as provided in articles one and two of title eight of chapter nineteen of this act, and the provisions thereof, except section three thousand sixty-three, apply to such appeals, except as herein expressly modified. The appeal must be heard on the return or a certified or stipulated copy thereof, and may be brought on for hearing in the county court in the same manner and on the same notice as motions are or may be brought on for hearing in said court, or may be put on the calendar of said court as provided in section three thousand sixty-two of this act. An appellant may apply to the county court to open a default as provided in section three thousand sixty-four of this act, which application may be heard without the return unless otherwise ordered by the court; and an appellant may apply upon affidavits and the return to said court for a new trial or hearing upon the ground of newly discovered evidence; the court in either case may stay any or all proceedings under the judgment or order appealed from upon such terms as it deems proper, and may grant a new trial or hearing as hereinafter provided upon such terms as it deems proper. The county court and other appellate courts on such appeals must render judgment according to the justice of the case, without regard to technical errors or defects which do not affect the merits, and may affirm or reverse, wholly or partly, or modify, the judgment or order appealed from for errors of law or of fact or because the judgment is excessive or insufficient or contrary to the evidence or contrary to law, and may, if necessary or proper, grant a new trial or hearing in the municipal court of the city of Rochester, or before a judge thereof, as may be proper, at a time designated by it, and thereupon the municipal court or judge must proceed, and adjournments may be granted, a jury trial demanded, and all other proceedings taken as if the action or proceeding had been commenced anew. A copy of the judgment or order granting a new trial or hearing must be served by the party entering it on the opposite party or his attorney at least two days before the time set for the new trial or hearing. When a new trial or hearing is granted the appellate court may in its discretion award costs of the appeal to either party absolutely or to abide the event.

3234. Costs, where there are several issues of fact.

3235. Id.; after discontinuance upon answer of title.

3236. Costs of a motion.

3237. The foregoing sections limited.

3238. Costs upon appeal from final judgment.

3239. Id.; upon appeal from interlocutory judgment or order.

3240. Id.; in a special proceeding.

§ 3228. [Am'd, 1898, 1904, 1910.] When plaintiff entitled to costs of course.

The plaintiff is entitled to costs of course, upon the rendering of a final judgment in his favor, in either of the following actions.

1. An action, triable by a jury, to recover real property, or an interest in real property; or in which a claim of title to real property arises upon the pleadings, or is certified to have come in question upon the trial.

2. An action to recover a chattel. But if the value of the chattel, or of all the chattels, recovered by the plaintiff, as fixed, together with the damages, if any, awarded to him, is less than fifty dollars, the amount of his costs cannot exceed the amount of the value and the damages.

3. [Am'd, 1898.] An action specified in subdivision first, third, fourth or fifth of section twenty-eight hundred and sixty-three of this act. But if, in an action to recover damages for an assault, battery, false imprisonment, libel, slander, criminal conversation, seduction, or malicious prosecution; or a fine or penalty in which the people of the state are a party, the plaintiff recovers less than fifty dollars damages, the amount of his costs can not exceed the damages.

L. 1898, ch. 110. In effect Sept. 1, 1898. See § 3234.

4. An action, other than one of those specified in the foregoing subdivisions of this section, in which the complaint demands judgment for a sum of money only. But the plaintiff is not entitled to costs, under this subdivision, unless he recovers the sum of fifty dollars or more.

Co. Proc., part of § 304.

am'd
1-80 5. [Added, 1904, am'd, 1910.] In all actions hereafter brought am'd 1916 d. 3-0 in the supreme court, triable in the county of New York which could have been brought, except for the amount claimed therein, in the city court of the city of New York, and in which the defendant shall have been served with process within the county of New York, the plaintiff shall recover no costs or disbursements unless he shall recover one thousand dollars or more. In all actions hereafter brought in the supreme court, triable in the county of Kings, which could have been brought, except for the amount claimed therein, in the county court of Kings county, and in which the defendant shall have been served with process within the county of Kings, the plaintiff shall recover no costs or disbursements unless he shall recover five hundred dollars or more. In all actions hereafter originally brought in the supreme court, triable in the county of Albany, and in which the defendant is a resident of the county of Albany, which could have been brought, except for the amount claimed therein, in the county court of the county of Albany, the plaintiff shall recover no costs or disbursements unless he shall recover five hundred dollars or more. In all actions hereafter brought in the supreme court, triable in the county of New York or the county of Kings, or in the city court of the city of New York or the county court of Kings county, which could have been brought, except for the amount claimed therein, in the municipal court of the city of New York, and in which the defendant shall have been served with process within the city of New York, the plaintiff shall recover no costs or disbursements unless he shall recover two hundred and fifty dollars or more. The fact that in any action a plaintiff is not entitled to costs under the provisions of this subdivision shall not entitle the defendant to costs under the next following section.

§ 3229. When defendant entitled to costs of course. Rule as to two or more defendants.

The defendant is entitled to costs, of course, upon the rendering of final judgment, in an action specified in the last section, unless the plaintiff is entitled to costs, as therein prescribed. But where, in such an action against two or more defendants, the plaintiff is entitled to costs against one or more, but not against all of them, none of the defendants are entitled to costs, of course. In that case, costs may be awarded, in the discretion of the court, to any defendant, against whom the plaintiff is not entitled to costs, where he did not unite in an answer, and was not united in interest, with a defendant, against whom the plaintiff is entitled to costs.

Id., part of §§ 305, 306.

§ 3230. [Am'd, 1900.] When costs are discretionary.

Except as prescribed in the last two sections, the court may, upon the rendering of a final judgment, in its discretion award costs to any party in such sum not exceeding the total amount authorized by statute as to the court shall seem just.

Id., part of § 306; L. 1900 ch. 181. In effect Oct. 1, 1900.

§ 3231 [Am'd, 1895.] Costs, where several actions are brought on same instrument, etc.

Where two or more actions are brought, in a case specified in section 454 of this act, or otherwise for the same cause of action, against persons who might have been joined as defendants in one action, costs, other than disbursements, cannot be recovered, upon the final judgment, by the plaintiff, in more than one action, which shall be at his election. But this prohibition does not apply to a case where the plaintiff joins as defendants, in each action brought, all the persons liable, not previously sued, who can, with reasonable diligence, be found within the State; or, if the action is brought in the city court of the city of New-York, or a county court, within the city or county, as the case may be, where the court is located.

Id., part of § 304. See, also, 2 R. S. 615, § 15 (2 Edm. 638); L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 3232. Interlocutory costs upon issue of law.

Where an issue of law and an issue of fact are joined, between the same parties to the same action, and the issue of fact remains undisposed of, when an interlocutory judgment is rendered upon the issue of law; the interlocutory judgment may, in the discretion of the court, deny costs to either party, or award costs to the prevailing party, either absolutely, or to abide the event of the trial of the issue of fact.

See 2 R. S., § 28.

§ 3233. Id.; how collected.

Section 779 of this act applies to interlocutory costs, awarded as prescribed in the last section, as if they were costs of a motion.

§ 3234. Costs, where there are several issues of fact.

In an action specified in section 3228 of this act, wherein the complaint sets forth separately two or more causes of action, upon which issues of fact are joined, if the plaintiff recovers upon one or more of the issues, and the defendant upon the other or others, each party is entitled to costs against the adverse party, unless it is certified that the substantial cause of action was the same upon each issue; in which case, the plaintiff only is entitled to costs. Costs, to which a party is so entitled, must be included in the final judgment, by adding them to, or offsetting them against, the sum awarded to the prevailing party; or otherwise, as the case requires. But this section does not entitle a plaintiff to costs, in a case specified in subdivision fourth of section 3228 of this act, where he is not entitled to costs, as prescribed in that subdivision.

See 2 R. S. 617, § 26 (2 Edm. 641).

§ 3235. Id.; after discontinuance upon answer of title.

Where an action, brought before a justice of the peace, or in a district court of the city of New-York, or a justice's court of a city, has been discontinued, as prescribed by law, upon the delivery of an answer, showing that title to real property will come in question; and a new action, for the same cause, has been commenced in the proper court; the party in whose favor final judgment is rendered in the new action, is entitled to costs; except that, where final judgment is rendered therein, in favor of the defendant, upon the trial of an issue of fact, the plaintiff is entitled to costs, unless it is certified, that the title to real property came in question on the trial.

Co. Proc., §§ 60 and 61.

§ 3236. Costs of a motion.

Costs upon a motion in an action, where the costs thereof are not specially regulated in this act, or upon a reference made pursuant to sections 623, 624, 827, or 1015 of this act, may be awarded, either absolutely or to abide the event of the action, or of the reference, to any party, in the discretion of the court or judge.

Id., part of § 815. See, also, L. 1840, ch. 386, § 15 (4 Edm. 690).

§ 3237. The foregoing sections limited.

The foregoing sections of this article do not affect the recovery of costs upon an appeal.

§ 3238. Costs upon appeal from final judgment.

Upon an appeal from the final judgment in an action, the recovery of costs is regulated as follows:

1. In an action specified in section 3228 of this act, the respondent is entitled to costs upon the affirmance, and the appellant upon the reversal, of the judgment appealed from; except that, where a new trial is directed, costs may be awarded to either party, absolutely or to abide the event, in the discretion of the court.

2. In every other action, and also where the final judgment appealed from is affirmed in part, and reversed in part, costs may be awarded in like manner, in the discretion of the court.

Co. Proc., part of § 306.

§ 3239. Id.; upon appeal from interlocutory judgment or order.

Upon an appeal from an interlocutory judgment or an order, in an action, costs are in the discretion of the court, and may be awarded absolutely, or to abide the event, except as follows:

1. Where the appeal is taken from an order granting or refusing a new trial, and the decision upon the appeal refuses a new trial, the respondent is entitled, of course, to the costs of the appeal.

2. Where an appeal is taken from an order, refusing a new trial, and an appeal is also taken from the judgment rendered upon the trial, neither party is entitled to the costs of the appeal from the order.

Co. Proc., §§ 306 and 315.

§ 3240. [Am'd, 1881.] Id.; in a special proceeding.

Costs in a special proceeding, instituted in a court of record, or upon an appeal in a special proceeding, taken to a court of record, where the costs thereof are not specially regulated in this act, may be awarded to any party, in the discretion of the court, at the rates allowed for similar services. In an action brought in the same court, or an appeal from a judgment taken to the same court, and in like manner.

See L. 1840, ch. 270, § 3 (4 Edm. 682; 5 Id. 133); also, §§ 2088, 2100, 2143, 2241, 2316, 2401, 2445, 2456, ante.

TITLE IV.

The district courts of the city of New-York, and the justices' courts of the cities of Albany* and Troy.

- Article 1. Provisions generally applicable to all the courts specified in this title.
 2. Provisions exclusively applicable to the district courts of the city of New-York.
 3. Provisions exclusively applicable to the justices' courts of Albany and Troy.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Provisions generally applicable to all the courts specified in this title.

Sec. 3207. Service of complaint with summons; proceedings thereupon.

3208. Id.; and proof of service.

3209. Action to be commenced by service of summons.

3210. Order of arrest; warrant of attachment; requisition to replevy.

3211. The last section qualified.

3212. Proceedings where title to real property is in question.

3213. Appeals.

3214. Effect of this act, upon jurisdiction and proceedings.

§ 3207. Service of complaint with summons; proceedings thereupon.

Section 3126 of this act applies to an action to recover upon or for breach of a contract, express or implied, brought in a district court of the city of New-York, in the justice's court of the city of Albany, or in the justice's court of the city of Troy.

L. 1857, ch. 344, § 15; L. 1873, ch. 182, §§ 1 and 2.

In an action brought in either of those courts, the summons, and, in a proper case, a copy of the complaint, may be served by any person not a party to the action; except that, where the action is brought in a district court of the city of New-York, a person, other than a constable or a marshal, serving the same, must be first empowered to do so, either by the justice, or by the attorney to the corporation, as now prescribed by law. Proof of service thereof, by such a person, must be made by his affidavit; which must state the particular place, time, and manner of service, and that the affiant knew the person so served, to be the person mentioned and described in the summons, as defendant therein.

See L. 1873, ch. 182, §§ 1 and 3; L. 1857, ch. 344, § 15; L. 1862, ch. 484, § 14; L. 1864, ch. 569, § 2, and L. 1866, ch. 758; also § 2878, ante.

§ 3209. Action to be commenced by service of summons.

An action, brought in either of those courts, at any time after this chapter takes effect, must be commenced by the voluntary appearance of, and joinder of issue by, the parties, or by the service of a summons.

§ 3210. [Am'd, 1884.] Order of arrest; warrant of attachment; requisition to replevy.

Articles third, fourth, and fifth of title second of chapter nineteenth of this act apply to an action brought in either of those courts, except as otherwise prescribed in the next section. And except, also, that where the warrant of attachment, or requisition to replevy, is issued out of a district court of the city of New-York, against a non-resident defendant, the said warrant, or requisition, must require the marshal to attach or replevy the property, on or before a day therein specified, which must be not less than two nor more than four days before the return day of the summons.

* The title is now "City Court of Albany," Laws 1884, ch. 123.

L. 1884, ch. 400.

The provisions of the last section are subject to the following qualifications:

1. Nothing contained in either of the articles, so made applicable, applies to an order of arrest, in an action brought in a district court of the city of New-York, or affects any provision of this title, relating to the jurisdiction of either of the courts specified in this title.

2. An order of arrest in an action brought in the justice's court of Albany, or the justice's court of Troy, or a warrant of attachment, or a requisition to replevy, in either of those courts, or in a district court of the city of New-York, must be granted by, and directed to, and executed by, the officer empowered, by the statutes remaining in force after this chapter takes effect, to grant or execute, as the case requires, in the same court, a warrant to arrest, a warrant of attachment, or a requisition in an action to recover a chattel.

3. The manner of applying for, granting, and executing an order of arrest, a warrant of attachment, or a requisition to replevy, and the proceedings thereupon, and with respect thereto, as prescribed in the articles so made applicable, are subject to the statutes, remaining unrepealed after this chapter takes effect, specially applicable to those courts, or to either or any of them, prescribing the duties of the justices, or of the clerks thereof, or regulating the mode of transacting business in an action brought therein.

Sections 2951 to 2958 of this act, both inclusive, apply to an action, brought in either of those courts; except that, where the action is brought in a district court of the city of New-York, the surety upon the defendant's undertaking is liable, in the case specified in section 2952, to any amount, for which judgment might have been rendered by the district court, if the answer and undertaking had not been delivered.

See Co. Proc., § 68.

An appeal from a judgment, rendered in a district court of the city of New York, may be taken to the supreme court, in the cases, and in the manner prescribed in articles first and second of title eight of chapter nineteenth of this act. Such appeal shall be heard in such manner and by such justice or justices as the appellate division of the supreme court in the first department shall direct. The appellate court may reverse, affirm or modify the judgment appealed from, and where a judgment is reversed, may order a new trial in the district court. Where a judgment is modified, or where a new trial is ordered, costs shall be in the discretion of the appellate court. An appeal from the judgment rendered in the justice's court of the city of Albany, or the justice's court of the city of Troy, may be taken in a case where an appeal may be taken to a county court from a judgment rendered by a justice of the peace as prescribed by title eight of that chapter, and in no other case. Such an appeal must be taken to the county court of the county wherein the court is located.

L. 1857, ch. 244, § 76; L. 1895, ch. 946.

Except as otherwise specially prescribed in this title, this act does not affect any statutory provision remaining unrepealed after this chapter takes effect, relating to the jurisdiction and powers of either of those courts; the appointment, qualification, tenure of office, powers, or duties of the justices, or of the clerk, or any other officer thereof; or the proceedings therein; except that a provision of this or any other statute, whereby a proceeding in an action, brought in either of those courts, or a special proceeding, brought therein, or before a justice thereof, is assimilated, either expressly, or by reference to another provision of law, to a proceeding, in an action or a special proceeding before a justice of the peace, is deemed to refer to the corresponding proceeding, as prescribed in chapter nineteenth of this act.

§ 3216. Repealed, 1902. See the Municipal Court Act of New York city.

§ 3217. Repealed, 1902. See the Municipal Court Act of New York city.

§ 3218. Proceedings thereupon.

An order of arrest must direct that the summons accompanying it be made returnable, immediately upon the arrest of the defendant; and it must specify a sum, in which the defendant may be let to bail. Sections 3179 to 3181, both inclusive, section 3182, except the last sentence thereof, and section 3183 of this act, apply to an order of arrest, granted in an action in either of those courts; and to the proceedings upon, and relating to, the execution thereof. In all other respects, the statutory provisions remaining unrepealed after this chapter takes effect, which apply to and regulate the application for a warrant to arrest a defendant, the granting and execution thereof, and the proceedings subsequent thereto, apply to and regulate the application for an order of arrest, the granting and execution thereof, and the proceedings subsequent thereto.

ARTICLE THIRD.

Provisions exclusively applicable to the justices' courts of Albany and Troy.

Sec. 3223. Jurisdiction in civil actions.

3224. Id.; upon judgment by confession.

3225. Docketing judgments; execution thereupon.

3225a. Application of certain sections.

§ 3223. Jurisdiction in civil actions.

The justice's court of the city of Albany, and the justice's court of the city of Troy, have jurisdiction, each within the city where the court is located, of an action, of which a justice of the peace has jurisdiction, as prescribed in sections 1737, 2861, 2862, and 2863 of this act; and also of an action to recover a penalty, given by the charter, or a by-law or an ordinance of the common council of that city, where the plaintiff demands judgment for a sum, not exceeding two hundred dollars. Neither of those courts has jurisdiction of any other civil action; but this section does not affect the jurisdiction conferred, by the statutory provisions remaining in force after this chapter takes effect, upon either of those courts, in a special proceeding.

The jurisdiction of each of those courts extends also to the taking and entry of a judgment, upon the confession of a defendant, as prescribed in title sixth of chapter nineteenth of this act, where the sum confessed does not exceed five hundred dollars.

§ 3225. Docketing judgments; execution thereupon.

The provisions of sections 3017 to 3022 of this act, both inclusive, apply to a judgment rendered in either of those courts, and to the proceedings subsequent thereto, and in the action wherein the judgment was rendered; except that the transcript, filed in the clerk's office of the county wherein the court is located, must be furnished by the clerk of the court, in which the judgment was rendered.

§ 3225a. [Added, 1897.] Application of certain sections.

The provisions of sections twenty-nine hundred and ninety to thirty hundred and nine of this act, both inclusive, apply to the justices' court of the city of Troy, except that the city clerk of the city of Troy shall fulfil all the duties therein required of the town clerk.

L. 1897, ch. 604. In effect Sept. 1, 1897.

TITLE V.

The municipal court of the city of Rochester.

Sec. 3226. Provisions of chapter 19 generally applicable to the court and judges.

3227. Appeals.

§ 3226. [Am'd, 1907.] Provisions of chapter 19 generally applicable to the court and judges.

The provisions of chapter nineteenth of this act, excluding section three thousand sixty-three, excluding article three of title eight, and excluding titles tenth and eleventh thereof, apply to the municipal court of the city of Rochester, and to the judges thereof; except so far as they are inconsistent with the next section, or with the charter of the city of Rochester or with any other statute applying to said court or the judges thereof as now existing or hereafter amended. For the purpose of applying the same, the court is deemed a justice's court; each judge thereof is deemed a justice of the peace; and the city of Rochester is deemed a town of Monroe county.

§ 3227. [Added, 1907; am'd, 1908.] Appeals.

Appeals may be taken to the county court of Monroe county from judgments and orders of the municipal court of the city of Rochester and from orders of the judges thereof as provided in articles one and two of title eight of chapter nineteen of this act, and the provisions thereof, except section three thousand sixty-three, apply to such appeals, except as herein expressly modified. The appeal must be heard on the return or a certified or stipulated copy thereof, and may be brought on for hearing in the county court in the same manner and on the same notice as motions are or may be brought on for hearing in said court, or may be put on the calendar of said court as provided in section three thousand sixty-two of this act. An appellant may apply to the county court to open a default as provided in section three thousand sixty-four of this act, which application may be heard without the return unless otherwise ordered by the court; and an appellant may apply upon affidavits and the return to said court for a new trial or hearing upon the ground of newly discovered evidence; the court in either case may stay any or all proceedings under the judgment or order appealed from upon such terms as it deems proper, and may grant a new trial or hearing as hereinafter provided upon such terms as it deems proper. The county court and other appellate courts on such appeals must render judgment according to the justice of the case, without regard to technical errors or defects which do not affect the merits, and may affirm or reverse, wholly or partly, or modify, the judgment or order appealed from for errors of law or of fact or because the judgment is excessive or insufficient or contrary to the evidence or contrary to law, and may, if necessary or proper, grant a new trial or hearing in the municipal court of the city of Rochester, or before a judge thereof, as may be proper, at a time designated by it, and thereupon the municipal court or judge must proceed, and adjournments may be granted, a jury trial demanded, and all other proceedings taken as if the action or proceeding had been commenced anew. A copy of the judgment or order granting a new trial or hearing must be served by the party entering it on the opposite party or his attorney at least two days before the time set for the new trial or hearing. When a new trial or hearing is granted the appellate court may in its discretion award costs of the appeal to either party absolutely or to abide the event.

L. 1907, ch. 754; L. 1908, ch. 308. In effect Sept. 1, 1908.

Costs and Fees.

TITLE I.—Awarding and Enforcing Payment of Costs.

TITLE II.—Fixing the Amount of Costs.

TITLE III.—Security for Costs.

TITLE IV.—General Provisions Relating to Fees.

TITLE V.—Sums Allowed as Fees.

TITLE I.

Awarding and enforcing payment of costs.

- Article 1. General regulations respecting the awarding of costs.
 2. Regulations respecting the awarding of costs in particular cases.
 3. Miscellaneous provisions.

ARTICLE FIRST.

General regulations respecting the awarding of costs.

Sec. 3228. When plaintiff entitled to costs of course.

3229. When defendant entitled to costs of course. Rule as to two or more defendants.

3230. When costs are discretionary.

3231. Costs, where several actions are brought on same instrument, (c. c.)

3232. Interlocutory costs upon issue of law.

3233. Id.; how collected.

3234. Costs, where there are several issues of fact.

3235. Id.; after discontinuance upon answer of title.

3236. Costs of a motion.

3237. The foregoing sections limited.

3238. Costs upon appeal from final judgment.

3239. Id.; upon appeal from interlocutory judgment or order.

3240. Id.; in a special proceeding.

§ 3228. [Am'd, 1898, 1904, 1910.] When plaintiff entitled to costs of course.

The plaintiff is entitled to costs of course, upon the rendering of a final judgment in his favor, in either of the following actions.

1. An action, triable by a jury, to recover real property, or an interest in real property; or in which a claim of title to real property arises upon the pleadings, or is certified to have come in question upon the trial.

2. An action to recover a chattel. But if the value of the chattel, or of all the chattels, recovered by the plaintiff, as fixed, together with the damages, if any, awarded to him, is less than fifty dollars, the amount of his costs cannot exceed the amount of the value and the damages.

3. [Am'd, 1898.] An action specified in subdivision first, third, fourth or fifth of section twenty-eight hundred and sixty-three of this act. But if, in an action to recover damages for an assault, battery, false imprisonment, libel, slander, criminal conversation, seduction, or malicious prosecution; or a fine or penalty in which the people of the state are a party, the plaintiff recovers less than fifty dollars damages, the amount of his costs can not exceed the damages.

L. 1898, ch. 110. In effect Sept. 1, 1898. See § 3234.

4. An action, other than one of those specified in the foregoing subdivisions of this section, in which the complaint demands judgment for a sum of money only. But the plaintiff is not entitled to costs, under this subdivision, unless he recovers the sum of fifty dollars or more.

Co. Proc., part of § 304.

Am'd
C-1914
h-80 5. [Added, 1904, am'd, 1910.] In all actions hereafter brought am'd
1916
5-0 in the supreme court, triable in the county of New York which could have been brought, except for the amount claimed therein, in the city court of the city of New York, and in which the defendant shall have been served with process within the county of New York, the plaintiff shall recover no costs or disbursements unless he shall recover one thousand dollars or more. In all actions hereafter brought in the supreme court, triable in the county of Kings, which could have been brought, except for the amount claimed therein, in the county court of Kings county, and in which the defendant shall have been served with process within the county of Kings, the plaintiff shall recover no costs or disbursements unless he shall recover five hundred dollars or more. In all actions hereafter originally brought in the supreme court, triable in the county of Albany, and in which the defendant is a resident of the county of Albany, which could have been brought, except for the amount claimed therein, in the county court of the county of Albany, the plaintiff shall recover no costs or disbursements unless he shall recover five hundred dollars or more. In all actions hereafter brought in the supreme court, triable in the county of New York or the county of Kings, or in the city court of the city of New York or the county court of Kings county, which could have been brought, except for the amount claimed therein, in the municipal court of the city of New York, and in which the defendant shall have been served with process within the city of New York, the plaintiff shall recover no costs or disbursements unless he shall recover two hundred and fifty dollars or more. The fact that in any action a plaintiff is not entitled to costs under the provisions of this subdivision shall not entitle the defendant to costs under the next following section.

L. 1904, ch. 557; L. 1910, ch. 574. In effect Sept. 1, 1910.

§ 3229. When defendant entitled to costs of course. Rule as to two or more defendants.

The defendant is entitled to costs, of course, upon the rendering of final judgment, in an action specified in the last section, unless the plaintiff is entitled to costs, as therein prescribed. But where, in such an action against two or more defendants, the plaintiff is entitled to costs against one or more, but not against all of them, none of the defendants are entitled to costs, of course. In that case, costs may be awarded, in the discretion of the court, to any defendant, against whom the plaintiff is not entitled to costs, where he did not unite in an answer, and was not united in interest, with a defendant, against whom the plaintiff is entitled to costs.

Id., part of §§ 305, 306.

§ 3230. [Am'd, 1900.] When costs are discretionary.

Except as prescribed in the last two sections, the court may, upon the rendering of a final judgment, in its discretion award costs to any party in such sum not exceeding the total amount authorized by statute as to the court shall seem just.

Id., part of § 306; L. 1900 ch. 181. In effect Oct. 1, 1900.

§ 3231 [Am'd, 1895.] Costs, where several actions are brought on same instrument, etc.

Where two or more actions are brought, in a case specified in section 454 of this act, or otherwise for the same cause of action, against persons who might have been joined as defendants in one action, costs, other than disbursements, cannot be recovered, upon the final judgment, by the plaintiff, in more than one action, which shall be at his election. But this prohibition does not apply to a case where the plaintiff joins as defendants, in each action brought, all the persons liable, not previously sued, who can, with reasonable diligence, be found within the State; or, if the action is brought in the city court of the city of New-York, or a county court, within the city or county, as the case may be, where the court is located.

Id., part of § 304. See, also, 2 R. S. 615, § 15 (2 Edm. 638); L. 1805, ch. 946.

§ 3232. Interlocutory costs upon issue of law.

Where an issue of law and an issue of fact are joined, between the same parties to the same action, and the issue of fact remains undisposed of, when an interlocutory judgment is rendered upon the issue of law; the interlocutory judgment may, in the discretion of the court, deny costs to either party, or award costs to the prevailing party, either absolutely, or to abide the event of the trial of the issue of fact.

See 2 R. S., § 28.

§ 3233. Id.; how collected.

Section 779 of this act applies to interlocutory costs, awarded as prescribed in the last section, as if they were costs of a motion.

§ 3234. Costs, where there are several issues of fact.

In an action specified in section 3228 of this act, wherein the complaint sets forth separately two or more causes of action, upon which issues of fact are joined, if the plaintiff recovers upon one or more of the issues, and the defendant upon the other or others, each party is entitled to costs against the adverse party, unless it is certified that the substantial cause of action was the same upon each issue; in which case, the plaintiff only is entitled to costs. Costs, to which a party is so entitled, must be included in the final judgment, by adding them to, or offsetting them against, the sum awarded to the prevailing party; or otherwise, as the case requires. But this section does not entitle a plaintiff to costs, in a case specified in subdivision fourth of section 3228 of this act, where he is not entitled to costs, as prescribed in that subdivision.

See 2 R. S. 617, § 26 (2 Edm. 641).

§ 3235. Id.; after discontinuance upon answer of title.

Where an action, brought before a justice of the peace, or in a district court of the city of New-York, or a justice's court of a city, has been discontinued, as prescribed by law, upon the delivery of an answer, showing that title to real property will come in question; and a new action, for the same cause, has been commenced in the proper court; the party in whose favor final judgment is rendered in the new action, is entitled to costs; except that, where final judgment is rendered therein, in favor of the defendant, upon the trial of an issue of fact, the plaintiff is entitled to costs, unless it is certified, that the title to real property came in question on the trial.

Co. Proc., §§ 60 and 61.

§ 3236. Costs of a motion.

Costs upon a motion in an action, where the costs thereof are not specially regulated in this act, or upon a reference made pursuant to sections 623, 624, 827, or 1015 of this act, may be awarded, either absolutely or to abide the event of the action, or of the reference, to any party, in the discretion of the court or judge.

Id., part of § 315. See, also, L. 1840, ch. 386, § 15 (4 Edm. 690).

§ 3237. The foregoing sections limited.

The foregoing sections of this article do not affect the recovery of costs upon an appeal.

§ 3238. Costs upon appeal from final judgment.

Upon an appeal from the final judgment in an action, the recovery of costs is regulated as follows:

1. In an action specified in section 3228 of this act, the respondent is entitled to costs upon the affirmance, and the appellant upon the reversal, of the judgment appealed from; except that, where a new trial is directed, costs may be awarded to either party, absolutely or to abide the event, in the discretion of the court.

2. In every other action, and also where the final judgment appealed from is affirmed in part, and reversed in part, costs may be awarded in like manner, in the discretion of the court.

Co. Proc., part of § 306.

§ 3239. Id.; upon appeal from interlocutory judgment or order.

Upon an appeal from an interlocutory judgment or an order, in an action, costs are in the discretion of the court, and may be awarded absolutely, or to abide the event, except as follows:

1. Where the appeal is taken from an order granting or refusing a new trial, and the decision upon the appeal refuses a new trial, the respondent is entitled, of course, to the costs of the appeal.

2. Where an appeal is taken from an order, refusing a new trial, and an appeal is also taken from the judgment rendered upon the trial, neither party is entitled to the costs of the appeal from the order.

Co. Proc., §§ 306 and 315.

§ 3240. [Am'd, 1881.] Id.; in a special proceeding.

Costs in a special proceeding, instituted in a court of record, or upon an appeal in a special proceeding, taken to a court of record, where the costs thereof are not specially regulated in this act, may be awarded to any party, in the discretion of the court, at the rates allowed for similar services, in an action brought in the same court, or an appeal from a judgment taken to the same court, and in like manner.

See L. 1840, ch. 270, § 3 (4 Edm. 682; 5 id. 123); also, §§ 2086, 2109, 2143, 2210, 2316, 2401, 2445, 2456, ante.

ARTICLE SECOND.

Regulations respecting the awarding of costs in particular cases.

Sec. 3241. Costs against the State; how paid.

3242. Costs where action brought by people on relation of private person.

3243. Id.; for the benefit of a county, etc.

3244. Costs, against a school officer.

3245. Id.; against a municipal corporation.

3246. Id.; by or against an executor, etc.

3247. Costs in case of transfer, etc., of cause of action.

§ 3241. Costs against the State; how paid.

Where costs are awarded against the people of the State in an action or a special proceeding brought, by a public officer, pursuant to any provision of law, and the proceedings have not been stayed, by appeal or otherwise; the comptroller must draw his warrant upon the treasurer, for the payment of the costs, out of any money in the treasury, appropriated for that purpose, upon the production to him of an exemplified copy of the judgment, or order awarding the costs, and, where the amount is not fixed thereby, of a taxed bill of costs; accompanied, in either case, with a certificate of the attorney-general, to the effect that the action or special proceeding was brought pursuant to law. The fees of the clerk, for the exemplified copy, must be certified thereupon by him, and included in the warrant.

2 R. S. 553, § 14 (2 Edm. 573).

§ 3242. Costs where action brought by people on relation of private person.

Where an action is brought, in the name of the people of the State, upon the relation of a private corporation or individual, as prescribed in section 1986 of this act, a judgment, awarding costs to the defendant, must award them, against the relator, in the first instance; and against the people, only in case an execution, issued thereupon against the property of the relator, is returned unsatisfied.

Co. Proc., part of § 319.

§ 3243. Id.; for the benefit of a county, etc.

In an action or a special proceeding, brought in the name of the people of the State, to recover money or property, or to establish a right or claim, for the benefit of a county, city, town, or village, costs shall not be awarded against the people; but, where they are awarded to the defendant, they must be awarded against the body for whose benefit the action or special proceeding was brought.

Id., § 320.

§ 3244. Costs, against a school officer.

Costs cannot be awarded to the plaintiff, in an action against a school officer, or a supervisor, on account of an act performed by him, by virtue of, or under color of his office; or on account of a refusal or an omission to perform a duty enjoined upon him by law: where his act, refusal or omission might have been the subject of an appeal to the State superintendent of public instruction, and where it is certified that it appeared, upon the trial, that the defendant acted in good faith. But this section does not apply to an action for a penalty; or to an action or a special proceeding, to enforce a decision of the superintendent.

L. 1864, ch. 535, § 6 (5 Edm. 361).

§ 3245. [Am'd, 1899.] Id.; against a municipal corporation.

Costs cannot be awarded to the plaintiff, in an action against a municipal corporation, in which the complaint demands a judgment for a sum of money only, unless the claim, on which the action is founded, was, before the commencement of the action, presented to the board of such corporation having the power to audit the same, or to its chief fiscal officer, at least ten days before the commencement of said action.

L. 1859, ch. 262, § 2 (4 Edm. 662); L. 1886, ch. 573; L. 1899, ch. 609. In effect Sept. 1, 1899.

In an action, brought by or against an executor or administrator, in his representative capacity, or the trustee of an express trust, or a person expressly authorized by statute to sue or to be sued, costs must be awarded, as in an action by or against a person, prosecuting or defending in his own right, except as otherwise prescribed in sections 1835 and 1836 of this act; but they are exclusively chargeable upon, and collectible from the estate, fund, or person represented, unless the court directs them to be paid, by the party personally, for mismanagement or bad faith in the prosecution or defence of the action.

Co. Proc., part of § 317.

§ 3247. Costs in case of transfer, etc., of cause of action.

Where an action is brought, in the name of another, by a transferee of the cause of action, or by the other person, who is beneficially interested therein; or where, after the commencement of an action, the cause of action becomes, by transfer or otherwise, the property of a person, not a party to the action; the transferee, or other person so interested, is liable for costs, in the like cases, and to the same extent, as if he was the plaintiff; and, where costs are awarded against the plaintiff, the court may, by order, direct the person so liable to pay them. Except in a case, where he could not have been lawfully directed to pay costs, personally, if he had been a party, as prescribed in the last section, his disobedience to the order is a contempt of court. But this section does not apply to a case, where the person so beneficially interested, is the attorney or counsel for the plaintiff, if his only beneficial interest consists of a right to a portion of the sum or property recovered, as compensation for his services in the action.

Id., § 321; 2 R. S. 619, § 44 (2 Edm. 643).

ARTICLE THIRD.

Miscellaneous provisions.

Sec. 3248. Certificate entitling party to costs or increased costs.
3249. Costs against infant plaintiff; collectible of guardian ad litem.
3250. This title not to affect special provisions of law.

3248. Certificate entitling party to costs or increased costs.

Where, upon the trial of an action, the title to real property comes in question, or any fact appears, whereby either party becomes entitled to costs, or to the increased costs specified in section 3258 of this act, the judge presiding at the trial, or the referee, must, upon the application of the party to be benefited thereby, either before or after the verdict, report, or decision is rendered, make a certificate, stating the fact. Such a certificate is the only competent evidence, as to the matter, before the taxing officer.

2 R. S. 653, § 8 (2 Edm. 73).

§ 3249. Costs against infant plaintiff; collectible of guardian ad litem.

Where costs are awarded against an infant plaintiff, they may be collected, by execution or otherwise, from his guardian ad litem, in like manner as if the latter was the plaintiff.

Co. Proc., § 316; 2 R. S. 653, §§ 15 and 16. See § 469, ante.

§ 3250. This title not to affect special provisions of law.

This title does not affect any provision contained elsewhere in this act, or in any other statute, remaining unrepealed after this chapter takes effect; whereby the award of costs is specially regulated, in a particular case, otherwise than as prescribed in this title.

TITLE II.

Fixing the amount of costs.

- Article 1. Sums allowed as costs; disbursements.
2. Taxation of costs.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Sums allowed as costs; disbursements.

- Sec. 3251. Amount of costs generally.
3252. Additional allowance to plaintiff in foreclosure, partition, etc.
3253. Additional allowance to either party in difficult cases, etc.
3254. Allowances under the foregoing sections limited.
3255. Costs upon adjournment of trial.
3256. Disbursements to be included in bill of costs.
3257. Increased damages not to carry increased costs.
3258. When defendant entitled to increased costs.
3259. Increased disbursements not allowed.
3260. Costs upon a settlement.
3261. This article not to affect special provisions of law.

§ 3251. [Am'd, 1895, 1896, 1901.] Amount of costs generally.

Costs, awarded to a party to an action, must be at the following rates:

1. To the plaintiff:

For all proceedings, before notice of trial, in an action specified in section 420 of this act, fifteen dollars; in every other action, twenty-five dollars.

For each additional defendant served with the summons, not exceeding ten, two dollars; and for each necessary defendant, in excess of that number, served with the summons, one dollar.

For procuring the appointment of a guardian or guardian ad litem, for one or more infant defendants, ten dollars.

For procuring an order directing the service of the summons by publication thereof, or personally, without the state, on one or more defendants, ten dollars.

For procuring an injunction order or an order of arrest, ten dollars.

2. To the defendant:

For all proceedings before notice of trial, except as otherwise prescribed in this article, ten dollars.

3. [Am'd, 1901.] To either party:

For all proceedings, after notice of trial, and before trial, except as otherwise prescribed in this article, fifteen dollars.

For taking the deposition of a witness or of a party, as prescribed in section eight hundred and seventy, section eight hundred and seventy-one, or section eight hundred and ninety-three of this act, ten dollars.

For drawing interrogatories, to be annexed to a commission, or to letters rogatory, issued as prescribed in sections eight hundred and eighty-eight, nine hundred and twelve, nine hundred and thirteen, and three thousand one hundred and seventy-one of this act, ten dollars.

For the trial of an issue of law, twenty dollars.

For the trial of an issue of fact, or the assessment of damages pursuant to section one hundred and ninety-four of this act, thirty dollars; and, where the trial necessarily occupies more than two days, ten dollars in addition thereto.

ARTICLE THIRD.

Miscellaneous provisions.

Sec. 3248. Certificate entitling party to costs or increased costs.

3249. Costs against infant plaintiff; collectible of guardian ad litem.

3250. This title not to affect special provisions of law.

3248. Certificate entitling party to costs or increased costs.

Where, upon the trial of an action, the title to real property comes in question, or any fact appears, whereby either party becomes entitled to costs, or to the increased costs specified in section 3258 of this act, the judge presiding at the trial, or the referee, must, upon the application of the party to be benefited thereby, either before or after the verdict, report, or decision is rendered, make a certificate, stating the fact. Such a certificate is the only competent evidence, as to the matter, before the taxing officer.

2 R. S. 653, § 8 (2 Edm. 73).

§ 3249. Costs against infant plaintiff; collectible of guardian ad litem.

Where costs are awarded against an infant plaintiff, they may be collected, by execution or otherwise, from his guardian ad litem, in like manner as if the latter was the plaintiff.

Co. Proc., § 316; 2 R. S. 653, §§ 15 and 16. See § 469, ante.

§ 3250. This title not to affect special provisions of law.

This title does not affect any provision contained elsewhere in this act, or in any other statute, remaining unrepealed after this chapter takes effect; whereby the award of costs is specially regulated, in a particular case, otherwise than as prescribed in this title.

TITLE II.

Fixing the amount of costs.

Article 1. Sums allowed as costs; disbursements.

2. Taxation of costs.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Sums allowed as costs; disbursements.

Sec. 3251. Amount of costs generally.

3252. Additional allowance to plaintiff in foreclosure, partition, etc.

3253. Additional allowance to either party in difficult cases, etc.

3254. Allowances under the foregoing sections limited.

3255. Costs upon adjournment of trial.

3256. Disbursements to be included in bill of costs.

3257. Increased damages not to carry increased costs.

3258. When defendant entitled to increased costs.

3259. Increased disbursements not allowed.

3260. Costs upon a settlement.

3261. This article not to affect special provisions of law.

§ 3251. [Am'd, 1895, 1896, 1901.] Amount of costs generally.

Costs, awarded to a party to an action, must be at the following rates:

1. To the plaintiff:

For all proceedings, before notice of trial, in an action specified in section 420 of this act, fifteen dollars; in every other action, twenty-five dollars.

For each additional defendant served with the summons, not exceeding ten, two dollars; and for each necessary defendant, in excess of that number, served with the summons, one dollar.

For procuring the appointment of a guardian or guardian ad litem, for one or more infant defendants, ten dollars.

For procuring an order directing the service of the summons by publication thereof, or personally, without the state, on one or more defendants, ten dollars.

For procuring an injunction order or an order of arrest, ten dollars.

2. To the defendant:

For all proceedings before notice of trial, except as otherwise prescribed in this article, ten dollars.

3. [Am'd, 1901.] To either party:

For all proceedings, after notice of trial, and before trial, except as otherwise prescribed in this article, fifteen dollars.

For taking the deposition of a witness or of a party, as prescribed in section eight hundred and seventy, section eight hundred and seventy-one, or section eight hundred and ninety-three of this act, ten dollars.

For drawing interrogatories, to be annexed to a commission, or to letters rogatory, issued as prescribed in sections eight hundred and eighty-eight, nine hundred and twelve, nine hundred and thirteen, and three thousand one hundred and seventy-one of this act, ten dollars.

For the trial of an issue of law, twenty dollars.

For the trial of an issue of fact, or the assessment of damages pursuant to section one hundred and ninety-four of this act, thirty dollars; and, where the trial necessarily occupies more than two days, ten dollars in addition thereto.

For making and serving a case, twenty dollars; and, when the case necessarily contains more than fifty folios, ten dollars in addition thereto.

For making and serving amendments to a case, twenty dollars.

Upon a motion for a new trial, upon a case, or an application for judgment upon a special verdict, the same sums as upon an appeal, as prescribed in subdivision fourth of this section.

Upon any other motion, or upon a reference specified in section three thousand two hundred and thirty-six of this act, to each party to whom costs are awarded, a sum fixed by the court or judge, not exceeding ten dollars, besides necessary disbursements for printing and referee's fees.

Where a new trial is had, pursuant to an order granting the same, or an assessment of damages, pursuant to section one hundred and ninety-four of this act, is had, for all proceedings after the granting of, and before the new trial, or an assessment of damages, pursuant to section one hundred ninety-four of this act, twenty-five dollars.

For one term of the city court of the city of New York, at which the case is necessarily on the calendar, and for each trial term or special term, of the supreme court, or a county court, not exceeding five, at which the cause is necessarily on the calendar, excluding the term at which it is tried, or otherwise finally disposed of, ten dollars.

L. 1901, ch. 527. In effect Sept. 1, 1901.

4. [Am'd, 1902.] To either party, upon an appeal to the supreme court from an inferior court, excepting upon an appeal to the supreme court from the city court of the city of New York; or upon an appeal to the appellate division of the supreme court, or to the supreme court from the city court of the city of New York, taken from an interlocutory or final judgment, or from an order granting or refusing a new trial, rendered or made at a trial term of the supreme court or of the city court of the city of New York; or upon an application to the appellate division of the supreme court for a new trial, or for judgment upon a verdict, rendered subject to the opinion of the court, or where exceptions are ordered to be heard, in the first instance, at a term of the appellate division of the supreme court; before argument, twenty dollars. For argument, forty dollars. For each term of the appellate division, not exceeding five, of the supreme court, at which the cause is necessarily on the calendar, excluding the term at which it is argued, or otherwise finally disposed of; ten dollars. In all appeals taken under section thirty-one hundred and eighty-nine costs awarded to the successful party shall not exceed ten dollars in addition to the taxable disbursements.

L. 1902, ch. 515. In effect Sept. 1, 1902.

5. To either party, upon an appeal to the court of appeals:

Before argument, thirty dollars.

For argument, sixty dollars.

For each term, not exceeding ten, at which the cause is on the calendar, excluding the term at which it is argued, or otherwise finally disposed of, ten dollars.

Where a judgment is affirmed by the court of appeals, the court may, in its discretion, also award damages, by way of costs, for the delay, not exceeding ten per centum upon the amount of the judgment; or, where it was rendered upon an appeal, upon the amount of the original judgment.

Co. Proc., §§ 307 and 315; L. 1895, ch. 946. In effect September 1, 1896.
L. 1896, ch. 226.

§ 3252. Additional allowance to plaintiff in foreclosure, partition, etc.

Where the action is brought to foreclose a mortgage upon real property; or for the partition of real property; or to procure an adjudication upon a will or other instrument in writing; or to compel the determination of a claim to real property; or where, in any action, a warrant of attachment against property has been issued; the plaintiff, if a final judgment is rendered in his favor, and he recovers costs, is entitled to recover, in addition to the costs prescribed in the last section, the following percentages, to be estimated upon the amount found to be due upon the mortgage; or the value of the property partitioned, affected by the adjudication upon the will or other instrument, or the claim to which is determined; or the value of the property attached, not exceeding the sum recovered, or claimed; as the case may be.

Upon a sum, not exceeding two hundred dollars, ten per centum.

Upon an additional sum, not exceeding four hundred dollars, five per centum.

Upon an additional sum, not exceeding one thousand dollars, two per centum.

Where such an action is settled before judgment, the plaintiff is entitled to a percentage upon the amount paid or secured upon the settlement, at one-half of those rates. In an action to foreclose a mortgage upon real property, where a part of the mortgage debt is not due, if the final judgment directs the sale of the whole property, as prescribed in section 1637 of this act, the percentages, specified in this section, must be computed upon the whole sum, unpaid upon the mortgage. But if it directs the sale of a part only, as prescribed in section 1636 of this act, they must be computed upon the sum actually due; and if the court thereafter grants an order, directing the sale of the remainder, or a part thereof, the percentages must be computed upon the amount then due; but the aggregate of the percentages shall not exceed the sum, which would have been allowed, if the entire sum secured by the mortgage had been due, when final judgment was rendered.

Co. Proc., §§ 308 and 309. See Rule 45.

§ 3253. [Am'd, 1896, 1898, 1899, 1903, 1909.] Additional allowance to either party in difficult and certain other cases.

In an action brought to foreclose a mortgage upon real property or for the partition of real property, or in a difficult and extraordinary case, (where a defense has been interposed in an action), or, except in the first and second judicial districts, in a special proceeding by certiorari to review an assessment under article thirteen of the tax law, and the acts amending the same, the court may also, in its discretion, award to any party a further sum, as follows:

1. In an action to foreclose a mortgage, a sum not exceeding two and one-half per centum upon the sum due, or claimed to be due upon the mortgage, nor the aggregate sum of two hundred dollars.

2. In any action, or special proceeding, specified in this section, where a defense has been interposed, or in an action for the partition of real property, a sum not exceeding five per centum upon the sum recovered or claimed, or the value of the subject matter involved.

Id., § 309; L. 1896, ch. 571; L. 1898, ch. 61; L. 1899, ch. 299; L. 1903, ch. 316. Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 63, § 3. See note 56 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code. See Rule 45.

§ 3254. Allowances under the foregoing sections limited.

But all the sums awarded to the plaintiff, as prescribed in section 3252 of this act, or to a party or two or more parties on the same side, as prescribed in the last sentence of section 3251 of this act, and in subdivision second of the last section, cannot exceed, in the aggregate, two thousand dollars.

Co. Proc., § 308.

§ 3255. [Am'd, 1895.] Costs upon adjournment of trial.

Where an application is made to a court or a referee, to adjourn a trial, the payment to the adverse party of a sum not exceeding ten dollars, or, in the city court of the city of New-York, a sum not exceeding five dollars, besides the fees of his witnesses, and other taxable disbursements, already made or incurred, which are rendered ineffectual by the adjournment, may be required, as a condition of granting the adjournment.

Id., § 314; L. 1853, ch. 617, part of § 4; L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 3256. [Am'd, 1895.] Disbursements to be included in bill of costs.

A party to whom costs are awarded in an action is entitled to include in his bill of costs his necessary disbursements as follows: The legal fees of witnesses and of referees and other officers; the reasonable compensation of commissioners taking depositions; the legal fees for publication where publication is directed pursuant to law; the legal fees paid for a certified copy of a deposition, or other paper, recorded or filed in any public office, necessarily used or obtained for use on the trial; copies of opinions and charges of judges; the reasonable expenses of printing the papers for a hearing, when required by a rule of the court; prospective charges for the expenses of entering and docketing the judgment; and the sheriff's fees for receiving and returning one execution thereon, including the search for property and such other reasonable and necessary expenses, as are taxable, according to the course and practice of the court, or by express provision of law. Searches affecting property situate in any county in which the office of county clerk or register is a salaried one, when made and certified to by title insurance, abstract or searching companies, organized and doing business under the laws of this State, may be used in all actions or special proceedings in which official searches may be used, in place of and with the same legal effect as such official searches, and the expenses of searches so made by said companies shall be taxable at rates not exceeding the cost of similar official searches.

Id., § 311, am'd; L. 1895, ch. 331.

§ 3257. Increased damages not to carry increased costs.

A plaintiff, who recovers double or other increased damages, does not thereby become entitled to more than single costs; except where it is otherwise specially prescribed by law.

2 R. S. 616, § 23 (2 Edm. 640).

§ 3258. When defendant entitled to increased costs.

In either of the following cases, a defendant, in whose favor a final judgment is rendered, in an action wherein the complaint demands judgment for a sum of money only, or to recover a chattel; or a final order is made, in a special proceeding instituted by a State writ, is entitled to recover the costs, prescribed in section 3251 of this act, and, in addition thereto, one-half thereof:

1. Where the defendant is or was a public officer, appointed or elected under the authority of the State, or a person specially appointed, according to law, to perform the duties of such an officer; and the action or special proceeding was brought by reason of an act, done by him by virtue of his office, or an alleged omission by him, to do an act, which it was his official duty to perform.

2. Where the action was brought against the defendant, by reason of an act done, by the command of such an officer or person, or in his aid or assistance, touching the duties of the office or appointment.

3. Where the action was brought against the defendant, for taking a distress, making a sale, or doing any other act, by or under color of authority of a statute of the State.

But this section does not apply, where an officer, or other person, specified herein, unites in his answer with a person not entitled to such additional costs.

2 R. S. 616, § 24.

§ 3259. Increased disbursements not allowed.

The increase, specified in the last section, does not extend to the disbursements; and an officer, witness, or juror, is not entitled to any other fees in the action, except the single fee allowed by law for his services.

Id., § 25, am'd.

§ 3260. Costs upon a settlement.

Where an action, specified in section 3228 of this act, is settled before judgment, no greater sum shall be demanded as costs, than at the rates prescribed by section 3251 of this act.

Co. Proc., § 322.

§ 3261. This article not to affect special provisions of law.

This article does not affect any provision contained elsewhere in this act, or in any other statute remaining unrepealed after this act takes effect, whereby the amount of costs is specially fixed, in a particular case, otherwise than as prescribed in this article.

ARTICLE SECOND.

Taxation of costs.

Sec. 3262. Costs; how taxed. Allowances, etc.; how computed.

3263. Notice of taxation.

3264. Retaxation.

3265. Review of taxation.

3266. Duty of taxing officer.

3267. Affidavit respecting disbursements.

§ 3262. Costs; how taxed. Allowances, etc.; how computed.

Costs must be taxed by the clerk, upon the application of the party entitled thereto; except that the court may direct, that interlocutory costs, or costs in a special proceeding, be taxed by a judge. The clerk must insert, in the judgment or final order, the amount of the costs, as taxed. In a case where the costs are in the discretion of the court, the report or decision, or the direction of the court for final judgment, upon a default, or after a jury trial, must specify which party or parties are entitled to costs; but the amount of the costs must be ascertained by taxation. The allowance, specified in section 3252 of this act, must be computed by the clerk upon the taxation; but the value of property, required to be ascertained for that purpose, must be ascertained by the court, unless it has been fixed by the decision or report, or by the verdict of the jury, upon which the final judgment is entered; except that, in case of actual partition, it must be determined by the commissioners.

Co. Proc., part of §§ 311 and 309.

§ 3263. Notice of taxation.

Costs may be taxed, upon notice to the attorney for each adverse party, who has appeared, and is interested in reducing the amount thereof. Notice of taxation must be served, not less than five days before the taxation; unless the attorneys, serving and served with the notice, all reside, or have their offices, in the city or town, where the costs are to be taxed; in which case, a notice of two days is sufficient. A copy of the bill of costs, specifying the items, with the disbursements stated in detail, must be served with the notice of taxation.

Id., § 311.

§ 3264. Retaxation.

Costs may also be taxed without notice. But where they are so taxed, notice of retaxation thereof must immediately afterwards be given as prescribed in the last section, by the party at whose instance they were taxed; in default whereof, the court must, upon the application of a party entitled to notice, direct a retaxation, with costs of the motion, to be paid by the party in default. The court may, in its discretion, upon the application of a party interested, direct a retaxation of costs at any time. Any sum, deducted upon a retaxation, must be credited upon the execution, or other mandate issued to enforce the judgment.

§ 3265. Review of taxation.

A taxation or a retaxation may be reviewed by the court, upon a motion for a new taxation. The order, made upon such a motion, may allow or disallow any item, objected to before the taxing officer, in which case, it has the effect of a new taxation; or it may direct a new taxation before the proper officer, specifying the grounds or the proof, upon which the item may be allowed or disallowed by him.

§ 3266. Duty of taxing officer.

An officer, authorized to tax costs in an action or a special proceeding, must, whether the taxation is opposed, or not, examine the bills presented to him for taxation; must satisfy himself that all the items allowed by him are correct and legal; and must strike out all charges for fees, other than the prospective charges expressly allowed by law, where it does not appear that the services, for which they are charged, were necessarily performed.

2 R. S. 663, § 5 (2 Edm. 672).

§ 3267. Affidavit respecting disbursements.

A charge, for the attendance of a witness, cannot be allowed without an affidavit, stating the number of days of his actual attendance; and, if travel fees are charged, the distance for which they are allowed. A charge, for a copy of a document or paper, cannot be allowed, without an affidavit, stating that it was actually and necessarily used, or was necessarily obtained for use. An item of disbursements, in a bill of costs, cannot be allowed, in any case, unless it is verified by affidavit, and appears to have been necessarily incurred, and to be reasonable in amount.

Id., § 7; Co. Proc., part of § 811.

TITLE III.

Security for costs.

Sec. 8268. When defendant may require security for costs.

- 3269. Id.; after action commenced.
- 3270. The last two sections qualified.
- 3271. Id.; in actions by and against executors, etc.
- 3272. Order to give security.
- 3273. Requisites of undertaking.
- 3274. Notice of exception; id. of justification.
- 3275. Justification of sureties. Allowance of undertaking.
- 3276. Order to give additional security. Proceedings.
- 3277. Effect of failure to obey order to give security.
- 3278. Liability of attorney for costs in certain actions.
- 3279. This title applies to special proceedings.

§ 3268. [Am'd, 1891, 1904, 1910.] When defendant may require security for costs.

The defendant, in an action brought in a court of record, may require security for costs to be given, as prescribed in this title, where the plaintiff was, when the action was commenced, either

1. A person residing without the state; or, if the action is brought in a county court, except in the counties of Albany, Kings, Queens and Richmond, or in the city court of the city of New York, the city court of Yonkers, or the city court of Albany, residing without the city or county, as the case may be, wherein the court is located; or

2. A foreign corporation; or

3. A person imprisoned under execution for a crime; or

4. The official assignee of a person so imprisoned; the official assignee or official trustee of a debtor; or an assignee in bankruptcy; where the action is brought upon a cause of action, arising before the assignment, the appointment of the trustee, or the adjudication in bankruptcy.

2 R. S. 620, § 1 (2 Edm. 614): L. 1891, ch. 170; L. 1904, ch. 524; L. 1910, ch. 118. In effect Sept. 1, 1910.

§ 3269. Id.; after action commenced.

The defendant, in a like action, may require security for costs to be given, where, after the commencement of the action, the plaintiff either

1. Ceases to be a resident of the State; or, where the action is brought in either of the local courts specified in subdivision first of the last section, ceases to be a resident of the city or county, as the case may be, wherein the court is located; or

2. Is adjudicated a bankrupt, or discharged from his debts, or exonerated from imprisonment, pursuant to a law of the State, or of the United States; or

3. Is sentenced to the State prison, for a term less than for life.

Id.

§ 3270. The last two sections qualified.

In a case specified in either of the last two sections, if there are two or more plaintiffs, the defendant cannot require security for costs to be given, unless he is entitled to require it of all the plaintiffs.

* So in original.

§ 3271. Id.; in actions by and against executors, etc.

In an action by or against an executor or administrator, in his representative capacity, or the trustee of an express trust, or a person expressly authorized by statute to sue, or to be sued; or by an official assignee, the assignee of a receiver, or the committee of a person judicially declared to be incompetent to manage his affairs; the court may, in its discretion, require the plaintiff to give security for costs.

Co. Proc., part of § 317; L. 1874, ch. 446, § 5.

§ 3272. Order to give security.

Where security for costs is required to be given, the court in which the action is pending, or, except in a case specified in the last section, a judge thereof, upon due proof, by affidavit, of the facts, must make an order requiring the plaintiff, within a time specified, either to pay into court, the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, to be applied to the payment of the costs, if any, awarded against him, or, at his election, to file with the clerk an undertaking, and to serve a written notice of the payment or of the filing upon the defendant's attorney; and staying all other proceedings, on the part of the plaintiff, except to review or vacate the order, until the payment or filing, and notice thereof, and also, if an undertaking is given, the allowance of the same.

2 R. S. 620, part of § 3 (2 Edm. 644).

§ 3273. Requisites of undertaking.

The undertaking, specified in the last section, must be executed to the defendant by one or more sureties, and must be to the effect that they will pay, upon demand, to the defendant, all costs which may be awarded to him in the action, not exceeding a sum, specified in the undertaking, which must be at least two hundred and fifty dollars.

Id., § 4, am'd; L. 1875, ch. 305.

§ 3274. Notice of exception; id. of justification.

Within ten days after service of the notice of filing the undertaking, the defendant may serve upon the plaintiff's attorney a notice that he excepts to the sureties therein. Within ten days after service of such a notice, the plaintiff must serve, upon the defendant's attorney, a notice of the justification of the same or new sureties before a judge of court, or a county judge, at a specified time and place; the time to be not less than five nor more than ten days thereafter, and the place to be within the county where the action is triable.

Id., §§ 5 and 6, am'd.

§ 3275. Justification of sureties. Allowance of undertaking.

Section 580 of this act applies to the justification of the sureties. Where the judge finds the sureties sufficient, he must annex the written examination, if any, to the undertaking, indorse his allowance thereon, and cause them to be filed with the clerk. Where the defendant fails duly to except to the sureties, the undertaking is deemed allowed, and must be indorsed and filed in like manner.

Id., §§ 5 and 6, am'd; L. 1875, ch. 305.

§ 3276. [Am'd, 1891.] Order to give additional security Proceedings.

At any time after the allowance of an undertaking, given pursuant to such an order, or as prescribed in section 3278 of this act, or after notice of the payment into court made pursuant to such an order, the court, or a judge thereof, upon satisfactory proof, by affidavit, that the sum specified in the undertaking, or the amount of such payment, is insufficient; or that one or more of the sureties have died, or become insolvent, or that his or their circumstances have become so precarious that there is reason to apprehend that the undertaking is insufficient for the security of the defendant; must make an order requiring the plaintiff to give an additional undertaking, or make an additional payment into court. The last four sections apply to such an order, and to the undertaking given, or payment made, pursuant thereto.

L. 1891, ch. 161.

§ 3277. Effect of failure to obey order to give security.

Where the plaintiff fails to comply with an order, made as prescribed in this title, or to procure the allowance of an undertaking given pursuant to such an order, the defendant is entitled to a judgment dismissing the complaint, and in his favor for costs. The defendant may apply therefor, as upon a motion.

2 R. S. 620, § 4, am'd; L. 1875, ch. 306.

§ 3278. Liability of attorney, for costs in certain actions.

Where a defendant is entitled to require security for costs, as prescribed in section 3268 of this act, the plaintiff's attorney is liable for the defendant's costs, to an amount not exceeding one hundred dollars, until security is given, as prescribed in this title. The plaintiff's attorney may relieve himself from that liability, although the defendant may not require security for costs to be given, by filing and procuring the allowance of an undertaking, as if an order had been made as prescribed in section 3272 of this act.

Id., §§ 7 and 8.

§ 3279. This title applies to special proceedings.

The foregoing sections of this title apply to a special proceeding instituted in a court of record, in like manner as to an action; for which purpose, the prosecuting party, other than the people, or, where the special proceeding is instituted in the name of the people upon the relation of a private corporation or individual, the relator, is deemed a plaintiff, and the adverse party, a defendant.

TITLE IV.

General provisions relating to fees.

- Sec. 3280. Taking fees not prescribed by law, prohibited.
 3281. Id.; for services not rendered, except, etc.
 3282. Penalty for extortion.
 3283. Clerk of court of appeals to account for and pay over fees.
 3284. [Repealed.]
 3285. Certain county clerks and registers must account for fees.
 3286. General provisions as to fees, etc., to be accounted for.
 3287. Fees of certain officers to be taxed upon demand.
 3288. Parties, attorneys, etc., when not allowed fees.
 3289. No fee for administering certain official oaths.
 3290. Certain searches to be gratuitous.
 3291. Officer, etc., may charge fee paid for oath, postage, etc.
 3292. Id.; his fees, etc., to be paid before required to transmit papers.
 3293. Provision where printers in county refuse to publish.
 3294. Affidavit of refusal to publish, etc.
 3295. Comptroller to audit certain charges.

§ 3280. [Repealed by L. 1909, chs. 35 and 51. See Consolidated Laws, tits. Judiciary Law, § 252, Public Officers Law, § 67.]

§§ 3281-3282. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 51. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Public Officers Law, § 67.]

§ 3283. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 35. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Judiciary Law, § 256.]

§ 3284. [Repealed Jan. 1, 1896; L. 1895, ch. 946.]

§ 3285. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 16. See Consolidated Laws, tit. County Law, § 161.]

§ 3286. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 51. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Public Officers Law, § 70.]

§ 3287. [Am'd, 1895.] Fees of certain officers to be taxed upon demand.

Each county clerk or register of deeds, who claims any fees by virtue of his office; and each sheriff or coroner, who, upon the collection of an execution, or the settlement, either before or after judgment, of an action or a special proceeding, claims any fees, which have not been taxed: must, upon the written demand of the person liable to pay the same, cause them to be taxed within the county, upon notice to the person making the demand, by a justice of the supreme court, or the county judge. After such a demand is made, the officer cannot collect his fees, until they have been so taxed.

2 R. S. 652, §§ 1 and 2 (2 Edm. 671): L. 1844, ch. 127, §§ 2 and 3 (4 Edm. 694); L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 3288. Parties, attorneys, etc., when not allowed fees.

A party to an action or a special proceeding is not entitled to a fee, for attending as a witness therein, in his own behalf, or in behalf of a party who pleads jointly, or is united in interest, with him; and an attorney or counsel, in an action or special proceeding, is not entitled to a fee, for attending as a witness therein, in behalf of his client.

See 2 R. S. 651, § 15 (2 Edm. 671.)

§ 3289. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 51. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Public Officers Law, § 69.]

§ 3290. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 23. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Executive Law, § 84.]

§ 3291. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 51. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Public Officers Law, § 68.]

§ 3292. Id.; his fees, etc., to be paid before required to transmit paper.

Each provision of this act, requiring a judge, clerk, or other officer to transmit a paper to another officer, for the benefit of a party, is to be construed as requiring the transmission only at the request of the person so to be benefited, and upon payment by him of the fees allowed by law for the paper transmitted, or any copy or certificate connected therewith, and the expenses specified in the last section.

L. 1876, ch. 449, § 12.

§ 3293. Provision where printers in county refuse to publish.

If the proprietor of each newspaper, published in a city or county, in which any notice, order, citation, or other paper is required by law to be published, refuses to publish the same, for the fees prescribed by law for the publication, it may be published in the newspaper, printed at Albany, in which legal notices are required by law to be published. If it is required by law to be published in that newspaper, and also in another newspaper published in a city or county, and the proprietor of each newspaper in that city or county refuses to publish it for the fees so prescribed, it may be published in the newspaper, published nearest to the place, where a person is required to appear, or where an act is to be done, pursuant thereto, the proprietor of which will publish the same, for those fees. Publication, made as prescribed in this section, is as valid, as if it was made in the city or county, where the publication thereof is so required by law.

2 R. S. 648, §§ 46 and 47 (2 Edm. 667).

§ 3294. Affidavit of refusal to publish, etc.

Where publication is made, as prescribed in the last section, elsewhere than in the city or county where it is otherwise required by law to be made, the affidavit of publication must either be accompanied with an affidavit, or contain a statement, to the effect that an application to publish the advertisement was, before such publication, made to the proprietor of each newspaper published in the city or county: that the amount of the legal fees for such publication was at the same time tendered; and that the application was refused. Such an affidavit is presumptive evidence of the facts stated therein.

2 R. S. 648, § 49.

§ 3295. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 58. See Consolidated Laws, tit. State Finance Law, § 46.]

TITLE V.

Sums allowed as fees.

- Sec. 3296. Referee's fees generally.
 3297. Id.; upon sales of real property.
 3298. Fees for oaths and acknowledgments.

 3302. The last section qualified.
 3303. Clerk's fees upon naturalization.
 3304. Fees of county clerks generally.
 3305. Certain provisions not affected by the last section.
 3306. Fees of register and other clerks.
 3306a. Fees of county clerk for entries of moneys deposited with county treasurer.
 3307. Sheriff's fees.
 3308. The last section qualified.
 3309. Id.; how collected.
 3310. Coroner's fees.
 3311. Stenographer's fees.
 3312. Compensation of deputy sheriffs and constables attending courts.
 3313. Fees of trial jurors.
 3314. Supervisors may make allowance to grand and trial jurors.
 3315. Id.; extra pay upon protracted trials.
 3316. Jurors' fees in special proceedings.
 3317. Fees of printers.
 3318. Witnesses' fees generally.
 3319. Id.; on deposition to be used in another state.
 3320. Receiver's commissions.
 3321. Fees of county treasurer, and chamberlain of New York.
 3322. Fees of a justice of the peace.
 3323. Constable's fees.
 3324. Id.; affidavit upon claim for travel fees.
 3325. Justice's court, fees upon a commission.
 3326. Id.; jurors' fees.
 3327. Id.; witnesses' fees.
 3328. Id.; fees to be paid before services rendered.
 3329. Id.; by whom fees to be paid.
 3330. Certain special provisions excepted from this title.
 3331. Provision as to change in fees.
 3331a. Presentation of claims by jurors and disposition of unclaimed fees.
 3332. This title applies to civil cases only.

§ 3296. [Am'd, 1896.] Referee's fees generally.

A referee, in an action or a special proceeding brought in a court of record, or in a special proceeding, taken as prescribed in title twelve of chapter seventeen of this act, is entitled to ten dollars for each day spent in the business of the reference; unless at or before the commencement of the trial or hearing, a different rate of compensation is fixed, by the consent of the parties, other than those in default for failure to appear or plead, manifested by an entry in the minutes of the referee, or otherwise in writing, or a smaller compensation is fixed by the court or judge in the order appointing him.

Co. Proc., § 318, am'd. In effect March 11, 1896. L, 1896, ch. 90.

The fees of a referee appointed to sell real property pursuant to a judgment in an action, are the same as those allowed to the sheriff, and he is allowed the same disbursements as the sheriff. Where a referee is required to take security upon a sale, or to distribute, or apply, or ascertain and report upon the distribution or application of any of the proceeds of the sale, he is also entitled to one-half of the commissions upon the amount so secured, distributed or applied, allowed by law to an executor or administrator for receiving and paying out money. But commissions shall not be allowed to him upon a sum bidden by a party, and applied upon the party's demand, as fixed by the judgment, without being paid to the referee, except to the amount of ten dollars. And a referee's compensation, including commissions, cannot, where the sale is under a judgment in an action to foreclose a mortgage, exceed fifty dollars, unless the property sold for ten thousand dollars or upwards, in which event the referee may receive such additional compensation as to the court may seem proper, or in any other cause five hundred dollars.

L. 1869, ch. 579, § 4, am'd; and see Co. Proc., § 300, am'd; L. 1876, ch. 431, § 11; L. 1896, ch. 241.

§ 3298. Fees for oaths and acknowledgments.

Any officer, authorized to perform the services specified in this section, and to receive fees therefor, is entitled to the following fees:

1. For administering an oath or affirmation, and certifying the same when required, except where another fee is specially prescribed by statute, twelve cents.

2. For taking and certifying the acknowledgment or proof of the execution of a written instrument; by one person, twenty-five cents; and by each additional person, twelve cents; for swearing each witness thereto, six cents.

2 R. S. 687, § 28 (2 Edm. 658); L. 1847, ch. 339 (4 Edm. 623); L. 1849, ch. 238, § 2 (3 Edm. 802).

§ 3299. Surveyors' and commissioners' fees in action for partition or dower, etc.

A surveyor, employed as prescribed by law, in an action for partition or dower, or to determine dower, is entitled to five dollars for each day, actually and necessarily occupied in surveying, laying out, marking, or mapping land therein. Each assistant, so employed, is entitled to two dollars for each day, actually and necessarily occupied in serving under the surveyor's direction. Each commissioner, appointed as prescribed by law, to make partition or admeasure dower, is entitled to five dollars for each day's actual and necessary service.

2 R. S. 643, §§ 34 and 35 (2 Edm. 662), am'd.

§ 3300. Fees of the clerk of the court of appeals.

The clerk of the court of appeals is entitled, for the services specified in this section, to the following fees:

For filing a notice of appeal to that court, and all the papers transmitted therewith, fifty cents.

For filing any other paper, ten cents.

For drawing an order, twenty cents for each folio.

For entering an order, twenty cents; and for each folio more than two, ten cents.

For drawing a judgment, twenty-five cents; and for each folio more than two, ten cents.

For entering a judgment, twenty-five cents; and for each folio more than two, ten cents.

For a certified copy of an order, record, or other paper, entered or filed in his office, ten cents for each folio.

For engrossing a remittitur, ten cents for each folio.

For a certificate, other than that a paper, for the copying of which he is entitled to a fee, is a copy, twenty-five cents.

For sealing any paper, when required, fifty cents.

2 B. S. 622, § 2 (2 Edm. 646); L. 1847, ch. 247, § 7.

§ 3301. [Am'd, 1890.] Clerk's fees in civil actions generally.

Except as otherwise prescribed in the next section, each clerk of the court of record is entitled for his services in an action or a special proceeding, brought in or transferred to the court of which he is clerk, to the following fees:

Upon the trial of the action, or the hearing, upon the merits, of the special proceeding, from the party bringing it on, one dollar.

For entering final judgment in the action, or entering a final order in the special proceeding, including the filing of the judgment-roll, and a copy of the judgment to insert therein, fifty cents; and ten cents in addition for each folio exceeding ten, contained in the order or judgment.

For entering any other order or an interlocutory judgment, ten cents for each folio, exceeding five.

For a certified or other copy of an order, record, or other paper, entered or filed in his office, five cents for each folio.

Where, on an appeal from a judgment or order, a party shall present to the clerk a printed copy of the judgment-roll or order appealed from, it shall be the duty of the clerk, as required, to compare and certify the same, for which service he shall be entitled to be paid at the rate of one cent per folio.

For a certified transcript of the docket of a judgment, twelve cents.

For filing a transcript and docketing or re-docketing a judgment thereupon, six cents.

He is not entitled to any fee, or other compensation, for any other service, in an action or a special proceeding in the court, except that where he is also county clerk, he may charge fees as prescribed in section 3304 of this act, subject to the limitations therein contained.

Where the attorneys for all the parties interested, other than parties in default or against whom a judgment or a final order has been taken, and is not appealed from, stipulate in writing that a paper is a copy of any paper whereof a certified copy is required by any provision of this act, the stipulation takes the place of a certificate, as to the parties so stipulating, and the clerk is not required to certify the same or entitled to any fee therefor.

And the paper so proved by stipulation shall be received by the clerks of all the courts and by the courts and shall be used or filed with the same force and effect as if certified by a clerk of the court.

See Co. Proc. § 312; L. 1890, ch. 312.

§ 3302. [Am'd, 1895.] The last section qualified.

The last section does not apply to the clerk of a surrogate's court, of the city court of the city of New-York, of the city court of Yonkers, of the justice's court of the city of Albany, or of a mayor's or recorder's court.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 3303. [Repealed by L. 1909, ch. 35. See Consolidated Laws, tit. Judiciary Law, § 253.]

§ 3304. [Am'd, 1896.] Fees of county clerks generally.

A county clerk is entitled, for the services specified in this section, except where another fee is allowed therefor by special statutory provision, to the following fees to be paid in advance:

For searching and certifying the title to, and incumbrances upon real property, for each year for which the search is made, for each name, and each kind of conveyance or lien, five cents.

For a copy of an order, record, or other paper, entered or filed in his office, eight cents for each folio.

For filing a transcript, and making an entry as prescribed in section 1258 of this act, twelve cents.

For issuing an execution upon a judgment, a transcript whereof, or of the docket of which, has been filed in his office, fifty cents, to be paid by the party at whose request the execution is issued, and to be collected by the sheriff in addition to the sum due upon the judgment.

For recording and indexing a notice of the pendency of an action, filed in his office, ten cents for each folio contained in the notice.

For cancelling such a notice, or a notice filed in his office, as prescribed in section 649 of this act, twenty-five cents.

For recording any instrument, which must or may legally be recorded by him, ten cents for each folio.

For filing a certificate of satisfaction, or other satisfaction-piece of a mortgage, and entering the satisfaction, twenty-five cents.

For affixing and indexing a notice of foreclosure of a mortgage as prescribed in section 2300 of this act, twenty-five cents.

For entering a minute that a mortgage has been foreclosed, ten cents.

For filing and entering a satisfaction of an assignment of a judgment, twelve cents.

For filing and entering the bond of a collector or other officer authorized to receive taxes, twelve cents.

For searching for such a bond, six cents.

For entering satisfaction thereof, twelve cents.

For sealing any paper, when required, twelve cents.

For filing and docketing notice of a mechanic's lien, ten cents.

For filing and entering specifications and all other papers relating to a lien against a vessel, twenty-five cents.

For filing any paper required by law to be filed in his office, other than as expressly provided for in this section, six cents.

For filing any paper deposited with him for safe keeping, six cents; and for searching for such a paper, when required, three cents for each paper necessarily opened and examined.

For a certificate, other than that a paper, for the copying of which he is entitled to a fee, is a copy, twenty-five cents.

For inquiring into, determining, and certifying the sufficiency of the sureties of a sheriff, fifty cents.

For attending upon the canvassing of votes, given at an election, two dollars.

For drawing the necessary certificates of the result of the canvass, eighteen cents for each folio; and for the necessary copies thereof, nine cents for each folio.

For notifying the governor that any person has taken an oath of office, ten cents and the necessary postage.

For notifying the governor that any person has neglected to take an oath of office, or to file or renew any security, within the time prescribed by law, or of a vacancy in an office in his county, ten cents and the necessary postage.

For notifying any person of his appointment to office, twenty-five cents, and the expenses, actually and necessarily incurred in giving the notice, which the comptroller deems reasonable.

For entering, in the minutes of the county court, a license to keep a ferry, and for a copy thereof, one dollar.

For taking and entering a recognizance, from any person authorized to keep a ferry, twenty-five cents.

But a county clerk is not entitled to any fee, under this section, for a copy of, or for filing or certifying, any paper, in a civil action or special proceeding, in a court of which he is ex-officio clerk.

3305-07. Added L. 1914 ch. 345-
§ 3305. Certain provisions not affected by the last section.

The last section does not affect any special statutory provision, remaining unrepealed after this title takes effect, whereby a fee, different from the fee therein allowed, is allowed to the clerk of the city and county of New-York, or of the county of Kings, for a service therein specified.

L. 1853, ch. 142, §§ 1 and 2; Co. Proc., § 256; L. 1874, ch. 304; L. 1868, ch. 720; L. 1871, ch. 734.

§ 3306. Fees of register and other clerks.

The register of any county, or the clerk of any court of record, is entitled, for any services specified in the last section but one, which he is authorized to perform, to the fees specified therein, subject to the qualifications therein contained.

Am'd L. 1910 ch. 625
§ 3306a. [Added, 1909.] Fees of county clerk for entries of moneys deposited with county treasurer.

The county clerk shall be entitled to receive, for making the entries required of him by law of moneys deposited with the county treasurer the sum of fifty cents in each case, to be paid by the party to the action or proceeding, and taxed as a disbursement therein.

Added by L. 1909, ch. 65. Derivation — L. 1889, ch. 330, § 2, as am'd by L. 1895, ch. 544, § 2. See note 20 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

Am'd L. 1915 ch. 565.
 A sheriff is entitled, for the services specified in this section, to the following fees:

1. For serving a summons with or without either a copy of the complaint, or a notice specified in section 419 or section 423 of this act; or for serving or executing an order of arrest, or any other mandate, for the service or execution of which no other fee is specially prescribed by law, except a subpoena, one dollar for each person served or as to whom it is executed; and for necessary travelling to serve or execute the same, six cents for each mile travelled, going and returning; the travelling fees to be computed from the court house of the county; or, if there are two or more court houses, from that nearest to the place of service or execution. But where two or more mandates are delivered to a sheriff, to be served upon or executed against one person, at one time, in one action or special proceeding; or where a mandate is served upon or executed against two or more persons, in one action or special proceeding, and in the course of one journey; the sheriff is entitled, in all, to six cents only, for each mile travelled.

2. For levying a warrant of attachment, against the property of a defendant, issued as prescribed in title third of chapter seventh of this act, or for executing a requisition to replevy one or more chattels, one dollar; and, also, such additional compensation, for his trouble and expenses, in taking possession of and preserving the property, as the judge, issuing the warrant, or in case of a replevin, as the court or a judge thereof allows, and the judge or court may make an order requiring the party liable therefor to pay the same to the sheriff. For making and filing a description of real property, or an inventory of personal property attached, twenty-five cents for each folio; for each necessary copy thereof, twelve cents for each folio; together with such compensation to the appraisers, as the judge issuing the warrant allows, not exceeding two dollars to each appraiser, for each day actually employed. For advertising, during the pendency of the action, personal property attached, the same fees as are allowed to a sheriff for advertising personal property for sale, by virtue of an execution. If the action is settled, either before or after judgment, the sheriff is entitled to poundage, upon the value of the property attached, not exceeding the sum at which the settlement is made.

3. For a copy, necessarily made by him, of a summons or other mandate, or of a complaint, affidavit, or other paper served by him, where no fee therefor is specially prescribed by law, twelve cents for each folio.

4. [Am'd, 1907.] For notifying jurors to attend a trial term of a court of record, fifty cents for each cause placed upon the calendar for trial by a jury, to be paid by the party first putting the cause on the calendar for that term. But the sheriff is not entitled to more than one dollar and fifty cents for calendar fees in one action. The clerk shall not put a cause upon the calendar, for trial by a jury, until the fee, specified in this subdivision, is paid to him, for the use of the sheriff. And where the cause is tried at a subsequent term, without a new note of issue, as prescribed in section 977 of this act, the party moving the trial must pay to the clerk, for the use of the sheriff, the calendar fee or fees remaining unpaid. No sheriff who receives an annual salary in whole or in part for his services shall be entitled to the fees provided by this subdivision, and in all counties where the sheriff receives such annual salary, the clerk shall place all causes upon the calendar for trial without the payment or collection of any fee therefor.*

*L. 1907, ch. 253, which adds last sentence provides that the amendment "shall not affect the right of any sheriff now in office to receive the fees provided for herein until the end of his term of office, provided he is now lawfully entitled to receive the same."

5. For notifying jurors drawn to attend upon a writ of inquiry, or to try the validity of a claim to personal property, seized by virtue of a warrant of attachment or an execution, or in obedience to a precept issued by commissioners appointed to inquire concerning the incompetency of a person to manage himself or his affairs, in consequence of idiocy, lunacy, or habitual drunkenness, or in any case not provided for in the last preceding subdivision of this section, including the making and return of the inquisition when required, for each juror notified, twenty-five cents. For attending a jury, when required, in such a case, two dollars.

6. For receiving an execution against property, entering it in his books, searching for property, and postage on the return, when made through the post-office, fifty cents. If required by the sheriff, that fee, together with his fee for returning the execution, must be paid, by the person in whose behalf the execution is issued, at the time when it is delivered to the sheriff, who is not bound to execute it unless the fee is so paid. For mileage upon an execution, for each mile, going only, ten cents; to be computed as prescribed in subdivision first of this section.

7. For collecting money by virtue of an execution, a warrant of attachment, or an attachment for the payment of money in an action or a special proceeding; or by virtue of a warrant for the collection of money, issued by the comptroller, or by a county treasurer; in any county except New-York, Kings, or Westchester, three per centum upon the sum collected, not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars, and two per centum upon the residue of the sum collected; and in either of the counties of New-York, Kings, or Westchester, two and one-half per centum upon the sum collected, not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars, and one and one-quarter per centum upon the residue of the sum collected; and also, where an execution is stayed after a levy, by order of the court or otherwise, or where a levy is upon a live animal, or speedily perishable property, such additional compensation, for his trouble and expenses in taking care of and preserving the property, as the court or a judge thereof allows. Where a settlement is made after a levy by virtue of an execution, the sheriff is entitled to poundage upon the value of the property levied upon, not exceeding the sum at which the settlement is made, and to the additional compensation, if any, provided for in this subdivision.

8. For advertising real or personal property for sale, by virtue of an execution, warrant of attachment, or other warrant specified in the last preceding subdivision, two dollars, unless it is stayed or settled before sale; and in that case, one dollar.

9. For making duplicate certificates of the sale of real property, by virtue of an execution, twenty-five cents for each folio. For drawing and executing a conveyance, upon a sale of real property, two dollars, to be paid by the grantee. The sheriff is also entitled to the printer's fees, as prescribed by law, paid by him for the publication, not more than six weeks, of a notice of the sale of real property, and he may require the party directing the sale to advance the printer's fees, in which case he must repay the same out of the proceeds. Where the notice is published more than six weeks, or the sale is postponed, the expense of continuing the publication, or of publishing the notice of postponement, must be paid by the person requesting it. Where two or more executions against the property of one judgment debtor are in the hands of the sheriff, at the time when the property is first advertised, the sheriff is entitled to printer's fees upon only one execution, and he must elect upon which execution he will receive the same.

10. For returning any mandate, which he is required by law to return, twelve cents. For a certified copy of an execution, and of the return of satisfaction thereupon, delivered as prescribed in section 1266 of this act, twenty-five cents.

11. For posting and publishing the notice of sale, selling, and conveying real property, in pursuance of a direction contained in a judgment, the like fees, as for the same services upon the sale of real property by virtue of an execution; but where real property is sold under a judgment in an action to foreclose a mortgage, the sheriff's entire compensation cannot exceed fifty dollars.

12. For taking a bond for the liberties of the jail, one dollar. For taking any other bond, or any undertaking, which he is authorized to take, fifty cents. For a certified copy of such a bond or undertaking, twenty-five cents.

13. For executing any mandate, requiring him to put a person into possession of real property, other than a warrant specified in subdivision eighteenth of this section, and removing the person in possession, one dollar and fifty cents, and the same travel fees as upon the service of a summons.

14. For each person committed to or discharged from prison, in an action or a special proceeding, one dollar, to be paid by the person at whose instance he is imprisoned. For attending before an officer for the purpose of surrendering a prisoner, or receiving into custody a prisoner surrendered, in exoneration of his bail, including all his services upon such a surrender or receipt, one dollar.

15. For attending a view, two dollars for each day, and for travelling, going and returning, eight cents for each mile.

16. For bringing up a prisoner, upon a writ of habeas corpus to inquire into the cause of detention, one dollar and fifty cents; and for travelling to and from the jail, twelve cents for each mile. For bringing up a prisoner, upon any other writ of habeas corpus, the same fees; and for attending the court or judge thereupon, one dollar for each day. The sheriff is entitled, in addition to the sums specified in this subdivision, to his actual and necessary expenses.

17. For any services, which may be rendered by a constable, other than those specially provided for in this section, the same fees as are allowed by law to a constable for those services.

18. For executing a warrant, to remove any person from lands, belonging to the people of the State, or to Indians, such a sum as the comptroller audits, and certifies to be a reasonable compensation.

19. For giving notice of any general or special election, to all the officers, to whom he is required by law to give such a notice, one dollar for each town or ward, in addition to the expense of publishing the notices, as required by law; payable from the county treasury.

20. For notifying constables to attend a court, fifty cents for each constable notified.

21. For attending a term of a court, which he is required by law to attend, for each day, three dollars.

§ 3308. The last section qualified.

The last section, except the limitation of amount contained in subdivision eleventh thereof, does not affect any special statutory provision, remaining unrepealed after this title takes effect, relating to the fees and expenses of the sheriff of the city and county of New York, or the sheriff of the county of Kings.

L. 1869, ch. 560, § 2; L. 1873, ch. 166, § 2; L. 1874, ch. 192, and L. 1876, ch. 439, § 2.

§ 3309. Id.; how collected.

The fees of a sheriff, upon an execution against property, other than those with respect to which it is specially prescribed by statute, either that they must be paid by a particular person, or that they may be included in the costs of the party in whose favor the execution is issued, must be collected by virtue of the execution, in the same manner as the sum therein directed to be collected.

2 R. S. 644, § 38.

§ 3310. Coroner's fees.

A coroner is entitled for the services specified in this section, to the following fees:

1. For performing any duty of a sheriff, in an action or a special proceeding, in which the sheriff is, for any cause, disqualified, the same fees to which a sheriff is entitled for the same services.

2. For confining a sheriff in a house, by virtue of a mandate, and maintaining him while there, two dollars for each day, to be paid by the sheriff, before he is entitled to be discharged.

2 R. S. 647, § 39 (2 Edm. 666); L. 1873, ch. 833.

§ 3311. [Am'd, 1805.] Stenographer's fees.

Except where otherwise agreed, or when special provision is otherwise made by statute, a stenographer is entitled, for a copy fully written out from his stenographic notes of the testimony, or any other proceeding, taken in an action, or a special proceeding in a court of record, or before a judge or justice thereof, and furnished, upon request, to a party or his attorney, to the following fees for each folio: In a trial term of the supreme court, or at a special term of the supreme court in the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh or eighth judicial districts, six cents; in any other court or courts, ten cents; and for the copy of the testimony required to be made in any proceeding for the records of the surrogate's court of either of the counties of New York or Kings, ten cents; and the surrogate may order that the fees for such record copy be paid out of the estate to which the proceeding relates.

§ 3312. [Am'd, 1881, 1896, 1899, 1903, 1904, 1905, 1906, 1909, 1913.] Compensation of deputy sheriffs and constables attending courts.

A constable or a deputy sheriff is entitled, for attending a sitting of a court of record, pursuant to a notice from the sheriff, to a fee for each day's actual attendance, in any county in the state, to be fixed by the board of supervisors thereof, and mileage as allowed by law to trial jurors in courts of record. Such fees must be paid by the county treasurer, upon the production of the certificate of the clerk, stating the number of days that the constable or deputy sheriff attended. If a constable or deputy sheriff attending a sitting of a court of record pursuant to a notice from the sheriff is unable to reach his home upon the day he is excused from attendance, he shall be entitled to compensation for an additional day, and the clerk shall certify accordingly upon satisfactory proof of such fact by affidavit. But the provisions of this section shall not be applicable to the counties of Kings, New York and Erie. All other acts or sections of acts conflicting herewith are hereby repealed.

A trial juror, in an action or a special proceeding, in a court of record, is entitled, except as otherwise specially prescribed by statute in a particular court, or a particular county, to the following fees: twenty-five cents for each cause in which he is empanelled, to be paid by the party noticing the cause for trial; or, if it is noticed by more than one party, by the party whom the court directs to pay it.

2 R. S. 643, § 37 (2 Edm. 662).

§ 3314. [Am'd, 1897, 1898, 1899, 1900, 1903, 1904, 1906, 1907, 1913.] Supervisors may make allowance to grand and trial jurors.

In the counties within the city of New York the board of aldermen, and in any other county the board of supervisors, may direct that a sum, not exceeding three dollars in addition to the fees prescribed in the last section, or in any other statutory provision, be allowed to each grand juror, and each trial juror for each day's attendance at a term of a court of record, of civil or criminal jurisdiction, held within their county. If a different rate is not otherwise established as herein provided, each juror is entitled to five cents for each mile necessarily traveled by him in going to and returning from the term; but such board of aldermen or board of supervisors may establish a lower rate. A juror is entitled to mileage for actual travel once in each calendar week during the term, except that in the counties of Queens, Rockland and Orange, grand and trial jurors may be paid four cents a mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going to and returning for each day of actual travel during the term in lieu of any other mileage. The sum so established or allowed must be paid by the county treasurer upon the certificate of the clerk of the court, stating the number of days that the juror actually attended, and the number of miles traveled by him in order to attend. If a juror in attendance at a term of a court of record cannot reach his home upon the day he is excused from attendance, he shall be entitled to compensation for an additional day, and the clerk shall certify accordingly upon satisfactory proof of such fact by affidavit. The amount so paid must be raised in the same manner as other county charges are raised.

§ 3315. Id.; extra pay upon protracted trials.

Where the trial, by a jury, of an issue of fact, in either a civil or a criminal action or special proceeding, in a court of record, occupies more than thirty days, the court, by an order entered in the minutes, may fix and allow, to each juror, such an extra compensation as it deems reasonable, for his services thereupon; the amount of which compensation, together with the expenses, actually and necessarily incurred, for food for the jurors during the trial, is a county charge.

L. 1876, ch. 835, am'd.

A trial juror, sworn in a special proceeding, before a judge of a court of record; or upon a writ of inquiry; or upon a trial, before a sheriff, of a claim to personal property, seized by virtue of a warrant of attachment or an execution; is entitled to twenty-five cents, to be paid by the person at whose instance the jury is empanelled.

2 R. S. 643, part of § 37.

§ 3317. [Am'd, 1900.] Fees of printers.

Except as otherwise specially prescribed by law, the proprietor of a newspaper is entitled, for publishing summons, notice, order, citation or other advertisement, required by law to be published, other than the session laws, for each folio, to seventy-five cents for the first insertion, and fifty cents for each subsequent insertion. In counties containing wholly or partially cities of the first class, the proprietor of a newspaper is entitled for publishing such notices, matters and advertisements aforesaid, other than the session laws, for each folio, to one dollar for the first insertion, and seventy-five cents for each subsequent insertion. The compensation for publishing the session laws must be fixed by the board of supervisors at not more than fifty cents for each folio.

§ 3318. Witnesses' fees generally.

A witness in an action or a special proceeding, attending before a court of record, or a judge thereof, is entitled, except where another fee is specially prescribed by law, to fifty cents for each day's attendance; and, if he resides more than three miles from the place of attendance, to eight cents for each mile, going to the place of attendance.

L. 1840, ch. 386, § 8 (4 Edm. 689).

§ 3319. Id.; on deposition to be used in another State.

A witness, attending before a commissioner or an officer, authorized to take his deposition to be used without the State, in a case other than one specified in section 3327 of this act, is entitled to two dollars for each day's actual attendance and to eight cents for each mile, going to the place of attendance.

2 R. S. 398, § 31, am'd; L. 1867, ch. 68, § 2 (7 Edm. 53).

§ 3320. [Am'd, 1892, 1899, 1902, 1904, 1909.] Receiver's commissions; cost of bonds; trustees' commissions.

A receiver, except as otherwise specially prescribed by statute, is entitled, in addition to his necessary expenses, to such commissions, not exceeding five per centum upon the sums received and disbursed by him, as the court by which, or the judge by whom, he is appointed allows. But if in any case the commissions of a temporary or permanent receiver, so computed, shall not amount to one hundred dollars, said court or judge may, in its or his discretion, allow said receiver such a sum, not exceeding one hundred dollars, for his commissions as shall be commensurate with the services rendered by said receiver. Any receiver, assignee, guardian, trustee, committee, executor, administrator or person appointed under section one hundred and eleven of the real property law or under section twenty of the personal property law required by law to give a bond as such may include as a part of his necessary expenses, such reasonable sum, not exceeding one per centum per annum upon the amount of such bond paid his surety thereon, as such court or judge allows. A trustee of an express trust is entitled, and two or more trustees of such a trust are entitled, to be apportioned between or among them according to the services rendered by them respectively, as compensation for services as such, over and above expenses, to commissions as follows: For receiving and paying out all sums of principal not exceeding one thousand dollars, at the rate of five per centum. For receiving and paying out any additional sums of principal not exceeding ten thousand dollars, at the rate of two and one-half per centum. For receiving and paying out all sums of principal above eleven thousand dollars, at the rate of one per centum. And for receiving and paying out income in each year, at the like rates. In all cases a just and reasonable allowance must be made for the necessary expenses actually paid by such trustee or trustees. If the value of the principal of the trust estate or fund equals or exceeds one hundred thousand dollars, each such trustee is entitled to the full commission on principal, and on income for each year, to which a sole trustee is entitled, unless the trustees are more than three, in which case three full commissions at the rates aforesaid must be apportioned between or among them according to the services rendered by them respectively. If the instrument creating the trust provides specific compensation for the services of the trustee or trustees, no other compensation for such services shall be allowed unless the trustee or trustees shall, before receiving any compensation for such services, by a written instrument duly acknowledged, renounce such specific compensation.

§ 3321. Fees of county treasurer and chamberlain of New York.

A county treasurer, or, in the city and county of New York, the chamberlain, is entitled, for the services specified in this section, to the following fees:

For receiving money paid into court, one-half of one per centum, upon the sum so received.

For paying out the same, one-half of one per centum, upon the sum so paid out.

For investing money, pursuant to the direction of a court, one-half of one per centum upon the sum invested, not exceeding two hundred dollars, and one-quarter of one per centum upon the excess, over two hundred dollars.

For receiving the interest upon an investment, and paying the same to the person entitled thereto, one-half of one per centum upon the interest so received and paid.

2 R. S. 639, § 30 (2 Edm. 661), and L. 1849, ch. 357 (4 Edm. 597).

§ 3322. [Am'd, 1904, 1910.] Fees of a justice of the peace.

A justice of the peace is entitled, for the services specified in this section, to the following fees:

1. In an action brought before a justice of the peace:

For a summons, twenty-five cents.

For an order of arrest, twenty-five cents.

For a warrant of attachment, twenty-five cents.

For a requisition in an action for a chattel, twenty-five cents.

For a subpoena, including all the names inserted therein, twenty-five cents.

For the acknowledgment of a power of attorney, twenty-five cents.

For taking an affidavit, or administering an oath, ten cents.

For drawing an affidavit, application, or notice, required by statute, five cents for each folio.

For drawing a bond or an undertaking, twenty-five cents.

For hearing an application for a commission to examine one or more witnesses, fifty cents.

For an order for such commission, and attending, settling, and certifying interrogatories, fifty cents.

For hearing an application to discharge a defendant from arrest, or to vacate or modify a warrant of attachment, or increase the plaintiff's security thereupon, fifty cents.

For an adjournment, except where it is made by the justice upon his own motion, twenty-five cents.

For a venire, twenty-five cents.

For empanelling and swearing a jury, twenty-five cents.

For hearing the plaintiff's evidence, where the defendant does not appear, twenty-five cents.

For the trial of a demurrer, twenty-five cents.

For the trial of an issue of fact, where the defendant appears, one dollar and fifty cents for each day actually spent in the trial.

For receiving and entering the verdict of a jury, twenty-five cents.

For entering judgment, twenty-five cents.

For filing each paper required by statute to be filed, five cents.

For a transcript of a judgment, twenty-five cents.

For a copy of any paper for which a fee is not expressly prescribed by law, six cents for each folio.

For an execution or the renewal of an execution, twenty-five cents.

For making a return upon an appeal from a judgment, two dollars.

For an order directing an action or a special proceeding to be continued before another justice, twenty-five cents.

For services when associated with another justice, in any case where a fee therefor is not expressly prescribed by law, for each day actually spent, two dollars.

2. In a special proceeding, or an action not brought before a justice of the peace:

For a warrant, in a case where a fee therefor is not expressly prescribed by law, twenty-five cents.

For a warrant for the apprehension of a person charged with being the father of a bastard, fifty cents; for indorsing a warrant, issued from another county, twenty-five cents.

For services when associated with another justice, in any case where a fee therefor is not expressly prescribed by law, for each day actually spent, two dollars.

For a precept or other mandate, whereby a special proceeding is commenced, in a case where a fee therefor is not specially prescribed by law, twenty-five cents.

For a view of real property, in a case where it is required by law, fifty cents.

For a warrant of attachment to arrest a delinquent juror or witness, twenty-five cents.

For drawing, signing, and depositing with the clerk, a minute or record of conviction of such a juror or witness, or of any person for contempt, in any case where a fee therefor is not specially prescribed by law, fifty cents.

For an execution upon such a conviction before him, twenty-five cents.

For drawing, copying, and certifying a bond, an undertaking, a recognizance or other written security, and filing the same with the county clerk, or other officer with whom it must be filed, twenty-five cents.

For a warrant of commitment for any cause, twenty-five cents.
For a subpoena, including all the names inserted therein, twenty-five cents.

For a precept to notify a jury, fifty cents.

For empanelling and swearing a jury, twenty-five cents; except in proceedings to alter or lay out a highway, in which case he is entitled to two dollars.

For hearing the matter, concerning which a jury is called, seventy-five cents for each day actually spent.

For receiving and entering the verdict of the jury, and the order, if any, thereupon, twenty-five cents.

For any service for which a fee is not expressly allowed by this subdivision, and for which, if rendered in an action before a justice, a fee is allowed by the first subdivision of this section, the fee allowed in such an action for the same service.

For taking the deposition of a witness, upon an order made, or commission issued, by a court of record of the state, or a court in another state or a territory, or a foreign country, ten cents for each folio.

For making the necessary return and certificate thereto, fifty cents.

For taking an affidavit or administering an oath, ten cents.

2 R. S. 264, § 228 (2 Edm. 272), am'd, and 2 R. S. 637, § 29 (2 Edm. 358), am'd; L. 1904, ch. 282, and L. 1910, ch. 324. In effect Sept. 1. 1910.

§ 3323. [Am'd, 1890.] Constable's fees.

A constable is entitled, for the services specified in this section, to the following fees:

1. In an action brought before a justice of the peace, or in a justices' court of a city.

For serving a summons, twenty-five cents.

For serving a summons and executing an order of arrest, one dollar.

For serving a summons and levying a warrant of attachment, one dollar.

For serving a summons and affidavit, and executing a requisition, in an action for a chattel, one dollar.

For serving an order, directing the action to be continued before a justice, other than the one before whom it is pending, and for attending before the latter, fifty cents, and fifty cents in addition if he so attends with a person in his custody.

For collecting money by virtue of an execution, for every dollar collected, to the amount of fifty dollars, five cents; for every dollar collected over fifty dollars, two and one-half cents. Where a judgment or an execution is settled after a levy, the constable is entitled to poundage upon the sum at which the settlement is made, not exceeding the value of the property levied upon.

For each mile necessarily traveled, going and returning, to serve a summons or to serve or execute any other mandate, except a venire, the distance to be computed from the place of abode of the person served, or the place where it is served, to the place where it is returnable, ten cents; but where two or more mandates in one action are served or executed upon one journey, or where a mandate is served upon or executed against two or more persons in one action, he is entitled, in all, to only ten cents for each mile necessarily travelled.

For notifying the plaintiff of the execution of an order of arrest, twenty-five cents; and for going to the plaintiff's residence, or, if he is found elsewhere, to the place where he is found, to serve such a notice, for each mile travelled, going and returning, ten cents.

For subpoenaing each witness, not exceeding four, twenty-five cents.

For notifying the jurors to attend a trial, one dollar and fifty cents.

For taking charge of a jury during their deliberations, fifty cents.

Where witnesses, not exceeding four, are subpoenaed by any person other than a constable, the fee therefor is ten cents each. (Subd. am'd by L. 1890, ch. 21.)

2. In a special proceeding.

For notifying jurors to attend to assess damages, in proceedings relating to highways, two dollars.

For notifying jurors to attend in any other case, unless a fee therefor is specially prescribed by law, for each person notified, ten cents; and for each mile actually and necessarily travelled, going from and returning to his place of residence, ten cents.

For serving a precept or other mandate, by which the special proceeding is commenced, twenty-five cents.

For serving a warrant, in any case where a fee therefor is not specially prescribed by law, fifty cents.

For serving an order, directing the special proceeding to be continued before a justice other than the one before whom it is pending, and for attending before the latter, with or without a person in his custody, one dollar.

For arresting and committing any person, pursuant to process, one dollar.

For subpoenaing each witness, not exceeding four, twenty-five cents.

For each mile necessarily travelled, going and returning, to serve or execute a mandate, the distance to be computed from the place where it is served or executed, to the place where it is returnable, unless a different rate of travel fees upon the service or execution thereof is specially prescribed by statute, ten cents. Where two or more mandates are served or executed in one special proceeding, the limitation upon the amount of travel fees specified in the last preceding subdivision applies.

2 R. S. 265, § 228 (2 Edm. 273), am'd; also, § 228, R. S.; L. 1866, ch. 692, § 7 (6 Edm. 806); L. 1869, ch. 820, § 1 (7 Edm. 490); L. 1875, ch. 334, § 1.

A constable, who charges any travelling fees, must show, by affidavit, that the travel was necessary, to perform the service with respect to which it is charged; that no more miles are charged for, than were actually and in good faith travelled for that purpose; that he had, at the time, no other official or private business upon the route so travelled; and that the travelling fees are charged upon one mandate only, which must be attached to or described in the affidavit. The justice taxing the fees must be satisfied that the miles charged for were actually and necessarily travelled, as stated in the affidavit.

L. 1869, ch. 820, § 2 (7 Edm. 490).

§ 3325. Justice's court, fees upon a commission.

A party recovering costs in an action before a justice of the peace, in whose behalf a commission has been issued, and who introduces in evidence a deposition taken thereunder, is entitled to recover his actual disbursements thereupon, not exceeding the following sums: commissioners' fees for taking and returning testimony, one dollar; each subpoena issued, or oath administered, by the commissioner, six cents; expense of serving each subpoena, twenty-five cents; each witness's fees for each day's attendance before the commissioner, twenty-five cents; postage for sending and returning the commission and papers annexed thereto, one dollar.

L. 1841, ch. 138, § 3 (4 Edm. 546).

§ 3326. Id.; jurors' fees.

Except as otherwise specially prescribed by law, a person, notified to attend as a juror, is entitled to twenty-five cents for attending and serving upon the trial of an action or the hearing of a special proceeding, before a justice of the peace; and to ten cents for attending to serve, where he is not sworn.

2 R. S. 265, § 228 (2 Edm. 273); L. 1866, ch. 692, § 9 (6 Edm. 806).

§ 3327. Id.; witnesses' fees.

A witness is entitled to twenty-five cents for each day's actual attendance, before a justice of the peace, in an action or a special proceeding, or before a commissioner appointed by a justice of the peace, or before a justice of the peace taking a deposition to be used in a court, not of record, of another State, or a territory of the United States.

Part of § 228, R. S., and § 10 of act of 1866.

§ 3328. Id.; fees to be paid before services rendered.

A justice of the peace, or a constable, juror, or witness, before a justice of the peace, is not obliged to render any service specified in this title, without the previous payment or tender of his fee therefor.

2 R. S. 650, part of § 6 (2 Edm. 670).

§ 3329. Id.; by whom fees to be paid.

In an action before a justice of the peace, if any services are rendered for a party, and he neglects to pay the fees allowed therefor by law, the other party may pay those fees, and the amount thereof must be taxed as part of his costs, if he recovers costs.

§ 3330. Certain special provisions excepted from this title.

The allowance of a fee, by this title, does not apply to a case, where special provision is otherwise made by statute for compensation for a particular service.

§ 3331. Provision as to change in fees.

Where an officer has, when this title takes effect, commenced the performance of a service, for which a fee is allowed by the statutes heretofore in force, he is entitled to the fee so allowed, for the completion of that service, and he is not entitled to the fee for the same, or a corresponding service, allowed by this title.

§ 3331a. [Added, 1909.] Presentation of claims by jurors and disposition of unclaimed fees.

All jurors including those in a criminal action or special proceeding in a court or before an officer duly summoned and who served as provided for by the laws of this state and are entitled to payment therefor, must present their claims to the proper official designated by law for the payment of juror's fees, on or before the thirty-first day of December of the year succeeding or following the year in which such services were rendered and performed, and failure to comply with this provision shall be a forfeiture of the payment for such claims or services thereafter. All notices issued requiring jurors to attend at a term of court or at a meeting of the grand jury, shall have printed thereon the foregoing provision relating to forfeiture of fees. All moneys or jurors' fees forfeited by the provisions of this section shall be transferred and applied to the fund of such county or city, from which they were paid, on or before the first day of March, in each year.

Added by L. 1909, ch. 65. Derivation — L. 1899, ch. 150, §§ 1-3. See note 21 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

§ 3332. This title applies to civil cases only.

Except as otherwise expressly prescribed therein, this title does not apply to a service rendered in a criminal action or special proceeding, in a court or before an officer.

CHAPTER XXII.

Definitions and Regulations Concerning the Construction, Effect, and Application of this Act.

TITLE I.—General Definitions, and Rules of Construction.

TITLE II.—Provisions Regulating the Effect and Application of this Act.

TITLE I.

General definitions, and rules of construction.

Sec. 3333. Definition of "action".

3334. Id.: "special proceeding".

3335. Division of actions into civil and criminal.

3336. Definition of "criminal action".

3337. Id.: "civil action".

3338. Parties to a civil action.

3339. Only one form of civil action.

3340. Rule of construction as to publication, etc., in certain cases.

3341. Id.: as to certain special provisions relating to New-York city.

3342. Id.: as to county court.

3343. Miscellaneous general definitions and rules of construction.

§ 3333. Definition of "action".

The word "action", as used in the New Revision of the Statutes, when applied to judicial proceedings, signifies an ordinary prosecution, in a court of justice, by a party against another party, for the enforcement or protection of a right, the redress or prevention of a wrong, or the punishment of a public offence.

Co. Proc., § 2.

§ 3334. Id.; "special proceeding".

Every other prosecution by a party, for either of the purposes specified in the last section, is a special proceeding.

Id., § 3.

§ 3335. Division of actions into civil and criminal.

Actions are of two kinds;

1. Civil.

2. Criminal.

Id., § 4.

§ 3336. Definition of "criminal action".

A criminal action is prosecuted by the people of the State, as a party, against a person charged with a public offence, for the punishment thereof.

Id., § 5.

§ 3337. Id.; "civil action".

Every other action is a civil action.

Id., § 6.

§ 3338. Parties to a civil action.

The party prosecuting a civil action is styled the plaintiff; the adverse party is styled the defendant.

Id., § 70.

§ 3339. Only one form of civil action.

There is only one form of civil action. The distinction between actions at law and suits in equity, and the forms of those actions and suits, have been abolished.

Co. Proc., § 69.

§ 3340. Rule of construction as to publication, etc., in certain cases.

Each provision of this act, requiring the publication of a summons, notice, or other paper, in one or more newspapers, or authorizing or requiring a court, or a judge, to designate one or more newspapers, in which such a publication must be made, or requiring the posting of a notice or other paper, is to be construed as not affecting any special provision of the statutes, remaining unrepealed after the former provision takes effect, prescribing one or more particular newspapers, in which such a publication must or may be made, or one or more particular places in which notices or other legal papers must or may be posted, in a particular locality, or in a particular case.

§ 3341. Id.; as to certain special provisions relating to New-York city.

Each provision of this act is to be construed as not affecting any special provision of the statutes, remaining unrepealed after the former provision takes effect, which is applicable exclusively to an action against the mayor, aldermen, and commonalty of the city of New-York, including the recovery, entry, and collection of a judgment in such an action.

§ 3342. Id.; as to county court.

Each provision of this act conferring power upon, or authorizing a proceeding to be taken, at a general, special, or trial term, which is applicable to a county court, is to be construed as applying to any term of the county court, held pursuant to an appointment made as prescribed by law.

§ 3343. [Am'd, 1909.] Miscellaneous general definitions and rules of construction.

In construing this act, the following rules must be observed, except where a contrary intent is expressly declared in the provision to be construed, or plainly apparent from the context thereof:

1. [Subdiv. 1 repealed Jan. 1, 1896; L. 1895, ch. 946.]

2. The word "mandate", includes a writ, process, or other written direction, issued pursuant to law, out of a court, or made pursuant to law, by a court, or a judge, or a person acting as a judicial officer, and commanding a court, board, or other body, or an officer, or other person, named or otherwise designated therein, to do, or to refrain from doing, an act therein specified.

3. The word, "judge", includes a justice, surrogate, recorder, justice of the peace, or other judicial officer, authorized or required to act, or prohibited from acting, in or with respect to the matter or thing, referred to in the provision wherein that word is used.

4. The word, "clerk", signifies the clerk of the court, wherein the action or special proceeding is brought, or wherein, or by whose authority, the act is to be done, which is referred to in the provision in which it is used. If the action or special proceeding is brought, or the act is to be done, in or by the authority of the supreme court, it signifies the clerk of the county wherein the action or special proceeding is triable, or the act is to be done.

5. The word, "report", when used in connection with a trial, or other inquiry, or a judgment, means a referee's report; and the word, "decision", when used in the same connection, means the decision of the court upon a hearing, or the trial of an issue, before the court, without a jury.

6, 7, 8. [Repealed, 1892, ch. 677.]

9. A "personal injury" includes libel, slander, criminal conversation, seduction, and malicious prosecution; also an assault, battery, false imprisonment, or other actionable injury to the person either of the plaintiff, or of another. (See § 1910, subd. 1.)

10. An "injury to property" is an actionable act, whereby the estate of another is lessened, other than a personal injury, or the breach of a contract.

11. The word, "affidavit", includes a verified pleading in an action, or a verified petition or answer in a special proceeding.

12. A warrant of attachment against property is said to be "annulled", when the action, in which it was granted, abates or is discontinued; or a final judgment, rendered therein in favor of the plaintiff, is fully paid; or a final judgment is rendered therein in favor of the defendant. But, in the case last specified, a stay of proceedings suspends the effect of the annulment, and the reversal or vacating of the judgment revives the warrant.

13. The term, "judgment creditor", signifies the person who is entitled to collect, or otherwise enforce, in his own right, a judgment for a sum of money, or directing the payment of a sum of money.

14. A "judgment creditor's action" is an action brought as prescribed in article first of title fourth of chapter fifteenth of this act, or any other action, brought by a judgment creditor to aid the collection of a judgment for a sum of money, or directing the payment of a sum of money.

15. [Repealed, 1892, ch. 677.]

16. A "distinct parcel" of real property is a part of the property which is or may be set off by boundary lines, as distinguished from an undivided share or interest therein.

17. [Repealed, 1892, ch. 677.]

18. A "domestic corporation" is a corporation created by or under the laws of the State; or located in the State, and created by or under the laws of the United States, or by or pursuant to the laws, in force in the colony of New-York, before the 19th day of April, in the year 1775. Every other corporation is a "foreign corporation".

19. The terms, "trial juror", and "trial jury", are respectively equivalent to the terms, "petit juror", and "petit jury", as used in the constitution and laws of the State. The word, "notify", as used, with respect to procuring the attendance of a juror, is equivalent to the word, "summon", as used in the like connection, in the same constitution and laws.

20. The word, "action", refers to a civil action; the word "judgment", to a judgment in such an action; the term, "special proceeding", to a civil special proceeding; the word, "order", to an order made in such an action or special proceeding; the words, "an action of ejectment", to an action to recover the immediate possession of real property.

21-24. [Repealed, 1892, ch. 677.]

L. 1876, ch. 449, § 2; Co. Proc., § 466; Id., § 462; Id., § 463; Id., § 464; L. 1875, ch. 27; 2 R. S. 650, § 4 (2 Edm. 669). Am'd. L. 1909, ch. 65, § 3. See note 88 of notes of Board of Statutory Consolidation at end of code.

When this act deemed to have been passed, etc.3356. When this act takes effect.§ 3344. Short title of this act.

This act constitutes a portion of the New Revision of the Statutes. It may be styled, in any act of the legislature or proceeding in a court of justice, or wherever it is otherwise referred to, "The Code of Civil Procedure".

L. 1876, ch. 449, § 1.

§ 3345. Rule of strict construction not applicable thereto.

The rule of the common law, that a statute in derogation of the common law is strictly construed, does not apply to this act.

Co. Proc., § 467.

§ 3346. Punishment of crimes and misdemeanors created thereby.

Where it is prescribed, in a provision of this act, that a person doing or omitting to do any act is guilty of a particular crime, or, generally, of a misdemeanor, he shall be punished therefor in the manner and to the extent, prescribed by the statutes remaining unrepealed after the provision in question takes effect, for the punishment of the crime so specified; or for the punishment of a misdemeanor, the punishment of which is not specially prescribed in the statute defining it.

§ 3347. [Am'd. 1895, 1909.] Application of certain portions thereof regulated and qualified.

The application and effect of certain portions of this act are declared and regulated as follows: except that, where a particular provision, included within a chapter or a portion of a chapter, specified in a subdivision of this section, expressly designates the courts, persons, or proceedings, affected thereby, that provision is deemed excluded from the application and effect, prescribed in the subdivision.

1. [Am'd. 1909.] In chapter second, the prisoners referred to are civil prisoners only, except that article third of title second thereof, applies to all prisoners, civil or criminal.

2. In chapter third, sections 303, 304, 305, and 306 apply to trial jurors upon the trial of an indictment or other criminal cause; as prescribed in subdivision seventh of this section, with respect to the application of titles third and fourth of chapter tenth, and as specified in the next two sections.

3. [Am'd, 1913.] In chapter fifth, sections four hundred and forty-six, four hundred and forty-nine, four hundred and fifty, four hundred and fifty-four, four hundred and fifty-five, and four hundred and fifty-eight to four hundred and sixty-eight, both inclusive, and in chapter sixth, section five hundred and thirty-two, apply to an action commenced, in any court of the state.

4. [Am'd, 1895, 1913.] The remainder of chapters fifth and sixth, apply only to an action commenced in a court of record.

5. [Am'd, 1909.] Chapter seventh, excluding articles first and second of title fourth thereof, applies only to an action, in one of the courts specified in subdivision fourth of this section, in which an application for an order of arrest, an injunction order, or a warrant of attachment against property, is made, on or after the first day of September, 1877. Articles first and second of title fourth of that chapter apply only to proceedings taken, in one of those courts, on or after that date.

6. [Am'd, 1882.] Chapter eight applies only to the proceedings taken on or after the first day of September, 1877, in an action or special proceeding in one of the courts specified in subdivision fourth of this section; except that sections 721, 722, 724 to 727, both inclusive, and 817 to 819, both inclusive, apply to all courts of record; sections 728, 729, 730, 749, 787, 788, 810 to 816, both inclusive, and 828, to proceedings, taken on or after that day, in any court or before any officer or body; and sections 723, 764, 765, 785, 789, 790, and 825, to all courts.

7. [Am'd, 1909.] In chapter tenth, titles first, second, and sixth, and article second of title fifth, apply only to proceedings taken, on or after the first day of September, 1877, in one of the courts specified in subdivision fourth of this section. Article third of title third and article first of title fifth, of that chapter apply only to jurors drawn for, and juries formed at, a term of a court, commencing not less than twenty days after the first day of May, 1877. Subject to that qualification, they apply to jurors selected under the statutes, remaining unrepealed after that day, and the lists and ballots prepared accordingly, until new jurors are selected, and new lists and ballots are prepared, as prescribed in those titles. The same portions of chapter tenth, excluding article third of title third, apply equally to a criminal and a civil action or special proceeding, and to a court of criminal and a court of civil jurisdiction. Article third of title third of this act and article sixteen of the judiciary law do not affect any special provision of law, remaining unrepealed after the first day of May, 1877, whereby trial jurors are directed to be procured, for a particular court of record, from a particular locality; or whereby a county is divided into two or more jury districts, and the selecting, drawing, summoning, or attendance of jurors from the particular locality, or the different jury districts, is regulated. Each of those provisions becomes applicable to and affects the selecting, drawing, notifying, or attendance of jurors, as prescribed in those articles, in like manner as they applied to and affected the statutes previously in force, upon the same subject. So much of the provisions of articles seventeen and eighteen of the judiciary law, as relates to the remission or enforcement of a fine imposed upon a trial juror, applies to a fine imposed upon a grand juror, as prescribed in the statutes remaining unrepealed after the first day of May, 1877.

8. In chapter eleventh, articles first and second of title first, and the whole of title third, apply only to proceedings in one of the courts specified in subdivision fourth of this section, taken

TITLE II.

Provisions regulating the effect and application of this act.

Sec. 3344. Short title of this act.

- 3345. Rule of strict construction not applicable thereto.
- 3346. Punishment of crimes and misdemeanors created thereby.
- 3347. Application of certain portions thereof regulated and qualified.
- 3348. Id.; what deemed commencement of action, etc.
- 3349. Id.; when proceedings to be under former statutes.
- 3350. Effect of this act upon trial jurors and juries, in criminal causes.
- 3351. Id.; upon grand jurors and juries.
- 3352. Id.; upon proceedings taken, or rights accrued, etc., under former statutes.
- 3353. Id.; upon former appointment of terms.
- 3354. Id.; upon officers and offices.
- 3355. When this act deemed to have been passed, etc.
- 3356. When this act takes effect.

§ 3344. Short title of this act.

This act constitutes a portion of the New Revision of the Statutes. It may be styled, in any act of the legislature or proceeding in a court of justice, or wherever it is otherwise referred to, "The Code of Civil Procedure".

L. 1876, ch. 449, § 1.

§ 3345. Rule of strict construction not applicable thereto.

The rule of the common law, that a statute in derogation of the common law is strictly construed, does not apply to this act.

Co. Proc., § 467.

§ 3346. Punishment of crimes and misdemeanors created thereby.

Where it is prescribed, in a provision of this act, that a person doing or omitting to do any act is guilty of a particular crime, or, generally, of a misdemeanor, he shall be punished therefor in the manner and to the extent, prescribed by the statutes remaining unrepealed after the provision in question takes effect, for the punishment of the crime so specified; or for the punishment of a misdemeanor, the punishment of which is not specially prescribed in the statute defining it.

§ 3347. [Am'd, 1895, 1909.] Application of certain portions thereof regulated and qualified.

The application and effect of certain portions of this act are declared and regulated as follows: except that, where a particular provision, included within a chapter or a portion of a chapter, specified in a subdivision of this section, expressly designates the courts, persons, or proceedings, affected thereby, that provision is deemed excluded from the application and effect, prescribed in the subdivision.

1. [Am'd, 1909.] In chapter second, the prisoners referred to are civil prisoners only, except that article third of title second thereof, applies to all prisoners, civil or criminal.

2. In chapter third, sections 303, 304, 305, and 306 apply to trial jurors upon the trial of an indictment or other criminal cause; as prescribed in subdivision seventh of this section, with respect to the application of titles third and fourth of chapter tenth, and as specified in the next two sections.

3. [Am'd, 1913.] In chapter fifth, sections four hundred and forty-six, four hundred and forty-nine, four hundred and fifty, four hundred and fifty-four, four hundred and fifty-five, and four hundred and fifty-eight to four hundred and sixty-eight, both inclusive, and in chapter sixth, section five hundred and thirty-two, apply to an action commenced, in any court of the state.

4. [Am'd, 1895, 1913.] The remainder of chapters fifth and sixth, apply only to an action commenced in a court of record.

5. [Am'd, 1909.] Chapter seventh, excluding articles first and second of title fourth thereof, applies only to an action, in one of the courts specified in subdivision fourth of this section, in which an application for an order of arrest, an injunction order, or a warrant of attachment against property, is made, on or after the first day of September, 1877. Articles first and second of title fourth of that chapter apply only to proceedings taken, in one of those courts, on or after that date.

6. [Am'd, 1882.] Chapter eight applies only to the proceedings taken on or after the first day of September, 1877, in an action or special proceeding in one of the courts specified in subdivision fourth of this section; except that sections 721, 722, 724 to 727, both inclusive, and 817 to 819, both inclusive, apply to all courts of record; sections 728, 729, 730, 749, 787, 788, 810 to 816, both inclusive, and 826, to proceedings, taken on or after that day, in any court or before any officer or body; and sections 723, 764, 765, 785, 789, 790, and 825, to all courts.

7. [Am'd, 1909.] In chapter tenth, titles first, second, and sixth, and article second of title fifth, apply only to proceedings taken, on or after the first day of September, 1877, in one of the courts specified in subdivision fourth of this section. Article third of title third and article first of title fifth, of that chapter apply only to jurors drawn for, and juries formed at, a term of a court, commencing not less than twenty days after the first day of May, 1877. Subject to that qualification, they apply to jurors selected under the statutes, remaining unrepealed after that day, and the lists and ballots prepared accordingly, until new jurors are selected, and new lists and ballots are prepared, as prescribed in those titles. The same portions of chapter tenth, excluding article third of title third, apply equally to a criminal and a civil action or special proceeding, and to a court of criminal and a court of civil jurisdiction. Article third of title third of this act and article sixteen of the judiciary law do not affect any special provision of law, remaining unrepealed after the first day of May, 1877, whereby trial jurors are directed to be procured, for a particular court of record, from a particular locality; or whereby a county is divided into two or more jury districts, and the selecting, drawing, summoning, or attendance of jurors from the particular locality, or the different jury districts, is regulated. Each of those provisions becomes applicable to and affects the selecting, drawing, notifying, or attendance of jurors, as prescribed in those articles, in like manner as they applied to and affected the statutes previously in force, upon the same subject. So much of the provisions of articles seventeen and eighteen of the judiciary law, as relates to the remission or enforcement of a fine imposed upon a trial juror, applies to a fine imposed upon a grand juror, as prescribed in the statutes remaining unrepealed after the first day of May, 1877.

8. In chapter eleventh, articles first and second of title first, and the whole of title third, apply only to proceedings in one of the courts specified in subdivision fourth of this section, taken on or after the first day of September, 1877. But where an action has been commenced in either of those courts, before that date, a judgment by default must be taken therein, as prescribed by the statutes in force on the thirty-first day of August, 1877.

9. Chapter twelfth does not affect the statutes remaining unrepealed after the first day of September, 1877, touching the review of proceedings in a criminal cause.

10. Chapter thirteenth applies only to an execution issued, on or after the first day of September, 1877, out of a court of record, other than an execution issued out of such a court, and directed, pursuant to law, to a constable or marshal; and to sales and other proceedings, by virtue of an execution directed to a sheriff, and delivered to him, after that date. Sections 1413 and 1414, and sections 1417 to 1427, both inclusive, apply only to a case where such an execution is issued out of one of the courts specified in subdivision fourth of this section; or where a warrant of attachment against property is granted on or after that date, in an action brought in one of those courts. Title third of that chapter applies only to an execution, issued upon a judgment rendered in one of those courts.

11. [Am'd, 1893, 1909.] So much of chapters fourteenth, fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth, nineteenth and twentieth, as regulates the proceedings to be taken in an action or special proceeding, and the effect thereof, applies only to an action or a special proceeding commenced on or after the first day of September, 1880. And all appeals taken from any order, sentence, decree or determination of a surrogate's court made or entered in such court on or after the first day of September, 1880, in any matter or proceeding pending or undetermined in such court on the first day of September, 1880; and all appeals to the court of appeals from any order or judgment of the supreme court affirming, reversing or modifying any such order, sentence, decree or determination of a surrogate's court shall be taken and perfected, heard and decided in conformity to the laws and practice regulating appeals from orders, sentences and decrees of surrogate's court, and the hearing and decision thereof, in force in this State on the thirtieth day of April, 1877, and all appeals from any order, sentence, decree or determination of such court brought in conformity thereto since the first day of September, 1880, are hereby declared to be valid and effectual, except that sections 1670 to 1685, both inclusive, apply also to the proceedings therein specified, taken, after that date, in an action theretofore commenced, or upon a judgment theretofore rendered, and section 1674 applies to a notice of pendency of action theretofore or thereafter filed; sections 1881 to 1892, both inclusive, do not apply to an action upon any bond therein specified, where an order, allowing any person to prosecute the bond in the name of the people, has been duly made before that date and is then in force, in which case future actions upon the same bond are regulated by the laws in force on the day before that date, notwithstanding the repeal thereof; sections 2253 to 2265, both inclusive, apply also where a final determination has been made before the first day of September, 1880, in proceedings taken under any statute superseded by the title containing those sections, and to the process issued thereupon; sections 2320 to 2344, both inclusive, apply also to proceedings taken before that date, under any statute superseded by the title containing them, whether a committee has or has not been appointed; section 2537 applies also to every payment or deposit therein specified made on or after the first day of September, 1880; section 2756, except the words "upon the hearing before the surrogate" applies to actions theretofore or thereafter commenced pursuant to article second of title three of chapter fifteen; and sections 2798 to 2801, both inclusive, apply also to a case, where a decree for the sale or other disposition of the real property of a decedent, has been duly made, before that date, in a surrogate's court.

12. So much of chapters nineteenth and twentieth, as relates to the jurisdiction of the several courts therein specified, applies only to an action or special proceeding commenced on or after the first day of September, 1880.

13. In chapter twenty-first, titles first, second, and third apply only to an action in one of the courts specified in subdivision fourth of this section.

14. [Added, 1894.] The disqualification of jurors, as provided in section eleven hundred and sixty-six of this act, shall apply to all courts.

§ 3348. Id.; what deemed commencement of action, etc.

Where a provision of this act is made applicable by the last section, to an action or special proceeding commenced on or after a day therein specified, if, before that date, a summons in an action, or a citation issued from a surrogate's court, has been served upon one or more, but not upon all, of the persons to be served; or an order for the service of a summons as prescribed in article second of title first of chapter fifth of this act has been made; or, in a special proceeding, elsewhere than in a surrogate's court, the petition or other paper, upon which the first order, process, or other mandate may be made or issued, has not been presented, the action or special proceeding is not deemed to have been commenced within the meaning of that section.

§ 3349. Id.; when proceedings to be under former statutes.

Where any provision of this act is made applicable to future proceedings in an action or special proceeding, the proceedings therein, until the provision in question becomes applicable, are governed by, and must be conducted according to the laws in force on the day before the provision takes effect, except as otherwise prescribed in subdivision seventh of the last section but one.

A jury, for the trial of an indictment or other criminal cause, at a term of a court of record, commencing on or after the twenty-first day of May, 1877, must be procured from the trial jurors selected, drawn, and notified, as prescribed in this act, for the term of the court at which it is triable, including the talesmen or additional jurors, procured as prescribed therein; and the same must be tried by the jury so formed. But the statutes remaining unrevoked after the first day of September, 1877, relating to challenges or disqualifications of petit jurors in a criminal cause, or prescribing the cases where talesmen or additional petit jurors must be summoned in a criminal cause, remain unaffected by this act, and are applicable to the proceedings taken as prescribed in this act, and to the trial jurors therein specified.

§ 3351. Id.; upon grand jurors and juries.

This act does not affect any provision of the statutes, remaining unrepealed after the first day of September, 1877, relating to grand jurors or grand juries; except as follows:

1. A fine imposed, after the first day of September, 1877, upon a person drawn as a grand juror, and duly summoned to attend a term of a court of record as a grand juror, as prescribed in those statutes, must be imposed as prescribed in article fourth of title third of chapter tenth of this act; and sections 1073 to 1077 of this act, both inclusive, apply to such a person, as if he had been drawn, and notified to attend as a trial juror.

2. Where a provision of those statutes refers to the lists of petit jurors, the ballots containing their names, the box or boxes in which those ballots are deposited or contained, the selecting, drawing, summoning, or empanelling of petit jurors, the imposition of a fine upon a petit juror, or the enforcement, reduction, or remission thereof, it is deemed to refer to the same subject, as provided for in this act, in like manner as it refers to those statutes.

See 2 R. S. 483, 484, §§ 16-21 (2 Edm. 505, 506); 2 R. S. 722, § 13 (2 Edm. 745).

Nothing contained in any provision of this act, other than in chapter fourth, renders ineffectual, or otherwise impairs, any proceeding in an action or a special proceeding, had or taken, pursuant to law, or any other lawful act done, or right, defence, or limitation, lawfully accrued or established, before the provision in question takes effect; unless the contrary is expressly declared in the provision in question. As far as it may be necessary, for the purpose of avoiding such a result, or carrying into effect such a proceeding or other act, or enforcing or protecting such a right, defence, or limitation, the statutes in force on the day before the provision takes effect, are deemed to remain in force, notwithstanding the repeal thereof.

§ 3353. Id.; upon former appointment of terms.

This act does not affect the appointment of a term, or the designation of one or more judges to hold a term, made pursuant to the statutes in force on the thirty-first day of August, 1877, until new terms are appointed, or one or more judges are newly designated, as prescribed in this act.

§ 3354. Id.; upon officers and offices.

This act does not create a vacancy in any office or employment, designated or referred to therein, by the title or description thereof, contained in the statutes in force on the day before the provision referring thereto takes effect, or by another title or description: nor does it affect any provisions of those statutes, relating to the amount, or the time or the mode of payment, of the compensation of an officer or employee, so designated or referred to, who is in office or employed on that day; except that where the tenure of his office or employment is not prescribed in this act, he may be removed at pleasure by the court, officer, or officers, authorized by this act to appoint a person to discharge the same duties. Until he is removed, or his office or place becomes otherwise vacant, the provisions of this act apply to him, and to the discharge of his duties. The court, officer, or officers, authorized by this act to appoint a person to an office or employment, may from time to time thus fill a vacancy therein.

§ 3355. [Am'd, 1882.] When this act deemed to have been passed, etc.

For the purpose of determining the effect of the different provisions of this act with respect to each other, they are deemed to have been enacted simultaneously. For the purpose of determining the effect of this act upon other acts, and the effect of other acts upon this act, chapters fourteen to twenty-two of this act, both inclusive, are deemed to have been enacted on the sixth day of January, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty; and all acts passed after the last-mentioned date are to have the same effect as if they were passed after this act.

Subject to the qualifications contained in the foregoing sections of this title, this act shall take effect as follows: titles third and fourth, and article first of title fifth of chapter tenth, on the first day of May, in the year 1877; the remainder of chapters first to thirteenth, both inclusive, on the first day of September, in the year 1877; chapters fourteenth to twenty-first, both inclusive, on the first day of September, 1880; and this chapter immediately.

§ 3357. Title.

This title shall be known as the condemnation law.

§ 3358. [Am'd, 1896.] Definitions.

The term "person," when used herein, includes a natural person and also a corporation, joint-stock association, the state and a political division thereof, and any commission, board, board of managers or trustees in charge or having control of any of the charitable or other institutions of the state; the term "real property," any right, interest or easement therein or appurtenances thereto; and the term "owner," all persons having any estate, interest, or easement in the property to be taken, or any lien, charge, or incumbrance thereon. The person instituting the proceedings shall be termed the plaintiff; and the person against whom the proceeding is brought, the defendant.

L. 1896. ch. 589. In effect May 12, 1896.

§ 3359. Proceedings to be taken as prescribed in this title.

Whenever any person is authorized to acquire title to real property, for a public use by condemnation, the proceeding for that purpose shall be taken in the manner prescribed in this title.

§ 3360. Petition; what to contain.

The proceeding shall be instituted by the presentation of a petition by the plaintiff to the supreme court, setting forth the following facts:

1. [Am'd, 1896.] His name, place of residence, and the business in which engaged; if a corporation or joint-stock association, whether foreign or domestic, its principal place of business within the state, the names and places of residence of its principal officers, and of its directors, trustees or board of managers, as the case may be, and the object or purpose of its incorporation or association; if a political division of the state, the names and places of residence of its principal officers; and if the state, or any commission or board of managers or trustees in charge or having control of any of the charitable or other institutions of the state, the name, place of residence of the officer acting in its or their behalf in the proceedings.

2. A specific description of the property to be condemned, and its location, by metes and bounds, with reasonable certainty.

3. The public use for which the property is required and a concise statement of the facts showing the necessity of its acquisition for such use.

4. The names and places of residence of the owners of the property; if an infant, the name and place of residence of his general guardian, if he has one; if not, the name and place of residence of the person with whom he resides; if a lunatic, idiot, or habitual drunkard, the name and place of residence of his committee or trustee, if he has one; if not, the name and place of residence of the person with whom he resides. If a non-resident, having an agent or attorney residing in the state authorized to contract for the sale of the property, the name and place of residence of such agent or attorney; if the name or place of residence of any owner cannot after diligent inquiry be ascertained, it may be so stated with a specific statement of the extent of the inquiry which has been made.

5. That the plaintiff has been unable to agree with the owner of the property for its purchase, and the reason of such inability.

6. The value of the property to be condemned.

7. A statement that it is the intention of the plaintiff, in good faith, to complete the work or improvement, for which the property is to be condemned; and that all the preliminary steps required by law have been taken to entitle him to institute the proceeding.

8. A demand for relief, that it may be adjudged that the public use requires the condemnation of the real property described, and that the plaintiff is entitled to take and hold such property for the public use specified, upon making compensation therefor, and that commissioners of appraisal be appointed to ascertain the compensation to be made to the owners for the property so taken.

L. 1896, ch. 589. In effect May 12, 1896.

§ 3361. Notice to be annexed to petition; service of.

There must be annexed to the petition a notice of the time and place at which it will be presented to a special term of the supreme court, held in the judicial district where the property or some portion of it is situated, and a copy of the petition and notice must be served upon all the owners of the property at least eight days prior to its presentation.

§ 3362. Service of petition and notice.

Service of the petition and notice must be made in the same manner as the service of a summons in an action in the supreme court is required to be made, and all the provisions of articles one and two of title one of chapter five of this act, which relate to the service of a summons, either personally or in any other way, and the mode of proving service, shall apply to the service of the petition and notice. If the defendant has an agent or attorney residing in this state, authorized to contract for the sale of the real property described in the petition, service upon such agent or attorney will be sufficient service upon such defendant. In case the defendant is an infant of the age of fourteen years or upwards, a copy of the petition and notice shall also be served upon his general guardian, if he has one; if not, upon the person with whom he resides.

§ 3363. Appearance of infant, idiot, lunatic or habitual drunkard.

If a defendant is an infant, idiot, lunatic or habitual drunkard, it shall be the duty of his general guardian, committee or trustee, if he has one, to appear for him upon the presentation of the petition and attend to his interests, and in case he has none, or in case his general guardian, committee or trustee fails to appear for him, the court shall, upon the presentation of the petition and notice, with proof of service, without further notice, appoint a guardian ad litem for such defendant, whose duty it shall be to appear for him and attend to his interests in the proceeding, and, if deemed necessary to protect his rights, the court may require a general guardian, committee or trustee, or a guardian ad litem to give security in such sum and with such sureties as the court may approve. If a service other than personal has been made upon any defendant, and he does not appear upon the presentation of the petition, the court shall appoint some competent attorney to appear for him and attend to his interests in the proceeding.

§ 3364. Appearance.

The provisions of law and of the rules and practice of the court, relating to the appearance of parties in person or by attorney in actions in the supreme court, shall apply to the proceeding from and after the service of the petition, and all subsequent orders, notices and papers may be served upon the attorney appearing and upon a guardian ad litem in the same manner and with the same effect as the service of papers in an action in the supreme court may be made.

§ 3365. Answer; what to contain.

Upon presentation of the petition and notice with proof of service thereof, an owner of the property may appear and interpose an answer, which must contain a general or specific denial of each material allegation of the petition controverted by him, or of any knowledge or information thereof sufficient to form a belief, or a statement of new matter constituting a defence to the proceeding.

§ 3366. Verification of petition or answer.

A petition or answer must be verified, and the provisions of this act relating to the form and contents of the verification of pleadings in courts of record, and the persons by whom it may be made, shall apply to the verification.

§ 3367. Trial of issues.

The court shall try any issue raised by the petition and answer at such time and place as it may direct, or it may order the same to be referred to a referee to hear and determine, and upon such trial the court or referee shall file a decision in writing, or deliver the same to the attorney for the prevailing party, within twenty days after the final submission of the proofs and allegations of the parties, and the provisions of this act relating to the form and contents of decisions upon the trial of issues of fact by the court or a referee, and to making and filing exceptions thereto, and the making and settlement of a case for the review thereof upon appeal, and to the proceedings which may be had in case such decision is not filed or delivered within the time herein required, and to the powers of the court and referee upon such trial, shall be applicable to a trial and decision under the title.

§ 3368. Certain provisions applicable.

The provisions of title one of chapter eight of this act shall also apply to proceedings had under this title.

§ 3369. [Am'd, 1895.] Judgment; costs when to defendant; commissioners.

Judgment shall be entered pursuant to the direction of the court or referee in the decision filed. If in favor of the defendant, the petition shall be dismissed, with costs to be taxed by the clerk, at the same rates as are allowed, of course, to a defendant prevailing in an action in the supreme court, including the allowances for proceedings before and after notice of trial. If the decision is in favor of the plaintiff, or if no answer has been interposed and it appears from the petition that he is entitled to the relief demanded, judgment shall be entered, adjudging that the condemnation of the real property described is necessary for the public use, and that the plaintiff is entitled to take and hold the property for the public use specified, upon making compensation therefor, and the court shall thereupon appoint three disinterested and competent freeholders, residents of the judicial district embracing the county where the real property or some part of it is situated, or of some county adjoining such judicial district, commissioners to ascertain the compensation to be made to the owners for the property to be taken for the public use specified, and fix the time and place for the first meeting of the commissioners. Provided, however, that in any such proceeding instituted within the first or second judicial district, such commissioners shall be residents of the county where the real property, or some part of it, is situated, or of some adjoining county. If a trial has been had, at least eight days' notice of such appointment must be given to all the defendants who have appeared. The parties may waive, in writing, the provisions of this section as to the residence of the commissioners, and in that case they may be residents of any county in the State. Where owners of separate properties are joined in the same proceeding, or separate properties of the same owner are to be condemned, more than one set of commissioners may be appointed.

L. 1895, ch. 530.

§ 3370. [Am'd, 1898, 1913.] Duties and powers of commissioners.

The commissioners shall take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office. Any of them may issue subpoenas and administer oaths to witnesses; a majority of them may adjourn the proceeding before them, from time to time in their discretion. Whenever they meet, except by appointment of the court or pursuant to adjournment, they shall cause at least eight days' notice of such meeting to be given to the defendants who have appeared, or their agents or attorneys. They shall view the premises described in the petition, and hear the proof and allegations of the parties, and reduce the testimony taken by them, if any, to writing, and after the testimony in each case is closed, they, or a majority of them, all being present, shall, without unnecessary delay ascertain and determine the compensation which ought justly to be made by the plaintiff to the owners of the property appraised by them; and, in fixing the amount of such compensation, they shall not make any allowance or deduction on account of any real or supposed benefits which the owners may derive from the public use for which the property is to be taken, or the construction of any proposed improvement connected with such public use. But in case the plaintiff is a railroad corporation and such real property shall belong to any other railroad corporation, the commissioners on fixing the amount of such compensation, shall fix the same at its fair value for railroad purposes. They shall make a report of their proceedings to the supreme court with the minutes of the testimony taken by them, if any; and they shall each be entitled to six dollars for services for every day they are actually engaged in the performance of their duties, and their necessary expenses to be paid by the plaintiff; provided, that in proceedings within the counties of New York and Kings such commissioners shall be entitled to such additional compensation not exceeding twenty-five dollars for every such day, as may be awarded by the court, and provided that in proceedings instituted by a village or any board thereof under this title such commissioners shall be entitled to such additional compensation, not exceeding five dollars for every such day, as may be awarded by the court.

§ 3371. Confirmation or setting aside report; deposit when payable.

Upon filing the report of the commissioners, any party may move for its confirmation at a special term, held in the district where the property or some part of it is situated, upon notice to the other parties who have appeared, and upon such motion, the court may confirm the report, or may set it aside for irregularity, or for error of law in the proceedings before the commissioners, or upon the ground that the award is excessive or insufficient. If the report is set aside, the court may direct a rehearing before the same commissioners, or may appoint new commissioners for that purpose, and the proceedings upon such rehearing shall be conducted in the manner prescribed for the original hearing, and the same proceedings shall be had for the confirmation of the second report, as are herein prescribed for the confirmation of the first report. If the report is confirmed, the court shall enter a final order in the proceeding, directing that compensation shall be made to the owners of the property, pursuant to the determination of the commissioners, and that upon payment of such compensation, the plaintiff shall be entitled to enter into the possession of the property condemned, and take and hold it for the public use specified in the judgment. Deposit of the money to the credit of, or payable to the order of the owner, pursuant to the direction of the court, shall be deemed a payment within the provisions of this title.

§ 3372. Offer to purchase; costs; additional allowance.

In all cases where the owner is a resident and not under legal disability to convey title to real property the plaintiff, before service of his petition and notice, may make a written offer to purchase the property at a specified price, which must within ten days thereafter be filed in the office of the clerk of the county where the property is situated; and which cannot be given in evidence before the commissioners, or considered by them. The owner may at the time of the presentation of the petition, or at any time previously, serve notice in writing of the acceptance of plaintiff's offer, and thereupon the plaintiff may, upon filing the petition, with proof of the making of the offer and its acceptance, enter an order that upon payment of the compensation agreed upon, he may enter into possession of the real property described in the petition, and take and hold it for the public use therein specified. If the offer is not accepted, and the compensation awarded by the commissioners does not exceed the amount of the offer with interest from the time it was made, no costs shall be allowed to either party. If the compensation awarded shall exceed the amount of the offer with interest from the time it was made, or if no offer was made, the court shall, in the final order, direct that the defendant recover of the plaintiff the cost of the proceeding, to be taxed by the clerk at the same rate as is allowed, of course, to the defendant when he is the prevailing party in an action in the supreme court, including the allowances for proceedings, before and after notice of trial, and the court may also grant an additional allowance of costs, not exceeding five per centum upon the amount awarded. The court shall also direct in the final order what sum shall be paid to the general or special guardian, or committee or trustee of an infant, idiot, lunatic or habitual drunkard, or to an attorney appointed by the court to attend to the interests of any defendant upon whom other than personal service of the petition and notice may have been made, and who has not appeared, for costs, expenses and counsel fees, and by whom or out of what fund the same shall be paid. If a trial has been had, and all the issues determined in favor of the plaintiff, costs of the trial shall not be allowed to the defendant, but the plaintiff shall recover of any defendant answering the costs of such trial caused by the interposition of the unsuccessful defence, to be taxed by the clerk at the same rate as is allowed to the prevailing party for the trial of an action in the supreme court.

§ 3373. Judgment, how enforced; delivery possession of premises; when writ of assistance to issue.

Upon the entry of the final order, the same shall be attached to the judgment-roll in the proceeding, and the amount directed to be paid, either as compensation to the owners, or for the costs or expenses of the proceeding, shall be docketed as a judgment against the person who is directed to pay the same, and it shall have all the force and effect of a money judgment in an action in the supreme court, and collection thereof may be enforced by execution and by the same proceedings as judgments for the recovery of money in the supreme court may be enforced under the provisions of this act. When payment of the compensation awarded, and costs of the proceeding, if any, has been made, as directed in the final order, and a certified copy of such order has been served upon the owner, he shall, upon demand of the plaintiff, deliver possession thereof to him, and in case possession is not delivered when demanded, the plaintiff may apply to the court without notice, unless the court shall require notice to be given, upon proof of such payment and of service of the copy order, and of the demand and non-compliance therewith, for a writ of assistance, and the court shall thereupon cause such writ to be issued, which shall be executed in the same manner as when issued in other cases for the delivery of possession of real property.

§ 3374. [Am'd, 1894.] Abandonment and discontinuance of proceeding.

Upon the application of the plaintiff to be made at any time after the presentation of the petition and before the expiration of thirty days after the entry of the final order, upon eight days' notice of motion to all other parties to the proceeding who have appeared therein or upon an order to show cause, the court may, in its discretion, and for good cause shown, authorize and direct the abandonment and discontinuance of the proceeding, upon payment of the fees and expenses, if any, of the commissioners, and the costs and expenses directed to be paid in such final order. If such final order shall have been entered, and upon such other terms and conditions as the court may prescribe; and upon the entry of the order granting such application and upon compliance with the terms and conditions therein prescribed, payment of the amount awarded for compensation, if such compensation shall have been theretofore awarded, shall not be enforced, but in such case, if such abandonment and discontinuance of the proceeding be directed upon the application of the plaintiff, the order granting such application, if permitting a renewal of such proceedings, shall provide that proceedings to acquire title to such lands or any part thereof shall not be renewed by the plaintiff without a tender or deposit in court of the amount of the award and interest thereon.

L. 1894, ch. 475.

Appeal may be taken to the appellate division of the supreme court from the final order, within the time provided for appeals from orders by title four of chapter twelve of this act; and all the provisions of such chapter relating to appeals to the appellate division of the supreme court from orders of the special term shall apply to such appeals. Such appeal will bring up for review all the proceedings subsequent to the judgment, but the judgment and proceedings antecedent thereto may be reviewed on such appeal, if the appellant states in his notice that the same will be brought up for review, and exceptions shall have been filed to the decision of the court or the referee, and a case or a case and exceptions shall have been made, settled and allowed, as required by the provisions of this act, for the review of the trial of actions in the supreme court without a jury. The proceedings of the plaintiff shall not be stayed upon such an appeal, except by order of the court, upon notice to him, and the appeal shall not affect his possession of the property taken, and the appeal of a defendant shall not be heard except on his stipulation not to disturb such possession.

L. 1895, ch. 946.

§ 3376. [Am'd, 1895.] Appeal from judgment by plaintiff.

If a trial has been had and judgment entered in favor of the defendant, the plaintiff may appeal therefrom to the appellate division of the supreme court within the time provided for appeals from judgments by title four of chapter twelve of this act, and all the provisions of said chapter relating to appeals from judgments shall apply to such appeals; and on the hearing of the appeal the appellate division may affirm, reverse or modify the judgment, and in case of reversal may grant a new trial, or direct that judgment be entered in favor of the plaintiff. If the judgment is affirmed, costs shall be allowed to the respondent, but if reversed or modified, no costs of the appeal shall be allowed to either party.

L. 1896, ch. 946.

§ 3377. When general term may direct a new appraisal.

On the hearing of the appeal from the final order the court may direct a new appraisal before the same or new commissioners, in its discretion, and the report of such commissioners shall be final and conclusive upon all parties interested. If the amount of the compensation to be paid is increased by the last report, the difference shall be a lien upon the land appraised, and shall be paid to the parties entitled to the same, or shall be deposited as the court shall direct; and if the amount is diminished, the difference shall be refunded to the plaintiff by the party to whom the same may have been paid, and judgment therefor may be rendered by the court, on the filing of the last report, against the parties liable to pay the same.

If there are adverse and conflicting claimants to the money, or any part of it, to be paid as compensation for the property taken, the court may direct the money to be paid into the court by the plaintiff, and may determine who is entitled to the same, and direct to whom the same shall be paid, and may, in its discretion, order a reference to ascertain the facts on which such determination and direction are to be made.

§ 3379. [Am'd, 1900.] Party in possession may stay on giving security.

At any stage of the proceeding the court may authorize the plaintiff, if in possession of the property sought to be condemned, to continue in possession, and may stay all actions or proceedings against him on account thereof, upon giving security, or depositing such sum of money as the court may direct to be held as security for the payment of the compensation which may be finally awarded to the owner therefor and the costs of the proceedings, and in every such case the owner may conduct the proceeding to a conclusion, if the plaintiff delays or neglects to prosecute the same. When the final award to any owner is less than fifty dollars, in proceedings to condemn a right of way, for telephone or telegraph poles and wires, the allowance of costs, if any, and the amount thereof not exceeding that prescribed by statute, shall be in the discretion of the court in any action or proceeding that may have been or may hereafter be stayed, if the telephone or telegraph poles and wires, in such action or proceeding so stayed, shall have been erected for more than three years prior to the commencement thereof.

L. 1900, ch. 74. In effect Sept. 1, 1900.

When an answer to the petition has been interposed, and it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the public interest will be prejudiced by delay, it may direct that the plaintiff be permitted to enter immediately upon the real property to be taken, and devote it temporarily to the public use specified in the petition, upon depositing with the court the sum stated in the answer as the value of the property, and which sum shall be applied, so far as it may be necessary for that purpose, to the payment of the award that may be made, and the costs and expenses of the proceeding, and the residue, if any, returned to the plaintiff, and, in case the petition should be dismissed, or no award should be made, or the proceedings should be abandoned, by the plaintiff, the court shall direct that the money so deposited, so far as it may be necessary, shall be applied to the payment of any damages which the defendant may have sustained by such entry upon and use of his property, and his costs and expenses of the proceeding, such damages to be ascertained by the court, or a referee to be appointed for that purpose, and if the sum so deposited shall be insufficient to pay such damages, and all costs and expenses awarded to the defendant, judgment shall be entered against the plaintiff for the deficiency, to be enforced and collected in the same manner as a judgment in the supreme court; and the possession of the property shall be restored to the defendant.

§ 3381. Notice of pendency of action to be filed.

Upon service of the petition, or at any time afterwards before the entry of the final order, the plaintiff may file in the clerk's office of each county where any part of the property is situated, a notice of the pendency of the proceeding, stating the names of the parties and the object of the proceeding, and containing a brief description of the property affected thereby, and from the time of filing, such notice shall be constructive notice to a purchaser, or incumbrancer of the property affected thereby, from or against a defendant with respect to whom the notice is directed to be indexed, as herein prescribed, and a person whose conveyance or incumbrance is subsequently executed or subsequently recorded, is bound by all proceedings taken in the proceeding after the filing of the notice, to the same extent as if he was a party thereto. The county clerk must immediately record such notice when filed in the book in his office kept for the purpose of recording notices of pendency of actions, and index it to the name of each defendant specified in the direction appended at the foot of the notice, and subscribed by the plaintiff or his attorney.

§ 3382. Power of court to make necessary orders.

In proceedings under this title, where the mode or manner of conducting all or any of the proceedings therein is not expressly provided for by law, the court before whom such proceedings may be pending, shall have the power to make all necessary orders and give necessary directions to carry into effect the object and intent of this title, and of the several acts conferring authority to condemn lands for public use, and the practice in such cases shall conform, as near as may be, to the ordinary practice in such court.

So much of all acts and parts of acts as prescribe a method of procedure in proceedings for the condemnation of real property for a public use is repealed, except such acts and parts of acts as prescribe a method of procedure for the condemnation of real property for public use as a highway, or as a street, avenue, or public place in an incorporated city or village, or as may prescribe methods of procedure for such condemnation for any public use for, by, on behalf, on the part, or in the name of the corporation of the city of New-York, known as the mayor, aldermen, and commonalty of the city of New-York, or by whatever name known, or by or on the application of any board, department, commissioners or other officers acting for or on behalf or in the name of such corporation or city, or where the title to the real property so to be acquired vests in such corporation or in such city; and all proceedings for the condemnation of real property embraced within the exceptions enumerated in this section are exempted from the operation of this title.

L. 1890, ch. 247.

§ 3384. When act takes effect.

This title shall take effect on the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, and shall not affect any proceeding previously commenced.

246. L. 1884, Ch. 309, § 1. Consolidated in Code Civ. Pro. § 2481, subd. 12.

247. L. 1884, Ch. 336, §§ 2-5. This statute is a general statute relating to appraisal of canal claims. Section 1 has been recommended for repeal in the Canal Law as having been superseded by § 80 of the Canal Law which treats of appropriations generally by the state for canal purposes. The second section is recommended for repeal as having been superseded by § 264 of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to the jurisdiction of the Court of Claims. This jurisdiction extends to private claims, Section 264 of the Code prior to 1908 expressly contained the words "appropriations of land." This expression was omitted when the section was amended in 1908, but the language contained in the 1908 amendment is broad enough to cover private claims for appropriations. Section 3 is consolidated in § 274 of the Code of Civil Procedure. See note § 37a. Section 4 repeals inconsistent legislation. Section 5 is when to take effect.

248. L. 1884, Ch. 376. Consolidated in Code Civ. Pro. § 961c.

273. Code Civil Procedure §§ 27 pt., 95 pt., 360 pt. Section 27, part relating to surrogate has been inserted in § 2507. Section 95, part relating to surrogate has been inserted in § 2512. Section 360, part relating to surrogate has been made § 1323a.

274. Code Civil Procedure § 83 pt. The fourth sentence of Code Civ. Pro. is made § 1323a. The remainder of § 83 is in Judiciary Law, §§ 14, 24, 295-297, 301.

275. Code Civil Procedure, article headings of Ch. 1, Tit. 2. This title formerly embraced three articles, including §§ 46-99. Of these sections the ones remaining in the Code are §§ 52, 53, 55, 60 pt., 65, 83 pt., and 95 pt. It has been thought best to remove the article headings and let the title stand without a division into articles.

NOTES TO AMENDMENTS TO CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE.

Made by L. 1906, Ch. 65.

[Prepared by Board of Statutory Consolidation.]

1. § 356. This section is inserted in the Code of Civil Procedure because it relates to the powers of county judges and provisions of a similar nature are now in this title of the Code. Former § 356 of the Code is recommended for repeal in the Judiciary Law and County Law.

3. § 801a. This section is consolidated in the Code of Civil Procedure, since it deals entirely with practice and has no place in the Partnership Law. L. 1880, Ch. 561, §§ 1-4, were incorporated in and repealed by the Partnership Law enacted in 1897. When L. 1880, Ch. 561, was incorporated in the Partnership Law the section consolidated in the text was left unrepealed in the session laws probably because it contained practice matter. It is now placed in the Code of Civil Procedure with a proper reference to §§ 20 and 21 of the Partnership Law where the remainder of the statute is to be found.

4. § 841a. The provision inserted in the text is matter relating to practice which is now found in the session laws. The provision relates to evidence and has been placed under that head in the Code of Civil Procedure under the article relating to the competency of witnesses. It is made a new section at the end of Art. 1, Tit. 1, Ch. 9.

5. § 931a. This section consists of the last sentence of Code Civil Procedure, § 432, subd. 2. The portion of § 432, subd. 2, which relates to the method of designating, by a foreign corporation, a person upon whom to serve a summons has been transferred to the General Corporation Law, and the portion of said subdivision here consolidated is an evidence provision and should be with similar provisions in the Code of Civil Procedure. There were provisions relating to the designation by a foreign corporation of a person upon whom to make service, both in the Code of Civil Procedure (§ 432) and in the General Corporation Law (§ 16). These provisions were not entirely harmonious and in the text by the insertion of the new section in the Code of Civil Procedure, to wit: Section 931a, and by amending § 432 of the Code of Civil Procedure these provisions have been harmonized. The substantive matter in both §§ 432 and 16 relating to the actual designation of a person upon whom to make service has been consolidated in the General Corporation Law (§ 16), while the practice provisions relating to the service of papers upon a foreign corporation have been brought together in the Code of Civil Procedure. The General Corporation Law (§ 16) provides that the person designated must have an office or place of business at the place where such corporation had its principal place of business within the state, while the Code of Civil Procedure (§ 432, subd. 2) provides that the designation "must specify a place within the state as the office or residence of the person designated," and does not require that the place should be the same as the location of the principal place of business of the corporation. The Code of Civil Procedure (§ 432, subd. 2) provides that a person designated may from time to time "change the place specified as his office or residence to some other place within the state by a writing executed by him and filed in like manner," while the General Corporation Law (§ 16) provides that if the person designated "removes from the place where the corporation has its principal place of business within the state" and the corporation does not within thirty days after such removal designate another person upon whom process may be served within the state the secretary of state may revoke the authority of the corporation to do business within the state and process may be served upon the secretary of state. The General Corporation Law (§ 16) provides for a case where a person designated dies or removes from the place where the corporation has its principal place of business within the state, while the Code (§ 432, subd. 3) provides for a case where the designation "is not in force." While § 432 of the Code was amended as late as 1903 by Ch. 311, and § 16 of the General Corporation Law was amended only as late as 1895 by Ch. 672, the provisions of the General Corporation Law have been followed in the consolidation rather than those of the Code as the later expression of the Legislature, since the amendment of the Code in 1903 related to other matters in the section and did not affect the original provisions relating to the designation of the person upon whom service might be made for a foreign corporation. All of the substantive provisions relating to the manner of designating a person upon whom service may be made on behalf of a foreign corporation have been consolidated in § 16 of the General Corporation Law and the whole subject made consistent. While § 16 of the General Corporation Law provides for service in case the designated person dies or removes from the place where the corporation has its principal place of business, the language of subd. 3 of § 432 of the Code of Civil Procedure has been preserved as broader in its application, covering any case where the designation "is not in force." The General Corporation Law provides for service in a case where the person designated dies or removes from the place where the corporation had its principal place of business within the state and this provision has been incorporated as subd. 4 of § 432 of the Code of Civil Procedure so that the section may provide for a complete scheme for service upon a foreign corporation.

6. § 931b. It seems incongruous to retain this provision as a part of a section in the General Construction Law relating to what shall constitute a quorum or majority of a public board or body and the provision in the text has been placed therefore with these provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to documentary evidence and presumptive evidence of written instruments.

7. § 941a. This section consists of a part of L. 1891, Ch. 125, § 5. The remainder of L. 1891, Ch. 125 providing for the publication of the Colonial Statutes by the former commissioners of statutory revision has been treated as special and not repealed. It seems that the provision consolidated in § 941a is sufficiently important to be included in the Code with other similar matter.

8. § 961a. This statute is provided for in Penal Code, § 19, as to criminal proceedings and is inserted here to take care of its application to civil matters.

9. § 961b. This statute consists of two sections, one of which appears in the text and the other of which provides when the act shall take effect. The word "criminal" is not necessary, as the rules of evidence in civil cases are applicable to criminal cases except as otherwise provided in the Code of Criminal Procedure (Code of Criminal Procedure, § 392).

10. § 961c. This section is a consolidation of L. 1884, Ch. 376, §§ 1, 2. It is the whole of the statute and the only change made is the change of the word "act" to "section." The statute relates to the subject of evidence which is treated in the Code and has been consolidated therefore in the Code. The second section of the act is the last sentence of the section as incorporated in the text.

11. § 961d. This statute has not been inserted in the Code of Criminal Procedure because the rules of evidence in civil cases apply to criminal cases (Code of Criminal Procedure, § 392). The last sentence has been omitted as having no practical use, the statute having been enacted in 1888.

12. § 961e. This section is the whole of L. 1890, Ch. 158, section 2 of the statute being the clause relating to when the statute shall take effect. It is a provision relating to evidence, and as these provisions are now contained in the Code of Civil Procedure the statute has been incorporated under its appropriate head in the Code of Civil Procedure.

13. § 961f. The statute incorporated in the text consists of two sections. The second section provides for the taking effect of the statute and has been omitted as unnecessary. The whole of the first section has been consolidated as a part of the Code of Civil Procedure relating to evidence.

14. § 1323a. This section is the fourth section of Code of Civil Procedure, § 83. The remainder of the section is consolidated in Judiciary Law, §§ 14, 24, 295-297, 301. The word "such" in the section as contained in the Code of Civil Procedure relates to "the presiding" judge, and by reason of the removal of the balance of the section it becomes necessary to insert the words "the presiding" in place of the word "such." This provision has been retained in the Code of Civil Procedure as practice matter, while the remainder of the section relating to court stenographers has been placed under appropriate heads in the Judiciary Law.

15. § 1404a. The provision incorporated in the text is L. 1880, Ch. 393. Section 2 of the statute is the provision relating to the time when the statute shall take effect, and has been omitted as unnecessary. The statute relates to the exemption of exhibits at exhibitions and as similar provisions are in the Code of Civil Procedure the statute has been placed in its appropriate surroundings.

16a. § 244a. This section, relating to the power of the supreme court to compel the performance of certain contracts made by incompetent persons while capable of contracting, has been inserted in the Code of Civil Procedure, since it deals with the power of the court and has no other proper classification. The matter embraced in the section is that contained in L. 1880, Ch. 423, as amended by L. 1885, Ch. 267, § 2. The statute of 1880 amended R. S., Pt. 2, Ch. 5, Tit. 2, § 22, by changing the reference to the court of chancery to the supreme court and adding certain new matter. This statute seems to be alive, since the amendment was passed subsequent to but at the same session as the Code of 1880, and was subsequently recognized and amended by the Legislature by L. 1885, Ch. 267, § 2.

Throop in his note to § 2345 says with reference to the amendment made by Ch. 423: "It is supposed that this amendment fell with the repeal of this section of the revised statutes which took effect September 1, 1880," and in a later edition says that Ch. 423 is substantially embodied in the amendment of Code § 2346, made by L. 1882, Ch. 890, which is the last sentence of § 2346 of the present Code. There is some variation and it has been deemed best to preserve the provision of the Revised Statutes as consolidated in the text.

In connection with this section see Code of Civil Procedure, chapter 17, title 7, relating to the disposition of the real property of an infant, lunatic, idiot or habitual drunkard.

Section 22 of the Revised Statutes incorporated provides that the court of chancery (changed by the amendment of 1880 to supreme court) "shall have authority to decree and compel the specific performance of any bargain, contract or agreement which may have been made by any lunatic or other person specified in the first section of this title." The first section referred to provides that the chancellor shall have the care and custody of "all idiots, lunatics and persons of unsound mind and persons who shall be incapable of conducting their own affairs in consequence of habitual drunkenness." Idiots, lunatics and habitual drunkards are expressly mentioned in the section as incorporated in the text which is sufficient to cover other persons of unsound mind, since the General Construction Law, § 28 (Statutory Construction Law, § 7) defines lunatic as follows: "The terms lunatic and lunacy include every kind of unsoundness of mind except idiocy."

16. § 2408a. This section contains the whole of L. 1902, Ch. 225. The second section relates to the time when the statute shall take effect. The statute has reference to foreclosure of mortgages by advertisement and properly belongs in the Code of Civil Procedure where that proceeding is now contained.

17. § 2481, subd. 12. The provisions of L. 1884, Ch. 309, as amended by L. 1900, Ch. 309, seem not to be included among the powers of a surrogate as defined in the Code of Civil Procedure. Hence the insertion of § 1. Section 2 is a validating provision applicable to acts done prior to 1884 and has been treated as special and left unrepealed.

18. § 2500, subd. 7. This subdivision is part of L. 1889, Ch. 890, as amended by L. 1895, Ch. 544. Section 1 of the statute is in the County Law (§ 168) and § 2 has been incorporated as a part of the Code of Civil Procedure as § 3300a. It is a matter that relates to the surrogate court and therefore has been placed in chapter 18 of the Code of Civil Procedure where the practice in such courts is found. The statute should not be allowed to exist as an independent statute but should be consolidated as a part of the surrogate court provisions in the Code of Civil Procedure.

19. § 2513a. This section is the portion of Code of Civil Procedure, § 360, not embraced in Judiciary Law, §§ 198, 382-385. The section would be out of place under title 5 of chapter 3 of the Code, entitled "County Courts," and hence it has been transferred to chapter 18, which relates to surrogate courts. The surrogate court practice, while mainly found in chapter 18 of the Code of Civil Procedure, is by no means all contained in that chapter. Other sections of the Code are incorporated by reference and other sections are by their terms made applicable. In cases where a part of a section was removed to the Judiciary or other consolidated law and the remainder of the section related to surrogate courts alone, the part remaining has been placed in its appropriate chapter in the Code of Civil Procedure relating to surrogate courts instead of being allowed to remain isolated in another part of the Code of Civil Procedure. This statement applies to § 2513a found in the text and generally to other similar cases.

20. § 3306a. The matter inserted in this section is necessitated by the omission of the word "such" and the incorporation of L. 1889, Ch. 330, § 2, as an independent section of the Code of Civil Procedure. The provision incorporated in the text is a part of the statute, a portion of which has been consolidated in the surrogate court practice as subd. 7 of § 2509.

21. § 3331a. The new words inserted in this statute are made necessary upon the consolidation of the statute into the Code of Civil Procedure because it applies to "all jurors," and § 3332 of chapter 15, title 5, excludes from the application of the title services rendered in a criminal action or special proceeding in a court or before an officer "except as otherwise expressly prescribed therein." The inserted words leave the statute to apply as broadly as its language imports and prevents the limitation of the consolidation of civil actions and proceedings.

25. Article 8, § 2703. This statute (L. 1894, Ch. 731) exists as an independent statute apart from the Code of Civil Procedure. It relates to the probate in this country of foreign wills and should find a place in the Code of Civil Procedure. It has been made a separate article rather than a section of chapter 18, title 3, art. 7 of the Code relating to "Foreign Wills; ancillary letters," because it provides a proceeding of its own which differs from that provided in that article for probating a foreign will. Whether or not the provisions of that article apply in any respect to probate and letters testamentary under this statute is a matter for judicial construction which will not be anticipated if the statute is made a separate article. The courts can then say to what extent the provisions of article 7 apply to the provisions of the new article and their relation will be the same as if the new article had remained an independent statute. If the statute was made a section in article 7 the present relationship would be disturbed and judicial judgment would be anticipated, for throughout article 7 reference is had to conditions and proceedings prescribed therein. Section 2702 of article 7 provides that the provisions of chapter 18 relating to the rights, powers, duties and liabilities of an executor or administrator apply to a person to whom ancillary letters are granted "as prescribed in this article." etc.

26. § 1. The reference in this section to "the next two" sections has been changed to sections "two and three of the judiciary law" because Code Civil Procedure, §§ 1, 2, are now contained in Judiciary Law, §§ 2, 3.

27. § 34. Some alterations in phraseology were made necessary in the portion of the section retained in the Code of Civil Procedure. Such changes are not intended to change the present law in any way. The provisions removed from this section relate to the adjournment of a term of court which is something apart from the actual trial of a cause and to the drawing and notifying of jurors for an adjourned term which precedes the actual drawing of the jury for the trial of a cause.

28. § 41. A portion of this section has been removed to the Judiciary Law (§ 10). The provision thus removed from the Code of Civil Procedure relates to the adjournment of a term of a court of record because of certain conditions, such adjournment resting in the discretion of the court. The provision that has been allowed to remain in the Code of Civil Procedure has been retained because it is a matter of practice. The words "of record" have been inserted in the portion of the section retained in the Code of Civil Procedure because the preceding portion of the section which has been removed to the Judiciary Law (§ 10) made the section applicable to a court of record.

29. § 60. Part of this section has been removed to the Judiciary Law (§ 470), because it relates to the right of an attorney and counselor to practice in the courts of record of the state although a resident of an adjoining state. The balance of the section which has been retained relates to the service of a paper upon him which is a practice provision and therefore has been retained in the Code of Civil Procedure. The words inserted in the portion retained in the Code of Civil Procedure are made necessary by reason of the removal of the first portion of the section and are merely a repetition of the necessary part of the portion of the section removed.

30. § 110. Section 110 of the Code of Civil Procedure refers to the "next two sections." Of these two sections, § 111 remains in the Code of Civil Procedure and § 112 has become § 240, subd. 19, of the County Law. Hence the change made in this section.

31. § 127. Section 127 of the Code of Civil Procedure contains in its first sentence substantive matter and in its second sentence practice matter. The first portion of the section which relates to the removal of a sick prisoner from a jail to a hospital has no connection with an action. It has, therefore, been placed in the Prison Law (§ 385). The last sentence relates to the issuance of an execution where a prisoner escapes while going to, remaining at, or returning from a hospital to which he has been ordered removed. It is, therefore, a practice provision and has for that reason been retained as a part of the Code of Civil Procedure.

32. §§ 138, 140, 141. Sections 138-142 of article 3, title 2, chapter 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, have been retained in the Code because containing matter in the nature of procedure. Sections 138, 140, 141 are amended in the text merely to correct references made necessary by the removal of certain substantive provisions from the Code of Civil Procedure to consolidated laws.

33. § 220. The first portion of this section down to and including the sentence "whenever the appellate division," etc., has been placed in the Judiciary Law as well as the last two sentences beginning "It shall have power to appoint," etc. The two sentences in the middle of the section beginning "No justices of the appellate division," etc., have been retained in the Code of Civil Procedure. The first part of the section which has been consolidated in the Judiciary Law relates to the makeup of the appellate division, the number that shall constitute a quorum, how many justices shall sit in any case, the designation of justices of the appellate division by the governor, the terms of office of the justices, the filling of vacancies, residence of the justices and matters which do not relate to the conduct of an action or an appeal therein. They are provisions in which the justices of the appellate division are chiefly interested and as such have been consolidated in the Judiciary Law. The last portion of the section relates to the appointment of a reporter and the location of the appellate division in each department which are matters that may be appropriately placed in the Judiciary Law. The portion retained in the Code of Civil Procedure applies to the powers of the justices of the appellate division and the jurisdiction of the appellate division, which provisions have been retained in the Code of Civil Procedure as bearing so closely upon practice as to be more appropriately placed in the Code of Civil Procedure than in the Judiciary Law.

34. § 229. This section of the Code of Civil Procedure (§ 229) is amended because of the removal to the Judiciary Law of the first sentence, which provides that "A special term or a trial term of the supreme court must be held by one judge." This is not a practice provision and therefore has been placed in the Judiciary Law.

35. § 235. The last sentence of this section provides that the justices of the supreme court in the eighth judicial district may adopt and amend rules and regulations for making calendars of cases and has been removed to the Judiciary Law where similar matters applicable in other cases have been consolidated. The first two sentences of the section relate to the power of a justice of the supreme court to hold a special term, to act upon any business except where he is disqualified and to the transaction of judicial business out of court. These are all matters relating to the general subject of the powers and jurisdiction of the courts and like such matters elsewhere found in the Code of Civil Procedure have been retained in the Code, as closely related to the actual conduct of an action in court.

36. § 239. The last sentence has been removed as substantive matter to the Judiciary Law. It relates to the attendance upon the court of certain officers, such as clerks, sheriffs, criers and constables. The remainder of the section relating to the adjournment of a special term and the trial of a case upon the calendar of a term which has been adjourned, has been retained in the Code of Civil Procedure because associated with the practice in a cause.

37. § 269. Section 66 of the Code of Civil Procedure referred to in this section relates to the compensation of attorneys and counselors and their liens in actions and special proceedings and has been consolidated in the Judiciary Law under article 15, relating to attorneys and counselors. These provisions are purely substantive. The change, therefore, made in this section in the text is merely one of reference.

37a. § 274. The new matter inserted in this section is L. 1884, Ch. 336, § 3. Section 3 is an express provision relating to allowances for expense of abstracts of title in certain awards by the Court of Claims and is therefore preserved. Section 274 of the Code which prohibits the allowance of disbursements in an action in the Court of Claims might be construed to refer only to disbursements in the course of action. Section 3 is preserved to meet cases where abstracts are required as a necessary expense incident to the appraisal of the damages. The section consolidated was passed in 1884. The Code section was originally enacted in 1883 and subsequently re-enacted verbatim in the Code so that the 1884 act cannot be said to have been superseded by the Code section but on the contrary is still in existence.

38. § 323. Section 17 of the Code of Civil Procedure referred to in this section relates to the convention of justices of the appellate division and to the adoption of general rules of practice by such convention. These matters are entirely apart from the conduct of a cause through the courts and have, therefore, been consolidated in the Judiciary Law in §§ 93 and 94. The distribution of § 17 of the Code of Civil Procedure to the Judiciary Law has made necessary the change in reference.

38a. § 340, subd. 1. Section 1737 of the Code of Civil Procedure has been consolidated in § 206 of the Lien Law. Section 1737 as well as other sections in the article of which it forms a part, relate to an action to foreclose a lien upon a chattel and have been consolidated in the Lien Law. Hence the change of reference.

39. § 355. The first sentence is the only portion of § 355 of the Code retained in the Code of Civil Procedure. It provides that the court shall be open for the transaction of business "for which notice is not required to be given to an adverse party except where it is specially prescribed by law that the business must be done at a stated term." This language embraces a matter of practice and for that reason has been retained in the Code of Civil Procedure. The remainder of the section relates to such matters as the appointment of times and places for holding terms of court, continuance of terms appointed, changing the day appointed, appointing one or more additional terms, dispensing with the holding of terms and adjournment of terms to other places within the county. These are provisions that are outside of the practice in an action and relate to the organization of the machinery for hearing causes rather than to the conduct of causes themselves, and have been consolidated, therefore, in the Judiciary Law (§§ 190, 191).

40. § 432. See Note 5.

41. § 450. The substantive provision contained in this section providing that recoveries in actions or special proceedings for damages to the person, estate or character of a married woman shall be her separate estate, has been removed to the Domestic Relations Law, where similar substantive matter relating to married women is found.

42. § 484, subd. 10. The reference in this section to the "fisheries, game and forest law" has been changed to the "forest, fish and game law" which is the name by which that law is now known.

43. § 716. This section of the Code of Civil Procedure is found in article 1, title 4, chapter 7, under the head "Receivers" and applies not only to a receiver appointed for the voluntary dissolution of a corporation but to a "receiver appointed by or pursuant to an order or a judgment in an action in the supreme court or in a county court or in a special proceeding." As the proceedings for the voluntary dissolution of a corporation has been transferred to the General Corporation Law (Art. 9) as well as other provisions in the Code of Civil Procedure relating to the dissolution and annulment of a corporation this section has been consolidated in article 11 of the General Corporation Law, relating to the powers, duties and liabilities of receivers of corporations in such a form as to give it the application intended by the section. Receivers may be appointed, however, in other actions and proceedings than those taken to dissolve or annul a corporation, and therefore it becomes necessary to retain the section in the Code of Civil Procedure. It has, therefore, been amended and allowed to remain in the Code of Civil Procedure applicable to receivers appointed "in an action in the supreme court or a county court or a special proceeding."

44. § 746. The portion of this section relating to the rate of interest that shall be paid by depositaries of funds or money paid into court and the requirement that they shall give a bond being substantive in character has been consolidated in the Banking Law (§ 43). The remainder of the section providing where funds or moneys paid into court shall be deposited has been allowed to remain in the Code as practice matter.

45. § 752. This section relates to the accounts that shall be kept by the depositary of funds or money paid into court. The last sentence of the section making the section applicable to banks and trust companies has been consolidated in the Banking Law (§ 44). The distribution of the remainder of the section has not been attempted on account of its wide application and it has been allowed to remain in the Code as the most convenient and practical assignment.

46. § 802. The words "except the last section" have been inserted in this section so that the limitation of § 802 will not apply to a new section (§ 801a) inserted by this act.

47. § 861. The "last" section referred to in § 861 of the Code of Civil Procedure has been consolidated in the Civil Rights Law as § 26. It relates to the privilege from arrest of a witness and being substantive in character has been assigned to the Civil Rights Law (§ 26). This assignment has made necessary the change of reference found in the text.

48. § 862. The change made in this section has been made for the same reason stated in the preceding note.

49. §§ 870, 871, 885. The words "Other than a court specified in subdivisions sixteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth or nineteenth of section two of this act" have been omitted from §§ 870, 871 and 885 because all of the courts mentioned in the exception have been abolished and new courts created in their stead. In the first place subds. 16, 17, 18 and 19 are erroneous references, since those subdivisions were changed to subds. 10, 11, 12 and 13 by L. 1895, Ch. 948, amending § 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. In the second place the mayor's court of the city of Hudson was expressly abolished by L. 1895, Ch. 751, and there was created in its stead the city court of Hudson. The recorder's court of the city of Oswego was abolished by L. 1895, Ch. 394. The recorder's court of the city of Utica was abolished by L. 1882, Ch. 103, and the name of the justice's court of the city of Albany was changed to the city court of Albany by L. 1884, Ch. 122. In no instance were existing laws made applicable to the new courts except in the case of the city of Albany, where the existing statutes were made applicable to the new court. In no case, however, was the new court denominated a court of record, so that none of them would come within the courts referred to in §§ 870, 871 and 885 of the Code of Civil Procedure. It would be erroneous, therefore, to continue a reference in these sections of the Code to these courts formerly existing in Hudson, Utica, Oswego and Albany since they no longer exist and a change in the reference to the new courts would be unjustified, as the new courts are not courts of record and existing laws are not made applicable except in one instance.

50. § 961. This section relates to the searching of files by certain public officers and the making of transcripts therefrom. It is all substantive and has been distributed as indicated in the footnote. The portion retained in the Code of Civil Procedure relates to the surrogate and has been allowed to remain because the Code by chapter 18 attempts to provide for the powers and duties of the surrogate and the practice in his court, the provisions of which chapter have been preserved substantially intact.

51. § 977. There has been removed from this section the provision with reference to the making of calendars. Similar matter in other parts of the Code of Civil Procedure has been distributed to the Judiciary Law, and in order that the provisions relating to the making of calendars may be together, this provision has been inserted in the Judiciary Law. The balance of the section relates to the service of notices of trial and notes of issue and being practice matter has been allowed to remain in the Code of Civil Procedure.

52. § 1007. The part of this section which has been removed relates to the apportionment of the salaries of stenographers and is, therefore, substantive and has no place in a practice act. The remainder of the section provides that the notes of the official stenographer may be treated as the minutes of the judge upon the trial and has been allowed to remain as procedure matter.

53. § 1055. The portion of this section removed relates to the notification of persons for jury service and has nothing to do with the conduct of a case in court, and has been removed as not strictly practice. The amendments made to the portion of the section remaining in the Code of Civil Procedure have been made necessary by reason of the elimination of matter from the Code of Civil Procedure and do not embrace any new law.

54. § 1171. Changes made in this section of the Code were made necessary by reason of the elimination of certain provisions from the Code of Civil Procedure and their insertion in the Judiciary Law. The changes are merely changes of reference.

55. § 1174. The change in the reference in this section from § 1048 of the Code of Civil Procedure to § 536 of the Judiciary Law was made necessary by reason of the incorporation of § 1048 in the Judiciary Law. Section 1048 relates to the notification of jurors by the sheriff and his return. This section forms a part of the article in the Code of Civil Procedure relating to the mode of selecting, drawing and procuring the attendance of trial jurors in ordinary cases (Ch. 10, Tit. 3, Art. 2), all of which provisions, with a single exception, have been removed to the Judiciary Law as matters which precede the conduct of a cause through the courts. They are substantive provisions, providing generally the machinery which must be set in motion before a cause can be disposed of in the courts. Hence the change in reference.

56. § 1190. The substantive matter "An alien is not entitled to a jury composed in part of aliens in an action or special proceeding civil or criminal," has been placed in the Civil Rights Law (§ 12), and the section of the Code in which the provision is found has been amended accordingly.

57. § 1273. The first sentence in this section is clearly practice while the last sentence that "a married woman may confess such a judgment." is substantive in character and has been placed in the Domestic Relations Law (§ 51).

58. § 1773. The change in reference in this section was made necessary by reason of the removal of title 3, chapter 17 of the Code of Civil Procedure to the Judiciary Law (Art. 19). Article 3 of chapter 17 of the Code of Civil Procedure relates to proceedings to punish a contempt of court other than a criminal contempt, and has been removed from the Code of Civil Procedure and placed in the Judiciary Law, because substantive in character and something apart from the conduct of a cause through the courts.

59. § 1809. This section relates to corporations and joint-stock associations. The whole section is practice, but as the actions and proceedings relating to corporations have been consolidated in the General Corporation Law it has been deemed best to incorporate in the General Corporation Law the provisions of this section relating to corporations. The section, therefore, so far as it applies to a corporation will be found in that law (§ 306) under an article relating to "Provisions applicable to two or more of the foregoing proceedings or actions." The remainder of the section has not been distributed to the Joint-Stock Association Law because no attempt has been made to consolidate any practice relating to actions or proceedings affecting joint-stock associations in that law.

60. § 1812. The treatment given § 1809 of the Code of Civil Procedure has been given §§ 1810, 1811, 1812 and 1813, and for the same reason stated in the note to § 1809. The changes in this section noted in the text are made necessary by reason of the removal to the General Corporation Law of the provisions of the section relating to corporations.

61. § 1813. The removal of the words "corporations or" has been made necessary by reason of the consolidation of the provisions of this section relating to corporations in the General Corporation Law (§ 309).

62. § 1844. The "last section" referred to in § 1844 of the Code of Civil Procedure has been consolidated in § 101 of the Decedent Estate Law. Hence the change in reference. The "last section" referred to is a substantive provision relating to the liability of heirs and devisees, and as such has been assigned appropriately to the Decedent Estate Law, where similar substantive provisions are found.

63. § 1846. Changes in this section were made necessary by the removal of certain provisions to the Decedent Estate Law. Section 101 referred to in this section relates to the liability of heirs and devisees for the debts of a decedent.

64. § 1855. The changes in this section are changes of reference, made necessary by the removal of § 1843 from the Code of Civil Procedure to the Decedent Estate Law (§ 101). The provision of the Code of Civil Procedure thus removed relates to the liability of heirs and devisees for the debts of a decedent.

65. § 1948. Section 1797 and the remaining sections in the article of which it forms a part relate to an action by the people to annul a corporation, all of which provisions have been consolidated in the General Corporation Law. Section 1798 of the Code of Civil Procedure has become § 131 of the General Corporation Law. Hence the change in reference.

66. § 1966. This section of the Code of Civil Procedure, so far as it relates to the duty of the district attorney to bring an action to recover the penalty of a forfeited recognizance, has been consolidated in the County Law (§ 201). The amendment of the Code of Civil Procedure noted in the text was made necessary by this consolidation.

67. § 2032, subd. 3. Section 8 of the Code of Civil Procedure provides for a case in which a court of record has power to punish for a criminal contempt and has been removed to the Judiciary Law (§ 750). The change in the text accordingly has been made.

68. §§ 2412-2415. Title 10 of chapter 17 of the Code of Civil Procedure relates to proceedings to change the name of an individual or corporation. The part of this title that relates to the change of name of a corporation has been consolidated in the General Corporation Law. It became necessary, therefore, to amend the sections in this title so as to leave intact in the Code of Civil Procedure the proceedings relating to the change of the name of an individual. Hence the amendment to these sections.

69. § 2507. The new matter inserted in this section is taken from Code of Civil Procedure, § 27. The remainder of § 27 has been placed in Judiciary Law, §§ 28, 158, 194. The matter inserted in § 2507 would be out of place in the first chapter of the Code but falls appropriately in § 2507.

70. § 2512. The first sentence of this section is Code of Civil Procedure, § 2512. The remainder is from Code of Civil Procedure, §§ 95-97. Portions of §§ 95-97 are incorporated in Judiciary Law as follows: Section 95, in §§ 168, 200; section 96, in §§ 231, 349, 351, 354; section 97, in §§ 160, 170, 201, 232-234, 279, 403, 405. It was deemed best to remove the portion of §§ 95-97 of the Code of Civil Procedure which is not included in the Judiciary Law from the first chapter of the Code to chapter 18 with similar matter.

72. § 2537. The changes in this section are merely changes of reference. Section 774 of the Code of Civil Procedure relates to the supervision of court funds by the comptroller of the state and is substantive in character.

73. § 2634. The first sentence of this section relating to the indexing of wills by county clerks and registrars has been consolidated in the Decedent Estate Law as substantive matter. The last sentence has been retained because it provides for the fees of an executor or administrator with the will annexed, who causes the record mentioned to be made. The changes made in this section are to correct references.

74. § 2660. Part of this section has been placed in the Decedent Estate Law (§ 103). The removed portion is substantive matter relating to the liability of a husband for the debts of his deceased wife, his liability as administrator for the debts of his wife and the disposition of unadministered assets of his wife at the time of his death.

75. § 2695. It was necessary to amend this section because the section in the article of the Code referred to prescribing the manner of authenticating papers was consolidated in the Decedent Estate Law (§ 45).

76. § 2696. A change in the reference was made necessary because § 2704, prescribing the manner of authenticating papers of another state or country to be used in this state was consolidated in § 45 of the Decedent Estate Law.

NOTES TO AMENDMENTS.

77. § 2733. The first part of this section, relating to advancements, has been consolidated in the Decedent Estate Law as § 99. The latter part being practice has been retained in the Code of Civil Procedure.

78. § 2746. Section 744 of the Code of Civil Procedure has been incorporated in the State Finance Law as subdivision 4 of § 8, except the last clause, relating to the fees of county clerks, which is consolidated in County Law as § 240, subd. 22, and thus the change in reference becomes necessary. Section 744 of the Code of Civil Procedure related to the supervision of court funds by the state comptroller. A portion at the end of this section has been taken care of in appropriate schedules of repeals.

79. § 2838, subd. 1. The provision in the article mentioned in this subdivision of the Code of Civil Procedure has been consolidated in the Decedent Estate Law. It relates to the authentication of papers from another state or foreign country for use in this state. The changes in reference, therefore, became necessary.

80. § 2833. Subdivision 3 of this section contains a reference to certain sections of the Code of Civil Procedure. Two of these sections, to wit: §§ 1843 and 1868, have been placed in the Decedent Estate Law. Section 1868 relates to the liability of legatees or devisees to a child born after the making of a will who is entitled to succeed to a part of the real or personal property of the testator, and their liability to the subscribing witness to a will who is entitled to succeed to a share of such property. This is substantive in character and for that reason has been placed in the Decedent Estate Law (§ 28) and taken from the Code of Civil Procedure. Section 1843 of the Code of Civil Procedure relates to the liability of heirs and devisees for the debts of the decedent and is substantive in character, and has been placed in the Decedent Estate Law as § 101. The reference, therefore, in subdivision 3 of § 2833 has been changed to correspond to this treatment of §§ 1843 and 1868 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

81. § 2889. Sections 63 and 64 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to attorneys practicing in the city of New York, have been placed in the Penal Law and a corresponding change in reference has been made in this section.

82. § 2990. Section 1037 of the Code of Civil Procedure relates to the making and filing of duplicate jury lists and has been placed with its appropriate provisions in the Judiciary Law under the head of jurors. This necessitated a change in the reference, which has been made.

83. § 2991. Section 1033 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to excusing of jurors from service during the whole or a portion of a term, has been placed in the Judiciary Law and the necessary change in reference in this section, therefore, has been made.

84. § 3075, subd. 2. The reference in this subdivision has been changed because Code of Civil Procedure, § 46, has been made § 15 of the Judiciary Law.

85. § 3158. Sections 104 and 105 of the Code of Civil Procedure have been incorporated as §§ 400 and 401 of the Judiciary Law. They relate to the authority of the sheriff to command the power of the county to overcome resistance and the certification of the names of those who resist his authority.

86. § 3253. The change made in this section merely substitutes the title of the general law for the statute mentioned in the section.

NOTES TO AMENDMENTS.

87. § 3320. The change in this section is one of reference merely.

88. § 3343, subd. 14. The reference in this subdivision has been changed from "sixteenth" to "fifteenth" to correct an obvious error in the present Code. Chapter 16 of the Code of Civil Procedure contains but two titles. Article 1 of title 4 of chapter 15 is entitled "Judgment Creditor's Action" and the definition contained in § 3343, subd. 14, is of a "judgment creditor's action."

89. § 3347, subd. 1. Section 122 of the Code of Civil Procedure has been consolidated as § 347 of the Prison Law and has been made to apply to civil and criminal prisoners in accordance with the language of this subdivision. It is, therefore, unnecessary to include it as a part of this subdivision.

90. § 3347, subd. 5. Section 548 of the Code of Civil Procedure, referred to in this subdivision, has been consolidated in § 23 of the Civil Rights Law. It relates to the exemption of a person from arrest in a civil action or special proceeding except as prescribed by statute.

91. § 3347, subd. 7. The reference to "title third" contained in the second sentence has been changed to "article third of title third" because article third is the only portion of title third remaining in the Code. The remainder of title third is in the Judiciary Law. The reference to "title fourth" in the same sentence has been omitted because the whole title has been transferred to the Judiciary Law. The reference in the fifth sentence to "title third" has been changed to "article third of title third" of the Code and "article sixteen of the judiciary law" because article third is the only portion of title third remaining in the Code and the remainder of the title is now in Judiciary Law, article thirteen. The reference to "title fourth" in the last sentence has been changed to "articles seventeen and eighteen of the judiciary law" because the provisions of title fourth are now consolidated in those articles of the Judiciary Law.

92. § 3347, subd. 11. The references to §§ 2181-2187, 2197-2199, 2213-2218 have been removed because these sections are now in Debtor and Creditor Law. The reference to §§ 2228-2230 has been removed because these sections are now in Prison Law. The references are no longer necessary.

NOTES TO AMENDMENTS.

to the adjournment of a term of court which is something apart from the actual trial of a cause and to the drawing and notifying of jurors for an adjourned term which precedes the actual drawing of the jury for the trial of a cause.

28. § 41. A portion of this section has been removed to the Judiciary Law (§ 10). The provision thus removed from the Code of Civil Procedure relates to the adjournment of a term of a court of record because of certain conditions, such adjournment resting in the discretion of the court. The provision that has been allowed to remain in the Code of Civil Procedure has been retained because it is a matter of practice. The words "of record" have been inserted in the portion of the section retained in the Code of Civil Procedure because the preceding portion of the section which has been removed to the Judiciary Law (§ 10) made the section applicable to a court of record.

29. § 60. Part of this section has been removed to the Judiciary Law (§ 470), because it relates to the right of an attorney and counselor to practice in the courts of record of the state although a resident of an adjoining state. The balance of the section which has been retained relates to the service of a paper upon him which is a practice provision and therefore has been retained in the Code of Civil Procedure. The words inserted in the portion retained in the Code of Civil Procedure are made necessary by reason of the removal of the first portion of the section and are merely a repetition of the necessary part of the portion of the section removed.

30. § 110. Section 110 of the Code of Civil Procedure refers to the "next two sections." Of these two sections, § 111 remains in the Code of Civil Procedure and § 112 has become § 240, subd. 19, of the County Law. Hence the change made in this section.

31. § 127. Section 127 of the Code of Civil Procedure contains in its first sentence substantive matter and in its second sentence practice matter. The first portion of the section which relates to the removal of a sick prisoner from a jail to a hospital has no connection with an action. It has, therefore, been placed in the Prison Law (§ 395). The last sentence relates to the issuance of an execution where a prisoner escapes while going to, remaining at, or returning from a hospital to which he has been ordered removed. It is, therefore, a practice provision and has for that reason been retained as a part of the Code of Civil Procedure.

32. §§ 138, 140, 141. Sections 138-142 of article 3, title 2, chapter 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, have been retained in the Code because containing matter in the nature of procedure. Sections 138, 140, 141 are amended in the text merely to correct references made necessary by the removal of certain substantive provisions from the Code of Civil Procedure to consolidated laws.

33. § 220. The first portion of this section down to and including the sentence "whenever the appellate division," etc., has been placed in the Judiciary Law as well as the last two sentences beginning "It shall have power to appoint," etc. The two sentences in the middle of the section beginning "No justices of the appellate division," etc., have been retained in the Code of Civil Procedure. The first part of the section which has been consolidated in the Judiciary Law relates to the makeup of the appellate division, the number that shall constitute a quorum, how many justices shall sit in any case, the designation of justices of the appellate division by the governor, the terms of office of the justices, the filling of vacancies, residence of the justices and matters which do not relate to the conduct of an action or an appeal therein. They are provisions in which the justices of the appellate division are chiefly interested and as such have been consolidated in the Judiciary Law. The last portion of the section relates to the appointment of a reporter and the location of the appellate division in each department which are matters that may be appropriately placed in the Judiciary Law. The portion retained in the Code of Civil Procedure applies to the powers of the justices of the appellate division and the jurisdiction of the appellate division, which provisions have been retained in the Code of Civil Procedure as bearing so closely upon practice as to be more appropriately placed in the Code of Civil Procedure than in the Judiciary Law.

34. § 229. This section of the Code of Civil Procedure (§ 229) is amended because of the removal to the Judiciary Law of the first sentence, which provides that "A special term or a trial term of the supreme court must be held by one judge." This is not a practice provision and therefore has been placed in the Judiciary Law.

35. § 235. The last sentence of this section provides that the justices of the supreme court in the eighth judicial district may adopt and amend rules and regulations for making calendars of cases and has been removed to the Judiciary Law where similar matters applicable in other cases have been consolidated. The first two sentences of the section relate to the power of a justice of the supreme court to hold a special term, to act upon any business except where he is disqualified and to the transaction of judicial business out of court. These are all matters relating to the general subject of the powers and jurisdiction of the courts and like such matters elsewhere found in the Code of Civil Procedure have been retained in the Code, as closely related to the actual conduct of an action in court.

36. § 239. The last sentence has been removed as substantive matter to the Judiciary Law. It relates to the attendance upon the court of certain officers, such as clerks, sheriffs, criers and constables. The remainder of the section relating to the adjournment of a special term and the trial of a case upon the calendar of a term which has been adjourned, has been retained in the Code of Civil Procedure because associated with the practice in a cause.

37. § 269. Section 66 of the Code of Civil Procedure referred to in this section relates to the compensation of attorneys and counselors and their liens in actions and special proceedings and has been consolidated in the Judiciary Law under article 15, relating to attorneys and counselors. These provisions are purely substantive. The change, therefore, made in this section in the text is merely one of reference.

37a. § 274. The new matter inserted in this section is L. 1884, Ch. 336, § 3. Section 3 is an express provision relating to allowances for expense of abstracts of title in certain awards by the Court of Claims and is therefore preserved. Section 274 of the Code which prohibits the allowance of disbursements in an action in the Court of Claims might be construed to refer only to disbursements in the course of action. Section 3 is preserved to meet cases where abstracts are required as a necessary expense incident to the appraisalment of the damages. The section consolidated was passed in 1884. The Code section was originally enacted in 1883 and subsequently re-enacted verbatim in the Code, so that the 1884 act cannot be said to have been superseded by the Code section but on the contrary is still in existence.

38. § 823. Section 17 of the Code of Civil Procedure referred to in this section relates to the convention of justices of the appellate division and to the adoption of general rules of practice by such convention. These matters are entirely apart from the conduct of a cause through the courts and have, therefore, been consolidated in the Judiciary Law in §§ 93 and 94. The distribution of § 17 of the Code of Civil Procedure to the Judiciary Law has made necessary the change in reference.

38a. § 340, subd. 1. Section 1737 of the Code of Civil Procedure has been consolidated in § 206 of the Lien Law. Section 1737 as well as other sections in the article of which it forms a part, relate to an action to foreclose a lien upon a chattel and have been consolidated in the Lien Law. Hence the change of reference.

39. § 355. The first sentence is the only portion of § 355 of the Code retained in the Code of Civil Procedure. It provides that the court shall be open for the transaction of business "for which notice is not required to be given to an adverse party except where it is specially prescribed by law that the business must be done at a stated term." This language embraces a matter of practice and for that reason has been retained in the Code of Civil Procedure. The remainder of the section relates to such matters as the appointment of times and places for holding terms of court, continuance of terms appointed, changing the day appointed, appointing one or more additional terms, dispensing with the holding of terms and adjournment of terms to other places within the county. These are provisions that are outside of the practice in an action and relate to the organization of the machinery for hearing causes rather than to the conduct of causes themselves, and have been consolidated, therefore, in the Judiciary Law (§§ 190, 191).

40. § 432. See Note 5.

41. § 450. The substantive provision contained in this section providing that recoveries in actions or special proceedings for damages to the person, estate or character of a married woman shall be her separate estate, has been removed to the Domestic Relations Law, where similar substantive matter relating to married women is found.

42. § 484, subd. 10. The reference in this section to the "fisheries, game and forest law" has been changed to the "forest, fish and game law" which is the name by which that law is now known.

43. § 716. This section of the Code of Civil Procedure is found in article 1, title 4, chapter 7, under the head "Receivers" and applies not only to a receiver appointed for the voluntary dissolution of a corporation but to a "receiver appointed by or pursuant to an order or a judgment in an action in the supreme court or in a county court or in a special proceeding." As the proceedings for the voluntary dissolution of a corporation has been transferred to the General Corporation Law (Art. 9) as well as other provisions in the Code of Civil Procedure relating to the dissolution and annulment of a corporation this section has been consolidated in article 11 of the General Corporation Law, relating to the powers, duties and liabilities of receivers of corporations in such a form as to give it the application intended by the section. Receivers may be appointed, however, in other actions and proceedings than those taken to dissolve or annul a corporation, and therefore it becomes necessary to retain the section in the Code of Civil Procedure. It has, therefore, been amended and allowed to remain in the Code of Civil Procedure applicable to receivers appointed "in an action in the supreme court or a county court or a special proceeding."

44. § 746. The portion of this section relating to the rate of interest that shall be paid by depositaries of funds or money paid into court and the requirement that they shall give a bond being substantive in character has been consolidated in the Banking Law (§ 43). The remainder of the section providing where funds or moneys paid into court shall be deposited has been allowed to remain in the Code as practice matter.

45. § 752. This section relates to the accounts that shall be kept by the depositary of funds or money paid into court. The last sentence of the section making the section applicable to banks and trust companies has been consolidated in the Banking Law (§ 44). The distribution of the remainder of the section has not been attempted on account of its wide application and it has been allowed to remain in the Code as the most convenient and practical assignment.

46. § 802. The words "except the last section" have been inserted in this section so that the limitation of § 802 will not apply to a new section (§ 801a) inserted by this act.

47. § 861. The "last" section referred to in § 861 of the Code of Civil Procedure has been consolidated in the Civil Rights Law as § 26. It relates to the privilege from arrest of a witness and being substantive in character has been assigned to the Civil Rights Law (§ 26). This assignment has made necessary the change of reference found in the text.

48. § 862. The change made in this section has been made for the same reason stated in the preceding note.

49. §§ 870, 871, 885. The words "Other than a court specified in subdivisions sixteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth or nineteenth of section two of this act" have been omitted from §§ 870, 871 and 885 because all of the courts mentioned in the exception have been abolished and new courts created in their stead. In the first place subds. 16, 17, 18 and 19 are erroneous references, since those subdivisions were changed to subds. 10, 11, 12 and 13 by L. 1895, Ch. 946, amending § 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure. In the second place the mayor's court of the city of Hudson was expressly abolished by L. 1895, Ch. 751, and there was created in its stead the city court of Hudson. The recorder's court of the city of Oswego was abolished by L. 1895, Ch. 394. The recorder's court of the city of Utica was abolished by L. 1882, Ch. 103, and the name of the justice's court of the city of Albany was changed to the city court of Albany by L. 1884, Ch. 122. In no instance were existing laws made applicable to the new courts except in the case of the city of Albany, where the existing statutes were made applicable to the new court. In no case, however, was the new court denominated a court of record, so that none of them would come within the courts referred to in §§ 870, 871 and 885 of the Code of Civil Procedure. It would be erroneous, therefore, to continue a reference in these sections of the Code to these courts formerly existing in Hudson, Utica, Oswego and Albany since they no longer exist and a change in the reference to the new courts would be unjustified, as the § 10. Acknowledge and acknowledgment.

The terms acknowledge and acknowledgment, when used with reference to the execution of an instrument or writing other than a deed of real property, include a compliance with the provisions of the next section by either such proof or acknowledgment.

§ 11. Acknowledgment or proof of instrument.

When the execution of any instrument or writing is authorized or required by law to be acknowledged, or to be proven so as to entitle it to be filed or recorded in a public office, the acknowledgment may be taken or the proof made before any officer then and there authorized to take the acknowledgment or proof of the execution of a deed of real property to entitle it to be recorded in a county clerk's office, and shall be made and certified in the same manner as such acknowledgment or proof of such deed.

When an affidavit is authorized or required it may be sworn to before any officer authorized by law to take the acknowledgment of deeds in this state, unless a particular officer is specified before whom it is to be taken.

§ 13. Adjournment of meeting.

Any meeting referred to in section forty-one of this chapter may be adjourned by a less number than a quorum.

§ 14. Bond and undertaking.

A provision of law authorizing or requiring a bond to be given shall be deemed to have been complied with by the execution of an undertaking to the same effect.

§ 15. Chattels.

The term chattels includes goods and chattels.

§ 16. Choose.

The term choose includes elect and appoint.

GENERAL CONSTRUCTION LAW.

§ 17. Civil code and criminal code.

The term civil code means the code of civil procedure. The term criminal code means the code of criminal procedure.

§ 18. Consolidated laws.

The term Consolidated Laws shall mean the compilation of the statutes prepared by the board of statutory consolidation and the amendments thereof.

§ 19. Day, calendar.

A calendar day includes the time from midnight to midnight. Sunday or any day of the week specifically mentioned means a calendar day.

§ 20. [Am'd, 1910.] Day, computation.

A number of days specified as a period from a certain day within which or after or before which an act is authorized or required to be done means such number of calendar days exclusive of the calendar day from which the reckoning is made. Sunday or a public holiday, other than a half holiday, must be excluded from the reckoning if it is the last day of any such period, or if it is an intervening day of any such period of two days. In computing any specified period of time from a specified event, the day upon which the event happens is deemed the day from which the reckoning is made. The day from which any specified period of time is reckoned shall be excluded in making the reckoning.

Amended by L. 1910, ch. 347, in effect May 21, 1910.

A folio is one hundred words, counting as a word each figure necessarily used.

Words of the masculine gender include the feminine and the neuter, and may refer to a corporation, or to a board or other body or assemblage of persons; and, when the sense so indicates, words of the neuter gender may refer to any gender.

§ 23. Heretofore and hereafter.

Each of the terms, heretofore, and hereafter, in any provision of a statute, relates to the time such provision takes effect.

§ 24. Holiday and half holiday.

The term holiday includes the following days in each year: The first day of January, known as New Year's day; the twelfth day of February, known as Lincoln's birthday; the twenty-second day of February, known as Washington's birthday; the thirtieth day of May, known as Memorial day; the fourth day of July, known as Independence day; the first Monday of September, known as Labor day; the twelfth day of October, known as Columbus day; and the twenty-fifth day of December, known as Christmas day, and if either of such days is Sunday, the next day thereafter; each general election day and each day appointed by the president of the United States or by the governor of this state as a day of general thanksgiving, general fasting and prayer, or other general religious observances. The term half holiday includes the period from noon to midnight of each Saturday which is not a holiday.

Am'd by L. 1909, ch. 112. In effect March 23, 1909.

§ 25. Holiday in contractual obligations.

Where a contract by its terms requires the payment of money or the performance of a condition on a public holiday, such payment may be made or condition performed on the next business day succeeding such holiday, with the same force and effect as if made or performed in accordance with the terms of the contract.

§ 26. Judge.

The term judge includes every judicial officer authorized, alone or with others, to hold or preside over a court of record.

§ 27. Last, preceding, next and following.

A reference to the last or preceding section, or other provision of a statute, means the section or other division immediately preceding, and a reference to the next or following section or other division of a statute means the section or other division immediately following.

§ 28. Lunatic and lunacy.

The terms lunatic and lunacy include every kind of unsoundness of mind except idiocy.

§ 29. Men.

The term men includes boys.

§ 30. Month, computation.

A number of months after or before a certain day shall be computed by counting such number of calendar months from such day, exclusive of the calendar month in which such day occurs, and shall include the day of the month in the last month so counted having the same numerical order in days of the month as the day from which the computation is made, unless there be not so many days in the last month so counted, in which case the period computed shall expire with the last day of the month so counted.

GENERAL CONSTRUCTION LAW.

§ 31. Month in statute, contract and public or private instrument.

In a statute, contract or public or private instrument, unless otherwise provided in such contract or instrument or by law, the term month means a calendar month and not a lunar month.

§ 32. Municipal officers.

A reference to several officers of a municipal corporation holding the same office, or to a board of such officers, shall be deemed to refer to the single officer holding such office, when but one person is chosen to fill such office in pursuance of law.

§ 33. Notice.

When a notice is required to be given to a board or body, service of such notice upon the clerk or chairman thereof shall be sufficient.

§ 34. Now.

The term now in any provision of a statute referring to other laws in force, or to persons in office, or to any facts or circumstances as existing, relates to the laws in force, or to the person in office, or to the facts or circumstances existing, respectively, immediately before the taking effect of such provision.

§ 35. Number, singular and plural.

Words in the singular number include the plural, and in the plural number include the singular.

§ 36. Oath, affidavit and swear.

The terms oath and affidavit include every mode authorized by law of attesting the truth of that which is stated. The term swear includes every mode authorized by law for administering an oath.

§ 37. Person.

The term person includes a corporation and a joint-stock association. When used to designate a party whose property may be the subject of any offense, the term person also includes the state, or any other state, government or country which may lawfully own property in the state.

§ 38. Property.

The term property includes real and personal property.

§ 39. Property, personal.

The term personal property includes chattels, money, things in action, and all written instruments themselves, as distinguished from the rights or interests to which they relate, by which any right, interest, lien or incumbrance in, to or upon property, or any debt or financial obligation is created, acknowledged, evidenced, transferred, discharged or defeated, wholly or in part, and everything, except real property, which may be the subject of ownership.

Oil wells and all fixtures connected therewith, situate on lands leased for oil purposes and oil interests, and rights held under and by virtue of any lease or contract or other right or license to operate for or produce petroleum oil, shall be deemed personal property for all purposes except taxation.

The term real property includes real estate, lands, tenements and hereditaments, corporeal and incorporeal.

§ 41. Quorum and majority.

Whenever three or more public officers are given any power or authority, or three or more persons are charged with any public duty to be performed or exercised by them jointly or as a board or similar body, a majority of all such persons or officers at a meeting duly held at a time fixed by law, or by any by-law duly adopted by such board or body, or at any duly adjourned meeting of such meeting, or at any meeting duly held upon reasonable notice to all of them, may perform and exercise such power, authority or duty, and if one or more of such persons or officers shall have died or have become mentally incapable of acting, or shall refuse or neglect to attend any such meeting, a majority of the whole number of such persons or officers shall be a quorum of such board or body, and a majority of a quorum, if not less than a majority of the whole number of such persons or officers may perform and exercise any such power, authority or duty.

§ 42. Register of county.

Any act done in pursuance of law by the register of a county shall be deemed to be a compliance with any provision of law authorizing or requiring such act to be done by the county clerk of such county, and any instrument or writing filed, entered or recorded in pursuance of law in the office of a register of a county, shall be deemed to be a compliance with any provision of law authorizing or requiring such paper to be filed, entered or recorded, as the case may be, in the office of the clerk of such county. The term county clerk when used in relation to conveyances of real property or the filing or recording of instruments which are or may be filed in the office of the register of a county, shall include the register of each county in which there is a register.

§ 43. Seal of court, public officer or corporation.

A seal of a court, public officer or corporation may be impressed directly upon the instrument or writing to be sealed, or upon wafer, wax or other adhesive substance affixed thereto, or upon paper, or other similar substance affixed thereto by mucilage or other adhesive substance.

GENERAL CONSTRUCTION LAW.

§ 44. Seal, private.

The private seal of a person, other than a corporation, to any instrument or writing shall consist of a wafer, wax or other similar adhesive substance affixed thereto, or of paper or other similar substance affixed thereto, by mucilage or other adhesive substance, or of the word "seal," or the letters "L. S.," opposite the signature.

§ 45. Seal, private as corporate seal.

An instrument or writing duly executed, in the corporate name of a corporation, which shall not have adopted a corporate seal, by the proper officers of the corporation under their private seals, shall be deemed to have been executed under the corporate seal.

§ 46. Signature.

The term signature includes any memorandum, mark or sign, written or placed upon any instrument or writing with intent to execute or authenticate such instrument or writing.

§ 47. State.

The term state, when used generally to include every state of the United States, includes also every territory of the United States and the District of Columbia.

§ 48. Tense, present.

Words in the present tense include the future.

§ 49. Territory.

The term territory when used generally to include every territory of the United States, includes also the District of Columbia.

§ 50. Time, computation.

Time shall continue to be computed in this state according to the Gregorian or new style. The first day of each year after the year seventeen hundred and fifty-two is the first day of January, according to such style.

§ 51. Time, night.

Night time includes the time from sunset to sunrise.

§ 52. Time, standard.

The standard time throughout this state is that of the seventy-fifth meridian of longitude west from Greenwich, and all courts and public officers, and legal and official proceedings, shall be regulated thereby.

§ 53. Time, use of standard.

Any act required by or in pursuance of law to be performed at or within a prescribed time, shall be performed according to the standard time.

GENERAL CONSTRUCTION LAW.

§ 54. Village.

The term village means an incorporated village.

§ 55. Women.

The term women includes girls.

§ 56. Writing and written.

The terms writing and written include every legible representation of letters upon a material substance, except when applied to the signature of an instrument.

§ 57. Year, common and leap.

For the purpose of computing and reckoning the days of the year in the same regular course in the future, every year, the number of which in the Christian era is a multiple of four, is a bissextile or leap year consisting of three hundred and sixty-six days, unless such number of the year is a multiple of one hundred and the first two figures thereof treated as a separate number is not a multiple of four, and every year which is not a leap year is a common year consisting of three hundred and sixty-five days.

§ 58. Year in statute, contract and public or private instrument.

The term year in a statute, contract, or any public or private instrument, means three hundred and sixty-five days, but the added day of a leap year and the day immediately preceding shall for the purpose of such computation be counted as one day. In a statute, contract or public or private instrument, the term year means twelve months, the term half year, six months, and the term a quarter of a year, three months.

ARTICLE 3.

Ancient Statutes and Resolutions.

Sec. 70. Statutes of England and Great Britain inoperative in this state.

71. Acts of the legislature of the colony of New York inoperative.

72. Resolutions of the congress of the colony and the convention of New York inoperative.

§ 70. Statutes of England and Great Britain inoperative in this state.

A statute of England or Great Britain shall not be deemed to have had any force or effect in this state since May first, seventeen hundred and eighty-eight.

§ 71. Acts of the legislature of the colony of New York inoperative.

Acts of the legislature of the colony of New York shall not be deemed to have had any force or effect in this state since December twenty-ninth, eighteen hundred and twenty-eight.

GENERAL CONSTRUCTION LAW.

§ 72. Resolutions of the congress of the colony and the convention of New York inoperative.

The resolutions of the congress of the colony of New York and of the convention of the state of New York, shall not be deemed to be the laws of this state hereafter.

ARTICLE 4.

References, Titles and Head Notes.

Sec. 80. References to repealed provisions.

81. Titles and head notes.

§ 80. References to repealed provisions.

If any provision of a law be repealed and, in substance, re-enacted, a reference in any law to such repealed provision shall be deemed a reference to such re-enacted provision.

§ 81. Titles and head notes.

If the title of any article or other division of a statute, or the head note of a section shall be amended or repealed in the body of the statute, or if a new article or other division having a title, or a new section having a new head note be added to a statute, the corresponding title or head note, if any, in an abstract of contents at the beginning of the article or other division of the statute shall be deemed to be correspondingly amended or repealed, although there be no express reference thereto.

ARTICLE 5.

Effect of Repeals.

Sec. 90. Effect of the repeal of a repealing statute.

91. Effect of the repeal of a statute upon amendments thereof.

92. Effect of the repeal of an amending statute.

93. Effect of repealing statute upon existing rights.

94. Effect of repealing statute upon pending actions and proceedings.

95. Effect of the repeal of a statute by another statute substantially re-enacting the former.

96. Effect of hyphen in schedule of repeals.

§ 90. Effect of the repeal of a repealing statute.

The repeal hereafter or by this chapter of any provision of a statute, which repeals any provision of a prior statute, does not revive such prior provision.

§ 91. Effect of the repeal of a statute upon amendments thereof.

The repeal by the Consolidated Laws of a statute includes a statute amendatory of the statute repealed.

GENERAL CONSTRUCTION LAW.

§ 92. Effect of the repeal of an amending statute.

The repeal hereafter or by this chapter of any provision of a statute, which amends a provision of a prior statute, leaves such prior provision in force unless the amendatory statute be a substantial re-enactment of the statute amended.

§ 93. Effect of repealing statute upon existing rights.

The repeal of a statute or part thereof shall not affect or impair any act done, offense committed or right accruing, accrued or acquired, or liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred prior to the time such repeal takes effect, but the same may be enjoyed, asserted, enforced, prosecuted or inflicted, as fully and to the same extent as if such repeal had not been effected.

§ 94. Effect of repealing statute upon pending actions and proceedings.

Unless otherwise specially provided by law, all actions and proceedings, civil or criminal, commenced under or by virtue of any provision of a statute so repealed, and pending immediately prior to the taking effect of such repeal, may be prosecuted and defended to final effect in the same manner as they might if such provisions were not so repealed.

§ 95. Effect of the repeal of a statute by another statute substantially re-enacting the former.

The provisions of a law repealing a prior law, which are substantial re-enactments of provisions of the prior law, shall be construed as a continuation of such provisions of such prior law, modified or amended according to the language employed, and not as new enactments.

§ 96. Effect of hyphen in schedule of repeals.

When two numbers in a schedule of repeals of the consolidated laws are connected by a hyphen both such numbers are included as well as all intermediate numbers.

ARTICLE SIXTH.

Effect of Consolidated Laws.

Sec. 100. Effect of consolidation upon laws passed at same session or before consolidation takes effect.

101. Effect of consolidated laws on penal law and civil and criminal codes.

§ 100. Effect of consolidation upon laws passed at same session or before consolidation takes effect.

No provision of any chapter of the consolidation of the general laws, of which this chapter is a part, shall supersede or repeal by implication any law passed at the same session of the legislature at which any such chapter was enacted, or passed after the enactment of any such chapter and before it shall have taken effect; and an amendatory law passed at such session or at any subsequent session begun before any such chapter takes effect, shall not be deemed repealed, unless specifically designated in the repealing schedule of such chapter.

GENERAL CONSTRUCTION LAW.

§ 101. Effect of consolidated laws on penal law and civil and criminal codes.

The Consolidated Laws shall not be construed to amend, repeal or otherwise affect any provision of the penal law, code of civil procedure or code of criminal procedure unless expressly so stated.

ARTICLE 7.

Application of Chapter.

Sec. 110. Application of chapter.

§ 110. Application of chapter.

This chapter is applicable to every statute unless its general object, or the context of the language construed, or other provisions of law indicate that a different meaning or application was intended from that required to be given by this chapter.

ARTICLE 8.

Laws Repealed; When to Take Effect.

Sec. 120. Laws repealed.

121. When to take effect.

§ 120. Laws repealed.

Of the laws enumerated in the schedule hereto annexed portion specified in the last column is hereby repealed.

§ 121. When to take effect.

This chapter shall take effect immediately.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 1. [Am'd, 1905, 1908, 1910.] Jurisdiction.

Except as provided in the next section the municipal court of the city of New York has jurisdiction in the following civil actions and proceedings:

1. An action to recover damages upon or for breach of contract, express or implied, other than a promise to marry, where the sum claimed does not exceed five hundred dollars, exclusive of interest and costs.

2. An action upon a bond conditioned for the payment of money where the sum claimed to be due does not exceed five hundred dollars, exclusive of interest and costs, the judgment to be rendered for the sum actually due. Where the sum secured by the bond is to be paid in installments, an action may be brought for each installment as it becomes due.

3. An action upon a surety bond or undertaking taken in any court where the amount claimed in the summons does not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, exclusive of interest and costs.

4. An action in behalf of the people of the state or of the city of New York, brought by the direction of a commissioner of public charities or an overseer of the poor upon a bastardy or abandonment bond in a case where it is prescribed by law that such an action can be maintained.

5. An action upon the bond of a marshal of the city of New York, as prescribed in this act.

6. An action upon a judgment rendered in any court not being a court of record.

7. An action for a fine or penalty not exceeding five hundred dollars, including an action to recover a penalty given by the charter of the city of New York or any by-law or ordinance thereof or by any statute of the state.

8. An action to recover damages for an escape from the jail liberties of any county within the city of New York, where the sum claimed does not exceed five hundred dollars and costs.

9. An action to recover one or more chattels with or without damages for the taking, withholding or detention thereof, where the value of the chattel or of all the chattels as stated in the affidavit made on the part of the plaintiff does not exceed five hundred dollars.

10. An action to foreclose a lien upon a chattel for a sum of money, in any case where such a lien exists at the commencement of the action and where the amount of the lien does not exceed five hundred dollars, exclusive of interest and costs.

11. An action to enforce a mechanic's lien on real property in which the court shall have power to render judgment for the sum due, with interest thereon from the date of the filing of the lien, costs of the action and all prospective fees, and to declare the amount a valid lien against the interest of the defendant in the property described in the complaint, at the time of the filing of the lien, where the amount does not exceed five hundred dollars, exclusive of interest and costs, but said court cannot render judgment for the foreclosure and sale of the property.

12. A summary proceeding under title two of chapter seventeen of the code of civil procedure to recover possession of real property which, or a portion of which, is situated within the district wherein the application for such recovery is made. Such proceeding may be tried with or without a jury, which may be demanded by any party thereto. The court in either case has power upon application, to allow the petition or answer to be amended, at any time, if substantial justice will be promoted thereby and the rights of the parties have not been impaired by

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 4. Contempt of court; criminal.

The said court has power to punish for a criminal contempt: person guilty of either of the following acts and no others:

1. Disorderly, contemptuous or insolent behavior, committed during its sitting, in its immediate view and presence, and directly tending to interrupt its proceedings, or to impair the respect due to its authority.

2. Breach of the peace, noise or other disturbance directly tending to interrupt its proceedings.

3. Wilful disobedience to its lawful mandates.

4. Resistance wilfully offered to its lawful mandates.

5. Contumacious and unlawful refusal to be sworn as a witness, or after being sworn, to answer any legal and proper interrogatory.

6. Publication of a false or grossly inaccurate report of its proceedings. But a court cannot punish as a contempt, the publication of a true, full and fair report of a trial, argument, decision or other proceeding thereon.

O. C. P., § 8; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1288; L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1368.

§ 5. Punishment.

Punishment for a contempt, specified in the last section, may be by fine, not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding thirty days, in the jail of the court where the court is sitting, or both, in the discretion of the court. Where a person is committed to jail, for the non-payment of such a fine, he must be discharged at the expiration of thirty days; but where he is also committed for a definite time, the thirty days must be computed from the expiration of the definite time.

O. C. P., § 9; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1288; L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1368.

Such a contempt, committed in the immediate view and presence of the court, may be punished summarily. When not so committed, the party charged must be notified of the accusation, and have a reasonable time to make a defence, and the court may issue a warrant directed generally to any marshal requiring him to bring the offender before the court. Where a person is committed for such a contempt, the particular circumstance of his offence must be set forth in the mandate of commitment.

O. C. P., §§ 10, 11; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1288; L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1368.

§ 7. Preceding three sections limited.

Punishment for a contempt, as herein prescribed, does not lie by indictment for the same offence; but where a person who has been so punished is convicted on such an indictment, the court in sentencing him, must take into consideration the previous punishment.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

Where a person is committed to jail for the nonpayment of a fine he must be discharged at the expiration of thirty days but where he is also committed for a definite time, the thirty days must be computed from the expiration of the definite time. The particular circumstances of the offense must be set forth in the mandate of commitment.

Added, L. 1910, ch. 539. In effect June 20, 1910.

§ 8-b. [Added, 1910.] In other cases; order to show cause

In any other case specified in section eight, the court must, upon being satisfied by affidavit of the commission of the offense and that the right or remedy of a party to an action or special proceeding pending in the court or before the judge may be defeated, impaired, impeded or prejudiced thereby, make an order requiring the accused to show cause before it or him, at a time and place specified, why the accused should not be punished for the alleged offense. The order to show cause may be made by any judge authorized to grant an order without notice in an action pending in the court, and it must be made returnable at a term or part of the court at which a contested motion may be heard.

Added, L. 1910, ch. 539. In effect June 20, 1910.

§ 8-c. [Added, 1910.] Return of order to show cause; fine or imprisonment; warrant of commitment.

Upon the return of an order to show cause the question which arises must be determined as upon any other motion, and the determination is to the effect that the accused has committed the offense charged, and that it was calculated to, or actually to, defeat, impair, impede or prejudice the rights or remedies of a party to an action or special proceeding brought in the court or before the judge, the court or judge must make a final order accordingly, and directing that the accused be punished by a fine or imprisonment, or both, as the nature of the case requires. A warrant of commitment must issue accordingly.

Added, L. 1910, ch. 539. In effect June 20, 1910.

§ 8-d. [Added, 1910.] Actual loss or injury, payment of fine.

If an actual loss or injury has been produced to a party to an action or special proceeding, by reason of the misconduct proved against the offender, and the case is not one where it is specially prescribed by law that an action may be maintained to recover damages for the loss or injury, a fine, sufficient to indemnify the aggrieved party, must be imposed upon the offender, and collected and paid over to the aggrieved party, under the direction of the court, not to exceed five hundred dollars. The payment and acceptance of such a fine constitute a bar to an action by the aggrieved party to recover damages for the loss or injury. Where it is not shown that such an actual loss or injury has been produced, a fine must be imposed, not exceeding the amount of the complainant's costs and expenses, and a sum not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars in addition thereto, and

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 1. [Am'd, 1905, 1908, 1910.] Jurisdiction.

Except as provided in the next section the municipal court of the city of New York has jurisdiction in the following civil actions and proceedings:

1. An action to recover damages upon or for breach of contract, express or implied, other than a promise to marry, where the sum claimed does not exceed five hundred dollars, exclusive of interest and costs.

2. An action upon a bond conditioned for the payment of money where the sum claimed to be due does not exceed five hundred dollars, exclusive of interest and costs, the judgment to be rendered for the sum actually due. Where the sum secured by the bond is to be paid in installments, an action may be brought for each installment as it becomes due.

3. An action upon a surety bond or undertaking taken in any court where the amount claimed in the summons does not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, exclusive of interest and costs.

4. An action in behalf of the people of the state or of the city of New York, brought by the direction of a commissioner of public charities or an overseer of the poor upon a bastardy or abandonment bond in a case where it is prescribed by law that such an action can be maintained.

5. An action upon the bond of a marshal of the city of New York, as prescribed in this act.

6. An action upon a judgment rendered in any court not being a court of record.

7. An action for a fine or penalty not exceeding five hundred dollars, including an action to recover a penalty given by the charter of the city of New York or any by-law or ordinance thereof or by any statute of the state.

8. An action to recover damages for an escape from the liberties of any county within the city of New York, where the sum claimed does not exceed five hundred dollars and costs.

9. An action to recover one or more chattels with or without damages for the taking, withholding or detention thereof, where the value of the chattel or of all the chattels as stated in the affidavit made on the part of the plaintiff does not exceed five hundred dollars.

10. An action to foreclose a lien upon a chattel for a sum of money, in any case where such a lien exists at the commencement of the action and where the amount of the lien does not exceed five hundred dollars, exclusive of interest and costs.

11. An action to enforce a mechanic's lien on real property in which the court shall have power to render judgment for the sum due, with interest thereon from the date of the filing of the lien, costs of the action and all prospective fees, and to declare upon amount a valid lien against the interest of the defendant in the property described in the complaint, at the time of the filing of the lien, where the amount does not exceed five hundred dollars, exclusive of interest and costs, but said court cannot render judgment for the foreclosure and sale of the property.

12. A summary proceeding under title two of chapter seventeen of the code of civil procedure to recover possession of real property which, or a portion of which, is situated within the district wherein the application for such recovery is made. Such proceeding may be tried with or without a jury, which may be demanded by any party thereto. The court in either case has power upon application, to allow the petition or answer to be amended, at any time, if substantial justice will be promoted thereby and the rights of the parties have not been impaired of § 8-e. [Added, 1910.] Omission to perform duty in power of offender; fine or imprisonment for; warrant of commitment.

Where the misconduct proved consists of an omission to perform an act or duty, which it is yet in the power of the offender to perform, he shall be imprisoned only until he has performed it, and paid the fine imposed. In such a case, the order, and the warrant of commitment, if one is issued, must specify the act or duty to be performed, and the sum to be paid. In every other case, where special provision is not otherwise made by law, the offender may be imprisoned for a reasonable time, not exceeding six months, and until the fine, if any, is paid; and the order, and the warrant of commitment, if any, must specify the amount of the fine, and the duration of the imprisonment.

Added, L. 1910, ch. 539. In effect June 20, 1910.

§ 8-f. [Added, 1910.] When offender discharged from imprisonment.

Where an offender, imprisoned as prescribed in this title is unable to endure the imprisonment, or to pay the sum, or perform the act or duty, required to be paid or performed, in order to entitle him to be released, the court or judge may, in its or his discretion, and upon such terms as justice requires, make an order, directing him to be discharged from the imprisonment.

Added, L. 1910, ch. 539. In effect June 20, 1910.

§ 8-g. [Added, 1910.] Misconduct; when punishable.

Where a misconduct which is punishable by fine or imprisonment as prescribed in this title occurs during a month or with respect to a mandate returnable during a month, and was not punished during the month in which it occurred, the court or judge thereof may inquire into and punish the misconduct as if it had occurred during the month in which the order to show cause is made returnable and as if it had occurred during the month in which such motion is heard.

Added, L. 1910, ch. 539. In effect June 20, 1910.

§ 9. Process; where service may be made.

The court shall have power to send its process and other mandates in an action or special proceeding of which it has jurisdiction to any part of the city of New York for service or execution, and to enforce obedience thereto, and the power and authority of said court extends to the whole of said city of New York, without limitation, except as expressly prescribed in this act.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 10. Justice to administer oaths, et cetera.

The justices of said court may, in the city of New York, in the virtue of their office, administer oaths, take depositions and acknowledgments, and certify the same in the manner and with like effect as justices of courts of record.

L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1370.

The justices of said court shall constitute the board of justice of the municipal court and discharge the functions thereof. They may elect a president from their own number and at pleasure remove him and elect a successor. All meetings of said board shall be public and all proceedings shall be recorded in its books of minutes, by its secretary and shall be preserved. Such board may designate a clerk or deputy clerk of said court for each of said districts to act as secretary of said board, and from time to time substitute another and fix a compensation to be paid for such service, not exceeding the sum of five hundred dollars per annum. Such board may also designate an attendant of said court to act as attendant of said board, and from time to time substitute another, and fix a reasonable compensation to be paid for such service. Such board shall establish public rules relating to its meetings, which as far as possible shall be held at regular times, to the keeping and preservation of its minutes and to the public inspection of the same under the care of the secretary at reasonable times.

§ 12. [Am'd, 1903, 1907, 1908.] Board to make rules.

Said board of justices shall adopt, and may from time to time amend or add to rules relating to the following subjects:

1. As to the hours at which court shall be opened on each day and what officers shall be in attendance.
2. As to the order of business and manner of its discharge.
3. As to the manner in which the clerks, deputy clerks, assistant clerks, stenographers, interpreters, attendants and employees shall perform their duties, the manner of keeping records and papers, the collection and disposition of moneys and keeping accounts of the same.
4. As to the maintenance of order in and about the courts and offices thereof.
5. As to the forms and practices in said court.
6. As to a calendar in each district of actions reserved generally, to which actions may be transferred notwithstanding the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-three and one hundred and ninety-four of this act.
7. As to trial calendars and the transfer for trial from one part to another in the same district of special proceedings and of actions not necessarily triable in a part designated for jury trials under the next section of this act. The said board may also provide for the transfer from any part to a jury trial in the same district of any special proceeding or any action triable by jury.
8. As to the reports to the comptroller by the clerks of the disbursement by them of the moneys paid to them upon demand for jury trials and as to the payment to the comptroller of the city of New York of any surplus of said moneys after the payment therefrom of the fees for serving jurors and of juror

13. [Am'd, 1907, 1908.] Parts of court; how held.

The board of justices shall from time to time establish parts and court and shall assign justices to hold the several parts established, but no justice shall be assigned to sit outside of the borough for which he was elected or appointed, excepting one of the cases specified in section thirteen hundred and five of the Greater New York charter, as amended by chapter six hundred and three of the laws of nineteen hundred seven. No justice shall sit in any one district for two successive months, nor, in the borough of Manhattan, for more than six months in any one year, nor in the boroughs other than Manhattan for more than the minimum number of months under the system of complete rotation by the justices within such boroughs respectively. Of the parts so established in the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx one or more parts in each district shall be designated for the trial by jury of all actions triable in that district in which a defendant is not under arrest. Said board shall provide for the transfer of every such action to one of the parts in which it is triable and shall prescribe on what such jury trials shall be had in each part so designated and such parts shall have a preference on such day.

Am'd by L. 1907, ch. 603; L. 1908, ch. 481. In effect Sept. 1, 1908.

14. Concurrence of majority.

The concurrence of a majority of all the members of said board shall be necessary to adopt any resolution thereof.

1901, ch. 466, § 1376.

15. Actions may be continued before another justice.

The trial of an action or special proceeding may be continued from day to day, or from one day to any other day or days until the same is finished. A special proceeding commenced before one justice may be continued before any other justice having jurisdiction of the subject-matter, the same as though it had been originally commenced before him. A transcript of any proceedings had before either of said justices, or of any paper filed with the clerk, or of the minutes of any testimony taken by or before said justice, certified by the clerk or said justice to be correct, shall be presumptive evidence of the facts therein contained.

§ 16. Death or removal of justice not to impair proceedings, et cetera.

No process, action, judgment, execution or proceeding shall abate or be discontinued by reason of the death, removal from office, or vacancy in office of any justice, but the respective successor in office of the said justice shall proceed to hear, try, determine and give judgment in and upon the same, and upon all matters and things pending before and undecided or not acted on or indorsed by their predecessors in office, with the same powers, jurisdiction, and authority, as their predecessors had.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

The said court shall be held in each of the districts in one or more parts as fixed by the board of justices, by the justices or justices assigned to hold such parts, at the places provided by the commissioners of the sinking fund, and in accordance with law, at such hours in every judicial day or so often as the board of justices of the municipal court shall direct, and must continue in session so long as the public interest requires; and it shall be the duty of the commissioners of the sinking fund to provide a suitable place for the holding of said court in each of said districts, provided that more than one place for holding such court may be provided at any time after this act takes effect in any district, if the said board of justices shall certify that the public convenience requires such additional number of places.

In each of the districts in the borough of Manhattan the court shall on every day of the year except only Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays, during each month of the year excepting July and August, be open from at least nine o'clock in the forenoon to four o'clock in the afternoon at least one part of said court with one of the justices of said court in attendance therein who shall hear and dispose of ex parte applications and summary actions for wages, summary proceedings and such other actions or proceedings as may be given a preference by the rules of the board of justices, and attend to such other business as may be directed by such rules. During the months of July and August such part shall be in session as aforesaid in each district for at least two days in each week. Similar parts may be established by the board of justices to sit in the boroughs of the Bronx, Brooklyn, Queens and Richmond, as the business of said court may require.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1291; L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1371. Am'd L. 1907, ch. 67 in effect Jan. 1, 1908.

The said court in each district shall have official seals furnished at the expense of the city, on which shall be engraved the arms of the state of New York, "Borough of Manhattan" (or whatever the borough may be), "First District" (or whatever the district may be), but nothing herein contained shall authorize such court to issue certificates of naturalization.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1293; L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1372.

The justices of said court shall have access and possession of the court-houses; and it shall be the duty of the board of aldermen of the city of New York and its several officers charged with duties in that behalf to supply and pay for whatever may be necessary for the transaction of the business of said court and the justices thereof, and to supply all proper accommodations, books, stationery and furniture, and to pay all salaries, compensations and expenses and disbursements herein authorized, and the board of estimate and apportionment shall annually include in its final estimate such sums as may be necessary to pay the same.

L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1380.

§ 20. Code, rules of supreme court applicable; when.

The provisions of the code of civil procedure and rules and regulations of the supreme court as they may be from time to time, shall apply to the municipal court as far as the same can be made applicable, and are not in conflict with the provisions of this act; in case of such conflict this act shall govern.

An action or proceeding of which the municipal court has jurisdiction must be brought:

1. In a district in which either the plaintiff or defendant or one of the plaintiffs or one of the defendants resides, unless all the plaintiffs or all the defendants reside out of the city of New York, in which case the action or proceeding may be brought in said court in any district; provided, however, that whenever any action shall be brought by the assignee of the cause of action, such action shall upon the demand of a defendant made as provided in subdivision four of this section, be transferred to the district in which the defendant resides and the court must make an order for such transfer, as provided in subdivision four of this section.

2. If the defendant be a corporation created by law, in a district in which the plaintiff or either of the plaintiffs resides, or in which (if it be a corporation) it transacts its general business or keeps an office or has an agency established for the transaction of business or is established by law, except the corporation of the city of New York, which may sue, or be sued in any district, except as provided for in subdivision five of this section.

3. By plaintiffs not residing in the city of New York, in the district in which the defendant, or one of the defendants resides, and against a defendant or defendants, not residing in said city, in the district in which the plaintiff or one of the plaintiffs resides; but where all the parties reside out of said city, the action may be brought in any district. No person who shall have a place in said city for the regular transaction of business shall be deemed a non-resident under the provisions of this act.

4. If the district in which the action or proceeding is brought is not the proper district, the action may, notwithstanding, be tried therein, unless the action is transferred to the proper district before trial upon demand of the defendant made upon or before the joinder of issue in writing or in open court, followed by the consent of the plaintiff given in like manner, or the order of the court. The demand must specify the district to which defendant requires the action to be transferred. The court must make such order when the district in which the action or proceeding is brought is not the proper district, as specified in this section or the next one, if such demand be made.

5. All actions by or on behalf of the city of New York to recover a penalty or fine for a violation of any corporation ordinance, when the amount of such penalty or fine shall not exceed five hundred dollars, must be brought in the district in which the violation of such ordinance happened or occurred. And all actions to recover a penalty or fine for a violation of any provision of the sanitary code or of any regulation of the fire commission or of any laws or ordinances which either the health or fire department is authorized, empowered and especially charged to enforce, where the amount of such penalty or fine shall not exceed five hundred dollars, must be brought in the district in which such violation happened or occurred.

6. An action pending in said court may upon consent be transferred by an order by any justice of said court to a district other than that in which it is pending.

L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1370, am'd by ch. 93, L. 1904, and by L. 1904, ch. 65; L. 1907, ch. 603. In effect Jan. 1, 1908.

An action brought in the municipal court of the city of New York, must be commenced by the service of a summons, or the voluntary appearance of and joinder of issues by the parties.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1296.

§ 27. Summons; requisites.

The summons must be addressed to the defendant by name, or if his name be unknown, by a fictitious name, and must summon him to appear before the court, at the court-room thereof, and at the time specified therein, to answer the complaint of the plaintiff, and must state the amount for which the plaintiff will take judgment if the defendant fail to appear and answer; it must be issued and subscribed by the clerk of the court in the district out of which the same is issued, or by his assistant in the name of such clerk, except as provided in section twenty-five of this act.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1297.

§ 28. Form of summons.

The summons must be substantially in the following form, the blanks being properly filled out.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

MUNICIPAL COURT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

Borough of _____, district _____

..... plaintiff, against } Summons.
..... defendant. }

the above named defendant:

You are hereby summoned and required to appear in this action in the municipal court of the city of New York, borough _____, district _____, in the court room thereof, _____, in the city of New York, on the _____ day of _____ 19.., at _____ o'clock in the forenoon, to answer a complaint of the plaintiff in this action, who, if you then fail to appear and answer will take judgment against you for a sum of _____ dollars, with interest from the _____ day of _____ 19.., together with the costs of this action.
Dated, New York, 19..

New.]

..... Clerk.

§ 29. [Am'd, 1905.] Summons; attorney-general and corporation counsel may issue, et cetera.

In any and all actions brought in the name of the people of the state of New York by the attorney-general or in the name of the city of New York, or of any department, board, or officer thereof, or by the corporation counsel of the city of New York, as attorney for said city, or said department, board or officer thereof, to recover a penalty or penalties for the violation of any laws or ordinance, the summons may be issued out of said court by the attorney-general or by the corporation counsel in his own name without the same being subscribed by the clerk of the court where such action or actions are brought, and in such actions the attorney-general or the corporation counsel shall not be required to pay to the clerk of the court the fees in the action, but shall account therefor to the city treasurer and shall collect the same from the defendant, when judgment is recovered; and no fees or costs shall be demanded of the people of the state of New York or the attorney-general or of the said the city of New York, or any board or officer thereof in any such suit or proceeding.

L. 1901, ch. 468, § 1384; L. 1905, ch. 73. In effect March 17, 1905.

An action shall be deemed commenced, at the time the summons is actually delivered for service. If the marshal, or other person having the summons to serve, cannot find the defendant so as to serve him therewith as required by this act, he must so return, and the clerk shall, at the request of the plaintiff, if made between the last day when service could be had and the return day mentioned in said summons or alias, including such return day, continue from time to time to issue another summons, to be known as and stamped "alias," until the defendant is served.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1303.

§ 31. Method of service.

The summons must be served as follows:

1. If an action be against a corporation, by delivery of a copy to the president or other head of the corporation, or to the secretary, cashier, or managing agent thereof, but when no such officer resides in the city, to a director resident therein.

2. If against a minor under the age of fourteen years, by delivery of a copy to such minor, and also to his father, mother or guardian, or if they be not within the city, then to any person having the care or control of said minor, or with whom he resides, or to whose service he is.

3. If against a person judicially declared to be of unsound mind or incapable of conducting his own affairs in consequence of habitual drunkenness, or for any other cause, and for whom a committee has been appointed, by delivery of a copy to such committee and of the defendant personally.

4. In all other cases to the defendant personally, except as in this act otherwise specially provided.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1300.

§ 32. Order for service of summons; when defendant not found.

An order for the service of a summons upon a defendant residing within the city, may be made by the court in the district in which an action is brought after an alias summons has been duly issued, upon satisfactory proof by the affidavit of a person not a party to the action, and the return of a marshal, that proper and diligent effort has been made to serve the summons upon the defendant, and that the place of his sojourn cannot be found, or if he is within the city that he avoids service so that personal service could not be made.

C. C. P., § 435.

§ 33. How such service must be made.

The order must direct that the service of the summons be made, by leaving a copy thereof, and of the order, at the residence of the defendant, with a person of proper age, if upon reasonable application, admittance can be obtained, and such person found who will receive it; or, if admittance cannot be obtained, nor such a person found, by affixing the same to the outer or other door of the defendant's residence, and by depositing another copy thereof, properly enclosed in a post-paid wrapper, addressed to him, at his place of residence, in a post-office in the borough in which he resides; or upon proof being made by affidavit that no such residence can be found, service of the summons may be made in such manner as the court may direct.

C. C. P., § 436.

§ 34. [Am'd 1909] Papers to be filed; proof of service.

The order, and the papers upon which it was granted, must be filed, and the service must be made, not less than six days before the return day of the summons; otherwise the order becomes inoperative. On filing an affidavit showing service according to the order, the summons is deemed served and the same proceedings may be taken thereupon, as if the personal service thereof had been made except that no execution against the person shall issue upon a judgment obtained after such service. The summons, when returned to the clerk's office, shall be indorsed with the residence or post-office address of the plaintiff, and also the name and post-office address of the attorney, if any. The indorsement upon the summons of the address of the plaintiff shall be deemed his post-office address for the purpose of the service of papers, in all cases where papers may be served upon the plaintiff.

C. C. P., § 437, am'd L. 1909, ch. 468. In effect May 25, 1909.

§ 35. Defendant when allowed to defend.

Where the summons is served, pursuant to an order made as herein prescribed, and the defendant so served does not appear, he or his representative must upon good cause shown and upon just terms be allowed to defend the action at any time within six months after personal service of written notice thereof; or if such notice has not been served, within two years after the entry of the judgment. If the defense is successful, and the judgment, or any part thereof has been collected or otherwise enforced, such restitution may thereupon be compelled as the court directs, but the title to property sold, to a purchaser in good faith by virtue of an execution issued upon the judgment, shall not be affected thereby.

C. C. P., § 445.

§ 36. Who may serve summons, et cetera.

The summons, and in a proper case a copy of the complaint, or a precept in summary proceedings, may be served by a marshal or by any person not a party to the action, who is over the age of eighteen years. Proof of service by such person other than a marshal must be made by his affidavit which must state the particular place, time, and manner of service, and that the affiant knew the person so served to be the person mentioned and described in the summons as defendant therein.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1301.

§ 37. Return day.

The return day mentioned in the summons must not be more than twelve days from its date and except in the case where an order of arrest had been issued, must be served at least six days before the time of appearance.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1298.

§ 38. Indorsement upon summons.

In an action to recover a penalty or forfeiture given by a statute or ordinance if a copy of the complaint is not delivered to the defendant with a copy of the summons, a general reference to the statute or ordinance must be indorsed upon the copy of the summons so delivered in the following form: "According to the provisions of," et cetera; adding such a description of the statute or ordinance as will identify it with convenient certainty, and also specifying the section if penalties or forfeitures are given, in different sections thereof, for different acts or omissions, and the proof of service of such summons must show that the copy served on the defendant likewise had such indorsement thereon.

C. C. P., § 1897.

§ 39. Indorsement upon summons; where execution against the person may be issued.

In an action where an execution may issue against the person upon a judgment rendered in favor of the plaintiff, unless a verified complaint is served with the summons, a general reference to that fact must be indorsed by the clerk upon the summons and upon the copy to be served on defendant in the following form: "Plaintiff claims defendant is liable to arrest and imprisonment in this case." In the event of there being no such indorsement, no execution against the person shall issue, and the proof of service of such summons must show that the copy served on the defendant likewise had such indorsement upon it.

[New.]

§ 40. Parties; appearance of.

A party to an action in the municipal court of the city of New York, who is of full age, may appear and prosecute or defend the same, in person or by an attorney, at his election, unless he has been judicially declared to be incompetent to manage his affairs.

C. C. P., § 2886; see, also, L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1294.

When a guardian is necessary he must be appointed by the court as follows:

1. If the infant be plaintiff, the appointment must be made before the summons is issued, upon the application of the infant, if he be of the age of fourteen years or upwards; if under that age, upon the application of some relative or friend. The consent in writing of the guardian to be appointed and to be responsible for costs, if he fail in the action, must be filed with the clerk of the court, in the district in which the action is brought, except in cases where a free summons is provided for by this act.

2. After the service and return of a summons against an infant defendant no other proceedings shall be taken in the action, until a person has been appointed to appear as his guardian for the purpose of the action. Upon the nomination of the defendant, the court must appoint a proper person for that purpose. If the defendant does not appear upon the return of the summons, or if he neglects or refuses to nominate, the court may, on the application of the plaintiff, appoint any proper person as his guardian. The written consent of the person so appointed, must be filed with the clerk of the court before his appointment. The guardian so appointed is not responsible for any costs.

C. C. P., § 2888; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1295.

§ 42. Parties; who may be joined.

Parties plaintiff or defendant may be joined as follows:

1. All persons having an interest in the subject of the action, and in obtaining the judgment demanded, may be joined as plaintiffs, except as otherwise expressly prescribed in this act.

2. Any person may be made a defendant who has or claims an interest in the controversy adverse to the plaintiff, or who is a necessary party defendant, for the complete determination or settlement of a question involved therein, except as otherwise expressly prescribed in this act.

3. Every action must be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest, except that an executor or administrator, a trustee of an express trust, or a person expressly authorized by statute, may sue, without, joining with him the person for whose benefit the action is prosecuted. A person, with whom or in whose name, a contract is made for the benefit of another, or a trustee of an express trust, within the meaning of this section.

4. In an action or special proceeding a married woman appears, prosecutes or defends alone or joined with other parties as if she was single. It is not necessary or proper to join her husband with her as a party in any action or special proceeding affecting her separate property. The husband is not a necessary or proper party to an action or special proceeding to recover damages to the person or estate of his wife, and all sums that may be recovered in such actions, or special proceedings shall be the separate property of the wife. The husband is not a necessary or proper party to an action or special proceeding to recover damages to the person, or estate, of another on account of the wrongful acts of his wife committed without his instigation.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

5. Two or more persons, severally liable upon the same written instrument, including the parties to a bill of exchange or a promissory note, whether the action is brought upon the instrument, or by a party thereto to recover against other parties liable over to him; may, all or any of them, be included as defendants in the same action, at the option of the plaintiff, and the joinder of a person as defendant in an action, with another person as prescribed in this section, does not affect his right, to any order or other relief, to which he would have been entitled, if he had been separately sued in the action.

C. C. P., §§ 446-457, 5347.

§ 43. Application of this article to defendants jointly liable.

The last section does not affect a defense or other objection of a defendant, growing out of the failure to join in the action two or more persons jointly liable; and as regards the other parties to the action, persons jointly liable are regarded as one party, for every purpose contemplated by that section.

C. C. P., § 457.

§ 44. Where employee is party.

When an action is brought by an employee against an employer for services performed by such employee, male or female, the clerk of the said municipal court in the district in which the action is brought, shall issue, a free summons when the plaintiff's demand is less than fifty dollars and the plaintiff is a resident of the city of New York, and proof by the plaintiff's own affidavit that he has a good and meritorious cause of action and of the nature of such action and of said plaintiff's residence, and whether previous application therefor has been made, shall be duly presented to and filed with the clerk of the municipal court where such action shall be brought and he shall not demand or receive any fee whatsoever from the plaintiff or his agents or attorneys in such action, unless the plaintiff shall demand a trial jury, in which case the plaintiff must pay to the clerk of the municipal court where such action shall be pending the sum of four dollars and fifty cents.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1416; L. 1887, ch. 387.

§ 45. Who may petition for leave to prosecute as a poor person.

A person whether an adult or infant, who alleges that he has a cause of action against another person, may apply by petition to the court for leave to prosecute as a poor person, and to have an attorney and counsellor assigned to conduct his action.

C. C. P., § 458.

§ 46. Contents of petition.

The petition must state:

1. The nature of the action brought or intended to be brought
2. That the applicant is not worth one hundred dollars, besides the wearing apparel and furniture necessary for himself and his family, and the subject matter of the action and whether he has made any previous application for leave to sue as a poor person. It must be verified by the applicant's affidavit, unless the applicant is an infant under the age of fourteen years, and in that case by the affidavit of his guardian appointed in said action, and supported by a certificate of a counsellor at law to the effect that he has examined the case and is of the opinion that the applicant has a good cause of action. The petition may, however, be verified before the clerk or assistant clerk of said municipal court in the district in which the action is brought, and the certificate of said clerk or assistant clerk, that he has inquired into the facts of the case and that in his opinion the plaintiff has a prima facie cause of action, shall have the same force and effect as the certificate of an attorney.

C. C. P., § 459.

§ 47. Order and petition to be filed; when counsel assigned.

The court to which the petition is presented, if satisfied of the truth of the facts alleged, and that the applicant has a good cause of action, may, by order, which may be endorsed on petition, admit him to prosecute as a poor person, and where there is a certificate of a counsellor at law, as prescribed in the last section, may assign to him an attorney and counsel to prosecute his action, who must act therein without compensation. Such petition and order must be filed with the clerk of the court in the district in which the action is brought.

C. C. P., § 460.

§ 48. When leave may be annulled.

If the person so admitted is guilty of deception in the petition or of improper conduct in the prosecution of the action, or of wilful or unnecessary delay, the court, may in its discretion annul the order, admitting him to prosecute as a poor person; and he shall thereafter be deprived of all the privileges conferred thereby.

C. C. P., § 462.

§ 49. When defendant may defend as a poor person, et cetera.

A defendant in an action in said court may petition the court in which the action is pending for leave to defend the action as a poor person, and to have an attorney and counsellor assigned to conduct his defense; as follows:

1. By an oral application made in open court, by defendant, on the return day, and a statement under oath, of the same matters respecting his ability as are required to be contained in a petition for leave to prosecute as a poor person; or

2. By a petition verified before the clerk or assistant clerk accompanied by his certificate relating to the defense in the same manner as prescribed in section forty-two of this act; or of the facts stated as to defendant's ability, and that the applicant has a good defense if proved on the trial, may, by order, admit him to defend as a poor person and may assign counsel to conduct his defense, or may, in case of verified pleadings, direct the clerk or assistant clerk of said court, to prepare and file an answer, verified before him by defendant, or may assign a counsellor at law present in court to prepare and file an answer which may be verified before the clerk or assistant clerk of said court.

3. By a verified petition supported by a certificate of a counsellor at law relating to the defense, in the same manner as prescribed in section forty-two of this act.

[New.]

§ 51. Leave may be annulled as in case of plaintiff.

The provisions relating to an order to be made upon an application for leave to prosecute as a poor person and the proceedings subsequent thereto apply to an order and subsequent proceedings upon an application for leave to defend as a poor person.

C. C. P., § 465.

§ 52. Appeal where plaintiff or defendant poor person.

An order made as prescribed in this article, does not authorize the petitioner to take or maintain an appeal as a poor person; but where an appeal is taken by the adverse party the order is applicable in favor of the petitioner as respondent in the appeal.

C. C. P., § 466.

§ 53. Costs in favor of petitioner.

Where costs are awarded in favor of a person who had been admitted to prosecute or defend as a poor person as prescribed in this article, they must be paid over to his attorney, when collected from the adverse party and distributed among the attorneys and counsel assigned to the poor person, as the court directs.

TITLE III.

Provisional remedies; and actions to foreclose a lien on a chattel.

- Article 1. Order of arrest.
2. Attachment.
3. Replevin.
4. Action to foreclose a lien on a chattel.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Order of arrest.

- Sec. 55. Process to be served by marshal.
56. In what cases order of arrest to be granted.
57. Affidavit and undertaking upon granting.
58. What to direct.
59. Papers to be delivered to arrested person; proceedings thereupon.
60. Proceedings in case justice is a witness.
61. Plaintiff to be notified of arrest.
62. Bail or deposit before return.
63. Bail may be examined.
64. Bail or deposit after return.
65. When and how defendant to remain in custody.
66. Duty of marshal.
67. Undertaking by arrested defendant on applying for adjournment.
68. Motion to discharge from arrest.
69. Privilege from arrest.
70. Sections applicable as to undertakings, et cetera.

§ 55. Process to be served by marshal.

An order of arrest, warrant of attachment or requisition to replevy, issued by or out of the municipal court of the city of New York, shall be served and executed by a marshal of the city of New York.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1802.

§ 56. [Am'd, 1903.] In what cases order of arrest to be granted.

An order to arrest the defendant must or may be granted directed to any marshal of said city, in the following cases, but no female can be arrested except for a wilful injury to person or property:

1. In an action for the recovery of damages, in a cause of action not arising on contract, when the defendant is not a resident of the city of New York, or is about to remove therefrom, or when the action is for a wilful injury to person or property.

2. In an action for a fine or penalty, or for money or property embezzled or wrongfully misapplied or converted to his own use by a public officer, or an officer of a corporation, or an attorney, factor, broker, agent or clerk, in the course of his employment as such, or by any other person acting in a fiduciary capacity.

3. Where the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt, or incurring the obligation for which the action is brought, or in concealing or disposing of the property, for the taking, detention, or conversion of which the action is brought, except that no order of arrest shall be granted in an action specified in this subdivision where the debt contracted or the obligation incurred over all payments and set-offs or the property taken, obtained or converted, amounts to, or is valued at one hundred dollars, or less.

4. When the defendant has removed, concealed, or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with the intent to defraud his creditors, except that no order shall be granted in such an action unless the plaintiff's claim or demand over all payments and set-offs exceeds one hundred dollars.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1304; L. 1903, ch. 156. In effect April 8, 1903.

§ 57. Affidavit and undertaking upon granting.

Before an order of arrest shall issue, the party applying must prove to the satisfaction of the court, by the affidavit of himself or some other person, the facts on which the application is founded, and the amount of his debt or claim over all payments and set-offs. The plaintiff must also execute and deliver to the clerk of the court, in the district in which the action is brought, a written undertaking approved by the court, with such approval endorsed thereon, with sufficient surety or sureties, to the effect that if the defendant recover judgment the plaintiff will pay to him all costs and extra costs that may be awarded to the defendant, and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the arrest not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking, which must be double the amount claimed. But the proof and security required by this section shall not be necessary where the order of arrest is issued for the violation of a by-law or ordinance of the city of New York, or for the recovery of a penalty or a forfeiture under the statutes of this state, where the city of New York or any department of the government of said city authorized by statute to maintain an action, or of the people of the state of New York are plaintiffs.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1305.

An order of arrest, must direct that the summons accompanying it be made returnable immediately upon the arrest of the defendant, and it must specify a sum in which the defendant may be let to bail.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1307.

§ 59. Papers to be delivered to arrested person; proceedings thereupon.

The marshal, upon arresting the defendant, by virtue of such an order, must at the same time, serve upon him the summons, and also a copy of the order of arrest, and of the papers upon which it was granted. He must forthwith bring the defendant before the court, in the district in which the action is brought, if the court is then in session; otherwise unless bail is given, as prescribed in section sixty-two of this act, he must take the defendant to the jail of the county in which the district where the action is brought is situate, for the confinement of prisoners in civil causes. The keeper thereof must confine the defendant therein. On the next day thereafter when said court is in session, the marshal must take the defendant from the jail and bring him before the court.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1308.

If it be made to appear by the affidavit of the defendant to the satisfaction of the justice sitting in the district in which the action is brought, that such justice is a material witness in the action, the marshal must immediately take the defendant before the court in an adjoining district named by said justice, which must take cognizance of the action, and proceed therein the same as if the order of arrest had been issued out of the court in the latter district.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1309.

§ 61. Plaintiff to be notified of arrest.

The marshal making the arrest must immediately give notice thereof to the plaintiff, and endorse on the order of arrest, and subscribe a certificate stating the time of serving the same, and of giving notice to the plaintiff.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1310.

§ 62. Bail or deposit before return.

The defendant may give bail, by delivering to the marshal a written undertaking to the plaintiff, in the sum specified in the order of arrest, executed by one or more sureties, to the effect that the defendant will attend in person at the opening of the court on the next day thereafter when it is there in session, or he may deposit with the marshal the sum specified in the order of arrest. In either case the marshal must forthwith release him from custody.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1311.

§ 63. Bail may be examined.

Where bail is given as prescribed in the last section, the officer taking the acknowledgment of the undertaking must, if the marshal so requires, examine under oath, to a reasonable extent, the persons offering to become bail, concerning their property and their circumstances. The defendant may give bail, or make the deposit, immediately upon his arrest, at any hour of the day or night; and he must have reasonable opportunity to seek for and procure bail, before being committed to jail. Where a deposit is made, the money deposited must, before the expiration of the next day, thereafter, not being Sunday or a public holiday, be paid by the marshal into court, by paying the same directly to the clerk in the district in which the action is brought, which said deposit shall be regarded as an undertaking, and shall have the same force and effect and no other.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1312.

At any time after the return of the marshal, and before final judgment, the court may admit a defendant in custody to bail, or allow him to make a deposit; and may direct his release upon his giving bail or making the deposit accordingly. The sum to be deposited or the sum specified in the undertaking of the bail, must be fixed, and the sureties in the undertaking must be approved by the court, which must be satisfied by their examination, or by other proof, respecting their sufficiency. The undertaking must be to the effect that the defendant will at all times, render himself amenable to any mandate which may be issued, to enforce a final judgment against him in the action.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1313.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 65. When and how defendant to remain in custody.

Unless bail is given, or a deposit is made, as prescribed in the last three sections, the defendant must remain in the jail by virtue of the order of arrest, until final judgment in the action; and if the judgment is against the defendant, until the return of an execution against property issued thereupon. But the court must direct him to be brought into court, at the time of the trial; and it may in its discretion, direct him to be brought into court at any other time. In either case he must be taken from the jail, and brought into court accordingly. Nothing in this section shall be so construed as to prevent a defendant at any time after judgment from being admitted to the jail liberties in the manner provided by law, whether formal execution against the person has issued or not.

The marshal making the arrest, or another marshal, by direction of the court, must keep the defendant in custody, unless he shall give the security for his appearance, or until he is duly discharged by order of the court; but in no case can such detention exceed forty-eight hours, excluding Sundays and legal holidays, from the time of his first being brought before the court, unless within that time the trial of the action be commenced, and formally proceeded with, and resumed without any interruption other than the necessary recess of the court.

L. 1882, ch. 410, §§ 1315, 1363.

§ 67. Undertaking by arrested defendant on applying for adjournment.

If the defendant make application for an adjournment, or demand a jury trial at the time he is brought before the court, before it can be granted, he must, unless he has given bail or made a deposit, execute an undertaking, with one or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the court, which approval must be indorsed on the undertaking, to the effect that he will appear on the adjourned day, and not depart until duly discharged according to law, or until after the trial and judgment, and that he will surrender himself into custody if any execution be issued upon the judgment when obtained against him in the action.

L. 1882, ch. 410, §§ 1315, 1363.

§ 68. Motion to discharge from arrest.

A defendant, arrested as prescribed in this article, may, without notice, upon the appearance of the plaintiff before the court, or at any time afterwards before judgment, upon two days' notice given personally to the plaintiff, or to his agent or attorney who appeared for him before the court, apply to the court for an order, discharging him from arrest. The application may be founded upon the papers upon which the order of arrest was granted, and upon the complaint, if it has been made. The court must grant the application, where it appears that the case is not within the provisions of section fifty-six of this act. The court must also, upon the defendant's application, grant an order discharging him from arrest, if the plaintiff fails to take out an execution, upon a judgment in his favor, before the expiration of twenty-four hours after he is entitled thereto.

C. C. P., § 2201.

§ 69. Privilege from arrest.

This article does not abridge or otherwise affect a privilege from arrest given by law, or a right of action for the breach thereof. A privileged person is entitled to be discharged from arrest, by the order of the court before which he is brought, upon proof, by affidavit, of the facts entitling him to a discharge; or he may apply for and obtain an order for his discharge, as prescribed in section five hundred and sixty-four of the code of civil procedure.

C. C. P., § 2204.

§ 70. Sections applicable as to undertakings, et cetera.

Sections one hundred and six to one hundred and ten of this revision inclusive and sections one hundred and twenty-seven and one hundred and twenty-eight, in so far as they relate to undertakings, sureties and justification, apply to proceedings under this title, and the exceptions to, and examination of, sureties, whether on undertaking, or bail, may be made and conducted, by the adverse party, as prescribed therein.

88. Return by marshal attaching.
89. Application to vacate or modify warrant of attachment.
90. Effect of vacating warrant.
91. Judgment where property has been attached.
92. Sections applicable as to undertaking, et cetera.

§ 73. Attachment, when may be granted.

A warrant of attachment against the property of one or more defendants must be granted, upon the application of the plaintiff, as hereinafter prescribed, in an action upon one or more of the following causes of action:

1. Upon a judgment.
2. Breach of a contract, express or implied.
3. Wrongful conversion of personal property.
4. Any other injury to personal property, in consequence of negligence, fraud or misconduct.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1316.

To entitle the plaintiff to such a warrant, he must show, by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the court, as follows:

1. That a sufficient cause of action exists against the defendant to recover damages for one or more causes specified in the last section. If the action is upon a judgment, or to recover for breach of a contract, the affidavit must show that the plaintiff is entitled to recover a sum stated therein, over and above all counterclaims known to him.

2. That the defendant is either a foreign corporation, or not a resident of the state; or, if the defendant is a natural person, and a resident of the state, that he has departed, or is about to depart from the county where he last resided, to a place outside the city of New York, with intent to defraud his creditors, or to avoid the service of a summons, or keeps himself concealed, with the like intent; or if the defendant is a natural person, or a domestic corporation, that he or it has removed, or is about to remove property from the county where the defendant, being a natural person, last resided, or being a corporation, has kept its principal office, to a place outside of the city of New York, with intent to defraud his or its creditors, or has assigned, disposed of, or secreted, or is about to assign, dispose of, or secrete property, with the like intent; or where for the purpose of procuring credit or the extension of credit, the defendant has made a false statement in writing, under his own hand and signature, or under the hand and signature of a duly authorized agent, made with his knowledge and acquiescence, as to his financial responsibility or standing. Or that the defendant being a natural person of full age, and a resident of the state, has been continuously without the United States for the space of six months or more, immediately before the application and either that he has not made a designation of a person upon whom to serve a summons in his behalf as prescribed in section four hundred and thirty of the code of civil procedure, or that service upon the person so designated cannot be made, with due diligence, in the county where the person making the designation resides. The affidavit must be filed in the office of the clerk of the court, in the district in which the action is brought when the warrant is issued.

§ 75. Contents of warrant.

The warrant must be granted by the court at the time when the summons is issued, and must be issued by the clerk of the court in the district in which the action is brought, and it must be indorsed upon or annexed to the summons. It must be subscribed by the clerk, and must briefly recite the ground of the attachment. It must require the marshal, to whom the summons is delivered, to attach on or before a day specified therein, which must be at least six days before the return of the summons, and safely to keep, as much of the defendant's personal property, within the city of New York, as will satisfy the plaintiff's demand, with the costs and expenses and to make return of his proceedings thereon to the court, at the time when the summons is returnable. The amount of the plaintiff's demand must be specified in the warrant as stated in the affidavit. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a valid warrant of attachment issuing in a proper case against a non-resident of the city of New York.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1318.

Before granting the warrant, the court must require a written undertaking to the defendant, on the part of the plaintiff, with one or more sureties, approved by the court, to the effect that, if the defendant recovers judgment, or the warrant of attachment is vacated, the plaintiff will pay all costs which may be awarded to the defendant, and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the attachment, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking, which must be at least twice the amount of the plaintiff's demand, as stated in the warrant, and in no case less than two hundred dollars, and that if the plaintiff recovers judgment, he will pay to the defendant all money received by him from property taken by virtue of the warrant of attachment, or upon any bond given therefor, over and above the amount of the judgment and interest thereupon.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1319.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 77. How warrant to be executed.

The marshal to whom the warrant of attachment is delivered must execute it at least six days before the return day of the summons, by levying upon so much of the property of the defendant hereinafter mentioned, as will satisfy the plaintiff's demand with costs and expenses and must safely keep the same to be disposed of as prescribed in this title and must immediately make an inventory thereof stating therein the estimated value of each article or item. Such levy can be made on the following property:

1. Goods and chattels of the defendant found in the city of New York not exempt from levy and sale by virtue of an execution including money and bank notes.

2. The rights or shares which the defendant has in the stock of an association or corporation having a place of business in the city of New York, together with the interest and profits thereon, and the marshal's certificate of the sale thereof entitles the purchaser to the same rights and privileges, with respect thereto, which the defendant had, when they were so attached.

3. Causes of action arising upon contract, including bonds, promissory notes, or other instruments for the payment of money in whole or in part, negotiable or otherwise, whether past due, or yet to become due, executed by a corporation, or by a private person, either within or without the state, which belong to the defendant, and are found within the city, and the levy of the attachment thereupon is deemed a levy upon, and a seizure and attachment of, the debt represented thereby.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1320; C. C. P., §§ 147, 148.

A levy under a warrant of attachment upon personal property capable of manual delivery, including a bond, a promissory note, or other instrument for the payment of money, must be made by taking the same into the marshal's actual custody. He must hereupon, without delay, deliver to the person from whose possession the property is taken, if any, a copy of the warrant, and of the affidavits upon which it was granted. Upon other personal property, it must be made by leaving a certified copy of the warrant and a notice showing the property attached, with the person holding the same; or if it consists of a demand, other than as specified in this section with the person against whom it exists; or, if it consists of rights or shares in the stock of an association or corporation, or interests or profits thereon, with the president, or other head of the association or corporation, or the secretary, cashier, or managing agent thereof.

C. C. P., § 649.

§ 79. Certificate of defendant's interest to be furnished.

Upon the application of a marshal, holding a warrant of attachment, the president or other head of an association or corporation, or the secretary, cashier, or managing agent thereof, or a debtor of the defendant, or a person holding property, including a bond, promissory note, or other instrument for the payment of money, belonging to the defendant, must furnish to the marshal a certificate, under his hand, specifying the rights or number of shares of the defendant, in the stock of the association or corporation, with all dividends declared, or encumbrances thereon, or the amount, nature and description of the property, held for the benefit of the defendant, or of the defendant's interest in property so held, or of the debt or demand owing to the defendant, as the case requires.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

C. C. P., § 650.

§ 80. Person refusing certificate may be examined.

If a person, to whom application is made, and prescribed in the last section, refuses to give such a certificate; or if it is made to appear by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the court, that there is reason to suspect that a certificate given by him is untrue, or that it fails fully to set forth the facts, required to be shown thereby, the court may make an order, directing him to attend at a specified time, at the court in the district in which the action is brought, and submit to an examination, under oath, concerning the same.

C. C. P., § 651.

§ 81. Marshal may maintain action.

The marshal must, subject to the direction of the court, collect and receive all debts, effects, and things in action attached to him. He may maintain any action or special proceeding in his own name or in the name of the defendant, which is necessary for that purpose, or to reduce to his actual possession an article of personal property, capable of manual delivery, but of which he has been unable to obtain possession, and he may discontinue such an action or special proceeding, at such time and on such terms, as the court directs.

C. C. P., § 655, subd. 1.

Where a warrant of attachment or a writ of replevin is vacated or annulled, or an attachment is discharged, upon the application of the defendant, the marshal must, except in a case where it is otherwise expressly prescribed by law, upon an order made by the court to that effect, deliver over to the defendant, or to the person entitled thereto, upon reasonable demand, and upon payment of all costs, charges and expenses, legally chargeable by the marshal, all the attached personal property remaining in his hands, or that portion thereof, as to which the attachment is discharged; or the proceeds thereof, if it has been sold by him.

C. C. P., § 709.

§ 83. Service of summons and warrant on defendant.

The marshal must, immediately after making inventory, and at least six days before the return day of the summons, serve the summons, together with the warrant of attachment and inventory, upon the defendant, by delivering to him personally a copy of each, if he can, with reasonable diligence, be found within the city, or if he cannot be so found, by leaving a copy of each, certified by the marshal at the last place of residence of the defendant in the city, with a person of suitable age and discretion. If such person cannot be found there, by posting them on the outer door, and also depositing another copy of each in the post-office, inclosed in a sealed post-paid wrapper, directed to the defendant at his residence; or if the defendant has no place of residence in the city, by delivering them to the person in whose possession the property attached is found.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1321.

The defendant, or his attorney, or agent in his behalf, may, at any time before judgment is rendered in the action, execute and deliver to the marshal an undertaking to the plaintiff in a sum specified therein, at least twice the value of the property attached, as stated in the inventory, with one or more sureties, approved by the marshal or by a justice of the court, and to the effect, that if the judgment is rendered against the defendant and an execution is issued thereupon, within six months after the giving of the undertaking, the property attached shall be produced to satisfy the execution. Thereupon the marshal must deliver the property to the defendant.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1322.

If a person, not a party to the action, claims any property attached, which is not reclaimed by the defendant, as prescribed in the last section, he may, at any time after the seizure and before execution is issued upon a judgment rendered in the action, execute and file with the clerk a bond to the plaintiff, with one or more sureties approved by the marshal or by a justice, in a penalty at least twice the value of the property claimed, and conditioned that, in an action upon the bond to be commenced within three months thereafter, the claimant will establish that he was the general owner of the property claimed at the time of the seizure; or if he fails so to do, that he will pay to the plaintiff the value thereof, with interest. The marshal must thereupon deliver the property claimed to the claimant.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1323.

§ 86. Judgment upon bond.

A judgment for the plaintiff, in an action upon a bond, given as prescribed in the last section, must award to him the value of the property seized and delivered to the claimant, with interest thereupon from the time of the delivery. If the amount so recovered exceeds the amount which the plaintiff recovers in the action in which the warrant of attachment was issued, he is liable to the defendant in that action for the excess.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1324.

§ 87. Action upon undertaking where warrant is vacated.

If the warrant of attachment is vacated or annulled, the defendant may maintain an action, upon the bond and undertaking specified in the last two sections, in his own name, in the same manner and with the like effect as the plaintiff might have done if the warrant had remained in full force.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1325.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 88. Return by marshal attaching.

The marshal executing the warrant of attachment must, at the time when and the place where it is returnable, make a return thereto, under his hand, stating all his proceedings thereupon. He must deliver to the clerk, with the return, each bond or undertaking delivered to him, pursuant to any of the foregoing provisions of this article, and a copy certified by him, of the inventory of the property attached. The return must state the manner in which the warrant and inventory were served, and if they were served otherwise than by delivering a copy thereof to the defendant personally, the reason therefor, and the name of the person to whom the copy was delivered, unless his name is unknown to the marshal; in which case the return must describe him so as to identify him, as nearly as may be.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1326.

A defendant, whose property has been attached, may, upon the return of the summons, or before such return on written notice of at least twenty-four hours to the plaintiff or his attorney, apply to the court out of which the warrant of attachment issued to vacate or modify it, or to increase the plaintiff's security. Such an application may be founded upon the papers upon which the warrant was granted; or upon proof, by affidavit, on the part of the defendant, or upon both. If it is founded upon proof on the part of the defendant, it may be opposed by new proof, by affidavit, upon the part of the plaintiff, tending to sustain any ground for the attachment, recited in the warrant, but no other. The court may, upon the return of the summons, or at any other time to which the action is adjourned, vacate the warrant of attachment upon his own motion, if he deems the papers upon which it was granted insufficient to authorize it.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1327.

§ 90. Effect of vacating warrant.

Vacating the warrant of attachment does not affect the jurisdiction of the court to hear and determine the action, where the defendant has appeared generally in the action; or where the summons was served personally upon him, or where judgment may be taken against him, as being indebted jointly with another defendant, who has been thus summoned or has thus appeared. In every other case the justice who vacates a warrant of attachment against the property of a defendant must dismiss the action as to him.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1328.

§ 91. Judgment where property has been attached.

Where the defendant has not appeared, and the summons has not been personally served upon him, and property of the defendant has been duly attached by virtue of a warrant which has not been vacated, the court must proceed to hear and determine the action; but in an action subsequently brought, the judgment is only presumptive evidence of the indebtedness, and the defendant is not barred from any counterclaim against the plaintiff.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

The execution, issued upon a judgment so rendered, must require the marshal to satisfy it out of the property so attached, without containing a direction to satisfy it out of any other property.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1329.

§ 92. Sections applicable as to undertaking, et cetera.

Sections one hundred and six to one hundred and ten of this revision, inclusive, and sections one hundred and twenty-seven and one hundred and twenty-eight, in so far as they relate to undertaking, sureties and justification, apply to proceedings under this title, and the exceptions to, and examination of, sureties, whether on undertaking, or bail, may be made and conducted by the adverse party, as prescribed therein.

§95. Action to recover a chattel.

An action to recover a chattel, with or without damages, for the wrongful taking, withholding, or detention thereof, may be brought in the municipal court of the city of New York, except:

1. Where the chattel was taken by virtue of a warrant, against the plaintiff, for the collection of a tax, assessment or fine, issued in pursuance of a statute of the state, or of the United States: unless the taking was, or the detention is, unlawful, as specified in section ninety-seven of this act.

2. Where it was seized by virtue of an execution, or a warrant of attachment, against the property of the plaintiff, unless it was legally exempt from such seizure, or is unlawfully detained, as specified in section ninety-seven of this act.

3. Where it was seized by virtue of an execution, or a warrant of attachment, against the property of a person other than the plaintiff, and at the time of the commencement of the action the plaintiff had not the right to reduce it into his possession.

4. Where a chattel is replevied in an action to recover the same, and a final judgment awarding the possession thereof to the defendant is rendered, a subsequent action to recover the same chattel cannot be maintained by the plaintiff, for the same cause of action. But the judgment does not affect his right to maintain an action to recover damages, for taking or detaining the same or any other chattel, unless it was rendered against him upon the merits.

5. If plaintiff's title be by transfer, made since wrongful taking, or during wrongful detention, no action can be maintained unless the person from or through whom the plaintiff derived title might have maintained the same, had the transfer not been made.

C. C. P., §§ 1210, 1600-1602; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1331.

§ 96. Affidavit and undertaking by plaintiff.

The plaintiff may, at the time the summons is issued, but not afterwards, require the chattel to be replevied as prescribed in this act. For that purpose he must deliver to the court, an affidavit and a written undertaking as herein prescribed, which must be filed with the clerk of the court in the district in which the action is brought.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1332.

§ 97. Affidavit therefor, before commencement of action.

The affidavit prescribed in the last section, must particularly describe the chattel to be replevied and must contain the following allegations:

1. That the plaintiff is the owner of the chattel, or is entitled to the possession thereof, by virtue of a special property therein; the facts with respect to which must be set forth.

2. That it is wrongfully detained by the defendant.

3. The alleged cause of the detention thereof, according to the best knowledge, information, and belief of the person making the affidavit.

4. That it has not been taken by virtue of a warrant, against the plaintiff, for the collection of a tax, assessment or fine, issued in pursuance of a statute of the state, or of the United States; or, if it has been taken under color of such a warrant, either that the taking was unlawful, by reason of defects, in the process, or other causes specified, or that the detention is unlawful by reason of facts specified which have subsequently occurred.

5. That it has not been seized by virtue of an execution or warrant of attachment, against the property of the plaintiff, or of any person from or through whom the plaintiff has derived title to the chattel, since the seizure thereof; or, if it has been so seized, that it was exempt from the seizure, by reason of facts specified, or that its detention is unlawful, by reason of facts specified which have subsequently occurred.

6. Its actual value.

C. C. P., § 1695; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1332.

§ 98. Where several chattels are to be replevied.

Where the affidavit describes two or more chattels of the same kind, it must state the number thereof, and where it describes a chattel in bulk, it must state the weight, measurement, or other quantity. Where it describes two or more chattels, to be replevied, it may, at the election of the plaintiff, state the aggregate value of all, or separately the value of any chattel or of any class of chattels, and the aggregate value of the remainder, if any. Where it states separately the value of one or more chattels or classes of chattels, the defendant may require, as prescribed in the following provisions of this article, the return of any or all of the chattels or classes of chattels, the value of which is thus stated, or of the portion thereof which has been replevied. If he procures such a return, the remainder must be delivered to the plaintiff, except as is otherwise prescribed in this article.

C. C. P., § 1697; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1332.

§ 99. Plaintiff's undertaking for replevin.

The undertaking must be executed by at least two sureties or by a fidelity or surety company, expressly authorized by law to execute an undertaking, which must be approved by the court. It must be to the effect that the sureties are bound in a specified sum not less than twice the value of the chattel, as stated in the affidavit, for the prosecution of the action, for the return of the chattel to the defendant, if possession thereof is adjudged to him, or if the action abates, or is discontinued, before the chattel is returned to the defendant; and for the payment to the defendant of any sum, which the judgment awards to him against the plaintiff.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1696.

§ 100. When agent, et cetera, may make affidavit for replevin or return.

The affidavit to be delivered to the court, in behalf of the plaintiff, with a requisition to replevy a chattel, may be made by the plaintiff's agent or attorney, if the material facts are within his personal knowledge; or if the plaintiff is not within the city of New York where the attorney resides or has his office, or is not capable of making the affidavit. The affidavit to be delivered to the court, either in behalf of the defendant, with a notice that he requires the return of the chattel, or in behalf of a person not a party, who makes a claim as prescribed in section one hundred and thirteen of this act, may be made by an agent or attorney, if the material facts are within his personal knowledge, or if the defendant or claimant as the case may be, is not within the city of New York, and capable of making the affidavit. When the affidavit is made by an attorney or agent, he must state therein what allegations, if any, are made upon his information and belief; and he must set forth therein the grounds of his belief, as to all matters not stated upon his knowledge, and the reasons why the affidavit is not made by the party or the claimant.

C. C. P., § 1712.

§ 101. Requisition of justice.

Upon receiving the affidavit and undertaking, the justice must indorse upon or attach to the affidavit a written requisition, subscribed by him, requiring the marshal to whom the summons is delivered to replevy the property described in the affidavit, on or before a day specified in the requisition, which must be at least six days before the return day of the summons. The affidavit, undertaking and requisition must be delivered to the marshal with the summons.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1333.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 102. How executed.

If any chattel described in the affidavit is found in the possession of the defendant, or of his agent, the marshal to whom the summons, affidavit and requisition, together with a copy of the undertaking are delivered, after the undertaking and requisition have been approved by the court, as prescribed in the foregoing sections of this chapter, must forthwith replevy it by taking it into his possession. He must thereupon without delay serve upon the defendant a copy of the summons, affidavit, requisition and undertaking by delivering the same to him personally, if he can be found within the city of New York, or if he cannot be so found, to his agent, if any, from whose possession the chattel is taken; or if neither can be found within the city of New York, by leaving a copy at the usual place of abode of either, with a person of suitable age and discretion.

C. C. P., § 1701.

§ 103. How executed if property concealed, et cetera.

If any chattel, described in the affidavit, is secured or concealed in a building or inclosure, the marshal must publicly demand its delivery. If it is not delivered, pursuant to the demand, he must cause the building or inclosure to be broken open, and must take the chattel into his possession.

C. C. P., § 1701.

§ 104. Marshal to keep in possession; when and how to deliver.

A marshal who has replevied a chattel, must retain it in his possession, keeping it in a secure place, until the person who is entitled to the possession thereof, is ascertained, as prescribed in this title. He must then deliver it to that person upon request and payment of his lawful fees, and necessary expenses for taking and keeping it, as taxed by the court, out of which the proceedings issued.

C. C. P., § 1702.

§ 105. Return to requisition.

The marshal must, on or before the return day of the summons, make a return to the requisition, under his hand, stating all his proceedings thereupon; and file it, with the affidavit, undertaking, and requisition, with the clerk in the district in which the action is brought. The return must state the manner in which the summons, affidavit, requisition and undertaking were served; and, if they were served otherwise than by delivering the requisite copies to the defendant personally, the reason therefor and the name of the person to whom the copies were delivered, unless his name is unknown to the marshal, in which case the return must describe him so as to identify him, as nearly as may be.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1335.

§ 106. Defendant when to except to sureties; proceedings thereupon.

At any time after the chattel has been replevied, and at least two days before the return day of the summons, the defendant, unless he requires a return of the chattel, may serve upon the plaintiff, or upon the marshal, a written notice that he excepts to the plaintiff's sureties, otherwise he is deemed to have waived all objections to them. If such a notice is served, the sureties must justify upon the return of the summons, or the plaintiff must then give new undertaking to the same effect as the original undertaking, with other sureties, who must then appear and justify before the court.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1336.

§ 107. Defendant may reclaim chattel; proceedings thereupon.

At any time before the return of the summons, the defendant may, if he does not except to the plaintiff's sureties, serve upon the clerk a notice that he requires the return of the chattel replevied. With the notice he must deliver to the clerk the following papers:

1. An affidavit, containing an allegation, either that the defendant is the owner of the chattel, or that he is lawfully entitled to the possession thereof, by virtue of a special property therein, the facts with respect to which must be set forth.

2. An undertaking, executed by at least two sureties, or a fidelity or surety company, specifically authorized by law to act instead of sureties, to the effect that they are bound, in a specified sum, not less than twice the value of the chattel, as stated in the affidavit of the plaintiff, for delivery thereof to the plaintiff, if delivery thereof is adjudged, and for the payment to him of any sum, which the judgment awards against the defendant. The sureties in the undertaking, must justify before the court upon the return of the summons.

If the plaintiff has stated separately in his affidavit the value of one or more chattels, or classes of chattels, as prescribed in section ninety-eight of this act, the defendant may require a delivery of part of the property replevied, as prescribed in that section.

C. C. P., §§ 1704, 2025; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1337.

§ 108. Qualifications of sureties.

The qualifications of sureties, as required by this act, are as follows:

1. Each of them must be a resident of, and a householder or freeholder within the city of New York.

2. Each of them must be worth twice the sum specified for which they become obligated in the undertaking or order of arrest, exclusive of property exempt from execution.

3. A fidelity or surety company specifically authorized by law to act as surety.

C. C. P., §§ 579, 2926; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1338.

§ 109. Justification.

For the purpose of justification, each of the sureties or bail must attend before the court, at the time and place mentioned in the notice, provided in section one hundred and six of this act, and be examined on oath, touching his sufficiency, in such manner as the court, in its discretion, thinks proper. The court may, in its discretion, adjourn the examination, from day to day, until it s completed, but such an adjournment must always be to the next judicial day, unless by consent of parties. If required by the attorney for the adverse party, the examination must be reduced to writing, and subscribed by the bail or surety.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

C. C. P., §§ 580, 2926; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1338.

§ 110. Allowance of undertaking.

If the court finds the surety or bail sufficient, it must annex the examination to the undertaking, indorse its allowance thereon, and cause them to be filed with the clerk.

C. C. P., §§ 581, 2926; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1338.

§ 111. When and to whom marshal to deliver chattel.

If the defendant neither excepts to the plaintiff's sureties, nor requires the return of the chattel, within the time prescribed for that purpose, or if he fails to procure the allowance of his undertaking, or if the plaintiff, after the defendant has excepted to his sureties, duly procures the allowance of his undertaking, the marshal must, except in the case specified in section one hundred and thirteen of this act, immediately deliver the chattel to the plaintiff. If the plaintiff, after the defendant has excepted to his sureties, fails to procure the allowance of his undertaking, or if the defendant after he has required the return of the chattel, procures the allowance of his undertaking, the marshal must immediately deliver the chattel to the defendant.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1339.

§ 112. Penalty for wrong delivery by marshal.

The marshal who delivers to either party, without the consent of the other, a chattel replevied by him, except as prescribed in the last section, or by virtue of an execution issued upon a judgment in the action, forfeits to the party aggrieved the sum of one hundred dollars, and is also liable to him for all damages which he sustains thereby.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1340.

§ 113. Claim of title by third person; proceeding thereupon.

At any time before the chattel which has been replevied is actually delivered to either party, if a person not a party to the action, claims as against the defendant a right to the possession thereof, existing at the time when it was replevied, an affidavit may be made and delivered to the marshal who executed the requisition, in his behalf, stating that he makes such claim, specifying the chattel or chattels, to which it relates, if two or more chattels have been replevied, and the claim relates only to part of them, and setting forth the facts upon which his right of possession depends. In that case, the marshal may, in his discretion, before he delivers the chattel to the plaintiff, serve upon the plaintiff's attorney, a copy of the affidavit with a notice that he requires indemnity against the claim. If the indemnity is not furnished within a reasonable time, after the plaintiff becomes entitled to the delivery of the chattel, the marshal may, in his discretion, deliver it to the claimant without incurring any liability to the plaintiff, by reason of so doing.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

C. C. P., § 1709; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1341.

§ 114. Action against a marshal on claim.

A person, not a party to the action, who has served an affidavit as prescribed in the last section, may maintain an action, against the marshal who has delivered the chattel to the plaintiff, to recover his damages, by reason of the taking, detention, or delivery of the chattel. But the summons in such an action must be issued within three months after the delivery of the chattel to the plaintiff, and must be served within three months after it is issued. An action cannot be maintained against a marshal by a person so entitled to make a claim, except as prescribed in this section.

C. C. P., § 1710; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1341.

§ 115. Indemnity to marshal against such action.

The indemnity to be furnished to the marshal by the plaintiff as prescribed in the last section but one, must consist of a written undertaking to him, in an amount at least double the actual value of the property claimed, executed by at least two sureties, or in a proper case by a fidelity or surety company, that they or it will indemnify him against any liability, for damages, cost, or expenses, to be incurred in an action, brought against him, by reason of the taking or detention of the chattel, or its delivery to the plaintiff. Each of the sureties besides possessing the other qualifications required by law, must be a freeholder or householder in the city of New York. The marshal before delivering the chattel, may require the persons offered as sureties, to submit to an examination, before the court, out of which the proceedings issued. The sureties are entitled to be substituted as defendants, in an action, brought as prescribed in the last section, as if the chattel had been levied upon, by virtue of an execution.

C. C. P., § 1711; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1341.

§ 115a. Third party may interplead and defend.

At any time before a chattel or chattels which have been replevied are actually delivered to either party, and at least two days before the return day of the summons, a person, not a party to the action, who claims a right to the possession of the chattel or chattels so replevied, or any part thereof, which right is claimed to have existed at the time when the said chattel or chattels were replevied, and which he desires to assert, may make an affidavit and deliver the same to the court, stating that he makes such claim, and does so without collusion with the defendant. The party shall also specify in such affidavit, the chattel or chattels to which he makes claim, setting forth the facts upon which his right depends, and praying to be impleaded as a defendant in the action. The court may thereupon grant leave to said party to appear and defend and the provisions of this act in relation to the defendant or defendants originally proceeded against, so far as applicable, shall apply to the said party, and the court may, in its discretion, make such order, or direct such delivery of the possession of the property, as may be just, and thereupon the entire controversy may be determined in the action. Nothing in this section, however, shall be construed to affect the rights of the parties to maintain a separate action, or to recover damages for the wrongful taking or detention of a chattel, unless judgment is awarded against him, as herein provided, on the merits. In that case the court may grant leave to said party to appear and defend, and the provisions of this act in relation to the defendant or defendants originally proceeded against, then apply to said party.

[New.] L. 1903, ch. 431. In effect May 7, 1903.

§ 116. Answer of title in third person.

The defendant may, by answer, defend, on the ground that a third person was entitled to the chattel, without connecting himself with the latter's title.

C. C. P., § 1723.

§ 117. Defendant may demand judgment for return of chattel.

Where a chattel has been replevied, and the defendant has not required the return thereof, pending the action, as prescribed in the foregoing sections, he may, in his answer, demand judgment for the return thereof, either with or without damages for the taking, withholding, or detention.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1342.

§ 118. For delivery of property; how money recovered by same judgment may be collected.

An execution for the delivery of a chattel, must particularly describe the property and designate the party to whom the judgment awards possession thereof. It must require the marshal to deliver the possession of the property within the city of New York, to the party entitled thereto. If a sum of money is awarded by the same judgment, it may be collected by virtue of the same execution; or a separate execution may be issued for the collection thereof, omitting the direction to deliver possession of the property. If one execution is issued for both purposes, it must contain with respect to the money to be collected, the same directions as an execution against property, or against the person as the case requires.

C. C. P., § 1373; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1343.

§ 119. Damages when chattel injured, et cetera, by defendant.

Where the plaintiff recovers a chattel which was injured, or otherwise depreciated in value, while it was in the possession or under the control of the defendant, under such circumstances, that the plaintiff might recover damages for the injury or depreciation, in an action brought against the defendant therefor, he may recover the same damages, in an action brought as prescribed in this article. In that case he must set forth the facts in his complaint, and demand judgment for damages accordingly.

C. C. P., § 1722; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1343.

§ 120. Judgment or verdict; what to state.

The judgment, verdict or decision, must fix the damages, if any, of the prevailing party.

1. Where it awards to the plaintiff a chattel, which has not been replevied, or where it awards to the prevailing party a chattel, which has been replevied, and afterwards delivered by the marshal to the unsuccessful party, or to a person not a party, it must also fix the value of the chattel, at the time of the trial.

2. In a case where the unsuccessful party had a special property therein, not equal to the full valuation of the chattel to fix the value of the special property.

C. C. P., §§ 1726, 1727; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1343.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 121. Judgment or verdict, et cetera, for part of several chattels.

Where the action is brought to recover two or more chattels, the judgment, verdict or decision, may award to one party, or more distinct chattels, which can be identified, and set apart from the others, and the residue to the other party, and, if necessary, the complaint must be amended so as to conform thereto. The final judgment rendered thereupon, must award to each party the same relief, with respect to the finding in his favor, as if separate judgments were rendered, except that, where each party is entitled to an absolute award of a sum of money, against the other, the smaller sum must be deducted from the greater, and the balance only must be awarded.

C. C. P., § 1728.

§ 122. Damages; how ascertained on default.

Where the plaintiff is entitled to judgment by default, for want of an appearance or pleading, the court to which he applies for judgment may ascertain and determine the damages to which he is entitled and the value of the chattel, if necessary.

C. C. P., § 1729.

Final judgment for the plaintiff must award to him possession of the chattel recovered by him, with his damages if any. If the chattel recovered was not replevied, or if after it was replevied it was delivered to the defendant, or to a person not a party, as prescribed in this act, the final judgment must also award to the plaintiff the sum fixed as the value thereof, to be paid by the defendant, if possession thereof is not delivered to the plaintiff. If the defendant has demanded judgment for the return of the chattel, which was replevied, and afterwards delivered to the plaintiff or to a person not a party, as prescribed in this act, final judgment in his favor therefor must award to him possession thereof, with his damages, if any, and it must also award to him the sum fixed as the value thereof; to be paid by the plaintiff, if possession is not delivered to the defendant. But if the case is one of those specified in subdivision two of section one hundred and twenty of this act, final judgment in favor of the defendant must award to him the sum fixed as therein specified and if it is not collected, the delivery of the chattel, or, if the chattel has not been replevied, or has been returned to him after replevin, that he is entitled to the possession thereof, until the sum so awarded is collected, or otherwise paid.

C. C. P., § 1730; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1343.

§ 124. Execution; contents thereof.

An execution for the delivery of the possession of a chattel and to satisfy out of the property of the judgment debtor a sum of money contingently awarded against him, must contain, in addition to the other matters prescribed by law, the following direction:

1. Where the judgment awards a sum of money, if possession of the chattel is not delivered to the prevailing party, the execution must require the marshal if the chattel cannot be found within the city of New York, to satisfy the sum so awarded with interest and his fees, out of the property of the party against whom the judgment is rendered.

A direction to satisfy a sum of money out of property, as prescribed in this section, must be in the form required by law for a like direction, where an execution against property is issued upon a judgment for a sum of money.

C. C. P., § 1731; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1343.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 125. Marshal's power to take chattel.

For the purpose of taking possession of a chattel, by virtue of such an execution, the powers of the marshal are the same as where he is required to replevy a chattel.

C. C. P., § 1732; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1343.

§ 126. Action on undertaking; when maintainable.

A plaintiff who has recovered a final judgment cannot maintain an action against the sureties in an undertaking given in behalf of the defendant to procure a return of the chattel or against the bail of a defendant who has been arrested, until after the return, wholly or partly unsatisfied or unexecuted, of an execution in his favor, for the delivery of the possession of the chattel, or to satisfy a sum of money out of the property of the defendant, or for both purposes, as the case requires. A defendant who has recovered a final judgment cannot maintain an action against the sureties in the plaintiff's undertaking, given to procure a replevin until after a like return of similar execution against the plaintiff.

C. C. P., § 1733; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1343.

§ 127. Marshal's return; evidence therein.

In such an action against the sureties, the marshal's return to the execution is presumptive evidence of a failure to deliver or to return a chattel, or to pay a sum of money, according to the terms of the undertaking.

C. C. P., § 1734; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1343.

§ 128. Injury, et cetera, no defence.

It is not a defence to such an action, that the chattel was injured or destroyed, after it was replevied, unless the injury or destruction was affected by the act, or with the consent of the plaintiff, in the action, or occurred after the chattel was taken by virtue of the execution.

C. C. P., § 1735; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1343.

§ 129. Proceeding where summons not personally served.

Where the defendant does not appear, and the summons has not been personally served upon him, and a chattel, or a part of a chattel, to recover which the action is brought, has been replevied, and the proceedings thereupon have been duly taken, as prescribed in this act, the court must proceed to hear and determine the action with respect to that chattel, or part of a chattel, or, if the action is brought to recover two or more chattels, with respect to those which have been replevied, in like manner and with the like effect as if the summons had been personally served.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1344.

§ 130. When action not affected by failure to replevy.

Where the summons has been personally served upon the defendant, or where he appears, the court must proceed to hear and determine the action, although the plaintiff has not required the chattel to be replevied, or the marshal has not been able to replevy it.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1345.

§ 131. Joinder of action with others.

Nothing in this title is to be so construed as to prevent the plaintiff from uniting in the same complaint two or more causes of action, in any case specified in section one hundred and forty-six of this act.

ARTICLE FOURTH.

Action to foreclose a lien on a chattel.

- Sec. 137. Action; when and in what courts maintainable.
138. Warrant in action.
139. Action on conditional sale agreement, et cetera; how brought.
140. Judgment; order of arrest; body execution.
141. Judgment, et cetera.
142. Application of this article.

§ 137. Action; when and in what courts maintainable.

An action may be maintained in the municipal court of the city of New York, to foreclose a lien upon a chattel, for a sum of money, where the amount claimed, exclusive of costs, does not exceed five hundred dollars, in any case where such a lien exists at the time of the commencement of the action.

C. C. P., § 1737.

§ 138. Warrant in action for.

In an action to foreclose a lien upon a chattel, if the plaintiff is not in possession of the chattel, a warrant, commanding the marshal to seize the chattel, and safely keep it to abide the judgment, may be issued in like manner, as a warrant of attachment may be issued, in an action founded upon a contract, and the provisions of law applicable to a warrant of attachment, issued out of the court apply to a warrant issued as prescribed in this act, and to the proceedings to procure it, and after it has been issued, except as otherwise specified in the judgment.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1330.

No action shall be maintained in this court, which arises out of a contract of conditional sale of personal property; a hiring of personal property, where title is not to vest in the person hiring until payment of a certain sum; or a chattel mortgage made to secure the purchase price of chattels; except an action to foreclose the lien, as provided in this article. For the purpose of this section an instrument in writing as above stated shall be deemed a lien upon a chattel. Provided, however, that an action may be maintained to recover a sum or sums due and payable for instalment, payment or hiring, but in such cases no order of arrest shall issue.

L. 1910, ch. 542. In effect June 20, 1910.

In an action of foreclosure, as provided in the last section where the sum or sums, over all payments and set-offs due and payable by the terms of a written contract of conditional sale, or upon the payment of which the title to hired personal property vests, or secured by a chattel mortgage, amount to more than one hundred dollars, the plaintiff may allege that the defendant wilfully or maliciously disposed of or concealed the property or a part thereof, covered by the instrument on which suit is inst-

uted, in which case the court may grant an order of arrest in the manner provided in article one of this title, and upon such allegation being proved on the trial, execution against the person shall issue, if the provisions of this act relating to indorsement upon the summons have been complied with, unless the property awarded by the judgment is produced by the defendant to satisfy the execution and levy, when made as provided in this article. Upon judgment being rendered, as prescribed in this article under the provisions of this or the last preceding section, and execution issuing thereon, the property subject to levy must be produced or possession made readily available at the time of such levy, to satisfy the execution in the manner prescribed in the judgment, and on failure so to do, where the plaintiff has recovered judgment for a sum exceeding one hundred dollars, exclusive of costs, an execution against the person shall issue, provided the provisions of this act relating to indorsement upon the summons have been complied with, on the return of the marshal having the execution made to the clerk of the court in the district in which the judgment is docketed, to the effect that such property is not available for levy and execution.

L. 1908, ch. 156. In effect April 8, 1908.

In an action to foreclose a lien, the final judgment in favor of the plaintiff, must specify the amount of the lien, and direct a sale of the chattel to satisfy the same and the costs, if any, by a marshal, in like manner, as where a marshal sells personal property by virtue of an execution, and the application by him of the proceeds of the sale, less his fees and expenses, to the payment of the amount of the lien, and the costs of the action. It must also provide for the payment of the surplus to the owner of the chattel, and for the safe keeping of the surplus, if necessary, by the clerk of the court, until it is claimed by him. If a defendant upon whom the summons is personally served, is liable for the amount of the lien, or for any part thereof, it may also award payment accordingly.

C. C. P., §§ 1739, 1740.

§ 142. Application of this article.

This title does not affect any existing right or remedy to foreclose or satisfy a lien upon a chattel, without action, and it does not apply to a case, where another mode of enforcing a lien upon a chattel is specially prescribed by law.

185. Same cause of action, and defense in new action.
186. Answer of title interposed as to only one or more of several defenses; proceedings thereupon.
187. Interpleader by order in certain cases.

§ 145. [Am'd, 1908, 1911.] Pleading on joinder of issue.

Pleadings in the municipal court of the city of New York, may be oral or written, verified or unverified, except as prescribed in section thirty-four hundred and four of the code of civil procedure, and include a complaint, answer or demurrer.

1. Where the action is commenced by the service of a summons only, the pleadings may be oral, and the substance thereof shall be endorsed upon the summons and entered in the docket book of the court. Issue must be joined on the return day of the summons, except as otherwise expressly prescribed in this act. The court may, however, in its discretion, order a written bill of particulars, with or without verification, to be filed by the plaintiff, or by the defendant interposing a counterclaim.

2. In all cases where a written complaint, verified or unverified, is served with the summons, a written answer, verified if the complaint be verified, or a written demurrer, must be filed and issue joined on return day, except as otherwise expressly prescribed in this act, unless the court further extends the time to answer or demur. In actions, however, in which the amount claimed is fifty dollars or less, and the complaint is written, verified or unverified, and the defendant appears in person, the court may, in its discretion, permit the defendant to plead orally and indorse the substance thereof upon the summons.

3. Where a demurrer is interposed and disallowed, the court must, notwithstanding the return day has passed, grant leave to plead as if no demurrer had been interposed, with or without costs, in an amount within the sum allowed as costs in the action; but the time to file said pleading shall not be extended longer than eight days from the time the decision on the demurrer is rendered, unless on the consent of the parties.

4. If the court deems the demurrer well founded, it must permit the pleading to be amended; and if the party fails so to amend, the defective pleading or part of a pleading demurred to must be disregarded; and the court may, in its discretion, extend the time for pleading, in the manner prescribed in the preceding subdivision.

5. Where, on the return day of a summons, a person appears specially for the purpose of raising a question not involving the merits of the action, the court may, in its discretion, reserve the decision on the question raised and extend the time to plead, in the manner prescribed in subdivision three of this section.

6. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the court ordering a bill of particulars in a proper case, whether the pleadings be written or oral.

C. C. P., §§ 2935, 3126, 3207; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1846. Am'd by L. 1308, ch. 495; L. 1911, ch. 73, in effect Sept. 1, 1911.

§ 146. What causes of action may be joined in the same complaint.

The plaintiff may unite in the same complaint, two or more causes of action, where they are brought to recover as follows:

1. Upon contract, express or implied.
2. For personal injuries, and injuries to property, or either.
3. Chattels, with or without damages, for the taking or detention thereof.
4. Upon claims against a trustee, by virtue of a contract, or by operation of law.

5. Upon claims arising out of the same transaction or transactions connected with the same subject of action, and not included within one of the foregoing subdivisions of this section.

6. For penalties incurred under a statute of the state, or an ordinance of the city of New York.

But it must appear upon the face of the complaint, that all the causes of action, so united, belong to one of the foregoing subdivisions of this section; that they are consistent with each other; that they require the same judgment; and except as otherwise prescribed by law, that they affect all the parties. Where a cause of action for which a defendant might be arrested is united with a cause of action for which he cannot be arrested, an execution against the person of the defendant cannot be issued upon the judgment.

C. C. P., §§ 484, 2937.

§ 147. [Am'd, 1908.] Plaintiff to prove his case; exceptions.

If a defendant fails to appear and answer, the plaintiff cannot recover without proving his case, except in a case specified in section thirty-four hundred and six of the code of civil procedure, and excepting that where the action is on a contract, express or implied, and a copy of a verified complaint was served on defendant at the time of the service of the summons, judgment may be taken as demanded without further proof.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

C. C. P., § 2801; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1347. Am'd L. 1908, ch. 495. In effect Sept. 1, 1908.

The defendant may, upon the return of the summons, and before answering, file with the court a written offer to allow judgment to be taken against him for a sum of money, or for property therein specified, with costs. If there are two or more defendants, and the action can be severed, a like offer may be made by one or more of the defendants, against whom a separate judgment may be taken. If the plaintiff thereupon, before taking any other proceeding in the action, files with the court a written acceptance of the offer, the court must render judgment accordingly. If an acceptance is not filed, the offer cannot be given in evidence upon the trial; but, if the plaintiff fails to obtain a more favorable judgment, he cannot recover costs from the time of the offer, and must pay the defendant's costs from that time. But a defendant may instead of such written offer, deposit the amount of his offer, if a sum of money, with the clerk of the court, with like effect.

C. C. P., § 2892.

The complaint must state in a plain and direct manner the facts, constituting the cause of action.

C. C. P., § 2936.

§ 150. Answer; what to contain.

The answer of the defendant must contain:

1. A general or specific denial of each material allegation of the complaint controverted by the defendant, or of any knowledge or information thereof, sufficient to form a belief.
2. A statement of any new matter constituting a defense or counterclaim, in ordinary and concise language, without repetition.

C. C. P., §§ 500, 2938; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1347.

§ 151. Counterclaim defined.

The counterclaim, specified in the last section, must tend in some way, to diminish or defeat the plaintiff's recovery, and must be one of the following causes of action against the plaintiff, or, in a proper case, against the person whom he represents, and in favor of the defendant, or of one or more defendants, between whom and the plaintiff a separate judgment may be had in the action:

1. A cause of action arising out of the contract or transaction set forth in the complaint as the foundation of the plaintiff's claim, or connected with the subject of the action.
2. In an action on contract, any other cause of action on contract, existing at the commencement of the action.

C. C. P., § 501.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 152. Rules respecting the allowance of counterclaim.

But the counterclaim, specified in subdivision second of the last section, is subject to the following rules:

1. If the action is founded upon a contract, which has been assigned by the party thereto, other than a negotiable promissory note or bill of exchange, a demand existing against the party thereto, or an assignee of the contract, at the time of the assignment thereof, and belonging to the defendant, in good faith, before notice of the assignment, must be allowed as a counterclaim, to the amount of the plaintiff's demand, if it might have been so allowed against the party, or the assignee, while the contract belonged to him.

2. If the action is upon a negotiable promissory note or bill of exchange, which has been assigned to the plaintiff after it became due, a demand existing against a person who assigned or transferred it, after it became due, must be allowed as a counterclaim, to the amount of the plaintiff's demand, if it might have been so allowed against the assignor, while the note or bill belonged to him.

3. If the plaintiff is a trustee for another or if the action is in the name of the plaintiff, who has no actual interest in the contract upon which it is founded, a demand against the plaintiff shall not be allowed as a counterclaim; but so much of a demand existing against the person whom he represents, or for whose benefit the action is brought, as will satisfy the plaintiff's demand, must be allowed as a counterclaim, if it might have been so allowed in an action brought by the person beneficially interested.

C. C. P., § 502.

§ 153. Judgment when demand or counterclaim are equal or unequal.

Where a counterclaim is established, which equals the plaintiff's demand, the judgment must be in favor of the defendant. Where it is less than the plaintiff's demand, the plaintiff must have judgment for the residue only. Where it exceeds the plaintiff's demand, the defendant must have judgment for the excess, or so much thereof as is due from the plaintiff; the judgment does not prejudice the defendant's right to recover, from another person, so much thereof as the judgment does not cancel.

C. C. P., § 503.

§ 154. For affirmative relief.

In a case not specified in the last section where a counterclaim is established, which entitles the defendant to an affirmative judgment, demanded in the answer, judgment must be rendered for the defendant accordingly.

C. C. P., § 504.

§ 155. Counterclaim when defendant is sued in a representative capacity.

In an action against an executor or administrator, or other person sued in a representative capacity, the defendant may set forth, as a counterclaim, a demand belonging to the decedent or other person whom he represents, where the person so represented would have been entitled to set forth the same, in an action against him.

C. C. P., § 505.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 150. When plaintiff is an executor or administrator.

In an action brought by an executor or administrator, in his representative capacity, a demand against the decedent, belonging, at the time of his death to the defendant, may be set forth by the defendant as a counterclaim, as if the action had been brought by the decedent in his lifetime; and, if a balance is found to be due to the defendant, judgment must be rendered therefor against the plaintiff, in his representative capacity. Execution can be issued upon such a judgment only in a case where it could be issued upon a judgment in an action against the executor.

C. C. P., § 506.

§ 157. Counterclaim where amount is in excess of court's jurisdiction.

Where defendant has a counterclaim which is in excess of the amount of the jurisdiction of this court, the counterclaim may be interposed, and in the event of judgment being rendered in defendant's favor, sustaining said counterclaim, said judgment shall not be for any larger sum in any event than the sum to which the court has jurisdiction, exclusive of costs, but nothing in this section shall be construed to estop such a defendant from bringing an action against the plaintiff for the difference between the sum of the court's jurisdiction, and the sum by said defendant to be due unless the judgment shall state that the sum awarded by the judgment is the whole amount found to be due.

[New.]

§ 158. When defendant may demur.

The defendant may demur to the complaint, where one or more of the following objections thereto, appear upon the face thereof:

1. That the court has not jurisdiction of the person of the defendant.
2. That the court has not jurisdiction of the subject of the action.
3. That the plaintiff has not legal capacity to sue.
4. That there is another action pending between the same parties, for the same cause.
5. That there is a misjoinder of parties plaintiff.
6. That there is defect of parties, plaintiff or defendant.
7. That causes of action have been improperly united.
8. That the complaint does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

C. C. P., §§ 488, 2039; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1347.

§ 159. Demurrer to complaint must specify grounds of objection.

The demurrer must distinctly specify the objections to the complaint, otherwise it may be disregarded. An objection, taken under subdivision first, second, fourth or eighth of section one hundred and fifty-eight of this act, may be stated in the language of the subdivision; and an objection taken under either of the other subdivisions, must point out specifically the particular defect relied upon.

C. C. P., § 480.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 160. Demurrer to all or part of the complaint, may answer to part.

The defendant may demur to the whole complaint, or to one or more separate causes of action, stated therein. In the latter case, he may answer the cause of action not demurred to.

C. C. P., § 401.

§ 161. Formal reply or demurrer to counterclaim not necessary.

A formal reply to a counterclaim is not necessary. The counterclaim shall be deemed denied by the plaintiff unless specifically admitted on the trial. It also may be objected to on motion, or demurred to as if the counterclaim were an affirmative cause of action, set up in a complaint.

[New.]

§ 162. When plaintiff may demur to answer.

The plaintiff may demur to a counterclaim or a defence consisting of new matter contained in the answer, on the ground that it is insufficient in law on the face thereof.

C. C. P., § 404.

§ 163. Requirements concerning verified pleadings.

The allegations or denials in a verified pleading must in form be stated to be made by the party pleading. Unless they are therein stated to be made on the information and belief of the party, they must be regarded, for all purposes as having been made on the knowledge of the person verifying the pleading. An allegation that the party has not sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief with respect to a matter, must, for the same purpose, be regarded as an allegation that the person verifying the pleading has not such knowledge or information.

C. C. P., § 524.

§ 164. Verification; how and by whom made.

The verification must be made by the affidavit of the party, or, if there are two or more parties united in interest, and pleading together, by at least one of them who is acquainted with the facts, except as follows:

1. Where the party is a domestic corporation, the verification must be made by an officer thereof.

2. Where the people of the state are, or a public officer, in their behalf, is the party, the verification may be made by any person acquainted with the facts.

3. Where the party is a foreign corporation; or where the party is not within the county where the attorney resides, or if the latter is not a resident of the state, the county where he has his office, and capable of making the affidavit; or, if there are two or more parties united in interest and pleading together, where neither of them, acquainted with the facts, is within that county and capable of making the affidavit; or where the action or defence is founded on a written instrument for the payment of money only, which is in the possession of the agent or the attorney; or where all the material allegations of the pleading are within the personal knowledge of the agent or the attorney;

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

In either case the verification may be made by the agent of or the attorney for the party.

C. C. P., § 525.

§ 165. Exhibition of accounts at instance of adverse party may be ordered.

The court may at the time of pleading, or at any other time before the trial, require the plaintiff or defendant to exhibit to the inspection of the adverse party, with liberty to copy the same, any writing or account declared on or set up in the way of offset or counterclaim, or if not so exhibited, may prohibit its afterward being given in evidence.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1361.

The court must, upon application, allow a pleading to be amended, at any time, if substantial justice will be promoted thereby. Where a party amends his pleading, after joinder of issue, or pleads over upon the decision of a demurrer, and it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the court, by oath, that an adjournment is necessary to the adverse party, in consequence of the amendment or pleading over, an adjournment must be granted. The court may also, in its discretion, require, as a condition of allowing an amendment, the payment of costs to the adverse party.

C. C. P., § 2944; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1347.

§ 167. Private statute; how pleaded.

In pleading a private statute, or a right derived therefrom, it is necessary to designate the statute by its chapter, year of passage and title, or in some other manner with convenient certainty, without setting forth any of the contents thereof.

C. C. P., § 580.

§ 168. Judgments; how pleaded.

In pleading a judgment, or other determination of a court or officer of special jurisdiction, it is not necessary to state the facts conferring jurisdiction; but the judgment or determination may be stated to have been duly given or made. If that allegation is controverted the party pleading must on the trial establish the facts conferring jurisdiction.

C. C. P., § 532.

§ 169. Conditions precedent; how pleaded.

In pleading the performance of a condition precedent in a contract it is not necessary to state the facts constituting performance; but the party may state generally that he or the person whom he represents duly performed all the conditions on his part. If that allegation is controverted he must on the trial establish performance.

C. C. P., § 532.

§ 170. Pleadings to be liberally construed.

The allegations of a pleading must be liberally construed, with a view of substantial justice between the parties.

C. C. P., § 519.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 171. Immaterial variance in pleading to be disregarded.

A variance between an allegation in a pleading and the proof, must be disregarded as immaterial, unless the court is satisfied that the adverse party has been misled thereby, to his prejudice.

C. C. P., § 2043; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1347.

§ 172. Material variances; how provided for.

A variance between an allegation in a pleading and the proof is not material unless it has actually misled the adverse party to his prejudice in maintaining his action or defense on the merits. If a party insists that he has been misled that fact and the particulars in which he has been misled must be proved to the satisfaction of the court. Thereupon the court may in its discretion order the pleading to be amended on such terms as it deems just.

C. C. P., § 539.

§ 173. What to be deemed a failure of proof.

Where, however, the allegation to which the proof is directed is unproved, not in some particular or particulars only, but in its entire scope and meaning, it is not a case of variance within the last two sections, but a failure of proof.

C. C. P., § 541.

§ 174. Partial defenses.

A partial defense may be set forth, but it must be expressly stated to be a partial defense to the entire complaint, or to one or more separate causes of action therein set forth. On a demurrer thereto the question is whether it is sufficient for that purpose. Matter tending only to mitigate or reduce damages in an action to recover damages for a personal injury, or an injury to property, is a partial defense within the meaning of this section.

§ 175. Complaint in actions by or against corporations.

In an action brought by or against a corporation, the complaint must aver that the plaintiff, or the defendant, as the case may be, is a corporation; must state whether it is a domestic corporation or a foreign corporation; and, if the latter, the state, country or government, by or under whose laws it was created. But the plaintiff need not set forth, or specially refer to, any act or proceeding by or under which the corporation was created.

C. C. P., § 1775.

§ 176. When proof of corporate existence unnecessary.

In an action brought by or against a corporation, the plaintiff need not prove, upon the trial, the existence of the corporation unless the answer is verified and contains an affirmative allegation that the plaintiff, or the defendant, as the case may be, is not a corporation.

C. C. P., § 1776.

§ 177. Misnomer; when waived.

In an action or special proceeding brought by or against a corporation, the defendant is deemed to have waived any mistake in the statement of the corporate name, unless the misnomer is pleaded in the answer or other pleading in the defendant's behalf.

C. C. P., § 1777.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 178. Pleadings in actions on bastardy bonds.

The pleadings and proceedings in actions in which the people of this state are a party, where such actions are brought by the overseers of the poor or the commissioners of public charities and correction, upon bastardy or abandonment bonds, shall be the same as in actions brought on bonds with conditions other than for the payment of money, and for any breach of the condition of such bond given in cases of bastardy which shall happen after the recovery of any damages or the commencement of any suit, the municipal court in the district in which the action was originally brought shall have power to issue a new summons, and upon the return thereof to ascertain the amount of damages arising from said breach, and to give judgment accordingly; and in suits upon bonds given in abandonment cases the court shall have the same power as to requiring further security or committing defendant in default thereof, as are conferred by law, upon the judges of courts of record in similar cases.

§ 179. Answer of title.

The defendant may, either with or without other matter of defense, set forth in his answer facts showing that the title to real property will come in question. Such an answer must be in writing, and it must be signed by the defendant, or his attorney or agent, and delivered to the court. The court must, thereupon, countersign the answer, and deliver it to the plaintiff.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1349.

§ 180. Defendant in answer of title to deliver undertaking.

In the case specified in the last section, the defendant must also deliver to the court, with the answer, a written undertaking, executed by one or more sureties, approved by the court, to the effect that, if the plaintiff, within twenty days thereafter, deposits with the court a summons and complaint in a new action, for the same cause, to be brought in the proper court, as prescribed in the next section, the defendant will, within twenty days after the deposit, give a written admission of the service thereof. Where the defendant was arrested in the action before the court, the undertaking must further provide that he will, at all times, render himself amenable to any mandate which may be issued to enforce a final judgment in the action so brought. If the defendant fails to comply with the undertaking, the sureties are liable thereupon to any amount for which judgment might have been rendered by the municipal court, if the answer and undertaking had not been delivered.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1350.

§ 181. New action to be brought in supreme court.

The court, in which a new action is to be brought, as prescribed in the last section, is the supreme court.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1351.

§ 182. Old action; thereupon discontinued.

Upon the delivery of the undertaking to the court, the action is discontinued, and each party must pay his own costs. If the plaintiff falls to deposit with the court a summons and complaint in the new action, before the expiration of twenty days after the delivery of the undertaking, the defendant may maintain an action against the plaintiff to recover costs before the court.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1352.

§ 183. Penalty for failure to deliver undertaking.

If the undertaking is not delivered to the court, it has jurisdiction of the action, and must proceed therein, and the defendant is precluded in his defense, from drawing the title in question.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1353.

If, however, it appears upon the trial, from the plaintiff's own showing, that the title to real property is in question, and the title is disputed by the defendant, the court must dismiss the complaint, with costs, and render judgment against the plaintiff accordingly.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1354.

In the new action, to be brought after an action before a court is discontinued, by the delivery of an answer and an undertaking, as prescribed in the last six sections, the plaintiff must complain for the same cause of action only upon which he relied before the court, and the defendant's answer must set up the same defense only which he made before the court. If the action is to recover a chattel which was replevied in the municipal court, each undertaking, given in the municipal court, continues to be valid in, and is applicable to, the new action.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1355.

§ 186. Answer to title interposed as to only one or more of several defenses; proceedings thereupon.

Where in an action before the court, the plaintiff has two or more causes of action, and the defense that the title to real property will come in question, is interposed as to one or more, but not as to all of them, the defendant may deliver an answer and undertaking as prescribed in this article, with respect to the cause or causes of action only, in which title will so come in question. Whereupon the court, must discontinue the action as to those causes of action only, the plaintiff may commence a new action therefor in the proper court and the original action must proceed as to the other causes.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1356.

§ 187. Interpleader by order in certain cases.

A defendant against whom an action to recover upon a contract, or an action to recover a chattel, is pending, may, at any time before answer, upon proof, by affidavit, that a person, not a party to the action, makes a demand against him for the same debt or property, without collusion with him, apply to the court, upon notice to that person, and the adverse party, for an order to substitute that person, in his place, and to discharge him from liability to either, on his paying into court the amount of the debt, or delivering the possession of the property, or its value to such person as the court directs; or upon it appearing that the defendant disputes, in whole or in part, the liability as asserted against him by different claimants, or that he has some interest in the subject matter, of the controversy which he desires to assert, his application may be for an order joining the other claimant or claimants, as co-defendants with him in the action. The court may, in its discretion, make such order, upon such terms as to costs and payments into court of the amount of the debt, or part thereof, or delivery of the possession, of the property, or its value or part thereof, as may be just and thereupon the entire controversy may be determined in the action.

TITLE V.

Proceedings between joinder of issue and trial.

- Article 1. Adjournments; subpoenas; attendance of witnesses.
2. Commissions and depositions.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Adjournments; subpoenas; attendance of witnesses.

- Sec. 193. Trial may be adjourned, when.
194. Adjournment longer than eight days; undertaking.
195. Conditions may be imposed.
196. Attendance of witnesses.
197. How subpoena served.
198. Warrant of attachment against defaulting witness.
199. How executed; fees thereupon.
200. Defaulting witness liable for damages, and penalty of fifty dollars.

§ 193. [Am'd, 1910.] Adjournments; trial may be adjourned; when.

The trial of the action may be adjourned by the court, or on the application of either party, for a period not exceeding eight days at any one adjournment, unless the defendant is under arrest, in which case it shall not be adjourned to exceed forty-eight hours, except upon the application of the defendant, in accordance with the provisions of section sixty-seven of this act. Except that an adjournment for more than forty-eight hours where the defendant is under arrest, may be granted on application of the plaintiff by discharging the defendant from custody and the action may then proceed notwithstanding such discharge; and the defendant shall be subject to arrest on the execution, in the same manner as if he had not been so discharged. The trial may be adjourned for a longer period by consent, or where neither party objects to the same, or where the defendant has defaulted either by reason of his non-appearance or in pleading, the inquest or taking of judgment may be adjourned for a longer period than eight days on the application of the plaintiff, except as otherwise expressly prescribed in this act.

L. 1882, ch. 410, §§ 1362, 1363. Am'd by L. 1910, ch. 153. In effect Apr. 22, 1910.

An adjournment may be had either at the joining of issue, or at any subsequent time to which the cause may stand adjourned on application of either party, for a longer period than eight days, but not to exceed ninety days from the return of the summons, upon executing an undertaking in writing, with one or more sufficient sureties, to the effect that he will pay to the plaintiff or defendant the damages, costs and extra costs, in case judgment shall be rendered against him in the action, upon proof by the oath of the party or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the court, that such party cannot be ready for trial before the time to which he desires an adjournment, for the want of material evidence, describing it; that the delay has not been made necessary by any act or neglect on his part since the action was commenced and that he expects to procure the evidence at the time stated by him. All bonds taken upon the adjournment of any cause shall be good and valid against the obligor or obligors,

MUNICIPAL COURT AOT.

although subsequent adjournments are had after the execution of such bond or obligation.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1364.

§ 195. Conditions may be imposed.

The court may impose upon the party applying for an adjournment such conditions as to it may seem reasonable.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1365.

§ 196. [Am'd, 1910.] Attendance of witnesses.

A subpoena requiring a witness to appear and testify on the trial of an action, on the demand of either party, shall be issued out of this court by the clerk thereof, in the district in which the action is pending, unless otherwise expressly provided in this act, but if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is to be issued is represented by an attorney, such attorney may issue the same and shall subscribe thereto his name, office and post-office address, and the subpoena may be served at any place within the city of New York. The subpoena may require the witness, except as otherwise expressly prescribed by law, to bring with him any book or paper, relating to the merits of the action.

C. C. P., § 2969; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1370. Am'd, L. 1910, ch. 533. In effect Sept. 1, 1910.

A subpoena may be served by any person over the age of eighteen years, and must be served by delivering a copy thereof to the witness personally, and by paying or tendering to him his lawful fee of twenty-five cents for one day's attendance as a witness, and mileage as provided by the code of civil procedure.

C. C. P., § 2970; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1370.

§ 198. Warrant of attachment against defaulting witness.

Where it is made to appear, to the satisfaction of the court, by affidavit or other proof, that a person duly subpoenaed to attend before it in an action, has refused or neglected to attend as a witness in obedience to the subpoena, and no just cause for the neglect or refusal is shown to exist, and the person is not privileged from attendance under any statute of the state, and the party, in whose behalf the witness was subpoenaed, or his attorney, makes oath that the testimony of the witness is material, the court must issue a warrant of attachment, directed generally to any marshal, for the purpose of compelling the attendance of the witness.

C. C. P., § 2971.

§ 199. How executed; fees thereupon.

Such a warrant of attachment must be executed in the same manner as an order of arrest. The fees of the marshal for serving it must be paid by the person against whom it is issued, unless he shows a reasonable excuse to the satisfaction of the court, for his omission to attend, in which case, the party procuring the warrant must pay for them, and if he recovers costs, the amount thereof must be allowed to him as part of his costs.

C. C. P., § 2972.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 200. Defaulting witness liable for damages and penalty of fifty dollars,

A person subpoenaed, as prescribed in this act, who neglects or refuses to obey the subpoena, or to testify, is also liable to the party, in whose behalf he was subpoenaed, for all damages which the party sustains by reason of his neglect or refusal, and fifty dollars in addition thereto, and is subject to any fine or punishment which may be imposed in accordance with the provision of section eight of this act.

§ 205. Commission to take testimony, et cetera.

Where the defendant has neglected to appear upon the return of a summons, or has failed to answer the complaint, or where an issue of fact has been joined in an action; and it appears, by affidavit, upon the application of either party, that a witness, not within the city of New York, is material in the prosecution or defense of the action, the court may award a commission to one or more competent persons, authorizing them, or any of them to examine the witness under oath, upon interrogatories to be settled by the court, or by written agreement of the parties, and indorsed upon or annexed to the commission; to take and certify the deposition of the witness, and to return the same by mail addressed to the clerk of the court.

C. C. P., § 2080; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1368.

If both parties expressly consent, a commission may issue without written interrogatories, and the deposition may be taken upon oral questions.

C. C. P., § 2081; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1368.

§ 207. When and how commission granted.

The commission may be granted by the court without notice, upon the application of the plaintiff, made at the return of the summons, or upon the application of either party, made at the time of the joinder of issue. It may also be granted at any time after the joinder of issue, upon the application of either party, accompanied with proof, by affidavit, that three days written notice of the application has been served upon the adverse party, either personally or by service upon the attorney, who appeared for him before the court.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 208. Adjournment where commission granted.

Where a commission is granted, the party upon whose application it is issued, is entitled to such an adjournment of the trial as may be necessary to procure the commission to be executed and returned. Subject, however, to the provisions of sections one hundred and ninety-three and one hundred and ninety-four of this act.

C. C. P., § 2083; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1368.

§ 209. How executed and returned.

The person, to whom a commission is directed, or before whom a deposition is taken, unless otherwise expressly directed in the commission, or in the order for taking the depositions, must execute the commission, or the order as follows:

1. He must publicly administer, to each witness examined, an oath or affirmation, to testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, as to the matters respecting which the witness is examined.

2. He must reduce the examination of each witness to writing, or cause it to be reduced to writing, by a disinterested person. After it has been carefully read, to or by the witness, it must be subscribed by the witness.

3. If an exhibit is produced and proved, the exhibit, or, if the witness, or other person having it in his custody, does not surrender it, a copy thereof, must be annexed to the deposition to which it relates, subscribed by the witness proving it, and numbered or otherwise identified, in writing thereupon, by the commissioner or other person taking the deposition, who must subscribe his name thereto.

4. The commissioner, or person taking the deposition, must subscribe his name to each half sheet of the deposition, and he must annex all the depositions and exhibits to the commission, or to a certified copy of the order for taking the deposition, with the certificate specified in the next section; and he must close them up under his seal, and address the packet to the clerk of the court, at his official residence.

5. If there is a direction, on the commission, or in the order to return the same through the post office, he must immediately deposit the packet, so addressed, in the post office, and pay the postage thereon.

6. If there is a direction on the commission, or in the order, to return the same by an agent of the party, at whose instance it was issued or granted, the packet so addressed must be delivered to the agent.

7. Where a commission is directed to two or more persons, one or more of them may execute it, as prescribed in this and the next section.

A copy of this and of the next section must be annexed to each commission, or order to take depositions, authorized by this article.

C. C. P., § 903; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1369.

§ 212. When deposition may be suppressed.

Where it appears, by affidavit that a deposition has been improperly or irregularly taken or returned; or that the personal attendance of the witness, upon the trial, could have been procured, with due diligence, by a subpoena, or that the attorney for either party has practiced any fraud, or unfair or overreaching conduct, to the prejudice of the adverse party, in the course of the proceedings; an order for the suppression of the deposition, may be made by the court, upon the application of the party aggrieved, upon notice to the adverse party.

C. C. P., § 910.

§ 213. Deposition, et cetera, evidence.

A deposition, taken and returned as prescribed in this article may, unless it is suppressed as prescribed in the last section, be read in evidence by either party. It has the same effect, and is as other, as the oral testimony of the witness would have; and as objection to the competency or credibility of the witness, or to the relevancy, or substantial competency, of a question put to him, or of an answer given by him, may be made, as if the witness was then personally examined, and without being noted upon the deposition.

C. C. P., § 911.

§ 214. Power of commissioners.

Where the commission is executed within the state, the commissioner, or if there are two or more, a majority of them, have the same power to issue a subpoena, to swear a witness, and to compel his attendance, that a justice of the peace has, in an action pending before him.

C. C. P., § 2987.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 215. Receipt of clerk; return of commission by.

The clerk of the court in the district in which the action is pending, must on receiving the package, containing the commission, transmitted to him by mail or otherwise, open and file it, endorsing thereupon the date of his so doing. It must remain on file with him, until the trial; but either party is entitled to inspect it on file.

C. C. P., § 2085.

§ 216. Deposition to take testimony conditionally.

Either party to an action pending in the municipal court may apply in the district in which the action is pending, for an order to have the testimony of any witness who is about to depart from the city of New York, and will probably continue absent, when the testimony is required, or is so sick or infirm as to afford reasonable ground to believe that he will not be able to attend the trial; or that any other special circumstances exist which render it proper that he be examined as prescribed in this article, taken conditionally to be used on the trial of such action, subject to the provisions of this article.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1369.

§ 217. Affidavit on application; requirements of.

The party desiring to take a deposition, as prescribed in the last section, must present to the court in the district in which the action is pending, an affidavit showing:

1. The title and nature of the action. The name and residence of the person to be examined. That the testimony of such person is material and necessary for the party making such application for the prosecution or defense of such action.

2. That the person to be examined is about to depart from the city of New York, or that he is so sick or infirm as to afford reasonable ground to believe that he will not be able to attend the trial, or that any other special circumstances exist which render it proper that he should be examined, as prescribed in this chapter; but this subdivision does not apply to a case where the person to be examined is a party to the action, except in the case of sickness or infirmity.

3. If the party sought to be examined is a corporation, the affidavit shall state the name of the officers or directors thereof, or any of them whose testimony is necessary and material, or the books and papers as to the contents of which an examination or inspection is desired, and the order to be made in respect thereto, shall direct the examination of such persons and the production of such books and papers.

C. C. P., § 872.

§ 218. Deposition by consent.

The parties to an action may stipulate in writing that an order specified in section two hundred and sixteen of this act may be granted, in which case an affidavit, as required by the preceding sections shall not be necessary. But this section does not apply to a case where the person to be examined is confined in a prison or jail within the state.

C. C. P., § 879.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 219. Order for examination.

The court to whom an affidavit is presented, as provided in section two hundred and seventeen of this act, may, if the opposite party or his representative is not present, require that a reasonable notice of the application be given, or may act on the application at the time of such presentation, and must grant an order for the taking of the deposition, if satisfied of the truth of the matter stated in the affidavit, and may in his discretion designate and limit the particular matters on which the examination is to be conducted. The order may require that the examination be conducted before the court, at the time fixed, or may permit such examination to be conducted at the place where the person to be examined is at the time fixed for said examination. Where the deposition is not taken in court, the order may permit the examination of the person making the deposition to proceed after having been sworn before an officer authorized to take and administer oaths.

C. C. P., § 873.

§ 220. Punishment for disobeying order; witness fees.

Witnesses fees, as provided in this act, for attendance upon trial, must be paid or tendered when the order is served upon the party or other person required to attend. If the party or person so served fails to obey the order his attendance may be compelled and he may be punished in like manner, and the proceedings thereon are the same, as if he failed to obey a subpoena, issued from the municipal court.

C. C. P., § 874.

§ 221. Service of order.

A copy of the order and of the affidavit upon which it was granted must be served at least two days before the time fixed for the examination, upon the attorney for each party to the action, in like manner as a paper in the action; or if a party has not appeared in the action they must be served upon him as directed by the order.

C. C. P., § 875.

§ 222. Adjournment of examination.

The court may upon good cause shown adjourn the time for taking said examination within the limitations and provisions of this act applying to adjournments.

[New.]

§ 223. Party confined in prison.

Where the party or other person to be examined is confined in a prison or jail within the state, under sentence for a misdemeanor or felony, that fact must be stated in the affidavit, and his deposition may be taken as prescribed in the foregoing sections as if he was not so confined, except that in such a case the granting or refusing the order is always in the discretion of the court. The order must require the production of the prisoner by the person in charge of the prison or jail, at the prison or jail, but it may prescribe such regulations and restrictions with respect thereto as the court deems proper.

written or printed notice, directed to each person named in the list, requiring him to attend as directed as a juror, at a time and part specified therein, out of which number six of the persons attending shall be drawn to try the cause, provided that number appear. In each part designated for jury trials, except in the borough of Brooklyn, the clerk in the presence of a justice of the court shall each month draw from the undrawn jury box the names of thirty-six jurors, and a minute of such drawing containing the names and addresses of the jurors so drawn shall be made and certified by such clerk and the justice in whose presence the same are drawn. Such jurors shall constitute the panel of jurors for the month succeeding that in which they are drawn and for the part for which they are so drawn, and the clerk in the part for which said jurors are drawn shall deliver to a marshal or to a person deputed by the court for that purpose a written or printed notice directed to each juror so drawn requiring him to attend as a juror at such part at a time specified therein. Separate ballots containing the names and addresses of each of the jurors so drawn shall be placed in a ballot box from which, at the trial thereof, six of the jurors shall be drawn to try each action triable by jury in that part during the month for which said jurors are drawn. No juror shall be required to attend for service or allowed to serve more than ten days in any one month. At any time the justice presiding in a part designated for jury trials may direct an additional number of jurors to be drawn for service in the month and in the part in which he is presiding. Such order must specify the number of additional jurors to be drawn and such jurors must be drawn and a minute of their drawing be made and certified and they shall be empanelled on trials in the same manner as is above provided as to the jurors drawn for each month. No person shall be allowed to serve as a juror on any trial in the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx whose name is not on the list of trial jurors selected by the commissioner of jurors for the district in which and the period during which, the trial is had. The clerk in each part in the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx shall on or before the fifteenth day of each month return to the commissioner of jurors of the county of New York a certified copy of the minutes of each drawing of jurors in his part during the preceding month and shall also certify to said commissioner the number of days each such juror attended for the purpose of serving, the number of days he actually served and the name of each such juror who was excused or discharged, with the reason therefor, and the name of each such juror notified who did not attend or serve and the name of each such juror fined and how the notice to attend was served upon the delinquent and the date and amount of his fine unless the same has been remitted, in order that the same proceedings may be had as in the case of a delinquent juror in a court of record. The board of aldermen of the city of New York may direct that a sum, not exceeding two dollars in addition to the fees of jurors prescribed in this section, or in any other statutory provision, be allowed to each trial juror for each day's attendance at a term of the municipal court of the city of New York. The amount so paid must be raised in the same manner as other city charges are raised.

C. C. P. § 2990; L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1372. Am'd by L. 1908, ch. 431; L. 1910, ch. 541. In effect Oct. 1, 1910.

243. Subsequent proceedings regulated.

§ 230. [Am'd, 1910.] Issue of fact and law; judgment within what time to be rendered.

Upon the issue of fact joined, if a jury trial be not demanded as required by this act, the court must hear the evidence, and decide all questions of fact and law, and render judgment accordingly within fourteen days from the time the same is submitted for that purpose, except when the defendant is under arrest, or has not given security for his appearance; in such case the court shall render judgment immediately after the close of the trial, and except where further time is given by the consent of parties or their attorneys. Decisions on motions shall likewise be rendered within fourteen days after they are argued or submitted unless further time is given by consent of parties or their attorneys. If no decision is rendered as required herein the time elapsing subsequent to the date of final submission of the motion shall not run to the prejudice of a new application. All issues of law shall be heard and decided by the court, without a jury.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1384. Am'd, L. 1910, ch. 401. In effect Sept. 1, 1911.

At any time when an issue of fact is joined, either party may demand a trial by jury, and unless so demanded at the joining of issue, a jury trial is waived. The party demanding a trial by jury shall forthwith pay to the clerk, the sum of four dollars and fifty cents. In default of such payment the court shall proceed as if no demand for trial by jury had been made. If moneys so received shall be applied as far as necessary to the payment of the lawful fees of the server for summoning jurors and a fee of twenty-five cents to each juror for each case in which he shall serve as a juror such payment to be made to him by the clerk at the end of the trial of such case. When a jury trial is demanded, the trial of the case may be adjourned within the limitations provided in this act, until the time fixed for the attendance of a jury. In each special proceeding and action in which a jury trial is to be had, unless such trial is to be had in a part designated for jury trials, the clerk must in the presence of a justice of the court draw twelve persons from the undrawn jury box and deliver the list thereof to a marshal or to a person deputed by the court for that purpose, with a

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

Written or printed notice, directed to each person named therein, requiring him to attend as directed as a juror, at a certain part specified therein, out of which number six of the jurors attending shall be drawn to try the cause, provided a sufficient number appear. In each part designated for jury trials, in the borough of Brooklyn, the clerk in the presence of a justice of the court shall each month draw from the undrawn jurors the names of thirty-six jurors, and a minute of such drawing containing the names and addresses of the jurors so drawn shall be made and certified by such clerk and the justice in whose presence the same are drawn. Such jurors shall constitute a panel of jurors for the month succeeding that in which they are drawn and for the part for which they are so drawn, and the clerk in the part for which said jurors are drawn shall cause a marshal or to a person deputed by the court for that purpose a written or printed notice directed to each juror so requiring him to attend as a juror at such part at a time specified therein. Separate ballots containing the names and addresses of each of the jurors so drawn shall be placed in separate ballot box from which, at the trial thereof, six of the jurors shall be drawn to try each action triable by jury in that part during the month for which said jurors are drawn. No juror shall be required to attend for service or allowed to serve more than ten days in any one month. At any time the justice presiding in a part designated for jury trials may direct a certain additional number of jurors to be drawn for service in the part designated in the part in which he is presiding. Such order shall specify the number of additional jurors to be drawn and the jurors must be drawn and a minute of their drawing be made and certified and they shall be empanelled on trials in the manner as is above provided as to the jurors drawn for each month. No person shall be allowed to serve as a juror or as a trial juror in the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx whose name is not on the list of trial jurors selected by the commissioner of the court for the district in which and the period during which the trial is had. The clerk in each part in the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx shall on or before the fifteenth day of each month return to the commissioner of jurors of the city of New York a certified copy of the minutes of each drawing of jurors in his part during the preceding month and shall certify to said commissioner the number of days each such juror attended for the purpose of serving, the number of days actually served and the name of each such juror who was used or discharged, with the reason therefor, and the name of each such juror notified who did not attend or serve and the name of each such juror fined and how the notice to attend was served upon the delinquent and the date and amount of his fine unless the same has been remitted, in order that the same proceedings may be had as in the case of a delinquent juror in a court of record. The board of aldermen of the city of New York may direct that a sum, not exceeding two dollars in addition to the fees of jurors prescribed in this section in any other statutory provision, be allowed to each trial juror for each day's attendance at a term of the municipal court in the city of New York. The amount so paid must be raised in the same manner as other city charges are raised.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 231-a. [Added, 1910.] Trial jurors in Brooklyn.

In the borough of Brooklyn there shall be a jury term in each district beginning the first Monday in each month except July, August and September, or at such other times as the board of justices shall direct and such term shall continue for such time as the justice presiding thereat shall deem necessary and direct. Trial jurors for such terms must have the same qualifications, and must be selected, drawn and notified in the same manner, as trial jurors for a term of the supreme court and the provisions of section seven hundred and eleven and sections seven hundred and fourteen to seven hundred and thirty-six, both inclusive, of the judiciary law relating to trial jurors in Kings county, as they may be from time to time, are hereby made to apply to this court, and to trial jurors therein, in said borough, except that all duties imposed by section seven hundred and eighteen thereof upon the county clerk of Kings county shall be performed by, and the clerk referred to in section seven hundred and eleven thereof shall be, the clerk of the court in the respective districts in which the jurors are summoned. Twenty-four trial jurors must, and in no event more than thirty shall, be drawn for each district for each term. As far as the commissioner of jurors shall find it to be practical each juror drawn shall be summoned to the district nearest to his residence. Such jurors shall be paid the same compensation and in the same manner as trial jurors in the courts of record in Kings county. In all proceedings for the remission and enforcement of jury fines of jurors in this court the justices of this court shall be notified and shall act in like manner as the justices and judges specified in sections seven hundred and twenty-eight and seven hundred and twenty-nine of said law.

Added, L. 1910, ch. 541. In effect Oct. 1, 1910.

§ 231-b. [Added, 1913.] Trial jurors in Queens and Richmond.

In the boroughs of Queens and Richmond, there shall be a jury term in each district, beginning the first Monday of each month except the months of July, August and September, or at such other times as the board of justices shall direct, and such term shall continue for such time as the justice presiding thereat shall deem necessary and direct. All of the provisions of section two hundred and thirty-one applying to the parts designated for jury trials and the jurors thereof, not inconsistent with the foregoing provisions of this section, shall also apply to the jury terms and the jurors thereof in the boroughs of Queens and Richmond provided, however, that in the boroughs of Queens and Richmond, twenty-four trial jurors must, and in no event more than thirty shall be drawn in each district, by the clerk for such district, for each term.

Added, L. 1913, ch. 690. In effect Sept. 1, 1913.

§ 232. Court may direct trial by jury; when.

When an issue of fact has been joined in an action or special proceeding, and a trial by jury has not been demanded, the court

Except as otherwise provided in this act, the verdict of the jury must be general for the plaintiff for a specific sum, or for the defendant, or where there is a counterclaim or set-off proved for the defendant in a specified sum, but where there are several plaintiffs or defendants, the verdict may be for or against one or more of them, within the limitations and provisions of this act, and the judgment must be entered thereon immediately after the rendering of the verdict.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1390.

On the trial of all causes in the municipal court, the mode of conducting the trial, the rules of evidence, the examination and the swearing of the jury, shall be the same as prevail in courts of record.

New. See L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1381.

§ 241. Submission of a controversy upon facts admitted.

When an action or summary proceeding has been commenced according to the provisions of this act, upon its being reached for trial, the parties, being of full age, may agree upon a statement of the facts upon which the controversy depends and may present a written submission thereof to the court. Such statement must be accompanied with the affidavit of one or more of the parties to the effect that the controversy is real and that the submission is made in good faith, for the purpose of determining the rights of the parties.

C. C. P., § 1279.

§ 242. Papers to be filed.

Such statement, submission and affidavit must be filed in the office of the clerk of the court in the district in which the action was commenced. The filing is a presentation of the submission, and each provision of this act relating to an action or summary proceeding, or the costs therein, applies to the subsequent proceedings except as otherwise prescribed in the next section.

C. C. P., § 1280.

§ 243. Subsequent proceedings regulated.

An order of arrest, warrant of attachment, writ of replevin or execution against the person, cannot be granted in such an action. The action must be tried by the court upon the statement alone and the statement, submission, affidavit and the judgment rendered, and any order or papers necessarily affecting the judgment constitute the judgment record. If the statement of facts is not sufficient to enable the court to render judgment, an order must be made dismissing the submission without costs to either party, unless the court permit the parties, or, in a proper case, their representative, to file an additional statement, which it may do in its discretion, without prejudice to the original statement.

§ 234. Jury of twelve; when.

In an action where the damages, or the value of the chattels as claimed in the complaint, exceed one hundred dollars, if at the time of joining an issue of fact the defendant demand a trial by a jury of twelve men, the court shall order a jury of twelve to be summoned to try the issues. In such case the clerk shall draw the names of twenty-four persons who shall be summoned in the same manner as in other cases required by law, and twelve of such number shall be drawn to try the cause. The jury fee to be deposited in such cases, shall be nine dollars.

§ 235. [Am'd, 1908, 1910.] How jury summoned; notice.

Except in the borough of Brooklyn, the officer or the person deputed as provided in section two hundred and thirty-one of this act, upon receipt of such a notice as is mentioned in said section, must thereupon immediately summon the person named therein by giving the same to him personally, or by leaving it at his place of residence or business with some person of suitable age and discretion, and, except in the boroughs of Manhattan, Brooklyn and the Bronx, by giving to the person to whom said notice is given the sum of twenty-five cents. The person serving such notice must make a return as to the manner in which such service was made by him, and, except in the boroughs of Manhattan, Brooklyn and the Bronx, must include in such return a statement as to whether or not said twenty-five cents was paid to each juror and also return the list. In each district all such returns must be made to the court, at its opening, on the day for which the jury is drawn.

§ 248. Non-suit; when authorized.

Judgment that the action be dismissed with costs, without prejudice to a new action, shall be rendered in the following cases:

1. Where the plaintiff voluntarily discontinues the action before it is finally submitted.

2. When he fails to appear at the time specified in the summons or upon adjournment.

3. When it is objected at the trial, and appears by the evidence that the court has not jurisdiction, but if the objection be taken and overruled, it is cause only of reversal on appeal, and does not otherwise invalidate the judgment; if not taken at the trial it is waived, and the court will be deemed to have jurisdiction.

4. Where the plaintiff does not prove his cause of action.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1382.

§ 249. Judgment of dismissal on merits; when.

Judgment that the action be dismissed on the merits with costs may be rendered in the following cases:

1. Where, at the close of the whole case, the court is of the opinion that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover as a matter of law.

2. Where the court sustains a demurrer, and no leave to plead over is granted, as provided in this act.

- 276. Marshal; when liable to execution.
- 277. Return of execution and satisfaction of judgment.

An execution may be issued on a judgment of the municipal court at the option of the judgment creditor, either by the county clerk directed to the sheriff as prescribed by law, after the filing of a transcript of judgment, as provided in the next section, or by the clerk of the municipal court in the district in which the judgment was entered, within six years thereafter, directed to a marshal. But no execution shall issue out of the municipal court after a transcript has been issued, and no transcript shall be issued while an execution of the municipal court remains unreturned, except a transcript showing that a judgment has been vacated, set aside or modified. The prospective fees of the county clerk and sheriff must be omitted when an execution is issued to a marshal. The execution, when issued by the county clerk upon a judgment in an action to foreclose a mechanic's lien, shall authorize and direct the sheriff to sell the right, title and interest of the owner in the premises, upon which the lien set forth in the complaint existed at the time of filing the notice of lien.

L. 1892, ch. 410, § 1392; L. 1908, ch. 144; L. 1908, ch. 495. In effect Sept. 1, 1908.

The clerk of the court in the district in which a judgment is rendered must, upon the application of the party in whose favor the judgment was rendered, deliver to him a transcript of the judgment, except as provided in the last section. In an action brought to foreclose a mechanic's lien, if judgment be rendered in favor of plaintiff, said clerk shall insert in said transcript, in addition to the matters required to be inserted in other transcripts, a statement that the action was brought to foreclose a mechanic's lien and that said lien has been duly established and adjudged against the interest of the defendant in the property described in the complaint at the time of the filing of the notice of lien. The county clerk of the county in which the judgment was rendered, must, upon the presentation of the transcript and payment of the fees therefor, indorse thereupon the date of its receipt, file it in his office, and docket the judgment, as of the time of the receipt of the transcript, in a book kept by him for that purpose, as prescribed by law, and if the judgment be one which is rendered for the recovery of a chattel which has been delivered to the unsuccessful party, or for the value thereof, or for the foreclosure of a mechanic's lien, must also enter in the docket the particulars of the judgment as stated in the transcript. Thenceforth the judgment is deemed a judgment of the supreme court and may be enforced accordingly. But nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the municipal court from vacating, setting aside or modifying the judgment as hereinbefore provided.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1392; L. 1908, ch. 495. In effect Sept. 1, 1908.

§ 262. When satisfaction of judgment presumed.

A final judgment for a sum of money, or directing the payment of a sum of money, heretofore or hereafter rendered, and docketed in the office of a county clerk as prescribed in this article, is presumed to be paid and satisfied after the expiration of twenty years from the time, when the party recovering it was first entitled to a mandate to enforce it. This presumption is conclusive, except as against a person who, within twenty years from that time, makes a payment or acknowledges an indebtedness of some part of the amount recovered by the judgment or decree or his heir or personal representative, or a person whom he otherwise represents. Such an acknowledgment must be in writing and signed by the person to be charged thereby.

C. C. P., § 376.

§ 263. Real property bound for ten years by a judgment thus docketed.

Except as otherwise specially prescribed by law, a judgment hereinafter rendered, which is docketed in a county clerk's office as prescribed in this article where it is for the sum of twenty-five dollars or more, binds, and is a charge upon, for ten years after filing the judgment roll, and no longer, the real property and chattels real, in that county, which the judgment debtor has at the time of so docketing it, or which he acquires at any time afterwards, and within ten years.

C. C. P., § 1251.

§ 264. Judgment, and effect of, against defendants jointly indebted when all are not served.

In an action, wherein the complaint demands judgment for a sum of money against two or more defendants, alleged to be jointly indebted upon contract, if the summons is served upon one or more, but not all of the defendants, the plaintiff may proceed against the defendant or defendants, upon whom it is served unless the court otherwise directs; and, if he recovers final judgment, it may be taken against all the defendants thus jointly indebted. Such a judgment is conclusive evidence of the liability of each defendant upon whom the summons was personally served or who appeared in the action, and as against a defendant not summoned, it is evidence only of the extent of the plaintiff's demand, after the liability of that defendant has been established, by other evidence.

§ 265. Execution; indorsement thereupon.

An execution or a transcript issued upon such a judgment as prescribed in the foregoing section, must be issued, in form, against all the defendants; and the clerk of the court in the district where such judgment is entered, must indorse thereupon the name of each defendant who was not summoned. If the execution be issued to the sheriff upon a judgment docketed in the office of the county clerk there must be indorsed thereupon a direction to the sheriff, containing the name of each defendant who was not summoned, and restricting the enforcement of the execution; as prescribed in the next section.

C. C. P., § 1934.

§ 266. How collected.

An execution against the person, issued upon a judgment, as prescribed in section 264 of this act, shall not be enforced against the person of a defendant, whose name is indorsed thereupon, as not summoned, as prescribed in the foregoing section. An execution against property, issued upon such a judgment, shall not be levied upon the sole property of a defendant not summoned; but it may be collected out of personal property, owned by him, jointly with the other defendants, who were summoned, or with any of them; and out of the real and personal property of the latter, or any of them.

C. C. P., § 1935.

§ 267. Judgment how docketed; effect of docketing.

Where a judgment has been taken, as prescribed in section two hundred and sixty-four of this act, the clerk of the court in the district in which the judgment is entered, must write upon his docket, and the county clerk with whom a transcript is filed, as provided in this act, must write upon his docket, opposite or under the name of each defendant, upon whom the summons was not served, the words "not summoned." The judgment does not, by virtue of its being docketed, bind any real property, or chattel real, owned by such a defendant. But this section does not affect the plaintiff's right of action, to charge the judgment upon any real property.

C. C. P., § 1936.

§ 268. Action against joint debtors.

After the recovery of a judgment against joint debtors, as prescribed in section two hundred and sixty-four of this act, an action may be maintained by the judgment creditor, against one or more of the defendants who were not summoned in the original action, to procure a judgment charging his or their property with the sum remaining unpaid upon the original judgment.

C. C. P., § 1937.

§ 269. Docketing judgment in another county.

The county clerk with whom a transcript is filed, as prescribed in this act, must furnish to any person applying therefor, and paying the fees allowed by law, one or more transcripts of the docket of the judgment, attested by his signature. A county clerk to whom such a transcript is presented, must, upon payment of the fees therefor, immediately file it, and docket the judgment in the appropriate docket-book kept in his office, in like manner as the judgment was docketed by the first county clerk. The judgment, when docketed, as prescribed in this section, has the like effect, with respect to the enforcement thereof, or any proceedings thereunder, or by virtue thereof, in the county where it was so docketed, as it has in the county in which it was docketed upon the transcript from the municipal court.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1397.

Whenever any judgment shall be rendered against any city marshal or his sureties, in any district of the municipal court, a transcript thereof shall be filed with the county clerk in the county wherein such district of the municipal court is situated, and from the filing of such transcript such judgment shall be deemed to be a judgment of the supreme court and shall be enforced in the same manner as other judgments of that court. And no execution on such judgment shall issue to any other officer, than the sheriff, and all such executions must be made returnable to the county clerk.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1898.

The execution, when issued out of the municipal court, must be directed to a marshal, subscribed by the clerk of the court in the district in which the judgment was rendered, or by his successor in office, and must bear date of the day of its delivery to the officer to be executed. It must intelligibly refer to the judgment by stating the names of the parties, the district where, and the time when rendered, and the amount of the judgment, and if less than the whole is due, the true amount due thereon: it must require of the marshal, substantially as follows:

1. If it be a case where the defendant cannot be arrested, it must direct the officer to collect the amount of the judgment, or the amount due thereon, out of the personal property of the debtor, and to pay the same to the party entitled thereto.

2. If it be a case where the defendant may be arrested, in addition to the foregoing, it may direct the officer, if sufficient property of the defendant liable to execution cannot be found to satisfy the judgment, that he arrest the defendant and commit him to the jail of the county wherein the district in which the judgment was entered is situate, until he pay the judgment or be discharged according to law.

3. It must further, in all cases, direct the officer to make return of the execution and a certificate thereon showing the manner in which he had executed the same, in twenty days from the time of his receipt thereof, to the court from which the execution issued.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1399.

When the execution directs the arrest of the defendant for want of sufficient personal property, if there be not sufficient subject to levy known to the officer, or if upon demand by the officer of the defendant, he fail to produce sufficient property, the officer may, without further delay, arrest the defendant; when arrested, the defendant must be conveyed to the common jail of the county, wherein the district where the judgment is entered is situate, and there kept in custody until the execution, with costs, be paid, or be discharged by due course of law.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1401.

An execution may, at the request of the judgment creditor, be renewed before the expiration of the twenty days by the word "renewal" being written thereon, with the date thereon, subscribed by the clerk of the court or his assistant; such renewal has the same effect as an original issue, and may be repeated as often as may be necessary. If an execution be returned unsatisfied, others may be issued on the like request from time to time until the judgment be satisfied.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1402.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 274. [Am'd, 1907.] Judgment in favor of wage earners.

In an action, brought in the municipal court, by a journeyman, laborer, or other employee whose employment answered to the general description of wage earner, for services rendered or wages earned in such capacity, if the plaintiff recovers a judgment for a sum not exceeding fifty dollars, exclusive of costs, and the action shall have been brought within two months after the cause of action accrued, no property of the defendant is exempt from levy and sale by virtue of an execution against property, issued thereupon; and, if such an execution is returned wholly or partly unsatisfied, the clerk must, upon the application of the plaintiff, issue an execution against the person of the defendant for the sum remaining uncollected, if the indorsement required by this act to the effect that defendant was liable to arrest was complied with. A defendant arrested by virtue of an execution so issued against his person, must be actually confined in the jail, and is not entitled to the liberties thereof; but he must be discharged after having been so confined for fifteen days. After his discharge another execution against his person cannot be issued upon the judgment, but the judgment creditor may enforce the judgment against property as if the execution, from which the judgment debtor is discharged, has been returned, without his being taken.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1406. Am'd L. 1907, ch. 425. In effect Sept. 1, 1907.

A defendant cannot be arrested nor his property sold on execution after twenty days from its issue or renewal, but property levied on within the twenty days, may be sold after renewal.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1406.

§ 276. Marshal; when liable to execution; creditor.

A marshal is liable to a party in whose favor an execution is issued to him for the amount thereof in the following cases:

1. Where he suffers the twenty days to elapse without making a true return thereof, and filing the same with the clerk of the court, and paying to him or to the party entitled thereto, the money collected thereon by him.

2. Where he wilfully or carelessly omits to levy on property of the defendant, or if the defendant be liable to arrest, to arrest and imprison him within the twenty days, or having arrested the defendant, fails to commit him to the county jail within the twenty days.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1407.

§ 277. Return of execution and satisfaction of judgment.

Whenever an execution has been returned satisfied in whole or in part, where a transcript of the judgment has been filed in the county clerk's office, a certificate thereon, signed by the clerk of the court in which the judgment was rendered may be filed in the office of the clerk of the county, who shall thereupon enter satisfaction for the amount so satisfied; judgments docketed in these courts may be satisfied in the same manner as judgments docketed in courts of record.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1408.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

TITLE VIII.

- Article 1. Clerks and officers.
2. Marshals.

ARTICLE FIRST.

Clerks and officers.

- Sec. 282. Duties of clerk.
283. To collect and account for fees, et cetera.
284. Docket, what to contain.
285. Entries, how to be made.
286. Index.
287. To be delivered by clerk to his successor.
288. Successor may issue execution on former unsatisfied docket.
289. Certified copies; prima facie evidence.

It shall be the duty of the clerk of the court in each district:

1. To keep the seal of the court, and affix it to the certificate of the transcript of the docket of judgment, or any other certificate, when required so to do.

2. To record the proceedings of the court.

3. To keep the records and other books appertaining to the court.

4. To file papers delivered to him for that purpose in any action.

5. To attend the sitting of the court of which he is clerk, to administer oaths in an action, in the presence of the court and under its direction, and to receive the verdict of the jury, and in the absence of the justice to adjourn causes to a time agreed upon between the parties or, when no justice appears, to adjourn causes to the next judicial day.

6. To authenticate by certificate or exemplification, as may be required, the records or proceedings of the court, or any other papers appertaining thereto and filed with him.

7. To exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred and imposed upon him by this act.

8. In the performance of his duties to conform to the direction of the court.

9. [Am'd, 1904.] To keep his office open for the transaction of business, every judicial day, from nine o'clock in the forenoon to four o'clock in the afternoon, except that during the months of July and August of each year the clerk's office may, by a rule established by the board of justices, be closed at two o'clock in the afternoon.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1428; L. 1904, ch. 682. In effect May 9, 1904.

It shall be the duty of the clerk in each district, to collect and receive all the fees, including the fees allowed by law in summary proceedings to recover lands, and to account for and pay the same into the city treasury monthly, under oath, on the first day of each and every month, or within three days thereafter, which account shall contain the title of each case and the amount of fees received therein, and the salary of such clerk shall not be paid until he shall have so accounted and paid, and he shall perform no service until he shall have received the legal fees therefor.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1429.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 284. Docket; what to contain.

The clerk of the court in each district must keep a book, denominated a docket, in which must be entered by him:

1. The title of every action or proceeding, in which a summons or precept is issued.

2. The date of the summons or precept, and the time of its return, and if an order of arrest, warrant of attachment or writ of replevin was issued such facts must also be stated.

3. The time when the parties, or either of them appeared; a minute of their pleadings, if in writing, referring to them; if not in writing a concise statement of the pleadings.

4. Every adjournment, and to what time.

5. When a trial by jury is demanded, the demand must be stated, and by whom made, and the time appointed for the trial, and the return of the jury.

6. The names of the jury sworn.

7. The verdict of the jury and when received; if the jury disagree and are discharged, that fact must be stated.

8. The judgment of the court, its amount, and the costs in the action.

9. The issuing of execution, when issued, and to whom; the renewals thereof, if any, and when made; the return and when made, and a statement of money paid to or by the clerk, and when, and by or to whom.

10. The giving of a transcript to be filed in the county clerk's office, and when and to whom given.

11. The receipt of a notice of appeal or order to make or amend a return, stating the time of the receipt thereof, and the time of filing a return on appeal.

12. Any other order as the court may direct.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1408.

The several particulars in the last section specified must be entered under the title of the action or proceeding to which they relate, and at the time when they occur. Such entries in the docket, or a transcript thereof, certified by the clerk or his successor in office, with the seal of the court thereon impressed, are evidence to prove the facts as stated therein.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1410.

The clerk must keep an index to his docket, in which must be entered the names of the parties to each summons or precept, with a reference to the page of entry; the names of the parties respectively, must be entered in the index in alphabetical order.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1411.

§ 287. To be delivered by clerk to his successor.

It is the duty of the clerk to deliver to his successor in office his official dockets and papers on file in his office, as well his own as those of his predecessors which may be in his custody, there to be kept as public records.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1412.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 288. Successor may issue execution on former unsatisfied docket.

A clerk with whom the docket of his predecessor is deposited, may issue execution on a judgment there entered and unsatisfied, in the same manner and with the same effect as though he was clerk of the court at the time the judgment was rendered.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1413.

§ 289. Certified copies; prima facie evidence.

A copy of a paper on file in the office of the clerk, certified by him or his assistant as such, shall be prima facie evidence thereof.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1414.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

ARTICLE SECOND.

Marshals.

- Sec. 293. Marshal not to appear, et cetera.
294. Bond to be executed by.
295. Prosecution and bond.
296. In what court bond may be prosecuted.
297. Judgments against marshals; transcript and execution.
298. Entry of judgment to be endorsed on bond; how.
299. Amount collected to be credited on bond.
300. City clerk to report cancelled bonds to mayor; renewal of bond.
301. Appointment deemed waived for failure to file bond.
302. Process to be served by marshals.
303. Marshal may serve process within city limits.
304. Certain laws in relation to sheriffs made applicable.
305. Marshal to keep entry book and indorse, et cetera.
306. Removal and suspension of marshals.
307. Payment of money received by marshals.

293. Marshal not to appear, et cetera.

A marshal of the city of New York cannot appear or act on behalf of either or any party in an action or proceeding in said municipal court.

L. 1901, ch. 496, § 1369.

§ 294. Bond to be executed by.

No marshal shall be permitted to enter upon the duties of the office until he shall execute a bond, with two sufficient sureties who shall be residents of and shall own real estate within the city of New York, to the amount of double the penalty of the bond, to the city of New York, in the penal sum of two thousand dollars, jointly and severally to answer the city of New York, and any parties that may complain conditioned that such marshal shall well and faithfully execute the duties of said office of marshal, without fraud, deceit or oppression, such sureties to justify in double the amount of such bond. The said bond shall be delivered to the city clerk of the city of New York, who shall judge of and determine the competency of the sureties; and should he approve of the same, he shall note his approval thereon, and shall cause such bond to be filed in the office of the city clerk, forthwith after having been approved by him, and he shall either approve of or reject such bond within five days after the same shall have been presented to him for that purpose. Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent a surety company authorized by law to act as surety.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1700.

§ 295. [Am'd, 1910.] Prosecution and bond.

Any person who shall be aggrieved by any official misconduct on the part of any marshal, and who may desire to prosecute his official bond, and who shall have first obtained judgment against such marshal for official misconduct, may move before a justice of the supreme court at special term, in the judicial department, wherein the borough for which such marshal shall have been appointed, is situated, after giving his surety or sureties eight days previous notice of intention so to do, by personal service of said notice on them, stating when such motion will be made and of the papers to be used on such motion, for leave to prosecute such official bond in his own name, and such leave shall be granted upon it appearing satisfactorily to said court:

1. That a judgment has been obtained in his favor against such marshal for official misconduct, specifying the time when and the court whereby such judgment was rendered, and the amount thereof.

2. That such transcript of judgment has been filed against such marshal in the office of the clerk of the county, within which the borough for which said marshal shall have been appointed, is situate; specifying the time when such transcript was filed and execution issued, and that the sheriff of that county has returned said execution, wholly or partly unsatisfied, after having demanded payment thereof of such marshal; and his neglect or refusal to pay the same, and if any payments have been made on such execution, specifying the amount thereof, but where such marshal shall have died or removed from the city of New York, a demand for the payment of the amount of such execution shall not be necessary.

3. That such judgment is wholly or partly unpaid, specifying the amount uncollected or unpaid, and that the sureties or surety, have or has been served, with the notice and papers hereinbefore mentioned.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1701. Am'd. L. 1910, ch. 538. In effect Sept 1, 1910.

§ 296. In what court bond may be prosecuted.

A justice referred to in the preceding section, may order such bond to be prosecuted in the municipal court of the city of New York, or in the city court of the city of New York, if such borough be within the county of New York, or in the county court of the county wherein such borough is situated, if in any other county. Either of said courts shall have jurisdiction in actions brought on such bond, upon such leave being granted, and the said justice upon said motion may award the aggrieved party his reasonable costs on such motion, not exceeding the sum of ten dollars, which shall be included in the judgment obtained upon such bond.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1702.

§ 297. Judgments against marshals; transcript and execution.

Whenever any judgment shall be rendered against any marshal or his sureties or surety in any court as provided in the foregoing section, a transcript thereof shall be filed with the county clerk in the county wherein the judgment is so obtained, and from the filing of such transcript the provisions of section two hundred and seventy of this act apply.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1703.

The clerk of the county wherein said judgment is entered shall issue a transcript upon application of the judgment creditor, stating the amount of the judgment and that the sum is a charge against the bond of the marshal. The transcript may be filed with the city clerk in the office wherein the bond of said marshal is filed, and the city clerk shall make a memorandum on the official bond of every marshal, upon the filing of every transcript, of a judgment obtained against him and his sureties, and of the time when and the court whereby such judgment was rendered, and the amount thereof, and shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents therefor, which the court rendering judgment shall have power to include in such judgment, together with whatever other disbursements are or may be necessarily incurred in said action, and the said bond shall be cancelled to the amount of such judgment.

§ 299. Amount collected to be credited on bond.

Whenever any action shall be commenced against the sureties of any marshal, and such sureties shall pay the amount for which such suit is brought, and the costs and disbursements incurred therein, or any part thereof, the party or parties so paying shall be entitled to have such sum so paid credited upon such bond, upon presenting the certificate of the plaintiff or his attorney in such action, acknowledging such payments to such clerk aforesaid, and upon such clerk endorsing such payment on such bond, it shall be cancelled to the amount so paid.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1705.

§ 300. City clerk to report cancelled bonds to mayor; renewal of bond.

Whenever judgment shall be rendered against the official bond of any marshal, sufficient or partially sufficient to cancel the same, the city clerk aforesaid, shall report to the mayor the fact, and it shall be the duty of the mayor to compel such marshal to renew his official bond, if the same be cancelled in whole, or to furnish an additional bond, for the amount of the cancellation in the penal sum of double such amount, if said bond be cancelled in part, and should said marshal neglect, refuse, or fail so to do, within ten days after being notified, he shall be removed by the mayor aforesaid, or suspended from performing the duties of the office until such time as he shall renew the same, and such bond shall be renewed in the same manner as often as the same shall be cancelled.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1707.

§ 301. Appointment deemed waived for failure to file bond.

Every marshal shall, within thirty days after his appointment, enter into a bond in the manner provided in this act, or he shall be deemed to have waived his appointment as such marshal, and some other suitable and proper person shall be appointed in his place and stead to discharge the duties appertaining to such office of marshal.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1708.

§ 302. Process to be served by marshals.

Every summons, precept, order of arrest, attachment, writ of replevin, or other process issued by or out of the municipal court, and every summons or precept issued by the clerk of the court in any district, and every summons issued by any justice thereof, shall be served and executed by a marshal, except as prescribed in section thirty-six of this act; but no person other than a marshal shall be entitled to any fees or other compensation therefor, except the persons who serve process for the corporation counsel.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1709.

§ 303. Marshal may serve process within city limits.

A marshal of the city of New York may, and is empowered, and has the authority to serve or execute all process and mandates of the municipal court of the city of New York, in any part of the city of New York, notwithstanding he was appointed for or is a resident in, a particular borough.

[New.]

§ 304. Certain laws in relation to sheriffs made applicable.

All provisions of law in relation to the taking and restitution of property by sheriffs of counties shall apply to the taking and restitution of property by the said marshals, except that a marshal is not restricted in the performance of his duty as such, to the territorial limits of a county, when engaged in the service or execution of process or mandates, but is authorized to act within the limits of the city of New York.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1711.

§ 305. Marshal to keep entry book and indorse, et cetera.

Every marshal shall keep a book in which he shall enter immediately upon the receipt thereof all the process and mandates of the court delivered to him for execution, and his disposition thereof; and he shall also endorse upon such process or mandate the date and the hour of receiving the same.

[New.]

§ 306. [Am'd, 1904.] Removal and suspension of marshals.

The mayor may remove any marshal, after giving him an opportunity to be heard, upon charges in writing preferred against such marshal, and filed with the mayor, and may, in his discretion, suspend said marshal from the performance of his duties, as such, pending a hearing upon the charges. Upon charges being preferred against a marshal by a justice of the municipal court, the mayor may forthwith cause notice of suspension of such marshal to be served upon him, and such marshal shall thereupon remain suspended until the hearing and determination of such charges by the mayor. The mayor may, in his discretion, delegate to the secretary to the mayor the power and duty of hearing the evidence to be produced upon the said hearing and in such case the said secretary to the mayor shall have the power to issue subpoenas, administer oaths and take such evidence and shall submit the same to the mayor who shall thereupon make a determination thereon, which determination shall have the same force and effect as if the said evidence had been taken before the mayor.

L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1429; L. 1904, ch. 264. In effect April 8, 1904.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 307. [Am'd, 1910.] Payment of money received by marshals.

Whenever any marshal shall collect or receive any money upon any process of the municipal court of the city of New York he shall pay the same over to the person entitled thereto, the attorney of record in the action, or to the clerk of the court of the district from which such process was issued, less his lawful fees and disbursements within five days after the same shall have been received by him. Upon his failure to do so he may be proceeded against as for a contempt. The clerk of the court with whom such money is deposited shall pay the same over on demand to the person entitled thereto or to the attorney of record in such action.

TITLE IX.

Appeals.

Sec. 310. When appeal may be taken.

311. When and how taken.

312. Service of notice upon respondent.

313. Omission to serve one, how supplied; amendment when allowed.

314. Undertaking to stay execution upon judgment.

315. Exception to sureties; justification.

316. Proceedings how stayed.

317. Return.

318. Settlement of case on appeal.

319. When justice is dead, et cetera.

320. Appeal when adverse party has died.

321. Proceedings when party dies pending appeal.

322. Order of substitution.

323. Restitution upon reversal.

324. Settling off costs and recovery.

325. Hearing on appeal, dismissal thereof; reversal on stipulation.

326. Judgment.

327. Clerk appellate court to return papers.

§ 310. [Am'd, 1907, 1910, 1913.] When appeal may be taken.

An appeal from a judgment rendered in an action, or a final order made in summary proceedings in the municipal court of the city of New York, or from orders as hereinbefore provided, may be taken to the supreme court. Such appeal shall be heard in such manner and by said justice or justices as the appellate division of the supreme court in the judicial department embracing the district wherein the action is brought shall direct, except that the appellate division of the second judicial department may direct that such appeal may be heard directly before that court; provided, however, that if the appellate division in the second department directs such appeal to be heard before three other justices designated by it and to be known as the appellate term in the second department, said appellate division may appoint and remove a chief clerk of such appellate term, and one deputy clerk and one confidential clerk and stenographer and not to exceed three attendants and may in its discretion fix their salaries or compensation, which shall not exceed for the clerk four thousand dollars per annum, for the deputy clerk three thousand five hundred dollars per annum, for the confidential clerk and stenographer three thousand dollars per annum and for the attendants the salaries now allowed by law to attendants in the supreme court in Kings county. The board of estimate and apportionment is authorized and empowered to provide the means to pay such salaries and compensation, and all other expenses of such appellate term, for the year nineteen hundred and seven, and for each year thereafter. The appellate court may reverse, affirm or modify the judgment, order or final order appealed from, and where the judgment, order or final order is reversed, may order a new trial, in the municipal court in the district in which the action is brought. Where a judgment, order or final order is modified or a new trial is ordered, costs shall be in the discretion of the appellate court. An appeal taken from a judgment or final order brings up for review an intermediate order which is specified in the notice of appeal and necessarily affects the judgment or final order and has not already been reviewed upon a separate appeal therefrom. The right to review such intermediate order, as prescribed in this section, is not affected by the expiration of the time within which a separate appeal therefrom might have been taken.

L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1377. Am'd, L. 1907, ch. 664; L. 1910, ch. 538. L. 1913, ch. 386, in effect April 28, 1913.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 311. [Am'd, 1908.] When and how taken.

An appeal must be taken within twenty days after the entry of the judgment, order or final order in the docket, except that where a defendant appeals from a judgment rendered in an action wherein he did not appear and the summons was not personally served upon him, the appeal may be taken within twenty days after personal service upon him, on the part of the plaintiff, of written notice of the entry of the judgment. An appeal is taken by serving upon the clerk of the court or his successor in office in the district in which the judgment, order or final order was rendered, and upon the respondent, a written notice of appeal, subscribed either by the appellant or by his attorney in the appellate court, and paying at the same time the costs and disbursements of the action to such clerk who shall hold the same to abide the event of such appeal and the further order of the court in the district from which the appeal was taken. The city of New York or any board, department or official thereof appearing by the corporation counsel, shall not be obliged to pay such costs and disbursements until the final determination of such appeal. The service and filing of a notice of appeal by the city of New York with the clerk of the court as aforesaid shall operate as a stay.

C. C. P., § 8046; L. 1904, ch. 586; L. 1908, ch. 22. In effect Sept. 1, 1908.

Service of the notice of appeal upon the respondent may be made, by delivering it in any part of the state, to the respondent personally, or in one of the following methods.

1. If the respondent is a resident of the city of New York by leaving it at his residence with a person of suitable age and discretion. If the respondent appeared in the action or proceeding by attorney, it may be served upon such attorney, either personally or by leaving it at his office or residence with a person of suitable age and discretion.

2. If service within the city of New York cannot be made, with due diligence, upon the respondent personally, or in the method prescribed in the foregoing subdivision, the notice of appeal may be served upon him, by delivering it to the clerk of the court in which the judgment was rendered, addressed to the respondent.

C. C. P., § 8048. Am'd L. 1910, ch. 586. In effect Sept. 1, 1910.

§ 313. Omission to serve one, how supplied; amendment when allowed.

Where the appellant, seasonably and in good faith, serves the notice of appeal, upon either the clerk or the respondent, but omits, through mistake, inadvertence or excusable neglect, to serve it upon the other, or to do any other act necessary to perfect the appeal, the appellate court, upon proof by affidavit of the facts, may, in its discretion, permit the omission to be supplied, or an amendment to be made, upon such terms as justice requires.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 314. Undertaking to stay execution upon judgment.

If the appellant desires a stay of execution, he must give a written undertaking, executed by one or more sureties, approved by a justice of the court, to the effect that if the appeal is dismissed, or if judgment is rendered against the appellant in the appellate court, and an execution issued thereupon is returned wholly or partly unsatisfied; the sureties will pay the amount of the judgment, or the portion thereof remaining unsatisfied, not exceeding a sum specified in the undertaking, which must be at least one hundred dollars, and not less than twice the amount of the judgment, or if the judgment of the court is for the recovery of a chattel, that the sureties will pay the sum fixed by that judgment as the value of the chattel, together with the damages, if any, awarded for the taking, withholding, or detention thereof. A copy of the undertaking, with a notice of the delivery thereof, must be served with the notice of appeal, and in like manner. Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude a surety company properly authorized by law to act as such surety or sureties.

C. C. P., § 3050.

§ 315. Exception to sureties.

The respondent or his attorney, may, within five days after the service of a copy of the undertaking with notice of the filing thereof, serve upon the appellant or his attorney, a written notice that he excepts to the sufficiency of the sureties. Within five days thereafter, the sureties, or other sureties, in a new undertaking to the same effect, must justify before the court in the district in which the judgment was rendered or final order made. At least three days notice of the justification must be given. If the court finds the sureties sufficient, it must indorse its allowance of them upon the undertaking, or a copy thereof. The effect of a failure so to justify and procure an allowance, is the same as if the undertaking had not been given. The court shall also have power, in case it shall be made to appear to its satisfaction, upon motion, that the exception was taken unnecessarily or for purposes of vexation or delay, to set the same aside and approve the undertaking.

C. C. P., § 1335.

§ 316. Proceedings; how stayed.

The delivery of the undertaking to the clerk of the court in the district in which the judgment or final order was entered, and service of a copy thereof, and of notice of delivery thereof, stays the issuing of an execution upon the judgment. If the execution has been issued, the service of a copy of the undertaking, certified by the clerk or accompanied with an affidavit, showing that it is a copy, and that the original has been duly filed, upon the officer holding the execution, stays further proceedings thereunder, subject to the provisions of the next preceding section.

C. C. P., § 3051.

§ 317. Return.

The clerk of the court or his successor in office, must within thirty days from the service of the notice of appeal and the payment of the cost and fees as prescribed in this act, make a return to the appellate court, annex thereto the notice of appeal and the undertaking, if any has been delivered to him, and cause the same to be filed with the clerk of the appellate court. The return must contain all the proceedings, including the evidence and the judgment. The stenographer's minutes of the evidence must be furnished to the clerk, by the stenographer, within ten days after the fees therefor have been paid. Such return must have indorsed thereon the allowance of the justice before whom the action or proceeding was tried.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

C. C. P., § 3053.

§ 318. Settlement of case on appeal.

Immediately upon receiving the minutes from the stenographer, as provided in the next preceding section, the clerk of the court shall cause notice of that fact to be sent to the attorney for the appellant, or to the appellant if he has not appeared by attorney. The appellant or his attorney shall then procure the case to be settled on a written notice of at least three days, served in the manner provided for the serving of a notice of appeal, or on the attorney for the respondent, and made returnable before the justice who tried the case, in the court house in the district in which said justice may then be sitting. Said justice shall thereupon within five days, settle the case or exceptions upon it, if there be any, and indorse the return, as provided in the next preceding section. After a justice is out of office, he may settle the case or exceptions or make any return of proceedings had before him while he was in office, and may be compelled so to do by the appellate court.

[New.]

§ 319. When justice is dead, et cetera.

If the justice dies, becomes a lunatic, absconds, removes from the state, or otherwise becomes unable to make the return, the appellate court may receive affidavits, or examine witnesses, as to the evidence and other proceedings taken, and the judgment rendered, before the justice; and may determine the appeal, as if a return had been duly made by the justice.

C. C. P., § 3056.

§ 320. Appeal when adverse party has died.

Where the adverse party has died, since the making of the order, or the rendering of the judgment appealed from, or where the judgment appealed from was rendered, after his death, in a case prescribed by law, an appeal may be taken, as if he was living; but it cannot be heard, until the heir, devisee, executor, or administrator, as the case requires, has been substituted as the respondent or appellant. In such a case an undertaking required to perfect the appeal, or to stay the execution of the judgment or order appealed from, must recite the fact of the adverse party's death; and the undertaking enures, after substitution to the benefit of the person substituted.

C. C. P., § 1297.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 321. Proceedings when party dies pending appeal.

Where either party to an appeal dies before the appeal is heard, if an order, substituting another person in his place, is not made within three months after his death, the court in which the appeal is pending, may, in its discretion, make an order requiring all persons interested in the decedent's estate, to show cause before it why the judgment or order appealed from should not be reversed or affirmed or the appeal dismissed, as the case requires, the order must specify a day when cause is to be shown, which must not be less than six months after making the order; and it must designate the mode of giving notice to the persons interested. Upon the return day of the order, or at a subsequent day, appointed by the court if the proper person has not been substituted, the court, upon proof by affidavit, that notice has been given, as required by the order, may reverse or affirm the judgment or order appealed from, or dismiss the appeal, or make such further order in the premises as the case requires.

C. C. P., § 1298.

§ 322. Order of substitution.

Where personal service of notice of application for an order has been made, within the city, upon the proper representative of the decedent, an order of substitution may be made, upon the application of the surviving party.

C. C. P., § 1299.

§ 323. Restitution upon reversal.

Where the judgment or final order is reversed or modified, the appellate court may make or compel restitution of property or of a right, lost by means of the erroneous judgment; but not so as to affect the title of a purchaser, in good faith and for value, or property sold by virtue of a warrant of attachment in the action, or an execution issued upon the judgment. In that case, the appellate court may compel the value, or the purchase price to be restored, or deposited to abide the event of the action, as justice requires. Six days' notice of an application for an order for restitution must be given; and, if the application is granted before judgment, the proper direction may be included therein.

C. C. P., § 3058.

§ 324. Setting off costs and recovery.

If, upon the appeal, a sum of money is awarded to one party, and costs are awarded to the adverse party, the appellate court must set off the one against the other, and render judgment for the balance.

C. C. P., § 3059.

§ 325. Hearing on appeal, dismissal thereof; reversal on stipulation.

Within twenty days after the service of a notice of appeal on the respondent, he may serve upon the appellant or his attorney, a written stipulation that the judgment appealed from may be reversed with five dollars' costs and disbursements of the appeal, and thereafter no further steps shall be taken in such appeal, except to enter judgment in pursuance of such stipulation for the enforcement thereof; in case such stipulation shall not be served, the appeal may be brought to a hearing in the appellate court at any term thereof, at which such an appeal can be heard, held after the return is filed, upon a notice by either party, of not less than eight days. It must be placed upon the calendar, and must continue thereupon without further notice until it is finally disposed of. If, after being regularly placed upon the calendar, neither party brings it to a hearing before the end of the second term thereafter at which it might be noticed for hearing and heard, the court must dismiss the appeal unless it directs the same to be continued for cause shown.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

C. C. P., § 3062.

In a case specified in this act, the appeal must be heard upon the original papers, or a certified copy thereof, and a copy or copies thereof need not be furnished for the use of the court. The appellate court must render judgment according to the justice of the case, without regard to technical errors or defects which do not affect the merits. It may affirm or reverse the judgment of the municipal court, in whole or in part, and as to any or all of the parties, and for errors of law or of fact, and where the judgment is contrary to or against the weight of evidence, the appellate court may, upon its reversal of a judgment, order a new trial as prescribed in this act.

C. C. P., § 3063.

§ 327. Clerk appellate court to return papers, etcetera.

Upon the rendering of judgment of the appellate court, affirming, modifying or reversing a judgment or order of the municipal court, the clerk of the appellate court, shall return to the district of the municipal court from which the appeal was taken, all the papers on file in his office making up the judgment-roll of said action or proceeding.

338. Costs where title to real property, in question.
339. Costs in actions upon bastardy, et cetera, bonds.
340. Costs in action by working woman.
341. Taxation of costs.
342. Review of taxation.
343. Costs, duty of clerk on taxation.
344. Costs, affidavit respecting disbursements.
345. Costs upon appeal: to whom.
346. Costs upon appeal: amount.
347. Fees payable to clerks.
348. Employees action; no fees.
349. Fees, property of city.
350. [Repealed, 1908.]
351. Jurors fees.
351-a. Return of jury and jurors' fees.
352. Witnesses' fees.
353. Stenographers' fees.
354. Marshals' fees.
355. Costs on order to prosecute marshal's bond.
356. Fees in summary proceedings.

§ 330. [Am'd, 1907.] When prevailing party to recover costs.

Except as specifically prescribed by law, a party who recovers judgment in this court is entitled to recover as costs all sums allowed by express provision of law, and all fees and disbursements prescribed by law for services necessarily rendered in an action at the request of the prevailing party, and paid by him, including the reasonable compensation of commissioners taking depositions in said action.

C. C. P., § 3074. Am'd L. 1907, ch. 220. In effect Sept. 1, 1907.

§ 331. When neither party to recover costs.

In either of the following cases, costs shall not be awarded to either party, but each party must pay his own costs.

1. Where the action is dismissed by reason of the failure of both parties to attend.

2. Where the defendant interposes an answer that title to real property will come in question, and gives the undertaking thereon prescribed in this act.

3. Where the action is discontinued on the ground that the plaintiff or defendant is an infant, for whom a guardian ad litem has not been appointed.

4. Where the defendant interposes plea of bankruptcy.

C. C. P., § 3075.

§ 332. [Am'd, 1910.] Costs; sums allowed.

In all actions brought in this court there shall be allowed to the prevailing party, if he shall have appeared by an attorney at law, who files a verified pleading or a written notice of appearance, the following sums as costs. Where an action is removed as provided in section three of this act, costs shall be allowed the same as if the action had been commenced in the court in which it is removed.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

1. To either party.—Where the amount demanded in the summons is under fifty dollars, or where the amount demanded is under fifty dollars and defendant interposes a counterclaim under fifty dollars, the court may, in its discretion, award a sum not exceeding five dollars.

2. To the plaintiff.—Where after the trial of an issue of fact raised by appearance and answer of defendant, plaintiff recovers judgment: For fifty dollars and under one hundred dollars, ten dollars; for one hundred dollars and under two hundred dollars, fifteen dollars; for two hundred dollars and under three hundred dollars, twenty dollars; for three hundred dollars and under four hundred dollars, twenty-five dollars; for four hundred dollars or over, thirty dollars. If the action is for the recovery of a chattel the amount of costs shall be governed by the value of the chattel as determined in the judgment.

3. To the plaintiff.—Where, upon the nonappearance, or failure of defendant to answer, plaintiff recovers judgment: For fifty dollars and under one hundred dollars, five dollars; for one hundred dollars and under two hundred dollars, seven dollars and fifty cents; for two hundred dollars and under three hundred dollars, ten dollars; for three hundred dollars and under four hundred dollars, twelve dollars and fifty cents; for four hundred dollars or over, fifteen dollars. If the action is for the recovery of a chattel the amount of costs shall be governed by the value of the chattel as determined in the judgment.

4. To the plaintiff.—Where the action brought by the plaintiff is for a sum less than fifty dollars, and the defendant shall have interposed a counterclaim amounting to fifty dollars or over, and the plaintiff recovers judgment upon the counterclaim the sum as plaintiff would be entitled to recover if the amount of his claim were the amount of defendant's counterclaim.

Am'd, L. 1910, ch. 538. In effect Sept. 1, 1910.

5. To the defendant.—Where defendant recovers judgment after the trial of an issue of fact, raised by appearance and answer, costs shall be awarded to the defendant, at the rate prescribed in subdivision two based upon the amount of plaintiff's demand in the summons. If the action is for the recovery of a chattel, the amount of costs shall be governed by the value of the chattel, as set forth in the affidavit of plaintiff.

6. To the defendant.—Where defendant recovers judgment on the non-appearance of the plaintiff, costs shall be awarded to the defendant at the rates prescribed in subdivision three, based upon the amount of plaintiff's demand in the summons. If the action is for the recovery of a chattel the amount of costs shall be governed by the value of the chattel as set forth in the affidavit of plaintiff.

7. To the defendant.—Where after the trial, of an issue of fact, raised by his appearance and answer, and counterclaim, the defendant recovers judgment: For fifty dollars and under one hundred dollars, ten dollars; for one hundred dollars and under two hundred dollars, fifteen dollars; for two hundred dollars and under three hundred dollars, twenty dollars; for three hundred dollars and under four hundred dollars, twenty-five dollars; for four hundred dollars or over, thirty dollars.

8. To the defendant.—Where, upon the non-appearance of the plaintiff after issue joined and defendant shall have interposed a counterclaim and recovers judgment: For fifty dollars and under one hundred dollars, five dollars; for one hundred dollars and under two hundred dollars, seven dollars and fifty cents; for two hundred dollars and under three hundred dollars, ten dollars; for three hundred dollars and under four hundred dollars, twelve dollars and fifty cents; for four hundred dollars or over, fifteen dollars.

9. Upon settlement of case after service of summons, and before trial, plaintiff shall be entitled to costs at the rate prescribed in subdivision three of this section, determined by the amount of the settlement.

10. Upon settlement of case after trial and before entry of judgment plaintiff shall be entitled to costs at the rate prescribed in subdivision two of this section, determined by the amount of the settlement.

[New.]

§ 333. When defendant entitled to increased costs.

In either of the following cases, a defendant in whose favor a final judgment is rendered, in an action wherein the complaint demands judgment for a sum of money only, or to recover a chattel; or a final order is made, in a special proceeding instituted by a state writ, is entitled to recover the costs, prescribed in section three hundred and thirty-two of this act, and, in addition thereto, one half thereof:

1. Where the defendant is or was a public officer, appointed or elected under the authority of the state, or a person specially appointed, according to law, to perform the duties of such an officer; and the action or special proceeding was brought by reason of an act, done by him by virtue of his office, or an alleged omission by him, to do an act, which it was his official duty to perform.

2. Where the action was brought against the defendant, by reason of an act done, by the command of such an officer or person, or in his aid or assistance touching the duties of the office or appointment.

3. Where the action was brought against the defendant, for taking a distress, making a sale, or doing any other act, by or under a color of authority of a statute of the state.

But this section does not apply, where an officer, or other person, specified herein, unites in his answer with a person not entitled to such additional costs.

C. C. P., § 3258.

§ 334. Costs on demurrer.

Where a judgment is rendered on the trial of a demurrer, the prevailing party shall recover the same costs as if the judgment had been in his favor, upon the default in the same action. Otherwise costs shall not exceed ten dollars in the discretion of the justice, as a condition for leave to plead over.

C. C. P., § 3077.

§ 335. Costs on amendment of pleading.

The court may, in its discretion, as a condition for allowing an amendment to a pleading, require the payment of a sum not to exceed ten dollars as costs to the adverse party.

C. C. P., § 2944.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 336. Costs on adjournment.

When a trial shall be adjourned on cause shown, the justice, in his discretion, may impose upon the party applying for the adjournment such conditions as to him shall seem reasonable, and may also impose costs to the amount of ten dollars, besides disbursements, as a condition of adjournment.

L. 1882, ch. 410, §§ 1366, 1420.

§ 337. Costs after discontinuance, upon answer of title.

When an action brought in this court, has been discontinued as prescribed in this act, upon the delivery of an answer showing that title to real property will come in question, and a new action for the same cause has been commenced in the proper court; the party in whose favor final judgment is rendered in the new action, is entitled to costs; except that where final judgment is rendered therein, in favor of the defendant, upon the trial of an issue of fact, he is not entitled to costs, unless it is certified that the title to real property came in question on the trial.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1421.

Where plaintiff's complaint is dismissed, pursuant to section one hundred and eighty-four of this act, defendant shall be entitled to recover the costs provided in subdivision two of section three hundred and thirty-two of this act.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1354.

§ 339. Costs in action upon bastardy, et cetera, bonds.

Upon a recovery being had in an action brought upon a bastardy or abandonment bond, by the commissioner of public charities, or the overseers of the poor, in addition to the other costs therein, the court shall make and the clerk shall enter in the judgment, an additional allowance of ten per centum of the amount recovered.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1422.

§ 340. [Am'd, 1912.] Costs in action by working woman.

In an action brought to recover a sum of money for wages earned by a female employee, other than a domestic servant, or for material furnished by such an employee, in the course of her employment, or in or about the subject-matter thereof, or for both, the plaintiff, if entitled to costs, may, in the discretion of the court, be allowed the sum of ten dollars as costs, in addition to the costs allowed in this court, unless the amount of damages recovered is less than ten dollars; in which case, the plaintiff may, in the discretion of the court, be allowed the sum of five dollars as such additional costs. When the employee is the plaintiff in such an action, she is entitled upon a settlement thereof, to the full amount of costs, which she would have recovered, if judgment had been rendered in her favor, for the sum received by her upon the settlement.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1424. Am'd by L. 1912, ch. 463, in effect Apr. 17, 1912.

§ 341. [Am'd, 1903.] Taxation of costs.

Where judgment has been rendered by the justice, costs must be taxed by the clerk and inserted in the judgment. Before any item of costs other than the costs fixed by the express provision of law or granted by the justice or fees paid to the clerk in the action are allowed, the party must show by his affidavit, or that of his attorney, that the item was actually and legally paid and incurred. All items of cost must be entered by the clerk in the docket book kept by him. The clerk shall likewise tax costs allowed by the appellate court, and the prospective fees of the county clerk and sheriff, namely a charge for docketing judgment and issuing an execution, and for receiving and returning one execution thereof.

[New.] See C. C. P., § 3078. L. 1908, ch. 144. In effect April 6, 1903.

§ 342. Review of taxation.

A taxation may be reviewed by the justice sitting in the district, within five days after the entry of judgment, upon two days' notice. The order made upon such a motion must disallow any item wrongfully included in the judgment, or add any item wrongfully omitted therefrom, and direct that any sum so disallowed be credited upon the judgment and upon any execution or other mandate issued to enforce the judgment. Unless such review is asked for, such taxation shall not be thereafter questioned on appeal.

[New.] See C. C. P., §§ 3262-3265.

§ 343. Costs; duty of clerk on taxation.

The clerk must examine all items presented to him for taxation; must satisfy himself that all the items allowed by him are correct and legal; and must strike out all charges for fees, where it does not appear that the services for which they are charged were necessarily performed.

C. C. P., § 3266.

§ 344. Costs; affidavit respecting disbursements.

A charge, for the attendance of a witness, cannot be allowed without an affidavit, stating the number of days of his actual attendance; and, if travel fees are charged, the distance for which they are allowed. A charge, for a copy of a document or paper, cannot be allowed, without an affidavit stating that it was actually and necessarily used, or was necessarily obtained for use. An item of disbursements, in a bill of costs, cannot be allowed in any case, unless it is verified by affidavit, and appears to have been necessarily incurred and to be reasonable in amount, except fees paid to the clerk.

C. C. P., § 3267.

§ 345. Costs upon appeal; to whom.

Upon an appeal provided for in this act, the award of costs is regulated as follows:

1. If the appeal is dismissed because neither party brings it to a hearing, as prescribed by law, costs shall not be awarded to either party.

2. If the judgment or final order is reversed, costs must be awarded to the appellant.

3. If the judgment or final order is affirmed, costs must be awarded to the respondent.

4. If the judgment or final order is modified or a new trial is ordered, costs, or such part thereof, as to the appellate court seems just, besides disbursements, may be awarded to either party, absolutely, or to abide the event.

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

C. C. P., §§ 3066, 3218.

§ 346. Costs upon appeal; amount.

Upon an appeal, provided for in this act, costs when awarded must be as follows, besides disbursements:

To the appellant upon reversal, thirty dollars.

To the respondent upon affirmance, twenty-five dollars.

C. C. P., § 3067.

§ 347. Fees payable to clerks.

There shall be paid to the clerks of the court, the following sums as court fees in an action, and there shall be no others.

1. Upon the issuing of a summons, one dollar.

2. For placing cause upon the calendar of court, one dollar, to be paid upon the return of the summons.

3. For a return upon an appeal from a judgment or order, two dollars.

4. For issuing an order of arrest, or a warrant of attachment, one dollar.

5. For entry of judgment upon confession, one dollar.

6. For trial by jury of six, four dollars and fifty cents; for trial by jury of twelve, nine dollars.

7. For certifying a copy of a paper on file in the clerk's office, ten cents for each folio of one hundred words, except return upon appeal.

All of the above fees shall be prepaid before the service shall be performed.

See L. 1882, ch. 410, §§ 1416, 1417.

§ 348. Employee's action; no fees.

When the action is brought by an employee against an employer for services performed by such employee, male or female, the clerks of this court shall not demand or receive any fees whatsoever from the plaintiff or his agents or attorneys in such action, if the plaintiff shall present proof by his own affidavit that his demand is less than fifty dollars, that he is a resident of the city of New York, that he has a good and meritorious cause of action against the defendant, and the nature thereof; that he has made either a written or a personal demand upon the defendant or his agent or representative, for payment thereof, and that payment was refused. Except that if the plaintiff shall demand a trial by jury, he must pay to the clerk the fees therefor prescribed in this act.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1416.

§ 349. Fees, property of city.

Except marshals' and jurors' fees, all moneys paid to the clerks of this court for fees shall be the property of the city of New York.

[New.]

§ 350. [Repealed by L. 1903, ch. 144.]

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT

§ 351. Juror's fees.

Every person summoned as a jury shall be entitled to a fee of twenty-five cents, to be paid as provided in this act.

§ 351-a. [Added, 1913.] Return of jury and jurors' fees.

Whenever an action is settled or discontinued before trial, all jury and jurors' fees paid by any party as provided in this act shall be returned forthwith to such party by the clerk of the court to whom such jury fee was paid.

Added, L. 1913, ch. 692. In effect May 24, 1913.

§ 352. Witnesses' fees.

A witness in an action or summary proceeding, pending in this court, or before a commissioner appointed by this court, or before a justice of this court, taking a deposition to be used in a court not of record of another state or territory of the United States is entitled, except where another fee is specially prescribed by law, to twenty-five cents for each day's attendance; and if he resides more than three miles from the place of attendance, to eight cents for each mile going to the place of attendance.

C. C. P., §§ 3318, 3327.

§ 353. Stenographer's fees.

In all cases of appeal from an order or judgment made or rendered in this court, where a transcript of the stenographer's minutes of the testimony given on the trial of hearing, becomes a necessary part of the return on appeal, the stenographer's fees for making up such transcript shall be ten cents for every one hundred words, and shall be paid in the first instance by the appellant, and afterwards taxable by him as a disbursement on the appeal.

L. 1901, ch. 466, § 1307.

§ 354. Marshal's fees.

Fees shall be allowed to marshals for services rendered under the provisions of this act, as follows: For serving a summons, order of arrest, or attachment on one defendant, one dollar, and for every additional defendant actually served, fifty cents; for a copy of every summons delivered on request, or served, fifteen cents; for a copy of every attachment and of the inventory of the property attached, fifty cents; for serving and levying an execution or selling under an attachment, five cents for every dollar collected to the amount of one hundred dollars, and two and a half cents for every dollar collected over one hundred dollars; for every mile, going only, more than one mile, when serving a summons, order of arrest, attachment or execution, six cents, to be computed from the place of abode of the defendant, or where he shall be found, to the place where the same is returnable; for summoning a jury, one dollar and fifty cents; for going with the plaintiff or defendant to secure security, when security is ordered by the court, one dollar; for taking the defendant into custody on an order of arrest, execution, or commitment, two dollars and forty cents, serving a subpoena, twenty-five cents; for every levy actually made by virtue of an execution, one dollar; for serving a writ of possession or restitution, putting any person entitled into the possession of premises, and removing the tenant, when such powers can be exercised by a marshal, one dollar; and the same fees for travelling to serve the same as are herein allowed for serving a summons; for advertising for sale any property by virtue of any execution or attachment issued out of a district court, or by any justice thereof, one dollar; for every day necessarily employed in attending such sale, one dollar. The said marshals shall perform all other services required of them by law, without any fees or compensation whatever therefor, and no other fees, charges, or compensations shall be allowed to, demanded, or charged by any of the said marshals.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1710.

§ 355. Costs on order to prosecute marshal's bond.

Whenever an order shall be made pursuant to law, directing that the bond of a marshal be prosecuted in this court, the justice granting the motion and making the said order may award the aggrieved party his reasonable costs on said motion, not exceeding the sum of ten dollars, which shall be included in the judgment obtained upon such bond.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 1425.

§ 356. Fees in summary proceedings.

In summary proceedings to recover the possession of lands the fees of officers, except where a fee is specially given in chapter twenty-one of the code of civil procedure, must be at the rate allowed by law, in an action in this court, and are limited in like manner, unless the application is founded upon an allegation of forcible entry or forcible holding out; in which case the judge or justice may award to the successful party a fixed sum as costs, not exceeding fifty dollars, in addition to his disbursements. The final order awarding costs may be docketed, and an execution may be issued to collect the costs awarded thereby in like manner as if the final order was a judgment rendered in the court in which the judge or justice is presiding officer.

§ 360. [Am'd, 1907.] Definitions.

Words used in this act in the past or present tense include the future as well as the past or present; words used in the masculine gender include the feminine and neuter; the singular number includes the plural and the plural the singular; the word "person" includes a corporation as well as a natural person; writing includes printing, printed or typewritten matter; "oath" includes affirmation or declaration; "signature" or "subscription" includes "mark," when the person cannot write, his name being written near it. The following terms also named in this act have the signification attached to them in this section, unless otherwise apparent from the context:

1. The word "attorney" signifies an attorney of the supreme court of this state, duly licensed to practice as such.

2. The word "district" signifies a district of the municipal court.

3. The word "clerk" signifies the clerk, deputy clerk or assistant clerk.

4. The word "marshal" signifies any person authorized to perform the duties of a marshal.

5. The word "corporation" includes every association having any corporate rights, whether created by special acts of the legislature or under general laws.

§ 361. Saving clause.

The repeal of a law or any part of it specified in the annexed schedule, shall not affect or impair any act done or right accruing, accrued or acquired, or liability, forfeiture or penalty incurred prior to September first, nineteen hundred and two, under or by virtue of any law so repealed, but the same may be asserted, enforced, prosecuted or inflicted, as fully and to the same extent as if such law had not been repealed; nor shall this act create a vacancy in any office or employment. All actions and proceedings commenced under or by virtue of the laws so repealed and pending on September first, nineteen hundred and two, may be prosecuted in the same manner and with the same effect as they might under laws then existing, unless it shall be otherwise specially provided. Nothing in this act contained, shall be construed as affecting any existing provision of law so far as provisions apply to any portion of the state, other than the city of New York.

L. 1882, ch. 410, § 218

MUNICIPAL COURT ACT.

§ 362. Construction.

The provisions of this act, so far as they are substantially the same as those of laws existing prior to September first, nineteen hundred and two, shall be construed as a continuation of such laws, modified or amended, according to the language employed in this act, and not as a new enactment; a reference in laws so repealed, to provisions of law incorporated into this act and repealed, shall be construed as applying to the provisions so incorporated. Where, in the charter, as amended in nineteen hundred and one, the term "hereinafter prescribed" or words equivalent thereto are used in sections relating to the municipal court, which are unrepealed, the reference shall be deemed to extend to this act.

§ 363. Sections of the code not applicable.

The provisions of sections thirty-two hundred and seven to thirty-two hundred and fourteen, inclusive, of the code of civil procedure, do not apply to actions or proceedings in this court, except as specially provided in this act.

§ 364. Laws repealed.

The laws or parts thereof, specified in the schedule hereto annexed and all acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, in force when this act takes effect, are hereby repealed.

§ 365. Act may be cited.

This act may be cited as the municipal court act of the city of New York.
